sale, as he may deem for the interest of the creditors, upon security being furnished to such trustee for the payment thereof, which shall be deemed sufficient and satisfactory to him.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that in case any default shall be made in the payment of the notes hereinbefore agreed to be given, by the parties of the first part, payable in six months, or in the payment of the notes so to be given by them, payable either in twelve or eighteen or twenty-four months, for a period of twenty days after they become due, the said trustee shall thereupon have the right and authority to foreclose said mortgage or mortgages as he shall deem requisite to pay in full the amount of such notes as shall then be due, and apply the net proceeds therefrom, after paying necessary costs and expenses of foreclosure, to such payment.

And the said parties of the first part, and each of said parties for himself, agree, that they will use their best efforts in carrying on their business, and in handling and disposing of the assets of said firm and of their individual property, to pay to each of said creditors the full amount of said fifty per cent. of his indebtedness as hereinbefore provided.

The said parties of the first part agree to pay the remaining fifty per cent. of said indebtedness in manner following, viz.:

To transfer to said trustee above named _____ shares of the stock of the _____ Company, of the par value of _____ dollars, which is now held and owned by said A. B. and C. D., or their assignee, and to procure new certificates therefor to be issued to said trustee, who shall have the right to vote thereon as owner at corporate meetings; the same and all dividends thereon to be held by said trustee until _____ years from the time of the execution of this agreement by all the creditors; provided, however, that in case the parties of the first part shall pay such remaining fifty per cent. of their legal indebtedness to the several creditors, parties of the second part, at any time within the said _____ years, or at the expiration thereof, with interest at _____ per cent., said trustee shall retransfer such stock to the parties of the first part from whom he had received the transfers thereof, but if such payment shall not be made by the parties of the first part within said _____ years, then the trustee, at the expiration of such _____ years, shall either divide the stock and accrued dividends pro rata among the creditors, or, as he may deem best for all the interests of all the creditors, sell and dispose of all said stock and divide the proceeds and any dividends thereon among said creditors in proportion to the respective amounts due them.

AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED by the creditors, parties of the second part, and each of them, that the payment by the parties of the first part of their notes for six, twelve, eighteen and twenty-four months for fifty per cent. of the amount of their debts as first above provided, without interest, and the payment of the remaining fifty per cent. of such debts within said two years, with five per cent. interest thereon, or in default of such last-mentioned payment within said two years, the said stock so transferred to and held by such trustee, shall be in full payment and satisfaction of the debts and claims of each of the creditors of said firms and individuals, parties of the first part.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that in all cases in which there are persons who are liable as sureties or as guarantors for the payment of any of the indebtedness of the parties of the first part, or for or upon any promissory notes or other paper representing any such indebtedness, such sureties, or any of them, shall not be released by the provisions of this agreement, or their liability as such sureties in any way discharged or affected by the provisions of this agreement; it being the intent hereof to reserve all rights and remedies against any and all sureties or guarantors for or upon any such indebtedness, as though this agreement had not been made; and to the end that any creditors may enforce all their rights and remedies against any such sureties or guarantors, it is agreed that any and all notes or other paper representing any of such indebtedness secured by a surety or guarantor, as aforesaid, may, at the option of such creditor, be retained by him until he shall have enforced or exhausted his remedies thereon against any such surety or guarantor; and in the meantime the notes to be executed by the parties of the first part for fifty per cent. of the indebtedness, so secured, shall be delivered to the trustee herein named, to be delivered by him to such creditor whenever he shall deliver up the notes or other evidences of such debt held by him.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that, if during the said two years any mortgage upon the property upon which a mortgage shall be executed to said trustee under this agreement, or upon any parcel thereof prior to the mortgage or mortgages so to be executed to such trustee, shall be foreclosed, and during the pendency of such foreclosure and before a sale thereunder the said trustee shall receive or have in his hands any funds of the creditors received by him pursuant to this agreement, he may use and apply the same, or a part thereof, for the protection of the interests of the creditors in the property upon which such foreclosure is being made, according to his best judgment and discretion, and shall give notice to all the creditors, through the mail, of his determination in respect to such application of funds as soon as such determination is reached.

The trustee herein named shall have such powers as are necessary to perform and accomplish the duties and the trusts expressly committed to him by this agreement; and he shall make and render, at least every quarter, an itemized statement to all the creditors of the moneys received and expended by him, and of the work performed by him, as such trustee; and shall be entitled to receive compensation for his services as such trustee, the amount thereof to be fixed by the advisory committee hereinafter named.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that upon the transfer to said trustee, as hereinbefore provided, of the stock of said parties of the first part in the _____ Company, said trustee shall issue to each of the creditors a certificate showing the amount of the stock so held by him, the use for which it is so held, and the interest of such creditor therein, as nearly as he can ascertain the same; which certificate shall be assignable and transferable, upon condition that each assignee or transferee shall forthwith give notice of his interest therein to the trustee.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the parties of the first part, and each of them, and the parties of the second part, that in case of the death of either or any of the parties of the first part, the survivors of said parties of the first part shall have full power and authority to fully execute, and shall fully execute the terms of this agreement, and shall have the right to continue to carry on, according to their best judgment, the business of said firms of A. B. & Co., or either of them, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this agreement according to the intent and purpose thereof; and that the heirs, personal representatives, and assigns of each and all the parties hereto are bound by this agreement.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that upon this agreement being duly executed by all the creditors, except the preferred creditors, named in the assignment, and those who are secured otherwise, the said assignees shall be at liberty to re-assign and reconvey to said firms, or the persons composing said firms, any and all property assigned in and by said general assignments, without any further liability to or to account to said creditors, or any of them, by reason of any matter growing out of said assignments, or anything done thereunder by order of any court or otherwise, in case the said assignees shall duly re-assign and reconvey all the property which has been assigned to them by such general assignments, and shall deliver such assigned property to their said assignors, parties of the first part, less their proper fees, expenses, and other disbursements, and less such assets and amounts as they have disposed of, paid and incurred, or become liable for, in and about the due and proper execution of said trusts prior to the transfer and delivery to be so made by them, and to be duly accounted for by them.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD, that this agreement shall become binding and take effect only when all the creditors preferred in said general assignments, and all creditors who are otherwise secured, shall execute, in due form, an agreement or agreements consenting that all said assigned property be re-assigned or reconveyed to the assignors, parties of the first part hereto, as above set forth.

The following-named persons are hereby appointed an advisory committee, viz.:

to confer and advise with the said trustee in respect to all matters relating to his duties as trustee concerning which he may request such conference and advice, and to make such investigation in respect to all matters connected with the carrying out of this agreement, and to make such report from time to time in respect thereto to the several parties hereto, as such committee may deem advisable, and to audit any bills for expenses for counsel or clerk hire that may be incurred or paid by said trustee in the performance of his duties, and any such sums so audited and approved by such committee, and the compensation of such trustee, and the expenses of such committee shall be paid by said parties of the first part, and the same shall be deducted pro rata from the next succeeding payment under this agreement, unless funds shall come to his hands from foreclosures or otherwise, in which case he may retain such expenses therefrom; and in case of death or disability of such trustee, said advisory committee shall have authority to appoint another person trustee in his place.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and , BY AND BETWEEN J. W., of the city of , in the county of , and state of , and L. P. W., of the same place, parties of the first part, and B. H. H., of the said city of , party of the second part, and the other parties whose names are hereunto subscribed, and who are respectively creditors of said parties of the first part, in or about the amounts set opposite their respective names, and who, by signing this instrument, severally become parties thereto, parties of the third part, WITNESSETH:

(1) WHEREAS, the said W. and W. have heretofore been, and now are copartners in business, under the firm name and style of "W., W. & Co.;" and as such have hitherto carried on the business of sugar refiners, at their refinery, at the corner of and streets, in the said city of , having also their counting room and place of business at No. , street, in the city of New York; and,

(2) WHEREAS, the said firm has become, and is indebted to the several persons whose names are hereunto affixed as parties of the third part, in or about the amounts set opposite to their respective signatures hereunto; and,

(3) WHEREAS, the said W. and W., by reason of losses and misfortunes in business, have become and are unable to pay in full all their indebtedness to their creditors, and have disclosed to them their situation in business, with a statement of their assets and liabilities, and have offered and proposed to transfer, assign, set, and deliver over to their said creditors, or to such person as their said creditors might select and appoint, their assets, property, estate, and effects, as is hereinafter more particularly set forth, for the purpose of being converted into money and applied in equal shares and proportions to the payment of all the just debts and liabilities of the said parties of the third part hereunto, upon the condition, however, that, upon the making and delivery of such transfer and assignment as aforesaid, they, the said W. and W., should be released and discharged from all their debts, liabilities, and obligations to the said parties of the third part hereunto; and,

(4) WHEREAS, the said parties of the third part hereunto, such creditors as aforesaid of the said W. and W., have accepted the said offer and proposition of the said W. and W., and have thereupon selected the said B. H. H., the party hereto of the second part, as the assignee and trustee, to receive such assets and property of said firm, and convert the same into money, and distribute the same ratably among the said parties of the third part hereunto; and,

(5) WHEREAS, the said W. and W. were, at the time of their failure in business as aforesaid, and still are indebted upon certain trust and guardian accounts owing by them, as follows, viz.:

(7) AND WHEREAS, it has been, and is agreed by and between all the parties to this instrument that the said assets and liabilities of the said W. and W., connected with the said trust and guardian accounts, mentioned and set forth in paragraphs numbers 5 and 6, above, shall not be in any manner taken into account, referred to or provided for in, by or under this instrument, and that the said assets in said paragraph number 6 mentioned, should not be assigned or transferred hereby, but should continue to be held by said W. and W., for the purpose of providing for the said liabilities upon the said trust and guardian accounts in said paragraph number 5 mentioned, and that such trust and guardian accounts should not be in any manner discharged, affected, or impaired by reason or in consequence of the making of this instrument, but that, after applying such assets to the payment of such liabilities as aforesaid, so far as the same will apply, the balance of the said liabilities should be left to be hereafter satisfied and discharged by the said W. and W., and should remain a debt against them for that purpose;

(8) NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of the sum of one dollar to said parties of the first part in hand paid by said party of the second part, at or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents (the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged), and for the purpose of carrying into full and complete effect the arrangement and agreement so as aforesaid made and entered into between the said parties of the first and third parts hereto, they, the said parties of the first part, HAVE granted, bargained, aliened, remised, released, conveyed, confirmed, sold, assigned, transferred, and set and delivered over, and by these presents, do grant, bargain, alien, remise, release, convey, confirm, sell, assign, transfer, and set and deliver over unto the said party of the second part, ALL AND SINGULAR the lands, tenements, hereditaments, fixtures, engines, machinery, implements, utensils, leases, and leasehold interests, goods, chattels, wares, merchandise, stock in trade, personal property, moneys on deposit in bank, or due or owing to them from any person or persons whomsoever and howsoever evidenced, and all other, the property, estate, assets, and effects, real or personal, whatsoever and wheresoever, of them, the said parties of the first part, or either of them, as members of the said copartnership firm as aforesaid, or as individuals, including all policies of insurance against loss by fire upon any of the said property, but not including or hereby passing or transferring any policy of insurance on the life of either of said parties of the first part: Saving and excepting the said claims and demands so due and owing to them, the said W. and W. upon the said trust and guardian accounts, as specified in said paragraph number 6. And also saving and excepting such household furniture and other personal property as is by law exempt from levy and sale upon execution. (It being, however, understood, provided, and agreed that the schedule hereunto annexed and made part hereof, and marked "Schedule A," is intended to be a schedule and inventory, as nearly full and complete as may be, of all the property, assets, and effects, real and personal, of the said firm of W., W. & Co., which are intended to pass under this assignment, and also that for the more convenient transfer of the legal title in fee of the said lands and real estate, three deeds, bearing even date herewith, have been made, executed, and delivered by the said J. W. and E., his wife, and the said L. P. W., and Mary, his wife, and one deed by the said J. W., and his said wife, to the said B. H. H., conveying to him all the real estate and landed property mentioned and referred to in the said inventory "Schedule A," released and freed from all dower rights and interests of the said wives of said parties of the first part.)

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said property, real and personal, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns forever:

(9) IN TRUST, nevertheless, and upon the special confidence, trust, proviso, and condition, that the said party of the second part hereunto shall immediately on the execution and delivery to him of this instrument, and of the said four deeds of conveyance, enter into and upon and take possession of all the said lands and real estate, and shall reduce to his possession all the personal property, assets, and effects of every nature and description so transferred and assigned to him as aforesaid, and shall thereupon sell and dispose of all said property, real and personal, assets and effects, as early as may be, and convert the same into money, and shall thereupon, after the payment of the legal and necessary expenses of carrying the said trust into effect, pay and apply all the residue and remainder of the proceeds of all the said property ratably and in equal proportions to the payment and satisfaction of the debts so due or owing as aforesaid to all the creditors of the said parties of the first part hereunto who shall become parties to and shall sign and accept this indenture; and said party of the second part shall pay in full all such debts so due or owing as aforesaid to the said parties of the third part, or any of them, if the said proceeds of the said property, real and personal, assets and effects, shall be sufficient therefor; and, after such payment, he shall return the surplus, if any, unto the said parties of the first part, their executors, administrators, or assigns. But in case the said proceeds shall not be sufficient to pay and satisfy in full all such debts and demands of the said creditors of the said parties of the first part, who shall sign and become parties to this instrument, then the said proceeds shall be applied in equal proportions to the payment of the said debts and liabilities so due and owing to the said parties of the third part.

(10) IT BEING HOWEVER EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD, PROVIDED, AND AGREED that the said parties of the first part do not hereby undertake, and are not required to assign, and do not assign, transfer, or set or deliver over any of the said liabilities connected with the said trust and guardian accounts hereinbefore in said paragraph number 6 specified, and that none of the creditors of the said parties of the first part upon the said trust and guardian account, hereinbefore in said paragraph number 5 specified, is required to become party to this instrument, or to give, grant, or make any release or discharge to the said parties of the first part, or either of them, from such liabilities as are mentioned in said paragraph number 5.

(11) IT IS HEREBY FURTHER UNOERSTOOD, PROVIDED, AND AGREED, and the said several and respective parties of the third part herenunto as such creditors of the said firm of W., W. & Co., acting and agreeing severally and respectively for himself and themselves, and not the one for the other, do hereby severally covenant, promise, and agree that they, the said several and respective creditors, do hereby accept such transfer and assignment as aforesaid by this instrument and by the said four deeds of conveyance for the said lands and premises hereinbefore mentioned to the said B. H. H., as a full accord, satisfaction, payment, and discharge, so far as they, the said J. W. and L. P. W., are concerned, of the several and respective debts, claims, and demands of said several and respective creditors against them, the said W. and W., as a firm, or as individuals, and do hereby agree to look for the satisfaction of their said several and respective claims and demands against the said firm of W., W. & Co., to the property, assets, and effects so as aforesaid transferred, assigned, conveyed, and set over to the said trustee; and, upon the due execution and delivery of this instrument of assignment and the said four deeds of conveyance, and upon the due delivery, transfer, and setting over of the said assets, property, and effects to the said party of the second part, the said several and respective creditors of the said W., W. & Co., so signing this instrument and becoming parties hereto, do severally and respectively, and each for himself or themselves, and not the one for the other, forever remise, release, acquit, and discharge them, the said J. W. and L. P. W., and each of them, their, and each of their executors and administrators, and also all their future or hereafter acquired earnings, property, estate, and effects, of and from all claims, demands, debts, liabilities, and cause or causes of action whatsoever, which at the time of such execution and delivery of this indenture, and the said four deeds of conveyance, shall or may be due or owing from them, the said parties of the first part, or either of them, unto any of the parties hereto of the third part, by reason of any matter, fact, or thing whatsoever from the beginning of the world to the day of the execution and delivery hereof.

(12) AND for and in consideration of the premises, and especially of the said conveyances and releases of dower as aforesaid, by them, the said Elizabeth W. and Mary W., the said parties of the third part herenunto, acting and agreeing severally and respectively for himself and themselves, and not the one for the other, do hereby severally further covenant, promise, and agree, to and with them, the said Elizabeth W. and Mary W., and also with their said husbands, the said J. W. and L. W., that such release and discharge of them, the said J. W. and L. P. W., as aforesaid, hereinbefore set forth and contained, shall on the terms and conditions aforesaid be full, complete, and effectual forever.

(13) AND the said party of the second part hereby accepts the trust, transfer, and assignment hereinbefore set forth and contained, and undertakes and agrees to carry the same into effect, in the manner and upon the terms and conditions aforesaid, and to apply the proceeds of all such property, estate, and effects in the manner hereinbefore specified and set forth.

(14) AND the said several and respective creditors of the said firm of W.,

W. & Co. hereby assent to such transfer and assignment as aforesaid, and agree to the accord and satisfaction, release, and discharge aforesaid. It being, however, expressly understood, provided, and agreed by all the parties hereunto, that this instrument of assignment, and the said four deeds of conveyance hereinbefore mentioned, shall not take effect or become in any manner binding upon the said parties of the first and second parts hereunto, unless and until, and upon the express condition that all the creditors of the said firm of W., W. & Co. (save and except only the said creditors of the said W., W. & Co., upon the said trust and guardian accounts hereinbefore expressly mentioned and specified in said paragraph number 5), shall sign, seal, execute, and deliver, and thereby duly become parties to this instrument, and accept of the trusts and provisions hereinbefore created, and shall so give to the said W. and W., the release, discharge, and satisfaction and accord hereinbefore set forth and contained.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties of the first and second parts have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written; and the said several creditors of the said W., W. & Co. have also on the same day hereunto respectively set their hands and seals, and have also respectively set opposite thereto the amounts, as nearly as may be, of their several and respective claims, debts, and demands against the said W., W. & Co. It being, however, understood, provided, and agreed that any error in the specification of the amount of any such debt, demand, or claim against the said W., W. & Co., shall not thereby invalidate such release and discharge as aforesaid, but that all the claims and demands against the said W. and W., or either of them, of any of the creditors entering into and becoming parties to this instrument shall be released and discharged in the manner and upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore set forth. This instrument being executed in triplicate.

774. Minute of Creditors' Meeting Agreeing on a Composition.

At a meeting of the creditors of Y. Z., of , merchant, held on the day of , 19 , at , it is agreed as follows: that is to say, we, the creditors of the said Y. Z., whose names are hereunder written, severally agree for ourselves, and for our respective executors, administrators, partners, and assigns, to and with each other, and to and with the said Y. Z., his executors and administrators, to accept and receive the sum of cents on the dollar for all that he owes to us, the same to be in full satisfaction of the debts or sums severally due to us from him, provided that the said sum of cents for every dollar be paid severally unto us, or to our respective partners, executors, administrators, or assigns, within the space of days from the day of the date hereof; and in default thereof, this agreement, and everything herein contained, shall be void and of none effect towards him and them of us, to whom any such default of payment shall happen to be made.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 637].

CHAPTER XXIII.

DEEDS.

The word "deed," in its broadest signification, imports any instrument in writing, signed, sealed, and delivered, as the act of the person making it. The term is more commonly used, of conveyances of land, in contradistinction to bonds, mortgages, leases, powers of attorney, etc.; and accordingly, in this work, such other instruments form the subjects of separate chapters.

Deeds are sometimes divided into two kinds, viz., A deed poll, which is the deed of the grantor alone, and a deed indented, which is the mutual deed of both parties, or where both parties join. This distinction, however, has been largely done away with. See note to Form 775, post.

Throughout the United States, the form of conveyance is usually what is known in English conveyancing as the bargain and sale deed. Such an instrument, in its orderly form, states that the one party, naming him, in consideration of a specified sum of money, the receipt of which is acknowledged, grants, bargains, and sells to the other party, naming him, certain described premises, with such appurtenances, upon such conditions, or subject to such reservations, as may be expressed; to be held by the grantee for life, or by him and his heirs and assigns forever, or upon trust, etc., or otherwise, according to the estate intended to be conveyed. Then follow such covenants respecting the title to the property or the use of it, as the parties agree upon; and in witness of the whole, the grantor, and sometimes the grantee also, signs the instrument.

The first requisite of a valid deed is, that there be competent parties to contract, and that they be sufficiently designated in the instrument. If the parties upon either side are copartners, their designation and signature should be by their individual names, not by the firm name.

Secondly. There should, in order to sustain a deed as against creditors and subsequent purchasers, be a consideration, and it is advisable that the consideration be expressed. Where there is no actual consideration, it is usual to insert a nominal one, commonly one dollar.

Thirdly. The conveyance must be reduced to writing upon paper or parchment. The first part of the instrument,— which states the names of the parties, the consideration, the transfer, and the property transferred,— is termed the premises. The habendum, which usually follows, declaring what estate the grantee is to have, is a mere form, which has no efficacy if the premises indicate the estate intended to be vested. The usual covenants as to title are: that the grantor is lawfully seized; that he has good right to convey; that the land is free from incumbrances; that the grantee shall quietly enjoy; and that the grantor will warrant and defend the title against all lawful claims.

Lastly, to make the deed operative, it must be duly executed and delivered; and by the law of some states, attestation by witnesses, acknowledgment by the grantor, or proof by the witnesses, and record, are also essential.

The due execution of a deed requires the signature of the grantor, which may be made by his own hand, or by the hand of another, writing his name in his presence and by his direction, or by the hand of an agent empowered by deed. To the signature, a seal must be affixed in some of the states. In the absence of any regulation to the contrary, the seal must be an impression made upon wax, or a wafer affixed to the paper. In some of the states, however, the word "seal," or a printed or written scroll in imitation of a seal, is sufficient. In others, chiefly western and southern states, the use of the seals is wholly dispensed with. For the requirements of the statutes of the several states, in relation to seals, scrolls, etc., see the chapter on ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND PROOF OF DEEDS.

Where there are several signatures, it is best to affix a seal for each; but one will suffice for all, if the intention to use it so is made apparent.

If actual seals are affixed to the instrument, words in the conclusion indicating that the parties have affixed their seals are not necessary though it is usual always to insert them. In some of the states, the sufficiency of a scroll as a seal depends on whether such words are inserted.

The seals are usually affixed by the conveyancer in preparing the instrument. If the paper is sent away for execution, it is a convenient practice to mark on it, in pencil, the proper places for the respective signatures, and the number of witnesses required.

If the grantor is an illiterate person, or in any case, if he requests it, the deed must be read over to him before its execution; and all blanks should be filled before execution, and any material erasures or interlineations should be noted at the foot, just above the signatures of the attesting witnesses.

After an attestation and acknowledgment as required by law, the parties have not power, even by consent, to make alterations in any material point without attesting and acknowledging anew.

The delivery of a deed is essential to make it operative; and in general a deed will not take effect, so as to vest the estate or interest intended to be conveyed, except from the time of its delivery. In this respect, the date, which is not in itself an essential part of a deed, is unimportant. Delivery and an acceptance by the grantee are, however, presumed from slight circumstances. A declaration made by the grantor, in the presence of the witnesses, upon executing a deed, that he does deliver it, though he retains possession at the time, will be sufficient to throw the burden of disproving the delivery upon the party disputing it. If the delivery is intended to be conditional, so as not to take effect immediately, it must be made to some other person than the grantee or his agent.

It is the practice of the most careful conveyancers to cause the grantor, on executing the deed, to declare in words, in the presence of the witnesses, that he executes and delivers it as his act and deed. Such a formula, though not essential, is a convenient way of preventing controversy as to the fact of delivery.

Attestation by witnesses is not essential to constitute a deed at common law, and when not required by the terms of a power under which a deed is made, or by statute, a deed is valid without attesting witnesses. Some of the states, however, have adopted the rule that to render a deed valid against others than the grantor and his heirs, it must be attested by one or more witnesses, unless it is acknowledged by the grantor; and as the attestation of witnesses affords such an easy and effectual mode of proof, enabling the grantee to supply the want of a sufficient acknowledgment, and adds greatly to the credit of a deed, prudence requires that every deed be so attested.

Persons who are disinterested and competent should be selected as witnesses. It is generally understood that a subscribing witness is one who was present when the instrument was executed, and who at that time subscribed his name to it as a witness. He need not, however, be present at the moment of the transaction. If he is called in by the parties immediately afterwards, and upon being told by the grantor that it is his act, and requested to subscribe as witness, he then does so, it is a sufficient attestation, the whole being regarded as one transaction.

The witnesses should in general attest the delivery as well as the execution. In some of the states, however, it will be observed that the statute speaks only of attesting the signing and sealing.

Where a deed is delivered in escrow, a written memorandum of the conditions inserted in the witnesses' attestation may be a convenient method of preserving evidence of the fact; but such a memorandum is not essential.

Acknowledgment.—The formalities above stated will, as a general rule, complete the transfer according to the tenor of the instrument, so far as concerns the immediate parties to the instrument and their heirs. But in order to protect fully the rights of others, registry is necessary, and a preliminary condition to the registry of a deed is its due acknowledgment or proof before the proper officer. It is to be added, also, that by the law of some of the states, a deed by a married woman is without any validity until it has been acknowledged by her in person before such officer. The subject of ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND PROOF OF DEEDS forms a separate chapter, where the rules on this point adopted in the several states are indicated.

It is the duty of the grantor, or person who has contracted to give the deed, to procure the due acknowledgment or proof of its execution, and such incidental certificates as may be necessary to entitle the deed to be put on record at once.

In the following pages are given a copious collection of forms conformable to the methods of conveyancing used in the state of New York and the numerous states in which the same forms are in vogue. These are adapted to a great variety of cases involving peculiar parties, considerations, property, estates, and conditions. These, although more prolix than is agreeable to the practice of some other states, are, in general, valid and sufficient in all the states and territories. With due attention to the directions given for the execution of deeds for particular states, and, in case of statutory conveyances, to the provisions of the acts under which the conveyance is made, these may be safely used as sufficient, in matter of form, for lands in any jurisdiction within the Union, in the cases to which they are respectively adapted.

Following these is given a very full digest of the real estate of the several states and territories, including, Alaska, the Philippines and Porto Rico. Statutory forms of deeds are given when such forms are provided for in the law. These short forms are not in common use, but longer forms of much the same general type are used in the various states. Such forms are given after the digest of the statutory provisions. In large measure they follow the older and general forms which are given below under subdivisions I, II, III, IV and V.

I. FORMS GENERALLY APPLICABLE.

These forms, though chiefly based on the former law and practice of the state of New York, are appropriate to the practice in many other states; and are, it is believed, valid and sufficient forms in all of the states for the cases to which they are adapted.

Most of the states in which peculiar forms are in vogue are noticed in alphabetic order above.

775. Formal Indenture.¹

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of , in the county of , and state of , merchant, and Y. Z., of , in the said county, farmer, parties of the first part and the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the city of , parties of the second part. WITNESSETH [here will follow the provisions of the instrument, concluding thus:]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, to one part of these presents, remaining with the said parties of the first part, the said parties of the second part have affixed their hands and seals; and to the other part thereof, remaining with the said par-

In modern conveyancing, indenting is unnecessary; and with us the term indenture does not imply anything more than that the instrument (being of course under seal) is not a mere grant, but contains matter intended to bind both parties. Indeed, the word is often used in the heading of a mere grant, which formerly would have been called a deed-poll. And where an indenture for the conveyance of land is executed by both parties to it, it is usual to make out one instrument, and to deliver it to the grantee; for the practice of recording deeds leads to dispensing with a counterpart. It is only where two copies are made, one to be signed by each party, and interchangeably delivered, that the above form is used.

Where a deed is thus interchangeably executed, each part is the deed of both. Dudley v. Sumner, 5 Mass. 438. (See also witness, claim of, Form —.)

ties of the second part, the said parties of the first part have caused the common seal of the said city of _____ to be affixed the day and year first above written. [Signatures, etc., accordingly.]

Signed, sealed, and delivered in presence of

776. Deed-Poll.¹

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, A. B., OF _____, AND C. D., of _____, SEND GREETING:

KNOW YE, that the said A. B. and C. D. [here will follow the provisions of the instrument, concluding thus:]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this day of _____, 19 ____ . [Signatures and seals of the grantors.]

Signed, sealed, and delivered in the presence of

777. Short Form of Deed in Fee.²

I, A. B., in consideration of one dollar to me paid by C. D., do bargain and sell [or, in New York, grant] to C. D., and his heirs [in certain states, the words and his heirs may be omitted]³ the lot of land [describe it].

WITNESS my hand and seal, etc.

778. Quitclaim Deed.⁴

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, A. B., of the city of _____, in the county of _____, and state of _____, farmer [or, we, A. B., of, etc., as above, and C. B., his wife], in consideration of _____ dollars to me [or, us] paid by Y. Z., of _____, merchant, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have remised, released, and forever quitclaimed, and by these presents do, for myself, my [or, ourselves, our] heirs, executors, and administrators, remise, release, and forever quitclaim unto the said Y. Z., his heirs and assigns forever, all such right, title, interest [dower and right of dower], property, possession, claim, or demand as I [or, as we, or either of us] have or ought to have,

⁴ The quitclaim deed is generally used where the grantor desires to incur no responsibility as to the title.

It was formerly the rule, that an instrument by which one merely released or quitclaimed to another could pass nothing unless the latter was actually or constructively in possession; but the generally received American rule is, that the words "remise, release, and quitclaim," or indeed any equivalent words, such as "release and assign," "make over and confirm," and the like, are sufficient to raise a use or trust for the bargainee, and amount to a sufficient conveyance, if there is a pecuniary consideration. Beddoe v. Wadsworth, 21 Wend. 120; Lynch v. Livingston, 6 N. Y. (2 Seld.) 422; Pray v. Pierce, 7 Mass. 381; Russell v. Coffin, 8 Pick. 143.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said premises unto the said Y. Z., his heirs and assigns, to his and their only proper use and behoof forever; so that neither I, the said A. B., or any other person in my name and behalf [or, we, the said A. B. and C. B., or either of us, or any other person in our or either of our names and behalf] shall or will hereafter claim or demand any right or title to the premises, or any part thereof; but they, and every of them, shall by these presents be excluded and forever barred.

780. Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of the city of , and state of , merchant [and C. B. his wife], of the first part, and Y. Z., of , in said county, farmer of the second part, witnesseth: That the said party [or, parties] of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to him [or, them] in hand paid by the said party of the second part, at or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has [or, have] granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, conveyed, and confirmed, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, convey, and confirm, unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs [or, if a corporation, its successors] and assigns forever, all [here insert description of the premises], together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining; and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest [dower and right of dower],¹ property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, both in law and in equity, of the said party [or, parties] of the first part, of, in, and to the above-granted premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances. To HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the above-granted premises, together with the appurtenances and every part thereof, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever.*

AND THE SAID A. B. [not naming the wife], for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, does hereby covenant, promise, and agree to and with the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, that he has not made, done, committed, executed, or suffered any act or acts, thing or things whatsoever, whereby or by means whereof, the above-mentioned and described premises, or any part or parcel thereof, now are, or at any time hereafter shall or may be, impeached, charged, or incumbered, in any manner or way whatsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said party [or, parties] of the first part has [or, have] hereunto set his hand and seal [or, their hands and seals], the day and year first above written. [Signatures and seals.]

² The warranty in this form is called the general warranty, being against the acts of all persons. A contract to give a warranty deed calls for a general warranty, unless otherwise expressed; though this rule does not obtain in Pennsylvania, where such a contract is satisfied by a special warranty — i. e., against the vendor's acts. For a form of which, see Form No. 723.

all [here insert description], together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining; and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest [dower and right of dower]¹ property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, both in law and in equity, of the said party [or, parties] of the first part, of, in, and to the above-granted premises and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the above-mentioned and described premises, with the appurtenances and every part thereof, to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever.* And the said A. B. and his heirs, the above-described and hereby granted and released premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, against the said party [or, parties] of the first part, and his [or, their] heirs, and against all and every person or persons whomsoever, lawfully claiming or to claim the same or any part thereof, shall and will warrant and by these presents forever defend.²

782. Special Warranty.³

[*As in the preceding form, or as in Form 721, substituting in place of the paragraph following the , this clause:] And the said A. B. and his heirs, the above-described and hereby granted and released premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, against the said party of the first part, and his heirs, and against all and every person and persons whomsoever, lawfully claiming or to claim the same, or any part thereof, by, from, or under him, them, or any of them, shall and will warrant, and, by these presents, forever defend.

IN WITNESS [etc., concluding as in preceding form].

to the title, not to the land itself, and it does not estop the grantor to set up a title subsequently acquired. Comstock v. Smith, 13 Pick. 116. But Loomis v. Bedel, 11 N. H. 74, is to the contrary. Compare Frink v. Darst, 14 Ill. 304; Miller v. Ewing, 6 Cush. 34. It was held in Loomis v. Bedel, 11 N. H. 74, that a covenant to warrant and defend the premises, refers to the lands described, and not merely to "the right, title and interest of the grantor," even where the deed only purports to convey that right. Comstock v. Smith, 13 Pick. 116, holds the contrary where the warranty is special. But such covenant extends only to lands and tenements — that is, to what is permanent and immovable — and does not include water or easements. Mitchel v. Warner, 5 Conn. 497.

783. Warranty Deed, with Full Covenants.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of , in the county of , and state of , farmer [and C. B., his wife], party of the first part, and Y. Z., of the same place, merchant, party of the second part, WITNESSETH: That the said party [or, parties] of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of dollars, lawful money of the United States, to him [or, them] paid by the said party of the second part, at or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, and administrators forever released and discharged from the same by these presents, has [or, have] granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, conveyed, and confirmed, and, by these presents, does [or, do] grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, convey, and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs and assigns forever, all [here insert description]; together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest [dower and right of dower],¹ property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, both in law and in equity, of the said party [or, parties] of the first part, of, in, and to the above-granted premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the above-granted premises, together with the appurtenances and every part thereof, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever. AND THE SAID A. B. [not naming the wife], for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, does hereby covenant, promise, and agree to and with the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, that the said A. B., at the time of the sealing and delivery of these presents, is lawfully seized in his own right [or otherwise, as the case may be], of a good, absolute, and indefeasible estate of inheritance, in fee simple, of and in all and singular the above-granted and described premises, with the appurtenances [if conveyed subject to incumbrance, say, subject as aforesaid]; and has good right, full power, and lawful authority to grant, bargain, sell, and convey the same, in manner aforesaid. And that the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, shall and may at all times hereafter, peaceably and quietly have, hold, use, occupy, possess, and enjoy the above-granted premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, without any let, suit, trouble, molestation, eviction, or disturbance of the said party [or, parties] of the first part, his [or, their] heirs or assigns, or of any other person or persons lawfully claiming or to claim the same; * and that the same now are free, clear, discharged, and unincumbered of and from all former and other grants, title, charges, estates, judgments, taxes, assessments, and incumbrances, of what nature or kind soever * [if conveyed, subject to an incumbrance, say, except as aforesaid].²

784. Deed with Covenant by Grantee against Certain Kinds of Building and Occupation, and against Nuisances.¹

[As in other full forms to the habendum, thence as follows:] TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above-mentioned and described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever, subject, nevertheless, to the covenants, conditions, and restrictions hereinafter expressed. And the said party of the second part, for himself, his heirs and assigns, doth covenant and agree to and with the said A. B., his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, as follows — that is to say, that the party of the second part, his heirs or assigns, shall not, at any time hereafter, erect, or cause or procure, permit, or suffer to be erected upon the hereby granted premises, or any part thereof, any building other than a building of brick or stone, with a roof covered with slate, tin, zinc, or other metal; nor at any time hereafter erect, or cause, procure, permit, or suffer to be erected, upon the rear of the lot or lots hereby conveyed, or any of them, any building to be used or occupied, or for the purpose of being used or occupied, as a dwelling-house or habitation; nor at any time hereafter erect, or cause or procure, permit, or suffer to be erected, upon the premises hereby conveyed, or any part thereof, any building to be used or occupied, or for the purpose of being used or occupied, for any of the purposes herein and hereby prohibited; nor at any time use or employ, or cause, procure, permit, or suffer to be used or employed, by his heirs or grantees, lessees or tenants, of said premises, or any part thereof, or by any other person holding possession of said premises, or any part thereof, under his title, any building erected, or which may at any time hereafter be erected, on said premises or any part thereof, for the use or purpose of, or as, a brewery, distillery, slaughter-house, smithshop, carpenter shop, forge or furnace, steam-engine, brass foundry, nail or other iron foundry, soap, candle, starch, varnish, vitriol, glue, ink, turpentine or bone factory, or manufactory of gunpowder, or any bone-boiling establishment, or factory for tanning, dressing, or preparing skins, hides or leather, or cow stable or livery stable, or cattle-yard or hog-pen, or for any other dangerous, noxious, or offensive purpose or establishment whatsoever.

And that the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, shall not carry on, prosecute, conduct, use, or employ, or procure, cause, permit, or suffer to be carried on, prosecuted, conducted, used, or employed on said premises, or any part thereof, by his or their grantees, lessees, tenants, or by any person in possession of said premises, or any part thereof, any steam-engine, except for the purposes of heating said premises or running elevators thereon, or any of the said trades, business, machines, or employments above specified, or any other noxious, offensive, or dangerous trade, business, or employment.

And it is expressly understood and agreed, and this conveyance is made and accepted upon the express condition that if said premises, or any part thereof, or any building thereon erected or to be erected, or any part thereof, shall, at any time, be used, or procured, permitted, or suffered to be used by the said party of the second part, his heirs or assigns, or any lessees, tenants, or any persons in possession thereof, under him, them, or either of them, for any of the purposes above prohibited; or if any of the said machines, trades, business, or employments shall be employed, used, carried on, prosecuted, or conducted, or procured, permitted, or suffered to be employed, used, carried on, prosecuted, or conducted upon said premises, or any part thereof; or if said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, shall neglect, or fail to perform, fulfill, and keep the several covenants herein contained, or make any default in the performance or fulfillment of said covenants, or any or either of them, then and in either of such events it shall be lawful for the said A. B. and his heirs and assigns, and also for the owner or owners of any lot or lots adjoining, or in the neighborhood of the premises hereby conveyed, deriving title from or through the said A. B., and he or they, or any of them, are hereby authorized and empowered to re-enter into and upon said premises, or the particular lot or lots in respect to which such covenant or covenants may have been broken, or neglected or omitted to be performed, fulfilled and kept, and without notice evict all persons therefrom in possession thereof, and to tear down, remove therefrom, and sell such building or buildings so used or to be used or employed for the purposes herein and hereby prohibited or either of them; and also to tear down, remove therefrom, and sell all fixtures, utensils, and appurtenances used or intended to be used for the purpose of carrying on or conducting any or either of said trades, businesses, or employments, such sales to be made in manner and form as sales of personal property, levied on by virtue of an execution; and the proceeds thereof applied in payment of any expenses incurred in such tearing down, removal, and sale, and also in the payment of all damages sustained or occasioned by means of the breach of the covenant or covenants aforesaid, and the surplus, if any, to be returned to the owner or owners of the particular lot or lots aforesaid. And it is expressly understood and agreed, that the said several covenants on the part of the said party of the second part, above specified, shall attach to and run with the land, and it shall be lawful not only for the said A. B., his heirs and assigns, but also for the owner or owners of any lot or lots adjoining or in the neighborhood of the premises hereby granted, deriving title from or through said A. B., to institute and prosecute and proceeding at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or threatening to violate the same; it being understood, however, that this covenant is not to be enforced personally for damages against the said party of the second part, his heirs or assigns, unless he or they be the owner or owners of the said premises, or of some part thereof, at the time of a violation of the said covenant, or of a threatened or attempted violation thereof; but the said covenant may be proceeded on for an injunction and for a specific execution thereof, against the said party of the second part, his heirs or assigns, and for damages against the party or parties violating the said covenant, his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B. [naming the principal], of , merchant, of the first part, and Y. Z. [etc., proceeding as in case of a deed executed by the principal].

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said party of the first part [or, name the principal] has hereunto, by C. D., his attorney in fact, set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

A. B. [SEAL.]

By C. D., his Attorney, or his Attorney in fact.²

¹ It is the general rule, that it is indispensable, to give validity to a deed made by an attorney, that it should be made in the name of the principal. Coombe's Case, 9 Co. 76; Elwell v. Shaw, 16 Mass. 42; Spencer v. Field, 10 Wend. 87. It is not enough that it be in name of the agent describing him as such. This rule, however, is much relaxed in some of the states.

² It is not sufficient to declare in the frame of the conveyance, that it is the deed of the principal. The name of the principal must be signed. Fowler v. Shearer, 7 Mass. 14; Townsend v. Hubbard, 4 Hill, 351.

This is the appropriate form of signature. But it is not material whether the signature be "A. B. by C. D., his Attorney," or, "C. D. for A. B." Worrall v. Munn, 5 N. Y. (1 Seld.) 229

797. Deed by Survivors of the Acting Executors.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , in the year 19 , between A. B., of the county of , and C. B., of the county of , as executors, parties of the one part, and Y. Z., of the city of , of the other part:

WHEREAS, M. B., late of , deceased, did, by his last will and testament, give, bequeath, and devise to his executors therein named all of his estate, real and personal, not otherwise devised, upon trust, for the purposes therein expressed, with power unto them, or such of them as might qualify, and the survivors and survivor of them, to sell any part thereof which might be necessary, and to convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers: and the said testator, by his said last will and testament, gave to his said executors discretionary power and authority, in the case of real estate, to sell for cash, or upon such credit as they might deem most advisable, and conducive to the interest of his estate; taking good security from the purchasers, and also a lien on the said real estate, to secure the payment of the purchase money; and he, the said testator, did, by his said will and testament, constitute and appoint O. P. and his sons, A. B., C. B., and D. B., executors thereof; and,

WHEREAS, the said will (and a codicil thereafter written) were proved and admitted to record in the court of _____, at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, and, on the _____ day of _____, the said A. B., C. B., and D. B., three of the said executors, qualified as such, by performing what was necessary for obtaining a probate of the said will and codicil, and the said O. P. renounced the same; and,

WHEREAS, after undertaking the said executorship, the said D. B. departed this life, and the said A. B. and C. B. survived him, and by virtue of the power vested in them, as surviving executors of said will, they, the said A. B. and C. B., have bargained to sell to the said Y. Z. the lot or piece of ground hereinafter mentioned for the sum of _____ dollars, payable as follows — viz., dollars on the delivery of these presents, and the residue in three equal annual installments, carrying interest from the _____ day of _____, the punctual payment of the last-mentioned three sums of money to be secured by negotiable notes with approved indorsers, and a deed of trust on the property sold:

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said A. B. and C. B., as surviving executors of the last will and testament of the said testator, for and in consideration of the said sum of _____, paid and secured to be paid as aforesaid, and also in consideration of the sum of one dollar, to them in hand paid, have [etc., as in other forms].

802. Deed by Executor, Conveying by Order of Court Pursuant to Contract of Testator, Duly Proved and Recorded.¹

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , between A. B., of , surviving executor of the last will and testament of M. N., late of the same place, deceased, of the one part, and Y. Z., of , merchant, of the second part;

WHEREAS, the said M. N., by force and virtue of divers good conveyances and assurances, in the law duly had and executed, became in his lifetime lawfully seized in his demesne as of fee, of and in a certain [here describe the premises], with the appurtenances; and being so thereof seized, did, on or about the year , enter into a contract with a certain J. K., for the sale of a certain tract of land [part of the premises aforesaid] containing by computation about acres, be the same more or less, bounded [etc., describing it as in the agreement], for the sum of dollars per acre; part whereof, to wit: dollars were paid by the said J. K. to the said M. N., in his lifetime, etc. And the said Y. Z. doth allege, that by divers mesne conveyances and assurances in the law, the right and interest of the said J. K., of, in, and to the aforesaid tract of land, is now vested in him, the said Y. Z., subject to the payment of the residue of the purchase money aforesaid, with interest; and,

WHEREAS, the said M. N. did not comply with the said contract in his lifetime, nor was there any sufficient provision made by him for the performance thereof; and,

WHEREAS, agreeably to the provisions and directions contained in the act of general assembly of this commonwealth, passed the day of A. D. , entitled , the said Y. Z. did, on the day of cause and procure the said recited contract to be duly proved in the court of common pleas of the said county of , which proof was adjudged by the said court to be sufficient; and _____, Esq., prothonotary of the same court, on the same day and year, did annex the same to the said contract, and did certify the same under his hand and seal of the said court; and thereupon the same was, on the _____ day of _____ last past, recorded in the office for recording of deeds of the said county of _____, in book _____, page _____; and,

WHEREAS, the said A. B., as executor aforesaid, preferred his petition to the said court, praying leave to make and execute a deed of conveyance to the said Y. Z. and his heirs, for the said tract of land (which by a survey thereof lately made has been found to contain _____ acres, and is butted, bounded, and described as hereinafter mentioned), with the appurtenances, according to the true intent and meaning of the said contract; whereupon the said court, on the _____ day of _____ last past, having considered the prayer of the said petition, and the evidence of the contract aforesaid, ORDERED AND DECREED, that the said A. B., as executor aforesaid, should make and execute a deed to the said Y. Z. and his heirs, of the hereinafter described tract of land, agreeably to the terms of the said contract, as by the records of the said court, reference being thereunto had, more fully and at large appears.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said A. B., for and in consideration of the sum of _____ (being the balance of the purchase money and interest thereon), unto him in hand well and truly paid by the said Y. Z., at and before the enscaling and delivery hereof, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, aliened, released, and confirmed, and by these presents by virtue and in pursuance of the said decree, does grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, and confirm unto the said Y. Z., and to his heirs and assigns, all that aforesaid tract or piece of land, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning _____, etc. Together [etc., as in other deeds of conveyance without warranty].

803. Deed by an Administrator, Conveying by Order of Court, Pursuant to Contract of his Intestate.

THIS INDENTURE, made this _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and _____, between [name and residence of administrator], administrator of _____, late of the _____ of _____, deceased, party of the first part, and [name, etc., of grantee], of _____, party of the second part.

WHEREAS, the said M. N., before his death, and on or about the _____ day of _____, 19 _____, by a contract bearing date on that day, agreed to and with Y. Z., of _____, in the county and state of _____, farmer, to sell and convey unto him, his heirs and assigns forever, the premises hereinafter described, in consideration of the payment by said Y. Z. of the sum of _____ dollars, but said M. N. died intestate without performing said agreement; and,

WHEREAS, the justices of the _____ court, at their term holden at _____ on the _____ day of _____, did empower and license me to make and execute good and sufficient deed or deeds, to convey the said real estate of the said intestate.

NOW KNOW YE, that by virtue of the authority and license aforesaid, and in order to fulfil and perform all things in the above-mentioned contract or agreement, on the part of the said A. B. to be performed, and in consideration of the said sum of _____, to me paid by the said Y. Z., the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and in consideration that the said Y. Z. has performed and fulfilled all things in the above-recited contract or agreement on his part to be performed and fulfilled, I, the said A. B., administrator as aforesaid, do hereby grant, bargain, and sell to the said Y. Z., his heirs and assigns forever, the said, etc., with the appurtenances;

To HAVE AND TO HOLD the same to the said Y. Z., his heirs and assigns, to his and their use, forever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this _____ day of _____, 19 _____.

804. Deed by Administrators, for Purpose of Partition, after Valuation and Refusal by the Heirs.

THIS INDENTURE, made this _____ day of _____, one thousand nine hundred and _____, between A. B., of _____, and C. D., of _____, in the county of _____, and state of _____, administrators of the goods and chattels, rights, and credits, which were of M. N., late of _____, merchant, deceased, of the first part, and Y. Z., of _____, in said county, of the second part:

WHEREAS, the said M. N., in his lifetime, and at the time of his death, was lawfully seized in his demesne as of fee, of and in the premises hereinafter described; and,

WHEREAS, at an orphans' court, held at _____, in and for the county of _____ aforesaid, on the _____ day of _____ last, upon the petition of N. N., eldest son and heir-at-law [or otherwise, as the case may be] of the said M. N., deceased, praying the court to award an inquest to make partition of the real estate of the said intestate, in the said petition mentioned, to and among his children and representatives, in such manner, and in such proportions, as by the laws of _____ is directed and appointed, if such partition could be made without prejudice to or spoiling the whole, otherwise to value and appraise the same, the said inquest was awarded by the court according to the prayer of the said petitioner; whereupon a writ of partition or valuation issued out of the said court, bearing date the _____ day of _____, to the sheriff of the said county directed, commanding him to summon an inquest to make partition of the said real estate to and among the children and representatives of the said intestate, according to law, if such partition could be thereof made without prejudice to and spoiling the whole; but if such partition could not be thereof made as aforesaid, then to value and appraise the same; and that the partition or valuation so made he should distinctly and openly have before the justices of the said court at _____, on the _____ day of _____ then next; at which day, before the judges aforesaid, the sheriff of the said county, to wit, O. P., made return of the said writ, with a schedule hereunto annexed, by which schedule or inquisition, under the hand and seal as well of the said sheriff as of the inquest therein named, it appears, by the oaths and affirmations of the said inquest, that the real estate in the said writ mentioned could not be parted and divided to and among the parties therein named without prejudice to or spoiling the whole thereof; and, therefore, the inquest aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, had valued and appraised the same at the sum of dollars, which return and valuation were, on motion, confirmed by the court; and,

WHEREAS, all the heirs and legal representatives of the said M. N. have severally and respectively refused to take the said premises at the valuation aforesaid, and the said court, upon the application of the said N. N. [or otherwise, as the case may be], did grant a rule upon all the heirs and representatives of the said intestate, to show cause at the orphans' court to be held at , on the day of then next ensuing, why the said real estate should not be sold according to the statutes in such case made and provided, at which said time and place, legal notice of the aforesaid rule being proved to have been duly given to all the heirs and legal representatives of the said intestate, and no cause having been shown why the said real estate should not be sold as aforesaid, the said court did then and there order the said A. B. and C. D., administrators as aforesaid, to expose the premises aforesaid to public sale at , on the day of then next ensuing, upon the terms in the said order directed; in pursuance whereof the said administrators, having first given sufficient security according to law for the faithful performance of the trust committed to them; and after having given due public and timely notice of the time and place of sale, did on the day and at the place and time herein mentioned, expose the premises aforesaid to sale by public vendue, and sold the same to the said party of the second part for the sum of dollars, he being the highest bidder, and that the best price bidden for the same; which sale, on report thereof, made to the judges of the said court, was, on the day of following, by them confirmed; and it was considered and adjudged by the said court that the said premises, with the appurtenances, so sold as aforesaid, should be transferred and vested in the said Y. Z. as fully as the said M. N. held the same at his decease, subject and liable to the payment of the purchase money, according to the terms prescribed in the said order, as by the records and proceedings of the same court, remaining at aforesaid, relation thereunto being had, will more fully appear.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said A. B. and C. D., administrators as aforesaid, for and in consideration of the said sum of dollars, to them in hand paid by the said Y. Z., at and before the sealing and delivery hereof, the receipt whereof they do hereby acknowledge, and thereof acquit and forever discharge the said Y. Z., his heirs, executors, and administrators, by these presents, have granted, bargained, sold, aliened, released, and confirmed, and by these presents, in pursuance and by virtue of the said order of the court, do grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, and confirm unto the said Y. B., a referee appointed by said court], by public auction, in the county where said premises are situated; that the said sheriff [or, referee] do sell, in such separate parcels as he shall deem most for the benefit of the said parties, according to the rules and practice of the said court, and according to the statute in such case made and provided; that he first give weeks previous notice of the time and place of such sale, in one of the public newspapers published in the said county of , and in such other manner as required by law; that after such sale he make report thereof to the said court; and after such report of sale shall have been duly confirmed, he execute and deliver deeds of conveyance for the said premises, in fee simple, to the purchaser thereof at the said sale; and,

WHEREAS, the party hereto of the first part, the said sheriff [or, referee], in pursuance of said order and decree, and having given due notice of the time and place of sale, agreeably to the said order and decree, did, on the day of , 18 , sell by public auction, at , in the town of aforesaid, the premises in the said decree mentioned; at which sale, the premises hereinafter described were struck off and sold to the said party of the second part, for the sum of dollars, that being the highest sum bidden for the same; and such sale having been reported by the said party of the first part to the said court, and duly confirmed:

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH [continuing as in preceding form from the † to the end].

817. Deed by Commissioners, on Sale in Partition.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of , in the county of , and state of , C. D., of the same place, and E. F., of , in said county, of the first part, and Y. Z., of aforesaid, of the second part.

WHEREAS, in proceedings duly taken and had in the court of , by and between M. N., O. P., and Q. R., for the partition and division of certain premises mentioned in the petition in said proceedings, according to the respective rights of the parties interested therein, or for a sale of such premises, if it should appear that a partition thereof could not be made without great prejudice to the owners, pursuant to the statute [relating to the partition of lands owned by several persons], it was by the said court ordered, adjudged, and decreed, by an order made on the day of , at , that a sale of the said premises should be made in order to a division of the proceeds, according to the several rights and interests of the said parties; and thereupon, to make such partition, the parties of the first part to these presents being qualified, were, by the said court, appointed commissioners; and,

WHEREAS, such proceedings were afterwards had in the said court upon the said petition, that the said commissioners so appointed, as aforesaid, were, by a rule of said court, ordered and directed to sell the said premises, with the appurtenances, at public auction, to the highest bidder; giving notice, according to law, of the time and place of such sale; and that they should make report thereof to the said court; and,

WHEREAS, the said commissioners, pursuant to the said order and direction, after giving public notice of the time and place of such sale, did, on the day of , at , in the town of , in said county of , expose to sale at public auction, all and singular the said premises, with the appurtenances; at which sale [a part of] the said premises hereinafter described were sold to the said party of the second part for the sum of dollars, that being the highest sum bid for the same; and,

WHEREAS, the proceedings of the said commissioners in the premises were duly reported to the said court, and the sale approved and confirmed, on the day of , one thousand nine hundred and , as by the records of the said court more fully appears; and the said commissioners were thereupon, by an order of said court then made, directed to execute to the said party of the second part, a conveyance of said premises, pursuant to the sale so made as aforesaid.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said parties of the first part, pursuant to the direction and authority to them given, and for and in consideration of the sum of money so bid as aforesaid, to them in hand paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have bargained, sold, aliened, conveyed, and confirmed, and by these presents do bargain, sell, alien, convey, and confirm unto the said party of the second part, all the estate, right, title, interest, claim, and demand of the said parties of the first part, and also all the right, title, interest, claim, and demand of all and singular the several and respective parties to the proceedings in partition aforesaid, of, in, and to all [here insert description of the premises], TOGETHER WITH all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances to the same belonging, or in anywise appertaining; and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof, and of every part thereof:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said above-bargained premises, with the appurtenances, and every part thereof, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, to his and their own proper use and behoof forever; as fully and absolutely as the said parties of the first part can and ought to grant and convey the same, pursuant to the statute and their authority as aforesaid.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

818. Deed by Mortgagee, on Foreclosure by Advertisement.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of , in the county of , and state of , merchant, of the first part, and Y. Z., of , in the said county, farmer, of the second part:

WHEREAS, M. N., by a certain indenture of mortgage, bearing date the day of , one thousand nine hundred and , for the consideration of the sum of dollars, did bargain, sell, and convey unto A. B., his heirs and assigns forever, the premises hereinafter described and granted [or, premises in said mortgage particularly described, and of which the premises hereinafter described and granted are a part], with the appurtenances, subject to a proviso, in the said indenture of mortgage contained, that the same should be void on the payment by the said M. N., his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, of the sum of dollars, in the manner particularly specified in the condition of a certain bond or obligation, bearing even date with the said indenture of mortgage; with a special power in the said indenture of mortgage contained [here recite the power — e. g., thus], authorizing the said A. B., his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, if default should be made in the payment of the said sum of money mentioned in the condition of the said bond or obligation, with the interest, or of any part thereof, to sell and dispose of the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, by public auction, for payment thereof; and to make and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance in the law for the same, in fee simple; and,

WHEREAS, the said indenture of mortgage has been duly recorded according to law, in the office for , at , in liber , of mortgages, page , as by the said indenture of mortgage, and the record thereof, and of the power therein contained, will more fully appear; and,

WHEREAS, default having been made in the payment of dollars of the money intended to be secured by the said indenture of mortgage, by which the power to sell became operative, and no suit or proceeding having been instituted to recover the same, the mortgaged premises hereinafter particularly described, were, on the day of , one thousand eight hundred and , sold under said power by public auction to the said party of the second part for the sum of dollars, being the highest sum bid for the same, due and sufficient notice having been previously given of such sale, by advertisement published for twelve weeks successively, once in each week, in a newspaper entitled the , printed in the town of , in county, being the county [or, one of the counties] in which the mortgaged premises are situated, and by affixing a copy of such notice twelve weeks prior to the time therein specified for such sale, on the outward door of the courthouse, in the town of , being the building in which the county court is directed to be held in said county [nearest to the said premises]; and by duly serving a copy of said notice at least fourteen days prior to the time therein specified for such sale, upon said M. N. [or, upon O. P., the executor of said M. N., he being deceased], and upon O. P. and Q. R., grantees [or, mortgagees], of the premises, and on S. T. and U. V., being all the persons having any claim or lien on said premises subsequent to said mortgage, as required by law.

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum so bid, as aforesaid, to him in hand paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, and confirmed, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs and assigns, forever, all [here insert description of the premises]:

TOGETHER WITH all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, as the same are described and conveyed in and by the said indenture of mortgage; and, also, all the estate, right, title, interest, property, claim, and demand whatsoever, both in law and equity, of the said M. N., as well as of the said party of the first part, of, in, and to the above-described premises, with the appurtenances, as fully, to all intents and purposes, as the said party of the first part hath power and authority to grant and sell the same, by virtue of the said indenture of mortgage, and of the statute in such case made and provided, or otherwise:

To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said above-granted premises, with their appurtenances, and every part thereof, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever.

IN WITNESS, ETC.

819. Deed by a Referee, Pursuant to a Judicial Sale, An Administratrix, a Husband and Wife in Right of the Wife, the Wife being also an Executrix, and Infants, by their Guardians, Joining as Parties.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between M. N., special referee and trustee, appointed by the supreme court, party of the first part, A. B., of , administratrix with the will annexed of C. B., deceased, and the said A. B., in her own right, C. D., of , and E. D., his wife, in right of the said E. D., and the said E. D. as executrix of the last will and testament of G. H., deceased, J. H., of , and K. H., of , by J. K., their guardian, parties of the second part, and Y. Z., of , of the third part;

WHEREAS, at a special term of the supreme court of the state of , held for the county of , at , on the day of , one thousand nine hundred and , it was among other things ordered, adjudged, and decreed by the said court, in a certain cause then pending in the said court, between [here name the parties to the suit], that the said M. N., as such referee and trustee, for that purpose appointed by the said decretal order, proceed with all convenient speed, to sell for cash, all real estate which the said C. B., deceased, died seized or possessed of, or entitled to, and that each distinct farm, tract, or lot be sold separately, and at public auction, in the county of , by or under the direction of said referee and trustee, and that said referee and trustee give public notice of the time and place of such sale, by advertising the same twice a week, for three weeks, in the city of , and once a week, for three weeks, in any county in this state in which the property may be situated, as in case of sale of mortgaged premises in suits for the foreclosure of mortgages on lands, and that such referee and trustee execute to the purchaser or purchasers good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance therefor; and it was further ordered, adjudged, and decreed, in and by the said decretal order, that the parties to the said suit, respectively — that is to say, the adult parties, personally, and the said infant defendants by their several guardians ad litem [who were thereby severally appointed and authorized for that purpose] — unite with the said referee and trustee in such deed or deeds of conveyance; and that the said E. D., if living, unite in the said deed or deeds as such executrix as aforesaid, and in case the said E. D. should die before the said sale and conveyance, then it was ordered that no proceedings be had towards such sale, until some party to said suit should obtain letters of administration with the will annexed, of the goods, chattels, and credits not administered of the decedent, G. H., thereby left without a personal representative, and that the party obtaining such letters of administration also unite as such in the said deed or deeds of conveyance; and,

WHEREAS, the said M. N., the said party of the first part, as referee or trustee aforesaid, in pursuance of the said decretal order of the said court, did, on the day of , one thousand eight hundred and , sell at public auction, at the Merchants' Exchange, in the city of , the premises hereinafter mentioned and described, due notice of the time and place of such sale being first given, agreeably to the said decretal order, by advertising the same twice a week, for three weeks and upwards, in a newspaper published in the city of , and once a week, for three weeks and upwards, in a newspaper published in the county of , in which county part of the property to be sold is situated, such advertisement being as in the case of sales of mortgaged premises in suits for the foreclosure of mortgages on lands; at which sale the premises hereinafter described were struck off to the said party of the third part for the sum of dollars, that being the highest sum bidden for the same, and he being the highest bidder therefor.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said party of the first part, as referee and trustee as aforesaid, and the parties of the second part to these presents, in order to carry into effect the sale so made by said party of the first part, and in pursuance of said decretal order, and in consideration of the premises, and of the said sum of money so bidden as aforesaid being first duly paid by the said party of the third part to the said party of the first part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged by the said party of the first part, have bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell, and convey unto the said party of the third part all that certain lot, piece, or parcel of land [describing it], together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest, dower, and right of dower, property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, as well at law as in equity, of the said parties of the first and second parts, and of each and every of them, of, in, and to the above-described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the above-mentioned and described premises, together with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the third part, his heirs and assigns forever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties of the first and second parts have hereto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

824. Partition Deed.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of , in the county of , and state of , merchant, of the first part, and C. D., of , in the said county, farmer, of the second part, and E. F., of aforesaid, mason, of the third part;

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have and hold as tenants in common [or, as joint tenants] in equal parts [or, viz., the said A. B. two equal undivided sixths, and the said C. D. one equal undivided sixth, and the said E. F. three, etc., of] a certain tract, piece, or parcel of land situate in , being the same premises conveyed to them by M. N. by deed bearing date the day of , [or, devised to them by the will of M. N., or otherwise, according to the fact]; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have mutually agreed to make partition of said land and hold their respective shares in severalty:

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH, as follows:—First. The said A. B., party of the first part, shall from henceforth have, hold, possess, and enjoy in severalty by himself, and to him, and his heirs and assigns, for his share and proportion of the said lands and premises, all [here insert description of the part allotted to him]; and the said parties of the second and third parts, in consideration of the premises [and of the sum of dollars to them paid by the said A. B. for equality of partition, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged], do hereby give, grant, set over, convey, release, and confirm unto the said A. B., the party of the first part, his heirs and assigns forever, the last above-described premises:

TOGETHER WITH all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof, and also all the estate, right, title, interest [dower and right of dower], property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever of the said parties of the second and third parts, both in law and in equity, of, in, and to the above-granted premises, with the hereditaments and appurtenances:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the above-granted premises, together with the appurtenances and every part thereof, unto the said party of the first part, his heirs and assigns forever [if there is any incumbrance, add, subject to, etc., specifying it].

AND THE SAID parties of the second and third parts do hereby severally, and not jointly, but each for himself, and for his heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant, promise, and agree, to and with the said party of the first part, that he, the said A. B., his heirs and assigns, shall or lawfully may, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, forever, freely, peaceably, and quietly, have, hold, occupy, possess, and enjoy the said first-described piece or allotment of land, with the appurtenances, and receive and take the rents, issues, and profits thereof, without any molestation, interruption, or denial of them, the parties of the second and third parts, their heirs or assigns, or of any other person or persons whatsoever, lawfully claiming or to claim by, from, or under them, or either of them, or by or with his or their act, privity, or procurement.

Second. The said C. D., party of the second part, shall from henceforth have, hold, possess, and enjoy in severalty by himself, and to him and his heirs and

825. Deed Among Heirs, in Confirmation of Devises, with Covenant to Abide by the Will.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., widow of S. B., late of , in the county of , farmer, deceased, of the first part; C. B., of the same place, and L. B., his wife, of the second part; E. B., of the same place, and J. B., his wife, of the third part;

WHEREAS, the said S. B., late of , in the county, farmer, deceased, being in his lifetime seized of the real estate therein mentioned, did, in due form of law, make and publish his last will and testament in writing, containing devises, of which the following are a copy [here set forth the provisions, or, refer to the will on record]; and,

WHEREAS, the said testator, after making the said will, died seized as aforesaid, without revoking or altering the same; and,

WHEREAS, the said A. B., party of the first part, is the widow, and the said C. B. and E. B. are the children, devisees, and heirs-at-law of the said S. B., the testator, deceased [and, WHEREAS, doubts have been suggested whether the words contained in the said will are sufficient in the law to pass an estate in fee simple to the said A. B. for the lot of land in Third street, devised or intended to be devised to her, and also to pass estates in fee to the said C. B. and E. B., in and to the several premises respectively devised or intended to be devised to them]; and the said several parties to these presents, being willing and desirous that the real intentions of the said testator should be carried into effect notwithstanding any errors or imperfections which may or do exist in the said will, have agreed to make and execute an instrument of writing, under their respective hands and seals, which shall be sufficient for that purpose:

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said C. B. and L. B., his wife, and E. B. and J. B., his wife, for the consideration aforesaid, and for the further consideration of one dollar to them in hand paid by the said A. B., the receipt of which they do hereby acknowledge, have granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, and confirmed, and by these presents do fully, freely, and absolutely grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, and confirm unto the said A. B. in her actual possession now being, and to her heirs and assigns forever, all that lot of land situate in Third street, in the city of New York, and mentioned in the said will as given to her; together with the appurtenances, and also all and singular the right, title, interest, dower, claim, and demand whatsoever, both at law and in equity, of the said C. B. and L. B., his wife, and E. B. and J. B., his wife, of, in, and to the same:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said lot of ground in Third street, with the appurtenances, to the said A. B., her heirs and assigns forever; and the said C. B. and L. B., his wife, and E. B. and J. B., his wife, do further release and confirm unto the said A. B., the one-half of the dwelling-house at _____, in which the said S. B., the testator, resided, to have and to hold the same to the said A. B. during the term of her natural life.

AND THIS INDENTURE FURTHER WITNESSETH: That the said E. B. and J. B., his wife, for the consideration aforesaid, and also for the further consideration of the sum of one dollar to them in hand paid by the said C. B., the receipt whereof they do hereby respectively acknowledge, have granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, and confirmed, and by these presents do fully, freely, and absolutely grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, and confirm unto the said C. B., and to his heirs and assigns forever, the house and land now in his possession, situate in _____ aforesaid, and devised or intended to be devised to him in and by the aforesaid will, together with the appurtenances, and also all the estate, right, title, interest, dower, or right of dower, claim, and demand whatsoever, both at law and in equity, of them, the said E. B. and J. B., his wife.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said premises, with the appurtenances, to the said C. B., his heirs and assigns, to the sole and only proper use, benefit, and behoof of the said C. B., his heirs and assigns forever.

AND THIS INDENTURE FURTHER WITNESSETH: That the said C. B. and L. B., his wife, for and in consideration aforesaid, and for the further consideration of one dollar to them in hand paid by the said E. B., at or before the ensealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt of which they do hereby acknowledge, have granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, and confirmed, and by these presents do fully, freely, and absolutely grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, and confirm unto the said E. B. in his actual possession now being, and to his heirs and assigns forever, the dwelling-house of the said testator [subject to the life estate of the said A. B. in a moiety thereof], together with the appurtenances; and also all the estate, right, title, interest, dower, and right of dower, claim, and demand whatsoever, at law and in equity, of the said C. B. and L. B., his wife, of, in, and to the same:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the said premises, with the appurtenances, unto the said E. B., his heirs and assigns, to the sole and only proper use, benefit, and behoof of the said E. B., his heirs and assigns forever.

AND THIS INDENTURE FURTHER WITNESSETH: That the said E. B., for himself, his heirs and assigns, doth hereby freely grant and confirm unto the said C. B., his heirs and assigns forever, the use and privilege of a road to pass and repass to and from the river, with wagons, horses, and carriages, through the land hereinbefore conveyed to the said E. B., to have and to hold the said use and privilege to the said C. B., and to his heirs and assigns forever.

AND THE SEVERAL and respective parties to these presents, each of them for himself, herself, and themselves, his, her, and their heirs, executors, and administrators, do hereby mutually covenant, promise, grant, and agree to and with the other and others of them, his, her, and their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, that in every respect and particular, not hereinbefore especially agreed upon and provided for, they, the said parties, and each and every of them respectively, and their and each and every of their legal representatives, shall and will in all things abide by the will of the said testator, and carry the same into full execution and effect, agreeably to the intentions of the said testator, and according to the true intent and meaning of the same.

828. Description of Land by Number of Lot and Township.

All that certain tract or parcel of land known as lot No. two (2), in township No. three (3), in range four (4) [or, as the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-two (22), of township four (4), of range six (6), east of the principal meridian], in the county of _____, and state of _____ aforesaid, containing _____ acres.¹

829. Description by Metes and Bounds. 2

All that certain tract, piece, or parcel of land situate, lying, and being in the town of _____, county of _____, and state of _____, known and described

¹ This form conveys the whole lot and the reference to the area will be controlled by the words referring to the lot. Hathaway v. Power, 6 Hill. 458.

² Where a land is conveyed by metes and bounds, running from fixed and visible monuments, whether natural or artificial, such monuments or marks appearing upon the

as follows: Beginning at a stake and stones in the northeast corner of the meadow lot, now or late of M. N., running thence northerly¹ sixteen (16) rods; thence north twenty-three degrees (23°) east, ten (10) rods; thence south twenty-five degrees, ten minutes (25° 10') east, sixteen (16) rods, ten (10) inches; thence south by west to the point of beginning, containing about acres, be the same more or less.²

830. The Same of a City Lot.

All that certain lot, piece, or parcel of land, with the buildings thereon erected, situate, lying, and being in the Nineteenth ward of the city of New York, bounded and described as follows — to wit: Beginning at a point on the westerly side of Second avenue, distant twenty (20) feet and five (5) inches northerly from the northerly side of Fiftieth street, and running thence westerly through a party wall and parallel³ with Fiftieth street, seventy (70) feet; thence northerly and parallel with Second avenue, twenty (20) feet; thence easterly to and through another party wall and parallel³ with Fiftieth street, seventy (70) feet to the westerly side of Second avenue, and thence southerly along the said westerly side of Second avenue, twenty (20) feet to the point or place of beginning.

831. Description by Reference to a Map.

All those lots of ground situate, lying, and being in the ward of the city of , known and distinguished on a certain map of the property of M. N., made by O. P., city surveyor, and now on file [or, filed on or about the day of , or, intended to be filed], in the office of , in said , by the numbers one hundred and seventeen (117) and one hundred and eighteen (118).⁴

832. Description Bounding by Rivers, Highways, and Other Boundaries.

All that tract of land situate, lying, and being in the town of , in said county of , and bounded and described as follows: on the east by the Ox Bow creek,⁵ on the southeast by the northwest bank of the Salmon river,⁶ on the south by land, now or late of M. N., on the west by [the east side of]⁷ the highway leading to P.

land must be adhered to, and will control the distances, courses, and area specified. Wendell v. Jackson, 8 Wend. 188; Jackson v. Camp, 1 Cow. 605.

² The specifications of the number of acres cannot control a palpable description of a larger area by monuments, courses and distances. Jackson v. McConnell, 19 Wend. 175.

⁵ This will give the thread of the stream, if it is not navigable, and the tide does not ebb and flow. If it is intended not to convey the bed of the creek, the west bank should be specified as the boundary. Jackson v. Loun, 12 Johns. 252; Luce v. Corley, 24 Wend. 451; Child v. Starr, 4 Hill, 369.

⁷ Where a street or highway is given as a boundary, the centre line of the way is intended, unless the side is expressly fixed

833. Description of Water Lot.

All that certain water lot, or vacant ground and soil under water, to be made land, and gained out of the North, or Hudson river, and bounded, described, and containing as follows: Beginning [here give metes and bounds].

834. Description of Land between High and Low Tide.

Thence feet to the line of mean high-water mark of the Long Island sound; thence along said mean high-water mark of said Long Island sound, and about north 40 degrees 36 minutes, east, about 628 feet, to the point, or place of beginning, together with the land abutting on said property, and lying between the said mean high-water line and the low-water line of said Long Island sound, and any and all rights and privileges therein belonging to the said parties of the first part.

835. Conveyance of Right of Way.

Together with the right of way forever for ingress, egress, and regress to said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, and the occupants or grantees of said lands and premises hereinbefore described, and hereby conveyed, or any part thereof, and his and their servants, and any and all other person or persons whomsoever, for his or their use, benefit, or advantage, with the right at all times to pass and repass on foot, and with animals and vehicles, over the following portions of other lands of said parties of the first part, not herein or hereby conveyed, viz.: [here give exact statement of rights of way, with metes, bounds, etc.].

836. Description of Unpatented Land.

All that tract or parcel of land situated [etc.], containing acres, be the same more or less, surveyed or intended to be surveyed, by virtue of a warrant for the same, bearing date the day of , one thousand eight hundred and , granted to the said A. B., as by the said warrant remaining filed in the office of , will appear, subject to the payment of whatever may be due to the commonwealth for patenting the same.

837. Description of an Undivided Share.

The one undivided third part of all [etc., describing the premises as in other forms].

838. Description of an Equity of Redemption.¹

All that certain lot, piece, or parcel of land [describing it by bounds, or otherwise, as in other forms], the premises above described being subject to a certain indenture of mortgage made by M. N. to O. P., to secure payment upon. Jackson v. Hathaway, 15 Johns. Sandf. 323; Bissell, v. N. Y. C. R. R. Co. 23 N. 447. Even bounding by a line described as Y. 61.

"commencing at the side of the street and running along the street," or by courses and distances which produce a line along the side of the street, or by a map which gives the side as a boundary, will convey the land to the centre. 13 Conn. 23; Sizer v. Devereaux, 16 Barb. 160; Hammond v. McLachlan, 1

These are the established rules in New York. In some other States, such conveyances do not pass the fee of the roadway.

It is, however, the general rule that bounding the land upon a way amounts to a covenant that such way exists.

¹ A conveyance in these terms does not of the sum of dollars, bearing date on the day of , 18 [and recorded in the office of the , of the county of , in liber , of mortgages, page], on which the sum of dollars, with interest from the day of , is due.

839. Same; Where the Grantee Covenants to Pay the Mortgage.

All that certain lot, piece, or parcel of land [describing it by bounds, or otherwise, as in other forms], the premises above described, being subject to a certain indenture of mortgage made by M. N. to O. P., to secure payment of the sum of dollars, bearing date on the day of , 18 [and recorded in the office of the of the county of , in liber , of mortgages, page], on which the sum of dollars, with interest from the day of , is due, which said mortgage forms part of the consideration above mentioned, and which the said party of the second part hereby assumes and agrees to pay.¹

840. Description of a Lot, with a Right of Way and of Making a Drain.

All [etc., bounding the lot as in other forms, and adding:] Together with a right of way in and over a certain strip of land along the west side of the store on the above-granted premises, for the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, and his and their servants, and the tenants and occupants from time to time of the premises above granted, and any other person or persons for his and their benefit and advantage [in common with the said party of the first part, his servants, and the tenants and occupants of his premises adjoining], at all times freely to pass and repass, on foot, or with animals, vehicles, loads, or otherwise, to and fro, between the premises hereby granted and the highway or street, the said strip of land and way being feet wide. And also together with the right to enter a drain from the above-granted premises into the drain now running under the said strip of land, to be used as a way as aforesaid, and the same to use as a sewer or drain from the above-granted land to the common sewer in the street or highway [subject, nevertheless, to the moiety or equal half part of all necessary charges and expenses which shall from time to time accrue, in paving, repairing, and cleansing the said way and drain].

841. Description of a Lot Abutting on an Alley, with Right of Way Therein, Subject to Charges and Covenants.

All that certain lot, piece, or parcel of land, with the buildings thereon erected, situate in the Fifth ward of the city of New York, on the westerly side of Broadway, being part of a tract of land formerly called "The Pasture Lots," formerly the property of Augustus Van Cortlandt and Frederick Van render the grantee personally liable for the mortgage debt. To raise such liability, there must be an agreement to pay the debt, made either with the mortgagee or holder of the mortgage, or with some person legally or equitably bound to pay it. Tillotson v. Boyd, 4 Sandf. 518; Stebbins v. Hall, 39 Barb. 524.

the grantee liable to indemnify his grantor against the mortgage. Thompson v. Thompson, 4 Ohio St. 333; Hartley v. Harrison, 24 N. Y. 172, and cases cited; Townsend v. Ward, 27 Conn. 610. If the grantor is personally liable on the mortgage, this covenant will render the grantee liable directly thereon; also for any deficiency on foreclosure. Trotter v. Hughes, 12 N. Y. 74.

Cortlandt, and distinguished in maps and conveyances relating thereto as lot No. 16 (sixteen), and the letters F. V. C., being bounded as follows — to wit: Beginning at a point on the westerly side of Broadway, distant southwardly fifty feet from the southwestly corner of Broadway and White street; thence running westerly along the lot distinguished on said maps and conveyances by the number 17, and the letters A. V. C., to a certain alley in the rear thereof that extends from White street to the street now called Franklin street, lately Sugar-Loaf street; thence southerly along said alley to the lot distinguished on the said maps and conveyances by the number 15, and the letters A. V. C.; thence easterly along the said last-mentioned lot to Broadway; and thence northerly along the said Broadway to the place of beginning; containing in front and rear, each twenty-five feet, and in length on each side, one hundred and fifty feet, be the same more or less. And also the right and privilege to use the said alley as a way or passage from the said lots to the aforesaid streets in common with all the proprietors of the other lots of ground adjoining upon that alley; which said alley is twenty-five feet in width, and was made by land taken off the rear of the said lot and the other lots fronting upon Broadway in the same range and block with it; whereby those lots have become reduced in length from one hundred and seventy-five feet (their original length) to one hundred and fifty feet, or thereabouts, be the same more or less. And it is understood that all charges and expenses of sustaining the said alley, or relating thereto, are charged and chargeable upon all and every of the lots adjoining upon that alley in equal proportions. And it is further understood and agreed, that the lot of ground hereby intended to be granted, bargained, and sold is hereby bargained, granted, and sold, subject to that charge or incumbrance, as also to all such covenants, conditions, and restrictions as may be contained in any existing deed or writing whatsoever establishing the said alley, and for restraining the owners of the said lot of ground hereby granted from erecting any buildings other than a coach-house or stable fronting on the said alley.

842. Grant of Easement Appurtenant to a Lot Bounding on a Court or Alley.

[Add:] Together with one-half of the part of said court or alley which lies in front of the premises hereby conveyed, subject to a perpetual right of way over the same to all and every the owners and occupants of the premises lying adjacent to and abutting on said court or alley; and the parties of the first part hereby convey to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, a perpetual right of way from _____ street through the said alley or court to and from the premises hereby conveyed, in common with said owners and occupants, and also a perpetual right and privilege to use in common with them the drain or sewer running through the centre of said court or alley.

843. Premises Subject to Easement for Party Walls.

[Add:] Subject, nevertheless, to the use of the walls on the easterly and westerly sides respectively of the said lot, by M. N. and O. P., their heirs and assigns, the grantees of the said party hereto of the first part of the lots next adjoining the lot hereby conveyed on said sides respectively, as party-walls.¹

¹ If the easement is created by a deed on record, it is advisable to refer to it.

844. Premises Subject to Easement for Drain.

[Add.] Subject, nevertheless, to a sewer or drain passing through the premises hereby conveyed for the use and benefit of other premises of the said party of the first part, adjoining the same upon the south, said sewer and drain to remain as at present used for the benefit of the adjoining premises.¹

845. Description of Water Power.²

All [etc., describing the land, as in other cases], together with the privilege of bringing water from the dam to the mill thereon [or, a mill to be erected thereon], sufficient to keep a sawmill³ in operation, at all times when there is so much more than is wanted, by the party of the first part, his heirs or assigns, to drive a gristmill with three run of stones.³

846. Reservation of Ground for Streets, Etc.

[Insert immediately after the boundaries:] saving and reserving from and out of the hereby-granted premises such streets as are now or hereafter may be laid out through the premises hereby granted; and whenever any such streets may be laid out, over and across the said premises, that the same shall be made at the expense of the said party of the second part, his heirs or assigns, and be and forever remain public streets, in like manner as other public streets are or ought to be.

847. Exception and Reservation of Mines, with Covenants for Payment of Rent and Damages.

Excepting and reserving unto the said A. B., his heirs and assigns, all mines, veins, seams, and beds of coal, ironstone, and other minerals whatsoever, already found, or which may hereafter be found, upon or under the lands hereby assured, or expressed so to be, with full liberty of ingress, egress, and regress at all times for him, the said A. B., his heirs and assigns, and his and their servants, agents, and workmen in and upon the said lands, and either with or without horses and other cattle, carts, and wagons, and other carriages, for the purpose of searching for, working, getting, and carrying away the said mines and minerals, and with full liberty also for him, the said A. B., his heirs and assigns, to sink, drive, make, and use pits, shafts, drifts, adits, air-courses, and water-courses, and to erect and set up fire and other engines, machinery, and works, and to lay down railroads and other roads in, upon, under, and over the said lands, or any of them, for the purpose of more conveniently working and carrying away the said mines and minerals, and also to appropriate and use any part of the surface of the said lands for depositing, placing, and heaping thereon the minerals, waste, rubbish, and other substances which may be gotten from the said mines, and generally to do all other acts and things necessary or proper for working and getting the said mines and minerals according to the most approved practice of mining in the district:

PROVIDED, ALWAYS, that the said A. B., his heirs or assigns, do and shall pay 855. Release of Rents.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New York, of the first part, and Y. Z., of , of the second part.

WHEREAS, the said parties of the first part did, by a grant under their common seal, bearing date the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , grant, bargain, and sell unto M. N., and to his heirs and assigns forever, certain lands and premises, of which the lands hereinafter described are part and parcel, subject, however, to certain yearly rents or sums of money to be paid to the said parties of the first part and their successors, by the said grantees, their heirs and assigns forever thereafter, as by reference to the said indenture, or to the counterpart thereof, sealed and delivered by the said grantee, and now in possession of the said parties of the first part, will more fully appear; and,

WHEREAS, the said party to these presents of the second part hath represented to the said parties of the first part that he, the said party of the second part, hath become, and is now by diverse mesne conveyances, lawfully seized of the said premises hereinafter described, being a portion of the premises granted and conveyed by the above-mentioned indenture of grant; and, also, that said portion of said premises is chargeable with the sum of dollars of the yearly rent aforesaid and no more; and,

WHEREAS, the said party of the second part has paid to the said parties of the first part all the arrears of rent now due upon the said hereinafter described premises, and has also paid to them the further sum of dollars, in lieu and discharge of all and every the rent and rents which would hereafter become due and payable pursuant to said alleged agreement upon the said premises hereinafter described, under and by virtue of the said grant, less the annual sum of dollars, part and parcel thereof; and,

WHEREAS, the said parties of the first part, in consideration thereof, and at the request of the said party of the second part, have agreed to release the land hereinafter described unto the said party hereto of the second part, freed and discharged of and from the payment of the yearly rent aforesaid, and to hold and retain the residue of the lands as security for the arrears of rent now due, and of all and every the rent and rents which would hereafter become due and payable to the said parties of the first part upon the said premises, under and by virtue of the said grant, less the said annual sum of dollars, part and parcel thereof:

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the said agreement, and of the said sum of dollars, to them paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do hereby for themselves and their successors remise, release, and quitclaim unto the said party of the second part, all that part of the said granted lands described as follows, to wit [here insert description], together with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the intent that the lands hereby released may be discharged from the payment of the said yearly rent as aforesaid, and that the residue of the lands in the said grant specified may remain to the said parties of first part, as heretofore.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said lands and premises to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, to his and their own proper use, benefit, and behoof forever, free, clear, and discharged of and from all lien and claim under and by virtue of the said indenture of grant or counterpart aforesaid, and of and from all and every covenant, matter, clause, or thing in the said indenture or counterpart contained, relating to the payment of rent for the said premises hereby released, and of and from all actions, suits, costs, charges, payments, damages, claims, and demands whatsoever, in law or equity, for or concerning the said rent; PROVIDED, however, that these presents are upon the following express conditions and agreements — that is to say: First, that nothing herein contained shall in any manner or wise be construed, deemed, or taken to be a release or discharge of any covenant, condition, proviso, or agreement in the said in part recited indenture of grant contained, to be observed, performed, fulfilled, or kept by or on the part and behalf of the said grantees named in said indenture or counterpart, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, excepting only the covenant for the payment of rent, and the claim of distress and agreement for re-entry, in consequence of the nonpayment thereof, but all and every other covenant, addition, proviso, and agreement therein contained on the part of the said grantees therein mentioned, shall be and continue in full force and effect as fully and amply as though this present indenture had never been made.

Secondly, that this indenture shall be null and void, if the representations hereinbefore recited, or any of them, be false, fraudulent, or untrue.

Thirdly, that nothing herein contained shall be construed, deemed, or taken to release or discharge the residue of the land described in the said grant from the payment of the rent due, and to grow due thereon, pursuant to said grant, less the part thereof apportioned upon the premises hereby released as hereinbefore mentioned.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 789].

856. Deed of Surrender of a Term for Life or Years to the Reversioner.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of , in the county of , and state of , merchant, of the first part, and Y. Z., of , in the said county, farmer, of the second part:

WHEREAS, by his will, bearing date the day of , , M. N. devised a life estate in the premises hereinafter described to the party of the first part, with a remainder over in fee to the party of the second part [or, by a lease bearing date, etc., the said M. N. leased to O. P. the premises hereinafter described, of which lease the party of the first part has become the assignee, and the reversion of said premises has become vested in the party of the second part]:

NOW, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That, in consideration of dollars, to him paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said party of the first part has granted, bargained, sold, surrendered, and yielded up, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, surrender, and yield up unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever, all [here insert description of the premises, or refer to lease, etc., therefor], and all the estate, right, title, interest, term, property, claim,

B., of incumbering, alienating, or disposing of said premises, or any part thereof, and the rents, issues, and profits thereof, as if she were sole, so far as she may by the laws of said state.

870. Deed Conveying in Trust for Support of Grantor's Parents, with Power of Appointment to Them, and a Reservation of Rents for Payment of Incumbrances.

THIS INDENTURE, tripartite, made this day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of the city of , merchant, party of the first part, and Y. Z., drygoods dealer, also of the said city, party of the second part, and C. B., of said city, wife of S. B., of said city, party of the third part:

WHEREAS, the said A. B. is desirous of making a provision and settlement for the benefit of his father, mother, and sisters, by a conveyance in trust of the property hereinafter mentioned, subject, however, to the reservations herein provided, and to the trusts and powers herein contained:

NOW, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of dollars, to him paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, conveyed, and confirmed, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, convey, and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to his successors and assigns forever, all [here insert description of the premises].

TOGETHER with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever of the said party of the first part, both at law and in equity, of, in, and to the above-granted premises, with the hereditaments and appurtenances:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the above-granted premises, together with the appurtenances, and every part thereof, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever. [If there is any incumbrance, add, subject to, etc., specifying it.] IT IS, HOWEVER, to be taken and understood as part of this indenture, and as limiting and controlling the grant hereby made to the party hereto of the second part, that the party hereto of the first part hereby retains and reserves the possession, use, occupation, rents, issues, and profits of the premises hereby conveyed, for the purpose of paying, and until the mortgage liens now existing upon the said premises shall be paid off or discharged, such retaining and reservation of the possession, use, occupation, rents, issues, and profits, not, however, to extend beyond the day of one thousand eight hundred and , but to terminate sooner if the aforesaid mortgage liens shall be sooner paid off or discharged, or if both S. B. and C. B., the father and mother of the party hereto of the first part, shall sooner depart this life; IN TRUST, nevertheless, subject to the reservation aforesaid, that the said party of the second part, his heirs, successors, and assigns, shall manage said property hereby conveyed, and shall apply the net income and profits, (after deducting for repairs, taxes, assessments, and insurance), which shall, from time to time, be realized from the premises hereby conveyed, to the sole and separate use of the said C. B., during her natural life, free and discharged from any rights or claims of or against her husband; the separate receipt or settlement of the said C. B. therefor to be a full and complete discharge of the said party of the second part; secondly, in trust from the death of the said C. B., to apply the said net income and profits as they shall from time to time arise, to the sole use of the said S. B., and for the support of himself and family during his life. It is further understood and to be taken as part of this conveyance, that the property and premises hereby conveyed at the death of the said S. B. and C. B. shall vest in the children of the said S. B., or in a trustee or trustees for their benefit, in such shares and proportions, and in such estates as the said S. B. shall, by a conveyance or last will and testament, order and appoint. It being further understood and to be taken as part of this indenture, that the said S. B. shall have the power of ordering and appointing, or distributing among, or in trust for his children, the fee simple of said property, or less estate therein, either by a conveyance or by a last will and testament, subject to the aforesaid reservation and life interest, and in such shares and proportions, and in such manner as he shall therein designate and direct, provided, however, that at least one-fourth part thereof shall be appointed to the use of the party hereto of the first part. It being the intent and meaning hereof to clothe the said S. B. with all the power and authority over three-fourths of said estate or property, in distributing the same among his children, subject to said reservation and life interests, as the party of the first part would have had, had not this indenture been executed. And it is further understood and to be taken as part of this conveyance, that if the power of appointment and distribution aforesaid shall not be exercised by the said S. B. during his lifetime, that the same may be exercised by the said C. B., who, upon the death of the said S. B., without having by a conveyance or last will and testament, exercised the power and authority hereby granted, shall have the same power and authority. And the said party hereto of the second part is hereby authorized and directed to convey the property and premises herein and hereby conveyed in pursuance and upon the terms of the order and appointment of the said S. B. or C. B., legally made under the provisions of this indenture.

THIS INDENTURE FURTHER WITNESSETH: That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of ten dollars to him in hand paid by the said party of the third part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and the said party of the third part forever discharged therefrom, hath granted, bargained, sold, assigned, transferred, and set over, and by these presents doth, for himself, his heirs and assigns, grant, bargain, sell, assign, transfer, and set over unto the said party of the third part, her heirs and assigns, all the estate, premises, and property hereinbefore described and intended to be conveyed, if any, which are not legally vested in or conveyed to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, by virtue of the execution of this indenture, for the uses and purposes hereinbefore mentioned, or which cannot be claimed by the beneficiaries under or through the trusts or persons, or the execution thereof herein and hereunder intended to be legally created, authorized, and executed, reserving and retaining, however, to the said party of the first part the use, possession, occupation, rents, issues, and profits of the said property and premises for the period hereinbefore reserved and retained.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

VI. STATUTORY PROVISIONS AND FORMS, AND FORMS IN COMMON USE IN THE SEVERAL STATES.

ALABAMA.

Conveyances for alienation of lands must be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on parchment or paper, and signed at foot by contracting party, or agent having written authority; or, if he is not able to sign name, it may be written for him, with words, "his mark," written against same, or over it. Code of 1907, § 3355.

Any instrument in writing signed by grantor, or agent having written authority, is effectual to transfer legal title to grantee, if such was intention of grantor, to be collected from entire instrument. Ibid., § 3355.

Conveyances of property, required by law to be recorded, must be recorded in office of judge of probate. Ibid., § 3367.

Conveyance is operative as a record from day of delivery to judge. Ibid., § 3369.

Conveyances of real property must be recorded in county where property situated. Ibid., § 3372.

Recording in proper office of conveyance of property which may be legally admitted to record, operates as notice of contents of conveyance. Ibid., § 3373.

All deeds of assignment executed by debtors for benefit of creditors shall, as soon as executed, be filed and recorded in office of judge of probate of county where property situated, and such deeds are operative in all respects as other deeds from day of delivery to judge. Ibid., § 3381.

All conveyances of real property are inoperative and void, as to purchasers for valuable consideration, mortgagees, and judgment creditors, without notice, unless recorded before accrual of right of such purchasers, mortgagees, or judgment creditors. Ibid., § 3383.

Preceding section includes absolute conveyances of real property defeasible by defeasance or other instrument, in which case defeasance or instrument must be recorded, according to its character, within time limited in preceding section, or it is void as to purchasers for valuable consideration, mortgagees and judgment creditors of original grantee without notice. Ibid., § 3384.

All conveyances, creating estates in land in remainder or reversion, or upon a condition, after estate for life or lives, are inoperative and void against creditors of tenant for life or lives in possession, after possession of five years by tenant, unless conveyance be recorded within five years from entry and possession of tenant. Ibid., § 3385.

Every estate in lands is to be taken as fee simple, although words necessary to create estate of inheritance not used, unless it clearly appears a less estate was intended. Ibid., § 3396.

Conveyance made by tenant for life or years, purporting to convey greater interest than he possesses, or can lawfully convey, does not work forfeiture of his estate, but passes to grantee all the estate which tenant could lawfully convey. Ibid., § 3405.

In all conveyances of estates in fee, the words, "grant," "bargain," "sell," or either of them, must be construed, unless it otherwise expressly appears from conveyance, as an express covenant to grantee, his heirs and assigns, that grantor was seized of indefeasible estate in fee simple, free from incumbrances done or suffered by grantor, except the rents and services that are reserved; and also for quiet enjoyment against grantor, heirs and assigns, unless limited by the express words of such conveyance; and grantee, heirs, personal representatives, and assigns may, in any action, assign breaches, as if such covenants were expressly inserted. Ibid., § 3421.

In all cases of written agreements, or contracts for conveyance of lands in state, where person executing same dies before execution of conveyance, personal representative of such person may execute conveyance according to forms prescribed by law for conveyance of real estate, to person to whom agreement or contract made, heirs, or assigns. Ibid., § 3441.

If personal representative refuses to execute conveyance in case provided in preceding section, he may be compelled so to do, by application to judge of probate of county in which letters testamentary or of administration granted. Ibid., § 3442.

Such application must be by petition, setting out contract or agreement and lands to be conveyed, and stating names of heirs and personal representatives of contracting party, which of them are of full age and which are minors; and judge of probate must give notice of petition by twenty days' written notice to personal representative and resident heirs of contracting party, to be served by any sheriff and if any one or more are nonresidents, by publication in newspaper published in his county, and county in which lands lie; or if none is published therein, paper published in place nearest to county site of such county, once a week for three successive weeks; and if, on the hearing of application, it appears such agreement or contract was fairly made, and consideration or conditions of same paid or performed, judge must decree conveyance to be executed by personal representative of party so contracting, according to terms thereof; and personal representative, failing to execute conveyance in conformity with decree, must be imprisoned until he executes same; either party having right to appeal. Ibid., § 3443.

In cases in which minor heirs are interested in application, notice must be given to guardian, or, if no guardian, judge must appoint guardian ad litem. Ibid., § 3444.

WITNESS my hand, this day of , .

Signed and delivered in presence of 876a. Trust Deed.

THIS DEED, made and entered into this day of , nineteen hundred , by and between , of the , and state of Kentucky, part of the first part, and the and Trust Co., of , Kentucky, party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, that said first part , in consideration of the sum of one ($1.00) dollar, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and the further consideration hereinafter set forth, ha granted, bargained, and sold, and hereby convey to said second party, and to its successors and assigns, all interest in certain lot or parcel of land in , Kentucky, with the appurtenances thereto, the improvements thereon, and the rents, issues and profits thereof, and bounded and described as follows, to wit: [description]

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same to said second party, its successors and assigns forever, with covenant of general warranty. And the said part covenant with said second party, its successors and assigns, that seized of a good and sure title in fee simple to the premises herein conveyed, and that the same are free from all encumbrances and liens.

PROVIDED, that this deed is made on the following conditions and for the purposes herein set forth, viz.:

1. WHEREAS, said ha borrowed of the and Trust Co., the sum of dollars, for which ha executed coupon bonds of even date herewith, numbered one to inclusive, , and due in years from date, payable to the and Trust Co., trustee, or bearer, at their office in Kentucky, with interest thereon at the rate of per centum per annum, payable semi-annually at the bank aforesaid, and with per centum per annum interest after due if not then paid; and for which said semi-annual interest coupons for signed by said are attached to said bonds. Each of said bonds bears the following indorsement: "This is one of the bonds mentioned in and secured by the within named mortgage," which indorsement is signed by the and Trust Co.

2. Said first part agree to keep the improvements on said mortgaged premises insured in some insurance company or companies, to be approved by said second party, to the amount of dollars, at all times until said debt shall be fully paid, and to cause the policies therefor to be properly assigned or made payable to said second party or to the holder of said bonds as collateral security for the payment of the debt hereby secured, and in case of loss, to be applied to such payment.

3. Said first part further agree to keep all taxes and assessments against said mortgaged premises paid, and that the same shall be kept free from liability therefor; and in default of such payment of taxes or assessments, or failure to cause such insurance to be made, the said second party, or the holder of any of said bonds, may cause such payments to be made and insurance to be had, and shall have the right to collect the same from said first part, heirs or assigns, with per centum per annum interest thereon until paid, and this mortgage shall extend to and include all such sums so paid for such insurance, taxes or assessments.

4. It is further agreed that if any interest coupon secured by this mortgage shall remain unpaid for more than thirty days after the same shall become due, and payment thereof shall have been demanded at the place of payment designated therein; or if the first part at any time after notice or demand thereto by the second party, or by the holder of any of the above mentioned bonds, shall fail to insure the mortgaged premises, or to repay to said second party or to any such bondholder, any money advanced for obtaining such insurance as herein above provided for, or if the first part shall for more than three months after demand thereto by the second party, or by any bondholder, fail to pay any taxes or assessments levied or imposed by law upon the said mortgaged premises, then and in either of said events, the entire debt secured by this mortgage shall become and be immediately due and payable, and the holder of any bond secured hereby may proceed to collect the same by law as if such bond had matured according to its terms, and may proceed by suit to enforce the lien of this mortgage and obtain a sale of the mortgaged premises for the payment of the entire mortgage debt with interest thereon. When the mortgage debt shall have become due, any bondholder may call upon and require the second party to bring suit for the foreclosure of the lien of this mortgage for the payment of the mortgage debt, having first, however, given to the second party satisfactory indemnity against reasonable attorney's fees and costs of litigation.

Now, should said well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, the above mentioned principal sum of dollars, with interest thereon, as the same shall become due and payable, and well and truly do and perform all the covenants and obligations as herein set forth, then this conveyance shall be null and void, otherwise remain in full force and virtue.

And the said second party also assigns this deed and accepts the trusts imposed thereby, and any party having equity under this deed may, in his own name and right, cause proceedings to be made to enforce the same. When the terms of this mortgage shall have been fully complied with, the party of the second part shall, at the cost of the said first part, release the lien thereof. The production of the bonds to the second party by the mortgagor shall be sufficient evidence to require such release of lien.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties of the first and second parts have hereto set their hands, the day and year first herein written. [Signatures.]

879. Timber Deed.

THIS INDENTURE, made this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19 ____, by and between _____, party of the first part, unto and with the _____, party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, that said party of the first part being the owners, in fee simple, and in possession of the following lands, lying and being situated in county, Arkansas, to wit: [description]. For and in consideration of the sum of dollars ($), to him in cash paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, has this day granted, sold and conveyed unto the said party of the second part and its lawful successors and assigns forever, all the timber over twelve inches in diameter on said lands, and enough of the smaller timber for skid poles, in removing said timber from the land.

IT IS AGREED, that said party of the first part shall pay all taxes and assessments levied against said lands and keep the same free from all alienation and encumbrance, except such as may be subordinate and subject to this indenture; and that any failure by said first party to pay taxes and assessments by the third day before the time for the payment of the same shall expire, shall be construed to be an authority to the party of the second part to pay the same, for which a lien on said land may be declared as now by law given to agents and others paying taxes on lands of others at their request.

The party of the second part shall cut and remove said timber as expeditiously as possible, and it is agreed that unless it shall have removed all the same within a period of years from the date hereof, that it shall be responsible for and pay to the first party the full amount of taxes assessed against said lands after the expiration of said period of years from this date until such time as said timber is removed and said possession returned to said first party. The said second party shall have free and uninterrupted possession of said land during the term of this indenture for the purpose herein set forth, and shall have free ingress and egress thereto and therefrom, with the right to build and operate tram or railroad on, to or across said land for the purpose of transporting the timber therefrom, or for transportation of timber belonging to or that may belong to said second party, and to this end shall be regarded as the holder of said land, to sue for and recover the same from all persons whatever, holding or attempting to hold the same; provided, that the said party, heirs or legal assigns may retain such possession of said land, at all times, as shall not interfere with the rights of the second party under this deed for the purpose aforesaid.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that said second party shall not have the right to enter any field on said land that is fenced or inclosed at date hereof, without first obtaining the consent of the party of the first part.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that whenever said timber shall have been removed, the party of the first part shall enter full possession of said land at once, whether the time for such removal be expired or not; provided that all right of railroad herein granted shall be perpetual; said right of way not to be less than fifty feet wide, and may be used for a regular freight and passenger railroad.

And the said party of the first part does hereby covenant with the second party and its lawful assigns and successors that he will forever warrant and defend the title of said timber, and right of way, against all lawful claims whatsoever.

And I, , wife of , aforesaid, for, and on my own behalf, do hereby freely and fully, for the purpose mentioned in this indenture, unite with my husband in making the same, and do forever relinquish and quit-claim unto the said _____, its successors and _____ assigns, all my right of and claim to dower in said land; that is to say, until the expiration of rights herein conveyed.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the said part _____ of the first part ha hereunto set _____ name _____, the day and year above written.

Right of re-entry, or of repossession for breach of condition subsequent, can be transferred. Civil Code of 1909, § 1046.

Person claiming title to real property in adverse possession may transfer it with same effect as if in possession. Ibid., § 1047.

A grant cannot be delivered to grantee conditionally. Delivery to him, or agent as such, is necessarily absolute. Ibid., § 1056.

Though grant not actually delivered into possession of grantee, it is constructively delivered where instrument is, by agreement of parties, understood to be delivered, and under such circumstances that grantee entitled to immediate delivery, or where it is delivered to stranger for benefit of grantee, and his assent is shown, or may be presumed. Ibid., § 1059.

Words of inheritance or succession are not requisite to transfer fee in real property. Ibid., § 1072.

Estate in real property, other than estate at will or for term not exceeding one year, can be transferred only by operation of law, or by instrument in writing, subscribed by party disposing of same, or agent authorized by writing. Ibid., § 1091.

A grant of an estate in real property may be made in substance as follows:

880. Deed, Statutory Form.

I, A B, grant to C D, all that real property situated in [insert name of county] county, state of California, bounded [or, described] as follows: [here insert description, or if the land sought to be conveyed has a descriptive name, it may be described by the name, as, for instance, "The Norris Ranch"].

WITNESS my hand, this [insert day] day of [insert month], 19 ____ . "A. B."
Ibid., § 1092.

When attorney in fact executes instrument, transferring estate in real property, he must subscribe name of principal to it, and his own name as attorney in fact. Ibid., § 1095.

A fee-simple title passes by grant of real property, unless it appears from grant a lesser estate intended. Ibid., § 1105.

Where person purports by proper instrument to grant real property in fee-simple, and subsequently acquires title or claim of title thereto same passes by operation of law to grantee or successors. Ibid., § 1106.

Grant of estate in real property is conclusive against grantor, also against every one subsequently claiming under him, except purchaser or encumbrancer who in good faith and for valuable consideration acquires title or lien by instrument that is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 1107.

Grant by owner of estate for life or years, purporting to transfer greater estate than he could lawfully transfer, does not work forfeiture of his estate, but passes to grantee all estate which grantor could lawfully convey. Ibid., § 1108.

From use of word "grant" in conveyance by which estate of inheritance or fee simple is to be passed, following covenants, and none other, on part of grantor for himself and heirs to grantee, heirs, and assigns, are implied, unless restrained by express terms contained in conveyance:

1. That previous to time of execution of conveyance, grantor has not conveyed same estate, or any right, title, or interest therein, to any person other than grantor;

2. That such estate is at time of execution of conveyance free from encumbrances done, made, or suffered by grantor, or any person claiming under him.

Such covenants may be sued upon in same manner as if expressly inserted in conveyance. Ibid., § 1113.

Instruments entitled to be recorded must be recorded by county recorder of county in which real property affected thereby is situated. Ibid., § 1169.

Instrument is deemed recorded when deposited in recorder's office, with proper officer, for record. Ibid., § 1170.

Conveyance of real property, recorded as prescribed by law, from time it is filed with recorder for record is constructive notice of contents thereof to subsequent purchasers and mortgagees; and certified copy of such recorded conveyance may be recorded in any other county and when so recorded the record thereof shall have same force and effect as though it was of original conveyance and where such original conveyance has been recorded in county wherein property therein mentioned is not situated a certified copy of such recorded conveyance may be recorded in county where such property is situated, with same force and effect as if original conveyance had been recorded in such county. Ibid., § 1213.

Conveyance of real property, other than lease for term not exceeding one year, is void against subsequent purchaser or mortgagee of property, or part thereof, in good faith and for valuable consideration, whose conveyance is first duly recorded, and against any judgment affecting the title, unless duly recorded prior to record of notice of action. Ibid., § 1214.

No instrument containing power to convey or execute instrument affecting real property, which has been recorded, is revoked by any act of party by whom executed, unless instrument containing such revocation is also recorded in same office. Ibid., § 1216.

Certified copy of instrument affecting title to real property once recorded may be recorded in any other county, and, when so recorded, record thereof has same force and effect as though it was of original instrument. Ibid., § 1218.

Agreement on part of seller of real property to give usual covenants, binds him to insert in the grant covenants of "seisin," "quiet enjoyment," "further assurance," "general warranty," and "against encumbrances." Ibid., § 1733.

Covenants mentioned in last section must be in substance as follows: "The party of the first part covenants with the party of the second part, that the former is now seized in fee-simple of the property granted; that the latter shall enjoy the same without any lawful disturbance; that the same is free from all encumbrances; that the party of the first part, and all persons acquiring any interest in the same, through or for him, will, on demand, execute and deliver to the party of the second part, at the expense of the latter, any further assurance of the same that may be reasonably required; and that the party of the first part will warrant to the party of the second part, all the said property against every person lawfully claiming the same." Ibid., § 1734.

The only covenants which run with the land are those specified in this title (on Transfer of Obligations, §§ 1457-1468), and those which are incidental thereto. Ibid., § 1461.

Covenant in grant of estate in real property, which is made for direct benefit of property, or some part of it then in existence, runs with the land. Ibid., § 1462.

Last section includes covenants "of warranty," "for quiet enjoyment," or for further assurance on part of grantor, and covenants for payment of rent, or taxes or assessments upon land, on part of grantee. Ibid., § 1463.

Covenant for addition of some new thing to real property, or for direct benefit of some part of property not then in existence or annexed thereto, when contained in grant of estate in such property, and made by covenantor expressly for his assigns, or to the assigns of covenantee, runs with land so far only as assigns thus mentioned are concerned. Ibid., § 1464.

Covenant running with land binds those only who acquire whole estate of covenantor in some part of property. Ibid., § 1465.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

No estate of inheritance, or for life, or for longer term than one year, in real property shall be created except by deed signed by grantor or lessor, or by will. (Code of Law of 1901, amended to 1905, § 492.)

No deeds of conveyance of real estate by individuals shall be executed by attorney. Ibid., § 498.

Deed conveying real property, or interest therein, executed and delivered to person in whose favor same is executed, shall take effect from date of delivery, except that as to creditors and subsequent bona fide purchasers and mortgagees without notice of said deed, and others interested in property, it shall take effect from time of delivery to recorder of deeds for record. Ibid., § 499.

When two or more deeds of same property are made to bona fide purchasers for value without notice, the deed or deeds first recorded according to law shall be preferred. Ibid., § 500.

No words of inheritance shall be necessary in deed to create a fee simple estate; but every conveyance of real estate shall pass a fee simple or other entire estate of grantor, unless contrary intention shall appear by express terms or be necessarily implied. Ibid., § 502.

The word "grant," or the phrase "bargain and sell," or other words purporting to transfer whole estate shall pass the whole estate and interest in the property described, unless there be limitations or reservations showing different intent. Ibid., § 503.

When, in any deed, the word "covenant" is used, it shall have same effect as if the covenant was expressed to be by covenantor, for himself, his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives, and shall be deemed to be with grantee or lessee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns. Ibid., § 505.

Covenant by grantor, in deed conveying real estate, "that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed," or a grant of real estate in which the granting words are followed by words "with general warranty," shall have same effect as if grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives will warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever. Ibid., § 506.

Covenant by grantor, in deed conveying real estate, "that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed," or a grant of real estate in which the granting words are followed by words "with special warranty," shall have same effect as if grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, devisees, personal representatives, and assigns against the claims and demands of the grantor and all persons claiming or to claim by, through, or under him. Ibid., § 507.

Covenant by grantor, in deed of land, "that the said grantee shall quietly enjoy said land," shall have same effect as if he had covenanted that the said grantee, his heirs and assigns, shall, at any and all times hereafter, peaceably and quietly enter upon, have, hold, and enjoy the land conveyed by the deed or intended to be so conveyed, with all the rights, privileges, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and to receive the rents and profits thereof, to and for his and their use and benefit, without any eviction, interruption, suit, claim, or demand whatsoever by the said grantor, his heirs or assigns, or any other person or persons whatever. Ibid., § 508.

Covenant by grantor, in deed of land, "that he has done no act to incumber said land," shall be construed to have same effect as if he had covenanted that he had not done or executed or knowingly suffered any act, deed, or thing whereby the land and premises conveyed, or intended so to be, or any part thereof, are or will be charged, affected, or incumbered in title, estate, or otherwise. Ibid., § 509.

Covenant by grantor, in deed of land, "that he will execute such further assurance of said land as may be requisite," shall have same effect as if he had covenanted that he, his heirs or devisees, will, at any time, upon any reasonable request, at the charge of the grantee, his heirs or assigns, do, execute, or cause to be done and executed, all such further acts, deeds, and things, for the better, more perfectly and absolutely conveying and assuring the lands and premises conveyed unto the grantee, his heirs and assigns, or intended to be conveyed, as by the grantee, his heirs or assigns, or his or their counsel learned in the law, shall be reasonably devised, advised, or required. Ibid., § 510.

Any person claiming title to land may convey his interest in same, notwithstanding there may be an adverse possession thereof. Ibid., § 513.

No estate or interest of freehold, or for term of years of more than two years, or any uncertain interest of, in or out of any messuages, lands, tenements or hereditaments shall be created, made, granted, transferred or released in any other manner than by deed in writing, signed and delivered by party creating, making, granting, conveying, transferring or releasing such estate, interest, or term of years, or by his agent thereunto lawfully authorized, unless by will. General Statutes of 1906, § 2448.

Warranty deeds of conveyance to land may be in the following form, viz.:

903. Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , A. D. , between , of the county of , in the state of , party of the first part, and , of the county of _____, in the state of _____, party of the second part,

 WITNESSETH:

That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of _____ dollars, to him in hand paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, and sold to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever, the following described land, to wit: _____ And the said party of the first part does hereby fully warrant the title to said land, and will defend the same against all lawful claims of all persons whomsoever.

Ibid., § 2449.

Deed executed in foregoing form shall be held to be a warranty deed with full common law covenants, and shall just as effectually bind grantor, and his heirs, as if said covenants were specifically set out therein. Ibid., § 2450.

By deed of bargain and sale, or by deed of lease and release, or of covenant to stand seized to the use of any other person, or by deed operating by way of covenant to stand seized to use of another person, of or in any lands or tenements in this state, the possession of bargainor, releasor or covenantor shall be deemed and adjudged to be transferred to bargainee, releasee or person entitled to the use as perfectly as if such bargainee, releasee or person entitled to the use had been enfeoffed by livery of seizin of land conveyed by such deed of bargain and sale, release or covenant to stand seized; but livery of seizin can be lawfully made of the lands or tenements at time of execution of deeds or any of them. Ibid., § 2455.

Where real estate is conveyed or granted without there being used in the conveyance or grant any words of limitation, such as heirs or successors, or similar words, such conveyance or grant shall pass the fee simple or other whole estate or interest which grantor had power to dispose of in real estate conveyed or granted, unless contrary intention shall appear in conveyance or grant. Ibid., § 2456.

Clerk of circuit court shall be, in county in which he is clerk, the recorder of deeds, and of all other papers not pertaining to the circuit court which he may be required by law to record.

For purposes of such recording, he shall keep:

A record of deeds, in which he shall record all deeds, and all leases of land, and all powers of attorney to execute any of such instruments, and all agreements relating to the conveyances of land which may be in form entitled to record. Ibid., § 1832.

No conveyance or transfer of real property, or of any interest therein, nor any lease for term of one year or longer, shall be good and effectual in law or equity against creditors or subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration and without notice, unless same be recorded according to law; nor shall any such instrument made or executed by virtue of any power of attorney be good or effectual in law or in equity against creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration and without notice unless power of attorney be recorded before accruing of right of such creditor or subsequent purchaser. Ibid., § 2480.

All instruments relating to real property which are authorized or required to be recorded shall be deemed to be recorded from time same are filed with officer whose duty it is to record same. Ibid., § 2488.

Deed to lands, made while same are held adversely to maker of deed, is not void. Code of 1895, § 3605.

When grantee accepts deed and enters thereunder, he will be bound by covenants therein, although deed not signed by him. Ibid., § 3600.

Deed to lands in State must be in writing, signed by maker, and delivered to purchaser, or some one for him, and be made on valuable or good consideration. Consideration of deed may be always inquired into when principles of justice require it. Ibid., § 3599.

Possession of deed by grantee is presumptive proof of delivery, but may be rebutted. Ibid., § 3603.

No prescribed form is essential to validity of deed to lands. If sufficient in itself to make known the transaction between the parties, no want of form will invalidate it. Ibid., § 3602.

Purchaser of lands obtains with the title, however conveyed to him, all rights any former owner, under whom he claims, may have had by virtue of any covenants of warranty of title, or of quiet enjoyment, or of freedom from incumbrances, contained in the conveyance from any former grantor, unless transmission of such covenants with land is expressly negated in covenant itself. Ibid., § 3612.

In sale of land, there is no implied warranty of title. Ibid., § 3613.

General warranty of title against claims of all persons, includes in itself covenants of right to sell, and of quiet enjoyment and of freedom from incumbrances. Ibid., § 3614.

General warranty of title in deed against claims of all persons, covers defects in title though known to purchaser at time of taking deed. Ibid., § 3615.

Offer to rescind is not necessary to recovery upon covenant of warranty. Ibid., § 3616.

Word "heirs," or its equivalent, is not necessary to create absolute estate; but every conveyance, properly executed, shall be construed to convey the fee, unless a less estate is mentioned and limited in such conveyance. Ibid., § 3083.

Every deed conveying lands shall be recorded in office of clerk of superior court of county where land lies. The record may be made at any time, but such deed loses its priority over subsequent recorded deed from same vendor, taken without notice of existence of first. Ibid., § 3618.

Purchaser at judicial sales may enforce any covenants of warranty running with the land which may be incorporated in the previous title-deeds, Ibid., § 5450.

Registrar of conveyances shall keep a "Daily Entry Book," having each page divided into appropriate columns, with titles or heads as prescribed. Act 4 of 1905, approved March 14, 1905, § 1.

He shall enter in said book in order in which they are received, all deeds left for record; noting in first column year, month, day, hour and minute of reception, and the other particulars in the appropriate columns; and every deed or instrument shall be considered as recorded at time so noted. Ibid., § 2.

Every instrument entitled by law to be recorded, shall be recorded in the order and as of time when same is delivered to registrar of conveyances for that purpose, and shall be considered as recorded from time of such delivery. Revised Laws (1905), § 2359, as amended by Act 7 of 1905, § 2, approved March 18.

It shall not be lawful to record any conveyance, unless previously stamped, as provided in chapter 101. Revised Laws (1905), § 2360.

Deeds, leases for term of more than one year, or other conveyances of real estate within this Territory, shall be recorded in office of registrar of conveyances, and every such conveyance not so recorded shall be void against subsequent purchaser, in good faith and for valuable consideration, not having actual notice of such conveyance, of same real estate, or any portion thereof, whose conveyance is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 2380.

Powers of attorney for transfer of real estate within this Territory shall, in order to their validity, be recorded in office of registrar of conveyances, in default of which no such instrument shall be binding to the detriment of third parties, or conclusive upon their rights and interests. Ibid., § 2381.

IDAHO.

Person claiming title to real property in adverse possession of another, may transfer it with same effect as if in actual possession. Revised Codes of 1909, § 3099.

Words of inheritance or succession are not requisite to transfer a fee in real property. Ibid., § 3102.

Conveyance of estate in real property may be made by instrument in writing, subscribed by party disposing of same, or by his agent thereunto authorized by writing. Ibid., § 3105.

When attorney in fact executes instrument transferring estate in real property, he must subscribe name of his principal to it, and his own name as attorney in fact. Ibid., § 3110.

A fee simple title is presumed to be intended to pass by a grant of real property unless it appears from grant that a lesser estate was intended. Ibid., § 3112.

Every grant or conveyance of an estate in real property is conclusive against grantor, also against every one subsequently claiming under him, except a purchaser or incumbrancer, who in good faith, and for valuable consideration, acquires title or lien by instrument that is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 3114.

Grant made by owner of estate for life or years, purporting to transfer a greater estate than he could lawfully transfer, does not work forfeiture of his estate, but passes to grantee all the estate which grantor could lawfully transfer. Ibid., § 3115.

From the use of the word "grant" in any conveyance by which an estate of inheritance, possessory right, or fee simple is to be passed, the following covenants, and none other, on part of grantor, for himself and his heirs, to grantee, his heirs and assigns, are implied, unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyance:

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance, the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title, or interest therein, to any person other than the grantee;

2. That such estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance free from incumbrances done, made, or suffered by the grantor, or any person claiming under him. Such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance. Ibid., § 3120.

Instrument executed by attorney in fact must not be recorded until power of attorney authorizing execution of the instrument is filed for record in same office. Ibid., § 3154.

Instruments entitled to be recorded must be recorded by county recorder of county in which the real property affected thereby is situated. Ibid., § 3156.

Instrument is deemed to be recorded when it is deposited in the recorder's office with the proper officer for record. Ibid., § 3157.

Every conveyance of real property recorded as prescribed by law, from the time it is filed with recorder for record, is constructive notice of the contents thereof to subsequent purchasers and mortgagees. Ibid., § 3159.

Conveyance of real property other than lease for term not exceeding one year, is void against subsequent purchaser or mortgagee of same property, or part thereof, in good faith and for valuable consideration, whose conveyance is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 3160.

Any instrument affecting title to or possession of real property may be recorded. Ibid., § 3149.

Transfer of land, bounded by highway, passes title of person whose estate is transferred to soil of highway in front, to center thereof, unless different intent appears from grant. Ibid., § 3119.

When grant of real property purports to be an absolute conveyance, but is intended to be defeasible on performance of certain conditions, grant is not defeated or affected against any person other than grantee or his heirs or devisees, or persons having actual notice, unless instrument of defeasance, duly executed, is recorded in office of county recorder of county where property is situated. Ibid., § 3404.

ILLINOIS.

Deed or other conveyance in writing, signed by party making same, shall be sufficient for giving, granting, selling, leasing or otherwise conveying or transferring lands, tenements or hereditaments in this state, so as absolutely and fully to vest in donee, grantee, bargainee, lessee, or purchaser all such estate or estates as shall be specified in such deed, lease or other conveyance. Revised Statutes of 1908, chap. 30, p. 488, § 1.

Person claiming right or title to lands, tenements or hereditaments, although out of possession, and notwithstanding adverse possession thereof, may sell, convey and transfer his or her interest in and to same, in as full and complete a manner as if in actual possession; and grantee or grantees shall have same right of action for recovery thereof, and derive same benefit and advantage therefrom, as if grantor or grantors had been in actual possession at time of executing conveyance. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 489, § 4.

In deeds whereby estate of inheritance in fee simple is limited to grantee and his heirs, or other legal representatives, words "grant," "bargain" and "sell," shall be adjudged an express covenant to grantee, his heirs, and other legal representatives, to wit, that the grantor was seized of an indefeasible estate in fee simple, free from encumbrances done or suffered from the grantor, except the rents and services that may be reserved, as also for quiet enjoyment against grantor, heirs and assigns, unless limited by express words contained in such deed; and the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, may in any action, assign breaches, as if such covenants were expressly inserted; but this law shall not extend to leases at rack-rent, or leases not exceeding one and twenty years, where actual possession goes with lease. Ibid., chap. 30, pp. 489, 490, § 8.

Deeds for the conveyance of land may be substantially in following form:

909. Full Covenant Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

The grantor [here insert name or names and place of residence], for and in consideration of [here insert consideration] in hand paid, conveys and warrants to [here insert the grantee's name or names] the following described real estate [here insert description], situated in the county of _____, in the state of Illinois.

Dated this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19 ____.

A. B. [I. S.]

Deed in substance in above form, when otherwise duly executed, shall be deemed and held a conveyance in fee simple, to grantee, his heirs or assigns, with covenants on part of grantor, (1) that at the time of the making and delivery of such deed he was lawfully seized of an indefeasible estate in fee simple, in and to the premises therein described, and had good right and full power to convey the same; (2) that the same were then free from all incumbrances; and (3) that he warrants to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, the quiet and peaceable possession of such premises, and will defend the title thereto against all persons who may lawfully claim the same. And such covenants shall be obligatory upon grantor, heirs and personal representatives, as fully and with like effect as if written at length in such deed. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 490, § 9.

Quitclaim deeds may be in substance, in following form:

910. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

The grantor [here insert grantor's name or names and place of residence], for the consideration of [here insert consideration], convey and quitclaim to [here insert grantee's name or names] all interest in the following described real estate [here insert description], situated in the county of _____, in the state of Illinois.

Dated this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19 _____.

A. B. [L. S.]

Deed in substance in form prescribed in this section, when otherwise duly executed, shall be deemed and held a good and sufficient conveyance, release and quitclaim to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, in fee of all the then existing legal or equitable rights of the grantor, in the premises therein described, but shall not extend to after acquired title unless words are added expressing such intention. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 490, § 10.

Every estate in lands which shall be granted, conveyed or devised, although other words heretofore necessary to transfer an estate of inheritance be not added, shall be deemed a fee simple estate of inheritance, if a less estate be not limited by express words, or do not appear to have been granted, conveyed or devised by construction or operation of law. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 491, § 13.

Deeds, powers of attorney, and other instruments relating to or affecting title to real estate in this state, shall be recorded in county in which such real estate is situated; but if such county not organized, then in county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 494, § 28.

Where original deed or other instrument relating to or affecting title to real estate, having tracts of land therein described lying in different counties, is recorded in any of such counties, it shall be lawful to record a certified copy of such deed or other instrument in counties where original not recorded; and recording of such certified copy shall be notice in same manner that the filing and the recording of the original would be, and copies from such records shall be prima facie evidence to same extent as if original had been so recorded. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 494, § 29.

Deeds and other instruments of writing which are authorized to be recorded, shall take effect and be in force from and after time of filing same for record, and not before, as to all creditors and subsequent purchasers, without notice; and all such deeds and title papers shall be adjudged void as to all such creditors and subsequent purchasers, without notice, until same filed for record. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 494, § 30.

Deeds and other instruments of writing relating to real estate shall be deemed, from time of being filed for record, notice to subsequent purchasers and creditors. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 494, § 31.

Term "real estate," as used in this act, shall be construed as co-extensive in meaning with "lands, tenements and hereditaments," and as embracing all chattels real. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 496, § 38.

No covenant of warranty shall be considered as broken by existence of highway upon land conveyed, unless otherwise particularly specified in the deed. Ibid., chap. 30, p. 496, § 39.

When premises mentioned in certificate of sale of real estate under judgment or decree of any court shall not be redeemed in pursuance of law the holder shall be entitled to deed at any time within five years from expiration of time of redemption. The deed shall be executed by sheriff, master in chancery or other officer who made sale, or his successor, or some person specially appointed by court for purpose. Ibid., chap. 77, pp. 1301, 1300, §§ 30, 27a.

The deed may be substantially in the following form:

911. Deed by Sheriff or Master in Chancery.

WHEREAS, A. B. did at the term of the court of county, A. D. 19 , recover a judgment [or, decree], against C. D., for the sum of and costs of suit, upon which an execution was issued, dated the day of , A. Conveyances of lands or of any interest therein, shall be, by deed in writing, subscribed by grantor or his attorney, except bona fide leases for term not exceeding three years. Annotated Statutes, Revision of 1908, § 3947.

No conveyance of lands by attorney shall be good, unless attorney is empowered by instrument in writing, subscribed by his principal in like manner as conveyance is required to be. Ibid., § 3948.

No person or persons shall be authorized to sell, release or convey real estate, or any interest therein, as attorney-in-fact of another, nor to make any deed or other paper entitled to record, as such attorney-in-fact, without being authorized so to do by instrument in writing, duly signed by person, persons or corporation granting such authority, particularly setting forth and specifying the power or authority given, granted and conferred, to be known as a power of attorney, which shall be duly recorded in office of recorder of county or counties where such business is to be transacted, or acts authorized to be executed; and when, after such record, the party shall do, execute or perform any act, power to do which is conferred by such power of attorney, the party conferring the power shall be bound as to all such acts done prior to notice of revoking of such authority, which notice may be given by a memorandum thereof entered on margin of record of power of attorney, duly attested by recorder, or by copy of a duly attested memorandum entered and attested as aforesaid. Ibid., § 3949.

It is the duty of county recorder to refuse to receive for record any deed which appears upon the face to be executed by an attorney-in-fact, until the letter creating such power, duly executed according to law, shall be first placed of record in his office as provided in section 3949. Ibid., § 3950.

Deed of release or quitclaim shall pass all the estate which grantor could convey by deed of bargain and sale. Ibid., § 3955.

No conveyance of real estate in fee-simple or for life or of any future estate, and no lease for more than three years from the making thereof, shall be valid and effectual against any person other than grantor, his heirs and devisees, and persons having notice thereof, unless made by deed recorded within the time and in the manner provided in this act. Ibid., § 3957.

Conveyance of lands worded in substance as follows:

914. Full Covenant and Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B. conveys and warrants to C. D. [here describe the premises] for the sum of [here insert the consideration], the said conveyance being dated, and duly signed by grantor — shall be deemed and held to be a conveyance in fee-simple to grantee, heirs and assigns, with covenant from grantor for himself, heirs and personal representatives, that he is lawfully seized of the premises, has good right to convey the same, and guarantees the quiet possession thereof; that the same are free from all incumbrances, and that he will warrant and defend the title to the same against all lawful claims. Ibid., § 3958.

915. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B. quitclaims to C. D. [here describe the premises], for the sum of [here insert the consideration], the said conveyance being duly signed by grantor, is a good sufficient conveyance in quitclaim to grantee, heirs and assigns. Ibid., § 3959.

It is not necessary to use the words "heirs and assigns of the grantee," to create in the grantee an estate of inheritance; and if it be intention of grantor to convey lesser estate, it shall be so expressed in the deed. Ibid., § 3960.

Every conveyance of lands or any interest therein, and every lease for more than three years, shall be recorded in recorder's office of county where lands situated; and conveyance or lease not so recorded in forty-five days from execution thereof, shall be fraudulent and void against subsequent purchaser, lessee or mortgagee in good faith and for valuable consideration. Ibid., § 3962.

When deed purports to contain absolute conveyance of any estate in lands, but is made, or intended to be made, defeasible by force of a deed of defeasance, bond or other instrument for that purpose, the original conveyance shall not thereby be defeated or affected against any person other than maker of the defeasance, or his heirs or devisees or persons having actual notice thereof, unless instrument of defeasance shall have been recorded, according to law, within ninety days after date of said deed. Ibid., § 3964.

Letters of attorney, containing a power to any one to sell or convey, or to sell and convey, lands as the agent of owner, may be recorded in county in which the lands to which such letter shall relate may be situate. Ibid., § 3992.

Conveyance made by tenant for life or years, purporting to grant or convey a greater estate than he possessed or could lawfully convey, shall not work forfeiture of estate, but shall pass to grantee or alienee all the estate which the tenant could lawfully convey. Ibid., § 3997.

916. Deed by Commissioner on Public Sale.

A. B., commissioner by the order [or, judgment] of [naming the court], in the case of [naming the party plaintiff], against [naming the party defendant], [or], on petition of [naming the description of the petitioner as A. B., administrator of C. D. [or], guardian of [naming the wards]], entered in [describe the kind of record, number of volume and page] conveys to E. F., [describe the premises] for [state consideration].

917. Deed by Executor or Administrator, Under Order of Court.

A. B., as executor of the last will of C. D. [or, A. B., as administrator of the estate of C. D.], by order of the circuit court of county, Indiana, entered in volume of the records of said court, on page , conveys to E. F., the following real estate [insert description] for the sum of dollars.

If, by the terms of the devise, the executor may convey property without an order of the court, the following is an appropriate form given by the same section:

A. B., as executor of the last will of C. D. [or, A. B., as administrator with the will annexed of the estate of C. D.], by virtue of said will, recorded in volume of the Record of Wills of county, in the state of Indiana, on page , conveys to E. F. the following real estate [here insert description], for the sum of dollars.

IOWA.

All persons owning real estate not held by adverse possession are deemed seized and possessed of same. Code of 1897, § 2912.

Term "heirs" or other technical words of inheritance are not necessary to create and convey estate in fee simple. Ibid., § 2913.

Every conveyance of real estate passes all the interest of grantor therein, unless contrary intent can be reasonably inferred from the terms used. Ibid., § 2914.

Adverse possession of real estate does not prevent a person from selling his interest in same. Ibid., § 2916.

No instrument affecting real estate is of any validity against subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration, without notice, unless recorded in office of recorder of county in which the same lies, as hereinafter provided. Ibid., § 2925.

The county auditor shall keep in his office books for the transfer of real estate, which shall consist of a transfer book, index book and plat book. Ibid., § 2927.

The form of the transfer book, index book, and book of plats is prescribed. Ibid., §§ 2928, 2929.

Whenever a deed of unconditional conveyance of real estate is presented, the auditor shall enter in index book, in alphabetical order, name of grantee, and opposite thereto number of page of transfer book on which such transfer is made; and upon the transfer book he shall enter in proper columns name of grantee, grantor, date and character of instrument, description of real estate, and number or letter of the plat on which the same is marked. Ibid., § 2930.

After the auditor has made the entries contemplated in the preceding sections, he shall indorse upon the instrument the following words: "Entered for taxation this day of , A. D. ," with the proper date inserted, and sign his name thereto. Ibid., § 2932.

The recorder shall not file for record any deed or other instrument unconditionally conveying real estate until the proper entries have been made upon the transfer books in the auditor's office, and indorsed upon the deed or other instrument. Ibid., § 2934.

The recorder must keep an index book, the pages of which are so divided as to show in parallel columns, each grantor, each grantee, time when instrument was filed, its date, its nature, book and page where record thereof may be found, and description of real estate conveyed. Ibid., § 2935.

He must indorse upon every instrument properly filed in his office for record the time when it was filed, and shall forthwith make the entries provided for in the preceding section, except that of the book and page where the record of the instrument may be found, and from that time such entries shall furnish constructive notice to all persons of the rights of the grantees conferred by such instruments. Ibid., § 2936.

Every such instrument shall be recorded as soon as practicable, after which he shall complete the entries aforesaid, so as to show the book and page where the record is to be found. Ibid., § 2938.

All instruments containing a power to convey, or in any manner relating to real estate, shall be held to be instruments affecting the same; and no such instrument when recorded as above prescribed, can be revoked as to third parties by any act of the parties by whom it was executed, until the instrument containing such revocation is filed for record in the same office in which the instrument containing such power is recorded. Affidavits explaining any defect in the chain of title to any real estate may be recorded as instruments affecting the same, but no one except the owner in possession of such real estate shall have the right to file the same. Ibid., § 2957.

The following or other equivalent forms, varied to suit circumstances, are sufficient for the purposes therein contemplated:

918. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

For the consideration of dollars, I hereby quitclaim to A. B. all my interest in the following tract of real estate [describing it].

919. Deed in Fee Simple Without Warranty, Statutory Form.

For the consideration of dollars, I hereby convey to A. B. the following tract of real estate [describing it].

920. Deed in Fee with Warranty, Statutory Form.

The same as the last preceding form, adding the words: "And I warrant the title against all persons whomsoever" [or other words of warranty, as the party may desire].

Ibid., § 2958.

Immediately after expiration of ninety days from date of completed service of the notice provided in section 1441 of expiration of right of redemption of lot or parcel of land sold for taxes, the county treasurer then in office shall make out a deed for each lot or parcel of land sold and unredeemed, and deliver it to purchaser upon return of certificate of purchase. The treasurer shall receive twenty-five cents for each deed made by him, and may include any number of parcels of land purchased by one person in one deed, if desired by him. Ibid., § 1442.

Deeds executed by the treasurer shall be substantially in the following form:

921. County Treasurer's Deed, Statutory Form.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that the following described real estate, viz.: [here follows the description], situated in the county of and state of Iowa, was subject to taxation for the year or years, A. D. , and the taxes assessed thereon for the year [or years] aforesaid remained due and unpaid at the date of the sale hereinafter named; and the treasurer of said county, having on the day of , A. D. , by virtue of the authority in him vested by law, at [an adjournment of] the sale begun and publicly held on the first Monday of December, A. D. , exposed to public sale at the office of the county treasurer in the county aforesaid, in substantial conformity with all the requirements of the statute, the real property above described, for the payment of the taxes, interest and costs then due and remaining unpaid on said property, and at the time and place aforesaid A B , of the county of and state of , having offered to pay the sum of dollars and cents, being the whole amount of taxes, interest and costs then due and remaining unpaid on said property, for [here follows the description of the property sold], which was the least quantity bid for, and payment of said sum having been made by him to said treasurer, the property was stricken off to him at that price; and the said A B did, on the day of , A. D. , duly assign the certificate of the sale of the property as aforesaid and all his right, title and interest in said property to E F of the county of and state of ; and by the affidavit of , filed in said treasurer's office on the day of , A. D. , it appears that notice has been given more than ninety days before the execution of these presents to and of the expiration of the time of redemption allowed by law; and three years having elapsed since the date of said sale, and said property having not been redeemed therefrom:

Now, I, C D , treasurer of said county, for the consideration of said sum to the treasurer paid as aforesaid and by virtue of law, have granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents grant, bargain and sell to the said A B , [or, E F], his heirs and assigns, the real property hereinbefore described, to have and to hold unto him [or, E F], his heirs and assigns, forever; subject, however, to all the rights of redemption provided by law. In witness whereof, I, C D , treasurer as aforesaid, by virtue of the authority aforesaid, have hereunto subscribed my name on this day of , A. D. .

KANSAS.

If land sold for taxes is not redeemed within three years from day of sale, county clerk of county where same was sold shall on presentation to him of certificate of sale execute in name of county, as county clerk, under seal of county, to purchaser, his heirs and assigns, a deed of the land so remaining unredeemed, which shall vest in grantee an absolute estate in fee simple in such lands, subject, however, to all unpaid taxes and charges which are a lien thereon; and such tax deed shall be prima facie evidence of regularity of all proceedings from valuation of land by assessor, inclusive, up to execution of deed, and may be recorded with like effect as other conveyances of land. Such deed shall be substantially in the following form:

924. County Clerk's Deed, Statutory Form.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that whereas, the following-described real property, viz., [description] situated in the county of , and state of Kansas, was subject to taxation for the year A. D. ; and whereas, the taxes assessed upon said real property for the year aforesaid remained due and unpaid at the date of the sale hereinafter mentioned; and whereas, the treasurer of said county did, on the day of , A. D. , by virtue of the authority in him vested by law, at [an adjourned sale of] the sale begun and publicly held on the first Tuesday of May, A. D. , expose to public sale, at the county seat of said county, in substantial conformity with all the requisitions of the statute in such case made and provided, the real property above described, for the payment of the taxes, interest and costs then due and remaining unpaid upon said property; and whereas, at the place aforesaid, A. B., of the county of , and state of , having offered to pay the sum of dollars and cents, being the whole amount of taxes, interest and costs then due and remaining unpaid on said property, for [here follows the description of the property sold], which was the least quantity bid for, and payment of said sum having been by him made to the said treasurer, the said property was stricken off to him at that price; and whereas, the said A. B. did, on the day of , A. D. , duly assign the certificate of the sale of the property as aforesaid, and all his right, title and interest in said property, to E. F. [or, when the land or lot was bid off for the county]; and whereas, at the place aforesaid, said property could not be sold for the amount of tax and charges thereon, and was therefore bid off by the county treasurer for said county for the sum of dollars and cents, the whole amount of tax and charges then due; and whereas, for the sum of dollars and cents, paid to the treasurer of said county on the day of , the county clerk did assign the certificate of sale of said property, and all the interest of said county in said property, to said E. F., of the county of , and state of , [and when subsequent taxes have been paid, insert the following: and whereas, the subsequent taxes of the year , amounting to the sum of dollars, have been paid by the purchaser, as provided by law;] and whereas, years have elapsed since the date of said sale, and the said property has not been redeemed therefrom as provided by law: Now, therefore, I, C. D., county clerk of the county aforesaid, for and in consideration of the sum of dollars and cents, taxes, costs and interest, due on said land for the year [or, years] to the treasurer paid as aforesaid, and by virtue of the statute in such case made and provided, have granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents do grant, bargain and sell, unto the said A. B. [or, E. F.], his heirs and assigns, the real property last hereinbefore described, to have and to hold unto him, the said A. B., [or, E. F.], his heirs and assigns, forever, subject, however, to all right of redemption provided by law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, C. D., county clerk as aforesaid, by virtue of authority aforesaid, have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the official seal of said county, on this day of , A. D. .

C. D., County Clerk.

General Statutes of 1909, § 9479.

Where purchaser at tax sale shall purchase more than one parcel or tract of land or lots, he may require the county clerk to include all such lands or lots in one deed, stating amount of tax, interest and penalty for which each separate tract is sold and conveyed, the sum of the separate amounts being the gross or aggregate consideration of the deed. The county clerk is allowed, in addition to his fee for the deed, five cents for each piece of land or lot so included in it. Ibid., § 9480.

All tax deeds shall be recorded by person or persons to whom issued, in office of register of deeds of proper county, within six months from date of issuance thereof. If not so recorded, they shall be void. Ibid., §§ 9491, 9493.

All persons owning lands not held by an adverse possession are deemed seized and possessed of same. Ibid., § 1650.

Term "heirs," or other words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple; and every conveyance of real estate shall pass all the estate of grantor therein, unless intent to pass a less estate shall expressly appear or be necessarily implied in the terms of the grant. Ibid., § 1651.

A conveyance of lands, worded in substance as follows:

925. Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B. conveys and warrants to C. D. [here describe the premises], for the sum of [here insert the consideration], the said conveyance being dated and duly signed by the grantor, is a conveyance in fee simple to grantee, heirs and assigns, with covenants from grantor, for himself, heirs and personal representatives, that he is lawfully seized of the premises, has good right to convey the same and guarantees the quiet possession thereof, that the same are free from all incumbrances, and he will warrant and defend the same against all lawful claims. Ibid., § 1652.

A conveyance of lands, worded in substance as follows:

926. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B. quitclaims to C. D. [here describe the premises], for the sum of [here insert the consideration], the said conveyance being duly signed by grantor, is a good and sufficient conveyance in quitclaim to the grantee, his heirs and assigns. Ibid., § 1653.

Conveyances of land, or of any other estate or interest therein, may be made by deed, executed by any person having authority to convey the same, or by his agent or attorney, and may be recorded. Ibid., § 1654.

Any person claiming title to real estate may, notwithstanding an adverse possession thereof, sell and convey his interest therein, in same manner and with like effect as if he was in the actual possession thereof. Ibid., § 1657.

All deeds or other conveyances of lands, or of any estate or interest therein, shall be subscribed by the party granting the same, or by his lawful agent or attorney. Ibid., § 1658.

Every instrument in writing that conveys any real estate, or whereby any real estate may be affected, may be recorded in office of register of deeds of county in which such real estate is situated. Ibid., § 1670.

Every such instrument in writing shall, from time of filing same with register of deeds for record, impart notice to all persons of the contents thereof; and all subsequent purchasers and mortgagees shall be deemed to purchase with notice. Ibid., § 1671.

No such instrument in writing is valid, except between the parties thereto, and such as have actual notice thereof, until it is deposited with register of deeds for record. Ibid., § 1672.

Every letter of attorney, or other instrument containing a power to convey real estate as agent or attorney for owner thereof, or to execute, as agent or attorney for another, any instrument in writing conveying real estate or whereby real estate may be affected, shall be recorded as other instruments in writing, conveying or affecting real estate, are required to be recorded. Ibid., § 1673.

Letters of attorney authorizing execution of deed or other instrument in writing, for the sale or conveyance of lands, tenements or hereditaments in this state, shall be recorded in office of register of deeds of county in which such lands, tenements or hereditaments are situated, previous to such sale, or the execution of such deed or other instrument of writing authorized by such power of attorney. Ibid., § 1674.

No such letter of attorney, or other instrument, recorded in the manner prescribed in the preceding section, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, until the instrument containing such revocation shall be deposited for record in same office in which the instrument containing the power is recorded. Ibid., § 1675.

Every person who shall make, execute or deliver any deed or writing for the conveyance or assurance of lands, tenements or hereditaments, which he had previously, by deed or writing, sold, conveyed, mortgaged or assured, or covenanted to convey or assure to any other person, such first deed being outstanding and in force, and shall not in such second deed or writing recite or describe such former deed or writing, or the substance thereof, with intent to defraud, and every person who shall knowingly take or receive such second deed or writing, is guilty of misdemeanor. Ibid., § 2589.

When deed of real property purports to be an absolute conveyance, but is intended to be defeasible on performance of certain conditions, such deed shall not be defeated or affected as against any person other than grantee or his heirs or devisees, or persons having actual notice, unless an instrument of defeasance, duly executed, shall have been recorded in office of register of deeds of county where the lands lie. Ibid., § 5195.

As between grantor and grantee of any land, when there is no express agreement as to which shall pay the taxes that may be assessed thereon, if such land is conveyed between the first day of March and the first day of November, the grantee shall pay same, but if conveyed between the first day of November and the first day of March, the grantor shall pay them. Ibid., § 9392.

NOTE.—Territorial grants of patent rights are required to be recorded in the United States patent office within three months after execution.

KENTUCKY.

Any interest in or claim to real estate may be disposed of by deed in writing. Statutes 1909, § 2043.

Unless a different purpose appear by express words or necessary inference, every estate in land created by deed, without words of inheritance, is a fee-simple or such other estate as the grantor had power to dispose of. Ibid., § 2044.

When a deed shall be made to a person then dead, his heirs shall take, hold and enjoy the title to the estate so conveyed as if such deed had been made to such heirs by name. Ibid., § 2045a.

A deed and warranty of land purporting to pass or assure a greater right or estate than the person can lawfully pass or assure, shall operate to convey or warrant so much of the right and estate as he can lawfully convey. Ibid., § 2048.

When real estate is conveyed, and the consideration, or any part thereof, remains unpaid, the grantor shall not have a lien for the same against bona fide creditors and purchasers, unless it is stated in the deed what part of the consideration remains unpaid. Ibid., § 2053.

A conveyance made by a tenant for life or years, purporting to grant a greater estate than he has, shall not work a forfeiture of his estate, but shall pass to grantee all the estate which such tenant could lawfully convey. Ibid., § 2053a.

Owner may convey any interest in lands not in the adverse possession of another; but no estate of inheritance or freehold, or for a term of more than one year, in lands, shall be conveyed, unless by deed or will. Ibid., § 2056.

Deeds of bargain and sale, deeds to stand seized to use, deeds of release and deeds of trust shall be held to vest the possession of the grantor in the grantee to the extent of the estate intended to be conveyed. Ibid., § 2057.

Every deed of release shall be as effectual for the purposes therein expressed, without the execution of a lease, as if the same had been executed. Ibid., § 2058.

A covenant by grantor in a deed, "that he will warrant the property hereby conveyed," or words of like import; or the words "with warranty," or "with general warranty," in any deed, shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs and personal representatives, would forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns, against the claims and demands of all persons whatever. A covenant by a grantor, "that he will warrant specially the property thereby conveyed," or words of like import, or the words "with special warranty," in any deed, shall have the same effect, as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs and personal representatives, would forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns, against the claims and demands of the grantor and all persons claiming, or to claim by, through, or under him. Ibid., § 2059.

No deed conveying any title to or interest in land, or lease of oil, gas, coal or mineral right and privilege, for a longer time than five years, shall be good against a purchaser for valuable consideration, not having had notice thereof, or any creditor, unless the same be lodged for record in the proper office, as prescribed by law, and the provisions of this section shall apply with like protection to the creditor of, or innocent purchaser from, the heir or devisee of the grantor. Ibid., § 2060.

All deeds and other instruments of writing which are required by law to be recorded to be effectual against purchasers without notice, or creditors shall be recorded in the clerk's office of the court of the county in which the property conveyed, or the greater part thereof, shall be. But it shall be unlawful for any court clerk or deputy clerk to admit to record in such office any deed or conveyance of any interest in real estate equal to or greater than a life estate, unless such deed shall plainly specify and refer to the next immediate source from which the grantor or grantors therein derived title to the said real estate or the interest conveyed therein.

If such a source of title be a deed or other recorded writing, then the deed offered for record shall refer to such former deed or writing, and give the office book and page where recorded, and the date thereof, if dated. If the property or interest therein be obtained by inheritance or in any other way than by recorded instrument of writing, then the deed offered for record shall state clearly and accurately how and from whom the title thereto was obtained by the grantor or grantors.

And if the title to such property or interest conveyed be obtained from two or more sources, then the deed offered for record shall plainly specify and refer to each of said sources in the manner above set out, and shall show which part of said property, or interest therein, was obtained from each of said sources.

It shall be unlawful for any grantor to lodge for record, or for any county court clerk or deputy to receive and permit to be lodged for record, any deed that does not comply with the provisions of this section.

A grantor who lodges for record and a county court clerk, or deputy, who receives and permits to be lodged for record any deed contrary to the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $50 for each offense. Ibid., § 2061.

No deed conveying a legal or equitable title to real estate shall be valid against a purchaser for valuable consideration, without notice thereof, or against creditors, until it is lodged for record. Ibid., § 2062.

All bona fide deeds of trust or mortgage shall take effect in the order that the same shall be lodged for record. Ibid., § 2063.

Any contract for the sale of land, or any interest therein, may be recorded in the county in which such lands are situated, in same offices and books in which deeds are recorded, and the record of all such contracts recorded shall, from time of lodging the same for record, be notice of such contracts to all persons. Ibid., § 2070.

If a deed or power of attorney, written in any language other than the English is produced to the proper recording officer, and offered for record, and if the person offering the same produce a correct English translation thereof, to be filed in the office and recorded with the deed or power of attorney, it shall be the duty of the clerk to record in the proper book both the original and copy. Ibid., § 2087.

No deed shall be held to be legally lodged for record until the tax be paid thereon. Ibid., § 2091.

Powers of attorney to convey or release real property, or any interest therein, may be recorded in the proper office in the manner prescribed for recording conveyances. If the conveyance made under a power, required by law to be recorded or lodged for record, to make the same valid against creditors and purchasers, then the power must be lodged or recorded in like manner; and no such power so recorded shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, except from the time when there shall be lodged for record in office in which the power is recorded a written revocation, executed in the manner prescribed for conveyances, or a memorandum of revocation may be made on the margin of the record thereof, which memorandum shall be signed by the party executing the same, and attested by the clerk. Ibid., § 2069.

930. Warranty Deed.

THIS DEED, made between _____, of the first part, and _____, of the second part, WITNESSETH: That the said part _____ of the first part, in consideration of _____, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, do hereby sell, grant, and convey to the part _____ of the second part, _____ heirs and assigns, the following described property, lying and being in the _____, and bounded thus: [herein insert description].

One in each parish Const., Art. 122, makes clerk of district court in each parish ex-officio recorder. Constitution and Revised Laws to 1902, inclusive, § 3065.

They shall have power within their several parishes to make conveyances and generally all contracts and instruments of writing. They shall also be register of conveyances. Ibid., § 3066.

No conveyance of property by officers, until all taxes are paid; penalty for violation. See §§ 3615, 3616. Ibid., §§ 3147, 3148.

Officers authorized to convey real estate shall not execute act, without production of receipt for all taxes. Penalty for violation. See §§ 2519, 2520. Ibid., §§ 3615, 3616.

Hereafter neither recorders, throughout the state, nor other persons authorized to convey real estate by public act, shall pass or execute any act for the sale, transfer or exchange of any real estate unless the state, parish and municipal taxes due on the same for three years next preceding the passage of the act of transfer be first paid, to be shown by the tax collector's receipt or certificate to that purpose (as amended by Act 88 of 1888, p. 148). Ibid., § 2519.

Recorders or other persons violating the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined for each violation. Ibid., § 2520.

There shall be a register of conveyances for the Parish of Orleans. Ibid., p. 1931, Art. 149 of Const.

MAINE.

A person owning real estate and having a right of entry into it, whether seized of it or not, may convey it or all his interest in it, by a deed to be recorded as hereinafter provided. Down trees lying on land at time of conveyance, are real estate and pass by the deed; but if they are peeled, or cut into wood, logs or other lumber, they are personal property, and the owner may remove them in a reasonable time thereafter. Carpets and carpeting, stoves and funnels belonging thereto, are not real estate and do not pass by a deed thereof. Revised Statutes of 1903, p. 657, § 1.

When a contingent remainder, executory devise, or estate in expectancy, is so limited to a person, that it will, in case of his death before the happening of such contingency, descend in fee simple to his heirs, he may, before it happens, convey it subject to the contingency. Ibid., p. 657, § 3.

A person seized of land as a tenant in tail may convey it in fee simple. When a minor is so seized, his guardian, licensed to sell it for his support and education, or to invest the proceeds for his benefit, may convey it in fee simple. When land is owned by one person for life with vested remainder in tail in another, they may by a joint deed convey same in fee simple. Such conveyances bar estate tail and all remainders and reversions expectant thereon. Ibid., p. 658, § 7.

A conveyance of a greater estate than he can lawfully convey, made by a tenant for life or years, will pass what estate he has, and will not work a forfeiture. Ibid., p. 658, § 8.

A conveyance of land to a person for life and to his heirs in fee, or by words to that effect, vests an estate for life only in the first taker, and a fee simple in his heirs. Ibid., p. 658, § 9.

No conveyance of an estate in fee simple, fee tail or for life, or lease for more than seven years, is effectual against any person, except grantor, his heirs and devisees, and persons having actual notice thereof, unless the deed is recorded as herein provided. Conveyances of the right, title or interest of grantor, if duly recorded, shall be as effectual against prior unrecorded conveyances, as if they purported to convey an actual title. Ibid., p. 658, § 11.

A deed, purporting to convey an absolute estate in land, cannot be defeated by an instrument intended as a defeasance, as against any other person than the maker, his heirs and devisees, unless such instrument is recorded in the registry where the deed is recorded. Ibid., p. 658, § 12.

There can be no estate created in lands greater than a tenancy at will, and no estate in them can be granted, assigned or surrendered, unless by some writing signed by the grantor, or maker, or his attorney. Ibid., p. 658, § 13.

The title of a purchaser for valuable consideration, or a title derived from levy of an execution, cannot be defeated by a trust, unless the purchaser or creditor had notice thereof. When the instrument, creating or declaring it, is recorded in registry where land lies, that is to be regarded as such notice. Ibid., p. 659, § 15.

A deed of release or quitclaim of the usual form conveys the estate, which the grantor has and can convey by a deed of any other form. Ibid., p. 657, § 17.

Deeds executed by an authorized agent of a person or corporation in name of his principal, or in his own name for his principal, are in law the deeds of such principal. Ibid., p. 659, § 18.

A deed may be recorded in the registry of deeds. Ibid., p. 660, § 26.

If a deed, duly executed and delivered, is lost or destroyed before being recorded, the grantee or person claiming under him, may file a copy of it in the registry of deeds in the county where the land lies; and it shall have the same effect as a record for ninety days. Ibid., p. 660, § 28.

If a deed conveying lands in more than one county is lost before being recorded in all, or if a deed is recorded in the wrong county or registry district and lost, a certified copy from a registry where it has been recorded, may be recorded in another county, or registry district, with the same effect as a record of the original. Ibid., p. 660, § 29.

A person having an interest in real estate of which any prior grantee has an unrecorded deed or other evidence of title, may give the latter personal notice in writing to have the same recorded; and if he neglects to have it so recorded for thirty days, a justice of the supreme judicial court, in session or vacation, on complaint, may cause said grantee or his heirs to be brought before him for examination, and unless sufficient cause is shown for such neglect, may order such deed or other evidence of title to be recorded, and the cost paid by the respondent, together with the legal fees of the register for recording such deed or other evidence of title. Ibid., pp. 600, 601, § 30.

Pews and rights in houses of public worship are real estate. Deeds of them, and levies by execution upon them may be recorded by clerk of town where the houses are situated, with same effect as if recorded in registry of deeds. Ibid., p. 661, § 31.

No agreement that a building erected with the consent of the land-owner, by one not the owner of the land upon which it is erected, shall be and remain personal property, shall be effectual against any person, except the owner of such land, his heirs, devisees and persons having actual notice thereof, unless such agreement is in writing and signed by such land owner, or by some one duly authorized for that purpose, and recorded as deeds are required to be recorded under this chapter (chap. 75, pp. 657-661, §§ 1-32). Ibid., p. 661, § 32.

Deeds of burial lots in any public cemetery may be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district where such cemetery is situated. Ibid., p. 263, § 20.

Conveyances, in whatever form, made to the inhabitants of a county, or to its treasurer, or to a person or committee for its benefit, are as effectual as if made in its corporate name. Ibid., p. 659, § 19.

The assignee of a grantee, or his executor or administrator, after eviction by an older and better title, may maintain an action on a covenant of seizin or freedom from encumbrance contained in absolute deeds of the premises between the parties, and recover such damages as the first grantee might have recovered on eviction, upon filing, at the first term, in court, for the use of his grantee, a release of the covenants of his deed and of all causes of action thereon. The prior grantee cannot, in such case, release the covenants of the first grantor to the prejudice of his grantee. Ibid., pp. 741, 742, § 30.

Grantees may appear and defend in suits against their grantors, in which the real estate conveyed is attached. Ibid., p. 742, § 31.

When it appears to the judge of probate having jurisdiction, that any deceased person has made a legal contract to convey real estate and was prevented by death from so doing, or that such deceased person, had made such a contract to convey an estate upon a condition, which in its nature could not be fully performed before his decease, and that in either case the person contracted with, or petitioner, has performed or is ready to perform the conditions required of him by the terms thereof, he may, on petition of such person, his heirs, assigns or legal representatives, authorize the executor or administrator, or special administrator of the deceased, or when there is no executor or administrator, the guardian of the heirs of the deceased, to execute deeds to carry said contract into effect; and when such conveyance is made to an executor or administrator, he shall stand seized of such estate to the same uses as in case of real estate set off to him on execution. Ibid., p. 652, § 15.

Before granting such authority, the judge shall cause due notice to be given to the heirs and all other parties interested, and require the person authorized to make conveyance, to give bond with sufficient sureties to account for whatever he receives therefor. Ibid., p. 652, § 16.

No license granted under this chapter (chap. 73, pp. 649-654, §§1-30), except when otherwise provided, remains in force for more than one year from its date; but when that time has expired, a new license may be granted, with or without new notice, at the discretion of judge, for sale of all or part of same real estate upon filing new bond. Ibid., p. 652, § 17.

When the real estate, for the sale of which license is necessary, lies in two or more counties, the supreme judicial or probate court, in either of said counties, may grant licenses for the sale of the whole, or any part thereof, in any other county. Ibid., p. 652, § 19.

MARYLAND.

A power of attorney to execute a deed shall be executed as required in section 27 of article 21, title "Conveyancing." Public General Laws of 1904, Art. 10, § 30, p. 295.

Any person executing a deed conveying real estate, as agent or attorney for another, shall describe himself in and sign the deed as agent or attorney. Ibid., Art. 21, § 27, p. 510.

In case any deed shall be executed, to whose validity recording is necessary by law, and it has not been recorded agreeably to law, without fraudulent intention of the party claiming under it, the court may, upon application of the party claiming under it, and upon such notice being given to the party making such deed, his heirs, devisees, executor or administrator, as the court may direct, and being satisfied that the party claiming under the deed has a fair and equitable claim to the premises therein mentioned to order and decree, without the appearance or hearing of defendant, that such deed shall be recorded; and when such deed is recorded, it shall, in pursuance of such decree, be taken and considered in all courts of law and equity against party making such deed, his heirs, devisees, executors, and administrators, in the same state, and to have same effect and consequences, as if recorded within the time prescribed by law; but such deed shall not destroy, or in any manner affect title of purchaser of same thing or premises in case of a purchase made after date of such deed, and without notice of such deed by the person making such after-purchase, whether such purchase be by contract or by deed recorded agreeably to law; nor shall such deed, though recorded as aforesaid, in any manner affect the creditors of the party making such deed, who may trust such party after the date of said deed. The provisions of this section apply to non-residents as well as to residents, and to infants and persons of unsound mind. Ibid., Art. 16, § 33, p. 384.

Every deed conveying real estate, which by any other instrument or writing shall appear to have been intended only as a security in the nature of a mortgage, though it be an absolute conveyance in terms, shall be considered as a mortgage, and the person for whose benefit such deed shall be made shall not have any benefit or advantage from the recording thereof, unless every instrument and writing operating as a defeasance of the same, or explanatory of its being designed to have the effect only of a mortgage or conditional deed, be also therewith recorded. Ibid., Art. 66, § 1, p. 1543.

No estate of inheritance or freehold, or any estate above seven years, shall pass or take effect unless the deed conveying the same shall be executed and recorded as herein provided. Ibid., Art. 21, § 1, p. 502.

All deeds conveying real estate which shall contain the names of the grantor and grantee, or bargainor and bargainee, a consideration in cases where a consideration is necessary to the validity of a deed, and a description of the real estate sufficient to identify the same with reasonable certainty, and the interest or estate intended thereby to be conveyed, shall be sufficient, if executed and recorded as herein required. Ibid., Art. 21, § 9, p. 505.

Every deed conveying real estate shall be signed by the grantor or bargainor. Ibid., Art. 21, § 10, p. 505.

No words of inheritance shall be necessary to create an estate in fee simple, but every conveyance of real estate shall pass a fee simple estate, unless a contrary intention shall appear by express terms or be necessarily implied therein. Ibid., Art. 21, § 11, pp. 505, 506.

Word "grant," phrase "bargain and sell," in a deed, or any other words purporting to transfer the whole estate of grantor shall be construed to pass to grantee the whole interest and estate of grantor in the lands therein mentioned, unless there be limitations or reservations showing, by implication or otherwise, a different intent. Ibid., Art. 21, § 12, p. 506.

Every deed of any of the interests or estates mentioned in the first section of this article shall be recorded within six months from its date, in the county or city in which the land affected by such deed lies; and where it lies in more than one county, or in the city of Baltimore and a county, it shall be recorded in all the counties and the said city in which such land lies. Ibid., Art. 21, § 13, p. 506.

Every deed of real property, when recorded as herein directed, shall take effect as between the parties thereto from its date. Ibid., Art. 21, § 14, p. 506.

No deed of real property shall be valid for the purpose of passing title unless recorded as herein directed. Ibid., Art. 21, § 15, p. 507.

Where there are two or more deeds conveying the same lands or chattels real, the deed or deeds first recorded according to law shall be preferred, if made bona fide and upon good and valuable consideration. This section to apply to all deeds or conveyances to whose validity recording is necessary. Ibid., Art. 21, § 16, p. 507.

Any deed or conveyance of or relating to land, required by law to be recorded, except deeds or conveyances by way of mortgages, may be recorded after the time herein prescribed; and when so recorded shall have, as against grantor, his heirs or executors, and against all purchasers with notice of such deed or conveyance, and against all creditors of such grantor and his heirs who shall become so after the recording of such deed or conveyance, the same validity and effect as if recorded within the time hereinbefore prescribed. Ibid., Art. 21, § 19, p. 508.

When grantee, his heir or executor, in any deed or conveyance, shall take possession of the lands purporting to be conveyed thereby, such deed or conveyance, after being recorded (though not recorded within six months), shall have against all persons, from the time of taking possession as aforesaid, the same effect and validity, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been recorded in proper time; nothing herein, however, to affect in any manner the preferences and priorities declared and given in section 16 of this article. Ibid., Art. 21, § 20, p. 508.

But as against all creditors who have become so before the recording of such deed or conveyance, and without notice of existence thereof, it shall have validity and effect only as a contract for the conveyance or assurance of the estate, interest or use, purported by such deed or conveyance to be conveyed or assured. Ibid., Art. 21, § 21, p. 509.

Every power of attorney authorizing an agent or attorney to sell and convey real estate shall be recorded with the deed executed in pursuance of such power of attorney. Ibid., Art. 21, § 25, p. 510.

Such power of attorney shall be deemed to be revoked when the instrument containing the revocation is recorded in the office in which the deed should properly be recorded. Ibid., Art. 21, § 26, p. 510.

Every bond, writing obligatory or contract for the conveyance of real estate, or any interest or estate of, in, or relating to real estate, and every bond, writing obligatory or contract for the leasing and demising for any term of years, of real estate, may be executed and recorded in same manner as deeds of real estate are required by this article to be executed and recorded, and as if such bonds, writings obligatory and contracts were deeds as aforesaid; and a certified copy of the record of such bond, writing obligatory or contract shall be received as evidence of the same, as fully as a like copy of the record of any such deed duly executed and recorded in manner aforesaid would be evidence of such deed. Ibid., Art. 21, § 28, pp. 510-511.

The foregoing forms, or forms to like effect, shall be sufficient; and any covenant, limitation, restriction or proviso allowed by law may be added, annexed to or introduced with the foregoing forms. Ibid., Art. 21, § 64, p. 521.

Any other forms conforming to the rules hereinbefore laid down, or to the rules of law, shall be sufficient. Ibid., Art. 21, § 65, p. 521.

When in a deed conveying real estate, the words "the said covenants" are used, such words shall have the same effect as if the covenant was expressed to be by the covenantor for himself, his heirs, devisees and personal representatives, and shall be deemed to be with grantee in the deed, his heirs, devisees and personal representatives and assigns. Ibid., Art., 21, § 70, p. 522.

A covenant by grantor in a deed conveying real estate, "that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed," shall have same effect as if grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, devisees* and personal representatives, will forever warrant the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, devisees and assigns, against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever. Ibid., Art. 21, § 71, pp. 522, 523.

* So in original.

A covenant by grantor in a deed conveying real estate, "that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed," shall have same effect as if grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, devisees and personal representatives, will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, devisees and personal representatives and assigns, against the claims and demands of the grantor and all persons claiming or to claim by, through or under him. Ibid., Art. 21, § 72, p. 523.

A covenant by grantor in a deed for land, "that he is seized of the land hereby conveyed," shall have same effect as if grantor had covenanted that the said grantor at the time of the execution and delivery of the said deed is and stands lawfully seized of, in and to the same. Ibid., Art. 21, § 73, p. 523.

A covenant by grantor, in a deed for land, "that he has the right to convey said land," shall have same effect as if grantor had covenanted that he has good right, full power and absolute authority to convey the said land unto the grantee in said deed, in the manner in which the same is conveyed, or intended so to be, by the deed, according to its true intent. Ibid., Art. 21, § 74, p. 523.

A covenant by grantor in a deed for land "that the said (the grantee) shall quietly enjoy said land," shall have same effect that* if he had covenanted that the said (the grantee), his heirs and assigns, might at any and all times thereafter peaceably and quietly enter upon, and have, hold and enjoy the land conveyed by the deed, or intended so to be conveyed, with all the rights, privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and to receive the rents and profits thereof, to and for his or their use and benefit, without any eviction, interruption, suit, claim or demand whatever, by the said (the grantor), his heirs or assigns, or any other person or persons whatever. Ibid., Art. 21, § 75, p. 523.

A covenant by a grantor in a deed for land, "that he has done no act to encumber said land," shall be construed and have same effect as if he had covenanted that he had not done or executed, or knowingly suffered any act, deed or thing whereby the land and premises conveyed, or intended so to be, or any part thereof, are or will be charged, affected or incumbered in title, estate or otherwise. Ibid., Art. 21, § 76, p. 524.

A covenant by grantor, in a deed for land, "that he will execute such further assurances of said land as may be requisite," shall have same effect as if he had covenanted that he, the grantor, his heirs or personal representatives, will, at any time, upon any reasonable request, at the charge of the grantee, his heirs or assigns, do, execute, or cause to be done and executed, all such further acts, deeds and things, for the better, more perfectly and absolutely conveying and assuring the lands and premises hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, unto the grantee, his heirs and assigns, in manner aforesaid, as, by the grantee, his heirs and assigns, or his or their counsel, learned in the law, shall be reasonably devised, advised or required. Ibid., Art. 21, § 77, p. 524.

All deeds of conveyance duly executed and recorded according to law, among the land records in any county in State, by executors of the last will and testament, executed with the formalities required for the passing of real estate by the laws of State of Maryland, or any non-resident testator, conveying lands lying in said county, shall be as valid and effectual in law and equity as if made by executors under last will and testament, duly executed and recorded in office of register of wills in State, for lands lying therein, and whose sales of real estate under authority of said will were duly made and reported to and ratified by an orphans' court in State, in case an authenticated copy of said last will and testament is filed and recorded in office of register of wills of county where the lands lie, and in case full authority was given by said last will and testament to executors to sell and convey said real estate. Ibid., Art. 21, § 79, pp. 524, 525.

* So in original.

All gifts, grants or conveyances of land in State, binding on any street or highway, or when any street or highway shall be one or more of the lines thereof, shall be construed to pass to the donee or grantee therein, all the right, title and interest of the donor or grantor of said land, to the centre of the street or highway on which the same is located or binding as aforesaid, unless donor or grantor shall in express terms in the writing by which the gift or conveyance is made reserve to himself all the right, title and interest to said street or highway. Ibid., Art. 21, § 92, p. 529.

Executor or administrator, including administrator de bonis non, of person who shall have made sale of real estate, and have died before receiving purchase money, or conveying same, may convey said real estate to purchaser, and his deed shall be good and valid in law, and shall convey all the right, title, claim and interest of such deceased person in such real estate as effectually as the deed of the party so dying would have conveyed the same: provided, the executor or administrator of the person so denying shall satisfy the orphans' court granting him administration that the purchaser has paid the full amount of the purchase money. Ibid., Art. 93, § 80, p. 1982.

The provisions of foregoing section shall extend to all cases where administration may have been granted by the proper authority in District of Columbia; and in all such cases the application to secure such deed shall be made to the orphans' court of city or county where the land sought to be conveyed is situate. Ibid., Art. 93, § 81, p. 1982.

943. Fee Simple Deed — City or County.

THIS DEED, made this day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , by ,

MASSACHUSETTS.

A deed which is executed and delivered by the person, or by the attorney of the person, who has authority therefor shall, subject to the limitations of section four, be sufficient, without any other act or ceremony, to convey land. Revised Laws of 1902, p. 1221, § 1 of chap. 127.

A deed of quit-claim and release shall be sufficient to convey all the estate which could lawfully be conveyed by a deed of bargain and sale. Ibid., p. 1222, § 2.

An estate or interest in land which is created without an instrument in writing signed by grantor or by his attorney shall have the force and effect of an estate at will only, and no estate or interest in land shall be assigned, granted or surrendered unless by such writing or by operation of law. Ibid., p. 1222, § 3.

A conveyance of an estate in fee simple, fee tail or for life, or a lease for more than seven years from the making thereof, shall not be valid as against any person, except the grantor or lessor, his heirs and devisees and persons having actual notice of it, unless it, or an office copy as provided in section fifteen of chapter twenty-two, is recorded in the register of deeds for the county or district in which the land to which it relates is situated. Ibid., p. 1222, § 4.

The record of a deed, lease, power of attorney or other instrument, purporting to affect the title to land, shall be conclusive evidence of delivery of such instrument, in favor of purchasers for value without notice who claim thereunder. Ibid., p. 1222, § 5.

A conveyance of land, if otherwise valid, shall, notwithstanding disseisin or adverse possession, be as effectual to transfer the title as if the grantor were actually seized and possessed of said land, and shall vest in grantee the rights of entry and of action for recovery of the estate incident to such title. Ibid., p. 1222, § 6.

A person seized of land as tenant in tail may convey such land in fee simple by a deed in common form, as if he were seized thereof in fee simple; and such conveyance shall bar the estate tail and all remainders and reversions expectant thereon. Ibid., p. 1226, § 24.

If land is held by one person for life with a vested remainder in tail in another, the tenant for life and the remainder man may convey such land in fee simple by their deed or deeds in common form, as if the remainder had been limited in fee simple; and such deed or deeds shall bar the estate tail and all remainders and reversions expectant thereon. Ibid., p. 1226, § 25.

Equitable estates tail, in possession or remainder, and all remainders and reversions expectant thereon, may be barred in the same manner as legal estates tail and the remainders and reversions expectant thereon. Ibid., p. 1226, § 26.

The person to whom an equitable fee simple is conveyed pursuant to the preceding section shall, upon request therefor, be entitled to a conveyance of the outstanding legal estate from the person in whom such legal estate is then or thereafter vested in trust. Ibid., p. 1226, § 27.

If a deed purports to contain an absolute conveyance of land, but is made defeasible by a deed, bond or other instrument, the original deed shall not be thereby affected, as against any person other than the maker of the instrument of defeasance and his heirs and devisees and persons having actual notice of it, unless such instrument is recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or district in which the land to which it relates is situated. Ibid., p. 1227, § 33.

If land is demised for the term of one hundred years or more, the term shall, so long as fifty years thereof remain unexpired, be regarded as an estate in fee simple as to everything concerning the descent and devise thereof upon the decease of the owner, the sale thereof by executors, administrators, guardians or trustees, and the levy of execution thereon; and whoever holds as lessee or assignee under such a lease shall, so long as fifty years of the term remain unexpired, be regarded as a freeholder for all purposes. Ibid., p. 1258, § 1 of chap. 129.

A conveyance by a tenant for life or years which purports to grant a greater estate than he possesses or can lawfully convey shall not work a forfeiture of his estate, but shall pass to the grantee all the estate which such tenant can lawfully convey. Ibid., p. 1268, § 7 of chap. 134.

If real property, upon which any encumbrance exists, is conveyed by deed the grantor, in whatever capacity he may act, shall before the consideration is paid, by exception in the deed or otherwise, make known to grantee the existence and nature of such prior encumbrance so far as he has knowledge thereof. Ibid., p. 1271, § 18.

Whoever conveys real property by a deed which contains a covenant that it is free from all encumbrances shall, if it appears by a public record that an actual or apparent encumbrance, known or unknown to him, exists thereon, be liable in an action of contract to the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, for all damages sustained in removing same. Ibid., p. 1271, § 19.

Every deed and other instrument required to be recorded in the registry of deeds shall be recorded in the registry of the county or district in which the land lies to which such deed or instrument relates; and in all things relating to the register or registry of deeds, each district therefor shall be deemed to be a county. Ibid., p. 350, § 14 of chap. 22.

If a deed or other writing affecting land lying in more than one county or district has been recorded in one county or district in which a part of the land lies, an office copy thereof recorded in any other county or district in which another part of the land lies, and in which the original has not been recorded, shall have the same effect as a record of the original instrument. Ibid., p. 350, § 15.

Every cemetery corporation shall regularly keep books in which it shall enter all conveyances of burial lots within said cemetery and all instruments of contract relating to conveyances of such lots. Such records shall have the same effect as if made in the registry of deeds for the county or district in which such cemetery is situated, and no other record shall be necessary. Ibid., pp. 690, 691, § 3 of chap. 78.

The collector of taxes shall execute and deliver to the purchaser upon a sale for taxes a deed of the land, which shall state the cause of sale, the price for which the land was sold, the name of the person on whom the demand for the tax was made, the places where the notices were posted, the name of the newspaper in which the advertisement of the sale was published, and the residence of the grantee, and shall contain a warranty that the sale has in all particulars been conducted according to law. The deed shall convey, subject to the right of redemption, all the right and interest which the owner had in the land when it was taken for his taxes, and the premises conveyed shall also be subject to and have the benefit of all covenants and restrictions lawfully existing in, upon or over said land or appurtenant thereto when so taken. Such deed shall not be valid unless recorded within thirty days after the sale. Ibid., § 43 of chap. 13, as amended by Act of March 17, 1905, Supplement of 1902-1906, p. 81.

Conveyances of lands or of any estate or interest therein, may be made by deed, signed by the person from whom the estate or interest is intended to pass, or by his lawful agent or attorney, and recorded as directed by this chapter (chap. 241, §§ 8956-9063). Compiled Laws of 1897, § 8956.

A deed of quit-claim and release, of the form in common use, shall be sufficient to pass all the estate which the grantor could lawfully convey by a deed of bargain and sale. Ibid., § 8957.

A conveyance made by a tenant for life or years, purporting to grant a greater estate than he possessed or could lawfully convey, shall not work a forfeiture of his estate, but shall pass to the grantee all the estate which such tenant could lawfully convey. Ibid., § 8958.

No covenant shall be implied in any conveyance of real estate, whether such conveyance contain special covenants or not. Ibid., § 8959.

No grant or conveyance of lands, or interest therein, shall be void for the reason that at the time of the execution thereof such lands shall be in the actual possession of another claiming adversely. Ibid., § 8961.

Every conveyance of real estate within state, which shall not be recorded as provided in this chapter, shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith, and for a valuable consideration, of the same real estate or any portion thereof, whose conveyance shall be first duly recorded. Ibid., § 8988.

Deeds of pews or slips in any church, may be recorded by the clerk of the township in which such church is situated, or by the clerk of the society or proprietors, if incorporated or legally organized. Ibid., § 8989.

The record, or a transcript of the record, of conveyances and other instruments authorized by law to be recorded, certified by the register in whose office the same may have been recorded, may be read in evidence in any court within state without further proof thereof. Ibid., § 8990.

When a deed purports to be an absolute conveyance in terms, but is made or intended to be made defeasible by force of a deed of defeasance or other instrument for that purpose, the original conveyance shall not be thereby defeated or affected, as against any person other than the maker of the defeasance, or his heirs or devisees, or persons having actual notice thereof, unless the instrument of defeasance shall have been recorded in the registry of deeds of the county where the lands lie. Ibid., § 8991.

The term "purchaser," as used in this chapter, shall be construed to embrace every person to whom any estate or interest in real estate shall be conveyed for a valuable consideration, and also every assignee of a mortgage, or lease, or other conditional estate. Ibid., § 8993.

Every letter of attorney, or other instrument containing a power to convey lands as agent or attorney for the owner of such lands, and every executory contract for the sale or purchase of lands, may be recorded in the registry of deeds of any county in which the lands to which such power or contract relates may be situated; and the record thereof, when recorded, or a transcript of such record duly certified, may be read in evidence in same manner, and with like effect, as a conveyance recorded in such county. Ibid., § 8995.

A deed is to be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the lands lie. Ibid., § 8978.

No letter of attorney, or other instrument so recorded, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, unless the instrument containing such revocation be also recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded. Ibid., § 8998.

Any conveyance of lands worded in substance as follows:

951. Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

"A. B. conveys and warrants to C. D. [here describe the premises] for the sum of [here insert the consideration]," the said conveyance being dated and duly signed by the grantor, shall be deemed and held to be a conveyance in fee simple to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, with covenant from the grantor for himself and his heirs and personal representatives, that he is lawfully seized of the premises, has good right to convey the same, and guarantees the quiet possession thereof; that the same are free from all encumbrances, and that he will warrant and defend the title to the same against all lawful claims. Ibid., § 9014.

Any conveyance of lands worded in substance as follows:

952. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

"A. B. quitclaims to C. D. [here describe the premises] for the sum of [here insert the consideration]," the said conveyance being duly signed by the grantor, shall be deemed to be a good and sufficient conveyance in quitclaim to the grantee, his heirs and assigns. Ibid., § 9015.

It is not necessary to use the words "heirs and assigns of the grantee" to create in the grantee an estate of inheritance; and if it be the intention of the grantor to convey any lesser estate, it shall be so expressed in the deed. Ibid., § 9016. *

Whenever any grantor who conveys real estate within state, has in his possession any unrecorded deed or deeds through or under which he derived title, of any lands by him so conveyed, it shall be his duty on the written request of his grantee or any subsequent grantee, to cause such deed or deeds to be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the proper county, or cause the same to be delivered to such grantee demanding the same for the purpose of recording within twenty days from the time when such written request shall have been served upon him. Ibid., § 9029.

If such grantor shall neglect or refuse to record such deed or deliver the same* to such grantee after having been requested so to do, as provided in preceding section, within the time above limited, he shall be liable to said grantee, his heirs, representatives or assigns, in penal sum of one hundred dollars damages, and also for all actual damages occasioned by such neglect or refusal to person or persons entitled thereto, to be recovered in an action on the case with costs of suit. Ibid., § 9030.

Where a deed or other instrument affecting the title to real estate, is executed, affecting land in two or more counties, and when the same is duly recorded in office of register of deeds in any county in which any part of the lands to be affected thereby is situate, and such instrument is lost or destroyed before being recorded in other counties in which land affected thereby shall be situate, any party or parties, interested in such lost deed or other writing, or in the real estate the title to which is affected thereby, may apply to the judge of probate court of county where such real estate may be situate in which the record shall not have been made, for an order to record a duly certified transcript of such deed or other instrument, in such county, and thereupon such judge of probate shall give notice by publication, in accordance with the practice of such court, for three successive weeks, of such application, and of time and place when and where a hearing will be had thereon, and on such hearing, if it shall appear to such probate judge that such deed or other instrument was duly executed and has been legally recorded in any county in this state, and that the same was lost or destroyed before being recorded in other counties in which real estate to be affected thereby was situate, such probate judge shall make an order authorizing a certified transcript of such deed or other writing, to be recorded in said county, and shall annex a duly certified copy of such order to such copy of such deed or other instrument, and such order authorizing a record thereof, may be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which such order shall be made, and such record shall have same force and effect as the record of the original would have had, had the same been recorded before being lost or destroyed. Ibid., § 9031.

The recording of a contract for the sale of land or any interest therein in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the lands lie, shall have the same force and effect as to subsequent encumbrancers and purchasers, as the recording of deeds. Ibid., §§ 9035, 9038.

When vendor named in said contract has ceased in law to be bound by its provisions, and is entitled to a release therefrom, the vendee named in said contract, his heirs or assigns, shall, when requested by said vendor, execute a discharge of said contract, in the same manner as now provided by law for the discharge of mortgages, and for a refusal to so discharge the same he shall be subject to same penalties as are now provided by law for a refusal to discharge a mortgage after the same has been fully paid. No contract for the sale of lands shall be deemed invalid for want of recording. Ibid., § 9039.

955. Contract for Sale of Land, With Right to Vendee to Remove Timber.

THIS AGREEMENT, made this day of , A. D. one thousand nine hundred and , between , of the first part, and , of the second part,

WITNESSETH, that the part of the first part, at the request of the part of the second part, and in consideration of the money to be paid and the covenants as herein expressed to be performed by the part of the second part, hereby agree to sell to the part of the second part, all certain lot and parcel of land situate in the of , in the county of , state of , known and distinguished as follows, to wit: [description] with all the privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and to convey to said part of the second part, by a good and sufficient deed in law, free from encumbrance, the above described tract of land, upon the full performance by the part of the second part of the following conditions, but not otherwise:

That is to say, FIRST.—That the part of the second part hereby agree to pay therefor the sum of dollars, of which sum dollars is now paid to the part of the first part, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged; and further agree to pay the remainder in accordance with the tenor of certain promissory notes given by the part of the second part to the part of the first part, and bearing even date herewith, with interest at the rate of per cent. per annum on the amount unpaid, payable annually, to wit:

One note for [describe notes].

But it is hereby agreed that in case of default being made by said part of the second part in any portion of the payments above mentioned, then all such payments, or portions thereof, so in default shall draw interest after maturity at the rate of seven per cent. per annum; payable semi-annually; all of said payments are to be made to the part of the first part, or to authorized agent, at SECOND.—That the part of the second part shall, from time to time, and in due season, pay all the legal taxes which may hereafter become due on said premises; and in case there shall be on the first day of April in any year any taxes due and unpaid on said land, and the part of the first part shall pay said taxes, the said part of the second part hereby agree to refund, on or before the delivery of the deed, the taxes that may be so paid, with interest, together with dollars annually as compensation to the part of the first part for attending to such payment.

THIRD.—That the part of the second part shall pay each and every of the said promissory notes at the time they severally become due and payable, according to the tenor and effect thereof. And it is expressly stipulated and agreed that the time of the payment of said notes is of the essence of this agreement, and that if default in the payment of either of said notes at maturity shall be made, the said part of the first part may, at option, at any time after the happening of such default and before receiving another payment, declare a forfeiture of the rights of the part of the second part, under this agreement, either by notice to be given to the part of the second part, or to any person who may be found in the possession or occupancy of said premises, or any part thereof, or by written notice to be deposited in any post-office directed to the said part of the second part, at , in the county of , and state of , and thirty days after the time of giving or mailing such notice, all the rights of the part of the second part under this agreement either at law or in equity, shall wholly and forever cease and determine (unless shall within said thirty days have paid all arrears that may then be due), and thereupon such of said notes as remain unpaid, shall (excepting as is hereinafter provided) be void, and shall be delivered up to the part of the second part on demand made by therefor, at the office of the part of the first part, in , where the same are made payable; but the part of the first part shall not be bound to refund any moneys which may have been paid upon this agreement, or upon said notes.

FOURTH.—That the said part of the second part shall not cut, or permit to be cut or carried away from said premises, any timber, wood or other material without the consent in writing of the part of the first part thereto being first had and obtained.

And if the part of the second part shall cut, or permit to be cut, any timber or wood upon said premises, or remove, or permit to be removed or carried away therefrom, any material, without the consent in writing of the part of the first part obtained as aforesaid, such act shall be deemed and taken to be a surrender of this agreement by , and shall henceforth and forever absolutely forfeit all claim to deed of said land, and every part thereof, and to all improvements which may have made thereon, and the part of the first part shall thereupon be wholly released, absolved and discharged from all liability or obligation to make the conveyance aforesaid, or to refund any of the moneys which may have been paid upon this agreement, or upon said notes; but said part of the first part shall be at liberty, and shall have full right to grant, bargain, sell and convey said premises, and every part thereof to any other person or persons, wholly released and discharged from all right and interest, claim and demand of the part of the second part therein and thereto, the same as though this agreement had not been made.

And if the part of the second part shall be or remain in the possession or occupancy of any portion of the above bargained premises after a violation of this agreement by the cutting of timber or wood thereon, or by the removal of materials therefrom, or after default in the payment of the said notes at maturity, or in any other of its conditions shall be deemed and taken to be trespasser, and may be ejected from and put out of the possession or occupancy of the premises, either with or without process of law; and no notice whatever to the part of the second part shall be necessary to entitle the part of the first part to enter upon and take possession of said premises, and to sell and convey the same to any other person. And further, it is hereby understood and agreed, that in case of a violation of this agreement by the wrongful cutting of timber or wood, or the removing of materials, or any other violation of this contract as herein mentioned, the part of the second part shall also be liable to be proceeded against as trespasser, in the same manner and to the same extent and effect as provided by law in case of trespassers upon pine or other lands.

FIFTH.—It is hereby agreed, that this contract shall not, nor shall any portion or interest therein, be sold or assigned without the written consent of the part of the first part.

All the obligations, stipulations and conditions herein contained are hereby declared to extend to, and be binding upon, the legal representatives and assigns of the parties respectively making the same.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties hereto have affixed their hands and seals at to this, together with one other contract of like tenor, on the day and year first above written.

MINNESOTA.

Where any person, if this chapter had not been passed, would become seized in fee tail of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, by virtue of any gift, grant, or other conveyance, or by any other means, he shall be deemed to be seized thereof as in fee simple. Revised Laws of 1905, § 3193.

A corporation may convey its real estate by an attorney appointed by resolution of its directors or governing board, a copy of which, certified by its clerk, or secretary, may be filed for record with the register of deeds. Ibid., § 3339.

A deed of quitclaim and release shall be sufficient to pass all the estate which the grantor could convey by a deed of bargain and sale. The word "heirs," or other words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple. Ibid., § 3340.

Warranty and quitclaim deeds may be substantially in the following forms:

957. Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B., grantor [here insert the place of residence], for and in consideration of [here insert the consideration], conveys and warrants to C. D., grantee, of [here insert the place of residence] the following described real estate in the county of _____, in the state of Minnesota: [here describe the premises]

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19 ____.

[Signature.]

Every such instrument, duly executed as required by law, shall be a conveyance in fee simple of the premises described to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, with covenants on the part of the grantor, his heirs and personal representatives, that he is lawfully seized of the premises in fee simple, and has good right to convey the same: that the premises are free from all incumbrances; that he warrants to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, the quiet and peaceable possession thereof; and that he will defend the title thereto against all persons who may lawfully claim the same. And such covenants shall be obligatory upon any grantor, his heirs and personal representatives, as fully and with like effect as if written at length in such deed.

958. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B., grantor, of [here insert the place of residence], for the consideration of [here insert the consideration], conveys and quitclaims to C. D., the grantee, of [here insert the place of residence], all interest in the following described real estate in the county of _____, in the state of Minnesota: [here describe the premises]

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19 ____.

Every such instrument, duly executed, shall be a conveyance to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, of all right, title, and interest of the grantor in the premises described, but shall not extend to after acquired title, unless words expressing such intention be added. Ibid., § 3341.

Except as provided in § 3341, no covenant shall be implied in any conveyance, whether such conveyance contains special covenants or not. Nor shall any grant or conveyance of lands, or of any interest therein, be void for the reason that at the time of the execution thereof such land was in the actual possession of another claiming adversely. Ibid., § 3342.

A conveyance made by a tenant for life or years purporting to grant a greater estate than he possessed or could lawfully convey, does not work a forfeiture of his estate, but passes to grantee all the estate which such tenant could lawfully convey. Ibid., § 3343.

In all conveyances by deed of real estate upon which any encumbrance exists, the grantor, whether he executes the same in his own right, or as executor, administrator, assignee, trustee, or otherwise by authority of law, shall, before the consideration is paid, by exception in the deed or otherwise, make known to the grantee the existence and nature of such incumbrance, so far as he has knowledge thereof. Ibid., § 3344.

Whoever conveys real estate by deed containing a covenant that it is free from all incumbrances, when an incumbrance, whether known to him or not, appears of record to exist thereon, but does not exist in fact, shall be liable in an action of contract to the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, for all damages sustained in removing the same. Ibid., § 3345.

A conveyance, power of attorney, or other instrument affecting real estate may be recorded in every county where any of the lands lie. Ibid., § 3348.

A copy of the record of any conveyance or other instrument authorized by law to be recorded in office of register of deeds in any county, or actually recorded therein in any county other than that in which the land described in or affected by the instrument was situated at time of record thereof, or authorized by law to be recorded in office of secretary of state or of the state auditor, certified by the proper custodian of such record to be a true copy thereof, may be recorded in any county, with the same force and effect that the original instrument would have if so recorded. Ibid., § 3349.

A certified copy of any judgment, decree, or order made by any court of record within state, affecting title to real estate or any interest therein, may be recorded in any county where any of the lands lie, in the same manner and with like effect as a conveyance. Ibid., § 3350.

Deeds of pews and slips in any church may be recorded by the register of deeds of the county in which such church is situated, or by the clerk of the society or proprietors, if incorporated or legally organized. Ibid., § 3352.

The record as herein provided of any instrument properly recorded shall be taken and deemed notice to parties. Ibid., § 3356.

Every conveyance of real estate shall be recorded in office of register of deeds of county where such real estate is situated; and every such conveyance not so recorded shall be void as against subsequent purchaser in good faith and for valuable consideration of same real estate or any part thereof whose conveyance is first duly recorded, and as against any attachment levied thereof, or any judgment lawfully obtained at suit of any party against person in whose name the title to such land appears of record prior to the recording of such conveyance. The fact that such first recorded conveyance is in the form, or contains the terms, of a deed of quitclaim and release shall not affect the question of good faith of such subsequent purchaser, or be of itself notice to him of any unrecorded conveyance of same real estate or any part thereof. Ibid., § 3357.

Every instrument in the form of a conveyance, lease, or in any other form, in any manner affecting standing timber, stone, ores, minerals, or other similar property in place in or upon the earth, executed in the manner provided for the execution of conveyances, may be recorded in the office of register of deeds of any county in which such property is situated, and such record shall be notice of the contents thereof and of the rights of all parties thereunder, as well after as before the severance or separation of such property from the land. Ibid., § 3359.

When a deed purports to be an absolute conveyance, but is made or intended to be made defeasible by force of an instrument of defeasance, the original conveyance shall not thereby be defeated or affected as against any person other than the maker of the defeasance, or his heirs or devisees, or persons having actual notice thereof, unless the instrument of defeasance is recorded in the county where the lands lie. Ibid., § 3361.

No instrument containing a power to convey lands, when recorded, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was recorded, unless the instrument containing such revocation be also recorded in the same office. Ibid., § 3362.

No estate or interest in lands, other than leases for a term not exceeding one year, nor any trust or power relating to lands, shall be created, granted, assigned surrendered, or declared unless by act or operation of law, or by deed or conveyance in writing, subscribed by the parties creating, granting, assigning, surrendering, or declaring the same, or by their lawful agent thereunto authorized by writing. This does not affect power of testator in disposition of real estate by will; nor prevent trust from arising or being extinguished by implication or operation of law. Ibid., § 3487.

When a deed or other instrument conveying land, or a plat of any town site or addition thereto, is presented to the county auditor for transfer, he shall ascertain from his records if there be taxes due upon the land described therein, or if it has been sold for taxes. If there are taxes due, he shall certify to the same; and upon payment of such taxes, and of any other taxes that may be in the hands of the county treasurer for collection, or in case no taxes are due, he shall transfer the land upon the books of his office, and note upon the instrument, over his official signature, the words, "Taxes paid and transfer entered," or, if the land described has been sold or assigned to an actual purchaser for taxes, the words, "Paid by sale of land described within," and, unless such statement is made upon such instrument, the register of deeds shall refuse to receive or record the same: but sheriffs' or referees' certificates of sale on execution or foreclosure of a lien or mortgage, decrees and judgments, and copies of town or village plats, in case the original plat filed in office of register of deeds has been lost or destroyed, may be recorded without such certificate. A violation of this section by the register shall be a gross misdemeanor; and, in addition to the punishment therefor, he shall be liable to the grantee of any instrument so recorded for the amount of any damages sustained. Ibid., § 985.

Before the auditor shall indorse his certificate upon any instrument as prescribed in § 985, the same shall be presented to the county treasurer, and, if it appears by his records that the current taxes assessed against the lands therein described have been paid, he shall note over his official signature the words, "Taxes for the year on the lands described within paid." Ibid., § 986.

Upon presentation of a deed or other instrument conveying an undivided part of a parcel of land, and upon payment of an equivalent proportional part of the taxes due thereon, the auditor and treasurer shall indorse their respective certificates thereon as prescribed in §§ 985, 986. The treasurer shall receive payment of such fractional part of the taxes due on such parcel. Ibid., § 987.

When a deed purporting to convey or quitclaim any parcel of land, the record title to which appears to be in two or more persons, is presented to the county attorney, accompanied by an abstract of title to such land, he shall examine such deed and abstract, upon tender of a fee of five dollars therefor. If he finds that such deed is given for the purpose of correcting a defect in the title, or on account of a technical error in a prior conveyance, he shall so certify upon the deed; and thereupon the register of deeds shall record it, if otherwise entitled to record, notwithstanding that there are unpaid taxes or assessments upon such land. Ibid., § 988.

When any part less than the whole of any parcel of land as charged in the tax lists is conveyed, the auditor shall transfer the same whenever the seller and purchaser agree, in a writing signed by them, or personally appear before the auditor and agree upon the amount of the assessed valuation as may appear to him just. If the auditor is satisfied that the proportion of the valuation so agreed to be transferred is greater than the proportional value of the land to be transferred therewith, and that such agreement was made by collusion of the parties, and with a view fraudulently to evade payment of taxes assessed on the entire parcel, he may refuse to make such transfer; and, when any such transfer has already been procured by fraudulent agreement, he shall cancel the same, and the land so transferred shall be charged with taxes in the same manner as though said transfer had not been made. Ibid., § 989.

On the second Monday in May in each year the county auditor shall sell all parcels of land against which judgment has been entered and remains unsatisfied for the taxes of the preceding year or years. Ibid., § 927.

The county treasurer shall attend the sale, and receive all moneys paid thereon. Ibid., § 928.

The auditor shall execute to the purchaser of each parcel a certificate which may be substantially in the following form:

959. Auditor's Certificate on Sale for Taxes, Statutory Form.

I, _____, auditor of the county of _____, state of Minnesota, do hereby certify that at the sale of lands pursuant to the real estate tax judgment entered in the district court in the county of _____, on the _____ day of _____, 19____, in proceedings to enforce the payment of taxes delinquent on real estate for the years _____, for the county of _____, which sale was held at _____, in said county of _____, on the _____ day of _____, 19____, the following described parcel of land, situate in said county of _____, state of Minnesota, to wit: [insert description] was offered for sale to the bidder who should offer to pay the amount for which the same was to be sold, at the lowest annual rate of interest on such amount; and at such sale I did sell the said parcel of land to _____ for the sum of _____ dollars, with interest at _____ per cent. per annum on such amount, that being the sum for which the same was to be sold, and such rate of interest being the lowest rate per cent. per annum bid on such sum; and he, having paid said sum, I do therefore, in consideration thereof, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, convey the said parcel of land, in fee simple, to said _____, his heirs and assigns, forever, subject to redemption as provided by law.

WITNESS my hand and official seal this _____ day of _____, 19____.
_____, County Auditor.

If the land shall not be redeemed as in this chapter provided, such certificate shall pass to the purchaser an estate therein in fee simple without any other act or deed whatever. Such certificate may be recorded, after the time for redemption shall have expired, as other deeds of real estate, and with like effect. If any purchaser at such sale shall purchase more than one parcel, the auditor shall issue to him a certificate for each parcel so purchased. Ibid., § 929.

963. Contract for Sale of Land — Crop Clause.

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this day of , A. D. 19 , by and between ; party of the first part, and , party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, that the party of the first part, in consideration of the covenants and agreements of the said party of the second part hereinafter contained, hereby sells and agrees to convey unto the said party of the second part, or assigns, by good and sufficient deed of warranty, on the prompt and full performance by said second party of his part of this agreement, the following described premises, situated in the county of , and state of Minnesota, to wit: [description] and the second party agrees to pay the party of the first part as and for the purchase price of said premises the sum of dollars, with interest on all deferred payments at the rate of per cent. per annum, interest payable annually on the day of , 19 , and to begin , 19 , said payments to be made in the manner and at the times following, to wit:

One-half of all the grain to be sown and grown on said premises in each and every year hereafter and during the continuance of this contract, beginning with the crop for the year 19 ; said one-half of grain to be delivered in the elevator or on the cars at , or at some other convenient point not more remote, as said first party shall direct, within a reasonable time after threshing the same, and free of all expense or charge to the first party; said grain to be delivered in the name of the first party and to be by first party promptly sold, and the proceeds thereof applied, first in payment of interest on said sum at per cent. per annum, and second in reduction of said principal sum.

The second party further agrees that he will pay all taxes levied or assessed upon said premises before the same become delinquent, beginning with the taxes for the year 19 ; that he will during the proper season in the year 19 , break and back-set in a suitable manner, not less than acres of the land herein described, now uncultivated; that he will properly sow and plant during each and every year of the continuance of this contract, as much of said land as can be profitably sown and planted, and will have in crop during the year 19 , not less than acres of wheat, and during each and every year thereafter while this contract continues in force, not less than acres of wheat.

And that during the continuance of this contract he will carefully watch over and protect all buildings, fences and shade trees now or hereafter on said premises, and will in all respects farm and cultivate said premises in a careful and husbandmanlike manner.

But should default be made in the delivery of said several payments of grain or any of them or any part thereof, as herein agreed, or in any of the covenants herein to be by the party of the second part kept and performed, then this agreement to be void at the election of the party of the first part, time being the essence of this agreement.

And in case of default by said second party, in whole or in part, of any or either of the covenants of this agreement by him to be kept and performed, he hereby agrees on demand of said first party, to quietly and peaceably surrender possession of the said premises and every part thereof, it being understood and agreed that until such default said party of the second part is to have possession of said premises.

IT BEING FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, that until the delivery of one-half of the grain as aforesaid, during each and every year of this contract, the legal title to and ownership of all of said grain raised during each and every year shall be and remain in the first party.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent said second party from paying in any year or years more than one-half of the grain, as above stated, and having said extra payments applied upon said debt.

This contract shall not be assignable by second party without the written consent of the first party.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, this day of , A. D. 19 .

964. Contract for Sale of Lands.

THIS AGREEMENT, made this day of , A. D. 19 , by and between , of the county of , and state of , party of the first part, and , of the county of , and state of , party of the second part, WITNESSETH, that the party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of dollars, to be paid as hereinafter agreed, and of the faithful performance of the covenants, agreements and conditions hereinafter expressed, on the part of the party of the second part to be performed, kept and fulfilled (the performance of each and every of said covenants, agreements and conditions, as well as the payment of said money, being hereby expressly declared a condition precedent, and of the essence of this contract), hereby agrees to sell to the party of the second part, the parcel of land situate and being in the , county of , and state of , described as follows, to-wit: [description] in , according to the recorded plat thereof on file in the office of the register of deeds for the county of , in the state of , together with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging.

And the party of the second part hereby covenants and agrees to purchase of the party of the first part the above described land and premises, and to pay therefor the full sum of dollars, in manner following, that is to say:

The sum of $ at or before the execution of this contract.

The sum of $ on the day of 19 .

The sum of $ on the day of 19 .

with interest at the rate of per cent. per annum, from the date hereof, on the whole sum from time to time remaining unpaid.

And the party of the second part covenants and agrees with the party of the first part, that so long as this contract remains in force, he will well and faithfully, in due season, pay all taxes and assessments, ordinary and extraordinary, that may be levied or assessed, or that may become chargeable on said premises or any part thereof; and that all buildings and improvements now on said land, or that shall hereafter be erected, placed, or made thereon, shall not be removed therefrom, but shall be and remain the property of the party of the first part until this contract shall be fully performed by the party of the second part, and the party of the second part for himself and for his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenants and agrees with the party of the first part, his heirs and assigns, that should default be made in the payment, or in any of the payments of the principal, or of the interest aforesaid at the time or any of the times above specified for the payment therefor, or in case the party of the second part shall fail to pay the taxes or assessments upon said land as hereinbefore agreed, then and in such case, this agreement, at the option of said party of the first part, may be canceled and terminated, and all rights, title and interest acquired thereunder by said second part forfeited, by thirty days' written notice, made and served upon said second part in accordance with the provisions of the statute in such case made and provided; and the land and all the buildings and improvements thereon, and all payments made, shall be, and forever remain the absolute property of the party of the first part, his heirs, or assigns, and the party of the second part shall have no right or claim thereto, or any action, or right of action to recover said money, land or buildings, and improvements, or any or either, or any part thereof; it being expressly understood and agreed that time is the essence of this contract, and that the performance of each and every of the covenants and agreements of the party of the second part hereinbefore contained, is as much the consideration of this contract, and a condition precedent, as the payment of the purchase money aforesaid.

And the said party of the first part covenants and agrees with the party of the second part, that upon the full, prompt and faithful performance by the party of the second part of each and every the said covenants and agreements by him to be performed, kept and fulfilled, and upon the payment of the principal and interest of the sum and sums of money above mentioned, in the manner and at the time and times above specified, the party of the first part will convey the said land and premises to the party of the second part, by good and sufficient deed and conveyance with the usual covenants of general warranty.

And it is further agreed that no sale, transfer, assignment or pledge of this contract or of any interest therein, or of or in the premises therein described, shall be in any manner binding upon the party of the first part unless the said party of the first part shall first consent thereto by writing thereon.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the party of the first part and the party of the second part have hereunto subscribed their names in duplicate, the day and year first above written.

965. Contract for Deed — Crop Clause.

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this day of , A. D. 19 , by and between , party of the first part, and , party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, that if the party of the second part shall first make the payments and perform the covenants hereinafter mentioned on part to be made and performed, the said party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees to convey and assure to the said party of the second part in fee simple, clear of all encumbrances whatever, by a good and sufficient warranty deed, the lot , piece or parcel of ground, situate in the county of , and state of Minnesota, known and described as [description]. And the said party of the second part hereby covenants and agrees to pay the said party of the first part the sum of , payable at the at , Minnesota, in the manner following:

The sum of $ at or before the execution of this contract; with interest at the rate of per cent. per annum, payable annually, on the whole sum remaining from time to time unpaid, and to pay all taxes, assessments or impositions that may be legally levied or imposed upon said land, subsequent to the year . And the said party of the second part agrees to plow and put in crop at least acres of said land each year during the life of this contract, and for the purpose of securing the payments and interest herein, does hereby grant, bargain, sell and mortgage to the said party of the first part all the crops grown on said land during the life of this contract for an amount in each year equal to the amount due and to become due in said year. And in case of the failure of said party of the second part to make either of the payments, or interest thereon or any part thereof, or perform any of the covenants on part hereby made and entered into, then the whole of said payments and interest shall at the election of said first party become immediately due and payable, and this contract shall at the option of the party of the first part be canceled and determined, and all right, title and interest acquired thereunder by said second party forfeited, by giving to said second party thirty days' notice in writing of the intention of said first party to so cancel and determine this contract and annul all right, title and interest acquired thereunder by said second party; said notice to be in accordance with the statute in such case made and provided.

The sum of $ on the day of 19 .

The sum of $ on the day of 19 .

It is mutually understood and agreed by and between the parties of this contract that thirty days is a reasonable and sufficient notice to be so given to said second party, in case of failure to perform any of the covenants on part hereby made and entered into, and shall be sufficient to cancel all obligations hereunto on the part of the said first party, and fully reinvest with all right, title and interest hereby agreed to be conveyed, and the party of the second part shall forfeit all payments made by on this contract, and right, title and interest in all buildings, fences or other improvements whatsoever, and such payments and improvements shall be retained by the said party of the first part, in full satisfaction and in liquidation of all damages by sustained, and shall have the right to re-enter and take possession of the premises aforesaid.

IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED, by and between the parties hereto, that the time of payment shall be an essential part of this contract; and that all the covenants and agreements herein contained shall extend to and be obligatory upon the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the respective parties.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, both parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year hereinbefore written.

Any interest in or claim to land may be conveyed, to vest immediately or in the future, by writing signed and delivered; and such writing shall have the effect to transfer, according to its terms, the title of person signing and delivering it, with all its instruments, as fully and perfectly as if it were transferred by feoffment with livery of seizin, notwithstanding there may be an adverse possession thereof. Code of 1906, § 2762.

An estate of inheritance or freehold, or for term of more than one year, in lands shall not be conveyed from one to another unless the conveyance be declared by writing signed and delivered. Ibid., § 2763.

Every estate in lands granted or conveyed, although words deemed necessary by common law to transfer an estate of inheritance be not added, shall be deemed fee-simple if less estate be not limited by express words, or unless it clearly appear from the conveyance or will that a less estate was intended to be passed thereby. Ibid., § 2764.

Conveyance of quitclaim and release shall be sufficient to pass all the estate or interest grantor has in land conveyed, and shall estop grantor and his heirs from asserting a subsequently acquired adverse title to lands conveyed. Ibid., § 2767.

Words "grant, bargain, sell," shall operate as express covenant to grantee, his heirs and assigns, that the grantor was seized of an estate, free from incumbrance made or suffered by the grantor, except the rents and services that may be reserved, and also for quiet enjoyment against the grantor, his heirs and assigns, unless limited by express word contained in conveyance; and grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, may, in any action, assign breaches as if the covenants above mentioned were expressly inserted. Ibid., § 2769.

All alienations and warranties of lands purporting to convey or pass a greater estate than grantor may lawfully convey or pass, shall operate as alienation or warranties of so much of right and estate in such lands as grantor could lawfully convey, but shall not pass or bar right to residue of estate purported to be conveyed; nor shall alienation of any particular estate on which a remainder may depend, whether such alienation be by will or other writing, nor the union of such particular estate with the inheritance, by purchase or by descent, so operate, by merger or otherwise, as to defeat, impair, or in any way affect such remainder. Ibid., § 2774.

Covenant or agreement made in consideration of marriage, shall not be good against purchaser for valuable consideration, not having notice thereof, or any creditor, unless covenant or agreement be lodged with clerk of chancery court of proper county to be recorded, in same manner that conveyances of real or personal estate are directed to be recorded. (§ 2786, Code of 1906.) Ibid., § 2786.

All bargains and sales, and all other conveyances of lands, whether made for passing an estate of freehold or inheritance, or for a term of years shall bevoid as to creditors and subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, unless lodged with clerk of chancery court of proper county, to be recorded in same manner that other conveyances are required to be recorded; but the same as between the parties and their heirs, and as to subsequent purchasers with notice or without valuable consideration, shall nevertheless be valid and binding. Ibid., § 2787.

Every conveyance, covenant and agreement shall take effect, as to subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, and as to creditors, only from time when delivered to clerk to be recorded. Ibid., § 2788.

Title-bond or other written contract in relation to land may be recorded, in same manner as conveyances of land; and delivery to clerk of chancery court of proper county to be recorded, shall be notice to subsequent purchasers of existence of bond or contract. Ibid., § 2789.

Conveyance of land may be in following form, and shall be as effectual to transfer all the right, title, claim, and possession of the person making it as can be done by any sort of conveyance, viz:

966. Statutory Form of Deed.

"In consideration of [here state it], I convey and warrant to the land described as [describe it].

"WITNESS my signature, the day of , A. D. ."

If only a special warranty is intended, add word "specially" to word "warrant" in conveyance. Ibid., 2816.

Word "warrant" without restrictive words in conveyance shall have effect of embracing all of the five covenants known as common law, to wit: seizin, power to sell, freedom from incumbrance, quiet enjoyment and warranty of title. Do., § 2817.

Words "warrant specially," in conveyance, shall constitute covenant that the grantor, his heirs and personal representatives, will forever warrant and defend the title of the property unto the grantee and his heirs, representatives, and assigns, against the claims of all persons claiming by, through, or under the grantor. Ibid., § 2818.

Conveyance without any warranty shall operate to transfer title and possession of grantor as a quitclaim and release. Ibid., § 2819.

Conveyance of land sold by sheriff under execution may be in following form, and shall be sufficient to convey all of the title of defendant in execution, which any conveyance such officer might make would in such case convey; and a conveyance by constable in like form, the proper changes being made, shall have like effect in case of sale made by him, viz:

967. Deed by Sheriff.

"By virtue of an execution issued by the clerk of the circuit court of county, on the day of , A. D. , returnable before said court on the Monday of , A. D. , to enforce the judgment of said court, rendered on the day of , A. D. , in favor of against , for dollars, and costs, I, as sheriff of county, have this day, according to law, sold the following lands, to wit: [here describe the land]; when became the best bidder therefor at the sum of dollars, and he having paid said sum of money, I now convey said land to him.

"WITNESS my hand, the , A. D. .

, Sheriff.

Ibid., § 2822.

A conveyance by an administrator, executor, guardian, master, or commissioner, who may sell land under decree of court, may be in following form, and shall be effective to convey all that could or would be conveyed in such case by any form of conveyance, viz:

968. Deed by Administrator, Executor, Guardian, Master or Commissioner.

"By virtue of the authority conferred on me, administrator of the estate of _____, deceased, by the decree of the chancery court of _____ county, rendered on the _____ day of _____, confirming a sale made on the _____ day of _____, in pursuance of a decree of said court rendered on the _____ day of _____, I, as administrator of said estate, in consideration of _____ dollars, convey to _____, the purchaser thereof, the following land, to wit: [here describe the land].

"WITNESS my signature, the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____."

The description of character of maker of conveyance will vary the form according to the fact. Ibid., § 2823.

969. Form of Deed by Tax Collector.

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, }
County of _____ }

Be it known, that I, _____, the tax collector of the said county of _____, did, on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, according to law, sell the following land, situated in said county and assessed to _____, to wit: [here describe the land] for the taxes assessed thereon (or when sold for other taxes, it should be so stated) for the year A. D. _____, when _____ became the best bidder therefor and the purchaser thereof, at and for the sum of _____ dollars and _____ cents. I therefore sell and convey said lands to the said _____.

GIVEN under my hand, the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, _____, Tax Collector.

Ibid., § 4332.

970. Deed of Trust, Statutory Form.

A deed of trust or mortgage may be in the form of a conveyance to the witness clause and then as follows:

"In trust to secure [here state what is secured, and all the necessary provisions].

"WITNESS my signature, the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____."

Ibid., § 2820.

MISSOURI.

The sale and conveyance of real estate under a will shall be made by the acting executor or administrator with the will annexed, if no other person be appointed by the will for that purpose, or if such person fail or refuse to perform the trust. Annotated Statutes of 1906, § 137.

If a testator or intestate shall have entered into a contract, in writing, for the conveyance of real estate, and shall not have executed same, nor given power by will to execute same, the other party may present a petition to court, setting forth the facts, and praying that an order be made that the executor or administrator execute such contract specifically, by executing to him a deed for same. Ibid., § 173.

Such petitioner shall annex to his petition an affidavit to the truth thereof, and stating that no part of such contract has been satisfied, except as stated in the petition. Ibid., § 174.

Notice of the application and a copy of petition shall be served on executor or administrator, and also on heirs or devisees residing or who may be served in the county twenty days before the first day of the term at which it is to be made. Ibid., § 175.

If court, after hearing all parties, believe specific execution of such contract ought to be made, it shall make an order that the executor or administrator execute such contract specifically, saving to infants, married women, persons of unsound mind and persons absent from the United States, the term of five years after their disabilities are removed to appear and file their petition in the circuit court to set aside such order, for fraud or otherwise. Ibid., § 176.

When any order for specific execution of a contract shall be made, the executor or administrator shall execute and deliver to petitioner a deed, conveying the estate according to the order, and expressing therein the saving of the rights above named, according to the order, and stating date of order and court at which it was made. Ibid., § 177.

Such deed shall be as effectual as if it had been executed by the deceased. Ibid., § 178.

When an unconditional judgment shall be made for a conveyance, release or acquittance, and the party required to execute the same shall not comply therewith, such judgment shall be considered and taken to have the same operation and effect and be as available as if the conveyance, release or acquittance had been executed conformably to the judgment. Ibid., § 787.

Conveyances of lands, or of any estate or interest therein, may be made by deed executed by any person having authority to convey the same, or by his agent or attorney, and recorded as herein directed. Ibid., § 900.

Any person claiming title to real estate may, notwithstanding an adverse possession thereof, sell and convey his interest therein, in same manner and with like effect as if he was in actual possession thereof. Ibid., § 905.

All deeds or other conveyances of lands, or of any estate or interest therein, shall be subscribed by the party granting the same, or by his lawful agent. Ibid., § 906.

The words "grant, bargain and sell," in all conveyances in which any estate of inheritance in fee simple is limited, shall, unless restrained by expressed terms contained in such conveyances, be construed to be the following expressed covenants on the part of the grantor, for himself and his heirs to the grantee, his heirs and assigns: First, that the grantor was, at the time of the execution of said conveyance, seized of an indefeasible estate in fee simple, in the real estate thereby granted; second, that such real estate was, at the time of the execution of such conveyance, free from encumbrances done or suffered by the grantor or any person under whom he claims; third, for further assurances of such real estate to be made by the grantor and his heirs to the grantee and his heirs and assigns; and may be sued upon in the same manner as if such covenants were expressly inserted in the conveyance. Ibid., § 907.

All deeds or other instruments of writing conveying or affecting real estate, executed in a foreign country, and in accordance with the laws of this state, may be made and taken in the language of such country, and the same, accompanied with a sworn translation in English of the same, by the recorder of land titles in the county where recorded, shall be entitled to record, and be received in evidence in any court in the state, in like manner as if the same were originally written in the English language. Ibid., § 909.

Every instrument in writing that conveys any real estate, or whereby any real estate may be affected, in law or equity, shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which such real estate is situated. Ibid., § 923. .

Every such instrument in writing, recorded in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, shall, from the time of filing the same with the recorder for record, impart notice to all persons of the contents thereof and all subsequent purchasers and mortgagees shall be deemed, in law and equity, to purchase with notice. Ibid., § 924.

No such instrument in writing shall be valid, except between the parties thereto, and such as have actual notice thereof, until the same shall be deposited with the recorder for record. Ibid., § 925.

Every letter of attorney, or other instrument containing a power to convey real estate as agent or attorney for the owner thereof, or to execute, as agent or attorney for another, any instrument in writing conveying real estate, or whereby real estate may be affected in law or equity, shall be recorded, as other instruments in writing conveying or affecting real estate are required to be recorded. Ibid., § 930.

No such letter of attorney, or other instrument, recorded in the manner prescribed in the preceding section, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, until the instrument containing such revocation shall be deposited for record in the same office in which the instrument containing the power is recorded. Ibid., § 931.

Whenever any deed or other instrument of writing, conveying or affecting real estate situate in two or more counties in this state, is duly recorded in any one of said counties, any person interested therein may procure from the recorder of deeds of such county a duly certified copy of such record with his seal of office affixed, and cause such certified copy, together with the certificate thereof, to be recorded in any other county where such real estate may be situated, in same manner as original instrument is or may be by law required to be recorded. Ibid., § 9086.

The record of such copy and certificate shall, after same has been duly made, thereafter impart notice to all persons of contents of such record and of the original instrument from which such record has been made, and all subsequent purchasers and mortgagees shall be deemed to purchase with notice thereof. Ibid., § 9087.

Where any person or persons are seized of lands, tenements or hereditaments, to the use, confidence or trust of any other person or persons, or of any body politic, by reason of any bargain, sale, feoffment, covenant, contract, agreement, will, or otherwise, all and every such person or persons and bodies politic having any such use, confidence or trust, in fee simple for term of life or of years, or otherwise, or any use, confidence or trust, in remainder or reversion, shall be seized, deemed and adjudged in lawful seizin, estate and possession of and in the same lands, tenements and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, of and in such like estates, as they had or shall have in use, confidence or trust of or in the same; and the estate, right, title and possession that was or shall be in such person or persons that were or shall be seized of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, to the use, confidence, or trust of any such person or persons, or of any body politic, shall be deemed and adjudged to be in him, her or them, that have or thereafter shall have such use, confidence or trust, after such quality, manner, form or condition as they had before in or to the use, confidence or trust that was or shall be in them. Ibid., § 4589.

The term "heirs," or other words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple, and every conveyance of real estate shall pass all the estate of the grantor therein, unless the intent to pass a less estate shall expressly appear, or be necessarily implied in the terms of the grant. Ibid., § 4590.

An estate of freehold or of inheritance may be made to commence in future by deed, in like manner as by will. Ibid., § 4596.

All deeds executed by any sheriff to a purchaser of land sold for delinquent and back taxes, shall be prima facie evidence that the persons named therein as defendants in the suit to enforce the lien of the state of Missouri for the delinquent and back taxes, were the absolute owners of the land conveyed, at the time of the institution of the action. Ibid., § 3150.

The officer who shall sell under execution any real estate, or lease of lands and tenements for more than three years, shall make to the purchaser a deed, to be paid for by the purchaser, reciting the names of the parties to the execution, the date when issued, the date of the judgment, order or decree, and other particulars, as recited in the execution; also a description of the property, the time, place and manner of the sale, which recital shall be received as evidence of the facts therein stated. Ibid., § 3210.

Every such deed executed by sheriff upon a sale under execution shall be recorded as other conveyances of land. Ibid., § 3213.

In a suit on any special tax-bill the judgment shall be special that the plaintiff shall recover the amount found due, including interest, together with costs, to be levied and made off the land described in the tax-bill, and a special execution shall issue to sell the land to pay such judgment, interest and costs. Upon sales made by the sheriff under any such special execution, he shall issue to the purchaser a certificate of purchase, setting forth the substance of such special execution, the date of sale, the purchaser, the property sold and the amount paid. If the property so sold be redeemed within one year from date of sale, no deed shall be given by sheriff. If the lot or parcel of land so sold be not redeemed, a deed shall be given at end of one year from date of said sale by sheriff to holder of certificate. Such deed shall vest all the right, title, interest and estate in the land so sold that defendants and each of them owned at the time that the lien of the tax-bill commenced, or acquired afterwards. Ibid., § 6314.

The judgment in an action to enforce payment of taxes, if against defendant, shall describe the land upon which taxes are found to be due; shall state the amount of taxes and interest found to be due upon each tract or lot, and the year or years for which the same are due, up to the rendition thereof; and shall decree that the lien of the state be enforced, and that the real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such judgment, interest and costs, be sold, and a special fieri facias shall be issued thereon, which shall be executed as in other cases of special judgment and execution. Ibid., § 9304.

The sheriff shall execute to the purchaser of real estate so sold, a deed of the same, which shall convey a title in fee to such purchaser of the real estate therein named, and shall be prima facie evidence of title, and that the matters and things therein stated are true. Ibid., § 9305.

Every person who shall make, execute or deliver any deed or writing for the conveyance or assurance of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, which he had previously, by deed or writing, sold, conveyed, mortgaged or assured, or covenanted to convey or assure, to any other person, such first deed being outstanding and in force, and shall not in such second deed or writing recite or describe such former deed or writing, or the substance thereof, with intent to defraud, and every person who shall knowingly take or receive such second deed or writing, shall be guilty of a crime. Ibid., § 1932.

MONTANA.

An estate, during the life of a third person, whether limited to heirs or otherwise, is a freehold. Revised Codes of 1907, § 4486.

Except where the grant under which the land is held indicates a different intent, the owner of the land when it borders upon a navigable lake or stream takes to the edge of the lake or stream at low water mark; when it borders upon any other water, the owner takes to the middle of the lake or stream. Ibid., § 4529.

An owner of land bounded by a road or street is presumed to own to the center thereof, but the contrary may be shown. Ibid., § 4530.

A grant takes effect, so as to vest the interest intended to be transferred, only upon its delivery by grantor. Ibid., § 4596.

A grant duly executed is presumed to have been delivered at its date. Ibid., § 4597.

A grant cannot be delivered to the grantee conditionally. Delivery to him, or to his agent as such, is necessarily absolute. Ibid., § 4598.

Words of inheritance or succession are unnecessary to transfer a fee in real property. Ibid., § 4608.

An estate in real property, other than an estate at will or for a term not exceeding one year, can be transferred only by operation of law, or by an instrument in writing subscribed by party disposing of same, or by his agent thereunto authorized by writing. Ibid., § 4612.

A grant of an estate in real property may be made in substance as follows:

976. Statutory Form of Deed.

"I, A. B., in consideration of dollars now paid, grant to C. D. all the real property situated in [insert name of county] county, State of Montana, bounded (or, described) as follows: [here insert description, or if the land sought to be conveyed has a descriptive name, it may be described by the name, as for instance, 'The Norris ranch'].

"WITNESS my hand this [insert day] day of [insert month] 18 .

When an attorney in fact executes an instrument transferring an estate in real property, he must subscribe the name of the principal to it, and his own name as attorney in fact. Ibid., § 4616.

Any person in whom the title of real estate is vested, who shall afterwards have his or her name changed, shall, in any conveyance of said real estate so held, set forth the name in which he or she derived title to said real estate, and a failure to comply with the provisions of this section, shall subject any such person to a penalty of fifty dollars, to be collected by the county attorney for the benefit of the common schools. Ibid., § 4617.

A fee simple title is presumed to be intended to pass by a grant of real property, unless it appears from the grant that a lesser estate was intended. Ibid., § 4619.

Every grant of an estate in real property is conclusive against the grantor, also against every one subsequently claiming under him, except a purchaser or incumbrancer who in good faith and for a valuable consideration acquires a title or lien by an instrument that is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 4621.

A grant made by an owner of an estate for life or years, purporting to transfer a greater estate than he could lawfully transfer, does not work a forfeiture of his estate, but passes to the grantee all the estate which the grantor could lawfully transfer. Ibid., § 4622.

A transfer of land, bounded by a highway, passes the title of the person whose estate is transferred to the soil of the highway in front of the center thereof, unless a different intent appears from the grant. Ibid., § 4626.

From the use of the word "grant" in any conveyance by which an estate of inheritance or fee simple or possessory title is to be passed, the following covenants, and none other, on the part of grantor for himself and his heirs to grantee, his heirs and assigns, are implied, unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyance:

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance, the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title, or interest therein to any person other than the grantee.

2. That such estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance free from incumbrances done, made, or suffered by the grantor or any person claiming under him.

Such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance. Ibid., § 4627.

Any instrument affecting the title to or possession of real property may be recorded under this chapter (§§ 4643-4687). Ibid., § 4643.

Instruments entitled to be recorded must be recorded by the county clerk of the county in which the real property affected thereby is situated. Ibid., § 4650.

An instrument is deemed to be recorded, when it is deposited in the county clerk's office with the proper officer for record. Ibid., § 4651.

Every conveyance of real property, recorded as prescribed by law, from the time it is filed with the county clerk for record, is constructive notice of the contents thereof to subsequent purchasers and mortgagees. Ibid., § 4683.

Every conveyance of real property other than a lease for a term not exceeding one year, is void against any subsequent purchaser or incumbrancer, including an assignee of a mortgage, lease, or other conditional estate, of the same property, or any part thereof, in good faith and for a valuable consideration, whose conveyance is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 4684.

No instrument containing a power to convey or execute instruments affecting real property, which has been recorded, is revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, unless the instrument containing such revocation is also recorded, in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded. Ibid., § 4686.

An unrecorded instrument is valid between the parties and those who have notice thereof. Ibid., § 4687.

980. Contract for Deed.

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this day of , A. D. 19 , by and between of the county of and state of , part of the first part, and of the county of and state of , part of the second part,

WITNESSETH, that if the said part of the second part shall first make the payments and perform the covenants hereinafter mentioned on part to be made and performed, the said part of the first part hereby covenants and agrees to convey and assure to the said part of the second part, in fee simple, clear of all incumbrances whatever, by a good and sufficient deed, the lot , piece or parcel of ground, situate in the county of and state of Montana, known and described as [description]. And the said part of the second part hereby covenants and agrees to pay the said part of the first part the sum of dollars, payable at , in the manner following:

The sum of $ at or before the execution of this contract; the sum of $ on or before the day of , 19 ; the sum of $ on or before the day of , 19 ; with interest at the rate of per cent. per annum, payable annually, on the whole sum remaining from time to time unpaid; and to pay all taxes, assessments or impositions that may be legally imposed upon said land, subsequent to the year . And in case of the failure of the said part of the second part to make either of the payments, or interest thereon or any part thereof, or perform any of the covenants on part hereby made and entered into, then the whole of said payments and interest shall, at the election of said first part , become immediately due and payable, and this contract shall, at the option of the part of the first part, be forfeited and determined by giving to said second part days' notice, in writing, of the intention of the said first part to cancel and determine this contract, setting forth in said notice the amount due upon said contract, and the time and place, when and where, payment can be made by said second part .

It is mutually understood and agreed by and between the parties to this contract that days is a reasonable and sufficient notice to be so given to said second part . in case of failure to perform any of the covenants on part hereby made and entered into, and shall be sufficient to cancel all obligations hereunto on the part of the said first part and fully reinvest with all right, title and interest hereby agreed to be conveyed, and the part of the second part shall forfeit all payments made by on this contract, and right, title and interest in all buildings, fences or other improvements whatsoever, and such payments and improvements shall be retained by the said part of the first part, in full satisfaction and in liquidation of all damages by sustained, and shall have the right to re-enter and take possession of the premises aforesaid.

IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED, by and between the parties hereto, that the time of payment shall be an essential part of this contract; and that all the covenants and agreements herein contained shall extend to and be obligatory upon the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the respective parties.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, both parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year hereinbefore written.

NEBRASKA.

Deeds of real estate or any interest therein in this state, except leases for one year or for a less time, if executed in this state, must be signed by grantor or grantors and recorded as directed in this chapter (§§ 10800-10888). Annotated Statutes of 1907, § 10800.

If executed in any other state, territory, or district of the United States, it must be executed either according to the laws of such state, territory, or district, or in accordance with the laws of this state. Ibid., § 10803.

If such deed be executed in a foreign country, it may be executed according to the laws of such country. Ibid., § 10806.

Every deed entitled by law to be recorded shall be recorded in the order and as of the time when the same shall be delivered to the register of deeds for that purpose, and shall be considered recorded from the time of such delivery. Ibid., § 10815.

All deeds and other instruments of writing which are required to be recorded shall take effect and be in force from and after the time of delivering the same to the register of deeds for record, and not before, as to all creditors and subsequent purchasers in good faith without notice; and all such deeds and other instruments shall be adjudged void as to all such creditors and subsequent purchasers without notice whose deeds or other instruments shall be first recorded; but such deeds and instruments shall be valid between the parties. Ibid., § 10816.

Deeds and other instruments relating to or affecting the title of real estate in this state, shall be recorded in the county in which such real estate, or any part thereof, is situated; but if such county is not organized, then in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. Ibid., § 10818.

No instrument containing a power to convey or in any manner to affect real estate, executed and recorded in conformity with the requirements of this chapter, can be revoked by any act of the party, or parties, thereto until the instrument of revocation is executed and filed for record with register of deeds of county in which the power is recorded. Ibid., § 10819.

Every deed conveying real estate, which, by any other instrument in writing, shall appear to have been intended only as a security in the nature of a mortgage, though it be an absolute conveyance in terms, shall be considered as a mortgage, and the person for whose benefit such deed shall be made, shall not derive any advantage from the recording thereof, unless every writing operating as a defeasance of the same, or explanatory of its being designed to have the effect only of a mortgage, or conditional deed, be also recorded therewith, and at the same time. Ibid., § 10825.

No grant or conveyance of lands, or interest therein, shall be void for the reason that at the time of the execution thereof such lands shall be in the actual possession of another claiming adversely. Ibid., § 10830.

The term "purchaser," as used in this chapter, shall be construed to embrace every person to whom any real estate or interest therein shall be conveyed for a valuable consideration, and also any assignee of a mortgage or lease, or other conditional estate. Ibid., § 10844.

Every letter of attorney or other instrument containing a power to convey lands as agent or attorney for the owner of such lands, and every executory contract for the sale or purchase of lands, may be recorded in office of register of deeds of any county in which the real estate to which such power or contract relates may be situated, and the record thereof, when recorded, or the transcript of such record, may be read in evidence, in same manner and with like effect as a conveyance recorded in such county. Ibid., § 10846.

A duly authenticated copy of the record of any power recorded in this state shall be entitled to record, and shall operate to all intents and purposes, having the same force and effect, as the record of the original instrument. Such copy shall be duly authenticated only when there shall be attached thereto a certificate of the register of deeds under his hand and official seal, setting forth that the same is a true copy of original record in his office, date of filing of original instrument, and volume and page where same is recorded; but it shall be unlawful for any register of deeds in this state to give a certified copy of any power of attorney which has been revoked and the revocation thereof filed in his office, without also stating the fact of such revocation in his certificate. Ibid., § 10846.

The term "heirs," or other technical words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple. Ibid., § 10850.

Every conveyance of real estate shall pass all the interest of the grantor therein, unless a contrary intent can be reasonably inferred from the terms used. Ibid., § 10851.

When a deed purports to convey a greater interest than the grantor was at the time possessed of, any after-acquired interest of such grantor to the extent of that which the deed purports to convey shall accrue to the benefit of the grantee; but such after-acquired interest shall not inure to the benefit of the original grantor,* or his heirs or assigns, if deed conveying said real estate was either a quitclaim or special warranty, and the original grantor in any case shall not be estopped from acquiring said premises at judicial or tax sale, upon execution against the grantee or his assigns, or for taxes becoming due after date of his conveyance. Ibid., § 10852.

Estates may be created to commence at a future day. Ibid., § 10853.

Every contract for the sale of lands, between the owner thereof and any broker or agent employed to sell the same, shall be void, unless the contract is in writing and subscribed by the owner of the land and the broker or agent, and such contract shall describe the land to be sold, and set forth the compensation to be allowed by the owner in case of sale by the broker or agent. Ibid., § 10856.

In all cases where any person claiming title to real estate, whether in actual possession or not, for which such person can show a plain and commercial title, in law or equity, derived from the records of some public office, or from the United States, or from this state, or derived from any such person by devise, descent, deed, contract, or bond, such person or persons so claiming or holding, shall not be evicted or turned out of possession of such real estate, nor shall his claim or title be set aside or cancelled by any court in any proceedings brought or commenced by any person setting up and proving an adverse and better title, or claim to such real estate, until such person claiming as aforesaid shall be fully paid the value of all lasting and valuable improvements made upon such real estate by such claimant or by those under whom he claims, and also for all taxes and assessments paid upon said real estate by such claimant and the persons under whom he claims, with interest thereon at the same rate of interest as provided by law for delinquent taxes, and for all sums of money paid by such occupant or claimant, or those under whom he claims, to redeem such real estate from any sale or sales for non-payment of taxes previous to receiving actual notice by the commencement of suit on such adverse title or claim by which such eviction or cancellation may be had, unless such occupant or claimant shall refuse to pay the person so setting up and proving an adverse and better title the value of such real estate without improvements made thereon as aforesaid, upon the demand of the successful claimant as hereinafter provided. Ibid., § 10857.

* So in original.

The sheriff or other officer, who, upon a writ or writs of execution, shall sell lands and tenements, or any part thereof, shall make to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, as good and sufficient a deed of conveyance of lands and tenements sold as the person or persons against whom such writ or writs of execution were issued could have made of the same, at the time they became liable to the judgment, or at any time thereafter. Ibid., § 1501.

The deed shall be sufficient evidence of the legality of such sale and the proceedings therein until the contrary be proved, and shall vest in the purchaser as good and as perfect an estate in the premises therein-mentioned as was vested in the party at or after the time when such lands and tenements became liable to the satisfaction of the judgment. And such deed of conveyance, to be made by the sheriff or other officer, shall recite the execution or executions, or the substance thereof, and the names of the parties, the amount, and date of term of rendition of each judgment, by virtue whereof the said lands and tenements were sold as aforesaid; and shall be executed and recorded as is or may be provided by law, to perfect the conveyance of real estate in other cases. Ibid., § 1502.

Real property may be conveyed by master commissioners as hereinafter provided: First—when by an order or judgment in an action or proceeding, a party is ordered to convey such property to another, and he shall neglect or refuse to comply with such order or judgment. Second—when specific real property is required to be sold under an order or judgment of the court. Ibid., § 1441.

A sheriff may act as a master commissioner under the second subdivision of the preceding section. Sales made under the same shall conform in all respects to the laws regulating sales of land upon execution. Ibid., § 1442.

The deed of a master commissioner shall contain the like recital and shall be executed and recorded, as the deed of a sheriff, of real property sold under execution. Ibid., § 1443.

At any time within three years after the expiration of two years from the date of sale of any real estate for taxes or special assessments, if the same shall not have been redeemed, the county treasurer, on request, and on production of the certificate of purchase, and upon compliance with the provisions of this act, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, a deed of conveyance for the real estate described in such certificate. Ibid., § 11116.

The deed so made by the county treasurer shall, when executed, be recorded in the same manner as other conveyances of real estate, and when so recorded shall vest in the grantee, his heirs and assigns, the title of the property therein described. Such conveyance shall be substantially in the following form:

981. County Treasurer's Deed.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that whereas, at a sale of real estate for the non-payment of taxes, made in the county of _____, on the day of _____, A. D. 19____, the following described real estate situate in said county, to wit: [here describe real estate conveyed] was sold to _____ for the delinquent taxes of the year _____ and, Whereas, the same not having been redeemed from such sale, and it appearing that the holder of the certificate of purchase of said real estate has complied with the laws of the state of Nebraska, necessary to entitle _____ to a deed of said real estate: Now, Therefore, I, county treasurer of said county of _____, in consideration of the premises, and by virtue of the statutes of the state of Nebraska in such cases made and provided, do hereby grant and convey unto _____, his heirs and assigns,

Every conveyance of real estate within this territory, which shall not be recorded as provided in this Act, shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser, in good faith and for a valuable consideration, of the same real estate, or any portion thereof, where his own conveyance shall be first duly recorded. Ibid., § 2665.

Every power of attorney, or other instrument in writing, containing the power to convey any real estate, as agent or attorney for the owner thereof, or to execute, as agent or attorney for another, any conveyance whereby any real estate is conveyed, or may be affected, shall be recorded as other conveyances whereby real estate is conveyed or affected, are required to be recorded. Ibid., § 2666.

No such power of attorney or other instrument, recorded in the manner prescribed in the preceding section, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of party by whom it was executed, until the instrument containing such revocation shall be deposited for record in same office in which the instrument containing the power is recorded. Ibid., § 2667.

When any conveyance, or other instrument, conveying or affecting real estate, is recorded in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and it shall be shown to the court that such conveyance or instrument is lost, or not within the power of the party wishing to use the same, the record thereof, or the transcript of such record, certified by the recorder under the seal of his office, may be read in evidence without further proof. Ibid., § 2669.

Any person claiming title to any real estate may, notwithstanding there may be an adverse possession thereof, sell and convey his interest therein in same manner and with same effect as if he was in actual possession. Ibid., § 2673.

The term heirs, or other words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple; and every conveyance of real estate executed shall pass all the estate of the grantor, unless the intent to pass a less estate shall appear by express terms, or be necessarily implied in the terms of the grant. Ibid., § 2681.

The words "grant, bargain and sell," in all conveyances, in and by which any estate of inheritance or fee simple is to be passed, shall, unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyance, be construed to be the following express covenants, and none other, on the part of the grantor, for himself and his heirs to the grantee, his heirs, and assigns. First—That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance the grantor has not conveyed the same real estate, or any right, title, or interest therein to any person other than the grantee. Second—That such real estate is, at the time of the execution of such conveyance, free from incumbrances done, made, or suffered by the grantor, or any person claiming under him; and such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance. Ibid., § 2688.

No estate, or interest in lands, other than for leases for a term not exceeding one year, shall be created, granted, assigned, or surrendered, unless by act or operation of law, or by deed or conveyance in writing, subscribed by the party creating, granting, assigning, or surrendering the same, or by his lawful agent thereunto authorized in writing. Ibid., § 2694.

Conveyances of mining claims shall require the same formalities and be subject to the same rules of construction as the transfers and conveyances of other real estate. Ibid., § 2720.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Real estate may be conveyed by deed executed by any person or by his attorney, recorded as directed in this chapter (chap. 137, §§ 1-20, pp. 436-438). Public Statutes of 1901, p. 436, § 1.

Any public or private corporation authorized to hold real estate may convey same by an agent appointed by vote for that purpose. Ibid., p. 436, § 2.

Every deed or other conveyance of real estate shall be signed by party granting same, and shall be recorded at length in registry of deeds in county in which the land lies. Ibid., p. 437, § 3.

No deed of bargain and sale, nor other conveyance of real estate, nor any lease for more than seven years from the making thereof, shall be valid to hold same against any person but grantor and his heirs only, unless recorded according to the provisions of this chapter. Ibid., p. 437, § 4.

A person interested in a deed or lease recorded in one county, may cause same, with the certificate of record, to be recorded in registry of any other county; and an attested copy of such record shall be of same validity as a copy from original registry. Ibid., p. 437, § 5.

Every power of attorney to convey real estate must be signed, and may be recorded as required for a deed, and a copy of the record may be used in evidence, whenever a copy of the deed so made is admissible. Ibid., p. 437, § 6.

If a person having an unrecorded deed or other evidence of title of real estate in his possession neglects to record the same, or refuses to allow same to be recorded, for the space of thirty days after being thereto requested in writing by a person having an interest in such estate, any justice, upon complaint thereof, may issue his warrant and cause such person to be brought before him for examination; and if sufficient cause for such neglect or refusal is not shown, may order such deed or evidence of title to be recorded, and commit the person to jail until such order is performed and payment of costs is made. Ibid., pp. 437, 438, § 11.

Every estate or interest in lands, created or conveyed without an instrument in writing, signed by grantor or his attorney, shall be deemed an estate at will only; and no estate or interest in lands shall be assigned, granted, or surrendered, except by writing signed as aforesaid, or by operation of law. Ibid., p. 438, § 12.

A conveyance made by a person having a limited interest in an estate, purporting to convey a greater interest than he possessed or could lawfully convey, shall not work a forfeiture thereof, but shall pass to grantee all the estate which he could lawfully convey. Ibid., p. 438, § 18.

The collector of taxes, if living, otherwise his administrator, after two years from the sale of land for taxes, shall execute to the purchaser or his heirs, on request therefor, a deed of the land so sold and not redeemed, which shall be substantially in the following form:

984. Tax Collector's Deed, Statutory Form.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, _____, collector of taxes for the town of _____, in the county of _____, and state of New Hampshire, for the year 19____, by the authority in me vested by the laws of the state, and in consideration of _____, to me paid by _____, do hereby sell and convey to him, the said _____, his heirs and assigns [here describe the land sold], to have and to hold the said premises with the appurtenances to him, _____, his heirs and assigns forever. And I do hereby covenant with said _____, that in making sale of the same I have in all things complied with the law, and that I have good right, so far as that right may depend upon the regularity of my own proceedings, to sell and convey the same in manner aforesaid.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the _____ day of _____, _____.

Ibid., pp. 220, 221, § 16.

A right of a debtor to redeem mortgaged real estate, or to redeem any right or interest in real estate, or to receive a conveyance of real estate on performance of a contract relating thereto, and terms for years, may be taken on execution, and may be sold at auction and conveyed, as herein provided. Ibid., p. 735, § 19.

The deed of the officer making the sale shall briefly state his office, the names of the parties to the action in which the execution issued, the court and term at which the judgment was rendered, the consideration paid for the right or term sold, a description of the premises conveyed and of the right of the debtor therein; and it shall contain a covenant that the officer has observed all the requirements of law by virtue of which the deed is made. Ibid., pp. 735, 736, § 23.

The officer shall make a full return of his proceedings, and cause the execution and return to be recorded at length in the registry of deeds of the county in which the real estate lies, and to be returned to the office of the clerk of the court to which it is returnable; and no sale of a greater interest than a term of seven years shall be valid, except against the debtor and his heirs, unless the execution and the return are so recorded. Ibid., p. 736, § 24.

The sale and deed made in pursuance thereof shall be void if, within one year after the sale, the debtor shall pay or tender to the purchaser the purchase money, and all reasonable sums paid by him for taxes, insurance, repairs, and the redemption of mortgages upon the estate, to protect and preserve the interest purchased by him, with interest thereon from dates of payments respectively, less the rents and profits received, or which might have been received, by him and with which he is justly chargeable. Ibid., p. 736, § 26.

The state treasurer, and each county and town treasurer, may issue extents under their hands and seals respectively, in cases authorized by law, and such extents shall be deemed to be executions against the person and property. Ibid., p. 231, § 1.

Real estate of every kind so levied upon shall be sold, and a deed and return thereof made, in the manner provided by law for the sale of the equity of redemption of real estate mortgaged; and the owner thereof shall have the same right to redeem the same. Ibid., p. 232, § 9.

985. Warranty Deed.

Laws of 1899, chap. 208, § 1, p. 531.

Every such deed made, executed and delivered, conveying lands shall, unless an exception is made therein, be construed to include all the estate, right, title, interest, use, possession, property, claim and demand whatsoever, both in law and equity, of the grantor (including the fee simple if he have such estate), of, in and to the said premises, with the appurtenances; and the word heirs shall not be necessary in any such deed to effect a conveyance of the fee simple. Ibid., § 2, as amended by Laws of 1902, chap. 231, p. 688.

Every such deed conveying land shall, unless an exception shall be made therein, be construed to include all and singular the buildings, improvements, ways, woods, waters, water-courses, rights, liberties, privileges, hereditaments and appurtenances to the same belonging or in anywise appertaining; and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof, and of every part and parcel thereof. Laws of 1899, chap. 208, § 3, p. 531.

Whenever in any deed, there shall be used the words "the grantor (or the said) releases to the said grantee (or the said) all his claims upon the said lands," such deed shall be construed as if it set forth that "the grantor (or releasor) hath remised, released, and forever quit-claimed, and by these presents doth remise, release and forever quitclaim unto the grantee (or releasee), his heirs and assigns, all right, title and interest whatsoever, both at law and in equity, in or to the lands and premises granted (or released) or intended so to be, so that neither he, nor his personal representatives, his heirs or assigns, shall at any time thereafter have claim, challenge or demand the said lands and premises, or any part thereof, in any manner whatever." Ibid., § 4, p. 532.

When a deed uses the words "the said covenants," such covenant shall have the same effect as if it was expressed to be by the covenantor, for himself, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns, and shall be deemed to be with the covenantee, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns. Ibid., § 5, p. 532.

A covenant by the grantor in a deed "that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed," shall have the same effect as if the grantor has covenanted that he, his heirs and personal representatives, will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns, against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever. Ibid., § 6, p. 532.

A covenant by any such grantor "that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed" shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs and personal representatives, will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns, against the claims and demands of the grantor and all persons claiming, or to claim by, through or under him. Ibid., § 7, p. 532.

The words "with general warranty" in the granting part of any deed shall be deemed to be a covenant by the grantor "that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed"; the words "with special warranty" in the granting part of any deed shall be deemed to be a covenant by the grantor "that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed." Ibid., § 8, p. 532.

A covenant by the grantor in a deed "that he is lawfully seized of the said land," shall have the same effect as if he had covenanted, promised and granted to and with the grantee, his heirs and assigns, that at the time of the sealing and delivery thereof, he, the said grantor, was seized in his own right of an absolute and indefeasible estate of inheritance in fee-simple, of and in all and singular the premises hereby granted, with the appurtenances. Ibid., § 9, p. 533.

A covenant by the grantor in a deed of land "that he has the right to convey the said land to the grantee" shall have the same effect as if the grantee had covenanted that he has good right, full power and absolute authority to grant, bargain, sell and convey the said land, with all the buildings thereon, and the privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging unto the grantee, his heirs and assigns forever, in the manner in which the same is conveyed, or intended so to be by the deed, and according to its true intent. Ibid., § 10, p. 533.

A covenant by any such grantor "that the grantee shall have quiet possession of the said land," shall have as much effect as if he covenanted that the grantee, his heirs and assigns might at any and all times thereafter, peaceably and quietly enter upon, and have, hold, use, and occupy, possess and enjoy the land conveyed by the deed, or intended so to be, with all the buildings thereon, and the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, and receive and take the rents and profits thereof, to and for his and their use and benefit without any let, suit, eviction, interruption, claim or demand whatever of the grantor, his heirs or assigns, or any other person or persons whomsoever lawfully claiming or to claim the same; if to such covenant there be added "free from all incumbrances," these words shall have as much effect as the words "and that the said premises are free and clear and freely and clearly acquitted and discharged of and from all former mortgages, judgments, executions, and of and from all other incumbrances whatever." Ibid., § 11, p. 533.

A covenant by any such grantor "that he will execute such further assurance of the said lands as may be requisite," shall have the same effect as if he covenanted that he, the grantor, his heirs or personal representatives, will, at any time, upon any reasonable request at the charge of the grantee, his heirs or assigns, do, execute, or cause to be done or executed, all such further acts, deeds and things for the better, more perfectly and absolutely conveying and assuring the said lands and premises hereby conveyed or intended so to be, unto the grantee, his heirs and assigns, in manner aforesaid as by the grantee, his heirs, or assigns, his or their counsel in the law, shall be reasonably devised, advised or required. Ibid., § 12, pp. 533, 534.

A covenant by any such grantor "that he has done no act to incumber the said lands," shall have the same effect as if he covenanted that he had not done or executed, or knowingly suffered to be done or executed, any act, deed, or thing whereby the lands and premises conveyed or intended so to be, or any part thereof, are or will be changed, charged, altered, affected, defeated, or incumbered in title, estate or otherwise. Ibid., § 13, p. 534.

Any deed or a part of a deed which shall fail to take effect by virtue of this act shall, nevertheless, be as valid and effectual and shall bind the parties thereto, so far as the rules of law and equity will permit, as if this act had not been enacted. Ibid., § 14, p. 534.

A warranty made by a tenant for life of lands, tenements or hereditaments, which shall descend or come to any person in reversion or remainder, shall be inoperative and void. Laws of 1898, chap. 232, § 2, p. 670.

A collateral warranty, which shall be made of lands, tenements or hereditaments, by an ancestor, who, at the time of making it, hath no estate of inheritance in possession therein, shall be inoperative and void against his heirs. Ibid., § 3, p. 671.

Whenever lands, tenements or hereditaments, lying and being in this state, are or shall be sold and conveyed, and a mortgage is given by the purchaser or purchasers at the same time on the land sold to secure the payment of the purchase-money or any part thereof, such mortgage shall be preferred to any previous judgment which may have been obtained against such purchaser or purchasers. Ibid., § 4, p. 671.

All deeds or instruments of the nature or description following, of, or affecting the title to any lands, tenements or hereditaments, lying and being in this state, or any interest therein, may be recorded in the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas of the county where the said lands, tenements or hereditaments are situated, that is to say: conveyances, releases, defeasible deeds or other conveyances in nature of a mortgage, letters of attorney for any sale, conveyance, assurance, acquittance or release, leases for life or any term not less than two years, or any assignments thereof, agreements for sale, and all other instruments directed by any statute to be recorded. Ibid., § 21, p. 678.

Whenever any such deed or instrument of the nature or description set forth in the twenty-first section of this act, is duly recorded, or lodged for that purpose, with the clerk of the court of common pleas of the county in which such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, are situated, such record is notice to all subsequent judgment creditors, purchasers, and mortgagees, of the execution of the said deed or instrument and of the contents thereof. Ibid., § 53, p. 690.

Every deed or instrument of the nature or description set forth in the twenty-first section of this act, shall, until duly recorded or lodged for record in the said clerk's office, be void and of no effect against subsequent judgment creditors without notice, and against all subsequent bona fide purchasers and mortgagees for valuable consideration, not having notice thereof, whose deed or mortgage shall have been first duly recorded; but such deeds or instruments shall be valid and operative, although not recorded, except as against such subsequent judgment creditors, purchasers and mortgagees; and nothing in this act contained shall be construed to affect or impair the effect of any mortgage or the registry thereof which has been or shall be registered as provided in section seventeen of the act entitled "An act concerning mortgages" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. Ibid., § 54, as amended by Laws of 1900, chap. 16, pp. 32, 33.

The record aforesaid of any such deed or instrument, of the nature or description set forth in the twenty-first section of this act, and the transcript of such record, shall be received in evidence in any court of this state and be as good, effectual and available in law as if the original deed or instrument were then and there produced and proved; and the record and transcript of the record of deeds and conveyances recorded in the office of the secretary of state, shall in like manner be received in evidence and be as effectual and available as if the original were produced and proved. Ibid., § 55, pp. 690, 691.

Either party in any cause pending in any court of law or equity in this state may give the opposite party, his attorney or solicitor, notice in writing at least ten days before the time appointed for the trial or hearing of said cause, that he will be required at such trial or hearing to produce the original, instead of the record of any deed or instrument by this act authorized to be recorded, which he may think proper to offer or introduce in evidence; and in case of such notice, no record of such deed or instrument shall be received in evidence, until satisfactory proof, by the oath or affirmation of the party offering said record in evidence, or of other person, shall be made to the court or officer before whom such record may be offered, that the original hath been lost, or unintentionally destroyed, or that, after having made diligent search and inquiry, such party hath been unable to find said original; and the court shall determine, according to the circumstances and situation of the parties, whether such diligent search and inquiry has been made. Ibid., § 56, p. 691.

When any deed or instrument of the nature or description set forth in the twenty-first section of this act shall for a period of six years or more have stood on record in any of the lawful books of record in this state appropriate for such deed or instrument, the record of such deed or instrument, after the lapse of the said period, shall be and become valid for every purpose of notice as aforesaid; and such deed or instrument, the said record and certified copies thereof, shall be received in evidence in any court and be as effectual as if the original deed had been produced and proved, provided the same shall be corroborated, by evidence of corresponding enjoyment or other equivalent or explanatory proof. Ibid., § 64, pp. 696, 697.

The estate of the lessee of any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or real estate, or of any estate, or interest therein, for life or for a term of not less than two years, the lease whereof shall have been recorded in manner aforesaid, shall be liable to sale under a judgment or decree, in like manner only, as estates of freehold are now liable to be sold thereunder. Ibid., § 66, pp. 697, 698.

Whenever lands or property lie partly in one county and partly in one or more other counties, and a deed or instrument of the nature or description set forth in the twenty-first section of this act, shall have been recorded in one of such counties, a certified copy may be recorded in any or all of the other said counties in which such lands or property lie, and the record of such certified copy shall be made in same manner and be as valid and effectual in law for all purposes of notice as aforesaid, and such record and certified copies thereof shall be as valid and effectual as evidence as if the original deed was then and there recorded in the stead of such certified copy. Ibid., § 67, p. 698.

Whenever any deed or conveyance for lands or real estate in this state shall purport to have been executed by virtue of any letter of attorney, and said deed shall have been properly recorded, the recital of the letter of attorney in said deed shall be prima facie proof of the existence thereof, notwithstanding the same may not be recorded, in case such deed or deeds shall have been recorded at least ten years, and the person claiming under said deed shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation that he has seen such letter of attorney so recited, which shall be recorded in the county clerk's office in the county where such lands are situate, in the book therein provided for the recording of the powers of attorney to convey lands. Ibid., § 69, p. 699.

Any lease or deed of conveyance of any railroad or canal located and constructed in more than one county, shall and may be recorded in office of secretary of state in a book to be provided for that purpose; and the record of any such lease or deed recorded as aforesaid, or a transcript thereof, shall be received in evidence in any court of this state, and have same effect as if original lease or deed were then and there produced and proved. Ibid., § 70, p. 699.

For the purpose of notice under this act, each block or parcel of land separately numbered with a block number, and also each lot of land in a block, shall be deemed to extend to the middle line of the streets, avenues and roads, laid out on the land map, fronting and adjoining such blocks and lots respectively. Ibid., § 80, p. 705.

All instruments presented to the recording officer in a county adopting local or block indexes, for recording or registering, shall be legibly indorsed by him with the number of the block or blocks in which the land affected by the instrument is situated. Ibid., § 84, p. 706.

No clerk of the court of common pleas shall record any deed which conveys property situate in any city of this state that has or shall have atlas or block maps upon which shall be platted the lots and subdivisions of lots and real estate situate in said city, unless it shall be duly certified thereon that the same has been presented at the office of the officer, officers or other department of such city having charge of such atlas or block maps, for the purpose of recording or noting such changes as may have been made thereby in the property lines and ownership of the property therein described; but such deeds shall be recorded even without such certificate being indorsed thereon in case the fee for plotting such deeds upon the city atlas or block map, together with a fee of twenty cents for the use of said clerk, shall be paid to him. This act shall not apply to the recording of any deed conveying land situate in any city where a contract exists between the municipal authorities of such city and the clerk for the making of abstracts of such deeds for the purpose of having the land therein conveyed plotted upon the block or atlas maps of such city; but such deeds shall be recorded as heretofore, anything to the contrary in this act notwithstanding. Ibid., § 94, pp. 709, 710.

Every section of this act referring expressly or impliedly to the "clerks of the courts of common pleas" shall be understood, read, and construed to refer as well to "registers of deeds and mortgages," in counties in which there are or shall be such officers, as truly as if "registers of deeds and mortgages" had been expressly named therein, instead of "clerks of the courts of common pleas," "clerks" or "county clerks." Ibid., § 97, p. 711.

NEW MEXICO.

The words, bargained and sold, or words to the same effect, in all conveyances of hereditary real estate, unless restrained in express terms on the part of the person conveying the same, himself and his heirs, to the person to whom the property is conveyed, his heirs, and assignees, shall be limited to the following effect:

First. That the grantor at the time of the execution of said conveyance, is possessed of an irrevocable possession in fee simple to the property so conveyed.

Second. That the said real estate, at the time of the execution of said conveyance, is free from all encumbrance made or suffered to be made by the grantor, or by any person claiming the same under him.

Third. For the greater security of the person, his heirs and assignees to whom said real estate is conveyed by the grantor and his heirs, suits may be instituted the same as if the conditions were stipulated in the said conveyance. Compiled Laws of 1897, § 3941.

All conveyances of real estate shall be subscribed by the person transferring his title or interest in said real estate, or by his legal agent or attorney. Ibid., § 3942.

All deeds and other writings affecting the title to real estate shall be recorded in the office of the probate clerk of the county or counties in which the real estate affected thereby is situated. Ibid., § 3953.

Such records shall be notice to all the world of the existence and contents of the instruments so recorded from the time of recording. Ibid., § 3954.

No deed or other instrument in writing, not recorded in accordance with section 3953, shall affect the title or rights to, in any real estate, of any purchase or mortgage in good faith, without knowledge of the existence of such unrecorded instruments. Ibid., § 3955.

The time of the recording of an instrument shall be the time of its deposit in the office of the probate clerk and his entry thereof in the reception book as herein provided. It shall be the duty of every probate clerk immediately on the receipt for record of any deed or other writing affecting the title to real estate, to enter the same by the name of the grantor or other person whose title is affected thereby, in a proper book, alphabetically arranged, to be known as the Reception Book, together with the date, hour and minute of such record. Any probate clerk failing to make such entry immediately, shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars, and shall also be liable for damages to any person injured by such neglect, to the extent of such injury. Ibid., § 3956.

None of said writings shall be valid except to the parties interested and those who have actual notice of the same, until it shall be deposited in the office of the clerk to be registered. Ibid., § 3960.

All powers of attorney or other writing containing authority to convey real estate as agent or attorney of the owner of the same, or to execute as agent for another all conveyances of real estate, or by which real estate may be affected in law or equity, shall be registered, as other writings conveying or affecting real estate are required to be registered. Ibid., § 3962.

No such power of attorney or other writing registered in the manner prescribed in the foregoing section, shall be considered revoked by any act of the party executing the same, until the writing revoking the same shall be deposited with the clerk of the register's office, in which said power of attorney or writing is registered. Ibid., § 3963.

All writings conveying or affecting real estate, having been registered in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, may be read as evidence without further proof. Ibid., § 3964.

When said writing is registered in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, and it be proved to the court that said writing is lost, or that it is not in the hands of the party wishing to use it, then the record of the same, or a transcript of said record, certified to by the recorder, under his seal of office may be read as evidence without further proof. Ibid., § 3965.

Neither the record nor a transcript of the record of said writing, shall be conclusive, but may be contested. Ibid., § 3966.

The clerks of the probate courts of the different counties of this territory, shall be ex-officio recorders in their respective counties. Ibid., § 776.

When any land title, or other document, shall be delivered to the recorder to be recorded, it shall be his duty to indorse immediately on that document, or other paper, the day, month and year in which he received it, and he shall record it in the book of record as soon as possible, and the said documents from the date in which they were delivered to the recorder shall be considered as recorded, and this shall be sufficient notice to the public of the contents thereof. Ibid., § 778.

On or before the first Monday in March of each year, the county collector is required to offer at public sale at the court house door of his county, all real estate on which taxes of any description for the preceding year, or years, shall remain due and unpaid, and sell the same for and in payment of the total amount of taxes, interest and costs due and unpaid on such real estate. Ibid., § 4074.

At any time after the expiration of the term of three years from the date of the sale of any real estate for taxes under the provisions of this chapter, on demand of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, and on presentation of the certificate of sale, the collector then in office shall make out a deed for each lot or parcel of real estate sold and remaining unredeemed, and deliver the same to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns. Ibid., § 4100.

The deed shall be signed by the collector in his official capacity, and when substantially thus executed and recorded in the proper register of conveyances, shall vest in the purchaser all the right, title, interest and estate of the former owner in and to the land conveyed, and also all the right, title, interest and claim of the territory and county thereto, and shall be prima facie evidence in all courts in the territory in all controversies and suits in relation to the rights of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns to the land thereby conveyed, of the following facts:

First. That the real estate conveyed was subject to taxation for the year, or years, stated in the deed.

Second. That the taxes were not paid at any time before the sale.

Third. That the real estate conveyed had not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed.

Fourth. That the property had been listed and assessed at the time and in the manner required by law.

Fifth. That the taxes were levied according to law.

Sixth. That the property was advertised for sale in the manner and for the time required by law.

Seventh. That the property was sold for taxes as stated in the deed.

Eighth. That the grantee named in the deed was the purchaser, or the heir-at-law, or the assignee of the purchaser.

Ninth. That the sale was conducted in the manner required by law. Ibid., § 4101.

When any tax deed is filed for record the recorder shall also enter the name of the grantee in the proper column of his record of land sold for taxes. Ibid., § 4102.

NEW YORK.

The term "heirs," or other words of inheritance, are not requisite to create or convey an estate in fee. Consolidated Laws of 1909, chap. 50 (Real Property Law), § 240, Birdseye C. & G. Cons. Laws, p. 5052.

An estate or interest in real property, other than a lease for a term not exceeding one year, or any trust or power over or concerning real property, or in any manner relating thereto, can not be created, granted, assigned, surrendered or declared, unless by act or operation of law, or by a deed or conveyance in writing, subscribed by the person creating, granting, assigning, surrendering or declaring the same, or by his lawful agent, thereunto authorized by writing. Ibid., § 242, p. 5053.

A grant in fee or of a freehold estate, must be subscribed by the person from whom the estate or interest conveyed is intended to pass or by his lawful agent. Ibid., § 243, p. 5057.

A grant takes effect, so as to vest the estate or interest intended to be conveyed, only from its delivery; and all the rules of law, now in force, in respect to the delivery of deeds, apply to grants hereafter executed. Ibid., § 244, p. 5058.

A grant of real property passes all the estate or interest of the grantor unless the intent to pass a less estate or interest appears by the express terms of such grant or by necessary implication therefrom. Ibid., § 245, p. 5059.

Deeds of bargain and sale, and of lease and release, may continue to be used; and are to be deemed grants, subject to all the provisions of law in relation thereto. Ibid., § 246, p. 5059.

A conveyance made by a tenant for life or years of a greater estate than he possesses, or can lawfully convey, does not work a forfeiture of his estate, but passes to the grantee all the title, estate or interest which such tenant can lawfully convey. Ibid., § 247, p. 5059.

A covenant is not implied in a conveyance of real property, whether the conveyance contains any special covenant or not. Ibid., § 251, p. 5062.

In grants of freehold interests in real property, the following or similar covenants must be construed as follows:

1. Seizin.—A covenant that the grantor "is seized of the said premises (described) in fee simple, and has good right to convey the same," must be construed as meaning that such grantor, at the time of the execution and delivery of the conveyance, is lawfully seized of a good, absolute and indefeasible estate of inheritance in fee simple, of and in all and singular the premises thereby conveyed, with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging, and has good right, full power and lawful authority to grant and convey the same by the said conveyance.

2. Quiet enjoyment.—A covenant that the grantee "shall quietly enjoy the said premises," must be construed as meaning that such grantee, his heirs, successors and assigns, shall and may, at all times hereafter, peaceably and quietly have, hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the said premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, without any let, suit, trouble, molestation, eviction, or disturbance of the grantor, his heirs, successors or assigns, or any person or persons lawfully claiming or to claim the same.

3. Freedom from incumbrances.—A covenant "that the said premises are free from incumbrances," must be construed as meaning that such premises are free, clear, discharged and unincumbered of and from all former and other gifts, grants, titles, charges, estates, judgments, taxes, assessments, liens and incumbrances, of what nature or kind soever.

4. Further assurance.—A covenant that the grantor will "execute or procure any further necessary assurance of the title to said premises," must be construed as meaning that the grantor and his heirs, or successors, and all and every person or persons whomsoever lawfully or equitably deriving any estate, right, title or interest of, in, or to the premises conveyed by, from, under, or in trust for him or them, shall and will at any time or times thereafter upon the reasonable request, and at the proper costs and charges of the grantee, his heirs, successors and assigns, make, do, and execute, or cause to be made, done and executed, all and every such further and other lawful and reasonable acts, conveyances and assurances in the law for the better and more effectually vesting and confirming the premises thereby granted or so intended to be, in and to the grantee, his heirs, successors or assigns forever, as by the grantee, his heirs, successors or assigns, or his or their counsel learned in the law, shall be reasonably advised or required.

5. Warranty of title.—A covenant that the grantor "will forever warrant the title" to the said premises, must be construed as meaning that the grantor and his heirs or successors, the premises granted, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, unto the grantee, his heirs, successors or assigns, against the grantor and his heirs or successors, and against all and every person or persons whomsoever lawfully claiming or to claim the same shall and will warrant and forever defend.

6. Grantor has not incumbered.—A covenant that the grantor "has not done or suffered anything whereby the said premises have been incumbered," must be construed as meaning that the grantor has not made, done, committed, executed, or suffered any act or acts, thing or things whatsoever, whereby or by means whereof, the above mentioned and described premises, or any part or parcel thereof, now are, or at any time hereafter shall or may be impeached, charged or incumbered in any manner or way whatsoever. Ibid., § 253, p. 5063.

In any grant of freehold interests in real estate, the words, "together with the appurtenances and all the estate and rights of the grantor in and to said premises," must be construed as meaning, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in any wise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof, and also all the estate, right, title, interest, dower and right of dower, curtesy and right of curtesy, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, both in law and in equity, of the said grantor of, in and to the said granted premises and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances. Ibid., § 255, p. 5068.

In any deed by an executor of, or trustee under a will, the words "together with the appurtenances and also all the estate which the said testator had at the time of his decease in said premises, and also the estate therein which said grantor has or has power to convey or dispose of, whether individually or by virtue of said will or otherwise," must be construed as meaning, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, both in law and equity, which the said testator had in his lifetime, and at the time of his decease, or which the said grantor has or has power to convey or dispose of, whether individually or by virtue of the said last will and testament or otherwise, of, in and to the said granted premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances. Ibid., § 256, p. 5068.

The use of the following forms of instruments for the conveyance of real property is lawful, but this section does not prevent or invalidate the use of other forms:

A grant of real property is absolutely void, unless the same shall be made to the people of the state of New York, if at the time of the delivery thereof, such property is in actual possession of a person claiming under a title adverse to that of the grantor, but such possession does not prevent the mortgaging of said property. Ibid., § 260, p. 5074.

A conveyance of real property, within the state duly acknowledged or proved, may be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county where such real property is situated, and such county clerk shall, upon the request of any party, on tender of the lawful fees therefor, record the same in his said office. Every such conveyance not so recorded is void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration from the same vendor, his heirs or devisees, of the same real property or any portion thereof, whose conveyance is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 291, p. 5090.

An exentory contract for the sale or purchase of real property, or an instrument containing a power to convey real property, as the agent or attorney for the owner of the property, duly acknowledged and proved, may be recorded by the recording officer of any county in which any of the real property to which it relates is situated. Ibid., § 294, p. 5094.

A copy of an instrument affecting real property, within the state, recorded or filed in the office of the secretary of state, certified in the manner required to entitle the same to be read in evidence, may be recorded with such certificate in the office of any recording officer of the state. Ibid., § 296, p. 5095.

A copy of a record, or of any recorded instrument, certified or authenticated so as to be entitled to be read in evidence, may be again recorded in any office where the original would be entitled to be recorded. Such record has the same effect as if the original were so recorded. A copy of a conveyance or mortgage affecting separate parcels of real property situated in different counties, or of the record of such conveyance or mortgage in one of such counties, certified or authenticated so as to be entitled to be read in evidence, may be recorded in any county in which any such parcel is situated, with the same effect as if the original instrument were so recorded. Ibid., § 297, p. 5095.

Every instrument, entitled to be recorded, must be recorded by the recording officer in the order and as of the time of its delivery to him therefor, and is considered recorded from the time of such delivery. Ibid., § 317, p. 5106.

A deed conveying real property, which, by any other written instrument, appears to be intended only as a security in the nature of a mortgage, although an absolute conveyance in terms, must be considered a mortgage; and the person for whose benefit such deed is made, derives no advantage from the recording thereof, unless every writing, operating as a defeasance of the same, or explanatory of its being desired to have the effect only of a mortgage, or conditional deed, is also recorded therewith, and at the same time. Ibid., § 320, p. 5107.

A power of attorney or other instrument, recorded pursuant to this article, is not deemed revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, unless the instrument containing such revocation is also recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded. Ibid., § 326, p. 5112.

The recording officer of any county may charge for the recording of an instrument containing any of the covenants mentioned in section two hundred and fifty-three of this chapter, at large, instead of the short forms thereof, in said section contained, the sum of five dollars in addition to the fees chargeable by law for such recording. Ibid., § 327, p. 5112.

The forms of deeds in common use in New York State are given above in Forms Nos. 775-870.

NORTH CAROLINA.

When real estate is conveyed to any person, same shall be conveyance in fee, whether word "heirs" shall be used or not, unless conveyance shall, in plain and express words, show, or it shall be plainly intended by conveyance or part thereof, that grantor meant to convey estate of less dignity. Revisal of 1908, § 946.

No conveyance of land, or contract to convey, or lease of land for more than three years shall be valid to pass property, as against creditors or purchasers for valuable consideration, from donor, bargainor or lessor, but from the registration thereof within the county where the land lieth: but no purchase from such donor, bargainor or lessor shall avail or pass title against unregistered deed executed prior to first day of December, 1885, when person holding or claiming under such unregistered deed shall be in actual possession and enjoyment of such land, either in person or by his tenant at time of execution of such second deed, or when person, claiming under or taking such second deed, had at time of taking or purchasing under such deed actual or constructive notice of such unregistered deed, or the claim of person holding or claiming thereunder. Ibid., § 980.

Power of attorney, wherever made or concerning whatsoever matter, may, on acknowledgment or proof of the same before any competent official, be registered in county wherein property or estate which it concerns is situate, if such power of attorney relate to conveyance thereof; if it does not relate to conveyance of any estate or property, then in county in which attorney resides or business is to be transacted. Ibid., § 987.

A duly certified copy of deed or writing, required or allowed to be registered, may be registered in any county; and the registry or duly certified copy of deed or writing when registered in county where land is situate may be given in evidence in any court of state. Ibid., § 988.

NORTH DAKOTA.

If real property sold under execution is not redeemed according to law, the purchaser or his assignee or the redemptioner, as the case may be, is entitled to a sheriff's deed of the property and it shall be the duty of the sheriff to execute and deliver such deed, immediately after the time for redemption has in each case expired. Revised Codes of 1905, § 7143.

Upon the expiration of the period for redemption the proper officer must make the purchaser, or the party entitled thereto, a deed of the real property sold. The deed shall be sufficient evidence of the legality of such sale and the proceedings therein, until the contrary is proved, and shall vest in the purchaser or other party as aforesaid as good and perfect a title in the premises therein mentioned and described as was vested in the debtor at or after the time when such real property became liable to the satisfaction of the judgment. And such deed or conveyance to be made by the sheriff or other officer, must recite the execution or executions, or the substance thereof, and the names of the parties, the amount and date of rendition of such judgment by virtue whereof the said real property was sold as aforesaid, and must be executed and recorded as is or may be provided by law to perfect the conveyance of real property in other cases. Ibid., § 7149.

At expiration of time for redemption of lands sold for delinquent taxes and after the filing of notice of expiration of period for redemption, and on production of the certificate of purchase, the county auditor of county in which the sale of such lands took place, shall execute to purchaser, his heirs or assigns, in the name of the state, a deed of the land remaining unredeemed, which shall vest in said purchaser, his heirs or assigns, an absolute estate in fee simple in such land, subject, however, to all the claims which the state may have thereon for taxes, or other liens or incumbrances; and such deeds shall be executed by the county auditor under his hand, and shall be conclusive evidence of the truth of all the facts therein recited and prima facie evidence of the regularity of all the proceedings from the assessment and valuation of the land by the assessor up to the execution of the deed, and such deed shall be substantially in the following or other equivalent form:

997. County Auditor's Tax Deed.

WHEREAS, A. B. did on the day of , 19 , produce to the undersigned C. D., county auditor of the county of in the state of North Dakota, a certificate of purchase in writing, bearing the date of the day of , 19 , signed by E. F., who at the last-mentioned date was county auditor of said county, from which it appears that did on the day of , 19 , purchase at public auction at the office of the county auditor [or, the usual place of holding court in the same building] the tract, parcel or lot of land lastly in this indenture described, and which lot was sold to for the sum of dollars, being the amount of taxes, penalties and costs charged against said land, including personal taxes specified in the list and in the advertisement, constituting a lien thereon for the year [or, years] 19 , to wit: [here insert the description of the land offered for sale], and it appearing that the said A. B. is the legal owner of the said certificate of purchase, and the time fixed by law for redeeming the land therein described, having now expired, and proof of the notice of the expiration of the period of redemption having been filed in the office of the county auditor, prior to the maturing of such certificate as provided by law, and said land not having been redeemed from such purchase pursuant to law, and the said A. B. having demanded a deed for the tract mentioned in said certificate, and which was the smallest or least quantity of the said tract above described that would sell for the total amount of taxes, penalties and costs charged against it, including any personal taxes specified in the list and in the advertisement of the sale of said land, which were a lien upon it, and it appearing that said lands were legally liable for taxation, and had been duly assessed and properly charged on the tax book or duplicate for the year [or, years] 19 , and that said lands had been legally advertised for taxes and were sold on the day of , 19 .

Now, THEREFORE, this indenture made this day of , 19 , between the state of North Dakota, by C. D., as county auditor of said county, of the first part, and said A. B. of the second part:

WITNESSETH, that the said party of the first part for and in consideration of the premises and the sum of one dollar in hand paid, has granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the said party of the second part, heirs and assigns forever, the tract or parcel of land mentioned in said certificate and described as follows, to wit: [describe the land]. TO HAVE AND TO HOLD said mentioned tract or parcel of land with the appurtenances thereto belonging to the said party of the second part, heirs and assigns forever, in as full and ample manner as the said county auditor of said county is empowered by law to sell the same.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the said C. D., as county auditor of said county of , has hereunto set his hand on the day and year aforesaid.

In case the land is bid in for the county and the certificate assigned, the language of such deed inappropriate to such sales shall be stricken out and the following inserted in lieu thereof:

"Offer for sale to the highest bidder the following described tract or parcel of real property: [insert description], which property was returned delinquent for the non-payment of taxes for the year 19 , amounting to dollars, including interest and penalty thereon and the costs charged against said land, including personal property taxes specified in the list and in the advertisement constituting the lien thereon, for the year [or, years] 19 , and no one bidding upon such offer an amount equal to that for which said piece or parcel of land was subject to be sold, the same was bid in for the county. And it appearing by said certificate that the right, title and interest of the county in said tract or parcel of land acquired therein at said sale was on the day of , 19 , assigned to for the sum of dollars, being the amount due thereon at that time."

When any deed is presented to the county auditor for transfer he shall ascertain from the books and records in his office if there be delinquent taxes due on the lands described therein, or special assessments due thereon, or if it has been sold for taxes and if there are delinquent taxes or special assessments due or installments of special assessments due, he shall certify to the same, and when the receipt of the county treasurer shall be produced for the said delinquent taxes or special assessments or installments of special assessments, and for any other delinquent taxes or special assessments, or installments of special assessments, that may be in the hands of the county auditor for collection, the county auditor shall enter on every deed of real property so transferred over his official signature, "delinquent taxes and special assessments or installments of special assessments paid and transfer entered," or if the land described has been sold for taxes, "paid by sale of the land described within," or if it is an instrument entitled to record without regard to taxes, "transfer entered," and unless such entry is made upon any deed the register of deeds shall refuse to receive or record the same. A violation of the provisions of this section by the register of deeds is a misdemeanor, and he shall be liable to the grantee of any instrument so recorded for the amount of any damages sustained. Ibid., § 1597.

When the transfer of any land or town lot or any part thereof becomes necessary for the reason that a sale or conveyance is of less value than the whole tract or lot, or part thereof as charged in the tax list, said county auditor shall transfer the same whenever the seller and purchaser agree thereto in writing, signed by them, or personally appear before the auditor and agree upon the amount of valuation to be transferred therewith; but if the seller and purchaser do not agree as to the amount of valuation to be transferred, the auditor shall make such divisions of the valuation as may appear to him just. If the county auditor is satisfied that the proportion of valuation agreed by the parties in interest to be transferred is greater than the proportional value of the land or lot to be transferred therewith, and that such agreement was made by collusion of the parties and with a view fraudulently to evade the payment of any taxes which might be legally assessed on the entire tract or lot, he may refuse to make such transfer, and when any such transfer has been procured by fraudulent agreement the same shall be canceled by the auditor and the land or lot so transferred be charged with taxes in the same manner as though said transfer had not been made. Ibid., § 1598.

Instruments essential to the title of real property and which are not kept in a public office as a record pursuant to law belong to the person in whom for the time being such title may be vested and pass with the title. Ibid., § 4924.

For the purpose of estimating damages the value of an instrument in writing is presumed to be equal to that of the property to which it entitles its owner. Ibid., § 6597.

No agreement for the sale of real property, or of an interest therein, is valid unless the same, or some note or memorandum thereof, is in writing and subscribed by the party to be charged, or his agent thereunto authorized in writing. Ibid., § 5407.

An estate in real property other than an estate at will or for a term not exceeding one year, can be transferred only by operation of law or by an instrument in writing, subscribed by the party disposing of the same or by his agent thereunto authorized by writing. Ibid., § 4968.

Any foreign or domestic corporation may in its by-laws empower any one or more of its officers severally or conjointly to execute in its behalf conveyances, transfers, assignments, releases, or other instruments, affecting liens upon, titles to or interests in real estate. Ibid., § 4969.

In the absence of any by-laws the president or secretary of any corporation, and the president, secretary, treasurer or cashier of any loan, trust or banking corporation may execute such instruments when authorized by resolution of the board of directors. Ibid., § 4970.

The signature of a corporation to any instrument mentioned in section 4969 shall be as follows:

998. Form of Signature of Corporation.

..... [full name of corporation].

By [some officer authorized by resolution or the by-laws of the corporation to execute and acknowledge such instrument].

..... [official designation of person signing].

Ibid., § 4972.

A grant of an estate in real property may be made in substance as follows:

999. Deed, Statutory Form.

THIS GRANT, made the day of in the year , between A. B., of , of the first part, and C. D., of , of the second part, WITNESSETH, that the party of the first part hereby grants to the party of the second part in consideration of dollars, now received, all the real property situated in , and bounded [or, described] as follows:

WITNESS, the hand of the party of the first part.

A. B.

Ibid., § 4973.

From the use of the word "grant" in any conveyance by which an estate of inheritance or fee simple is to be passed the following covenant* and none other, on the part of the grantor for himself and his heirs to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, are implied unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyances:

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title or interest therein to any person other than the grantee.

2. That such estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance free from incumbrances done, made or suffered by the grantor, or any person claiming under him. Such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance. Ibid., § 4976.

Every grant of an estate in real property is conclusive against the grantor and every one subsequently claiming under him, except a purchaser or incumbrancer who in good faith and for a valuable consideration, acquires a title or lien by an instrument that is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 4977.

A grant made by the owner of an estate for life or years, purporting to transfer a greater estate than he could lawfully transfer, does not work a forfeiture of his estate, but passes to the grantee all the estate which the grantor could lawfully transfer. Ibid., § 4978.

A transfer of land bounded by a highway passes the title of the person whose estate is transferred to the soil of the highway in front to the center thereof unless a different intent appears. Ibid., § 4979.

A fee simple title is presumed to be intended to pass by a grant of real property unless it appears from the grant that a lesser estate was intended. Ibid., § 4982.

* So in original.

Whoever conveys real estate by deed or mortgage containing a covenant that it is free from all incumbrances, when an incumbrance appears of record to exist thereon whether known or unknown to him shall be liable to an action of contract, to the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators, successors, grantees or assigns, for all damages sustained in removing the same. Ibid., § 4987.

Any instrument affecting the title to or possession of real property may be recorded under this chapter (§§ 5001-5042). Ibid., § 5001.

Instruments entitled to be recorded must be recorded by the register of deeds of the county in which the real property affected thereby is situated. Ibid., § 5005.

An instrument is deemed to be recorded when it is deposited in the register's office with the proper officer for record. Ibid., § 5006.

The unorganized counties of the state in any judicial subdivision are attached to and made a part of the county where the court is held for such subdivision for the purpose of filing and recording all deeds and other instruments, so long as such counties remain unorganized. Ibid., § 5007.

Every conveyance by deed, or otherwise, of real estate within this state, shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county where such real estate is situated, and every such conveyance not so recorded shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith, and for a valuable consideration, of the same real estate, or any part thereof, whose conveyance, whether in the form of a warranty deed, or deed of bargain and sale, deed of quit claim and release, of the form in common use, or otherwise, is first duly recorded; or as against any attachment levied thereon, or any judgment lawfully obtained, at the suit of any party, against the person in whose name the title to such land appears of record, prior to the recording of such conveyance. Every conveyance aforesaid heretofore executed, and not so recorded, and which shall not be so recorded within three months from the taking effect of this article, shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith, and for a valuable consideration, of the same real estate, or any portion thereof, claiming under or through a deed of quit claim and release, of the form in common use, heretofore so recorded, or which may be recorded before such prior conveyance. The fact that such first recorded conveyance of such subsequent purchaser for a valuable consideration is in the form, or contains the terms of a deed of quit claim and release aforesaid, shall not affect the question of good faith of subsequent purchaser, or be of itself notice to him of any unrecorded conveyance of the same real estate or any part thereof; but all deeds and other instruments affecting real estate, situated in any unorganized county, may be recorded in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes, and records of such instruments which have been or shall be so made, shall have the same effect as if recorded in a county where the premises are situated. Ibid., § 5038.

The term "conveyance" as used in the last section, embraces every instrument in writing by which any estate or interest in real property is created, aliened, mortgaged or encumbered, or by which the title to any real property may be affected, except wills and powers of attorney. Ibid., § 5039.

No instrument containing a power to convey or execute instruments affecting real property which has been recorded is revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, unless the instrument containing such revocation is also recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded. Ibid., § 5040.

The recording and deposit of an instrument are constructive notice of the execution of such instrument to all purchasers and incumbrancers subsequent to the recording; and all instruments entitled to record, the record thereof, or a duly certified transcript of such record, or copy of such instrument, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state, and may be read in evidence without further proof. Ibid., § 5041.

An unrecorded instrument is valid as between the parties thereto and those who have notice thereof; but knowledge of the record of an instrument out of the chain of title does not constitute such notice. Ibid., § 5042.

No lease or grant of agricultural land for a longer term than ten years, in which shall be reserved any rent or service of any kind, shall be valid. No lease or grant in any town or city for a longer period than ninety-nine years, in which shall be reserved any rent or service of any kind, shall be valid. Ibid., § 4746.

Every estate of inheritance is a fee, and every such estate, when not defeasible or conditional, is a fee simple or an absolute fee. Ibid., § 4762.

An estate during the life of a third person, whether limited to heirs or otherwise, is a freehold. Ibid., § 4766.

Except when the grant under which the land is held indicates a different intent, the owner of the upland, when it borders on a navigable lake or stream, takes to the edge of the lake or stream at low water mark, and all navigable rivers shall remain and be deemed public highways. In all cases when the opposite banks of any stream not navigable belong to different persons the stream and the bed thereof shall become common to both. Ibid., § 4809.

An owner of land bounded by a road or street is presumed to own to the center of the way, but the contrary may be shown. Ibid., § 4810.

A grant takes effect so as to vest the interest intended to be transferred only upon its delivery by the grantor. Ibid., § 4952.

A grant duly executed is presumed to have been delivered at its date. Ibid., § 4953.

A grant cannot be delivered to the grantee conditionally. Delivery to him or to his agent as such is necessarily absolute; and the instrument takes effect thereupon, discharged of any condition on which the delivery was made. Ibid., § 4954.

Though a grant is not actually delivered into the possession of the grantee it is yet to be deemed constructively delivered in the following cases:

1. When the instrument is by the agreement of the parties at the time of execution understood to be delivered and under such circumstances that the grantee is entitled to immediate delivery; or,

2. When it is delivered to a stranger for the benefit of a grantee and his assent is shown or may be presumed. Ibid., § 4957.

Words of inheritance are not requisite to transfer a fee in real property. Ibid., § 4964.

An agreement on the part of a seller of real property to give the usual covenants binds him to insert in the grant covenants of seizin, quiet enjoyment, further assurance, general warranty and against incumbrances. Ibid., § 5402.

The covenants mentioned in the last section must be in substance as follows:

The party of the first part covenants with the party of the second part that the former is now seized in fee simple of the property granted; that the latter shall enjoy the same without any lawful disturbance; that the same is free from all incumbrances; that the party of the first part and all persons acquiring any interest in the same through or for him will on demand execute and deliver to the party of the second part, at the expense of the latter, any further assurance of the same that may be reasonably required; and that the party of the first part will warrant to the party of the second part all the said property against every person lawfully claiming the same. Ibid., § 5403.

No covenants of warranty shall be considered as broken by the existence of a highway or railway upon the land conveyed, unless otherwise particularly specified in the deed. Ibid., § 5404.

The detriment caused by the breach of a covenant of seizin, of right to convey, of warranty or of quiet enjoyment in a grant of an estate in real property is deemed to be:

1. The price paid to the grantor, or if the breach is partial only, such portion of the price as the value of the property affected by the breach bore at the time of the grant to the value of the whole property.

2. Interest thereon for the time during which the grantee derived no benefit from the property, not exceeding six years; and,

3. Any expense properly incurred by the covenantee in defending his possession. Ibid., § 6566.

The detriment caused by the breach of a covenant against incumbrances in a grant of an estate in real property is deemed to be the amount which has been actually expended by the covenantee in extinguishing either the principal or interest thereof; not exceeding in the former case a proportion of the price paid to the grantor, equivalent to the relative value at the time of the grant of the property affected by the breach as compared with the whole; or, in the latter case, interest on a like amount. Ibid., § 6567.

A deed, mortgage, or lease of any estate or interest in real property, shall be signed by the grantor, mortgagor, or lessor. Annotated Revised Statutes of 1908, § 4106.

A power of attorney for the conveyance, mortgage, or lease of any estate or interest in real property, shall be signed in the same manner as deeds, mortgages, and leases. Ibid., § 4108.

A deed, mortgage, or lease of any estate or interest in real property, made by virtue of a power of attorney, shall contain name of grantor, mortgagor, or lessor, and shall convey, mortgage, or lease estate or interest of grantor, mortgagor, or lessor in real property so conveyed, mortgaged, or leased, as fully as if such deed, mortgage, or lease were executed by grantor, mortgagor, or lessor in person, but at any time previous to conveyance, mortgage, or lease, the grantor, mortgagor or lessor may revoke power of attorney so far as relates to interest of grantor, mortgagor, or lessor therein. Ibid., § 4109.

No deed of real estate executed by any person acting for another, under power of attorney duly recorded, shall be invalid or defective because he is named therein, as such attorney, as the grantor, instead of his principal; nor because his name, as such attorney, is subscribed thereto, instead of name of his principal; nor because the certificate of acknowledgment, instead of setting forth that the deed was acknowledged by the principal, by his attorney, sets forth that it was acknowledged by the person who executed it, as such attorney; but all such deeds so executed shall be as valid and effectual, in all respects, within the authority conferred by such powers of attorney, as if they had been executed by the principals of such attorneys, in their own proper persons. Ibid., § 4110.

When real estate has been sold at tax sale, and purchaser has received deed therefor, and such real estate has been placed upon the tax duplicate in name of such purchaser, or those claiming under him, who openly and notoriously claim title and ownership to such property, and pay taxes thereon, same shall, against any title acquired by deed executed after such tax sale, be held prima facie evidence of the possession of such real estate by such purchaser, or those holding under him, from date of such sale until same is set aside or redeemed; and the knowledge, by a person acquiring title by deed executed after such tax sale, of payment of taxes, and claim of title and ownership, shall, as to such person, be taken as conclusive proof of possession. Ibid., § 4114.

Power of attorney for the conveyance, mortgage, or lease of estate or interest in real property, shall be recorded in office of recorder of county in which such real property is situated, previous to execution of deed, mortgage, or lease by virtue of such power of attorney. Ibid., § 4131.

No instrument containing power of attorney for the conveyance, mortgage, or lease of estate or interest in real property, which has been recorded, is to be deemed revoked by any act of person by whom it was executed, unless instrument containing revocation is also recorded in same office in which the instrument containing power of attorney was recorded. Ibid., § 4132.

All other deeds and instruments of writing for the conveyance or incumbrance of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, executed agreeably to the provisions of this chapter, shall be recorded in office of recorder of county in which the premises are situated, and until so recorded or filed for record, same shall be deemed fraudulent, so far as relates to a subsequent bona fide purchaser having, at time of purchase, no knowledge of the existence of such former deed or instrument. Ibid., § 4134.

Special assessments for street improvement by paving and other work, and each installment thereof, and the interest thereon are declared to be a lien against the lots and tracts of land so assessed from the dates of the ordinances levying the same co-equal with the lien of other taxes, and prior and superior to all other liens against such lots or tracts and such lien shall continue until such assessments and interest thereon shall be fully paid, but unmatured installments shall not be deemed to be within the terms of any general covenant or warranty. Compiled Laws of 1909, § 726.

Instruments essential to the title of real property, and which are not kept in a public office as a record pursuant to law, belong to the person in whom, for the time being, such title may be vested, and pass with the title. Ibid., § 7364.

As between grantor and grantee of any land where there is no express agreement as to who shall pay the taxes, taxes on any real estate becoming a lien on such real estate on the 15th day of October of each year, between the 1st day of March and the 15th day of October next following, the grantor shall pay the same but if conveyed between the 15th day of October and the 1st day of March the grantee shall pay the same. Ibid., § 7680.

Every person who takes any conveyance of any lands or tenements, or of any interest or estate therein, from any person not being in the possession thereof, while such lands or tenements are the subject of controversy, by suit in any court, knowing the tendency of such suit, and that the grantor was not in possession of such lands or tenements, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Ibid., § 2214.

Every person who buys or sells, or in any manner procures, or makes or takes any promise or covenant to convey any pretended right or title to any lands or tenements, unless the grantor thereof, or the person making such promise or covenant has been in possession, or he and those by whom he claims have been in possession of the same, or of the reversion and remainder thereof, or have taken the rents and profits thereof for the space of one year before such grant, conveyance, sale, promise or covenant made, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Ibid., § 2215.

Every estate of inheritance is a fee, and every such estate, when not defeasible or conditional, is a fee-simple or an absolute fee. Ibid., § 7213.

An estate during the life of a third person, whether limited to heirs or otherwise, is a freehold. Ibid., § 7217.

Except where the grant under which the land is held indicates a different intent, the owner of the upland, when it borders upon a navigable lake or stream, takes to the edge of the lake or stream, at low-water mark, and all navigable rivers shall remain and be deemed public highways. In all cases where the opposite banks of any streams not navigable belong to different persons, the stream and the bed thereof shall become common to both. Ibid., § 7254.

An owner of land, bounded by a road or street is presumed to own to the center of the way, but the contrary may be shown. Ibid., § 7255.

Any instrument affecting real estate may be made by an attorney in fact, duly appointed and empowered as hereinafter provided. Ibid., § 1186.

No deed, or other conveyance relating to real estate or any interest therein, other than for a lease for a period not to exceed one year, shall be valid until reduced to writing and subscribed by the grantors. Ibid., § 1187.

Deeds executed by any sheriff or other officer, for real estate sold under execution, order of sale, or pursuant to any order or decree of court, shall be executed and recorded in the manner and with like effect as other deeds. Ibid., § 1192.

Except as hereinafter provided, no recording shall be necessary to the validity of any deed, mortgage or contract relating to real estate as between the parties thereto; but no deed, contract, bond, lease, or other instrument relating to real estate, other than a lease for a period not exceeding one year and accompanied by actual possession, shall be valid as against third persons unless recorded as herein provided; except actual notice to such third persons shall be equivalent to due recording. Ibid., § 1195.

Every instrument purporting to be an absolute or qualified conveyance of real estate or any interest therein, but intended to be defeasible or as security for the payment of money, shall be deemed a mortgage and must be recorded and foreclosed as such. Ibid., § 1196.

Every instrument explanatory of any deed or other writing purporting to be a conveyance but intended to be defeasible or as security for the payment of money, shall be deemed a part thereof, and must be filed and recorded therewith; and unless such instruments are so filed and recorded together, they and each of them shall have no other effect than an unrecorded mortgage, and the recording of the principle* instrument shall secure no rights to the holder thereof. Ibid., § 1197.

Any person purchasing or taking any security against real estate in good faith and without notice from one holding under an instrument purporting to be a conveyance, but intended as security for the payment of money, and which instrument has been duly recorded without any other instrument explanatory thereof, shall be protected to the extent of the purchase price paid or actual outlay occasioned with lawful interest, against all persons except those in actual possession at the time of such purchase or outlay. Ibid., § 1198.

Any conveyance, other than as above provided, by one holding under an instrument purporting to be a conveyance, but intended as security, shall be deemed and treated as an assignment and transfer of the mortgage rights of and indebtedness due the maker thereof. Ibid., § 1199.

A quitclaim deed, made in substantial compliance with the provisions of this Act, shall convey all the right, title and interest of the maker thereof in and to the premises therein described. Ibid., § 1201.

A warranty deed, made in substantial compliance with the provisions of this Act, shall convey to the grantee, his heirs or assigns, the whole interest of the grantor in the premises described, and shall be deemed a covenant on the part of the grantor, that at the time of making the deed he is legally seized of the indefeasible estate in fee simple of the premises and has good right and full power to convey the same; that the same are clear of all incumbrances and liens, and that he warrants the grantee, his heirs and assigns, the quiet and peaceable possession thereof, and will defend the title thereto against all persons who may lawfully claim the same, and the covenants and warranty shall be obligatory and binding upon any such grantor, his heirs and personal representatives as if written at length in such deed. Ibid., § 1202.

A power of attorney in fact for the conveyance of real estate or any interest therein, shall be executed and recorded in the manner required by this Act for the execution and recording of deeds, and shall be recorded in the county where the land is situated, and no deed executed by an attorney in fact shall be received for record or recorded until the power under which the same is executed has been duly filed for record in the same office; and the recording of any deed shall be of no effect for any purpose until the power under which it is executed has been duly filed for record in the same office. Ibid., § 1203.

In all cases where there is a recovery of land or any interest therein, adverse to any warranty deed thereto, the judgment by which such recovery is had shall not be effective, or become the basis of an action, against previous grantors other than those who are parties thereto, or have been notified in writing of the pendency thereof twenty days before such judgment is entered. Ibid., § 1204.

In all cases where an action is brought against a grantee to recover real estate conveyed to him by warranty deed he must notify the grantor, or person bound by the warranty, that such suit has been brought, at least twenty days before the day of trial, which notice shall be in writing and shall request such grantor or other person to defend against such action; and in case of failure to give such notice there shall be no further liability upon such warranty, except when it is clearly shown that it was impossible to make service of such notice. Ibid., § 1205.

Where any grantor applies in any action to defend his warranty or fails to appear after due notice, the court shall determine all the rights of all the parties, and in case the recovery is adverse to the warranty, the warrantee shall recover of the warrantor the price of the land paid for the conveyance at the time of the warranty, the value of all improvements lost, if any, and all sums necessarily expended, including a reasonable attorney fee, and interest at the rate of ten per centum on all sums so paid from the time of payment. Ibid., § 1206.

If a warrantor, or other person bound by a warranty, shall fail to appear and defend after due notice as above provided the warrantee may defend the action and recover in a separate suit all sums expended the same as he might do in the same suit, as provided in this act. Ibid., § 1207.

In all cases where copies of instruments affecting real estate might lawfully be used in evidence, copies of the same, duly certified from the records by the register of deeds may be received in evidence; and if the same need not be recorded to be valid for the purpose for which such evidence is offered, a copy duly verified by oath or affidavit of any person knowing the same to be a true copy may be received in evidence. Ibid., § 1209.

No instrument affecting the title to real estate shall be filed for record or recorded unless plainly printed or written or partly printed and partly written in the English language. Ibid., § 1210.

Corporations, as well as individuals, may make and deliver instruments affecting real estate by an attorney in fact. Ibid., § 1211.

Every instrument affecting real estate or authorizing the execution of any deed or other instrument relating thereto, executed by a corporation or its attorney in fact in substantial compliance with this Act shall be valid and binding upon the grantor, notwithstanding any omission or irregularity in the proceedings of such corporation or any of its officers or members, and without reference to any provision in its constitution or by-laws. Ibid., § 1212.

Every conveyance of real estate or any interest therein, or other instrument in any way affecting the same, made without a fair and valuable consideration, or made in bad faith, or for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors, shall be void as against all persons to whom the maker is at the time indebted or under any legal liability. Ibid., § 1213.

Every estate in land which shall be granted, conveyed or demised by deed shall be deemed an estate in fee simple and of inheritance, unless limited by express words. Ibid., § 1214.

A warranty deed to real estate may be substantially in the following form, to wit:

1004. Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That _____, part of the first part, in consideration of the sum of _____ dollars, in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, do hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey unto _____ the following described real property and premises, situate in _____ county, state of Oklahoma, to wit:

together with all the improvements thereon and the appurtenances thereunto belonging, and warrant the title to the same.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD said described premises unto the said part of the second part, heirs and assigns forever, free, clear and discharged of and from all former grants, charges, taxes, judgments, mortgages and other liens and incumbrances of whatsoever nature.

Signed and delivered this day of , 19 .

Ibid., § 1226.

A quitclaim deed to real estate may be substantially the same as a warranty deed, with the word "quitclaim" inserted in connection with the words "do hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey," as follows: "Do hereby quitclaim, grant, bargain, sell and convey," and by omitting the words "and warrant the title to the same." Ibid., § 1227.

Every deed, or other instrument affecting real estate made by a corporation must have the name of such corporation subscribed thereto either by an attorney in fact or by the president or a vice-president of such corporation, and when made by a public corporation the name of such corporation must be subscribed by the chief officer thereof. Ibid., § 1228.

Every deed, or other instrument affecting real estate, executed by a corporation, except when executed by an attorney in fact, must be attested by the secretary or clerk of such corporation. Ibid., § 1229.

The deed of land sold for taxes shall be signed and executed by the county treasurer in his official capacity; and when substantially thus executed and recorded, in the proper record of titles to real estate, shall vest in the purchaser a full right, title and interest in and to said lands. Such deed shall be presumptive evidence in all the courts of the State, in all suits and controversies in relation to the rights of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns to the land conveyed of the followings facts:

First. That the real property deeded was subject to taxation for the year or years stated in the deed.

Second. That the taxes were not paid at any time before the sale.

Third. That the real property deeded had not been redeemed from sale at the date of the deed.

Fourth. That the property had been listed and assessed.

Fifth. That the taxes were levied according to law.

Sixth. That the property was sold for taxes, as stated in the deed, and was duly advertised before being sold, and to defeat the deed it must be clearly plead and clearly proven that some one of the above named six requisites was wholly omitted and not done and a showing that any one or all of them was irregularly done will not be sufficient to defeat the deed.

Such deed shall be held, in all such cases, as conclusively proving the following facts:

First. That the manner in which the listing, assessment, levy and notice of sale were conducted was as to manner, and form or procedure, regular in all respects, and conducted as the law directs.

Second. That the grantee named in the deed or his assigns* was the purchaser.

Third. That all the prerequisites of the law were complied with by all the officers who had, or whose duty it was to have performed any matter in connection therewith.

To defeat the deed, the person desiring to set the same aside and recover the land, or to resist the recovery of possession by the holder of the deed in addition to showing clearly the entire failure to do some one or all the things of which the tax deed is made presumptive evidence, must show that he or the person under whom he claims, had the right to redeem the land from tax sale at the time the deed was made, and must, when his action to set aside the tax deed is brought, or a defense to a recovery of possession is plead, tender in open court for the use of the holder of the tax deed, all taxes, penalties, interests and costs, which the party seeking to redeem would be bound to pay if he was then redeeming the land from tax sale, and on failure so to do, his action or defense, as the case may be, shall be dismissed. The rule that tax proceedings are to be strictly construed as against the tax purchaser, shall not apply to proceedings under this Act, but in all courts its provisions shall be liberally construed, to the end that its provisions and all proceedings thereunder shall be sustained. The tax deed shall be substantially in the following form, to-wit:

* So in original.

1005. Tax Deed, Statutory Form.

WHEREAS, A. B., on the day of , A. D. , produce to the undersigned C. D., treasurer of the county of , in the state of Oklahoma, a certificate of purchase in writing, bearing the date of the day of , signed by E. F., who at the last mentioned date was treasurer of said county, from which it appears that did on the day of , purchase at public auction, at the door of the courthouse in said county, the tract, parcel or lot of land lastly in this indenture described, and which tract, parcel or lot was sold to for the sum of , being the amount due on the following tract or lot of land, returning delinquent for non-payment of taxes, costs and charges for the year , to wit: [here insert the land offered for sale], and it appearing that the said A. B. is the legal owner of said certificate of purchase, and the time fixed by law for redeeming the land therein described having now expired and the same not having been redeemed as provided by law, and the said A. B. having demanded a deed for the tract of land mentioned in said certificate, and which was the least quantity of the tract above described that would sell for the amount due thereon for taxes, costs and charges, as above specified, and it appearing that said lands were legally liable for taxation, and had been duly assessed and properly charged on the tax book, or duplicate for the year , and that said lands had been legally advertised for sale for said taxes and were sold on the day of ,

NOW, THEREFORE, this indenture, made this day of , , between the state of Oklahoma, by C. D., the treasurer of said county, of the first part, and the said A. B., of the second part, WITNESSETH, that the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the premises and the sum of one dollar in hand paid, hath granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell and convey to the said party of the second part, heirs and assigns forever, the tract or parcel of land mentioned in said certificate and described as follows, to wit: [describing the land], to have and to hold said mentioned tract or parcel of land, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the said party of the second part, heirs and assigns forever, in as full and ample manner as the said treasurer of said county is empowered by law to sell the same.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the said C. D., treasurer of the said county of _____, has hereunto set his hand and seal on the day and year aforesaid.

OREGON.

Conveyances of lands, or of any estate or interest therein, may be made by deed, signed by the person from whom the estate or interest is intended to pass, or by his lawful agent or attorney, and recorded as directed in this chapter (§§ 5333-5386). Ballinger and Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of 1901, § 5333.

A deed of quitclaim and release, of the form in common use, shall be sufficient to pass all the estate which the grantor could lawfully convey by a deed of bargain and sale. Ibid., § 5335.

The term "heirs," or other words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple; and any conveyance of real estate shall pass all the estate of grantor, unless intent to pass a less estate shall appear by express terms, or be necessarily implied in the terms of the grant. Ibid., § 5336.

A conveyance by a tenant for life or years, purporting to grant a greater estate than he possessed or could lawfully convey, shall not work a forfeiture of his estate, but shall pass to the grantee all the estate which such tenant could lawfully convey. Ibid., § 5337.

No covenant shall be implied in any conveyance of real estate, whether such conveyance contain special covenants or not. Ibid., § 5338.

No grant or conveyance of lands or interest therein shall be void for the reason that at the time of the execution thereof such lands shall be in the actual possession of another claiming adversely. Ibid., § 5340.

Every conveyance shall be entitled to be recorded in the county in which the lands lie. Ibid., § 5355.

The county clerk shall certify upon every conveyance recorded by him the time when it was received and a reference to the book and page where it is recorded, and every conveyance shall be considered as recorded at the time it was so received. Ibid., § 5357.

Every conveyance of real property within this state, which shall not be recorded as provided in this title within five days thereafter, shall be void against any subsequent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration of the same real property, or any portion thereof, whose conveyance shall be first duly recorded. Ibid., § 5359.

The record of a conveyance duly recorded, or a transcript thereof duly certified by the county clerk, in whose office the same may have been recorded, may be read in evidence in any court in this state, with the like force and effect as the original conveyance; but the effect of such evidence may be rebutted by other competent testimony. Ibid., § 5360.

When a deed purports to be an absolute conveyance in terms, but is made or intended to be made defeasible by force of a deed of defeasance, or other instrument for that purpose, the original conveyance shall not be thereby defeated or affected as against any person other than the maker of the defeasance, or his heirs or devisees, or persons having actual notice thereof, unless the instrument of defeasance shall have been recorded in the office for the recording of deeds and mortgages of the county where the lands lie. Ibid., § 5361.

Every letter of attorney, or other instrument containing a power to convey lands, as agent or attorney for the owner of such lands, and every executory contract for the sale or purchase of lands, may be recorded in the county clerk's office of any county in which the lands to which such power or contract relates may be situated; and the record thereof when recorded, or the transcript of such record duly certified, may be read in evidence in any court in this state without further proof of the same. Ibid., § 5370.

No letter of attorney, or other instrument so recorded, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed unless the instrument containing such revocation is also recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded. Ibid., § 5371.

Patents from the United States or of this state for lands within this state, decrees of courts of equity in this state requiring the execution of a conveyance of real estate within this state, and approved lists of lands granted to this state, or to corporations in this state, and conveyances executed by any officer of this state by authority of law, of lands within this state, shall be entitled to be recorded in the record of deeds of the county in which the lands lie, in like manner and with like effect as conveyances of land. Ibid., § 5373.

The recorder of conveyances in Multnomah county shall have the care, custody, and control of the books, papers, and files, and records of contracts, powers of attorney, deeds, mortgages of both real and personal property, and of mechanics', laborers', and materialmen's and other liens in Multnomah county, and shall perform all the duties in regard to the filing, recording, and indexing of deeds, mortgages, contracts, powers of attorney, and mechanics', laborers', materialmen's and other liens in Multnomah county. Ibid., § 2579.

The sheriff of each county shall be tax collector thereof. Ibid., § 3093.

At the expiration of three years from date of sale of real property for taxes the tax collector shall make out a deed for each lot or parcel of land sold and remaining unredeemed, and deliver the same to the purchaser upon the return of the certificate of purchase. The sheriff shall collect one dollar for each deed made by him on such sales, but any number of parcels of land bought by one person may be included in one deed, if desired by the purchaser. The deed shall contain a description of the property sold, as described in the assessment roll, the year in which the tax was levied, to whom the same was assessed; that the tax was unpaid at the time of the sale, and that no redemption has been made; and such deed shall vest in the purchaser all the right, title, and interest and estate of the former owner, owners, lien holders, claimants, or other person or persons interested in the land, and also all the right, title, interest, and claim of the state and county thereto, and shall be prima facie evidence in all the courts of this state in all controversies in relation to the rights of the purchaser, or his heirs or assigns, to the land thereby conveyed, of the following facts: (1) That the real property conveyed was subject to tax for the year or years stated in the deed; (2) that the taxes were not paid at any time before the sale; (3) that the real property conveyed has not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed; (4) that the property had been listed and assessed; (5) that the taxes were levied according to law; (6) that the property was duly advertised for sale; (7) that the property was sold for taxes as stated in the deed;—and it shall be conclusive evidence of the following facts: (1) That the manner in which the listing, assessment, levy, notice, and sale were conducted was in all respects as the law directed; (2) that the grantee named in the deed was the purchaser; (3) that all the prerequisites of law were complied with by all the officers who had, or whose duty it was to have had, any part or action in any transaction relating to or affecting the title conveyed, or purporting to be conveyed, by the deed from the listing and valuation of the property up to the execution of the deed, both inclusive, and that all things whatsoever required by law to make a good and valid sale, and to vest the title in the purchaser were done, except in regard to the points named in this section wherein the deed shall be presumptive evidence only. And in all controversies and suits involving the title to real property claimed and held under and by virtue of a deed executed substantially as aforesaid by the tax collector, the person claiming title adverse to the title conveyed by such deed shall be required to prove, in order to defeat the said title, either that the said real property was not subject to taxation for the year or years named in the deed, that the taxes had been paid before the sale, that the property had been redeemed from the sale according to the provisions of this title, and that such redemption was had or made for the use and benefit of persons having the right of redemption under the law of this state; or, that there had been an entire omission to list or assess the property, or to levy the taxes, or to give notice of the sale, or to sell the property; but no person shall be permitted to question the title acquired by a tax deed without first showing that he, or the person under whom he claims, had title to the property at the time of the sale, or that the title was obtained from the United States or this state after the sale, and that all taxes due upon the property have been paid by such person, or the person under whom he claims title as aforesaid. In any case where a person had paid his taxes, and through mistake made in the tax collector's book or in the receipt the land upon which the taxes were paid was afterwards sold, the tax deed shall not convey title; and in all cases where the owner of lands sold for taxes shall resist the validity of such tax title such owner may prove fraud committed by the officer selling the same, or in the purchaser, to defeat the same; and if fraud is so established such sale and title shall be void. Ibid., § 3127.

PENNSYLVANIA.

There shall be an office of record in each county, which shall be called and styled, "the office for recording of deeds," and the recorder shall duly attend the same, and shall provide parchment, or good large books of large paper, wherein he shall record all deeds and conveyances, which shall be brought to him for that purpose, according to the true intent and meaning of this act. Stewart's Purdon's Digest to 1903 (13th ed.), p. 1147, § 1.

Every recorder of deeds shall keep a fair book, in which he shall immediately make an entry of every deed or writing brought into his office to be recorded, mentioning therein the date, the parties and the place wherein the lands, tenements or hereditaments granted or conveyed by the said deed or writing are situate, dating the same entry on the day in which such deed or writing was brought into his office; and shall record all such deeds and writings in regular succession, according to their priority of time in being brought into the said office. Ibid., p. 1147, § 3.

In addition to the indexes which the recorder of deeds in each county is required to keep, he shall keep in his office, two general indexes of all deeds recorded therein, in one of which, to be known as the direct index, he shall enter in their order, the name of the grantor, the name of the grantee, the volume and page wherein the deed is recorded, and in the other, to be known as the ad sectum index, he shall enter in their order, the name of the grantee, the name of the grantor, the volume and page wherein the deed is recorded. He shall in like manner also keep two general indexes, one direct and the other ad sectum, of all mortgages recorded in his office. Said indexes shall be arranged alphabetically. Ibid., pp. 1147, 1148, § 4.

It is the duty of the recorder to index in its appropriate place and manner every deed and mortgage recorded in his office, at the time the same is recorded; and in case he neglects to do so, he and his sureties shall be liable in damages to any person aggrieved by such neglect. Ibid., p. 1148, § 5.

The entry of recorded deeds and mortgages in said indexes, respectively, shall be notice to all persons of the recording of the same. Ibid., p. 1148, § 6.

In any proceeding at law or in equity, in any of the courts of this commonwealth having jurisdiction, if said court shall order a conveyance to be executed by either of the parties to said proceeding of his or her interest in any lands or tenements to any other party or person, and the party so ordered shall neglect or refuse to comply with the said order and make the said conveyance, or shall die, flee the jurisdiction, or become insane without having complied therewith, the said court may order and direct that such conveyance be made by the sheriff, prothonotary or clerk, or by a trustee specially appointed for that purpose; and the said conveyance having been duly executed by the said sheriff, prothonotary, clerk or trustee, shall be good and effective to convey the interest of the recusant, neglecting, deceased, persons fleeing the jurisdiction, or insane party, to the extent ordered by the court, the same as if it had been duly executed and delivered by such party personally; but no such order shall be made, in case of the decease of such party, until notice shall have been given to his or her heirs and legal representatives, by process duly served, if resident within the commonwealth, or, if not, by publication and copy mailed to the last known address of the same, according as the court shall order and direct. Ibid., p. 1150, § 19.

All bargains and sales, deeds and conveyances of lands, tenements and hereditaments in this province may be recorded in the said office. Ibid., p. 1150, § 21.

Any and every grant, bargain and sale, release or other deed of conveyance or assurance of any lands, tenements or hereditaments in this commonwealth, and any power or powers of attorney to make and execute such sale, conveyance, mortgage or transfer of any lands, tenements or hereditaments in this commonwealth, made and executed in any of the United States, may be recorded in the county in which such lands, tenements and hereditaments are situated. Ibid., p. 1157, § 50.

All deeds and other conveyances of real estate, in the several counties of this commonwealth having a population of over five hundred thousand, shall be registered in the office of the county commissioners before being entered of record in the office of the recorder of deeds. Ibid., p. 1167, § 97.

No deed, or other conveyance of real estate, shall be entered of record in the office of the recorder of deeds, in the several counties of this commonwealth having a population of over five hundred thousand unless the said instrument has been previously registered in the office of the county commissioners. Ibid., pp. 1167, 1168, § 98.

Recorders of deeds in counties having a population of over five hundred thousand, permitting any deed, or other conveyance of real estate, to be entered of record unless previously registered in office of county commissioners, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; but nothing in this act shall apply to counties co-extensive with cities. Ibid., p. 1168, § 99.

All patents granted by the commonwealth, and all deeds of sheriffs, coroners, marshals and treasurers, and all deeds made in pursuance of a decree of any court, may be recorded in the office for recording deeds in the county where the lands lie, and the records thereof, or certified copies thereof, shall be evidence in all cases where the original deeds or patents would be evidence. Ibid., p. 1169, § 102.

All deeds of county commissioners may be recorded in the office for recording of deeds in the county where the lands lie; and the records thereof, or certified copies, shall be evidence in all cases where the original deeds would be. Ibid., p. 1169, § 103.

In any case in which a deed or other instrument in writing, now by law authorized to be recorded, relates to or embraces lands in more than one county in this commonwealth, and is recorded in one or more of said counties, it is lawful to take from the record of the same, an exemplification thereof, certified by the recorder of deeds, and to place the same upon record in any other county in which any of the lands or premises therein described may be; and the record of such exemplification shall be as valid and effectual in law, for all purposes of vesting title, of evidence, and of notice, as the record of the original deeds or instruments of writing are by law held and declared to be. Ibid., p. 1171, § 114.

Where the owner or owners of land or lots have divided the same into lots or sub-divisions and made plots or maps thereof, and any or all of such owners are deceased, the purchaser or purchasers or their successors in title of any such lots or sub-divisions may apply to the court of common pleas of the county where the land is situated for leave to prove the same. When satisfied by the evidence, the court shall direct the map or plot to be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county, and the record thereof shall have the same effect as if the map had been originally recorded. If the map has been lost it may be proved as above provided and a duplicate recorded with the same effect. This act shall not affect adversely any persons who were not parties to the proceeding in court, but they shall be at liberty to show facts or titles different from those of the recorded plot in any contest between claimants. Ibid., p. 1171, §§ 115-118.

All deeds and conveyances made and recorded as aforesaid, which shall appear so to be by indorsement made thereon, shall be of the same force and effect here, for the giving possession and seisin, and making good the title and assurance of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, as deeds of feoffment, with livery and seisin, or deeds enrolled in any of the king's courts of record at Westminster. And the copies or exemplifications of all deeds so enrolled, being examined by the recorder, and certified, are as good evidence, and as valid and effectual in law, as the original deeds themselves, or as bargains and sales enrolled in the said courts at Westminster; and copies thereof may be made use of accordingly. Ibid., pp. 1171, 1172, § 121.

All deeds to be recorded in pursuance of this act, whereby any estate of inheritance in fee-simple shall be limited to the grantee and his heirs, the words grant, bargain, sell shall be adjudged an express covenant to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, to wit, that the grantor was seised of an indefeasible estate, in fee-simple, free from incumbrances done or suffered from the grantor (excepting the rents and services due to the lord of the fee), as also for quiet enjoyment against the grantor, his heirs and assigns, unless limited by express words contained in such deed; and the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns may, in any action, assign breaches, as if such covenants were expressly inserted; but this act shall not extend to leases at rack-rent, or leases not exceeding one-and-twenty years, where the actual possession goes with the lease. Ibid., p. 1172, § 122.

All deeds and conveyances made and executed within this commonwealth of or concerning any lands, tenements or hereditaments in this commonwealth, or whereby the title to the same may be in any way affected in law or equity, shall be recorded in the office for the recording of deeds where such lands, tenements or hereditaments are lying and being, within ninety days after the execution of such deeds or conveyance, and every such deed and conveyance made and executed in this commonwealth and not recorded as aforesaid, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void, against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for a valid consideration, or any creditor of the grantor or bargainor, in said deed or conveyance. Ibid., pp. 1173, 1174, § 123.

All such deeds and conveyances made and executed out of this commonwealth, shall be recorded in the office for the recording of deeds in the county where the lands and tenements specified in such deed or deeds do lie, within the space of six months from the execution thereof, otherwise every such deed or conveyance shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for a valuable consideration, and against any creditor of the bargainor, or grantor in such deed. Ibid., p. 1174, § 124.

This act shall not extend to any lease not exceeding twenty-one years, where the actual possession and occupation goeth along with the lease. Ibid., p. 1174, § 125.

All deeds, conveyances and other instruments of writing, wherein it shall be the intention of the parties executing the same, to grant, bargain, sell and convey, any lands, tenements or hereditaments, situate, lying and being in any city of the first class in this commonwealth, shall be recorded in the office for recording of deeds, in the county where such lands, tenements and hereditaments are situate, lying and being; and every such deed, conveyance or other instrument of writing which shall not be recorded as aforesaid, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void, against any subsequent bona fide purchaser or mortgagee, unless such deed, conveyance or instrument of writing shall be recorded as aforesaid, before the recording of the deed or conveyance under which such subsequent purchaser or mortgagee shall claim. Ibid., pp. 1175, 1176, § 132.

No defeasance to any deed for real estate, regular and absolute upon its face, shall have the effect of reducing it to a mortgage, unless the said defeasance is made at the time the deed is made and is in writing, signed and delivered by the grantee in the deed to the grantor, and is recorded in the office for the recording of deeds and mortgages in the county wherein the lands are situated, within sixty days from the execution thereof, and such defeasances shall be recorded and indexed as mortgages by the recorder. Ibid., p. 1180, § 154.

No deed or mortgage, or defeasible deed in the nature of mortgages, shall be good or sufficient to convey or pass any freehold or inheritance, or to grant any estate therein for life or years, unless such deed is recorded where such lands lie, as hereinbefore directed for other deeds. Ibid., p. 1181, § 155.

All mortgages or defeasible deeds in the nature of mortgages, made or executed for any lands, tenements or hereditaments within this commonwealth, shall have priority according to the date of recording the same, without regard to the time of making or executing such deeds; and it is the duty of the recorder to indorse the time upon the mortgages or defeasible deeds when left for record, and if two or more left upon the same day, they shall have priority according to the time they are left at the office for record; and no mortgage or defeasible deed in the nature of a mortgage, shall be a lien, until such mortgage or defeasible deed shall have been recorded, or left for record as aforesaid; but no mortgage given for the purchase-money of the land so mortgaged, shall be affected by the passage of this act, if the same be recorded within sixty days from the execution thereof. Ibid., pp. 1181, 1182, § 158.

In case of any duly authorized sale, letting or mortgaging by a corporation, the same shall not be invalidated by any informality in the execution of any conveyance, mortgage or other instrument by any officer of such corporation for carrying the same into effect; but no defect in substance shall be deemed to be cured hereby. Ibid., pp. 1182, 1183, § 163.

A grantee of real estate which is subject to ground-rent, or bound by mortgage or other encumbrance, shall not be personally liable for the payment of such ground-rent, mortgage or other encumbrance, unless he shall, by an agreement in writing, have expressly assumed a personal liability therefor, or there shall be express words in the deed of conveyance, stating that the grant is made on condition of the grantee assuming such personal liability; but the use of the words "under and subject to the payment of such ground-rent, mortgage or other encumbrance," shall not alone be so construed as to make such grantee personally liable as aforesaid. Ibid., pp. 4044, 4045, § 72.

The right to enforce such personal liability shall not inure to any person other than the person with whom such an agreement is made, nor shall such personal liability continue, after the said grantee has bona fide parted with the encumbered property, unless he shall have expressly assumed such continuing liability. Ibid., p. 4045, § 73.

Any person or persons seized of an estate tail, in possession, reversion or remainder, shall have full power to grant, bargain, sell or convey any lands, tenements or hereditaments, whereof he, she or they shall be so seized, by such manner and form of conveyance or assurance, as any person seized of an estate in fee simple may, by the laws of this state, grant, bargain, sell and convey any lands, tenements or hereditaments, whereof such person is seized of an estate in fee simple; and all and every such grants, bargains, sales and conveyances of any person or persons so seized in tail, shall be good and available, to all intents and purposes, against every person and persons, whom the grantor, bargainor or vendor might or could debar by any mode of common recovery, or by any way or means whatever. Ibid., p. 1483, § 3.

Whenever any deed or deeds shall have been, or may hereafter be, executed by any tenant in tail for the purpose of barring an estate tail in any lands, tenements or hereditaments in this commonwealth, and the said deed or deeds have been or shall be entered on the records of the court of common pleas, and also recorded in the recorder's office of the county where the lands lie, such deed or deeds shall be equally available, whether entered or recorded at the instance of the grantor or grantee. Ibid., p. 1485, § 7.

Whenever hereafter by any gift, conveyance or devise, an estate in fee tail would be created according to the existing laws of this state, it shall be taken and construed to be an estate in fee simple, and as such shall be inheritable and freely alienable. Ibid., p. 1485, § 8.

“KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that, WHEREAS an execution against of , in the province of , in the action of of , in the province of , was by me, governor [or, his deputy, as the case may be], of the province of , on the day of , A. D. 19 , levied on [here describe the premises], and WHEREAS, on the day of , A. D. 19 , all the estate, right, title, interest and property of the said , defendant, in the premises aforesaid were by me, the said [here insert the name of the officer], sold at public auction, for the satisfaction of said execution, to , of , of the province of , who was the highest bidder, for the sum of dollars, which the said has since fully paid to me.

Now, by force and virtue of law in such cases made and provided, I, the said [the officer], in consideration of the sum of money paid unto me as aforesaid, do, by these presents, sell and assign and set over unto the said [purchaser], his heirs and assigns forever, all the estate, right, title, interest, property and inheritance of the said [defendant] in and to the said premises and appurtenances, at the time of the levy thereon [or, of the attachment, as the case may be].

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said premises and appurtenances, to the said [purchaser], his heirs and assigns forever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and seal, on this day of , 19 ."

[Signature and seal.]

Act No. 190, of 1901, in effect September 1, 1901, § 473; Acts of 1900-1901, pp. 511, 512.

The original record of a conveyance or instrument conveying or affecting real property situated in the Philippine Islands, or a certified copy of the record thereof, may be read in evidence with the like effect as the original instrument, without further proof. Ibid., § 331, p. 481.

There shall be levied, collected, and paid for and in respect to the several bonds, debentures, or certificates of stock and of indebtedness, and other documents, instruments, matters, and things mentioned and described in this section, or for or in respect to the vellum, parchment, or paper upon which such instruments, matters, or things, or any of them, shall be written or printed by any person or persons who shall make, sign, or issue the same, the several taxes following:

Eleventh. On each power of attorney to sell and convey real estate, or to rent and lease the same, twenty centavos.

Fourteenth. On all conveyances, deeds, instruments, or writings whereby any lands, tenements, or other realty sold shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to the purchaser or purchasers, or to any other person or persons designated by such purchaser or purchasers, when the true consideration or value received for such realty is more than two hundred pesos, but not more than one thousand pesos, fifty centavos; and for each additional one thousand pesos or fractional part thereof, of such consideration, fifty centavos; but in sales of encumbered property the tax shall be collected on the net amount of the consideration after deducting the amount of the encumbrance; and original certificates under the Land Registration Act and patents to land granted under the Public Land Act shall be exempted from the payment of this tax.

The tax imposed in this paragraph shall be paid and assessed on the complete and full amount of money or other valuable consideration actually paid or delivered in exchange for such lands, tenements, or other realty; and the Collector of Internal Revenue, provincial treasurers, and other revenue officers, when there is good reason to believe that a fraud has been perpetrated on the revenues through the declaration of a fictitious consideration in any such conveyance, deed, instrument, or writing, shall from the real-estate assessment rolls, or from any other reliable source, assess the lands, tenements, or other realty at their true market value and the tax on such conveyance, deed, or instrument shall be assessed and collected on such true market value of the realty conveyed; and any person who, with the intent to defraud the revenues, places a fictitious valuation on any realty conveyed and subject to the tax imposed in this paragraph, or any valuation which shall be less than the actual amount of money or other valuable thing received or delivered in payment for such realty, shall, in addition to the payment of the tax assessed on the actual consideration received or true market value of the realty conveyed, forfeit and pay a sum equal to twice the amount of such tax.

Act No. 1189, of 1904, in effect August 1, 1904, § 116; Acts of 1903-1904, pp. 351, 354, 355.

PORTO RICO.

The titles of ownership or of other real rights relating to immovables which are not properly inscribed or annotated in the registry of property, shall not be prejudicial to third persons. Civil Code of 1902, § 613.

In order to determine the titles subject to annotation or inscription, the form, effect and extinction of the same, the manner of keeping the registry, and the value of the entries contained in the books thereof, the provisions of the Mortgage Law shall be observed. Ibid., § 615.

Public instruments are those authenticated by a notary or by a competent public official, with the formalities required by law. Ibid., § 1184.

Public instruments are evidence, even against a third person, of the fact which gave rise to their execution and of the date of the latter.

They shall also be evidence against the contracting parties and their legal representatives with regard to the declarations the former may have made therein. Ibid., § 1186.

Public instruments, made for the purpose of impairing a former instrument, between the same parties, shall be effective against third parties only when the contents of the former are entered in the proper public registry or in the margin of the original instrument, and in that of the transcript or copy, by virtue of which the third person may have acted. Ibid., § 1187.

Copies of public instruments of which there is an original or protocol, contested by those they prejudice, shall have force of proof only when they have been duly collated.

Should there be any difference between the original and the copy the contents of the former shall govern. Ibid., § 1188.

A private instrument legally acknowledged shall have, with regard to those who signed it and their legal representatives, the same force as a public instrument. Ibid., § 1193.

A person against whom a written obligation, which appears signed by him, is set up in court is obliged to declare whether the signature is his or not.

A refusal, without sufficient cause, to make the statement mentioned may be construed by the courts as an admission of the authenticity of the instrument. Ibid., § 1194.

The date of a private instrument shall be considered, with regard to third persons, only from the date on which it may have been filed or entered in a public registry, from the death of any of those who signed it, or from the date on which it may have been delivered to a public official by virtue of his office. Ibid., § 1195.

Entries, registries, and private papers shall be evidence against the person who has written them only in all that may appear clearly stated; but a person who wishes to make use thereof is bound to accept them also in the part prejudicial to him. Ibid., § 1196.

Private instruments executed for the purpose of changing the agreements made in a public instrument shall produce no effect against a third person. Ibid., § 1198.

A vendor is bound to deliver and warrant the thing which is the object of the sale. Ibid., § 1364.

When the sale is made by means of a public instrument, the execution thereof shall be equivalent to the delivery of the thing which is the object of the contract, if in said instrument the contrary does not appear or may be clearly inferred. Ibid., § 1365.

The obligation to deliver the thing sold includes that of placing in the possession of the vendee all that is mentioned in the contract, according to the following rules:

If the sale of real property is made with a statement of its area, at the rate of a certain price for a unit of measure or number, the vendor shall be obliged to deliver to the vendee, if the latter should require it, all that may have been mentioned in the contract; but should this not be possible, the vendee may choose between a proportional reduction in the price or the rescission of the contract, provided that in the latter case the decrease in the real estate is not less than one-tenth of the area given it.

The same shall be done, even when the area appears to be the same, if any part of the real estate is not of the character mentioned in the contract.

The rescission in such case shall only take place at the will of the vendee, when the inferior value of the thing sold exceeds one-tenth of the price agreed upon. Ibid., § 1372.

If in the case of the preceding section there is greater area or number in real estate than those mentioned in the contract, the vendee shall be obliged to pay the price of the excess if the greater area or number should not exceed one-twentieth of those mentioned in the contract; but should it surpass said one-twentieth, the vendee may choose between paying the greater value of the estate or withdrawing from the contract. Ibid., § 1373.

In the sale of real estate made for a fixed price and not at the rate of a specified sum for a unit of measure or number, the increase or decrease of the same shall not be considered, even when greater or less area or amount than that stated in the contract may be found.

The same shall take place when two or more estates are sold for a single price; but, if besides mentioning the boundaries, which are indispensable in every conveyance of real estate, their area and number should be designated in the contract, the vendor shall be obliged to deliver all that is included within said boundaries, even when they exceed the area or number specified in the contract; and, should he not be able to do it, he shall suffer a reduction in the price, in proportion to what is lacking in the area or number, unless the contract be annulled by reason of the vendee not accepting the failure to deliver what had been stipulated. Ibid., § 1374.

The actions arising from the three preceding sections shall prescribe after six months, counted from the day of the delivery. Ibid., § 1375.

If real property is sold to different vendees, it shall belong to the person acquiring it who first recorded it in the registry.

Should there be no entry, the property shall belong to the person who first took possession of it in good faith, and, in the absence thereof, to the person who presents the oldest title, provided there is good faith. Ibid., § 1376.

By virtue of the warranty referred to in section 1364, the vendor shall warrant to the vendee:

1. The legal and peaceful possession of the thing sold.
2. That there are no hidden faults or defects therein. Ibid., § 1377.

A contract exists from the moment one or more persons consent to bind himself or themselves, with regard to another or others, to give something or to render some service. Ibid., § 1221.

Contracts are perfected by mere consent, and from that time they are binding. Ibid., § 1225.

No one can contract in the name of another without being authorized by him or without having his legal representation according to law.

A contract executed in the name of another by one who has neither his authorization nor legal representation shall be void, unless it should be ratified by the person in whose name it was executed before being revoked by the other contracting party. Ibid., § 1226.

Contracts shall be binding, whatever may be the form in which they may have been executed, provided the essential conditions required for their validity exist. Ibid., § 1245.

Should the law require the execution of an instrument or other special formality in order to make the obligations of a contract binding, the contracting parties may compel each other to comply with said formalities from the moment in which consent and the other requirements, necessary for their validity, have taken place. Ibid., § 1246.

The following must appear in a public instrument:

1. Acts and contracts the object of which is the creation, modification, or extinction of property rights on real property.

2. Leases of the same property for six or more years, provided they are to the prejudice of third persons. Ibid., § 1247.

Eviction shall take place when by a final judgment, and by virtue of a right prior to the sale, the vendee is deprived of the whole or of a part of the thing purchased.

The vendor shall be liable for the eviction even though no stipulation has been included in the contract on the subject.

The contracting parties may, however, increase, decrease, or suppress this legal obligation of the vendor. Ibid., § 1378.

Any stipulation exempting the vendor from obligation of answering for the eviction shall be void, provided there is bad faith on his part. Ibid., § 1379.

If a vendee has renounced the right of warranty in the case of eviction and it occurs, the vendor must deliver only the price which the thing had at the time of the eviction, unless the vendee has made the renunciation knowing the risk of eviction and submitting to its consequences. Ibid., § 1380.

If a warranty has been stipulated, or if nothing has been agreed upon on this point, if the eviction has taken place, the vendee shall have the right to demand of the vendor —

1. The restitution of the price which the thing sold had at the time of the eviction, whether it be greater or less than that of the sale.

2. The fruits or proceeds, should he have been adjudged to deliver them to the person who won the suit instituted against him.

3. The costs of the suit which caused the eviction, and, in a proper case, those of the suit instituted against the vendor for the warranty.

4. The expenses of the contract, if the vendee has paid them.

5. The damages and interest and the voluntary expenses or of mere recreation or ornamentation, should the sale have been made in bad faith. Ibid., § 1381.

Should the vendee lose, on account of the eviction, a part of the thing sold of such importance, in relation to the whole, that he would not have purchased it without said part, he may demand the rescission of the contract; but with the obligation to return the thing without other charges than those it had when he acquired it.

The same provision shall be observed when two or more things are jointly sold for a lump sum, or a special price for each one of them, should it clearly appear that the vendee would not have purchased one without the other. Ibid., § 1382.

A warranty cannot be demanded until a final judgment is rendered by which the vendee is adjudged to lose the thing acquired or a part thereof. Ibid., § 1383.

The vendor shall be obligated to the proper warranty whenever it is proved that he was given notice of the suit for eviction at the instance of the vendee. In the absence of this notice the vendor shall not be bound to the warranty. Ibid., § 1384.

If the estate sold is encumbered by any nonapparent burden or easement, not mentioned in the instrument, of such a nature that it must be presumed that the vendee would not have acquired it had he been aware thereof, he may request the rescission of the contract, unless he should prefer the proper indemnity.

During a year, to be counted from the date of the execution of the instrument, the vendee may either institute the rescissory action or request the indemnity.

After the lapse of one year, he can only demand such indemnity within an equal period, to be counted from the date on which the incumbrance or easement was discovered by him. Ibid., § 1386.

In the sale of real property, even though it may have been stipulated that in the absence of the payment of the price within the time agreed upon, the rescission of the contract shall take place by full right, the vendee may pay, even after the expiration of the period, as long as he has not been summoned either judicially or by a notarial act. After the suit has been instituted the judge can not grant him a further period. Ibid., § 1407.

Conventional redemption shall take place when the vendor reserves to himself the right to recover the thing sold, with the obligation to comply with section 1421, and whatever more may have been agreed upon. Ibid., § 1410.

The right referred to in the preceding section, in the absence of an express agreement, shall last four years counted from the date of the contract.

Should there be an agreement, the period shall not exceed ten years. Ibid., § 1411.

If the vendor should not comply with the provisions of section 1421 the vendee shall irrevocably acquire the ownership of the thing sold. Ibid., § 1412.

The vendor can not exercise the right of redemption without returning to the vendee the price of the sale, and furthermore:

1. The expenses of the contract and any other legitimate payment made by reason of the sale.

2. The useful and necessary expenses incurred by the thing sold. Ibid., § 1421.

When any registrar of property refuses absolutely or provisionally to record or to give its full legal effect to any document which may be presented to him for recording or for the annotation of the contents thereof, whether it be a deed, a decree, a mortgage, a satisfaction of a mortgage or any other document which he is required by law either to record or to enter, he shall set out clearly and concisely at the foot of the document his reasons for the refusal and shall serve notice of his action upon the interested party accompanied by a copy of his written reasons for the refusal. Revised Statutes of 1902, § 799.

In case the party interested in the record or the entry of the document shall not withdraw it within two days after having been notified as aforesaid, the registrar shall forthwith forward it to the Supreme Court in order that it may affirm or reverse his action. The decision of the Supreme Court shall be rendered within ten days after the receipt of the document, and on the day following its rendition the document, accompanied by a copy of the decision, shall be returned to the registrar in order that he may comply with the decision of the Court. While the matter is pending in the Supreme Court, the interested party may, either in person or by attorney, submit a written argument to the Court, in support of his right to have the document recorded or entered. Ibid., § 800.

The party interested may withdraw the document within two days after the refusal of the registrar to record or enter it, and within twenty days thereafter may present it to the Supreme Court and the Court shall thereupon affirm or reverse the action of the registrar as in section 800. Ibid., § 801.

Whenever any registrar shall refuse to record or to enter any document or give it due legal effect, he shall make an entry of the presentment and refusal in the proper volume and page number belonging to the property in question. Such entry, however, shall have effect only during four months from date thereof. Ibid., § 805.

The registrars of property shall be under the administrative jurisdiction of the Attorney General. Ibid., § 803.

Issues of law or of fact as to the effect upon the title to real estate or rights therein as affected by priority or preference between or among documents of title or property in the recording or the entry of the same shall be decided by declaratory actions in the tribunals of justice. Ibid., § 807.

General Order Number 99 of April 30, 1900, and all the articles of the Mortgage Law and the regulations for the execution thereof or parts of the same in conflict with this Act are repealed. Ibid., § 808.

Every deed of transfer of real property, or interest therein, and every mortgage or other security for debt secured by real property, made on and after the first day of April, 1901, by any registrar of property, shall be separately and specially recorded by the proper registrar of property, without compensation, in a special transfer book to be furnished by the Treasurer, which shall contain the date and consideration of the transfer or grant; the name and residence of the grantee; the name and residence of the grantor; the name and residence of the person to whom said real property, interest in or debt secured by real property is assessed and taxed, and reference to the archives or records of such registrars in which the said property is more fully described. Political Code of 1902, § 325.

RHODE ISLAND.

A conveyance made by a tenant for life or years purporting to grant a greater estate than he possesses or can lawfully convey, shall not work a forfeiture of his estate, but shall pass to the grantee all the estate which such tenant can lawfully convey. General Laws-Revision of 1909, p. 870, § 7 of chap. 252.

A person actually seized of lands as tenant-in-tail may convey such lands in fee-simple by a deed in common form, in like manner as if he were seized thereof in fee-simple: provided, that in such deed the intention be expressed of barring the entail and reference be made to the specific land by metes and bounds, or by other definite description. Such conveyance shall bar the estate-tail and all remainders and reversions expectant thereon. An estate-tail may also be barred as provided in section five of this chapter. Ibid., p. 871, § 14.

All lands held in fee-tail shall be liable for the debts of the tenant-in-tail in his lifetime like estates in fee-simple; and when sold on execution, or when sold by guardians, the creditor or purchaser shall hold such lands in fee-simple; but this shall not extend to lands in which the debtor has only an estate-tail in remainder. Ibid., p. 870, § 5.

When lands are held by one person for life with a vested remainder in tail in another, the tenant-for-life and the remainder-man may convey such lands in fee-simple by their deed or deeds in common form, subject to the proviso in section 14; and such deed or deeds shall bar the estate-tail and all remainders and reversions expectant thereon. Ibid., pp. 871, 872, § 15.

Equitable estates-tail in possession or remainder, and all remainders and reversions expectant thereon, may be barred in the same manner as legal estates-tail and the remainders and reversions expectant thereon. Ibid., p. 872, § 16.

The person to whom an equitable fee-simple is conveyed pursuant to the preceding section shall upon request therefor be entitled to a conveyance of the outstanding legal estate from the person in whom such legal estate is then or thereafter vested in trust, unless provision to the contrary be made in the instrument creating the trust. Ibid., p. 872, § 17.

When real estate is subject to a contingent remainder, executory devise, or power of appointment, the superior court may, upon the petition of any person who has an estate-in-possession in such real estate, and after notice and other proceedings as hereinafter required, appoint one or more trustees and authorize him or them to sell and convey such estate or any part thereof in fee-simple, if such sale and conveyance appears to said court to be necessary or expedient, for such an amount, and on such terms, as said court may deem proper, and such conveyance shall be valid and binding upon all parties. Ibid., p. 872, § 18.

Notice of such petition shall be given in such manner as the court may order to all persons who are or may become interested in the real estate to which the petition relates, and to all persons whose issue not in being may become interested therein; and the court shall in every case appoint a suitable person to appear and act therein as the next friend of all minors, persons not ascertained, and persons not in being, who are or may become interested in such real estate; and the cost of the appearance and the service of such next friend, including the compensation of his counsel, to be determined by the court, shall be paid, as the court may order, either out of the proceeds of the sale or by the petitioner, in which latter case execution therefor may issue in the name of the next friend. Ibid., p. 872, § 19.

Every trustee appointed under section eighteen of this chapter, shall give bond in such form and for such an amount as the court appointing him may order, and he shall receive and hold, invest and reinvest, or apply, the proceeds of any sale made by him, for the benefit of the persons who would have been entitled to the real estate if such sale had not been made. Ibid., p. 872, § 20.

Under an indenture an immediate estate or interest in any tenements or hereditaments, and the benefit of a condition or covenant respecting any tenements or hereditaments, may be taken, although the taker thereof be not named a party to the same indenture; also any conveyance purporting to be an indenture shall have the effect of an indenture although not actually indented. Ibid., p. 873, § 22.

Every conveyance of lands, tenements or hereditaments absolutely, by way of mortgage, or on condition, use or trust, for any term longer than one year, shall be void unless made in writing duly signed, delivered, and recorded in the records of land-evidence in the town or city where the said lands, tenements or hereditaments are situated; but the same, if delivered, as between the parties and their heirs, and as against those taking by gift or devise, or those having notice thereof, shall be valid and binding though not recorded. A lease for the term of one year or less shall be valid although made by parole. Ibid., p. 875, § 2 of chap. 253.

Whenever any instrument entitled to record shall be presented for record the town clerk or recorder of deeds, as the case may be, immediately thereupon shall cause to be entered in writing on said instrument the day, the hour and the minute when the same was presented for record, and shall forthwith enter the same in the order of presentment in a receiving-book to be kept for that purpose. Ibid., p. 875, § 3.

Any of the following instruments shall be recorded or filed by the town clerk or recorder of deeds, in the manner prescribed by law, on request of any person and on payment of the lawful fees therefor; that is to say,

1. Letters of attorney.
2. All contracts for sale of land.
3. Bonds for title or covenants or powers concerning lands, tenements and hereditaments.

7. All instruments required by statute to be recorded, including deeds, mortgages and transfers and discharges thereof, leases and transfers and cancellations thereof, and the covenants, conditions, agreements and powers therein contained.

8. Instruments of defeasance. Ibid., pp. 875, 876, § 6.

Such record or filing shall be constructive notice to all persons of the contents of such instruments and other the matters so recorded, so far as same are genuine. Ibid., p. 876, § 7.

Any form of conveyance in writing, duly signed and delivered by grantor, or the attorney of the grantor duly authorized, shall be operative to convey to the grantee all the possession, estate, title and interest, claim, demand or right of entry or action, of the grantor, absolutely in and to the land conveyed, unless otherwise expressly limited in estate, condition, use or trust, and, if otherwise expressly limited, shall convey such property for the time or estate or on the condition, use or trust as declared, without any other act or ceremony. Ibid., p. 877, § 11.

Any instrument purporting to be a release of all claims and demands, or of any special demand, whatever be the consideration expressed therefor, and any discharge of mortgage in whole or in part, shall be construed to have that effect. Ibid., p. 877, § 12.

The words, "give," "grant," or "exchange," in any conveyance, shall imply no covenant, warranty or right of re-entry. Ibid., p. 877, § 13.

Whoever conveys real estate by deed containing a covenant that it is free from all incumbrances when an incumbrance appears of record to exist thereon, whether known or unknown to him, shall be liable in an action of the case to the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators, successors or assigns, for all damages and expenses sustained by reason of or in removing the same. Ibid., p. 877, § 14.

Whenever any administrator, executor, guardian, receiver, sheriff, mortgagee, or any person acting under a power of sale in any mortgage-deed, deed of trust, or other conveyance, shall sell or cause to be sold any real estate lying within this state, the title to which will in any manner depend upon notice of sale to be published in any newspaper, if the person or persons causing such sale to be made shall cause a copy of the advertisement, in pursuance of which such sale is made, to be attached to the deed given thereunder, together with his, her or their affidavit, or, if a corporation, the affidavit of its officer duly authorized thereto, stating when, how many times and in what newspaper or newspapers such advertisement was published, and the manner, time and place of making such sale, such copy and affidavit shall be recorded with the deed to which they are attached, and the record thereof shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters and things therein stated, but the omission of such copy and affidavit shall not affect the validity of said conveyance if otherwise valid. Ibid., pp. 877, 878, § 15.

Any conveyance executed by attorney shall be as valid as if executed by the grantor himself, providing* that a power of attorney be given by such grantor for this purpose; which power and the deed executed by the attorney thereunder shall be signed, delivered and recorded with like formalities prescribed by law concerning deeds from grantors in person. Ibid., p. 878, § 16.

The donee of a power of attorney may, under and within the authority of the power, if he think fit, execute or do any assurance, instrument, or thing in and with his own name and signature; and every assurance, instrument, and thing so executed and done shall be as effectual in law, to all intents, as if it had been executed or done by the donee of the power in the name and with the signature of the donor thereof. Ibid., p. 878, § 17.

The use of the word "grant" is not necessary in order to convey tenements and hereditaments, corporeal or incorporeal. Ibid. p., 878, § 19.

In deeds lands, tenements, and hereditaments may be conveyed by a person to himself jointly with another person by the like means by which it might be conveyed by him to another person. Ibid., p. 878, § 20.

In a deed it is sufficient, in the limitation of an estate in fee-simple, to use the word "heirs," or to use the words "in fee-simple" without the word "heirs," and in the limitation of an estate in tail, to use the words "heirs of the body," or the words "in tail" without the words "heirs of the body;" and in the limitation of an estate in tail-male or in tail-female, to use the words "heirs male of the body," or "heirs female of the body," or the words "in tail-male," or "in tail-female," as the case requires, without the words "heirs male of the body," or "heirs female of the body." Ibid., p. 879, § 21.

A person to whom any power, whether coupled with an interest or not, is given, may release, or contract not to exercise, the power, unless prevented from so doing by the terms of said power. Ibid., p. 879, § 22.

* So in original.

A covenant relating to land of inheritance shall be deemed to be made with the covenantee, his heirs and assigns, and shall have effect as if heirs and assigns were expressed; a covenant relating to land not of inheritance shall be deemed to be made with the covenantee, his executors, administrators and assigns, and shall have effect as if executors, administrators and assigns were expressed. This applies only where no express provision is made to the contrary. Ibid., p. 879, § 23.

Parties having adversary interests in any question of the construction of any statute of this state, or of any will, deed, or other writing, or in any question of title or evidence of title to any real or personal estate contracted to be sold, or which is to be otherwise dealt with, or as to the parties to or the form of any deed or other instrument for carrying such contract into effect, or as to any matter or thing within the jurisdiction of a court of equity, may concur in stating such question in the form of a special case for the opinion of the supreme court; and executors, administrators, trustees, infants by their guardian or next friend, and married women, may concur in such statement; and the court may order any person having an interest therein to be summoned in and to be made party thereto; and the court, on hearing the case, may declare its opinion of the rights involved therein without administering any relief, and such declaration shall have the same effect as to all the parties before the court as if contained in a decree on original bill: but the court may decline to answer such questions as in its opinion it cannot properly decide. Ibid., pp. 1017, 1018, § 20 of chap. 289.

The following shall be substantially the form of the deed to be given whenever real estate is levied upon and sold under execution, that is to say:

1014. Deed Made Upon Sale Under Execution, Statutory Form.

TO ALL PEOPLE TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

send Greeting:

WHEREAS an execution against _____, at the suit of _____, was by me, the said _____, on the _____ day of _____, levied on [here describe the premises]; and WHEREAS on the _____ day of _____, all the estate, right, title, interest, and property of the said _____ in the premises aforesaid, were by me, the said _____, sold at public auction, for the satisfaction of the said execution, to _____, who was the highest bidder, for the sum of _____, which the said _____ hath since well and truly paid to me, the said _____: Now KNOW YE, that by force and virtue of the law in such case made and provided, I, the said _____, in consideration of the sum of money paid unto me as aforesaid, do by these presents bargain, sell, assign, and set over unto the said _____, heirs and assigns forever, all the estate, right, title, interest, property, freehold, and inheritance of the said _____ of, in and to the said premises and appurtenances at the time of the levy thereon. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said premises and appurtenances to the said _____, heirs and assigns forever.

IN WITNESS, ETC.

And there shall be annexed to such deed, and forming a part thereof, a copy of such execution and the officer's return thereon, duly certified by such officer. Ibid., p. 1090, § 16 of chap. 304.

[L. S.]"

This section shall be so construed as not to oblige any person to insert the clause of warranty, or to restrain him from inserting any other clause or clauses, in conveyances, as may be deemed proper and advisable by the purchaser and seller, or to invalidate the forms heretofore in use within this state. Code of Laws of 1902, § 2367.

Every conveyance, grant, charge, lease, estate, incumbrance, and limitation of use or uses of, in, or out of any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, which may be had or made for the intent and of purpose to defraud and deceive such person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, as shall purchase in fee simple, fee tail, for life, lives, or years, the same lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or any part and parcel thereof, or to defraud and deceive such as have or shall purchase any rent, profit, or commodity in or out of the same, or any part thereof, shall be deemed and taken (only as against such person and persons, bodies politic and corporate, his and their heirs, successors, executors, administrators, and assigns, and against all and every other person and persons lawfully having or claiming by, from, or under them, or any of them, which have purchased, or shall hereafter so purchase, for money or other good consideration, the same lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any part or parcel thereof, or any rent, profit, or commodity, in or out of the same,) to be utterly void, frustrate, and of no effect; and* pretence, color, feigned consideration, or expressing of any use to the contrary notwithstanding. Ibid., § 2370.

All and every the parties to such feigned, covinous, and fraudulent gifts, grants, leases, charges, or conveyances, or being privy and knowing of the same, or any of them, who shall wittingly or willingly put in use, avow, maintain, justify, or defend the same, or any of them, as true, simple, and done, had, or made bona fide, or upon good consideration, to the disturbance or hindrance of the said purchaser or purchasers, lessees or grantees, or of or to the disturbance or hindrance of their heirs, successors, executors, administrators, or assigns, or such as have or shall lawfully claim anything by, from, or under them, or any of them, shall incur the penalty and forfeiture of one year's value of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so purchased or charged; the one moiety whereof for the use of the State, and the other moiety to the party or parties grieved by such feigned and fraudulent gift, grant, lease, conveyance, incumbrance, or limitation of use, to be recovered by action in any court of competent jurisdiction; and also being thereof convicted, shall be imprisoned one-half year. Ibid., § 2371.

Nothing in the two preceding sections shall extend to or be construed to impeach, defeat, make void, or frustrate, any conveyance, assignment of lease, assurance, grant, charge, lease, estate, interest, or limitation of use or uses of, in, to, or out of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments had or made, upon or for good consideration and bona fide, to any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate; anything therein mentioned to the contrary notwithstanding. Ibid., § 2372.

If any person or persons have made, or shall make, any conveyance, gift, grant, demise, charge, limitation of use or uses, or assurance of, in, or out of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, with any clause, provision, article, or condition or* revocation, determination or alteration, at his or their will or pleasure, of such conveyance, assurance, grants, limitations of uses or estates of, in, or out of the said lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or of, in, or out of any part or parcel of them, contained or mentioned in any writing, deed, or indenture of such assurance, conveyance, grant or gift; and after such conveyance, grant, gift, demise, charge, limitation of uses or assurance so made or had, shall or do bargain, sell, demise, grant, convey, or charge, the same lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any part or parcel thereof, to any person or persons, bodies politic and corporate, for money or other good consideration paid or given, (the said first conveyance, assurance, gift, grant, demise, charge, or limitation, not by him or them revoked, made void, or altered, according to the power and authority reserved or expressed unto him or them in or by the said secret conveyance, assurance, gift, or grant,) then the said former conveyance, assurance, gift, demise, and grant, as touching the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, so after bargained, sold, conveyed, demised, or charged, against the said bargainees, vendees, lessees, grantees, and every of them, their heirs, successors, executors, administrators, and assigns, and against all and every person and persons which have, shall, or may lawfully claim anything by, from, or under them, or any of them, shall be deemed, taken, and adjudged to be void, frustrate, and of none effect. Ibid., § 2373.

Each County Auditor shall keep a record of all sales or conveyances of real property made in his County, in which he shall enter, in columns, the names of the purchaser and seller, the quality of land conveyed, the location and price of the same, and therefrom correct the County duplicates annually; and, for the purpose of carrying out this provision, the clerks of Courts and Registers of Mesne Conveyances of each County are hereby required to have the endorsement of the County Auditor on each and every deed of conveyance for real property that the same is on record in his office, before the same can be placed on record in the office of said Clerks of Courts or Registers of Mesne Conveyances. Ibid., § 366.

* So in original.

Before any deed of conveyance of real property can be placed on record in the office of the Register of Mesne Conveyances or Clerk of Court it must have thereon the endorsement of the County Auditor that it has been entered of record in his office. Ibid., § 949.

Any person, under the age of twenty-one years, having estates in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, only in trust for others, or by way of mortgage, by the direction of the Court of Common Pleas, signified by an order made upon hearing all parties concerned, on the petition of the person for whom such infant or infants shall be seized or possessed in trust, or of the mortgagor, or guardian of such infant, or persons entitled to the moneys secured by or upon any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof any infant is or shall be seized or possessed by way of mortgage, or of the person entitled to the redemption thereof, may convey and assure any such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in such manner as the said Court shall, by such order so to be obtained, direct, to any other person. Ibid., § 2609.

Such conveyance or assurance, to be had and made as aforesaid, shall be as effectual in law as if the said infant was, at the time of making the same, of the full age of twenty-one years. Ibid., § 2610.

All deeds of conveyances of lands, tenements or hereditaments, either in fee simple or for life; all deeds of trust or instruments in writing, conveying real estate and creating a trust or trusts in regard to such property, or charging or encumbering the same; all mortgages or instruments in writing in the nature of a mortgage of any real property; all leases or contracts in writing made between landlord and tenant for a longer period than twelve months; and, generally, all instruments in writing now required by law to be recorded in the office of Register of Mesne Conveyances or Clerk of Court in those counties where the office of Register of Mesne Conveyances has been abolished, or in the office of the Secretary of State, delivered or executed, shall be valid, so as to affect from the time of such delivery or execution the rights of subsequent creditors (whether lien creditors or simple contract creditors) or purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, only when recorded within forty days from the time of such delivery or execution in the office of the Register of Mesne Conveyances or Clerk of Court of the county where the property affected thereby is situated, in the case of real estate; but the recording and record of the above mentioned deeds or instruments of writing subsequent to the expiration of said forty days shall from the date of such record operate as notice to all who may subsequently thereto become creditors or purchasers. Ibid., § 2456.

No possession of real property described in any instrument of writing required by law to be recorded shall operate as notice of such instrument; and actual notice shall be deemed and held sufficient to supply the place of registration only when such notice is of the instrument itself or of its nature and purport. Ibid., § 2457.

It shall be lawful, in every court of this State, for any party, plaintiff or defendant, to produce in evidence a copy, certified by the Secretary of State, of any grant and plat of land issued under the authority of this State, or certified copies of grants, under the authority of the State of North Carolina: in case the person or persons so applying to produce an office copy of a grant in evidence swear that the original grant is lost, destroyed or out of his, her, or their power to produce, and that he, she, or they have not destroyed, mislaid, or in any way willingly, previous to that time, put it out of his, her, or their power to produce the same, with an intention to produce an office copy of the same as evidence. Nothing herein contained shall deprive any party in possession of the original grant of any advantage he would have had or derived from possessing the same, in case this section had never been passed. Ibid., § 2895.

A copy of any deed of conveyance of real estate certified by the Register of Mesne Conveyances or Clerk of Court of the county where the same may be recorded, may be produced in evidence in every court of this State for any party, plaintiff or defendant, in like manner and subject to the same rules as are provided by the foregoing section in relation to grants and plats; but the party intending to offer in evidence such office copy shall give at least ten days' notice thereof to the opposite party or his attorney. Ibid., § 2896.

The production (without further or other proof) of the original of any instrument in writing (other than wills), required by law to be recorded, shall be prima facie evidence of the execution of such instrument: in case such instrument shall have been recorded in the manner and place, and within the time, prescribed by law for recording same; and in case, also, any party or his attorney so producing any such recorded instrument, shall have given at least twenty days' previous notice in writing to the opposite party, or his attorney, of the intention so to produce any such recorded instrument, with a description of the same. Ibid., § 2897.

In all cases of sale of land for taxes the sheriff's deed of conveyance, whether executed to a private person, a corporation or the Sinking Fund Commission, shall be held and taken as prima facie evidence of a good title in the holder, and that all proceedings have been regular, and all requirements of the law have been duly complied with. Ibid., §§ 111, 426.

All deeds of conveyances of railroad beds, tracks and right of way, all leases and mortgages or other conditional sales of, and all other instruments in writing relating to such property in this State delivered or executed, shall be valid, so as to affect from the time of such delivery or execution the rights of subsequent creditors or purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, only when recorded within forty days from the execution and delivery thereof in the office of the Secretary of State; but the above mentioned deeds, leases, mortgages and other conditional sales and instruments in writing, if recorded subsequent to the expiration of said period of forty days, shall be valid to affect the rights of subsequent creditors and purchasers for valuable consideration without notice only from the date of such record. Ibid., § 634.

Said conveyances, leases and mortgages and other instruments in writing shall be recorded by the Secretary of State in books to be kept by law for that purpose in his office.

A certificate or certified copy by the Secretary of State is competent evidence of such record and of the facts contained in each deed, lease and mortgage or other instrument in writing so recorded and certified in all the courts of this State. Ibid., § 636.

The Register of Mesne Conveyances is required to record, in the order of the times at which they may be brought to his office, all conveyances and mortgages and other writings concerning the titles to lands situate in his county, which may be lodged with him to be recorded. Every such writing shall be recorded within one month after its lodgment, and the recording shall bear even date with the lodgment; on every such writing shall be endorsed a certificate, to be signed by the Register or his deputy, specifying the time when, and book and page where, it was recorded; in the book, the names of the parties and nature of the writing shall precede the registry, and after it shall follow the date of the registry and a memorandum of the person to whom the original writing has been delivered. Ibid., § 950.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

A grant cannot be delivered to grantee conditionally. Delivery to him or his agent as such is necessarily absolute; and instrument takes effect thereupon discharged of any condition on which the delivery was made. Civil Code of 1908, § 924.

Though a grant be not actually delivered into the possession of grantee, it is to be deemed constructively delivered where instrument is, by agreement of the parties at time of execution, understood to be delivered, and under such circumstances that the grantee is entitled to immediate delivery; or, where it is delivered to a stranger for benefit of grantee, and his assent is shown or may be presumed. Ibid., § 927.

Words of inheritance or succession are not requisite to transfer a fee in real property. Ibid., § 934.

An estate in real property other than estate at will or for term not exceeding one year, can be transferred only by operation of law, or by instrument in writing, subscribed by party disposing of same, or by his agent thereunto authorized by writing. Ibid., § 938.

A grant of an estate in real property may be made, in substance as follows:

1019. Deed, Statutory Form.

This grant made the day of in the year between A. B., of
 , of the first part, and C. D., of , of the second part, WITNESSETH:
 That the party of the first part hereby grants to the party of the second part, in consideration of dollars, now received, all the real property situated in and bounded (or, described) as follows: [description].

WITNESS the hand of the party of the first part

Ibid., § 940.

From the use of the word "grant" in any conveyance by which an estate of inheritance or fee simple is to be passed, the following covenants, and none other, on the part of grantor for himself and his heirs to grantee, his heirs and assigns, are implied unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyance:

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance, the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title or interest therein, to any person other than the grantee.

2. That such estate is, at the time of the execution of such conveyance, free from incumbrances done, made, or suffered by the grantor, or any person claiming under him. Such covenants may be sued upon in same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance. Ibid., § 942.

Every grant of an estate in real property is conclusive against grantor and every one subsequently claiming under him, except a purchaser or incumbrancer who, in good faith, and for valuable consideration, acquires title or lien by an instrument that is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 943.

A grant, made by owner of an estate for life or years, purporting to transfer a greater estate than he could lawfully transfer, does not work forfeiture of his estate, but passes to grantee all the estate which the grantor could lawfully transfer. Ibid., § 944.

A transfer of land bounded by a highway passes title of person whose estate is transferred to the soil of the highway in front to the center thereof, unless a different intent appears from the grant. Ibid., § 945.

A fee simple title is presumed to be intended to pass by a grant of real property unless it appears from the grant that a lesser estate was intended. Ibid., § 947.

Any instrument affecting the title to or possession of real property may be recorded as by law provided. Ibid., § 961.

An instrument may be recorded in the proper office, if the original is at the same time deposited therein, to remain for public inspection, but not otherwise. Ibid., § 963.

Instruments entitled to be recorded must be recorded by the register of deeds of county in which the real property affected thereby is situated.

An instrument is deemed to be recorded when it is deposited in the register's office, with the proper officer, for record. Ibid., § 965.

Every conveyance of real property, other than a lease for term not exceeding one year, is void against any subsequent purchaser or incumbrancer, including an assignee of a mortgage, lease, or other conditional estate, of the same property, or any part thereof, in good faith and for valuable consideration, whose conveyance is first duly recorded. Ibid., § 986.

No instrument containing a power to convey or execute instruments affecting real property, which has been recorded, is revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, unless the instrument containing such revocation is also recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded. Ibid., § 988.

The recording and deposit of an instrument are constructive notice of the execution of such instrument to all purchasers and incumbrancers subsequent to the recording. Ibid., § 989.

An unrecorded instrument is valid between the parties thereto and those who have notice thereof. Ibid., § 990.

The only covenants which run with the land are those specified in this title, and those which are incidental thereto. Ibid., § 1137.

Every covenant contained in a grant of an estate in real property, which is made for the direct benefit of the property, or some part of it then in existence, runs with the land. Ibid., § 1138.

The last section includes covenants of warranty, for quiet enjoyment, or for further assurance, on the part of grantor, and covenants for the payment of rent, or of taxes or assessments upon the land, on the part of grantee. Ibid., § 1139.

A covenant for the addition of some new thing to real property, or for the direct benefit of some part of the property not then in existence or annexed thereto, when contained in a grant of an estate in such property, and made by the covenantor expressly for his assigns, or to the assigns of the covenantee, runs with the land so far only as the assigns thus mentioned are concerned. Ibid., § 1140.

A covenant running with the land binds those only who acquire the whole estate of the covenantor in some part of the property. Ibid., § 1141.

Where several persons, holding by several titles, are subject to the burden or entitled to the benefit of a covenant running with the land, it must be apportioned among them according to the value of the property subject to it held by them respectively, if such value can be ascertained, and if not, then according to their respective interests in point of quantity. Ibid., § 1143.

An agreement on the part of a seller of real property to give the usual covenants, binds him to insert in the grant, covenants of seizin, quiet enjoyment, further assurance, general warranty, and against incumbrances. Ibid., § 1307.

The covenants mentioned in the last section must be in substance as follows:

The party of the first part covenants with the party of the second part that the former is now seized in fee-simple of the property granted; that the latter shall enjoy the same without any lawful disturbance; that the same is free from all incumbrances; that the party of the first part, and all persons acquiring any interest in the same through or for him, will, on demand, execute and deliver to the party of the second part, at the expense of the latter, any further assurance of the same that may be, reasonably required; and that the party of the first part will warrant to the party of the second part all the said property against every person lawfully claiming the same.

Ibid., p. 180, § 65a of chap. 258 of 1903.

Said conveyance, as well as the conveyance provided for in section 63, shall be an assurance of perfect title to the purchaser of said land; and no such conveyance shall be invalidated in any court, except by proof that the land was not liable to sale for taxes or that the taxes for which the land was sold have been paid before said sale, and if any part of the taxes for which said land was sold is illegal, or not chargeable on it, but a part is chargeable, that shall not affect the sale, nor invalidate the conveyance thereunder, unless it appears that before the sale the amount legally chargeable on the land was paid or tendered to the county trustee, and no other objection either in form or substance to the sale, or the title thereunder, shall avail in any controversy involving them. Ibid., p. 180, § 65c of chap. 258 of 1903.

Every gift, grant, conveyance of lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, or chattels, or of any rent, common or profit out of the same, by writing or otherwise, and every bond, suit, judgment, or execution, had or made and contrived, of malice, fraud, covin, collusion, or guile, to the intent or purpose to delay, hinder, or defraud creditors of their just and lawful actions, suits, debts, accounts, damages, penalties, forfeitures; or to defraud or to deceive those who shall purchase the same lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any rent, profit, or commodity out of them, shall be deemed and taken only as against the person, his heir, successors, executors, administrators, and assigns, whose debts, suits, demands, estates, or interests, by such guileful and covinous practices as aforesaid, shall or might be in anywise disturbed, hindered, delayed, or defrauded, to be clearly and utterly void; any pretense, color, feigned consideration, expressing of use, or any other matter or thing, to the contrary notwithstanding. Annotated Code of 1896, § 3143.

No deed of conveyance for lands, in what manner or form soever drawn, shall be good and available in law, as to strangers, unless the same be registered by the register of the county where the land lies. Ibid., § 3671.

The term “heirs,” or other words of inheritance, shall not be requisite to create or convey an estate in fee, and every grant of real estate, or any interest therein, shall pass all the estate or interest of the grantor, unless the intent to pass a less estate or interest shall appear by express terms, or be necessarily implied in the terms of the instrument. Ibid., § 3672.

Any person seized or possessed of an estate in general or special tail, whether by purchase or descent, shall be held and deemed to be seized and possessed of the same in fee simple, fully and absolutely, without any condition or limitation whatsoever, to him, his heirs and assigns, forever, and shall have full power and authority to sell or devise the same as he thinks proper; and such estate shall descend under the same rules as other estates in fee simple. Ibid., § 3673.

Instruments in relation to real property, executed by an agent or attorney, may be signed by him for his principal, or by writing the name of the principal by him as agent or attorney, or by simply writing his own name or his principal's name, if the instrument on its face shows the character in which it is intended to be executed. Ibid., § 3679.

The following or other equivalent forms, varied to suit the precise state of facts, are sufficient for the purposes contemplated, without further circumlocution:

1023. Deed in Fee With General Warranty, Statutory Form.

“I hereby convey to A. B. the following tract of land [describing it], and I warrant the title against all persons whomsoever.”

COVENANTS OF SEIZIN, POSSESSION, AND SPECIAL WARRANTY.

"I covenant that I am seized and possessed of the said land, and have a right to convey it, and I warrant the title against all persons claiming under me."

1024. Quitclaim Deed.

"I hereby quitclaim to A. B. all my interest in the following land" [describing it].

Ibid., § 3680.

The following writings may be registered:

All agreements and bonds for the conveyance of real estate; all powers of attorney authorizing the sale, transfer, or conveyance of real estate, or for any other purpose, or appointing an agent to transact any business whatever; all revocations of powers of attorney; all deeds for the absolute conveyance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any estate therein; copies of deeds of conveyance of lands being in different counties in this state, certified by the register of the county where same has been first registered; deeds of gift of any real estate; all mortgages and deeds of trust of real property; deeds and mesne conveyances for the settlement of real property, in consideration of marriage; all other deeds of every description; transfers or assignments of plats and certificates of survey or locations of land; and leases for more than three years from the time of making the same. Ibid., § 3697.

If the instrument be a conveyance, or for the conveyance of land, it shall be registered in the county where the land lies, unless it lies partly in two or more counties, and then it may be registered in either; and where it contains several tracts of land, lying in different counties, it shall be registered in each of the counties where any of said tracts lie. Ibid., § 3705.

Where any deed of conveyance, in which more than one tract of land is conveyed, lying in different counties in this state, has been registered in any county in this state in which one or more of said tracts lie, it shall be lawful for anyone interested therein, to have registered in the county or counties in which the other tract or tracts are situated, a copy of said deed or conveyance, certified by the register of the county in which said deed of conveyance may have been thus registered, and such registration shall be good and valid in law, and a copy thereof shall be evidence as if such registration had been of the original deed of conveyance. Ibid., § 3711.

In all cases where any elders, trustees, or other church officer or officers, in any of the various churches or organizations of any religious denominations in this state, shall have had, or may have, any lands conveyed to them for the use of their respective churches or congregations as building sites, or for any other purpose, by deed, grant, devise, or in any other manner, they or their successors in office, according to the regulations of such church or congregation, may sell and convey the same by deed, which deed, when officially signed by such elders, trustees, or other church officer or officers, or their successors in office, and registered as other deeds, shall pass the title, whether for life, for years, or in fee, to such land to the purchaser in as full and ample a manner as if said church officer or officers held the same as a corporation, and had conveyed it by deed under their corporate deed [name]. Ibid., § 2564.

In all cases of written agreements or contracts for the conveyance of land in this state, where the person executing the same dies before final conveyance is made, his personal representatives may execute the conveyance to the person with whom such agreement or contract was made, his heirs or assigns, according to the forms prescribed for the conveyance of real estate. Ibid., § 3692.

If the person with whom such agreement or contract was made is himself the personal representative, the county court granting administration may appoint a guardian or representative of the heirs, who shall make the conveyance according to the written agreement. Ibid., § 3693.

If there are several personal representatives, a deed by either one of them will be as valid as if executed by all. Ibid., § 3694.

The personal representative cannot be required to execute a conveyance under the preceding provisions, unless the written agreement or contract, duly registered, or a certified copy thereof from the register's books, is produced and delivered to him. Ibid., § 3695.

In case the agreement or contract is for part of a tract of land not ascertained by metes and bounds, the personal representatives shall execute the conveyance according to the description given in the contract. Ibid., § 3696.

The decree may divest the title to real property out of any of the parties and vest it in others, and such decree shall have all the force and effect of a conveyance by such parties, executed in due form of law. Ibid., § 6301.

The court may also appoint a commissioner to execute all necessary conveyances, releases, and acquittances, either in his name or in the name of the parties, as the court may think proper; and the instrument so executed will be as valid as if executed by the party. Ibid., § 6302.

If the decree direct a conveyance, release, or acquittance to be made, and the party against whom the decree is rendered fails or refuses to execute the same in the time specified in the decree, or in a reasonable time, if no particular time is thus specified, the decree operates in all respects as if the conveyance, release, or acquittance was made. Ibid., § 6303.

The courts of this state having jurisdiction to sell lands, instead of ordering parties to convey, may divest and vest title directly by decree, or empower the clerk to make title. Ibid., § 5915.

The decree or deed of the clerk, as the case may be, shall have the same force and effect as a conveyance by the party, and shall be registered. Ibid., § 5916.

And, in such cases, where the sale is made at the voluntary instance of parties, the decree or deed of the clerk shall imply a covenant of seizin and warranty of title by the parties whose interest is sold, their heirs and representatives, unless otherwise provided in the face of the decree. Ibid., § 5917.

Any of said instruments so registered, shall be received as evidence in any of the courts or judicial tribunals of the state, subject, nevertheless, to be impeached and proved to be a forgery, or to be otherwise inoperative, if the fact be so. Ibid., § 3748.

All of said instruments shall have effect between the parties to the same, and their heirs and representatives, without registration; but as to other persons, not having actual notice of them, only from the noting thereof for registration on the books of the register, unless otherwise expressly provided. Ibid., § 3749.

All of said instruments so registered shall be notice to all the world from the time they are noted for registration, as prescribed in section 567, and shall take effect from said time. Ibid., § 3750.

It shall be the duty of the register:

(1) To keep a book, each of which shall be divided into six columns, with titles or heads as follows: Date of reception; Grantors; Grantees; County; No. of Acres; Fees Received.

(2) To enter in said book all deeds and other instruments left to be registered, noting in the first column the day and hour of reception, and the other particulars in the appropriate columns.

(3) Without delay to register the same in order of time of its reception. Ibid., § 567.

Any of said instruments first registered or noted for registration shall have preference over one of earlier date, but noted for registration afterwards, unless it is proved in a court of equity, according to the rules of said court, that the party claiming under the subsequent instrument had full notice of the previous instrument. Ibid., § 3751.

Any of said instruments not so registered, or noted for registration, shall be null and void as to existing or subsequent creditors of, or bona fide purchasers from the makers without notice. Ibid., § 3752.

1027. Partial Payment Warranty Deed and Joint Agreement.

FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of the sum of dollars, paid and to be paid by as follows: dollars, cash, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and for the remainder the said ha executed promissory notes for dollars each, of even date herewith, payable to the order of , and bearing six per cent. interest from , with lien retained on the property herein conveyed to secure their payment. The first one of said notes falls due , 19 , and the others thereafter, until all are paid, have bargained and sold, and by these presents do transfer and convey unto the said , heirs and assigns, a certain tract or parcel of land in county, state of Tennessee, as follows: [description].

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract or parcel of land, with the appurtenances, estate, title and interest thereto belonging, to the said , heirs and assigns, forever. And do covenant with the said that lawfully seized and possessed of said land in fee simple, have a good right to convey it, and the same is unincumbered.

And do further covenant and bind , heirs and representatives to warrant and forever defend the title to said land to the said , heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever.

But this conveyance is upon the following conditions, which are a part of the consideration thereof, without which this conveyance would not have been made, viz.:

It is expressly agreed by and between the said and , that if any of said notes shall at any time be unpaid, either in whole or in part, months after maturity, all of the notes shall thereupon become due.

The said agree to keep the on property conveyed insured to the amount of dollars, payable to the said as collateral security to said note , and to pay all taxes when due; and the said further agree that if fail to keep the said insured, or to pay any taxes as agreed, the said , or the lawful holder of said notes, may have the building insured, or may pay the taxes, and in either event the amount paid shall become part of the indebtedness secured by the lien herein reserved, and shall bear interest from the date of payment. If the said shall fail to repay any premium or taxes and interest within two months from the payment thereof by the said , such failure shall render all of said notes due at the expiration of such time.

The said further agree that if said notes become due upon any contingency hereinbefore stated, the said , or the lawful owner of said notes then unpaid, after advertising once a week for at least three weeks in some newspaper published in county, the first publication to be made at least twenty days before the sale, shall have authority to sell the property conveyed, by public auction, at the door of the court-house in , Tennessee, to the highest bidder, for cash, free from the rights of redemption, homestead, and dower; to execute a conveyance to the purchaser, and to apply the proceeds of sale —

First, to the payment of any taxes that may be a lien on the property;

Second, to the payment of all expenses incident to advertising and selling;

Third, to the satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by said vendor's lien; and, last, any balance shall be paid to the said , or legal representatives.

The said further agree that the said may execute the power of sale herein contained without giving bond or taking oath; that the said , or the lawful owner of any of the notes herein secured, may bid at any sale under said power; and that if the said becomes the purchaser, the person holding the office of county court clerk for said county shall have authority to convey the property to the said , and the said further agree that the purchaser may re-enter and take possession of the property without hindrance or delay.

No estate of inheritance or freehold, or for a term of more than one year, in lands and tenements, shall be conveyed from one to another, unless the conveyance be declared by an instrument in writing, subscribed and delivered by the party disposing of the same, or by his agent thereunto authorized by writing. Sayles' Civil Statutes of 1897, art. 624.

A conveyance, such as is described in the preceding article, shall not be good and effectual against a purchaser in good faith, without notice thereof and for a valuable consideration, nor against any creditor, unless filed for record with the clerk of the county in which the land, or a part thereof, is situated. Ibid., art. 625.

All alienations of real estate, made by any person purporting to pass or assure a greater right or estate than such person may lawfully pass or assure, shall operate as alienations of so much of the right and estate in such lands, tenements or hereditaments as such person might lawfully convey; but shall not pass or bar the residue of said right or estate purporting to be conveyed or assured. Ibid., art. 626.

Every estate in lands which shall be granted or conveyed to one, although other words heretofore necessary at common law to transfer an estate in fee-simple be not added, shall be deemed a fee-simple, if a less estate be not limited by express words or do not appear to have been granted or conveyed by construction or operation of law. Ibid., art. 627.

The following form, or the same in substance, shall be sufficient as a conveyance of the fee-simple of any real estate with a covenant of general warranty, viz.:

Ibid., art. 628.

No person shall be obliged to insert the covenant of warranty, or be restrained from inserting any clause or clauses in conveyances hereafter made that may be deemed proper and advisable by the purchaser and seller; and other forms not contravening the laws of the land shall not be invalidated. Ibid., art. 629.

Every conveyance of real estate by a commissioner, sheriff or other officer legally authorized to sell, under or by virtue of a decree or judgment of any court within this state, shall be good and effectual to pass the absolute title to such real estate to the purchaser thereof; but nothing herein shall be construed to affect the right, title or interest of any person or persons other than the parties to such conveyance, decree or judgment, and those claiming under them. Ibid., art. 631.

An estate of freehold or inheritance may be made, to commence in futuro, by deed or conveyance, in like manner as by will. Ibid., art. 632.

From the use of the word "grant" or "convey," in any conveyance by which an estate of inheritance or fee-simple is to be passed, the following covenants, and none other, on the part of the grantor for himself and his heirs to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, are implied, unless restrained by express terms contained in such conveyance:

1. That previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance the grantor has not conveyed the same estate, or any right, title or interest therein, to any person other than the grantee.

2. That said estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance free from incumbrances.

Such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance. Ibid., art. 633.

When an instrument in writing, which was intended as a conveyance of real estate, or some interest therein, shall fail, either in whole or in part, to take effect as a conveyance by virtue of the provisions of this chapter, the same shall nevertheless be valid and effectual as a contract upon which a conveyance can be enforced, as far as the rules of law will permit. Ibid., art. 637.

The county clerks of the several counties shall be the recorders for their respective counties. Ibid., art. 4602.

When any instrument of writing authorized by law to be recorded shall be deposited in the recorder's office for record, the recorder shall enter in a book to be provided for that purpose, in alphabetical order, the names of the parties and date and nature thereof and the time of delivery for record, Ibid., art. 4605.

Each recorder shall, without delay, record every instrument of writing authorized to be recorded by him, which is deposited with him for record, in the order and as of the time when the same shall have been deposited for record. Ibid., art. 4606.

Every such instrument of writing shall be considered as recorded from the time it was deposited for record. Ibid., art. 4607.

The following instruments of writing are authorized to be recorded, viz.: All deeds, mortgages, conveyances, deeds of trust, bonds for title, covenants, defeasances or other instruments of writing concerning any lands or tenements. Ibid., art. 4639.

All bargains, sales and other conveyances whatever, of any lands, tenements and hereditaments, whether they may be made for passing any estate of freehold or inheritance or for a term of years; and deeds of settlement upon marriage, whether land, money or other personal thing; and all deeds of trust and mortgages whatsoever, which shall be made and executed, shall be void as to all creditors and subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, unless filed with the clerk, to be recorded as required by law; but the same as between the parties and their heirs, and as to all subsequent purchasers, with notice thereof or without valuable consideration, shall nevertheless be valid and binding. Ibid., art. 4640.

No deed, conveyance, or other instrument, whether relating to real or personal property, if in any other than the English language, shall be admitted to record. Ibid., art. 4640a.

All deeds, conveyances, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other written contracts relating to real estate, which are authorized to be recorded, shall be recorded in the county where such real estate or a part thereof is situated; but all such instruments, when relating to real estate situated in an unorganized county, shall be recorded in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes. Ibid., art. 4641.

Every conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage in this chapter (articles 4637-4652a) mentioned or certified copies of any such original conveyance, covenant, agreement, deed, deed of trust or mortgage copied from the deed or mortgage records of any county in the state where the same has been regularly recorded, although the land mentioned may not have been situated in the county where such instrument was recorded, may be recorded in the county where the land lies, and when delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded shall take effect and be valid as to all subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, and as to all creditors from the time when such instrument shall have been so delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only; but all certified copies filed and recorded under the provisions of this article shall take effect and be in force from the time such certified copy was filed for record; and nothing in this article shall be construed to make valid any instrument which was at the time of its execution from any cause invalid. Ibid., art. 4642.

Each recorder shall also record all powers of attorney, and all other instruments of writing authorized or required to be recorded in his office, which shall be delivered to him for record. Ibid., art. 4644.

The record of any grant, deed or instrument of writing authorized or required to be recorded, which shall have been duly recorded in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such grant, deed or instrument. Ibid., art. 4652.

The term "heirs" or other technical words of inheritance or succession are not requisite to transfer a fee in real estate. Compiled Laws of 1907, § 1970.

A fee simple title is presumed to be intended to pass by a conveyance of real estate, unless it appears from the conveyance that a lesser estate was intended. Ibid., § 1971.

A conveyance by an owner of an estate for life or years, purporting to convey a greater estate than he could lawfully transfer, does not work a forfeiture of his estate, but passes to the grantee all the estate which the grantor could lawfully transfer. Ibid., § 1972.

No estate or interest in real property, other than for leases for a term of not exceeding one year, can be created, granted, assigned, or surrendered, otherwise than by act or operation of law, or by a conveyance or other instrument in writing, subscribed by the party creating, granting, assigning, or surrendering the same, or by his lawful agent thereunto authorized by writing. Ibid., § 1974.

Every conveyance of real estate, and every instrument of writing, setting forth an agreement to convey any real estate, or whereby any real estate may be affected, to operate as notice to third persons, shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which such real estate is situated, but shall be valid and binding between the parties thereto without such record, and to all other persons who have had actual notice. Ibid., § 1975.

Every power of attorney, or other instrument in writing, containing the power to convey any real estate, as agent or attorney for the owner thereof, or to execute, as agent or attorney for another, any conveyance whereby any real estate is conveyed or may be affected, shall be recorded as other conveyances whereby real estate is conveyed or affected are required to be recorded. Ibid., § 1977.

No such power of attorney or other instrument recorded in the manner prescribed in the preceding section shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed until the instrument containing such revocation shall be deposited for record in the same office in which the instrument containing the power is recorded, or canceled of record as provided by law. Ibid., § 1978.

Any person claiming title to any real estate may, notwithstanding there may be an adverse possession thereof, sell and convey his interest therein in the same manner and with the same effect as if he were in the actual possession thereof. Ibid., § 1980.

Conveyances of land may be in the following form:

1032. Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B., grantor [here insert name or names and place of residence], hereby conveys and warrants to C. D., grantee [here insert name or names and place of residence], for the sum of dollars, the following described tract of land in county, Utah, [here describe the premises].

WITNESS the hand of said grantor this day of , A. D. 19 .

Such deed, when executed as required by law, shall have the effect of a conveyance in fee simple to the grantee, his heirs, and assigns, of the premises therein named, together with all the appurtenances, rights, and privileges thereto belonging, with covenants from the grantor, his heirs, and personal representatives, that he is lawfully seized of the premises; that he has good right to convey the same; that he guarantees the grantee, his heirs, and assigns in the quiet possession thereof; that the premises are free from all incumbrances; and that the grantor, his heirs, and personal representatives will forever warrant and defend the title thereof in the grantee, his heirs, and assigns, against all lawful claims whatsoever. Any exceptions to such covenants may be briefly inserted in such deed following the description of the land. Ibid., § 1981.

Conveyances of land may also be substantially in the following form:

1033. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B., grantor [here insert name or names and place of residence], hereby quitclaims to C. D., grantee [here insert name or names and place of residence], for the sum of dollars, the following described tract of land in county, Utah [here describe the premises].

WITNESS the hand of said grantor this day of , A. D. 19 .

And such deed when executed as required by law shall have the effect of a conveyance of all right, title, interest, and estate of the grantor in and to the premises therein described, and all rights, privileges, and appurtenances thereto belonging at the date of such conveyance. Ibid., § 1982.

A conveyance is to be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the real estate is situated. Ibid., § 1999.

Every conveyance or instrument in writing affecting real estate, or a copy thereof, required by law to be recorded in the office of the county recorder, shall, from the time of filing the same with the recorder for record, impart notice to all persons of the contents thereof, and subsequent purchasers, mortgagees, and lien holders shall be deemed to purchase and take with notice. Ibid., § 2000.

Every conveyance of real estate within this state, which shall not be recorded as provided in this title, shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser, in good faith and for a valuable consideration, of the same real estate, or any portion thereof, where his own conveyance shall be first duly recorded. Ibid., § 2001.

No estate or interest in lands, other than leases for a term not exceeding one year, shall be created, granted, assigned, or surrendered, unless by act or operation of law, or by deed or conveyance in writing, subscribed by the party creating, granting, assigning, or surrendering the same, or by his lawful agent thereunto authorized by writing. Ibid., § 2461.

Every conveyance of any estate or interest in lands, or the rents or profits of lands, and every charge upon lands, or the rents or profits thereof, made or created with intent to defraud prior or subsequent purchasers thereof for a valuable consideration, shall be void as against such purchasers. Ibid., § 2464.

No such conveyance or charge shall be deemed fraudulent in favor of a subsequent purchaser who had actual or legal notice thereof at the time of his purchase, unless it appears that the grantee in such conveyance or person to be benefited by such charge was privy to the fraud intended. Ibid., § 2465.

The provisions of this title (§§ 2461-2478) shall not be construed in any manner to affect or impair the title of a purchaser for a valuable consideration, unless it appears that such purchaser had previous notice of the fraudulent intent of his immediate grantor or of the fraud rendering void the title of such grantor. Ibid., § 2476.

Any power of attorney or other instrument in writing entitled to record may be sent by telegraph or telephone, and the telegraphic or telephonic copy or duplicate thereof shall, prima facie, have the same force and effect, in all respects, and may be admitted to record and recorded in the same manner and with like effect as the original. Ibid., § 2698.

A right to the use of water appurtenant to the land shall pass to the grantee of such land, and, in cases where such right has been exercised in irrigating different parcels of land at different times, such right shall pass to the grantee of any parcel of land on which such right was exercised next preceding the time of the execution of any conveyance thereof; subject, however, in all cases to payment by the grantee of any such conveyance of all amounts unpaid on any assessment then due upon any such right; but any such right to the use of water, or any part thereof, may be reserved by the grantor in any such conveyance, by making such reservation in express terms inserted in such conveyance, or may be separately conveyed. Ibid., § 1288 x 32.

Water rights shall be transferred by deeds, in substantially the same manner as real estate, except when they are represented by shares of stock in a corporation, and such deeds shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county where the place of diversion of the water from its natural channel is situated. Every deed of water right so recorded shall, from the time of filing the same with the recorder for record, impart notice to all persons of the contents thereof, and subsequent purchasers, mortgagees, and lien holders shall be deemed to purchase and take with notice. Ibid., § 1288 x 33.

Every deed of water right within this state, which shall not be recorded as provided in this title, shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith, and for a valuable consideration, of the same water right, or any portion thereof, where his own deed shall be first duly recorded. Ibid., § 1288 x 34.

A transfer of land bounded by a highway passes the title of the person whose estate is transferred to the center of the highway. Ibid., § 1120.

When a person who is bound by contract in writing to convey any real estate dies before making the conveyance, and in all cases when such decedent, if living, might be compelled to make such conveyance, the court may make a decree authorizing and directing his executor or administrator to convey such real estate to the person entitled thereto. Ibid., § 3935.

VERMONT.

Where, by the common law, a person might become seized in fee-tail of lands, by virtue of a devise, gift, grant or other conveyance, or by other means, said person, instead of being seized thereof in fee-tail, shall be seized thereof for his natural life only, and the remainder shall pass in fee-simple absolute to the person to whom the estate-tail would pass, on the death of the first grantee, devisee or donee in tail, first pass, according to the course of the common law, by virtue of such devise, gift, grant or conveyance. Public Statutes of 1906, § 2565.

A conveyance by a tenant for life or years, purporting to grant a greater estate than he possessed or could lawfully convey, shall not work a forfeiture of his estate, but shall pass to the grantee the estate which said tenant could lawfully convey. Ibid., § 2567.

A person owning lands adjoining Lake Champlain may erect a wharf or storehouse, and breakwater to protect the same, and extend the same from his land in a direct course into the lake, to any distance within the state between such land and the channel of the lake; but such wharf, storehouse or breakwater shall not extend into the lake so as to impede ordinary navigation. Ibid., § 2568.

Conveyance of land or of an estate or interest therein may be made by deed executed by a person having authority to convey the same, or by his attorney, and recorded as provided in this chapter (chap. 121, §§ 2572-2607). Ibid., § 2572.

A public or private corporation authorized to hold real estate may convey the same by an agent appointed by vote for that purpose. Ibid., § 2576.

Deeds and other conveyances of lands, or of an estate or interest therein, shall be signed by the party granting the same, and recorded at length in the clerk's office of the town in which such lands lie. Ibid., § 2577.

Deeds and conveyances of lands in an unorganized town, gore or grant shall be recorded by the clerk of the county in which such lands lie, in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be a sufficient record thereof. Ibid., § 2579.

A purchaser of lands may, in addition to the record in the town clerk's office, cause his deed or other conveyance, with the certificate of its record in the town clerk's office, to be recorded by the county clerk of the county in which such lands lie, in the book kept for the purpose of recording deeds; and, if the records of a town in which such deed or conveyance is recorded are destroyed, an attested copy of such deed or other conveyance, from the office of said county clerk, shall be of the same validity as a copy from the town clerk's office. Ibid., § 2580.

No deed of bargain and sale, mortgage or other conveyance of land, in fee-simple or for term of life, or a lease for more than one year from the making thereof, shall be effectual to hold such lands against any person but the grantor and his heirs, unless the deed or other conveyance is recorded as provided in this chapter. Ibid., § 2581.

Estates or interests in lands, created or conveyed without an instrument in writing signed by the grantor or by his attorney, shall have the effect of estates at will only; and no estate or interest in lands shall be assigned, granted or surrendered, unless by a writing signed as aforesaid, or by operation of law. Ibid., § 2582.

No deed or other conveyance of lands or of an estate or interest therein, made by virtue of a power of attorney, shall be of any effect, or admissible in evidence, unless such power of attorney is signed, and recorded in the office where such deed is required to be recorded. Ibid., § 2585.

When a deed is made by virtue of a power of attorney thus executed and recorded, a certified copy of the record of such power of attorney may be read in evidence when the original cannot be produced. Ibid., § 2586.

The vendor of real estate shall have no lien thereon for unpaid purchase money, except such lien as is created and evidenced by deed, executed and recorded as deeds of conveyance of real estate. Ibid., § 2587.

The grantee of a mine, quarry or the right of mining and quarrying in severance from the ownership of the soil shall, within thirty days after its execution, cause his deed, lease or other instrument to be recorded in the land records of the town where the land lies; and he shall also, within such time, cause such deed, lease or other instrument, or a copy thereof certified by the town clerk in whose office such instrument is required to be recorded, to be recorded in the office of the secretary of state. A grantee failing to comply with a foregoing provision shall forfeit to the town on failure to file for record in the town clerk's office, and to the state on failure to file for record in the secretary of state's office, fifty dollars to be recovered in an action on this statute. If a final judgment under this section is not paid within ten days from its date, the grantee's interest in such property may be taken and sold upon execution to satisfy such judgment. Ibid., § 2588.

The provisions of the preceding section, relating to the filing for record of a deed, lease or other instrument, or a certified copy thereof, in the office of the secretary of state, shall not apply to a mine, quarry, mining or quarry right which has been carried on for a period of two months in the year preceding the time specified for recording such instrument. Ibid., § 2589.

If a person sells and conveys lands, or an estate or interest therein, he shall, within six months after request made in writing by a subsequent purchaser of the same lands, or an estate or interest therein, cause his title-deed to be recorded in the proper office. Ibid., § 2599.

If said person, after being so requested, and after the expiration of such six months, has not procured his deed to be recorded, a justice may, on the complaint of the party whose right or title is liable to be affected by such neglect, issue his warrant to bring said person forthwith before him to be examined in the premises. Ibid., § 2600.

If said person does not show sufficient cause for omitting to procure his deed to be recorded, the justice shall sentence him to jail, there to remain until he procures it to be recorded, and pays the costs of the complaint and commitment; and either party may appeal from the decision of said justice. Said person shall also be liable for damages in an action on the case to the party whose right or title is affected. Ibid., § 2601.

Deeds, leases and other conveyances of lands, duly executed and recorded, shall have the effect to convey such title therein as the grantor or lessor may have, notwithstanding any actual possession thereof by any other person claiming the same. Ibid., § 2606

Fraudulent and deceitful deeds, conveyances and alienations of lands, or of an estate or interest therein, and charges upon lands, or upon the rents and profits thereof, procured, made or suffered with intent to avoid a right, debt or duty of a person, shall, as against the person whose right, debt or duty is so intended to be avoided, his heirs or assigns, be void. Ibid., § 2607.

When a deceased person was in his lifetime under contract, binding at law or in equity, to deed lands, the probate court may, on application for that purpose, grant license to the executor or administrator of said deceased person to convey such lands according to such contract, or with such modifications as are agreed upon by the parties and approved by the court; and, if the contract is to convey lands to the executor or administrator, the judge of the court shall execute the deed. The deed, executed by said executor, administrator or judge, shall be as effectual to convey such lands as if executed by the deceased person in his lifetime; but no probate court shall grant such license to deed the lands of a deceased person until notice of the application for that purpose has been given to all persons interested, under an order of such court, appointing a time and place of hearing, and published three weeks successively, previous thereto, in such newspaper as the court directs; nor if it appears to the court on a hearing that the assets in the hands of the executor or administrator will thereby be so reduced as to prevent a creditor from receiving his whole debt, or diminish his dividend. Ibid., § 2882.

The deed executed by the officer of lands sold on execution, shall be taxed as a part of the costs on the execution at one dollar, and shall be substantially in the following form:

1036. Deed by officer Selling Real Estate Under Execution.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that, WHEREAS, an execution against of , in the county of , at the suit of of , in the county of , was by me, , sheriff of the county of , on the day of , A. VIRGINIA.

No estate of inheritance or freehold, or for term of more than five years, in lands, shall be conveyed unless by deed or will. Code of 1904, § 2413.

An immediate estate or interest in or the benefit of a condition respecting any estate may be taken by a person under an instrument, although he be not a party thereto; and if a covenant or promise be made for sole benefit of person with whom it is not made, or with whom it is made jointly with others, such person may maintain in his own name any action thereon, which he might maintain in case it had been made with him only, and the consideration had moved from him to party making such covenant or promise. Ibid., § 2415.

If, in deed made by one as attorney-in-fact for another, the words of conveyance or the signature be in name of the attorney, it shall be as much the principal's deed as if the words of conveyance or the signature were in name of the principal by the attorney, if it be manifest on the face of deed that it should be construed to be that of principal to give effect to its intent. Ibid., § 2416.

Any interest in or claim to real estate may be disposed of by deed. Ibid., § 2418.

A writing which purports to pass or assure a greater right or interest in real estate than person making it may lawfully pass or assure, shall operate as an alienation of such right or interest in said real estate as such person might lawfully convey or assure; and when deed of alienor mentions that he and his heirs will warrant what it purports to pass or assure, if anything descends from him, his heirs shall be barred for the value of what is so descended or liable for such value. Ibid., § 2419.

Where real estate is conveyed, devised or granted to any person without any words of limitation, such devise, conveyance or grant shall be construed to pass the fee simple or other the whole estate or interest which the testator or grantor had power to dispose of in such real estate, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the will, conveyance or grant. Ibid., § 2420.

A deed may be made in the following form, or to the same effect:

1039. Deed, Statutory Form.

"This deed, made the day of , in the year , between [here insert names of parties], WITNESSETH: That in consideration of [here state the consideration], the said doth [or, do] grant unto the said , all, etc. [Here describe the property, and insert covenants or signatures and seals]."

Ibid., § 2437.

Every such deed conveying lands shall, unless an exception be made therein, be construed to include all the estate, right, title, and interest whatever, both at law and in equity, of the grantor in or to such lands. Ibid., § 2438.

Whenever in any deed there shall be used the words: "The said grantor (or the said) releases to the said grantee (or the said) all his claims upon the said lands," such deed shall be construed as if it set forth that the grantor (or releasor) hath remised, released, and forever quit claimed; and by these presents doth remise, release, and forever quit claim unto the grantee, (or releasee), his heirs and assigns, all right, title and interest whatsoever, both at law and in equity, in or to the lands and premises granted (or released,) or intended so to be, so that neither he nor his personal representative, his heirs, or assigns, shall, at any time hereafter, have, claim, challenge, or demand the said lands and premises, or any part thereof, in any manner whatever. Ibid., § 2439.

When a deed uses the words "the said covenants," such covenant shall have the same effect as if it was expressed to be by the covenantor, for himself, his heirs, personal representatives, and assigns, and shall be deemed to be with the covenantee, his heirs, personal representatives, and assigns. Ibid., § 2445.

A covenant by the grantor in a deed, "that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed," shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, and personal representatives, will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, personal representatives, and assigns, against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever. Ibid., § 2446.

A covenant by any such grantor "that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed" shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs, and personal representatives, will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, personal representatives, and assigns, against the claims and demands of the grantor, and all persons claiming or to claim by, through or under him. Ibid., § 2447.

The words "with general warranty," in the granting part of any deed, shall be deemed to be a covenant by the grantor "that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed." The words "with special warranty," in the granting part of any deed, shall be deemed to be a covenant by the grantor "that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed." Ibid., § 2448.

A covenant by the grantor in a deed for land, "that he has the right to convey the said land to the grantee," shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he has good right, full power, and absolute authority, to convey the said land, with all the buildings thereon, and the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, unto the grantee, in the manner in which the same is conveyed or intended so to be by the deed, and according to its true intent. Ibid., § 2449.

A covenant by any such grantor "that the grantee shall have quiet possession of the said land" shall have as much effect as if he covenanted that the grantee, his heirs, and assigns, might, at any and all times thereafter, peaceably and quietly enter upon and have, hold, and enjoy, the land conveyed by the deed, or intended so to be, with all the buildings thereon and the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, and receive and take the rents and profits thereof, to and for his and their use and benefit, without any eviction, interruption, suit, claim, or demand whatever. If to such covenant there be added "free from all encumbrances," these words shall have as much effect as the words "and that freely and absolutely acquitted, exonerated, and forever discharged, or otherwise, by the said grantor or his heirs saved harmless and indemnified of, from, and against, any and every charge and encumbrance whatever." Ibid., § 2450.

A covenant by any such grantor "that he will execute such further assurances of the said lands as may be requisite" shall have the same effect as if he covenanted that he, the grantor, his heirs, or personal representative, will at any time, upon any reasonable request, at the charge of the grantee, his heirs, or assigns, do, execute, or cause to be done or executed, all such further acts, deeds, and things, for the better, more perfectly, and absolutely conveying and assuring the said lands and premises, hereby conveyed or intended so to be, unto the grantee, his heirs, and assigns in manner aforesaid, as by the grantee, his heirs, or assigns, his or their counsel in the law, shall be reasonably devised, advised, or required. Ibid., § 2451.

A covenant by any such grantor "that he has done no act to encumber the said lands" shall have the same effect as if he covenanted that he had not done or executed, or knowingly suffered, any act, deed, or thing whereby the lands and premises conveyed, or intended so to be, or any part thereof, are or will be charged, affected, or encumbered in title, estate, or otherwise. Ibid., § 2452.

Every contract, not in writing, made in respect to real estate or goods and chattels, in consideration of marriage, or made for the conveyance or sale of real estate, or a term therein of more than five years, shall be void, both at law and in equity, as to purchasers for valuable consideration without notice and creditors. Ibid., § 2463.

Any such contract, if in writing, shall, from the time it is duly admitted to record, be, as against creditors and purchasers, as valid as if the contract was a deed conveying the estate or interest embraced in the contract. Ibid., § 2464.

Every such contract in writing and every deed conveying any such estate or term, and every deed of gift, or deed of trust, or mortgage conveying real estate, shall be void as to subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, and creditors, until and except from the time that it is duly admitted to record in the county or corporation wherein the property embraced in such contract or deed may be. The possession of any such estate or term, without notice of other evidence of title, shall not be notice to said subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration. Ibid., § 2465.

Notwithstanding any such writing shall be duly admitted to record in one county or corporation wherein there is real estate, it shall nevertheless be void as to such creditors and purchasers in respect to other real estate without the same, until it is duly admitted to record in the county or corporation wherein such other real estate may be. Ibid., § 2466.

When two or more writings embracing the same property are admitted to record in the same county or corporation on the same day, if the previous sections do not provide for the case, that which was first admitted to record shall have priority in respect to the property in such county or corporation. Ibid., § 2469.

The provisions of this and any other chapter of this Code or of any subsequent statute, by virtue of which a writing is to be or may be recorded in the county or corporation wherein the property embraced in such writing is, shall be construed, in respect to the county, as relating only to property within the said county and without the corporate limits of the corporation having a court wherein writings may be lawfully admitted to record, and, in respect to the corporation, as relating only to property within the corporate limits of said corporation having such a court. Ibid., § 2470.

The words "creditors" and "purchasers," where used in any previous section of this chapter, shall not be restricted to the protection of creditors of and purchasers from the grantor, but shall extend to and embrace all creditors and purchasers who, but for the deed or writing, would have had title to the property conveyed, or a right to subject it to their debts. And as against any person claiming under a deed or other writing which shall not have been admitted to record before payment by a subsequent purchaser for valuable consideration of the whole or a part of his purchase money, such subsequent purchaser, notwithstanding such deed or other writing be admitted to record before he becomes a complete purchaser, shall, in equity, have a lien on the property purchased by him, for so much of his purchase money as he may have paid before notice. Ibid., § 2472.

A power of attorney may be admitted to record in any county or corporation. Ibid., § 2499.

WASHINGTON.

All conveyances of real estate or of any interest therein, and all contracts creating or evidencing any encumbrance upon real estate shall be by deed. Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of 1909, § 8745.

A deed shall be in writing, signed by the party bound thereby. Ibid., § 8746.

Warranty deeds for the conveyance of land may be substantially in the following form:

1040. Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

The grantor [here insert the name or names and place of residence], for and in consideration of [here insert consideration], in hand paid, convey and warrant to [here insert the grantee's name or names] the following described real estate [here insert description], situated in the county of _____, state of Washington.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19 _____.

[SEAL.]

Every deed in substance in the above form, when otherwise duly executed, shall be deemed and held a conveyance in fee simple to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, with covenants on the part of the grantee:—

1. That at the time of the making and delivery of such deed he was lawfully seized of an indefeasible estate in fee simple in and to the premises therein described, and had good right and full power to convey the same;

2. That the same were then free from all encumbrances;

3. That he warrants to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, the quiet and peaceable possession of such premises, and will defend the title thereto against all persons who may lawfully claim the same; and such covenants shall be obligatory upon any grantor, his heirs and personal representatives, as fully and with like effect as if written at full length in such deed. Ibid., § 8747.

Bargain and sale deeds for the conveyance of land may be substantially in the following form:—

1041. Bargain and Sale Deed, Statutory Form.

The grantor [here insert name or names and place of residence], for [and] in consideration of [here insert consideration], in hand paid, bargain, sell and convey to [here insert the grantee's name or names] the following described real estate [here insert description], situated in the county of _____, state of Washington.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19 ____.

[SEAL]

Every deed in substance in the above form shall convey to the grantee, his heirs or other legal representatives, an estate of inheritance in fee simple, and shall be adjudged an express covenant to the grantee, his heirs or other legal representatives, to wit, that any grantor was seized of an indefeasible estate in fee simple, free from encumbrance, done or suffered from the grantor, except the rents and services that may be reserved, as also for quiet enjoyment against the grantor, his heirs and assigns, unless limited by express words contained in such deed; and the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, may, in any action, recover for breaches, as if such covenants were expressly inserted. Ibid., § 8748.

Quitclaim deeds may be in substance in the following form:

1042. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

The grantor [here insert name or names and place of residence], for the consideration [here insert consideration], convey and quitclaim to [here insert grantee's name or names] all interest in the following described real estate [here insert description], situated in the county of _____, state of Washington.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19 ____.

[SEAL]

Every deed in substance in form prescribed in this section, when otherwise duly executed, shall be deemed and held a good and sufficient conveyance, release, and quitclaim to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, in fee of all the then existing legal or equitable rights of the grantor in the premises therein described, but shall not extend to the after-acquired title unless words are added expressing such intention. Ibid., § 8749.

The term "heirs," or other technical words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create and convey an estate in fee simple. Ibid., § 8753.

Whenever any person, married or single, having in his or her name the legal title of record to any real estate, shall sell or dispose of the same to an actual bona fide purchaser, a deed of such real estate from the person holding such legal record title to such actual bona fide purchaser shall be sufficient to convey to and vest in such purchaser the full legal and equitable title to such real estate free and clear of any and all claims of any and all persons whatsoever not appearing of record in the auditor's office of the county in which such real estate is situated. Ibid., § 8771.

All deeds, mortgages, and assignments of mortgages, shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county where the land is situated, and shall be valid as against bona fide purchasers from the date of their filing for record in said office; and when so filed shall be notice to all the world. Ibid., § 8781.

The county auditor must, upon the payment of his fees for the same, record deeds, grants and transfers of real property, mortgages and releases of mortgages of real estate, powers of attorney to convey real estate, and leases. Ibid., § 8786.

When any instrument, paper, or notice, authorized by law to be recorded, is deposited in the county auditor's office for record, that officer must indorse upon the same the time when it was received, noting the year, month, day, hour, and minute of its reception, and must record the same without delay, in the order and as of the time when the same was received for record. Ibid., § 8790.

Whenever any deed, conveyance, bond, mortgage, or other writing shall have been recorded or filed in pursuance of law, certified copies of record of such deed, conveyance, bond, or other writing, shall be received in evidence to all intents and purposes as the originals themselves. Ibid., § 1260.

Every conveyance of lands, or transfers of other property, made in any manner for the use of a county, shall have the same force and effect as if made to said county in its proper and corporate name. Ibid., § 3825.

The several superior courts may, whenever it is necessary, appoint a commissioner to convey real estate,—

1. When, by a judgment in an action, a party is ordered to convey real property to another, or any interest therein;

2. When real property, or any interest therein, has been sold under a special order of the court, and the purchase money paid therefor. Ibid., § 605.

The deed of the commissioner shall so refer to the judgment authorizing the conveyance that the same may be readily found, but need not recite the record in the case generally. Ibid., § 606.

A conveyance made in pursuance of a judgment shall pass to the grantee the title of the parties ordered to convey the land. Ibid., § 607.

A conveyance made in pursuance of a sale ordered by the court shall pass to the grantee the title of all the parties to the action or proceeding. Ibid., § 608.

A conveyance by a commissioner shall not pass any right until it has been examined and approved by the court, which approval shall be indorsed on the conveyance, and recorded with it. Ibid., § 609.

It shall be sufficient for the conveyance to be signed by the commissioner only, without affixing the name of the parties whose title is conveyed, but the names of the parties shall be recited in the body of the conveyance. Ibid., § 610.

The conveyance shall be recorded in the office in which by law it should have been recorded had it been made by the parties whose title is conveyed by it. Ibid., § 611.

In case of a judgment to compel a party to execute a conveyance of real estate, the court may enforce the judgment by attachment, or sequestration, or appoint a commissioner to make the conveyance. Ibid., § 612.

If any person, who is bound by contract, in writing, to convey any real property, shall die before making the conveyance, the superior court of the county in which such real estate or any portion thereof is situate may make a decree authorizing and directing his executor or administrator to convey such real property to the person entitled thereto. Ibid., § 1610.

A conveyance executed under the provisions of this chapter (§§ 1610-1620) shall so refer to the decree authorizing the conveyance that the same may be readily found, but need not recite the record in the case generally, and the conveyance made in pursuance of a decree shall pass to the grantee all the estate, right, title, and interest contracted to be conveyed by the deceased, as fully as if the contracting party himself were still living and executed the conveyance in pursuance of such contract. Ibid., § 1616.

Any party interested may appeal therefrom to the supreme court, in the same manner as appeals are taken and prosecuted from final decrees or judgments in equity causes; but if no appeal be taken from such decree within the time limited therefor, or if such decree be affirmed on appeal, it shall be the duty of the executor, administrator, or commissioner to execute and deliver the conveyance according to the directions contained in the decree; and a certified copy of the decree shall be recorded with the deed in the office of the auditor of the county where the lands lie, and shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the proceedings and of the authority of the executor, administrator, or commissioner to make such conveyance. Ibid., § 1617.

If the deceased died out of the state, and was not an inhabitant thereof at the time of his death, and no executor or administrator shall have been appointed in the state, such conveyance shall be executed by a commissioner to be appointed by the court, in the decree, for that purpose. Ibid., § 1615.

A copy of the decree for conveyance, made by the court, and duly certified, and recorded in the office of the auditor of the county wherein the land is situate, shall, after affirmation upon appeal, or after expiration of the time for taking an appeal in case no appeal be taken, give to the person entitled to the conveyance a right to the immediate possession of the land contracted for, and of holding the same according to the terms of the intended conveyance, in like manner and with like effect as if they had been conveyed in pursuance of the decree. Ibid., § 1618.

If the person to whom the conveyance was to be made shall die before the commencement of the proceedings according to the provisions of this chapter, or before the completion of the conveyance, any person who would have been entitled to the conveyance under him, as heir, devisee, or otherwise, in case the conveyance had been made according to the terms of the contract, or the executor or administrator of such deceased person, for the benefit of persons entitled, may commence such proceedings, or prosecute the same if already commenced; and the conveyance shall be so made as to vest the estate in the persons who would have been entitled to it, or in the executor or administrator for their benefit. Ibid., § 1619.

If real property sold for unpaid assessments in an irrigation district is not redeemed within twelve months from sale the secretary, or his successor in office, must make to the purchaser, or his assignee, a deed to the property, reciting in the deed substantially the matters contained in the certificate, and that no person redeemed the property during the time allowed by law for its redemption. Ibid., § 6444.

After receiving the amount of assessments and costs, the secretary must make out in duplicate a certificate, dated on the day of sale, stating (when known) the names of the persons assessed, a description of the land sold, the amount paid therefor, that it was sold for assessments, giving the amount and year of the assessment and specifying the time when the purchaser will be entitled to a deed. The certificate must be signed by the secretary and one copy delivered to the purchaser, and the other filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the land is situated. Ibid., § 6442.

The matter recited in the certificate of sale must be recited in the deed. The deed conveys to the grantee the absolute title to the lands described therein, free from all incumbrances, except when the land is owned by the United States or this state, in which case it is prima facie evidence of the right of possession. Ibid., § 6445.

The party to whom a sheriff's deed of property sold on execution is given shall, upon receipt thereof, take the same to the clerk of the superior court, who shall enter in his book of levies, where the levy is recorded, the sale of real estate therein conveyed, and shall indorse the fact upon the deed, with the date when presented to him and when made. And no county auditor shall record any such deed without such indorsement. Ibid., § 604.

The right to the use of water acquired by appropriation may be transferred, like other property, by deed. The county auditor of each county in this state must keep a book in which he must record the notices provided for in this chapter. Ibid., § 6321.

Upon a sale of real property under a judgment foreclosing tax liens and ordering a sale of the property, the county treasurer shall execute to the purchaser of any piece or parcel of land a tax deed. The deed so made by the county treasurer, shall be recorded in the same manner as other conveyances of real estate, and shall vest in the grantee, his heirs and assigns the title to the property therein described, and shall be substantially in the following form:

1043. Tax Deed, Statutory Form.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, }
County of , } ss.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , between , as treasurer of county, state of Washington, party of the first part, and , party of the second part:

WITNESSETH, That whereas, at a public sale of real estate held on the day of , , pursuant to a real estate tax judgment entered in the superior court in the county of on the day of , , in proceedings to foreclose tax liens upon real estate and an order of sale duly issued by said court, duly purchased in compliance with the laws of the state of Washington, the following described real estate, to wit: [here place description of real estate conveyed] and that said has complied with the laws of the state of Washington necessary to entitle (him, her or them) to a deed for said real estate.

NOW, THEREFORE, know ye, that I, , county treasurer of said county of , state of Washington, in consideration of the premises and by virtue of the statutes of the state of Washington, in such cases provided, do hereby grant and convey unto , his heirs and assigns, forever, the said real estate hereinbefore described.

GIVEN under my hand and seal of office this day of , A. D. .

County Treasurer.

Ibid., § 9260.

Deeds executed by the county treasurer, as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence in all controversies and suits in relation to the right of the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, to the real estate thereby conveyed of the following facts:

First: That the real estate conveyed was subject to taxation at the time the same was assessed, and had been listed and assessed in the time and manner required by law;

Second: That the taxes or assessments were not paid at any time before the issuance of deed;

Third: That the real estate conveyed had not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed;

Fourth: That the real estate was sold for taxes, assessments, penalties and costs, as stated in the deed.

Fifth: That the grantee in the deed was the purchaser, or assignee of the purchaser;

Sixth: That the sale was conducted in the manner required by law.

And any judgment for the deed to real estate sold for delinquent taxes, except as otherwise provided in this section, shall estop all parties from raising any objections thereto; or to a tax title based thereon, which existed at or before the rendition of such judgment, and could have been presented as a defense to the application for such judgment in the court wherein the same was rendered, and as to all such questions, the judgment itself shall be conclusive evidence of its regularity and validity in all collateral proceedings, except in cases where the tax or assessments have been paid, or the real estate was not liable to the tax or assessment. Ibid., § 9267.

Real property acquired by the several counties of the state of Washington for taxes shall be subject to sale by order of the board of county commissioners of the several counties of this state at any time after the counties shall have received a deed therefor, when in the judgment of the board of county commissioners they deem it for the best interests of the county to sell the same, and when the board of county commissioners desires to sell any property so acquired, they shall enter an order upon their records directing the county treasurer to sell such portions of such property as they may determine to sell from time to time. Ibid., § 9272.

The county treasurer shall issue a deed in the following form for all lots or parcels of real estate sold under the provisions of the act:

1044. Tax Deed, Statutory Form.

WEST VIRGINIA.

No estate of inheritance or freehold, or for a term of more than five years, in lands, shall be conveyed, unless by deed or will. Code of 1906, § 3020.

An immediate estate or interest in, or the benefit of a condition respecting any estate, may be taken by a person under an instrument, although he be not a party thereto; and if a covenant or promise be made for the sole benefit of a person with whom it is not made, or with whom it is made jointly with others, such person may maintain, in his own name, any action thereon which he might maintain in case it had been made with him only, and the consideration had moved from him to the party making such covenant or promise. Ibid., § 3021.

If in a deed made by one as attorney in fact for another, the words of conveyance or the signature be in the name of the attorney, it shall be as much the principal's deed as if the words of conveyance or the signature were in the name of the principal by the attorney, if it be manifest on the face of the deed that it should be construed to be that of the principal to give effect to its intent. Ibid., § 3022.

A writing which purports to pass or assure a greater right or interest in real estate than the person making it may lawfully pass or assure, shall operate as an alienation of such right or interest in the said real estate as such person might lawfully convey or assure. And when the deed of the alienor mentions that he and his heirs will warrant what it purports to pass or assure, if anything descends from him, his heirs shall be barred for the value of what is so descended or liable for its value. Ibid., § 3026.

When any real estate is conveyed or granted to any person without any words of limitation, such conveyance or grant shall be construed to pass the fee simple or the whole estate or interest which the grantor had power to dispose of in such real estate, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the conveyance or grant. Ibid., § 3027.

Every estate in lands so limited that, as the law was on October 7th, 1776, in the state of Virginia, such estate would have been an estate tail, shall be deemed an estate in fee simple. Ibid., § 3028.

Where any estate, real or personal, is given by deed to any person for his life, and after his death to his heirs, or to the heirs of his body, the conveyance shall be construed to vest an estate for life only in such person and a remainder in fee simple in his heirs or the heirs of his body. Ibid., § 3030.

By deed of bargain and sale, or by deeds of lease and release, or by covenant to stand seized to the use, or deed operating by way of covenant to stand seized to the use, the possession of the bargainor, releasor or covenantor shall be deemed transferred to the bargainee, releasee or person entitled to the use, for the estate or interest which such person has in the use, as perfectly as if the bargainee, releasee or person entitled to the use, had been enfeoffed with livery of seizin of the land intended to be conveyed by such deed or covenant. Ibid., § 3033.

Every deed of release of any estate or interest capable of passing by deeds of lease or release, shall be as effectual for the purposes therein expressed, without the execution of a lease, as if the same had been executed. Ibid., § 3034.

A deed may be made in the following form, or to the same effect:

1046. Deed, Statutory Form.

"THIS DEED, made the day of , in the year , between [here insert names of parties], WITNESSETH: That in consideration of [here state the consideration], the said doth (or do) grant unto the said all, etc. [here describe the property, and insert covenants or any other provisions].

WITNESS the following signature and seal (or signatures and seals)."

Every such deed, conveying lands, shall, unless an exception be made therein, be construed to include all the estate, right, title, and interest whatever, both at law and in equity, of the grantor, in or to such lands. Ibid., § 3049.

Whenever, in any deed, there shall be used the words, "The said grantor (or the said) releases to the said grantee (or the said) all his claims upon the said lands," such deed shall be construed as if it set forth that the grantor (or releasor) hath remised, released, and forever quitted claim, and by these presents doth remise, release, and forever quit claim unto the grantee (or releasee) his heirs and assigns, all right, title, and interest whatsoever, both at law and in equity, in or to the lands and premises granted (or released) or intended so to be, so that neither he nor his personal representative, his heirs or assigns, shall, at any time thereafter have, claim, challenge, or demand the said lands and premises, or any part thereof, in any manner whatever. Ibid., § 3050.

A deed of trust to secure debts or indemnify sureties, may be in the following form or to the same effect:

1047. Deed of Trust, Statutory Form.

THIS DEED, made the day of , in the year , between (the grantor) of the one part, and , (the trustee) of the other part, WITNESSETH: That the said (the grantor) doth (or do) grant unto the said (the trustee) the following property [here describe it]. In trust to secure [here describe the debts to be secured or the sureties to be indemnified, and insert covenants, or any other provisions the party may agree upon].

Ibid., § 3052.

The trustee in any such deed shall, whenever required by any creditor secured or any surety indemnified by the deed, or the personal representative of any such creditor or surety, after the debt due to such creditor or for which such surety may be liable, shall have become payable and default shall have been made in the payment thereof, or any part thereof, by the grantor, sell the property conveyed by the deed, or so much thereof as may be necessary, at public auction. Ibid., § 3053.

Every deed for real estate sold under a deed of trust may be made in the following form, or to the same effect:

1048. Deed under Deed of Trust, Statutory Form.

"THIS DEED, made the day of , between A B , trustee, of the first part, and C D , of the second part.

WHEREAS, The said trustee, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the deed of trust hereinafter mentioned (or by an order of the circuit court of the county of , made on the day of , as the case may be) did sell, as required by law, a certain tract (or lot, as the case may be) of land, situate in the county (or city, town or village, as the case may be) of , conveyed by E F to the said A B , trustee (or to G H , trustee, as the case may be) by deed bearing date the day of , and recorded (if it be recorded) in deed book , on page , in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county of , and bounded and described therein as follows: [here insert the description and quantity as set forth in the deed of trust, and any further description deemed necessary.]

AND WHEREAS, at such sale the said C D purchased the said property for the sum of dollars.

Now, THEREFORE, this deed WITNESSETH: That the said A B , trustee as aforesaid, doth grant unto the said C D , the said real estate hereinbefore described.

WITNESS the following signature and seal.

A B , Trustee, [L. s.]"

Ibid., § 3057.

The deed of a sheriff or special commissioner for real estate sold under the decree, judgment or order of a court, may be made in the following form, or to the same effect:

1049. Deed by Sheriff or Special Commissioner, Statutory Form.

"THIS DEED, made this day of , between A B , sheriff of the county of (or special commissioner, as the case may be) of the first part, and C D , of the second part:

WHEREAS, the said sheriff (or commissioner) in pursuance of the authority vested in him by a decree (judgment or order, as the case may be) of the circuit court of the county of , made on the day of , in a suit in chancery (or an action at law, or otherwise, as the case may be) therein pending, in which E F was plaintiff, and G H was defendant, did sell the real estate hereinafter mentioned and conveyed according to the terms and conditions required by said decree (judgment or order) at which sale the said C D , became the purchaser for the sum of dollars.

AND WHEREAS, the said court by a subsequent decree (or order) made in the case on the day of , confirmed the said sale and directed a deed for the said real estate to be made to the said C D , by the said sheriff (or commissioner).

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS DEED WITNESSETH: That the said A B , sheriff (or special commissioner) as aforesaid, doth grant unto the said C D , a certain parcel of real estate situate in the county of , and bounded and described as follows [here insert the boundaries, description and quantity, as near as may be].

WITNESS the following signature and seal.

Ibid., § 3058.

Any deed, or part of a deed, which shall fail to conform to the provisions of this chapter (§§ 3048-3073), shall nevertheless be as valid and effectual, and shall bind the parties thereto, as far as the rules of law and equity will permit, as if it had so conformed. Ibid., § 3060.

When a deed uses the words, “the said covenants,” such covenant shall have the same effect as if it was expressed to be by the covenantor, for himself, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns, and shall be deemed to be with the covenantee, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns. Ibid., § 3061.

A covenant by the grantor in a deed, “that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed,” shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs and personal representatives will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns, against the claims and demands of all persons whomsoever. Ibid., § 3062.

A covenant by any such grantor “that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed,” shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he, his heirs and personal representatives will forever warrant and defend the said property unto the grantee, his heirs, personal representatives and assigns, against the claims and demands of the grantor and all persons claiming or to claim by, through, or under him. Ibid., § 3063.

The words, “with general warranty,” in the granting part of any deed, shall be deemed to be a covenant by the grantor “that he will warrant generally the property hereby conveyed.” The words “with special warranty” in the granting part of any deed shall be deemed to be a covenant by the grantor “that he will warrant specially the property hereby conveyed.” Ibid., § 3064.

A covenant by the grantor in a deed for land, “that he has the right to convey the said land to the grantee,” shall have the same effect as if the grantor had covenanted that he has good right, full power, and absolute authority to convey the said land, with all the buildings thereon, and the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, unto the grantee, in the manner in which the same is conveyed, or intended so to be by the deed, and according to its true intent. Ibid., § 3065.

A covenant by any such grantor “that the grantee shall have quiet possession of the said land,” shall have as much effect as if he covenanted that the grantee, his heirs and assigns, might at any and all times thereafter, peaceably and quietly enter upon, and have, hold and enjoy, the land conveyed by the deed, or intended so to be, with all the buildings thereon, and the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, and receive and take the rents and profits thereof, to and for his and their use and benefit without any eviction, interruption, suit, claim or demand whatever. If to such covenant there be added, "free from all incumbrances," these words shall have as much effect as the words, "and that freely and absolutely acquitted, exonerated, and forever discharged, or otherwise by the said grantor or his heirs saved harmless and indemnified of, from, and against any and every charge and incumbrance whatever." Ibid., § 3066.

A covenant by any such grantor "that he will execute such further assurances of the said lands as may be requisite," shall have the same effect as if he covenanted that he, the grantor, his heirs or personal representatives, will, at any time, upon any reasonable request at the charge of the grantee, his heirs or assigns, do, execute, or cause to be done or executed, all such further acts, deeds and things, for the better, more perfectly and absolutely conveying and assuring the said lands and premises hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, unto the grantee, his heirs and assigns aforesaid, as by the grantee, his heirs or assigns, his or their counsel in the law, shall be reasonably devised, advised, or required. Ibid., § 3067.

A covenant by any such grantor, "that he has done no act to encumber the said lands," shall have the same effect as if he covenanted that he has not done or executed, or knowingly suffered to be done, or executed; any act, deed or thing whereby the lands and premises conveyed or intended so to be, or any part thereof, are, or will be discharged, affected, or incumbered in title, estate or otherwise. Ibid., § 3068.

A power of attorney may be admitted to record in any county. Ibid., § 3074.

The clerk of the county court of any county in which any deed, contract, power of attorney, or other writing is to be, or may be recorded, shall admit the same to record in his office as to any person whose name is signed thereto. Ibid., § 3075.

Any contract in writing, made in respect to real estate, in consideration of marriage, or made for the conveyance or sale of real estate, or a term therein of more than five years, shall, from the time it is duly admitted to record, be, as against creditors and purchasers, as valid as if the contract was a deed conveying the estate or interest embraced in the contract. Ibid., § 3102.

Every such contract, every deed conveying any such estate or term, and every deed of gift, or deed of trust or mortgage, conveying real estate, shall be void as to creditors and subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration without notice, until and except from the time that it is duly admitted to record in the county wherein the property embraced in such contract or deed may be. Ibid., § 3103.

Notwithstanding any such writing shall be duly admitted to record in one county wherein there is real estate, it shall nevertheless be void as to such creditors and purchasers in respect to other real estate without the same, until it is duly admitted to record in the county wherein such other real estate may be. Ibid., § 3104.

Where two or more writings embracing the same property, are admitted to record in the same county on the same day, if the previous sections do not provide for the case, that which was first admitted to record shall have priority in respect to the property in such county. Ibid., § 3106.

The words "creditors" and "purchasers," where used in any previous section of this chapter (§§ 3099-3107), shall not be restricted to the protection of creditors of, and purchasers from, the grantor, but shall extend to and embrace all creditors and purchasers who, but for the deed or writing, would have had title to the property conveyed, or a right to subject it to their debts. Ibid., § 3107.

A purchaser shall not, under this chapter, be affected by the record of a deed or contract made by a person under whom his title is not derived, nor by the record of a deed or contract made by any person before the date of a deed or contract made to or with such person, which is duly admitted to record, and from which the title of such person is derived. Ibid., § 3108.

The deed of real estate sold for taxes may be in form or effect as follows:

1050. Tax Deed, Statutory Form.

THIS DEED, made this day of , nineteen , by , clerk of the county court of the county of , West Virginia, (or by , a commissioner appointed by the circuit court of the county of , West Virginia, or by , a commissioner appointed by the judge of the circuit court of the county of , West Virginia, in vacation, as the case may be) of the first part and of the second part,

WHEREAS, In pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided, , sheriff (or , deputy of , sheriff, or , collector, or , deputy of , collector, as the case may be) of the said county, did in the month of , in the year nineteen , commence the sale of the real estate charged with taxes in said county, and returned delinquent therein for the non-payment of the taxes so charged thereon; and

WHEREAS, At said sale so commenced, continued and completed according to law, the said (or one , if the grantee in the deed be not the purchaser), became the purchaser of a tract of land (or acres, part of a tract of land, or the one undivided part of a tract of land, as the case may be) charged with taxes in the said county as a tract (or part of a tract, as the case may be) of acres, in the name of , for the year (or years, as the case may be) eighteen ; for the sum of $, that being the taxes, interest and commissions due thereon at the date of such sale, and the costs of publication, and the fee for the receipt for the purchase money; and

WHEREAS, More than one year has elapsed since the time of the said sale and purchase, as appears by the sheriff's (or collector's) receipt for the purchase money, and the said real estate not having been redeemed as provided by law; and

WHEREAS, After the expiration of the said one year, to-wit: On the day of , nineteen , the said caused a survey and plat and description of the real estate so purchased to be made and filed with the clerk of the county court (or caused a report to be made to the clerk of the county court, specifying the metes and bounds of the real estate so purchased, and giving a description thereof sufficient to identify the same, as the case may be) as required by law. (If the purchaser has assigned his purchase by such writing as is hereinbefore stated, or joins in the deed to his assignee, or has died, and the grantee in the deed be the assignee of the purchaser, or his heir (or heirs) at law or devisee, [here recite the facts showing why the deed is not made to the purchaser, and the fact that the purchaser joins in the deed, if he does so.]

Now, THEREFORE, this indenture witnesseth that the party (or parties, if the purchaser, his heirs or devisees join in the deed) of the first part, for and in consideration of the premises and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, has (or have) granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents doth (or do) grant, bargain, sell and convey to the party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever, all the real estate so purchased as aforesaid, situate in the county (or counties, if it be situated in more than one county) of , bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at [here give the boundaries and description of the real estate

 or _____, Commissioner. [SEAL.]

If the purchase was of a city, town or village lot, or a part thereof, or an undivided interest therein, the above form must be varied according to the facts. Ibid., § 877.

Where the clerk of the county court is himself the purchaser, the deed for the land purchased by him shall be executed by the clerk of the circuit court; and where the clerk of the county and circuit court is the same person, the deed shall be made to him by a commissioner appointed by the circuit court of the county, or the judge thereof in vacation, for the purpose. Ibid., § 880.

If the clerk of the county court fail or refuse to make the deed provided for in section 877 when lawfully required to do so, or if he execute an insufficient deed and fail or refuse thereafter to execute a good and sufficient deed to the person entitled thereto, when called on to do so, the person entitled to such deed may apply by petition to the circuit court of the county in which the real estate was sold, or to the judge thereof, in vacation, to compel the making thereof by such clerk, or for the appointment of a commissioner to make the same. But of every such application ten days previous notice in writing must be given to such clerk. If upon the hearing of such application, the court or judge be of the opinion that the applicant is not entitled to such deed, the petition shall be dismissed at his costs; but if the court or judge be of the opinion that he is entitled to such deed, an order shall be made by such court or judge directing the same to be made by such clerk, or a commissioner may be appointed for the purpose, as the court or judge shall determine. The order, if made in vacation, shall be filed with the clerk of the court and entered by him in the chancery order book thereof. Ibid., § 881.

A court of law or equity, in a suit in which it is proper to decree or order the execution of any deed or writing, may appoint a commissioner to execute the same; and the execution thereof shall be as valid to pass, release, or extinguish the right, title, and interest of the party on whose behalf it is executed, as if such party had been at the time capable at law of executing the same and had executed it. Ibid., § 3999.

Every letter of attorney, or other instrument, containing a power to convey lands as agent or attorney for the owner of such lands, and every executory contract for the sale or purchase of lands, may be recorded by the register of deeds of any county in which the lands to which such letter, instrument or contract relates, or any part of such lands, may be situated, and the record thereof, or a duly certified transcript of such record, may be read in evidence in the same manner and with like effect as a conveyance recorded in such county. Ibid., § 2755.

No letter of attorney, or other instrument so recorded, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed, unless the instrument containing such revocation be also recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded. Ibid., § 2756.

Unless otherwise provided by law, it shall be the duty of the register of deeds of each county within this state to receive and record at length all such deeds, mortgages, conveyances, patents, certificates and instruments as shall be left with him for that purpose, and he shall endorse on every such instrument the day and hour on which the same was filed for record. Ibid., § 2760.

Each and every deed, mortgage, instrument or conveyance touching any interest in lands, made and recorded according to the provisions of this title, shall be notice to and take precedence of any subsequent purchaser or purchasers of such land from the time of the delivery of any such instrument at the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the lands described in such instrument are situate, for record. Ibid., § 2761.

Every conveyance of real estate within this state, which shall not be recorded as required by law, shall be void, as against any subsequent purchaser or purchasers in good faith and for a valuable consideration of the same real estate or any portion thereof, whose conveyance shall be first duly recorded. Ibid., § 2762.

When a deed or mortgage purports to be an absolute conveyance in terms, but is made or intended to be made defeasible by force of defeasance, or other instrument for that purpose, the original conveyance shall not be thereby defeated or affected as against any person other than the maker of the defeasance, or his heirs or devisees, or persons having actual notice thereof, unless the instrument of defeasance shall have been recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the lands lie. Ibid., § 2763.

Deeds or mortgages of pews or slips in any church may be recorded by the register of deeds of the county in which such church is situated, or by the clerk of the society, or proprietors, if incorporated or legally organized. Ibid., § 2765.

A warranty deed conveying land may be substantially in the following form:

1062. Warranty Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B., grantor, [here insert name or names of grantor and place of residence], for and in consideration of [here insert consideration] in hand paid, conveys and warrants to C. D., grantee, [here insert grantee's name or names and place of residence] the following described real estate [here insert description] situate in the county of [here insert name of county] state of Wyoming. [And when the right of homestead is involved, add the following]: Hereby releasing and waiving all rights under and by virtue of the homestead exemption laws of said state.

Dated this day of A. D. .

In the presence of

A. B.

Ibid., § 2766.

Every deed in substance in the form prescribed in the preceding section, when otherwise duly executed, shall be deemed and held a conveyance in fee simple, to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, with covenants on the part of the grantor, (1) that at the time of the making and delivery of such deed he was lawfully seized of an indefeasible estate in fee simple in and to the premises therein described, and had good right and power to convey the same; and (2) that the grantor warrants to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, the quiet and peaceable possession of such premises, and will defend the title thereto against all persons who may lawfully claim the same. And such covenants shall be obligatory upon the grantor, his heirs and personal representatives, as fully, and with like effect as if written at length in such deed. Ibid., § 2767.

A quitclaim deed may be substantially in the following form:

1063. Quitclaim Deed, Statutory Form.

A. B., grantor, [here insert grantor's name or names, and place of residence] for the consideration of [here insert the consideration] conveys and quitclaims to [here insert grantee's name or names] all interest in the following described real estate, [here insert description] situate in the county of [here insert name of county] in the state of Wyoming. [And where the right of homestead is released, add the following]: Hereby relinquishing and waiving all rights under and by virtue of the homestead exemption laws of said state.

Dated this day of A. D. .
In the presence of

A. B.

Ibid., § 2768.

Every deed in substance in the form prescribed in the foregoing section, when otherwise duly executed, shall be deemed and held a sufficient conveyance, release and quit claim to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, in fee of all legal and equitable rights of the grantor at the time of the execution and delivery of such deed, in the premises therein described, but shall not extend to after acquired title unless words are added expressing such intention. Ibid., § 2769.

A deed of quit claim without the use of the word "release," shall be sufficient to pass all the estate which the grantor could lawfully convey by deed of bargain and sale. Ibid., § 2771.

When a person who is bound by contract in writing to convey any real estate, dies before making the conveyance, and in all cases where such decedent, if living, might be compelled to make such conveyance, the court or judge may make an order authorizing and directing his executor or administrator to convey such real estate to the person entitled thereto. Ibid., § 4817.

Every conveyance made in pursuance of an order or decree as provided in this chapter (§§ 4817-4825), shall pass the title to the estate contracted for as fully as if the contracting party himself was still living and executed the conveyance. Ibid., § 4823.

If the person entitled to the conveyance dies before the commencement of proceedings therefor under this chapter, or before the completion of the conveyance, any person entitled to succeed to his rights in the contract, or the executor or administrator of such decedent, may, for the benefit of the person so entitled, commence such proceedings, or prosecute any already commenced, and the conveyance must be so made as to vest the estate in the person entitled to it, or in the executor, or administrator, for their benefit. Ibid., § 4824.

When two or more persons who own an interest in land become bound in writing for the sale and conveyance thereof, and one of them dies before the land is conveyed, the survivor or survivors may, by petition against the purchaser, and the heirs or devisees of such deceased party, be authorized to complete such contract. Ibid., § 4122.

The petition must set forth the name of all the contracting parties, describe the lands contracted for, state the time the contract was made, that the contract has been fully performed, and have annexed a copy of the contract. Ibid., § 4123.

If the court find the allegations of the petition to be true, it may make an order authorizing and empowering the survivors to complete the contract by conveying the land; and the deed shall recite the order and shall convey as complete and perfect a title and have the same effect as if executed by all the owners. Ibid., § 4124.

When a person who has entered into a written contract for the sale and conveyance of an interest in land dies before the completion thereof, and his executor, administrator or other legal representative desires to complete the contract, he may file a petition therefor in the district court of the county in which the land, or any part thereof, is situate. Service may be made as in civil actions, and the heirs at law, devisees, or other legal representatives of the deceased vendor, when not plaintiffs, must be made defendants in the action. Ibid., § 4125.

The court, after causing to be executed to and for the benefit of the estate of the deceased, its just part and proportion of the consideration of the contract, may authorize the executor, administrator or other legal representative to complete the contract, and to execute a deed for and on behalf of the heirs at law to the purchaser, which shall recite the order, and be as binding on the heirs at law, and all other persons interested, as if it had been made by the deceased in his lifetime. Ibid., § 4126.

The heirs at law, or devisees, of a person who purchased an interest in land by written contract, and died before conveyance thereof to him, may compel such conveyance as the deceased might have done. Ibid., § 4127.

The deed to be executed by the officer to the purchaser, under the provisions of this chapter (§§ 3813-3931), shall contain a statement of the judgment upon which the lands therein described were sold, and of the date of the execution, and may be in the following form:

1064. Deed by Officer, to Carry Out Contract, Statutory Form.

WHEREAS, A. B. did, at the _____ term of the district court for the county of _____ (as the case may be), recover a judgment against C. D. for the sum of _____ dollars and _____ cents, and costs of suit; upon which judgment an execution was issued, dated on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, directed to _____ to execute; and by virtue of the said execution the said _____ levied upon the lands hereinafter described, and the same were struck off and sold to _____, he being the highest and best bidder therefor, and the time and place of sale having been duly advertised according to law.

Now, HAVING THEREFORE, Know all men by this deed, that I, _____, of the said county of _____, in consideration of the premises, have granted, bargained and sold, and do hereby convey to the said _____, his heirs and assigns, the following described tract or tracts of land, [describe the lands] to have and to hold the said described premises with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the said _____, his heirs and assigns forever.

WITNESS my hand and seal this _____ day of _____, A. D.

If the purchaser shall have assigned his certificate of purchase, then there may be inserted after the word "law" in the foregoing form, in substance as follows, "and the said _____ having duly assigned his certificate to (as the case may be)." Ibid., § 3888.

Any deed so executed shall be evidence that the provisions of law in relation to sales of land upon execution were complied with, until the contrary shall have been shown, and such deed shall be considered as conveying to the grantee therein named all the title, estate and interest of the defendant or defendants, in the execution therein named, in and to the lands thereby conveyed, of whatever nature the same may be, but which deed shall not be construed to contain any covenant upon the part of the officer executing the same. Ibid., § 3889.

An officer, including a master commissioner and a special master, who sells real property, shall on confirmation of the sale, make to the purchaser a deed, which shall contain the names of the parties to the judgment, the date and amount of the judgment, the substance of the execution or order on which the property was sold, the substance of the officer's return thereon, and the order of confirmation. Ibid., § 3854.

The deed shall be prima facie evidence of the legality and regularity of the sale; and all the estate and interest of the person whose property the officer so professed to sell and convey, whether that interest existed at the time the property become liable to satisfy the judgment, or was acquired subsequently, shall be thereby vested in the purchaser. Ibid., § 3855.

A deed of trust to secure debts, or indemnify sureties, may be in the following form or to the same effect:

1065. Deed of Trust, Statutory Form.

THIS DEED, made the day of , in the year of , between (the grantor) of the one part, and (the trustee) of the other part; WITNESSETH: that the said (the grantor) doth [or, do] grant unto the said [the trustee] the following property [here describe it], in trust to secure [here describe the debts to be secured or the sureties to be indemnified, and insert covenants or any other provisions the parties may agree upon];

WITNESS the following signatures and seals [or signature and seal].

[Signatures and Seals.]

Ibid., § 2796.

Every deed for real estate sold under a deed of trust may be made in the following form, or to the same effect:

1066. Deed under Deed of Trust, Statutory Form.

THIS DEED, made the day of between A. B., trustee, of the first part, and C. D., of the second part, whereas the said trustee, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the deed of trust hereinafter mentioned (or by an order of the district court of the county of), made on the day of (as the case may be), did sell as required by law, a certain tract (or lot, as the case may be), of land situated in the county (or city, town or village, as the case may be), of conveyed by E. F. to the said
A. B., trustee (or to G. H., trustee, as the case may be), by deed bearing date the day of and recorded (if it be recorded), in a deed book , on page , in the office of the recorder of the county of , and bounded and described therein as follows: [Here insert the description and quantity as set forth in the deed of trust and any other description deemed necessary]; at which sale the said C. D. became the purchaser for the sum of dollars. Now, therefore, this deed witnesseth that the said trustee hereby conveys and grants to the said C. D. the said real estate hereinbefore described, with all right, title and interest held by the said E. F. therein, to have and to hold the said real estate and premises unto the said C. D., his heirs and assigns forever.

WITNESS the following signature or seal.

Ibid., § 2799.

Immediately after the expiration of the term of three years from the date of the sale of any lands for taxes, under the provisions of this chapter (§§ 1867-1905), which have not been redeemed, the treasurer then in office shall make out a deed for each lot or parcel of land sold and remaining unredeemed, and deliver the same to the purchaser; upon the return of the certificate of purchase, the treasurer is required to demand two dollars for each deed made by him on such sales; but any number of parcels of land bought by one person may be included in one deed, as may be desired by the purchaser. Ibid., § 1894.

Deeds executed by the treasurer shall be substantially in the following form:

1067. Tax Deed, Statutory Form.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that whereas, the following described real property, viz.: [here insert the description] situated in the county of _____ and state of Wyoming, was subject to taxation for the year (or years) A. D. _____; and whereas the taxes assessed upon the said real property for the year (or years) aforesaid, remained due and unpaid at the date of such sale hereinafter named; and whereas the treasurer of the said county did on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, by virtue of the authority vested by law, at (an adjourned sale), the sale begun and publicly held on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, expose to public sale at the court house (or county building) in the county aforesaid, in substantial conformity with all the requisitions of the statute in such case made and provided, the real property above described, for the payment of the taxes, interest and costs then due, and remaining unpaid on said property; and whereas at the time and place aforesaid, A. B., of the county of _____ and of _____, having offered to pay the sum of _____ dollars and _____ cents, being the whole amount of taxes, interest and costs then due and remaining unpaid on said property for [here follows a description of the property sold] which was the least quantity bid for, and payment of said sum having been made by him to the said treasurer the said property was stricken off to him at that price (and whereas the said A. B. did, on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____, duly assign the certificate of the sale of the property as aforesaid, and all his right, title and interest to said property, to C. D., of the county of _____ and of _____) and, whereas, two years have elapsed since the date of said sale, and the said property has not been redeemed therefrom, as provided for by law: now, therefore, I, E. F., treasurer of the county aforesaid, for and in consideration of the said sum to the treasurer paid as aforesaid, and by virtue of the statute in such case made and provided, have granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents do grant, bargain and sell, unto the said A. B. (or C. D.) his heirs and assigns, the real property last hereinbefore described, to have and to hold unto him, the said A. B. (or C. D.) his heirs and assigns forever, subject, however, to all the rights of redemption provided by law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, E. F., treasurer as aforesaid, by virtue of the authority aforesaid, have hereunto subscribed my name, on this _____ day of _____, A. D. _____

E. F., Treasurer.

CHAPTER XXIV.

DEFEASANCES.

WHERE a conveyance of property is made in absolute terms, but the grantee gives an instrument to the grantor, which declares that on a specified condition the grant shall be defeated, the latter instrument is termed a defeasance. The general practice is to embody the terms of the defeasance in the grant itself; and this is the only safe way, especially in conveyances of real property. A separate defeasance is rarely to be resorted to.

1067a. Defeasance and Covenant to Account, Given on Receiving an Assignment of a Collateral Security.

WHEREAS, A. B., of the city of _____, is this day indebted to us in the sum of _____ dollars, and has assigned and transferred to us, by an assignment in writing, under his hand and seal, a certain bond, executed by C. D., of the city of _____, and a mortgage upon certain premises situated in said city of _____, executed by the said C. D., and M., his wife, which bond and mortgage bear date on the _____ day of _____, one thousand nine hundred and _____, and are conditioned for the payment of the sum of _____ dollars, on the _____ day of _____, 19 _____, and the interest thereon from the date of said bond and mortgage, at and after the rate of _____ per cent. per annum, and to be paid semi-annually; which assignment of said bond and mortgage, though absolute in its terms, is intended in fact to be and is received by us as collateral security for the payment of the amount so due to us as aforesaid, and any other sum or sums which may hereafter become due and owing from the said A. B. to us.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, we do hereby, for ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant and agree to and with the said A. B., his executors, administrators, and assigns, that we will well and faithfully account to him or them for, and pay over to him or them, any and all moneys which shall be received or collected by us, our executors, administrators, or assigns, upon or from the said bond and mortgage, or either of them, over and above the amount so due to us from said A. B., and interest thereon from this date; and that whenever the said amount so due to us, and all interest thereon, shall be fully paid to us, we will re-assign the above-described bond and mortgage to him, his executors, administrators, or assigns, provided the said bond and mortgage shall not then have been paid in full or otherwise satisfied or foreclosed. But it is expressly understood that nothing in this agreement is to prevent our prosecuting said bond or foreclosing said mortgage for the purpose of enforcing the payment of the moneys secured thereby, in case of any default in the payment thereof or in the performance of any of its conditions, according to the terms thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this day of _____, 19 _____ . [Signatures and seals.]

CHAPTER XXV.

DOWER.

For statutory provisions of New York relating to dower and its enforcement, see the Real Property Law, §§ 13, 190-207; Birdseye, C. & G. Cons. Laws, 1909, pp. 4925, 5030-5042.

The widow of an alien is not entitled to dower unless he took steps to become a citizen of the United States. If a husband exchanges lands for other lands, the widow does not have dower of both, but must make her election, and if she does not commence an action to recover dower in the lands given in exchange within one year after her husband's death, she is deemed to have elected to take her dower of the lands received in exchange.

Where the husband mortgages his land before marriage, the widow has dower as against every person, except the mortgagee and those claiming under him. If the widow does not unite in a purchase-money mortgage, she is not entitled to dower against the mortgagee, but is as to every other person. Under foreclosure of such purchase-money mortgage, she is entitled to the interest or income of one-third part of any surplus moneys. There is no dower in lands mortgaged to husband unless he subsequently acquires the absolute title, and no dower if wife is divorced for her misconduct. Dower is also barred by jointure; also by pecuniary provisions made for the benefit of the intended wife, and in lieu of dower, if assented to by her. If before the marriage, but without her assent, or if after the marriage, real property is given or assured for the jointure of a wife, or a pecuniary provision by devise or otherwise is made for her in lieu of dower, she must elect between the jointure, or pecuniary provision, or devise and her dower.

Widow is deemed to have elected to take the jointure, devise, or pecuniary provision, unless within one year after death of husband she enters upon lands assigned for her dower, or commences an action for her dower. Time to elect may be enlarged by competent court on affidavit showing the contest of probate of the will containing such jointure, devise, or pecuniary provision, etc., and on such notice as court may direct. Such order to be indexed and recorded as a lis pendens.

Every jointure, devise, or pecuniary provision in lieu of dower is forfeited in cases in which dower is forfeited, and the property immediately vests as it would in case of her death. The right of the wife to her dower or jointure can be conveyed only by deed duly acknowledged.

A widow also has the right of quarantine for forty days, and may bequeath a crop in the ground on land held by her in dower. A divorced woman may release to her husband her inchoate right of dower in any real property theretofore owned or thereafter acquired by him. An adult married woman may also release her inchoate right of dower by an attorney in fact.

The provisions relating to an action to enforce the dower right of a widow are regulated by the Code Civ. Pro., §§ 1596-1625.

In several of the states of the Union the common-law right of dower or curtesy does not exist; but where they have been abolished, statutory provisions creating substantially the same estates as the common-law dower or curtesy will be found.

(1) Common-law dower and curtesy in District of Columbia, Minnesota, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Virginia.

In some of the states, e. g. New York, the wife may bar curtesy by will or by making a deed in which the husband need not join.

(2) Common-law dower and curtesy abolished in California, Colorado, Idaho, Mississippi, Nebraska, Nevada, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Utah, Washington.

(3) Common-law dower and curtesy abolished and statutory provisions substituted in Alabama, Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Oregon, Wyoming.

(4) Common-law dower retained but curtesy abolished and statutory provisions substituted in Arkansas, Hawaii, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Montana, Ohio, Vermont, Wisconsin.

(5) Common-law dower and curtesy retained and dower extended, in some cases, to one-half and, in other cases, to the whole of the real estate, in Delaware.

(6) Common-law dower retained and extended, in some cases, to one-half and, in other cases, to the whole of the land, but curtesy abolished and statutory provisions substituted giving surviving husband same estate as surviving wife, in Arizona.

(7) Common-law dower and curtesy retained and curtesy extended to cases where no issue born alive, in Alaska, Pennsylvania, West Virginia.

(8) Common-law dower but no curtesy in Georgia, South Carolina.

(9) No common-law dower or curtesy in Louisiana, Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, Texas.

See also under chapter on ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND PROOF OF DEEDS, under subheads Husband and Wife.

1068. Jointure in Lieu of Dower Right.

THIS AGREEMENT, made this day of , 19 , between A. B., of , party of the first part, C. D., of , party of the second part, and E. F., of , party of the third part, WITNESSETH, as follows:

First. The said A. B. doth hereby covenant and agree to and with the said C. D., his heirs and assigns, in consideration of a marriage about to be contracted between him and the said E. F., that he, the said A. B., his heirs and assigns, shall and will forever hereafter stand seized of and in that certain tract, piece, or parcel of land, with the appurtenances, situate, etc. [describing premises], to the following uses, viz.: to the use of the said A. B., for and during his natural life, and after his marriage with the said E. F., and after his decease, to the use of the said E. F., during her natural life [or, so long as the said E. F. shall remain his widow], for her jointure, and in full satisfaction of her entire dower in his estate after his decease, and at the expiration of her estate, to the use of his heirs and assigns forever.

Second. The said E. F., in consideration of the premises, and of one dollar to her in hand paid, hereby covenants and agrees with the said A. B., that the lands so assigned and set part to her shall be in full satisfaction of her dower or claim of dower in his, the said A. B.'s estate, and shall bar her from making any claim to any dower, if she shall survive him after said marriage, and that she will not claim any share in his personal estate unless the said A. B. shall give her some part thereof by his will, or by some act done by him subsequent to the execution of these presents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, on this day of , in the year 19 .

CHAPTER XXVI.

EXTRADITION.

The Constitution of the United States provides that a person charged in any state with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice and be found in another state, shall on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime.

The constitutional and statutory provisions (Const., art. V, § 2, ¶ 2; U. S. R. S., §§ 5278, 5279), relative to extradition of fugitives from justice between the states do not forbid requisition for an offense less than felony. They include all offenses known to the law, including misdemeanors.¹ The provisions of U. S. R. S., §§ 5278, 5279, apply to a territory; and under Act Feb. 9, 1903, c. 529, § 2, 32 Stat. L. 807, also to the Philippine Islands, so far as applicable.

The mode of proceeding to effect this surrender is regulated by the law of the state in which it is sought to arrest the offender and have him delivered up. At a meeting of the delegates of the governors of many of the states, held in New York city, in 1887, the following rules for interstate rendition were adopted:

RULES OF PRACTICE.

Adopted August 24, 1887, by the delegates of the governors of the states represented and the delegate of the chief justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, as follows:

We, the undersigned, delegates to an interstate extradition conference, appointed by the governors of the several states and territories, and assembled at New York city, this 24th day of August, 1887, hereby certify that after deliberation, the following rules and forms have been adopted, and we recommend the use of the same in all cases of interstate extradition: Charles H. Phelps, California; Alexander B. Hagner, District of Columbia; Tilton E. Doolittle, Connecticut; W. W. Montgomery, Georgia; T. J. Simmons, Georgia; Boykin Wright, Georgia; J. K. Edsall, Illinois; Almon A. Strout, Maine; Edgar J. Sherman, Massachusetts; Milo D. Campbell, Michigan; Moses E. Clapp, Minnesota; William Leese, Nebraska; Daniel Barnard, New Hampshire; Goodwin Brown, New York; Theodore F. Davidson, North Carolina; Charles E. Prior, Ohio; W. S. Kirkpatrick, Pennsylvania; C. W. Stone, Pennsylvania; Edwin D. McGuinness, Rhode Island; W. K. Bachman, South Carolina; John W. Stewart, Vermont; Henry W. Flournoy, Virginia; L. J. Rusk, Wisconsin.

RULES.

The application for the requisition must be made by the district or prosecuting attorney for the county or district in which the offense was committed, and must be in duplicate original papers or certified copies thereof.

The following must appear by the certificate of the district or prosecuting attorney:

(a) The full name of the person for whom extradition is asked, together with the name of the agent proposed, to be properly spelled, in Roman capital letters; for example: JOHN DOE.

(b) That in his opinion the ends of public justice require that the alleged criminal be brought to this state for trial at the public expense.

(c) That he believes he has sufficient evidence to secure the conviction of the fugitive.

(d) That the person named as agent is a proper person, and that he has no private interest in the arrest of the fugitive.

(e) If there has been any former application for a requisition for the same person growing out of the same transaction, it must be so stated, with an explanation of the reasons for a second request, together with the date of such application, as near as may be.

(f) If the fugitive is known to be under either civil or criminal arrest in the state or territory to which he is alleged to have fled, the fact of such arrest and the nature of the proceedings on which it is based must be stated.

(g) That the application is not made for the purpose of enforcing the collection of a debt, or for any private purpose whatever, and that if the requisition applied for is granted, the criminal proceedings shall not be used for any of said objects.

(h) The nature of the crime charged, with a reference, when practicable, to the particular statute defining and punishing the same.

(i) If the offense charged is not of recent occurrence, a satisfactory reason must be given for the delay in making the application.

1. In all cases of fraud, false pretenses, embezzlement, or forgery, when made a crime by the common law, or any penal code or statute, the affidavit of the principal complaining witness or informant that the application is made in good faith, for the sole purpose of punishing the accused, and that he does not desire or expect to use the prosecution for the purpose of collecting a debt, or for any private purpose, and will not directly or indirectly use the same for any of said purposes, shall be required, or a sufficient reason be given for the absence of such affidavit.

2. Proof by affidavit of facts and circumstances satisfying the executive that the alleged criminal has fled from the justice of the state on whose executive the demand is requested to be made, must be given. The fact that the alleged criminal was in the state where the alleged crime was committed at the time of the commission thereof, and is found in the state upon which the requisition was made, shall be sufficient evidence, in the absence of other proof, that he is a fugitive from justice.

3. If an indictment has been found, certified copies, in duplicate, must accompany the application.

4. If an indictment has not been found by a grand jury, the facts and circumstances showing the commission of the crime charged, and that the accused perpetrated the same, must be shown by the affidavits taken before a magistrate (a notary public is not a magistrate within the meaning of the statutes), and that a warrant has been issued, and duplicate certified copies of the same, together with the returns thereto, if any, must be furnished upon an application.

5. The official character of the officer taking the affidavits or depositions, and of the officer who issued the warrant, must be duly certified.

6. Upon the renewal of an application, for example, on the ground that the fugitive has fled to another state, not having been found in the state on which the first was granted, new or certified copies of papers in conformity with the above rules must be furnished.

7. In the case of any person who has been convicted of any crime, and escapes after conviction, or while serving his sentence, the application may be made by the jailer, sheriff, or other officer having him in custody, and shall be accompanied by certified copies of the indictment or information, record of conviction and sentence, upon which the person is held, with the affidavit of such person having him in custody, showing such escape, with the circumstances attending the same.

8. No requisition will be made for the extradition of any fugitive except in compliance with these rules.

They have been approved and are in force in many of the states. They have been adopted with some modifications and additions in other states, while several states and territories have adopted no rules.

Most of the states and territories have printed rules and forms adopted and issued by the executive department of the state, and which can be obtained upon application. Substantially, all the states have enacted statutes covering interstate extradition, and these should be examined before any proceedings are taken. The executive department should also be applied to for its most recent rules, regulations, and forms.

In respect to fugitives from foreign countries, the law of nations requires that persons charged with felony or other high crimes, and escaping into foreign and friendly jurisdictions, should be delivered up upon sufficient evidence of their guilt. This matter is now, however, covered in most cases by treaties between the United States and other countries. The proceeding, however, is a judicial one to be effectuated through the tribunals of justice, and is not to be carried on by the executive authority upon the mere provision of the treaty, unless power be given to that department by law.

For full copies of the foreign treaties and of the statutes and rules of the executive departments of the various states, governing interstate extradition, see Moore on Extradition (Boston, 1891).

CHAPTER XXVII.

FENCES AND FENCE-VIEWERS. .

The statutes of several of the states give a summary mode of determining controversies arising out of the necessity for division fences or walls between the adjoining lands of different owners. Certain local officers—in the state of New York, for instance, the assessors and commissioners of highways in each town, who are designated, when acting in this function, as “fence-viewers”—are empowered to decide as to the sharing of the expenses of fences, and damages from neglect to repair them. For the details of the powers of these officers the statutes of the state must be consulted.

The same officers are also, in some cases, authorized to determine questions of damage done by cattle, etc. See also chapters on HIGHWAY LAW; STRAYS; WRECKES.

THE provisions in the state of New York on this subject are contained in the Town Law, §§ 360-369; Birdseye, C. & G. Cons. Laws, pp. 6230-6236.

The Town Law, § 121, Birdseye's C. & G. Cons. Laws, p. 6179, makes the assessors and town superintendent of highways the fence-viewers of their town.

Owners of adjoining tracts of land, unless they otherwise agree, shall make and maintain a just and equitable portion of the division fence between such lands. On lands bordering upon navigable lakes, streams, or rivers, the fences shall extend down to line of low-water mark, and if owners of lands bounded by streams not navigable cannot agree, the fence-viewers may direct upon which bank, and where the division fence shall be located, and the portion to be kept and maintained by each adjoining owner.

Subdivision or new apportionment of any division fence made necessary by change of title shall be made by adjoining owners. The value of any fence, and the proportion thereof to be paid by any person, shall be determined by two fence-viewers, in case of disagreement. Disputes as to liability as to division fences shall be settled by any two of the fence-viewers of the town, one to be chosen by each party, and if either party neglect after eight days' notice to make such choice, the other party may select both. The fence-viewers shall see that all interested parties have reasonable notice of the hearing, and shall examine the premises, and hear the allegations of the parties. If they cannot agree, they shall select another fence-viewer to act with them, and the decision of any two shall be reduced to writing, contain a description of the fence, and the proportion to be maintained by each party, and be filed in the town clerk's office, and be final upon the parties and those holding under them. The fence-viewers may subpoena and examine witnesses, who are entitled to the same fees as in justices' courts. Each fence-viewer is entitled to $1.50 per diem.

For neglect to make or repair division fences, the party shall be liable to damages accruing thereby, to be ascertained and appraised in writing by any two fence-viewers, and recovered with costs. If such neglect or refusal shall continue for one month after request, in writing, to make or repair the fence, the party injured may make or repair the same at the expense of the party so neglecting or refusing.

Fences destroyed by accident must be repaired within ten days by the person bound to do so on the written requisition of any person interested. In case of refusal or neglect, the party injured may make or repair such fence at the expense of the party refusing or neglecting to do so. Any person maintaining a fence not according to the rules and regulations prescribed by the electors of the town, is precluded from recovering compensation for damages done by any beast lawfully kept upon adjoining lands. If the sufficiency of a fence shall come in question in any action, it shall be presumed to have been sufficient until the contrary be established. Any person neglecting to erect or repair a division fence, is not permitted to maintain an action for damages by reason of beasts straying from adjoining lands, but shall be liable to pay to parties injured all damages which shall accrue to their lands and the crops, fruit trees, and shrubbery thereon, and fixtures connected with the land. Such damages to be ascertained and appraised in writing by any two fence-viewers. Such appraisalment to be only prima facie evidence of the amount of damage suffered.

Barbed wire shall be used in the construction of fences, only on written consent of the adjoining owner. If such consent is refused, such fence may, nevertheless, be built of four strands of wire, with a sufficient bar of wood at the top, and the size of such top bars and of the posts and supports of such fence and their distances apart shall be such as the fence-viewers of the town may prescribe. It must be kept in good repair, for if the fence is erected without written consent of owner of adjoining land, the person erecting it is liable for all damage that may be occasioned by reason of such fence. Railroad corporations not allowed to use barbed wire in fences along their lines.

1069. Decision of Fence-Viewers as to value of Fence, and Portion to be Maintained by an Owner who has Previously Let his Lands Lie Open.

COUNTY OF _____, }
 Town of _____, } ss.

WHEREAS, A. B. and Y. Z. are the respective owners of certain adjoining lands in the town of _____, and the said A. B., on or about the _____ day of _____, erected a division fence between the land belonging to him, and that of the said Y. Z., who allowed his own lands to lie open; and,

WHEREAS, the said Y. Z. has recently inclosed the land belonging to him, and a disagreement has arisen between them as to the just proportion of the value of the said division fence, to be paid for by the said Y. Z.:

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the subscribers duly chosen by the parties to hear and determine the matter, do hereby certify that we, after due notice to each of the owners of the time and place of the hearing, and after having examined the premises and heard the allegations, do determine and decide as follows: that the following is a correct description of the fence built by the said A. B., as aforesaid [here describe the fence]; that the value of the fence, at the time of erecting the same, was _____ dollars; and that the just proportion of said value to be paid by the said Y. Z. to the said A. B., is _____ dollars [or, that the proportion of the division fence which should be built by said Y. Z. is as follows] [describing it]; and we certify that the fees for our services amount to _____ dollars.

GIVEN under our hands, at _____, this _____ day of _____, _____.

COUNTY OF _____, }
 Town of _____, } ss.

WHEREAS, A. B. and Y. Z. are the respective owners of certain adjoining lands in the town of _____, and a disagreement has arisen between them as to the just proportion of a division fence to be built or maintained by them respectively; WE, the subscribers, duly chosen by the parties to hear and determine the matter, having examined the facts and viewed the premises, decide that said division fence should be built as follows [here describe the fence]; that one _____ part of said fence is the proper proportion thereof to be built by the said A. B.; and that the remaining _____ part is the proper proportion thereof to be built by the said Y. Z.; and we certify that the fees for our services amount to _____ dollars.

GIVEN [etc., as in the preceding form].

1071. Decision of Fence-Viewers by Reason of Transfer of Title.

COUNTY OF _____, }
 Town of _____, } ss.

WHEREAS, A. B. and C. D. have disagreed in regard to the division fence between certain lots of land transferred to them by X. Y.;

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the subscribers, two of the fence-viewers of said town, having been duly chosen by said owners to hear and determine the matter, do certify, that upon the application of said owners, we have examined the premises and have heard their allegations after due notice to them, and that due deliberation having been had thereon, we find and determine, that the correct description of said division fence is as follows [here describe it]; and that the _____ part of said fence at the _____ end thereof is the proportion thereof to be built and kept in repair by said A. B., and that the remainder of said fence is the proportion thereof to be built and kept in repair by said C. D., and we further decide that the value of the division fence between said lots is the sum of _____ dollars, and that the proportion thereof to be paid by said A. B. is the sum of _____ dollars, and we further certify that our fees for said services herein amount to the sum of _____ dollars.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

FORECLOSURE.

Mortgages of real property are commonly foreclosed by a suit brought for the purpose, in which all persons having an interest subject to the mortgage are made parties. But if a mortgage contains a power of sale, which is usually the case, the holder may foreclose the mortgage by selling the property under the power of sale, by auction, on due notice to all parties interested. This is a common and convenient mode in simple cases where the parties are few in number. The mode in which this may be done, and the necessary method of preserving evidence of the sale, so as to assure the purchaser's title, are prescribed by statute. It is not allowable to proceed in both methods of foreclosure at the same time.

In general, it may be said that any holder of the mortgage, whether he be the original mortgagee, or an absolute assignee, or an executor or administrator, or an officer of a corporation, or other trustee holding the mortgage, may proceed to enforce the power of sale by advertising and selling, pursuant to the statute.

Notice of foreclosure.—In order to foreclose a mortgage by advertisement,¹ the mortgage, if not already recorded, should be put on record in the county where the lands lie; a notice that it will be foreclosed by a sale of the mortgaged premises, or some part of them, must be prepared, specifying the names of the mortgagor and mortgagee, and the assignee of the mortgage, if any; the date of the mortgage and where and when recorded; the amount claimed to be due thereon, at the time of the first publication of such notice, and a description of the mortgaged premises, conforming substantially with that contained in the mortgage. This notice must be given as follows:

¹ These directions are according to the law of New York. Co. Civ. Pro., §§ 2387-2409, 3293; General Construction Law, § 20, Birdseye, C. & G. Cons. Laws. p. 1946. There are similar provisions in the other states.

1. By publishing it in a newspaper published in the county where the property intended to be sold, or a part thereof, is situated, at least once in each week, for twelve successive weeks, immediately preceding the day of sale. If the printers of the papers in the county refuse to publish the notice at the legal rates, it may be published in the state paper.

2. Posting.—A copy of the notice must be affixed at least eighty-four days prior to the day of sale, in a conspicuous place, at or near the entrance of the building where the county court is directed to be held, in the county where the premises are situated; or if there be two or more such buildings, then of that which shall be nearest the premises. In the computation of the time of posting, the day of sale cannot be included.

3. Recording.—A copy of the notice must be delivered at least eighty-four days prior to the day of sale, to the clerk of the county in which the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, is situated.

4. Service.—A copy of the notice must be served at least fourteen days prior to the day of sale, upon the mortgagor or his personal representatives (that is, his executors and administrators), and upon the subsequent grantees and mortgagees of the premises, whose conveyance and mortgage shall be upon record at the time of the first publication of the notice, and upon all persons having a lien by or under a judgment or decree upon the mortgaged premises, subsequent to such mortgage, personally, or by leaving the same at their dwelling-house, in charge of some person of suitable age, or in the case of any other person than the mortgagor, his wife, widow, executor or administrator, or a subsequent grantee of record, or his wife or widow, by serving a copy of such notice upon said persons, at least twenty-eight days prior to the time therein specified for the sale, by depositing the same in the post-office, at some place within the state, properly inclosed in a postpaid wrapper and directed to the said persons at their respective places of residence.

All these four modes of notice must be pursued to make a valid sale under the statute.

The sale may be postponed from time to time, by inserting a notice of such postponement, as soon as practicable, in the newspaper in which the original advertisement was published, and continuing such publication of both notices at least once a week until the time to which such sale shall be postponed.

Mode of sale.—The sale must be at public auction, in the daytime, in the county where the mortgaged property, or some part thereof, is situated; except in sales of property mortgaged to the people of this state, in which case the sale may be made at the capitol. If the premises consist of distinct farms, tracts, or lots, they must be sold separately; and no more farms, tracts, or lots should be sold than necessary to satisfy the amount due on such mortgage, at the time of the sale, and the costs and expenses allowed by law. But where two or more buildings are situated upon the same city lot, and access to one is obtained through the other, they must be sold together.

The mortgagee, his assigns, and his or their legal representatives, may fairly and in good faith purchase the premises so advertised, or any part thereof, at such sale.

Effect of sale.—A regular foreclosure by advertisement, and the sale made in pursuance thereof to a purchaser, in good faith, is equivalent to a sale under a decree in a court of equity, so far only as to be an entire bar of all claim or equity of redemption of the mortgagor, his heirs and representatives, and of all persons claiming under him or them, by virtue of a title subsequent to the mortgage, and also of any person having a lien, by any judgment or decree, on the premises, or any part thereof, subsequent to such mortgage, and of any person having any lien or claim by or under such judgment or decree, who has been duly served with a copy of the notice of sale.

An affidavit of the fact of any sale pursuant to such notice may be made by the person who officiated as auctioneer at such sale, stating the time and place at which the same took place, the sum bid, and the name of the purchaser, and to it shall be annexed a printed copy of the notice of sale. An affidavit of the publication of such notice of sale and of any notice of postponement may be made by the printer or publisher of the newspaper in which the same was inserted, or by his foreman or principal clerk; and an affidavit of the affixing of a copy of such notice at or near the entrance of the courthouse, may be made by the person who affixed the same, or by any other person who saw such notice so posted; and an affidavit of the affixing a copy of such notice in the book kept by the clerk, may be made by the county clerk, or by any other person who saw such notice so affixed; and an affidavit of the serving a copy of such notice on the persons entitled to service thereof, may be made by the persons who serve the same. These affidavits may be filed in the office for recording deeds and mortgages in the county where such sale took place. The affidavits are to be recorded at length in the book kept for the record of deeds; and the original affidavits, the record thereof, and certified copies of such record are presumptive evidence of the facts therein contained.

Great care should be taken in drawing the affidavits, where these are relied on, as effecting the conveyance; because it is held that, if defective, they cannot be sustained or amended by parol evidence.

When these affidavits are filed and recorded, they are a substitute for a deed. But until such affidavits be made, filed, and recorded, or a deed is given in pursuance of the sale, no title passes to the purchaser.

CHAPTER XXIX.

GIFTS.

A gift of personal property may be made by parol, without any written instrument, except in respect to such property as requires a writing in order to make a valid sale or transfer for pecuniary consideration. But the appropriate instrument for conveying by gift is an ASSIGNMENT or BILL OF SALE (see those chapters), in which affection or a nominal payment, such as one dollar, may be named as the consideration.

Delivery.—Where the subject-matter is capable of delivery, a delivery, actual or symbolical, is essential to constitute a valid gift by parol. There is no distinction, in this respect, between a gift between the living and one made in view of death. The possession, or some means of obtaining possession and control, must be transferred to the donee, or the title does not pass. The delivery need not be to the donee in person. A delivery to a third person to hold for the donee is sufficient. The making and delivering one's own promissory note as a gift, does not create a valid obligation, even when the note is given as a gift in view of death. But the holder of a note or other obligation made by a third person may give it away. After a gift has been thus executed, it cannot be retracted by the donor; although in cases of actual or constructive fraud, his creditors may set it aside. A gift in view of death, however, is revocable at the arbitrary will of the donor, if he survives; and this, notwithstanding the donee has been put in full possession of the subject of the gift.

A gift of land is to be made by deed acknowledged and recorded, as in other cases. (See the chapters on DEEDS and ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.) A nominal consideration may be named, or affection may be expressed to be the consideration, as in Form 826. Sometimes the conveyance is made in the form of a covenant to stand seized to uses, as in Form 766.

CHAPTER XXX.

GUARANTIES.

A GUARANTY is the warranty of some act or debt of another. In the commercial sense, it is an undertaking to answer for the payment of some debt or the performance of some contract by another person who is in the first instance liable to such payment or performance. It is distinguished from suretyship in that guaranty is a secondary and not a primary obligation. It is an undertaking that a debtor shall pay, whereas a surety undertakes that the debt will be paid.

A contract of guaranty not under seal requires a consideration to support it. If the original debt or obligation has accrued previous to the promise of guaranty, there must be a new consideration to sustain the guaranty; but when the original debt or obligation rests upon a good consideration, and if the promise of guaranty is made at the same time with or prior to the original debt or obligation this will support the promise of guaranty. Any benefit accruing to the one by whom the guaranty is given, or any injury suffered by the person receiving the same is regarded as a sufficient consideration. It may be said in general that a moral obligation will not support a promise of guaranty.

By the Statute of Frauds, every special promise to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another person is void, unless such agreement or some note or memorandum thereof be in writing and subscribed by the party to be charged therewith. This fourth section of the English Statute of Frauds (29 Charles II, c. 3), has been re-enacted with a slight modification throughout the United States. For the provisions in the state of New York, see Personal Property Law, §§ 30-44. Birdseye, C. & G. Cons. Laws, p 4188.

Generally, a guaranty is not negotiable. A continuing guaranty is where the parties intend the liability to extend to a succession of dealings or credits; otherwise the presumption is in favor of a limited liability and is called a non-continuing guaranty. A guaranty is not binding unless it is accepted and the guarantor has knowledge of the same. Any material variation of the principal's liability by an act of the party to whom a guaranty is given, discharges the guarantor, but no general rule can be laid down on this subject. A guarantor may be discharged in the same way as the liability under any other contract is discharged. How far failure to give notice of the default of the principal discharges the guarantor, the authorities of the various states differ. A strict construction is always to be applied to the interpretation of those contracts, and the equitable principle of substitution applies to them.

guarantee, the guarantor is under no moral obligation to pay the note, and his liability cannot be revived, even by an express promise. And in order to charge the guarantor, it must be proven that the parties to it were not good, and that payment could not be enforced from them.

Under a simple guaranty of collection, the creditor is not bound to notify the guarantor of his attempt and failure to collect the debt before suing on the guaranty. Unless the guarantor stipulates for notice, it is not to be implied.

If the condition of a guaranty is, that the creditor shall proceed by "due course of law" for the collection of the debt, it is enough that he prosecutes all ordinary legal measures, with good faith and reasonable diligence, in point of time; the loss of a term does not of necessity discharge the guarantor. What is laches depends upon the circumstances of the case.

A guaranty, written beneath a lease, and stating that it is made "in consideration of the demise of the premises above mentioned," sufficiently expresses a consideration.

CHAPTER XXXI.

GUARDIAN AND WARD.

A GUARDIAN is one intrusted by law with the interests of another who is disqualified from acting for himself, and who is hence called a ward. There are different kinds of guardians. They are treated by the courts as trustees, and are usually required to give a bond for the faithful performance of their duties, except in some cases when they are appointed by will. Guardianship in the United States differs considerably from that in England, and is controlled in a great measure by local statutes. For these provisions see the statutes of the several states. Guardians are appointed either by the parents of an infant or by the courts. Unfitness for office, misconduct, irregularity of appointment may be reasons for removing guardians appointed by the court. The powers and duties of a guardian relate either to the person of the ward, or to his estate, or to both the person and the estate. As to his powers over the person, he has generally a right to the custody of the ward's person; he is bound to support and educate the ward, and has, generally, the powers and duties of a parent. As guardian of the estate, he is bound to act for the interests of the ward and not of his own, and he will be held strictly accountable for the careful management of all property. He is not authorized to convert personal property into real, and vice versa; but may manage and dispose of personal property at his own discretion. He may lease real estate, but generally cannot sell or mortgage such property without leave of the court. Whenever the guardianship is terminated, the ward or his legal representative may call upon the guardian and compel him to account, and the ward may disprove fraudulent transactions of the guardian.

The guardianship is a strictly personal trust and cannot be transferred to another person.

In general, the father is guardian by nature, until the child arrive at the age of twenty-one; but by common law this is a guardianship of the person only, and gives no right or control over the child's property, real or personal. But by statute in New York and some other states, where an infant has real property, the father, or if he has no father, the mother, or if none, the nearest relative of full age and of capacity, males being preferred, is guardian, and has the custody of the land, and is entitled to the profits, for the benefit of the ward. But his authority is superseded whenever a guardian is appointed by deed or will, or by the surrogate.

The forms for voluntary appointment of guardians are given in the chapter of APPOINTMENTS.

CHAPTER XXXII.

HIGHWAYS.

HIGHWAYS are roads or streets and bridges, laid out or erected by the public, or by others, and dedicated or abandoned to the public.

Roads recorded as highways, according to law, and any roads used as such for a period of twenty years, are highways. By the statutes of New York, whenever any corporation owning a toll-bridge, or a turnpike or plankroad, is dissolved or discontinues the road, the bridge or road becomes a highway. Transportation Corporations Law, § 149; Birdseye, C. & G. Cons. Laws, p. 6352.

By taking or accepting land for a highway, the public acquires only the right of way, and the incidents necessary to enjoying and maintaining it, subject to the regulation of the towns. All trees within the highway, except only such as are requisite to make or repair the road or bridges, on the same land, are for the use of the owner or occupant of the land.

This whole subject, however, and the mode of proceeding to lay out, work, alter, and close highways, is so fully regulated by the statutes, and there are so many peculiar local systems in the various states, that the statute-book is a safer guide than any statement which such a work as this could give.

In New York (Highway Law, § 11, Birdseye, C. & G. Cons. Laws, p. 2171), three commissioners of highways are appointed by governor with consent of senate. They constitute the state commission of highways. The board of supervisors of a county may appoint a county superintendent. (Ibid., § 30.) In each town a town superintendent of highways is elected. (Ibid., § 40.) If board of supervisors of a county adopt labor system for removing snow, the town superintendent may divide the town into highway districts and file a description thereof in the office of the town clerk. (Ibid., §§ 78, 79.) A copy of the lists of persons and corporations assessed shall be prepared by the town superintendent and filed in the office of the town clerk. (Ibid., § 80.) If they do not, the commission shall place the county in a district with other counties and appoint a district superintendent. (Ibid., § 31.) Every male adult shall be assessed at least one day, except honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who have lost an arm or leg in the United States service, or who are unable to perform manual labor, by reason of injuries received in such service, members of fire companies within such town, persons seventy years of age, clergymen, and priests of every denomination, paupers, idiots, and lunatics. The residue of such labor shall be apportioned on the real and personal property in the town. (Ibid., § 79.)

Any nonresident owner of unoccupied lands may, within thirty days after the assessment, appeal therefrom to the county judge, who shall within twenty days thereafter hear and determine such appeal on a notice to the highway commissioners. (Ibid., § 81.)

If the expense of repairing or rebuilding a bridge shall exceed $500, it shall be done under a written contract approved by the town board. (Ibid., § 92.)

The statutory provisions relating to the proceedings to lay out, alter, or discontinue highways (Ibid., §§ 190-240), are briefly as follows:

Whenever land is dedicated for highway purposes, the town superintendent may, with the consent of the town board, with or without a written application therefor, make an order laying out such highway without expense to the town, and a survey of such highway is to be incorporated in the order. The order containing the survey, with a release of the land from the owner, is to be filed and recorded in the town clerk's office.

On a written application, and with the written consent of the town board, the town superintendent of highways may make an order laying out or altering a highway in their town, or discontinuing it, if useless. Such application, consent, order, and also a release of all damages from the owner of lands taken or affected thereby, and a survey of the proposed highway is to be filed and recorded in the town clerk's office. The district or county superintendent must make the survey or cause it to be made.

Any person assessable for highway taxes may apply to the town superintendent of highways to alter or discontinue a highway, or to lay out a new highway in such town. If the land for the proposed highway has not been dedicated, and if the owners of the land have not consented that it be taken for highway purposes, the person applying must, within thirty days, petition the county court for the appointment of three commissioners to determine on the necessity of the proposed highway or the uselessness of the highway proposed to be discontinued, and to assess the damages. The county court is to appoint three disinterested freeholders as commissioners. The commissioners shall fix a time to hear the parties interested. At least eight days' notice must be given by the applicant by posting up in not less than three places in the town a notice specifying the highway proposed to be laid out, altered, or discontinued, and the tracts of land through which it runs, and the time and place of the meeting of the commissioners. Such notice must also in like time be personally served on the owner and occupant of the lands over which the highway is to pass, if he is a resident of that town, or by leaving the same with a person of mature age; otherwise service must be made by mailing a copy to such owner and occupant, if his post-office address is known or can be ascertained by the applicant on reasonable inquiry.

The commissioners must personally examine the highway and hear any reasons that may be offered for or against the laying out, altering, or discontinuing of such highway, and assess all damages by reason thereof. They may adjourn the proceedings, issue subpoenas, or administer oaths. They shall keep a minute of their proceedings and reduce to writing the evidence taken before them relating to the assessment of damages. They must make duplicate certificates of their decision, and file one in the town clerk's office, and the other, with the evidence taken before them, in the county clerk's office. Within thirty days thereafter, any party interested may apply to the court for an order confirming, vacating, or modifying such decision. The town superintendent of highways has no jurisdiction to lay out a road, without the owner's consent, or an order of the county court, through orchards of four years' growth or more, or through a garden cultivated as such for four years or more, or a grape vineyard of one or more years' growth and used as such in good faith, or through buildings or other erections for the purpose of trade and manufacture. Such order shall be made on the certificate of the town superintendent, showing that the public interest will be greatly promoted thereby, and that commissioners have certified its necessity. Upon eight days' notice of hearing, the county court may order the highway to be laid out, and such order of the county court is then presented to the appellate division of the supreme court in the judicial department in which the land is situated, and after such order of the county court has been confirmed thereby, the town superintendent of highways shall then lay out such highway as in other cases.

To create a private road by statutory provisions, an application must be made to the town superintendent of highways, specifying the width and location of the road, its courses and distances, and the names of the owners and occupants of the land through which it is proposed to be laid out. Thereupon the town superintendent must designate a day and a place, at which a jury will be selected to determine upon the necessity of such road, and to assess the damages. The applicant must serve a notice of the time and place with a copy of the application on each owner or occupant who resides in the same town, or if he be absent, by leaving the same at his residence; nonresident owners may be served by mail. If the owners are infants, service may be made on their parents or guardians. At the time and place designated in the notice, the town superintendent shall present a list of names of thirty-six resident freeholders, not related to the applicant, owner, or occupant, and not interested in the lands to be used. The landowners or occupants may strike from such list not more than twelve names, and the applicant may strike off a like number. The first twelve names remaining on the list shall constitute the jury, who shall be summoned by the town superintendent to meet at a convenient time and place. After taking the oath, the jury shall view the premises and hear the evidence produced by the parties. They shall assess the damages and deliver their verdict in writing to the town superintendent, who shall file and record, in the town clerk's office, the verdict of the jury, and the application, and a certificate of the town superintendent that the road is laid out. The damages assessed by the jury shall be paid before the road is opened or used. Within thirty days after the decision of the jury, the same may be brought up by motion to confirm, vacate, or modify before the county court. When the town superintendent of highways of any town or like officers of a village or city shall differ with the town superintendent of highways of other towns or other such officers, they shall meet on five days' notice in writing within some one of such towns, villages, or cities to make their determination in writing upon the subject of their differences. If they cannot agree, they, or either of them, may certify the fact of their disagreement to the county court of the county, if the proposed highway is all in one county, or if in different counties, to the supreme court. The court shall thereupon appoint three commissioners, freeholders of the county, not residents of the same town, village, or city where the highway is to be located, or if between two counties, then freeholders of another county. The commissioners, upon due notice to all persons interested, shall view the proposed highway, administer all necessary oaths, take the evidence of the parties, and decide all questions arising on the hearing as to the laying out, etc., of the highway, and if they decide to open or alter a highway, they shall also assess the damages to the individual owners, and shall report the evidence and the decision to the court. The court may confirm, modify, or set aside said report, or a part of it, and all the papers in the proceedings are to be filed in the county clerk's office of each county where the highway is to be located. An application to lay out a highway upon the line between two or more towns shall be made to the town superintendent of each town, and they shall act together, and upon laying out such highway, the expense of opening, working, and keeping the same in repair shall be borne equally by such towns.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

THE forms for MARRIAGE, and MARRIAGE SETTLEMENTS, are treated under their respective titles.

Husband and wife could not, under the common law, make binding executory contracts with each other, but transactions based on such contracts were sometimes upheld in courts of equity for the protection of the parties. By the principles of the common law, a married woman cannot, as a general rule, make a valid contract of any description in relation to either real or personal property. But statutes adopted in many of the states have empowered married women to hold separate property and to make contracts in relation thereto, in most respects, as if unmarried. At common law, conveyances of property between husband and wife are not valid, but are sustained in equity in proper cases. But it is competent to a husband and wife to convey land to a third person, and for him to reconvey to either, and in some of the states, direct conveyances and other transactions between husband and wife, are expressly allowed by statute. See Domestic Relations Law of New York, §§ 51, 56; Birdseye, C. & G. Cons. Laws, 1909, pp. 1037, 1054.

An agreement for a separation and for a separate allowance to the wife, may be made through the medium of a trustee. But such an agreement is not valid unless the separation has already taken place, or is to take place immediately. But in case of such separation, unless a separate maintenance is given her, the husband will continue to be liable for her contracts for necessaries furnished to her.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of , merchant, of the first part, and C. B., his wife, of the second part, and Y. Z., of , merchant, as trustee of the said C. B., of the third part:

WHEREAS, divers disputes and unhappy differences have arisen between the said party of the first part and his said wife, for which reason they have consented and agreed, and hereby do consent and agree, to live separate and apart from each other during their natural life:

THEREFORE, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said party of the first part, in consideration of the premises, and in pursuance thereof, does hereby covenant, promise, and agree to and with the said trustee, and also to and with his said wife, that it shall and may be lawful for her, his said wife, at all times hereafter, to live separate and apart from him, and that he shall and will allow and permit her to reside and be in such place and places, and in such family and families, and with such relations, friends, and other persons, and to follow and carry on such trade or business as she may from time to time choose or think fit; and that he shall not, nor will at any time, sue, or suffer her to be sued, for living separate and apart from him, or compel her to live with him; nor sue, molest, disturb, or trouble any other person whomsoever, for receiving, entertaining, or harboring her; and that he will not, without her consent, visit her, or knowingly enter any house or place where she shall dwell, reside, or he, or send, or cause to be sent, any letter or message to her; nor shall or will, at any time hereafter, claim or demand any of her money, jewels, plate, clothing, household goods, furniture, or stock in trade, which she now has in her power, custody, or possession, or which she shall or may at any time hereafter have, buy, or procure, or which shall be devised or given to her, or that she may otherwise acquire, and that she shall and may enjoy and absolutely dispose of the same as if she were a feme sole and unmarried; and further, that the said party of the first part shall and will well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, for and towards the better support and maintenance of his said wife [here state the provision for maintenance], which the said party of the second part does hereby agree to take in full satisfaction for her support and maintenance, and all alimony whatever. And the said trustee, in consideration of the sum of one dollar to him duly paid, does covenant and agree to and with the said party of the first part, to indemnify and bear him harmless of and from all debts of his said wife, contracted, or that may hereafter be contracted by her, or on her account; and if the said party of the first part shall be compelled to pay any such debt or debts, the said trustee hereby agrees to repay the same, on demand, to the said party of the first part, with all damage and loss that he may sustain thereby.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto affixed their names and seals, this day of , one thousand nine hundred and 1160. The Same; Another Form.

THIS AGREEMENT, made this day of , , by and between A. B., of the city of , county of , state of , party of the first part, and C. B., wife of said A. B., party of the second part, and E. F. and G. H., trustees, both of the said city of , parties of the third part:

WHEREAS, the said A. B. and C. B. duly intermarried on or about the day of , ; and,

WHEREAS, there has been the following issue of the said marriage, to wit [here give the names and ages of the children]; and,

WHEREAS, divers disputes and unhappy differences have arisen between the said parties of the first and second parts, by reason whereof they have consented and agreed, and do hereby consent and agree, to live separate and apart from each other in the future and during their natural lives, unless they shall mutually agree to vacate this agreement; and,

WHEREAS, the said parties of the third part have, at the request of the other parties hereto, agreed to act as trustees hereunder, and to enter into the obligations and covenants herein contained:

NOW, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That in pursuance of the conditions and covenants herein contained, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar to each party hereto by the other duly paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and for the other considerations herein contained, the said party of the first part doth hereby, so far as the covenants, conditions, and provisions hereinafter contained, are or ought to be performed or observed by him, covenant with the said party of the second part, and also with the said parties of the third part, and the said parties of the second and third parts do hereby, so far as the covenants, conditions, and provisions hereinafter contained are or ought to be performed or observed by the said parties of the second or third parts respectively hereto, or by either of them, covenant with the said party of the first part, as follows, that is to say:

1. It shall be lawful for the said party of the second part, at all times hereafter, to live separate and apart from the said party of the first part, and free from his marital control and authority, as if she was sole and unmarried, and to reside from time to time at such place or places, and with such persons as she shall from time to time think fit, and to conduct, carry on, and engage in any employment, business, or trade which she shall deem fit, for her own sole and separate use and benefit, without and free from any control, restraint, or interference, direct or indirect, by the party of the first part, in all respects as if she were sole and unmarried.

2. Neither the said parties of the first or second part shall molest the other, nor compel or endeavor to compel the other party to cohabit or dwell with him or her, by any legal or other proceedings, for restitution of conjugal rights or otherwise howsoever.

3. Neither of the said parties of the first and second parts shall take any proceedings against the other to obtain a divorce or judicial settlement or otherwise, in respect to any acts or misconduct which have heretofore taken place, or are alleged to have taken place on the part of either of said parties.

4. The said party of the first part shall, during the joint lives of himself and wife, pay to her, the said party of the second part, the sum of $ per annum, as her separate estate, in equal payments, commencing with the day of , but the party of the second part shall have no power to anticipate said payments, [or, the party of the first part doth hereby agree that he will pay or cause to be paid unto the said trustees, [or, to one of the trustees], during the life of his said wife, and for her use and benefit, and so long as she shall observe the provisions of this agreement on her part to be kept and observed, the sum of $ per month, for her maintenance, clothing, and other necessities, and for her sole use and benefit, and without any control of the other parties hereto], [or, the said party of the first part has hereby made over, assigned, and transferred to the said parties of the third part the following property [here describe it], upon the agreement and understanding that the said parties of the third part shall collect and receive the proceeds, rents, issues, and profits of the said property so turned over to them, and pay over the same, less their expenses in connection therewith, to the said wife, for her sole and separate use] [here insert proper provisions as to acts of trustees, etc., which will be found under the chapter upon WILLS]. The party of the second part shall own, have, and enjoy, independent of any claim or right of the party of the first part, all her wearing apparel, personal ornaments, and other personal property belonging to the party of the second part, and now in her possession, and all the property of the said party of the second part, both real and personal, now held by her, or which shall hereafter belong or come to her, shall be and remain her sole and separate property, free and discharged from all rights of the party of the first part, by curtesy or otherwise, and with full power to said party of the second part to sell, assign, convey, deal with, bequeath, or dispose of said property in her lifetime, or by her last will and testament or codicil, as fully and effectually, in all respects, as if she was sole and unmarried. And the party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees that he will from time to time make, execute, and deliver all such necessary deeds and other instruments, and do such other acts as may be necessary under this article of this agreement, to carry out its provisions.

5. Said party of the second part shall have the right to dispose of her property by last will and testament, or otherwise, and the party of the first part agrees that the estate of the said wife, whether real or personal, shall, subject to her debts and engagements, go and belong to the person or persons who would have become entitled thereto if the party of the first part had died during the lifetime of the party of the second part. And the party of the first part further covenants and agrees that he will permit any will of the party of the second part to be probated, and allow administration upon her personal estate and effects to be taken out by the person or persons who would have been entitled so to do had he died during her lifetime.

6. The party of the part shall have the sole custody and control of [here name the children, or provide that the husband shall have the custody and control of some of the children, and the wife of the others], and of their education, until they shall respectively attain the age of years, without any interference whatsoever on the part of the other parties hereto. But the said parties of the first and second part shall at all convenient and reasonable times, to be settled in case of dispute by the parties of the third part hereto for the time being, have access to and communication with any of the said children who shall for the time being be living with or under the control of the other of said parties of the first and second part.

7. So long as any of said children shall, during the joint lives of said parties hereto of the first and second part, be living with or under the control of the said party of the second part, the said party of the first part shall and will pay to the said parties of the third part, in trust for the said wife, and to be paid over to her, the sum of $ per month, for and in respect of each and every such child under the age of years, and the sum of $ per month, for and in respect of each such child who shall be over the age of years and unmarried; such sum so paid to the party of the second part to be applied by her upon or towards the maintenance and education and benefit of such child or children, but without liability to account so long as she shall maintain and educate such child or children to the satisfaction of said trustee or trustees.

8. The party of the second part hereby covenants and agrees that so long as the party of the first part shall duly keep and perform the covenants, conditions, and agreements to be kept and performed by him hereunder, she will not at any time hereafter contract any debt or debts, charge or liability whatsoever, for which the party of the first part, or his property or estate, shall or may be or become personally liable or answerable, and neither she nor any other person or persons on her behalf, or with her authority, consent, or procurement, shall or will institute any action at law or in equity, or any proceeding whatever, either for a divorce, judicial settlement, alimony, or for any other purpose, except for or upon any adultery hereafter committed by the said husband, or for personal injuries or wrongs committed by the said husband upon the person or estate of the said party of the second part. And the said parties of the second and third parts hereby covenant and agree that they will at all times hereafter keep the said party of the first part, free, harmless, and indemnified from any and all debts or liabilities heretofore or hereafter to be contracted or incurred by the said party of the second part, and from any and all actions, proceedings, claims, and demands, costs, damages, and expenses whatsoever, in respect of such debts and liabilities, or any of them.

9. In case the said party of the first part shall at any time or times hereafter be called upon to pay or discharge, and shall in fact pay or discharge any debt or liability heretofore or hereafter incurred or contracted by said party of the second part, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the said party of the first part, at his option, to deduct and retain the amount which he shall have so paid, together with all costs and expenses, out of any sum or sums of money then due or thereafter to grow due and be paid to the said party of the second part hereunder.

10. If the said party of the first part shall at any time or times hereafter be called upon to pay or discharge, and shall actually pay and discharge any debt or liability hereafter contracted or incurred by the said party of the second part, or in case the said party of the second part, or any person or persons on her behalf, either with or without her authority or consent, bring any action or institute any proceedings against the party of the first part, to compel or induce him to pay or allow the party of the second part any further alimony or additional allowance, except as herein provided, or for any divorce or judicial proceeding, or for any other purpose whatever, except as herein provided, or if the said party of the first part shall at any time or times hereafter be called upon to pay or discharge, and shall actually pay or discharge any debt or liability hereafter contracted or incurred by the said party of the second part, or if the said party of the second part shall at any time take any proceedings against the party of the first part for restitution of conjugal rights, or otherwise for compelling him to cohabit with her, or if the party of the first part shall, by or through the consent or procurement of the party of the second part, be otherwise annoyed or molested by or on her behalf, or if she shall not observe and perform the stipulations and agreements on her part to be kept hereunder, then in either of such cases this agreement shall, at the option of the party of the first part, thenceforth become null, void, and of no effect; without prejudice, however, to any right or rights, or claim or claims, which may have accrued hereunder or by virtue hereof, to any party hereto.

11. The said respective parties hereto of the first and second part shall, and will at any time or times hereafter, make, execute, and deliver any and all such further and other assurances and things, as the other of said parties, or the said parties of the third part, for the time being, shall reasonably require, for the purpose of giving full effect to these presents, and to the covenants, conditions, provisions, and agreements hereof.

12. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, and these presents are upon the express understanding and agreement that if the said parties of the first and second part hereto shall become and be reconciled and again cohabit together, or if their marriage shall be dissolved by order of court, that then and in every such case this agreement, and the provisions and conditions thereof, shall become null and void, and of no effect, but without prejudice to any act or thing done, or right accrued, or proceedings taken hereunder on the part of any of the parties hereto.

13. [Here provide for the compensation, if any, of the trustees, and for the filling of any vacancy which may occur by death, resignation, or otherwise, of either or both trustees.]

14. It is hereby further mutually covenanted and agreed that all the covenants, stipulations, promises, agreements, and provisions in this instrument contained, shall apply to, bind, and be obligatory upon the heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors, or assigns of the said several parties hereto, or either of them, whether so expressed or not.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

CHAPTER XXXV.

INSURANCE.

Forms of policies of insurance are usually prepared by the insurance companies themselves, although, in the case of fire insurance, it is now usual for a standard form to be prescribed by statute.

Fire policies usually contain provisions requiring that:

If fire occur the insured shall give immediate notice of any loss thereby, in writing, to the company, protect the property from further damage, forthwith separate the damaged and undamaged personal property, put it in the best possible order, make a complete inventory of the same, stating the quantity and cost of each article and the amount claimed thereon; and, within sixty days after the fire, unless such time is extended in writing by the company, render a statement to the company, signed and sworn to by the insured, stating the knowledge and belief of the insured as to the time and origin of the fire; the interest of the insured and of all others in the property; the cash value of each item thereof and the amount of loss thereon; all incumbrances thereon; all other insurance, whether valid or not, covering any of said property; and a copy of all the descriptions and schedules in all policies; any changes in the title, use, occupation, location, possession, or exposures of said property since the issuing of the policy; by whom and for what purpose any building herein described and the several parts thereof were occupied at the time of fire; and shall furnish, if required, verified plans and specifications of any building, fixtures, or machinery, destroyed or damaged; and shall also, if required, furnish a certificate of the magistrate or notary public (not interested in the claim as a creditor or otherwise, nor related to the insured), living nearest the place of fire, stating that he has examined the circumstances and believes the insured has honestly sustained loss to the amount that such magistrate or notary public shall certify.

The forms of proofs given below correspond with the foregoing provisions of the policy.

For the various provisions relating to insurance in New York state, see the Insurance Law. Birdseye, C. & G. Cons. Laws, 1909, pp. 2511-2692.

In cases of marine insurance, after a constructive total loss, the insured may relinquish to the insurers his interest in the thing insured, so as to enable him to claim for a total loss. This act is termed abandonment. It is made by giving notice thereof, either orally or in writing. If in writing, no particular form is required; but it must be explicit, and should specify the particular cause of the abandonment. It cannot be either partial or conditional. The notice must be given within a reasonable time after information of the loss. Once given, it is irrevocable, unless the insurers refuse to accept it or consent to a revocation; but it may become of no effect, if the information of loss proves unfounded.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETING:

WHEREAS, we, A. B. and C. D., of the city of _____, in the state of _____, caused to be insured by the _____ Insurance Company [here state the insurance — e. g., thus:], lost or not lost, the sum of _____ dollars, to wit: the sum of _____ dollars on the ship M. N., and appurtenances, and the sum of _____ dollars on her cargo, from _____ to one or more ports in _____, and at and from either of them to _____, or her first port of discharge in the United States, as by a policy, numbered _____, will more fully appear; and,

WHEREAS, the said ship, whilst she was sailing on her voyage from _____ to _____, on or about the _____ day of _____, last past [here state cause of loss — e. g., thus:], was overtaken by a violent storm and gale of wind, by which the vessel was foundered and sunk with her said cargo, and thereby was, and ever since has been, and now is totally lost to us, the aforesaid A. B. and C. D.

Now, THEREFORE, KNOW YE, that we, the aforesaid A. B. and C. D., do hereby abandon to the said _____ Insurance Company such proportion of the said ship and cargo, and of our interest therein, as the said sum of _____ dollars by them insured bears to the whole vessel and cargo.

And we do hereby constitute and appoint G. H., Esq., president of the said _____ Insurance Company, our true and lawful attorney in our names, but for the use of the said company, and at their costs and charges, to claim, sue for, recover, and receive such proportion of the said vessel and cargo, as is hereinbefore by us abandoned.

And we, the said A. B. and C. CHAPTER XXXV.

INTEREST.

Computation.—When interest is to be computed by months, a month is to be taken to be one-twelfth of a year; and the first table given below is appropriate for computing the interest in such cases.

Banks usually calculate interest on the basis of thirty days to the month, twelve months to the year, or 360 days to the year. This method of calculation is expressly authorized by the statutes in some states.

But when interest is expressed to be computable by days, each day is regarded as the 365th part of a year, and in such cases the second table is the appropriate one.

In commercial affairs, the calculation of interest on cents is not generally practiced, the usage being to increase the number of dollars by one, when there are fifty or more cents, and to disregard the cents when there are less than fifty.

Partial payments.—The rule for casting interest when partial payments have been made, is to apply the payment, in the first place, to the discharge of the interest then due. If the payment exceeds the interest, the surplus goes towards discharging the principal, and the subsequent interest is to be computed on the balance of principal remaining due. If the payment is less than the interest, the surplus of interest must not be taken to augment the principal; but interest continues on the former principal until the period when the payments, taken together, exceed the interest due, and then the surplus is to be applied towards discharging the principal, and interest is to be computed on the balance.

Compound interest, or interest calculated upon unpaid interest, is not in general collectible, unless there is an express agreement made after the interest has become due, that it shall bear interest.

The simplest rule for computing interest on the basis of 360 days to the year, is as follows: Multiply the principal by the number of days; then, for 6 per cent., divide by 60; for 7 per cent., divide by 51; for 8 per cent., divide by 45; for 9 per cent., divide by 40, and for 10 per cent., divide by 36. If the principal was in even dollars, point off two figures from the right. If the principal contained dollars and cents, point off four figures from the right.

Example.—Find the interest on $468 for 138 days, at 6 per cent.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

The contract.—The appropriate instrument for creating and defining the relation of landlord and tenant is a LEASE, and matters concerning the contract are treated in the subsequent chapter under that title. It is not essential, however, that a contract of hiring real estate be reduced to writing if it do not exceed the term of one year. The agreement is not only often verbal, but is sometimes not even express, but implied from the circumstances under which the tenant has possession of the landlord's property.

Notice to quit.—Where a tenant, with consent of the landlord, enters into possession, without any express bargain, he is a tenant at will. A tenancy at will may be determined by the will of either party, but only after reasonable notice given by the party intending to terminate the tenancy. The rule is not uniform in the various states, as to what this notice should be. In some instances, a notice of six months may still be necessary, as it is in England. One of three months is more generally sufficient; and in some states the notice must be at least equal to the interval between the periods of payment of rent. In the absence of a statute rule, the general custom is that the notice should cover the whole of one of the regular intervals between payments. Thus if the rent is paid quarterly, so that three months' notice would be sufficient, the notice, even if given in the middle of a quarter, does not expire till the end of the following quarter. The statutes of some of the states (among others New York) makes one month's notice sufficient.

Where the tenancy is under a lease having a definite termination, or where it is a tenancy from year to year, a notice to quit is not necessary to enable the landlord to take summary proceedings under the statute.

No particular form of notice is necessary, but there must be reasonable certainty in the description of the parties, of the premises, of the purpose, and of the time.

1180. Petition to Remove Tenant for Nonpayment of Rent.

TO THE _____ COURT OF THE CITY OF _____, to be held in the _____ [or, To _____, Esq., a justice of the peace of the _____ of _____]:

THE PETITION of A. B. respectfully shows that your petitioner is the landlord of the following premises, to wit: _____ rooms number _____, on the _____ floor, _____ side, in _____ house and premises, known as number _____, _____ street, in the city of _____, and that on or about the _____ day of _____, _____, said A. B. entered into an agreement with Y. Z., as tenant thereof, by the terms of which said agreement the said tenant hired from the said landlord the said premises before described, * and undertook and promised to pay the said landlord the sum of _____ dollars a month, payable monthly in advance, on the _____ day of each month thereafter during occupancy, for the use and occupation thereof, and did thereupon enter into the occupation of said premises.

That on the day of , , there was due to the said landlord, under and by virtue of said agreement, the sum of dollars for month's rent of the said premises before described, to wit; from the day of , , to the day of , , which said rent has been demanded from said tenant personally since the same became due, and that said tenant has made default in the payment of said rent pursuant to the agreement under which the said premises are held, and that said tenant, and the assigns of said tenant, undertenants, or legal representatives hold over and continue in possession of said premises without the permission of the landlord after default in the payment of the rent as aforesaid, and that your petitioner is duly authorized to commence proceedings to dispossess said tenant and those claiming possession under said tenant.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that a precept may be duly issued, requiring said tenant and each and every person in possession of the said premises, or claiming the possession thereof by or through said tenant, either as assigns, undertenants, legal representatives, or otherwise, to forthwith remove from said premises, or to show cause before said court, at a time and place in said precept to be named, why possession of said property or premises should not be delivered to the petitioner, and a final order made by said court, to remove him or them accordingly, and that the petitioner be awarded the costs of these proceedings.

Dated the day of , .

Petitioner.

COUNTY OF , ss.

The petitioner in the foregoing petition named, being duly sworn, doth depose and say that the contents of said petition by said petitioner subscribed are true to the knowledge of deponent, except as to those matters [if any] therein stated to be alleged on information and belief, and as to such matters deponent believes the same to be true. [That deponent is the agent of said landlord, and that the reason why this verification is not made by the landlord in person, is that the matters herein stated are better known to this deponent, by reason of such agency, than they are to said landlord.]

Sworn to before me, this day of , .

1181. Petition to Remove Tenant Holding Over.

[As in preceding form to *, and from thence as follows:] for the term of from the day of , , which said term has expired. That said tenant, and the assigns of said tenant, undertenants, or legal representatives, hold over and continue in possession of the said premises , after the expiration of his [or, their] said term, without the permission of the landlord.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that a precept may be duly issued [and continue as in preceding form].

1182. Petition to Remove Tenant at Will.

[As in Form No. 1180 to *, and from thence as follows:] for the term of , from the day of , , which said term has expired.

And that the said tenant, and the assigns of said tenant, undertenants, or legal representatives, has or have held and occupied the said premises as the tenant at will of your petitioner , from the day of said letting and renting, until the expiration of such tenancy as hereinafter more fully stated.

And that your petitioner caused, on the day of , a notice in writing to be served upon the said tenant and the assigns of said tenant, undertenants, or legal representatives, requesting them to remove from the said premises within one month.

That the time within which said tenant and the assigns of said tenant, undertenants, or legal representatives, were required to remove, has expired. That the said tenant and the assigns of said tenant, undertenants, or legal representatives, hold over and continue in possession of the said premises after the expiration of his or their said term, without the permission of the landlord.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays, etc. [continue as in Form No. 1180.]

COUNTY OF _____, ss.

TO THE SHERIFF [or, as in Form 1187], GREETING:

WHEREAS, I, the undersigned [title of magistrate], for the purpose of forming a jury to try certain matters in controversy between A. B., landlord, and Y. Z., tenant, have in due form of law nominated [here name the jurors] twelve reputable persons, qualified to serve as jurors in courts of record: You are, therefore, hereby commanded, in the name of the people of the state of New York, to summon the above-named persons so nominated, to appear before me, at my office in _____, on the _____ day of _____, _____, to try the said matters in difference. [Signature.]

1190. Warrant to Dispossess After Verdict Against the Tenant.

[This may be framed substantially as in Form 1187, inserting the following recital:]

AND WHEREAS, on [or, before] the time appointed in such summons, the said Y. Z., being in [or, claiming] possession of said premises, having filed an affidavit with me, the undersigned, who issued said summons, denying [some of] the facts upon which said summons was issued; and a jury having been regularly nominated, summoned, drawn, and sworn, in pursuance of the statute, to determine the matters controverted between the said parties; and the said jury after hearing the proofs and allegations of the parties, and being kept together by a proper officer duly sworn until they were agreed on their verdict, having found a verdict in favor of the said A. B.

III. FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER.

1191. Complaint for Forcible Entry and Detainer.

COUNTY OF _____, ss.

A. B., of _____, in said county, complains to [here insert name and title of magistrate], and shows that Y. Z., of _____ aforesaid, on the _____ day of _____, in the year _____, at _____, in the county aforesaid, unlawfully made a forcible entry into the lands and possession of this complainant—to wit [here describe the premises], and then and there with a strong hand and with a multitude of people, did violently, forcibly, and unlawfully eject and expel the complainant from his said lands and possessions, wherein this complainant had at the time aforesaid an estate of freehold [or other estate or right of possession, as the case may be], then and still subsisting; and that the said Y. Z. still holds and detains the said lands and possession from the complainant unlawfully, forcibly, and with a strong hand, and against the statute. [Signature.]

[Date.]

1192. Affidavit Accompanying the Foregoing Complaint.

COUNTY OF _____, ss.

A. B., of _____, the complainant above named, being duly sworn, says that the matters stated in the foregoing complaint are true to his knowledge, and that he had an estate of freehold [or other estate or right of possession] in the said _____ at the time of the said forcible entry and detainer, which then was and still is subsisting. [Signature.]

CHAPTER XXXVII.

LEASES.

Writing and recording.—By the Statute of Frauds, leases of lands for a period exceeding three years must be in writing, subscribed by the party sought to be charged thereby, or by his agent authorized in writing. This statute has, however, been modified in some of the states in respect to the number of years of leases to which it is to apply. Thus, in New York (and most of the states) leases for a period exceeding one year must be in writing. In Indiana, New Jersey, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Wisconsin leases for more than three years, and in Maryland for more than seven years, and in Porto Rico for six years, must be in writing. In Louisiana leases may be made either by written or verbal contract. In Hawaii, Idaho, Maine, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Ohio, Vermont and Washington, all leases must be in writing. In the other states and territories leases for more than one year must be in writing.

In the same way, the rule as to which leases should be recorded varies in the different states. In New York, a lease for a period exceeding three years should be recorded. In some other states, the rule only applies to leases for more than seven years.

In the state of New York, leases of agricultural lands for more than twelve years are prohibited; in Iowa for more than twenty; in Montana and North Dakota for more than ten. In California no lease for agricultural or horticultural purposes for more than fifteen years is valid.

Leases for more than one year must be recorded in Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Vermont and Washington.

Leases for one year must be recorded in Florida.

Leases for more than three years must be recorded in Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Carolina, Tennessee and Wyoming.

Leases for five years must be recorded in Georgia; and for more than five years in Virginia and West Virginia.

Leases for more than seven years must be recorded in Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

In Missouri, New Mexico, Ohio and Porto Rico all leases must be recorded.

In Delaware and Pennsylvania leases for more than twenty-one years must be recorded, and in New Jersey leases for more than ten years.

In Kentucky, an oil, gas, coal or mineral lease for more than five years and any other lease for more than one year must be recorded.

In the Philippine Islands there is no provision as to the recording of leases.

Covenants.—The obligation to repair depends upon the terms of the lease. Under the ordinary covenant, in a lease to keep the premises in good and sufficient repair, the lessee is bound to do substantial repairs; but if the house was dilapidated at the commencement of the lease, the lessee is not bound to restore it in an improved state; but he must keep it in the state in which it was at the commencement of the lease, by the timely expenditure of money and care.

In the absence of any special stipulation, the lessee is not bound to rebuild a house accidentally burned down; but if he enters into a general covenant to repair, without any exception, he is liable to restore any house or building which may be destroyed by fire, tempest, lightning, or any other accident.

A tenant who is under no obligation to do substantial repairs cannot require the landlord to do them.

But by statute in New York, the rent ceases, if the premises are destroyed by the elements, or become otherwise untenable.¹

If it is intended that the lessee shall insure the premises, there should be an express covenant to that effect on his part, which should specify in whose name the insurance is to be, and the amount of the insurance. It is best also to name the company, or provide that the company shall be one approved by the lessor.

The lessee should be bound to deliver or produce to the lessor the insurance policy and the receipts for the premiums.

A lease often contains a covenant by the lessee not to assign or underlet without the lessor's license. Such a covenant does not prevent a bequest of the term. And a deposit of a lease by way of security is not a forfeiture of a condition "not to underlet, alien, sell, assign, transfer, and set over or otherwise part with" the lease or premises without the license of the lessor. A covenant not to underlet is not broken by an assignment; and a covenant not to assign or otherwise put away the lease or premises does not prevent the lessee from granting an underlease. A covenant not to grant, let, assign, charge, or dispose of the premises, is not broken by the lessee giving a warrant of attorney to enter up judgment against him by way of security for bona fide debts.

Conditions.—Where matters on either side are intended to be conditions, so that a nonperformance will give the other party a right to annul any obligation imposed upon him, it is best that such obligation should be expressly stated to be conditioned upon the performance of the matter in question.

Fixtures.—The intent of the parties as expressed in the lease generally governs the right for the removal of fixtures. If no intent is expressed, the modern law allows the tenant to remove all fixtures, if, in so doing, he leaves the premises substantially in the previous condition. The law also allows the removal of fixtures put on the premises for trade or manufacture purposes.

1205. The Same; With Restrictions on Occupancy and Subletting, and With Fire Clause.

[As in the preceding form to the *, continuing thus:] And the party of the second part hereby covenants to and with the party of the first part to make punctual payment of the rent, in the manner aforesaid, and quit and surrender the premises at the expiration of said term, or other determination of this lease, in as good state and condition as reasonable use and wear thereof will permit, damages by the elements excepted; and further covenants, that he, the party of the second part, will not use or occupy said premises for any business or purpose deemed extra-hazardous on account of fire.

And the said party of the second part further covenants, that he will permit the said party of the first part, or his agent, to enter said premises, for the purpose of making repairs or alterations, and also to show the premises to persons wishing to hire or purchase; and on and after the first day of February next will permit the usual notice of "to let," or "for sale" to be placed upon the walls of said premises, and remain thereon, without hindrance or molestation; and also, that if the said premises, or any part thereof, shall become vacant during the said term, the said party of the first part may re-enter the same, by either force or otherwise, without being liable to any prosecution therefor; and re-let the said premises as the agent of the said party of the second part, and receive the rent thereof, applying the same, first to the payment of such expense as he may be put to in re-entering, and then to the payment of the rent due by these presents; and the balance, if any, to be paid over to the said party of the second part.

And the said party of the second part further covenants, that he will not assign this lease or underlet the said premises, or any part thereof, to any person or persons whomsoever, without first obtaining the written consent of said party of the first part; and in case of not complying with this covenant, the party of the second part agrees to forfeit and pay to the party of the first part the sum of dollars, as and for liquidated damages, which are hereby liquidated and fixed as damages and not as a penalty.

This lease is made and accepted on this express condition, that in case the party of the second part should assign this lease, or underlet the said premises, or any part thereof, without the written consent of the party of the first part, that then the party of the first part, his heirs or assigns, in his or their option, shall have the power and the right of terminating and ending this lease immediately, and be entitled to the immediate possession of said premises, and to take summary proceedings against the party of the second part, or any person or persons in possession as tenant, having had due and legal notice to quit and surrender the premises, holding over their term.

And it is further agreed, that in case the building on said premises shall, without any fault or neglect on his part, be destroyed, or be so injured by the elements, or any other cause, as to be untenable and unfit for occupancy, the tenant shall not be liable or bound to pay rent to the lessor or owner thereof, for the time after such destruction or injury, and may thereupon quit and surrender possession of the premises.

[Security, if any, as in Form 1196 or 1203.]

1206. Another Form; With Provisions for Re-Entry and Re-Letting, Tenant to Pay Water-Tax and Fire-Risk, and Have Privilege of Renewal.

[As in Form 1204 to the *, continuing thus:] Provided, nevertheless, that if the rent, or any part thereof, shall be unpaid, on any day whereon the same ought to be paid, as aforesaid, or if the said premises shall become vacant during the term hereby granted, or if default shall be made in any of the covenants herein contained, on the part of the tenant, then it shall be lawful for the lessor or his assigns, into and upon said demised premises, to re-enter and remove all persons therefrom, and to recover the possession thereof by legal proceedings, or to re-enter the same, and use such force for the purpose as he or they shall think fit, without being liable to any prosecution or indictment therefor, and the same to re-possess as in their former estate; or, in case he or they shall think proper, may re-let the same as agent of the tenant, in the name of the tenant or of the lessor, applying the avails thereof first to the payment of the expenses of re-entering, and then to the payment of the rent reserved by this lease, and the balance, if any, to pay over to the tenant; and the tenant covenants to pay to the lessor any deficiency between the amount received on such re-letting and the rent reserved by this lease. And it is further agreed, that in case of re-entry by the lessor, and whether he shall re-let as agent of the tenant or not, that the tenant shall be liable to the lessor for a sum equal to the rent hereby reserved, and payable at the same periods, less any sum that shall be received by the lessor as rent of said premises for the said periods. And the tenant covenants not to assign or underlet the said premises, nor any part thereof, nor make any alterations therein, nor follow nor suffer to be carried on therein, any business other than , and to keep the Croton fixtures on said premises in repair at his own expense; and that after the day of , he will permit the lessor, or any person by his order, to put a notice on said premises that the same are for sale or to let, and to keep the same on so long as the lessor shall think necessary; and after said day to permit applicants for the said premises freely to enter, examine, and leave on week days, from A. M., till

P. M. And he further covenants to pay to the lessor as rent, in addition to that hereinbefore reserved, on the first day of August, in every year, a sum equal to that which shall be imposed as tax or rent for the Croton water; and in case the fire risk on said premises shall be increased above what the insurance companies of the city of term hazardous, to pay a further sum, on the first day of , in every year that this shall occur, equal to the increased charge of insurance on a value of dollars. It is further agreed, that the lessor shall not be liable for any repairs to said premises, nor for any change in their condition; and that on the last day of the said term, or other sooner determination of the estate hereby granted, the tenant will peaceably and quietly leave and surrender the said demised premises in as good condition as they now are or hereafter shall be put, damage by fire and the elements excepted. And it is further agreed, that the tenant shall have the option of extending this lease for a further period of years, if the ground is not required by the lessors for their own use.

of land colored brown in the said map, either on foot or by means of carts or other vehicles, horses, or other animals, full and free right and liberty of ingress, egress, regress, passage, and way at all times over the said piece of land colored brown on the said plan from the point at which the said piece of land adjoins the wharf, and by all the other internal and external passages and ways by which the said rooms respectively are or can be now approached from the said street from the point aforesaid]:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all the said premises hereby demised, or expressed so to be, unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of years from the day of next: YIELDING and paying in respect of the premises hereby demised, every year during the said term of years, the clear yearly rent of dollars, and yielding and paying every year during the said term a royalty of per bushel in respect of all cements which shall be made or manufactured and sold by the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, or any person or persons on his or their behalf, either on the premises hereby demised or on any part thereof, or on any other premises, or in any other place or places whatsoever, such rent and royalties to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the day of , the day of , the day of , and the day of , clear of all deductions, the first quarterly payment of the said rent and royalties respectively to be made on the day of next. AND THE SAID Y. Z. hereby, for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, covenants with the said A. B., his executors, administrators, and assigns, that the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall and will, during the said term, pay the said rent and royalties respectively on the said days of payment whereon the same respectively are hereinbefore made payable, without any deduction, and also pay and discharge all present and future taxes, charges, rates, and assessments upon the said premises hereby demised, or on the occupier or occupiers thereof in respect of the same, and will at all times keep indemnified the said A. B., his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, from the payment thereof respectively; and further, that the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall and will, at all times during the said term of years, carry on, within the said city of , the business of making or manufacturing cements and selling the same there and elsewhere to the best possible advantage; and shall and will at all times during the said term keep proper books of account on the said premises hereby demised, or on some part thereof, and shall from time to time make such entries therein as shall clearly show the quantity of cement which shall from time to time be manufactured and sold by him or them, or any person or persons on his or their behalf, and also the amount of royalties which shall from time to time become payable in respect thereof, and also all other matters which ought to be entered in such books in relation to the said business; and shall and will on the first day of every month during the said term, at his or their own expense, supply the said A. B., his executors, administrators, and assigns, with a proper and faithful account, in writing, of all the cements which shall have been manufactured or sold as aforesaid during the then preceding month, together with all vouchers and such other evidence as may be required in order clearly to show the accuracy of such account, and shall and will, if and when required so to do by the said A. B., his executors, administrators, or assigns, further evidence the accuracy of every such account by the oath or affirmation of the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns; and shall and will on every quarter day during the said term during which the royalties hereby reserved are made payable by these presents, pay the full amount of the royalties which shall have become payable in respect of all the cements which shall have been manufactured or sold during the then preceeding quarter of a year. And further, that in case the said rent and royalties hereby reserved, or any of them, or any part thereof respectively, shall at any time or times during the said term, fail to be paid at the times and in the manner hereinbefore provided for this purpose, then (in addition to the powers of distress and entry which he or they may possess independently of any special clause to this effect) it shall be lawful for the said A. B., his executors, administrators, or assigns, into or upon the said premises hereby demised, or expressed so to be, or any part thereof, or any other premises wherein or whereupon the said business may for the time being be carried on, to enter and distrain for the same rent and royalties so in arrear, and the distress or distresses there found to impound and detain, sell, and dispose of in such manner as landlords are by law authorized to do in respect of arrears of rent reserved upon common demise, to the intent that the said A. B., his executors, administrators, or assigns, may, by such distress or distresses, be from time to time satisfied, all such rent and royalties as may be so unpaid as aforesaid, and all costs and expenses occasioned by nonpayment or default in payment thereof.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 1204].

1212. Lease by Tenants in Common of Wharf, Machinery, Etc., With Covenants by Lessee for Repairs, and Proviso for Determining the Term at the End of Fourteen, Twenty-eight or Forty-two Years by Lessee, on His Giving Previous Notice.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , between A. B., of etc., lessor of one moiety of the premises, of the first part, C. D. of , lessor of other moiety of premises, of the second part, and Y. Z., of , lessee, of the third part.

WHEREAS, the said A. B. and C. D. are seized of and absolutely entitled to the messuage or dwelling-house, piece, or parcel of ground, warehouses, offices, erections, wharf, fixtures, machinery, and things hereinafter mentioned, and intended to be hereby demised, as tenants in common in equal shares; and,

WHEREAS, the said A. B. and C. D. have agreed to grant to the said Y. Z. a lease of the said premises, upon the terms and in the manner hereinafter expressed:

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That in consideration of the rent hereinafter reserved, and of the covenants hereinafter contained, and on the part of the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, to be observed and performed, they, the said A. B. and C. D. (according to their respective moieties in the property intended to be hereby demised), do, and each of them does, hereby grant and demise unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, all that messuage or dwelling-house, etc., and also all that piece or parcel of ground, etc., with the warehouses, offices, or buildings, and other erections now standing and being thereon; and also all that wharf adjoining thereto, now called and known by the name of Wharf, situate, lying, and being in _____, in the county of _____, and bounded [here give boundaries], and now in the occupation of _____, and all which said hereditaments and premises are more particularly described or delineated in the map or plan drawn in the margin of [or, annexed to] these presents. And also the use and enjoyment of all the machinery, cranes, fixtures, implements, utensils, and things which now are in or upon the said premises, and the particulars whereof are specified in the schedule hereto annexed:

To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said premises hereinbefore demised or expressed so to be, unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, from the _____ day of _____, for the term of sixty years thenceforth, yielding and paying therefor yearly, and every year during the said term of sixty years, the rent of _____ dollars, by equal half-yearly payments, on the _____ day of _____, and the _____ day of _____, in each year. And the said Y. Z. hereby for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, covenants in manner following: That the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall and will [insert covenant, to pay rent and taxes, as above], and also shall and will at all times, during the said term, at his and their own costs, as often as occasion shall require, well and sufficiently repair, support, maintain, and keep in good and substantial repair and condition the messuage, wharf, machinery, and premises hereby demised, or expressed so to be, and also all other the erections and buildings which shall at any time during the said term be erected and set up in or upon the said demised premises, and the same in such good and substantial repair and condition, shall and will, at the expiration or other sooner determination of the said term of sixty years, peaceably and quietly surrender and give up unto the said A. B. and C. D., their heirs and assigns, the reasonable use and wear thereof in the meantime only excepted. PROVIDE always, and it is hereby agreed and declared, that if the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall be desirous of determining the said term of sixty years, at the expiration of the first fourteen, twenty-one, or forty-two years of the said term, and of such his or their desire shall for that purpose deliver to the said A. B. and C. D., respectively, or their respective heirs or assigns, _____ months' previous notice in writing, and shall pay and discharge all arrears of rent, and perform all the covenants hereinbefore contained, and on his and their part to be observed and performed, then and in such case, at the expiration of the said terms of fourteen years, respectively, this present lease, and everything herein contained shall absolutely cease and determine to all intents and purposes.

1213. Mining Lease.

[*As in Form 1207 to the , continuing thus:] do grant and convey to the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, the right of entering in and upon the lands hereinafter described, for the purpose of searching for mineral and fossil substances, and of conducting mining and quarrying operations, to any extent he may deem advisable [for the term of _____ years, from the _____ day of _____,], [but not to hold possession of any part of said lands for any other purpose whatsoever], paying for the site of buildings [or, designate other works] necessary thereto, a reasonable rent. The said lands are situated [here insert description].

And the said party of the second part hereby agrees that he, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, will pay or cause to be paid to the said party of the first part, his heirs or assigns [here state payments], and also covenants that no damage shall be done to or upon said lands and premises, other than may be necessary in conducting said operations. And the said parties of the first and the second part, each for themselves, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, covenant and agree, and this indenture is made with this express proviso, that if no mineral or fossil substance be mined or quarried, as now contemplated by said parties, within the period of _____ years, from the _____ day of _____, then these presents, and everything contained herein, shall cease, and be forever null and void.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 1204].

1214. Extension and Modification of Mining Lease, Which Has Been Assigned.

THIS INDENTURE, made this _____ day of _____, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and _____, by and between M. M., wife of A. M., of _____, in the county of _____, and state of _____, formerly Mrs. M. R., party of the first part, and Y. Z., of _____, party of the second part, WITNESSETH: That,

WHEREAS, the said party of the first part, by her then name of Mrs. M. R., on or about the _____ day of _____, one thousand nine hundred and _____, made and entered into a certain indenture of lease, bearing date on the day last mentioned, to A. A., of _____, aforesaid, wherein and whereby she leased and demised unto the said A. A. certain lands situate in the township of _____, in the county of _____, in the state of _____, which are therein particularly described, containing about _____ acres, together with the buildings, etc., thereon situate, which said lease was filed for record on the _____ day of _____, one thousand nine hundred and _____, and was recorded in the office for recording deeds, etc., for said county of _____, in deed-book B. B., page _____; the said lease having been given for the purpose of boring and mining for oil, salt, and other minerals, for and during the term of ninety-nine years from the date thereof, upon a royalty of one-eighth of the mineral product found or procured on, in, or under said leased lands, as by reference thereto will more fully appear; and,

WHEREAS, the said lease has been duly assigned by the said A. A. to the said Y. Z., and is now held and owned by him:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and of the mutual covenants and provisions herein contained, the said parties to this indenture have agreed and do hereby agree to and with each other as follows, namely: Said Y. Z. hereby covenants and agrees to and with the said party of the first part that she may have, hold, and possess and occupy the dwelling-house which was standing upon the said premises at the date of said lease, together with the outbuildings attached thereto, and also the cleared land of and upon said premises for occupation and use for all agricultural purposes, provided and upon condition that the same shall not interfere with, emharrass, hinder, or prevent the carrying on of the operations of the said party of the second part, in mining, boring, or opening for oil, salt, or any other mineral products of said lands; and also that she shall have the right and privilege of clearing or improving the said farm or any portion thereof for agricultural or farming purposes, during the continuance of said lease, upon the conditions above mentioned. The said party of the second part to be at liberty to construct and carry on any mining operations, and to bore or open for oil, salt, or any other mineral products of said lands, in case he should find it necessary, or wish so to do, in any portion of the cleared land upon the said farm, notwithstanding the occupation thereof by said party of the first part for agricultural purposes, and interfering as little as may be with the occupation of said lands for agricultural purposes, and the said party of the second part hereby further agrees that if at the end of _____ years from the date hereof, he shall not then be successfully and profitably operating or mining said farm for oil, salt, or other minerals, that then he will quietly and peaceably abandon said farm, removing all machinery, tools, and improvements used or made for said mining purposes, and to promote its business, as expeditiously as may be practicable, and said lease shall then be null, void, and of no further effect. And the said party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees that the said lease of the _____ day of _____, one thousand nine hundred and _____, shall be and the same is hereby ratified, confirmed, continued, and extended upon the same royalty specified in the said original lease; and, further, that should this lease become null, void, and of no effect at the expiration of _____ years from the date hereof, that then the said party of the first part will release the said party of the second part from all further obligation, and permit him, or his legal representatives or assigns, quietly and peaceably to remove all machinery, tools, or improvements placed upon or made under this or the original lease to which reference is herein made, from said farm in such time and manner as may be practicable to said party of the second part.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written. [SEAL.]

In presence of

1215. Covenant Not to Assign, etc.

And also that he, the said party of the second part, himself, his executors, administrators, or assigns, or any of them, shall not, nor will, at any time or times hereafter, during the term hereby granted, lease, let, or demise all or any part of the said premises hereby demised, nor assign, transfer, or make over the same, or this present lease, or any of his or their term or time therein to any person or persons whomsoever, without the consent of the said party of the first part, his heirs or assigns, in writing, under his or their seal, for that purpose first had and obtained, anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

1216. Covenant to Renew.

It is further agreed, that at the expiration of the term above mentioned, [or, in the annexed lease mentioned], the said party of the first part hereby agrees to let and lease to the said party of the second part all the premises, machinery, and appurtenances in said lease mentioned, for another term of _____ years, at the same annual rent, and on the same conditions under which said party of the second part now holds said premises under and by virtue of the present lease; provided said party of the second part shall, at least [one year] before the termination of the present lease, notify the said party of the first part of his intention to hire said premises and appurtenances for such additional term.

1217. Covenant to Buy Fixtures at a Valuation.

And the said party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees to and with the said party of the second part, that at the expiration of the present lease, [or of the renewed lease, if the same shall be accepted], he will purchase of the said party of the second part all the machinery that shall have been placed by him in or upon the said premises during the whole time he shall have occupied the same, allowing therefor to the said party of the second part the full valuation at which such machinery shall then be estimated, in the buildings, and not for purpose of removal. And in case the parties hereto shall not agree upon such valuation, then the same shall be made by three disinterested persons, one of whom is to be chosen by each of said parties, and the other to be selected by the two so chosen, and the award of the majority of such persons shall be binding on the parties hereto.

1218. The Same; Another Form.

That if said company shall put into said buildings steam-boiler pipes and apparatus for the heating of said buildings by steam, and also shall put into that part of said buildings to be occupied by said company gas pipes and fixtures for lighting the same, then at the termination of said lease said executors shall, on demand, pay to said company, for said gas pipes and fixtures, the original cost thereof, without interest; and for said boiler, steam pipes and apparatus the then value of the same, as such value shall be determined by three competent and disinterested appraisers, one chosen by said executors and one by said company, and the third by the two so chosen, and the award of the majority of such persons shall be binding on the parties hereto. In default of such payment for any of said property so to be paid for as aforesaid, said company may at its election remove the same, but without causing unnecessary damage to said buildings. Said value of the boiler, steam pipes and apparatus shall be determined by their value in said buildings, and not their value when removed therefrom.

1219. Stipulation for Renewal by Indorsement.

And it is further agreed, that in case the said party of the second part shall, with the written consent of said party of the first part, indorse hereon or on the duplicate hereof, at any time hold over the said premises beyond the period above specified as the termination of this lease, then said party of the second part shall hold said premises upon the same terms and under the same stipulations and agreements as are in this instrument contained, and no holding over by said party of the second part shall operate to renew this lease without such written consent of said party of the first part.

1220. Proviso as to Re-Entry, With Waiver of Notice.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that if the said rent shall remain unpaid days after the same shall become payable as aforesaid, or if the said party of the second part shall assign this lease, or underlet or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of said demised premises, or use the same for any purpose but that hereinbefore authorized, or make any alteration therein, without the consent of the party of the first part in writing, or shall commit waste, or suffer the same to be committed on said premises, or injure or misuse the same, then this lease shall thereupon, by virtue of this express stipulation therein, expire and terminate, and the party of the first part may at any time thereafter re-enter said premises, and the same have and possess as of his former estate, and, without such re-entry, may recover possession thereof in the manner prescribed by the statute relating to summary process; it being understood that no demand for the rent, and no re-entry for condition broken, as at common law, shall be necessary to enable the lessor to recover such possession pursuant to said statute relating to summary process, but that all right to any such demand or any such re-entry is hereby expressly waived by the said party of the second part.

AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED between the parties hereto, that whenever this lease shall terminate, either by lapse of time or by virtue of any of the express stipulations therein, the said lessee hereby waives all right to any notice to quit possession, as prescribed by the statute relating to summary proceedings.

N., as aforesaid, and observe and perform the covenants, conditions, and agreements therein contained, and will keep the said [lessor], his executors, administrators, and assigns, indemnified against the payment of the said rent, and the performance of the same covenants, conditions, and agreements, except so far as such covenants, conditions, and agreements are conformable to the covenants, conditions, and agreements hereinbefore contained on the part of, and which ought to be observed and performed by the said lessor, his executors, administrators, and assigns.

1223. Ground Lease, Twenty-one Years, With Covenants to Build, and for Renewals.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , , between the A. B. corporation, of the city of , of the first part, and Y. Z., of the city of , of the second part, * WITNESSETH: That the said parties of the first part, in consideration of the rents and covenants hereinafter reserved and contained, have granted, demised, and to farm let, and by these presents do grant, demise, and to farm let, unto the said party of the second part, all that certain lot of land, situate, lying, and being in the ward of the city of New York being part of the lands of the said parties of the first part, and distinguished [here insert description of the premises]:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said lot of land, unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, and assigns, from the day of , , for and during, and until the full end and term of years thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended; yielding and paying for the same, yearly and every year during the said term, unto the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, the sum of dollars, lawful money of the United States, in two equal half-yearly payments; that is to say, on the first day of May and on the first day of November, in each and every year during the term hereby granted; the first payment to be made on the first day of now next ensuing; PROVIDED, always, that if it shall happen that the said yearly rent, or any part thereof, shall not be paid on any day on which the same ought to be paid as aforesaid, then and at all times thereafter, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, into the said demised premises, or any part thereof, in the name of the whole, to re-enter, and to repossess, have, and enjoy the same again as of their former estate and interest therein, anything herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding. And the said party of the second part, for himself, his executors, administrators, and assigns, does hereby covenant and agree, to and with the said parties of the first part, their successors and assigns, that the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall and will, half-yearly, and every year during the term hereby granted, well and truly pay unto the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, the said rent hereby reserved, at the days and times hereinbefore limited for the payment thereof, without fraud or delay: And, also, that the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall and will, at his and their own proper cost and charges, bear, pay, and discharge all such duties, taxes, assessments, and payments, extraordinary, as well as ordinary, as shall, during the term hereby granted, be imposed or grow due and payable out of or for the said demised premises or any part thereof, by virtue of any present or future law of the United States of America, or of the state of _____, or of the corporation of the city of _____, or otherwise. And also, that the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, or any of them, shall not, nor will, at any time or times hereafter during the term hereby granted, lease, let, or demise, all or any part of the said premises, nor assign, transfer, or make over the same, or this present lease, or any of his or their term or time therein, to any person or persons whomsoever, without the consent of the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, in writing, under their seal, for that purpose first had and obtained, anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and also, that the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, or any of them, shall not, nor will, at any time hereafter during the term hereby granted, erect, make, establish, or carry on, nor cause or suffer to be erected, made, established, or carried on, in any manner, on any part of the above-described and hereby demised premises, any stable, slaughter-house, tallow chandlery, smith-shop, forge, furnace, or brass foundry, nail, or other iron factory, or any manufactory for the making of glass, starch, glue, varnish, vitriol, turpentine, or ink; or for tanning, dressing, preparing, or keeping skins, hides, or leather; or any distillery, brewery, sugar bakery, or any other manufactory, trade, business, or calling whatsoever, which may be in anywise noxious or offensive to the neighboring inhabitants; and lastly, that the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall and will, on the last day of the term hereby granted, or other sooner determination thereof, well and truly surrender and deliver up the said hereby demised premises into the possession of the said parties of the first part, their successors, or assigns, without fraud or delay. PROVIDED, always, that it shall be lawful for the said parties of the first part, their successors and assigns, when and as often as default shall be made in the payment of the said rent, or any part thereof, to distrain for the same, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And provided, further, and this present lease is upon this express condition, that if the said party of the second part, his successors or assigns, shall at any time during the term hereby granted, erect, make, establish, or carry on, or cause or suffer to be erected, made, established, or carried on, in any manner, on any part of the above-described and hereby demised premises, any stable, slaughter-house, tallow chandlery, smith-shop, forge, furnace, or brass foundry, nail, or other iron factory, or any manufactory for the making of glass, starch, glue, varnish, vitriol, turpentine, or ink; or for tanning, dressing, preparing, or keeping skins, hides, or leather; or any distillery, brewery, sugar bakery, or any other manufactory, trade, business, or calling whatsoever, which may be in anywise noxious or offensive to the neighboring inhabitants; or shall fail in the performance of any or either of the covenants, conditions, or provisions in these presents contained which, on the part and behalf of the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, and assigns, are or ought to be observed, performed, fulfilled, and kept, then and from thenceforth, this present indenture and the estate hereby granted, and every clause, article, and thing herein contained, on the part and behalf of the said parties of the first part, to be performed, fulfilled, and kept, shall cease, determine, and be utterly void, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, anything herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding. And the said party of the second part, for himself, his executors, administrators, and assigns, hereby further covenants and agrees, to and with the said parties of the first part, their successors and assigns, that he, the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall and will, within _____ years from the commencement of the term hereby granted, erect, and build, or cause to be erected and built, on the premises hereby demised, so as to cover the whole front thereof, a good and substantial dwelling-house, _____ stories high, to be covered with slate or metal, and the front thereof to be finished in such style as may be approved of by the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns. And it is hereby mutually covenanted and agreed, by and between the parties to these presents, that if the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall and do, within _____ years from the commencement of the term hereby granted, erect and build, or cause to be erected and built, on the premises hereby demised, such dwelling-house as is above described, then the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, shall and will, at the end and expiration of the term hereby demised, grant, and execute unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, at his or their expense, a renewal of this lease, for the further term of twenty-one years thence ensuing, at such annual rent as shall be agreed upon by the said parties, their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, respectively, in half-yearly payments (but not less than the rent above reserved); and in the event of their not agreeing upon such rent, each party shall choose a disinterested person to ascertain the same, which persons so chosen shall themselves respectively be owners, in fee-simple, of one or more lots of land in the neighborhood of the one hereby demised, and shall, in making their award or determination in the said premises, under oath, appraise and value the said lot of land hereby demised, at its full and fair worth or price at private sale, considering the same as an unincumbered vacant lot, and _____ per cent. on the amount of their said appraisement or valuation shall be the annual rent of the said lot of land for such further term; and in case the arbitrators should differ in the amount of their appraisement or valuation, as aforesaid, they shall then choose an umpire, qualified as aforesaid, whose decision, under oath, shall fix and determine the same, and _____ per cent. on the amount of the appraisement or valuation so fixed and determined shall be the annual rent of the said lot of land for such further term. And it is further mutually covenanted and agreed, by and between the parties aforesaid, that at the expiration of the term to be granted by such renewed release as aforesaid, the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, shall have the full liberty and choice either to grant a second renewal of this lease for the further term of _____ years thence ensuing, at such annual rent, payable half-yearly (but not less than the rent of the preceding term), as shall be ascertained and determined in the manner aforesaid, or to pay unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the value of the said house to be built and erected as aforesaid, which value shall be ascertained by three disinterested persons on oath, to be chosen as aforesaid. And it is further mutually covenanted and agreed, by and between the parties aforesaid, that in case the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, shall and do elect and choose to grant a second renewal of this lease as aforesaid, they, the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, shall still have and retain the full liberty and choice at the expiration of the term to be granted by such second renewal, either to grant a third renewal of this lease for the further term of twenty-one years thence ensuing, at such annual rent, payable half-yearly (but not less than the rent of the last preceding term), as shall be ascertained and determined in the manner aforesaid, or to pay unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the value of the said house, which value shall be ascertained as aforesaid; and in this manner, at the expiration of the term to be granted by the first renewal of this lease, and at the expiration of each and every term which may be thereafter granted by each and every subsequent renewal of this lease, the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, shall still have and retain the full liberty and choice, either to grant a further renewal of this lease for the further term of twenty-one years, at such annual rent, payable half-yearly (but not less than the rent of the last preceding term), as shall be ascertained and determined in the manner aforesaid, or to pay unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the value of the said house, which value shall be ascertained as aforesaid. And it is further mutually covenanted and agreed, by and between the parties aforesaid, that whenever the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, shall refuse to grant a renewal of this lease as aforesaid, the said house shall be valued and paid for as aforesaid: Provided, always, that the party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall not be compelled to surrender the premises until such payment be made or tendered. And it is further mutually covenanted and agreed, by and between the parties aforesaid, that in case the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, shall at the expiration of the term to be granted by the first renewal of this lease, or at the expiration of any term which may be granted thereafter, by any subsequent renewal thereof, elect and choose to pay unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the value of the said house to be ascertained as aforesaid, and shall actually make such payment or tender the same, he, the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall then deliver up the said house in the same order and condition in which it was at the time of its valuation as aforesaid, and also all and singular other the premises hereby demised, into the hands and possession of the said parties of the first part, their successors or assigns, without fraud or delay. And lastly, it is mutually covenanted and agreed, by and between the parties aforesaid, that each renewed lease shall contain the like covenants, provisos, and conditions, as herein contained, except as regards the erection of any house or building on the said demised premises.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, to one part of these presents, remaining with the parties of the first part, the party of the second part hath set his hand and seal; and to the other part thereof, remaining with the party of the second part, the parties of the first part have caused their seal to be affixed, on the day and year first above written.

By order of the trustees of _____, in the city of New York.
[SEAL.] (Signed.)

Clerk.

1224. The Same; Renewal Lease.

[As in Form 1217 to *, thence continuing as follows:]

WHEREAS, the said parties of the first part, by indenture dated the day of _____, did grant and demise unto _____, all that certain lot of land hereinafter described for the term of twenty-one years, from the day of _____ then next, subject to certain rents, covenants, and conditions therein reserved and expressed. And, among other things, it was thereby agreed, that in case of the erection on the said lot of land of a building of such description as is therein specified, the said parties of the first part should, at the expiration of the said term, grant a new lease of the said lot for the further term of twenty-one years, at an annual rent to be agreed upon or ascertained as is therein mentioned, and with such covenants, conditions, and provisos to be therein inserted as are hereinafter contained; and,

WHEREAS, a building has been erected on the said lot of land of the description mentioned in the said lease, according to the terms thereof, whereby the said party of the second part is entitled to a renewal of the said lease for such further term, at an annual rent hereinafter reserved, and now in the manner prescribed by the said lease, payable half-yearly, and subject to the covenants, conditions, and provisos hereinafter contained.

Now, THEREFORE, this agreement [*proceeding as in preceding form from **].

1225. Lease by a Municipal Corporation for Purposes of a Fair, Lessees Covenantee to Erect Building.

THIS INDENTURE, made this _____ day of _____, one thousand nine hundred and _____, between the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New York,¹ parties of the first part, and Y. Z., of said city, party of the second part:

WHEREAS, a certain resolution was heretofore adopted by the common council of said city, and approved by the mayor of said city, on the day of _____, which said resolution is as follows: "Resolved, That the free use and sole occupation of the ground known as Reservoir Square, belonging to the corporation of the city of New York, and bounded [etc.], be, and the same is hereby granted to Y. Z. and his associates for the term of five years, if required and used by them for the purpose hereinafter mentioned for that period; if not for the period of time, they may use the same not beyond five years from the adoption of this resolution, said Y. Z. and his associates paying therefor the rent of one dollar per annum, whereon to erect a building of iron and glass for the purpose of an industrial exhibition of all nations, in pursuance of the prayer of the petitioner, annexed, provided that the price of admission to said building for individuals shall at no time exceed fifty cents.

Now, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said parties of the first part have letten, and by these presents do grant, demise, and to farm let unto the said party of the second part, the free use and sole occupation of that part of the ground known as Reservoir Square, which is particularly designated, being colored pink on a map hereto annexed, drawn by _____, city surveyor, dated [etc.], which said map is considered a part of this indenture, said portion of said ground measuring [etc.], for the purpose of erecting thereon a building of iron and glass, for the purpose of an industrial exhibition of all nations, pursuant to the prayer of said Y. Z. heretofore presented to the said common council, and on file in the office of the clerk of said common council, for the term of five years, if required and used by the said party of the second part for the purpose hereinbefore mentioned for that period; if not, for the period of time he may use the same for said purpose, not beyond five years from the said _____ day of _____, one thousand nine hundred and _____, at the yearly rent or sum of one dollar per annum, to be paid in equal quarter-yearly payments; and it is agreed, that if any rent shall be due and unpaid, or if default shall be made in any of the covenants herein contained, then it shall be lawful for the said parties of the first part to re-enter the said premises, and to remove all persons therefrom. And the said party of the second part doth hereby covenant to pay to the said parties of the first part the said yearly rent as herein specified; and it is expressly understood and agreed, and this indenture is upon the express condition that the said party of the second part and his associates shall and will erect, upon the said premises, such a building as is described in the petition and resolution aforesaid, and that the price of admission to said building for individuals shall at no time exceed fifty cents, and that at the expiration of the said term, the said party of the second part shall quit and surrender the premises hereby demised, in as good state and condition as reasonable use and wear thereof will permit, damages by the elements excepted; and the said parties of the first part do covenant, that the said party of the second part, on paying the said yearly rent, and performing the covenants and agreements aforesaid, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold, and enjoy the said demised premises for the term aforesaid.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties of the first part have hereunto caused the common seal of the said city of _____ to be affixed, and the party of the second part has hereunto set his hand and seal, the day and year first above written. [Signatures.]

By the common council. [SEAL.]

1226. Covenants in a Farm Lease on Shares.

And the said party of the second part hereby covenants and agrees, to and with the party of the first part, that he will occupy, till, and in all respects cultivate the premises above mentioned, during the term aforesaid, in a husbandlike manner, and according to the usual course of husbandry practiced in the neighborhood; that he will not commit any waste or damage, or suffer any to be done; that he will keep the fences and buildings on the said premises in good repair, reasonable wear thereof and damages by the elements excepted; and that he will deliver to the said party of the first part, his heirs, executors, or administrators, or to his or their order, one equal half of all the proceeds and crops produced on the said farm and premises aforesaid, of every name, kind, and description,—to be divided on the said premises, in the mow, stack, or half-bushel, according to the usual course and custom of making such divisions in the neighborhood, and within a reasonable time after such crops shall have been gathered and harvested.

It is further agreed between the parties hereto that the party of the first part shall provide one equal half of all seed or seeds necessary to be sown or planted on said premises, and pay all taxes and assessments upon the same; that the party of the second part is to do, or cause to be done, all necessary work and labor in and about the cultivation of the said premises; that he is to have full permission to inclose, pasture, or till and cultivate the said premises, so far as the same may be done without injury to the reversion, and to cut all necessary timber for firewood, farming purposes, and repairing fences; and that he is to give up and yield peaceable possession of the said premises at the expiration of his said term.

1227. Surrender of a Lease Indorsed Thereon.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, Y. Z., the within-named lessee [or, assignee of the within-named lessee], in consideration of dollars, to me in hand paid, do, for myself, my executors and administrators, bargain, sell, surrender, and yield up, from the day of the date hereof, unto the within-named Y. Z., lessor [or other owner of the reversion], and his heirs [or, his executors and administrators], the within indenture of lease, and the lands and premises therein mentioned, and the term of years therein yet to come, with all my right, title, and interest thereto, and that free and clear of all incumbrances of what kind soever, at any time, by me, or by my privity, consent, or procurement, done, committed, or suffered.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 1204].

1228. Lease of Rooms in a College Fraternity House.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and , WITNESSETH: That , a corporation organized and existing by and under the laws of the state of , doth hereby lease, demise, and let unto , subject to the rules and regulations of College, and of the Fraternity, for preserving order on the premises, the suite of rooms known as No. , on the floor in its building on and streets, in the city of

To HAVE AND TO HOLD the premises from 1st, , to last day in , , both inclusive; yielding and paying therefor the rent of dollars per year, so long as the lessee shall hold the premises; and the said lessee hereby promise to pay the said rent in seven equal installments, one each on the day of , of each year, during the continuance of this lease, or any renewal thereof.

And the said lessee also hereby agree that unless on or before the day of , he shall give to the lessor written notice of intention to vacate the leased premises at the expiration of the term above specified, then this lease shall, at the option and election of the lessor, be considered as renewed and extended for another year from and after the expiration of the term above specified; and the lessee hereby make the like covenants with respect to each year during which this lease shall continue in force.

The said lessee also agree to be responsible for, and make good, any damage done either by breaking of the window glass, or other injury to the said rooms, or other premises or property, during the time of occupancy as aforesaid.

The said lessor also agrees to make the necessary repairs to keep the said premises in tenantable repair, within a reasonable time after being notified by said lessees, or either of them, that such repairs are necessary.

The said lessor also agrees to properly care for said rooms during the continuance of this lease without expense to the lessee, and the chamber work of the rooms is to be performed under the direction and at the expense of the lessor.

The said lessor also agrees to properly heat and light said rooms during the continuance of this lease, as the same are now heated and lighted, without expense to the lessee, except that said lessee shall light said rooms at own expense, between the hours of midnight and seven A. M. [and shall heat and light said rooms at own expense, during the times set apart by said college for vacations]. Provided, nevertheless, that the said lessee shall furnish the necessary gas and electric light fixtures for said rooms, and keep the same in repair at own risk and expense.

And the lessee further agree to quit and deliver up the premises to the lessor, or its attorney, peaceably and quietly, at the expiration of the lease, in as good order and condition, reasonable use and wear thereof, fire, and other unavoidable casualties excepted, as the same now are, or may be put into by the said lessor, and to pay the rent as above stated, and for such further time as the lessee may hold the same, and not make or suffer any waste thereof; nor lease, nor underlet, nor permit any person or persons to occupy or improve the same, or make, or suffer to be made, any alteration therein, but with the approbation of the lessor thereto, in writing, having been first obtained; and that the lessor may enter to view and make improvements, and to expel the lessees, if either of them shall fail to make the payments as aforesaid, or make or suffer any strip or waste thereof, or violate any of the rules and regulations established as aforesaid.

All furniture and other property which may be on the premises, during the continuance of this lease, shall be at the sole risk of the lessee; and if the same be destroyed or damaged by fire or water, or by use or abuse of the electric wiring, or fixtures, or of the steam or water pipes and fixtures, or leaking or bursting of the pipes, or from any other cause, the lessor shall not be responsible or liable for such destruction or damage; unless such damage is caused by said house not being in tenantable repair through the negligence of the lessor to keep the same in tenantable repair, as hereinbefore provided. The lessee hereby agree to pay any and all damages caused by his neglect, or misuse, or abuse, of the water, steam, gas, or electric fixtures during the lease.

And this lease is upon this further condition, that in case of violation of any of the said rules and regulations, so prescribed as aforesaid, or in case the said lessees, or either of them, shall be expelled or dismissed from College, or in case the president of College shall request that the said lessees, or either of them, be not allowed to remain in the premises, or if said lessees, or either of them, shall at any time cease to be a member of said chapter, or be suspended from membership therein, or if said chapter or said lessor shall at any time be of the opinion that the presence of said lessee [or either of them], in said premises is detrimental to said chapter or fraternity, or in case of violation of any or all of the conditions hereinbefore named, it shall and may be lawful for said lessor, or its attorney, without further notice, forthwith to enter and expel from the premises said lessee [or either of them], or any person or persons in possession, so violating any of said regulations or conditions. Provided, however, that this is in no event to impair or discharge the claim of the lessor, its successors and assigns, to the rent and other payments agreed to be paid as above specified; except that if said lessee [or either of them], shall cease to be a student in said college, and is or are expelled or dismissed from said college, or chapter, or fraternity, the said lessee may terminate this lease by giving at least one month's notice thereof to the lessor in writing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said lessor and lessee have hereunto interchangeably set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

1229. Lease Containing Chattel Mortgage Covenants, to Secure the Rent.

[As in form No. 1204, to *, continuing as follows:]

THIS INDENTURE FURTHER WITNESSETH: That the said party of the second part, for and in consideration of the sum of [insert the whole sum to be paid under the lease] dollars, in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, does hereby grant, sell, convey, and confirm unto the said party of the first part, his heirs and assigns, all and singular the following described goods and chattels, to wit [here insert a full schedule or list of the articles].

TOGETHER with all and singular the appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the same unto the said party of the first part, his executors, administrators, and assigns, to his and their sole use forever; and the said party of the second part, for himself and for his executors, administrators, and assigns, does covenant and agree to and with the said party of the first part, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, that he is lawfully possessed of said goods and chattels as of his own property, that the same are free from all incumbrances, and that he will, and his executors and administrators shall warrant and defend the same unto the said party of the first part, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, against the lawful claims and demands of all persons.

PROVIDED, NEVERTHELESS, that if the said party of the second part, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, unto the said party of the first part, or his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, the said sum of dollars, rent above reserved, punctually, and in the manner and at the times and place above mentioned, then and from thenceforth these presents, and everything herein contained, shall cease and be null and void.

AND PROVIDED ALSO, that it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, and assigns, to retain possession of the said granted goods and chattels, and at his or their own expense to keep and to use and enjoy the same, until the said party of the second part, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall make default in the payment of the said rent above specified, at the time or times, and in the manner hereinbefore provided, or unless the said party of the first part shall fear diminution, removal, or waste for want of proper care, or until the said party of the second part shall sell or assign, or attempt to sell or assign, said goods and chattels, or any part thereof, or if any writ issued from any court shall be levied on any part of the above-described goods and chattels; that then, and in any of the aforesaid cases, all of said sum of dollars, above reserved as rent for said demised premises, shall become due and payable, and the said party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, agents or attorneys, or any of them, may elect to take possession of the said property, and for that purpose may pursue the same, or any part thereof, wherever it may be found, and also may enter any of the premises of the said party of the second part, wherever the said goods and chattels may be, or be supposed to be, with or without force or process of law, and search for the same, and, if found, to take possession of and remove, and sell and dispose of said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the rent due, and the balance of rent for the whole unexpired term, whether due or not due, at public auction, to the highest bidder, after giving ten days' notice of the time, place, and terms of sale, together with a description of the property to be sold, either by publication in some newspaper in the city of , or by similar notices posted up in three public places in the vicinity of such sale, or at private sale, with or without notice, for cash or on credit, as the said party of the first part, or his heirs, administrators, or assigns, agents or attorneys, or any of them, may elect, and out of the money arising from such sale, to retain, first, all costs and charges for pursuing, searching for, taking, removing, keeping, storing, advertising, and selling of such property, goods, chattels, and effects, and all prior liens, and second the rent due, and the balance of rent for the whole unexpired term, whether due or not due, rendering the overplus of the money arising from such sale, and the remainder of said goods and chattels, if any there shall be, unto said party of the second part, or his legal representatives.

IT IS EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, by and between the parties aforesaid, that if the rent above covenanted to be paid, or any part thereof, shall be behind or unpaid on the day of payment whereon the same ought to be paid, as aforesaid, or if default shall be made in any of the covenants herein contained, to be kept by said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, and assigns, it shall and may be lawful for the said party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators, agents, attorneys, or assigns, at his or their election, to declare said term ended, and into the said demised premises, or any part thereof, either with or without process of law, to re-enter, and that said party of the second part, or any other person or persons occupying, in, or upon the same, to expel, remove, and put out, using such force as may be necessary in so doing, and the said premises again to repossess and enjoy, as in his or their first and former estate, and to distrain for any rent that may be due thereon, upon any property belonging to the said party of the second part, whether the same be exempt from execution or distress by law or not, and the said party of the second part, in that case, hereby agrees to waive all legal right which he may have to hold or retain any such property, under any exemption law now in force in this state, or in any other way. And if at any time said term shall be ended at such election of said party of the first part, or his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, as aforesaid, or in any other way, said party of the second part, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, hereby covenant and agree to surrender and deliver up said above-described premises and property, peaceably, to said party of the first part, or his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, immediately upon the determination of said term as aforesaid, and if he shall remain in possession of the same after such default, or after the termination of this lease in any of the ways above-named, he shall be deemed guilty of a forcible detainer of said demised premises, and shall be subject to all the conditions and provisions above named, and to eviction and removal, forcibly or otherwise, with or without process of law, as above stated.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

1230. Lease of Railroad Rolling Stock.

THIS AGREEMENT, made the day of , in the year , between the Equipment Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the state of , and hereinafter called the lessor, party of the first part, and , hereinafter called the lessee, party of the second part, WITNESSETH: That the said parties, for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar, and of other good, valuable, and sufficient considerations to each by the other in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and also in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, have covenanted and agreed, and do hereby covenant and agree with each other as follows:

First. The said lessor agrees to let and furnish for the use of the lessee the hereinafter mentioned railroad equipment and rolling stock, which is described, lettered, and numbered as follows, to wit: [here describe marks]: and to allow the lessee to retain and use the same for the purposes of its usual business for the period of time hereinafter specified, and free from interruption or interference except as hereinafter provided.

Second. The lessor agrees to deliver the said equipment and rolling stock leased under this contract on or before the following dates, and at the following points: [state these fully].

And the lessee agrees to receive the same there promptly on arrival; and in case of any delay, neglect, or refusal on the part of the lessee so to receive said equipment and rolling stock, all expenses and charges arising from such delay shall be payable by the said lessee, and, during such delay, the said equipment and rolling stock shall be deemed, for all the purposes of this contract, to be in the possession and at the risk of the lessee.

Third. The lessee agrees to pay rent for the use of the said equipment and rolling stock as follows:

$ per month for the use of each locomotive;
 $ per month for the use of each passenger car;

Fourth. The said rent upon each parcel of the said equipment and rolling stock leased under this contract shall commence from and including the day following its delivery by the lessor, at the points designated, and shall continue during the existence of this contract, and so long thereafter as the same shall be detained from the lessor. Such rentals shall be due monthly, and shall be payable by the lessee, at the office of the lessor in city, in

United States currency, or in sight drafts on _____, without deduction or delay, on the fifteenth day of each month, according to the rental account for the preceding month, as hereinafter provided: and for the purpose of estimating the rent upon any fractional part of a month, each month shall be considered as having thirty days, and the daily rental as being equal to one-thirtieth part of the rental for one month. It is expressly understood and agreed, that the said equipment and rolling stock has been furnished for the operation, construction, and improvement of the road of the lessee, and that the rental is part of the construction and working expenses of such lessee, and that such rentals shall have the same preference of payment and lien as is or may be given by law against said lessee to claims for material supplied or labor furnished for the construction, improvement, or operation of its road.

Fifth. Nothing herein contained shall affect the lessor's absolute ownership of and title to said equipment and rolling stock, such ownership and title being hereby expressly reserved to and retained by the lessor, and the lessee agrees not to sublet or sublease the said equipment and rolling stock, or any part thereof, nor to permit the same, or any part thereof, to pass out of its possession, or from under its control, nor to be taken from off its railroad, except in the ordinary and regular course of its legitimate transportation business over the lines of other companies. And the lessee agrees that it will not, in any manner, suffer or permit the said equipment and rolling stock, or any part thereof, to be pledged, seized, or held for any tax, debt, lien, or obligation whatsoever, nor to be in any manner incumbered by or in consequence of any such tax, debt, lien, or obligation; and that in case any state, county, or other tax shall be imposed or payable upon said equipment and rolling stock, or any part thereof, or upon the rental or earnings thereof, or any part thereof, during the continuance of this contract, or before the actual redelivery of the said equipment and rolling stock to the lessor, the lessee will promptly pay such tax, debt, or obligation, and relieve such rolling stock from the lien thereof, and in case of its failure so to do, the said lessor may pay such taxes, debts, or obligations, and all charges and expenses connected therewith or arising therefrom; and the amount so paid, with interest thereon from the time of such payment, shall forthwith be due and payable from the lessee to the lessor, and shall be collectible in the same manner as other moneys due hereunder.

Sixth. The lessee further agrees, that it will cause, at its own cost and expense, all the said equipment and rolling stock at all times to be maintained in good order and repair, making needed repairs promptly, so that there shall be no deterioration in value or condition of any such equipment and rolling stock other than that resulting from age, and that the said lessee will, at the expiration or other determination of this lease, or any extension thereof, deliver said equipment and rolling stock in such good order and repair to said lessor, or its order; and if said equipment and rolling stock are not in such good order and repair, said lessee shall pay said lessor on demand such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary to make the necessary and proper repairs. The delivery aforesaid shall be made at _____, and the lessor shall have the right, without expense to it, to keep and store the said equipment and rolling stock upon any of the railways or premises of the lessee until a reasonable time for their removal has elapsed thereafter.

Seventh. The said lessor shall have the right from time to time to cause the said equipment and rolling stock to be inspected by any person to be appointed by it, and such person shall be furnished with the necessary authority to travel without charge over the railroads wherever said equipment and rolling stock may be, for the purpose of making such inspection. And the said lessor shall have a right to demand from time to time from the lessee, and the lessee shall furnish a written statement of the condition, location, and use of said equipment and rolling stock.

Eighth. The lessee further agrees, that it will immediately, and at its own cost and expense, replace any of said equipment and rolling stock that may be destroyed from any cause whatsoever by and with other equipment and rolling stock, of equal size, capacity, value, material, character, and construction, and all questions arising under this article of this agreement shall be settled and adjusted by the master mechanics of the several parties hereto, or by an impartial umpire to be selected as provided in article tenth of this agreement.

Ninth. This agreement shall continue in force for the space of unless the same shall be sooner terminated by mutual consent, or by or in consequence of the violation by the lessee of some or any of the provisions herein contained; and in case of the violation of any of the provisions hereof to be performed by the lessee, or in case of its default in the payment of any part of the rental, or expenses of repairing, or any other sum or sums that may be due hereunder (whether the same shall have been demanded or not), or of any neglect or failure on the part of the lessee to maintain the equipment and rolling stock in the condition required hereby, or in case of any other default or failure on its part under this agreement, or in case any proceedings of any kind shall be commenced against the lessee for the appointment of a receiver, or for the foreclosure of any deeds of trust or mortgage, or in case of the institution of any proceedings, either at law or in equity, whereby the control or ownership of such equipment and rolling stock might be affected or disturbed, then and in either of such events it shall be lawful for the lessor, at its option, to forthwith demand, and, with such force as may be necessary, to enter upon the premises and railroad of the lessee, or of any other person or corporation where such equipment and rolling stock, or any part thereof, may be, and take immediate and maintain exclusive possession and control of all of said equipment and rolling stock, or any part thereof, and as attorneys in fact or agents of said lessee to take, hold, and have the said equipment and rolling stock, or any part thereof, with or without the order or decree of any court of equity, or any other court having jurisdiction in the premises, and, at the option of such lessor, to declare and cause this lease to be wholly or in part annulled and canceled.

Tenth. Upon the expiration or other determination of this lease or any extension thereof, the lessee agrees to surrender to the lessor, or its authorized agents, all of the property leased, as provided in the foregoing sixth article hereof, and said lessee further agrees to pay on demand all rent then due for the use of said equipment and rolling stock, and all charges thereon, and all other sums that may have been paid or incurred by the lessor on account of the failure of the lessee to carry out any of the provisions of this agreement. And it is hereby further mutually agreed that the general master mechanics of the parties hereto (or in case of their failure to agree, an impartial umpire of their selection), shall be the sole and final authority to decide upon the condition of the said rolling stock; and in case of the failure of the lessee to deliver the rolling stock as aforesaid at the points agreed, the lessee hereby agrees to pay, on demand, all costs and expenses of bringing or removing said rolling stock to the point or points aforesaid, and all rental accruing during such removal, and furthermore agrees to pay all damages, charges, and expenses occasioned by its neglect or refusal to comply with any of the covenants herein contained to be by it kept and performed.

Eleventh. The lessee shall and will plainly and permanently mark or cause to be so marked on each side of each and every article of equipment or rolling stock received hereunder the words " Equipment Company, owner " and the proper number, and will not allow the name or designation of any other person or company as owner to be placed on any such equipment or rolling stock. In the event of any such marks being destroyed, the lessee will immediately restore the same, and will do such other acts as the lessor shall require for the full and complete protection of its rights hereunder. In case the lessor shall sell and assign any of such equipment and rolling stock, the name of such assignee as owner shall be placed on the said equipment and rolling stock if so required.

Twelfth. It is also agreed, in case of any default hereunder on the part of the lessee, that all the earnings of the said equipment and rolling stock shall then and thereafter be and become payable to the lessor, and be applied and received by it as if received under the provisions of the fourth article hereof, and the lessee agrees forthwith upon such default, and hereby authorizes and empowers the lessor to notify the Railroad Clearing House Association or the railroad companies that at the time may be owing for the service or use of such equipment and rolling stock to pay over such earnings to such lessor. Such notice, however, shall not be necessary in order to enable the lessor to collect and receive such earnings in case of default.

Thirteenth. And the said lessee hereby agrees, that in case of any default on its part as aforesaid, it will not set up, claim, or seek to take advantage of any valuation, stay of execution, appraisement, or extension laws which might prevent, postpone, hinder, or delay the right of the lessor to take possession of or operate or control the said equipment and rolling stock, or any part thereof, or the immediate enforcement of its rights hereunder, without and free from appraisement, valuation, stay, or other condition or hindrance, but the said lessee will and does hereby waive the benefit of any and all such valuation, stay, appraisement, or other laws to such effect as aforesaid.

Fourteenth. All the provisions of this agreement shall apply to and bind the personal representatives, successors, or assigns of the respective parties hereto. And the lessee doth hereby covenant that it will at all times hereafter, upon reasonable request, make, do, execute, and deliver all such further or other reasonable assurances, acts, and agreements as shall be necessary to protect the said equipment and rolling stock, or any part thereof, or the ownership or control thereof, for the benefit of the lessor; and that in case any of the said equipment and rolling stock shall in the course of traffic be transferred from said lessee to any other person or persons or corporations, such other persons or corporations, so long as such equipment and rolling stock shall remain in their possession, shall hold the same as bailees of the lessor and not of the lessee, and shall be answerable to the lessor for the same, and the lessee, in any and all arrangements it shall make with such other persons or corporations, shall act only as the agent of the lessor, and not on its own behalf.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have caused their respective corporate seals to be hereto annexed, and the same to be attested by their respective officers or agents, the day and year above written.

Executed in interchangeable duplicate copies.

1231. Car Trust Agreement.

AGREEMENT, made this day of , , by and between the Equipment Company, a corporation duly created and existing under the laws of (hereinafter called the lessor), and (hereinafter called the lessee).

First. The lessor agrees to lease and conditionally sell to the lessee, and the lessee agrees to hire and conditionally buy from the lessor the following described rolling stock and equipment, viz.: [here describe it].

Second. Said lessor enters into this contract and parts with the possession of its property, to wit, said above-described rolling stock and equipment, upon the following terms and conditions, to all of which said lessee does hereby agree.

Third. Delivery of the said rolling stock and equipment to be as follows: [here describe the places and terms of delivery, and also the times of delivery].

Fourth. Such renting and hiring to be in respect to said above-described rolling stock and equipment for the period of from and after the day of , (which said date it is agreed shall be the average date of delivery), subject, however, to the provisions and conditions hereinafter named.

Fifth. It is agreed that the value of said rolling stock and equipment is as follows: [here state particulars].

Sixth. And the rental and conditional purchase money thereof, payable by said lessee to said lessor, shall be as follows: [here state particulars].

Seventh. Each of said deferred payments shall be represented by a lease warrant, duly executed by the lessee, of the following form and tenor:

On the day of , , without grace, promises to pay to own order dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of per cent. per annum, from the day of , , for rental of rolling stock and equipment, under contract of lease with the Equipment Company, of even date herewith, payable with exchange on at .

Eighth. And further, lessee agrees, at lessee's own cost and expense, to inspect and receipt for all said rolling stock and equipment at the place where it is located before shipment. Said inspection may be made and receipts given by a representative of lessee. If, however, lessee orders any of said rolling stock and equipment to be shipped without such inspection having been made, then lessee agrees that such action shall be construed as a waiver of inspection as to the same, and takes it at lessee's own risk, hereby expressly agreeing that the same complies with all contracts in reference thereto, and is to lessee's entire satisfaction.

Ninth. Said lessee hereby relieves the lessor from all liability and responsibility for delays in the completion for shipment, shipment, and arrival at destination of any portion of said rolling stock and equipment, but it is hereby agreed that the lessee is and shall be subrogated to all rights the lessor may have against others by reason of such delay.

Tenth. At all times, the name — plates, marks, and signs of the ownership of lessor shall be fixed and retained upon each piece of said rolling stock and equipment for the purpose of making lessor's ownership publicly known. In the event of any such marks or signs being destroyed, the lessee shall immediately restore same.

Eleventh. And further, lessee agrees to use said rolling stock and equipment, and each and every item thereof, for the purpose for which it was originally constructed, and as rolling stock and equipment, and for no other purpose whatsoever.

Twelfth. The said rolling stock and equipment shall be insured by the lessor against loss by fire, for the full term of this lease, if possible, and for the benefit of lessor, and the insurance premiums shall be payable by the lessee: and in case any of said rolling stock and equipment shall be destroyed by fire, the lessee shall immediately replace the same by and with other equipment and rolling stock, as near as possible of like kind, style, size, capacity, material, character, construction, and value, and in that case lessor will pay to lessee all amounts it has collected from any insurance company, or others, on account of such loss.

Thirteenth. And further, lessee agrees to cause, at lessee's own expense, all the said rolling stock and equipment to be at all times maintained in good order and repair, making needed repairs promptly, so that there shall be no deterioration in value or condition of any thereof, other than that resulting from age, and will also immediately, and at lessee's own cost and expense, replace any equipment and rolling stock that may be destroyed, from any cause whatsoever (except fire, provided for in clause twelfth), by and with other equipment and rolling stock, as nearly as possible of like kind, style, size, capacity, material, character, construction, and value. And such repairs shall be made, and destroyed equipment replaced to the satisfaction of lessor.

Fourteenth. Said lessee further agrees to promptly pay all taxes and assessments imposed on any portion of said rolling stock and equipment, and the earnings thereof.

Fifteenth. And the lessee agrees, that it will not, in any manner, suffer or permit the said rolling stock and equipment, or any part thereof, to be pledged, seized, or held for any tax, debt, lien, or obligation whatsoever, nor to be in any manner incumbered by, or in consequence of, any such tax, debt, lien, or obligation, but shall forthwith promptly pay and discharge all such, to the end that no cloud shall affect lessor's absolute title to, and ownership of, all said rolling stock and equipment, free from all incumbrances and liens of any and every kind.

Sixteenth. And the lessee further agrees, from time to time, when requested so to do by the lessor, to make such reports in writing concerning the said rolling stock and equipment as lessor desires.

Seventeenth. The lessee further agrees, that the lessor shall have the right, from time to time, during the continuance of this contract, to cause all the said equipment and rolling stock to be inspected by any person to be appointed by lessor, and the lessee shall provide suitable facilities, and furnish such person all necessary information for making a complete and thorough examination and inspection of all said rolling stock and equipment, and shall pay all the expenses of such inspection, including a reasonable sum for the services of such person so making inspection.

Eighteenth. And further, if, at any time, lessee neglects or refuses to promptly pay any sum or sums of money, payable upon any claim or claims either against the lessee, or any portion of said rolling stock and equipment, and which sum or sums of money it is herein stipulated that lessee shall pay, then and in that event lessor may pay the same, and all interest thereon, and all expenses connected therewith, and arising therefrom, and from services and expenses of lessor's counsel and agents in investigating into, ascertaining, compromising, settling, and paying said claim or claims. And lessee hereby agrees to forthwith pay to lessor all and every said sum and sums of money, with interest thereon until paid, and also, and including all sums of money (together with interest thereon until paid), paid by lessor for said services, and expenses of lessor's counsel and agents. And it is hereby agreed, that if lessee neglects and refuses to pay to lessor the same, or any of them, forthwith (whether demanded or not), then, and in that event, each and all said sum and sums of money so paid by lessor shall be construed to have the same force and effect as the lease warrants so mentioned in clause twentieth, and payment shall be enforced in the manner described in clause twenty-second herein.

Nineteenth. And further, lessee covenants and agrees to do and perform promptly each and all the agreements and undertakings it is lessee's duty to do and perform, as herein stated, and to pay promptly, as they severally become payable, each and every payment of money it is lessee's duty to pay, as herein stated, and, from time to time, to do and perform such other things as shall be deemed necessary and expedient by the counsel of lessor, for the full and complete protection of the rights of lessor, as owner of said rolling stock and equipment.

Twentieth. And it is further agreed, that in event of default on the part of lessee in the prompt payment of any of the lease warrants so mentioned and described in clauses sixth and seventh, on the day on which the same falls due, or the prompt payment of each and every other sum of money provided herein, to be by lessee paid (whether demanded or not), or the due and prompt performance by the lessee of each and all the conditions and stipulations provided herein, to be done and performed by lessee, the lessor shall have the right, at its option, to declare each and all of said lease warrants and all other sums of money payable hereunder to be forthwith due and payable, rebating interest on such as are not due, and shall have the right to immediately bring and maintain suit for all thereof, and shall also have the right, by its agents, employees, and attorneys, to take and maintain immediate and exclusive possession of and remove all said rolling stock and equipment, and any portion thereof, wherever it may be found.

Twenty-first. And further, it is agreed, that in event of the seizure by lessor of said rolling stock and equipment, or any portion thereof, either as provided in clause twentieth or clause twenty-seventh, that lessor shall have the right to store any portion of said rolling stock and equipment on any side tracks and in any yard of lessee's for a reasonable time free of expense.

Twenty-second. And further, it is agreed, that in event of the seizure by lessor of said rolling stock and equipment, or any portion thereof, either as provided in clause twentieth or twenty-seventh, lessor shall have the right to sell the same, or any portion thereof, either with or without notice, at public or private sale, in one or more lots, at one or more places, and at different times, on either the same or different days, and if sold at public sale, the lessor shall have the right to bid upon, buy and take and own, in its own right, free of all claims and incumbrances whatsoever on the part of lessee and others, said rolling stock and equipment, and any portion thereof, and apply the proceeds, first, to the payment of all sums of money, and interest thereon, incurred in obtaining possession, removing, storing, advertising, and selling the same, including compensation to and expense of attorneys and agents and servants, employed in and about the same; also court costs, if any; second, to the payment of all claims, together with interest thereon, arising under clauses eighth, tenth, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, and twenty-eighth, and next, to the payment, pro rata, of all outstanding lease warrants so mentioned and described in clauses sixth and seventh, whether the same shall have then fallen due or not, adding interest to the face of the lease warrants where interest runs with them, and rebating interest on such as are not due, at the rate of five per cent. per annum, wherever lease warrants are not due and do not bear interest. If the net proceeds applicable to the payment thereof, as above set out, are more than sufficient to pay all such outstanding lease warrants and interest, then the surplus shall be payable to lessee, but if there be any deficit, after applying to the payment of said outstanding lease warrants said net proceeds so applicable as aforesaid to the payment thereof, then the lessee shall immediately pay such deficit, whether all of the said lease warrants have matured or not. Provided, further, that in and about giving notice of the sale of said equipment or any portion thereof, and in making any sale of any thereof, lessor shall be held only to do the same in good faith.

Twenty-third. And further, it is agreed, that in case of any default hereunder, on the part of the lessee, that all the mileage and earnings of the said rolling stock and equipment shall then and thereafter be and become payable to lessor, and applied by it, first, to the payment of all expenses incurred in ascertaining and collecting the same; second, to the payment of all sums and interest thereon, payable by lessor under the provisions of clauses eighth, tenth, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, and twenty-eighth; and third, towards the payment of said lease warrants, then due and payable and thereafter falling due. And further, it is hereby agreed, that forthwith, upon any such default, lessee shall notify all parties to pay over such earnings to lessor. Such notice shall not, however, be necessary to enable lessor to collect and receive such earnings in case of default. But lessor may take such steps as it thinks advisable to accomplish this result. And it is further agreed, that in case of default on the part of lessee in the prompt payment of any of the said lease warrants as and when they mature, that then and in that case, and as part of the working expenses of lessee, that lessee and all others holding under it (including receivers, assignees, executors, and administrators), shall pay to lessor for the use of said railroad rolling stock a rental, at the following rates:

 $ per month for ;

the same as and when received by lessor to be applied as above stated.

Twenty-fourth. And further, it is agreed, that in consideration of the due and prompt payment by lessee of all and every said lease warrants, and interest thereon, and each and every other sum of money, and interest thereon, which it is provided herein that lessee shall pay, and also due and prompt performance by lessee of each and every act it is herein provided lessee shall do and perform, then, and not till then, the said rolling stock and equipment so described herein shall become the absolute property of said lessee, and then, and not till then, this contract shall operate to transfer the title to and ownership of the same from lessor to lessee.

Twenty-fifth. It is mutually covenanted and agreed between the parties hereto, that although hereafter, by written agreement, the provisions as to the rental to be paid under this agreement may be changed and this agreement in other respects modified, yet that no such change or modification shall or can be made as shall in any respect or to any extent diminish the total sum due hereunder from the lessee, as rental or otherwise, and that no such modification or change shall or can be made as shall in any respect or to any extent change or affect the title to or the ownership of the rolling stock and equipment herein referred to, until the total sum due from the lessee hereunder, as rental or otherwise, as also the total sum due, as rental or otherwise, under any agreement changing or modifying this agreement, shall have been fully paid, by the lessee to the lessor.

Twenty-sixth. It is further mutually covenanted and agreed between the parties hereto, that in case hereafter this agreement, or any of said lease warrants, shall be transferred or assigned by the lessor, and thereafter, for any reason, the lessee shall be unable to pay, or neglect to pay, the whole or any part of any of the lease warrants hereinbefore referred to, and the lessor shall take up, acquire, or pay any of said lease warrants, or any part thereof, that then the lease warrants so taken up, acquired, or paid shall not be considered as having been paid by the said lessee, and the said lessor, who may have taken up, acquired, or paid the said lease warrants, or any part thereof, shall, as holders of the said lease warrants, have each and all of the rights hereunder, and in and to the security of this agreement of lease, pro rata with the total amount due hereunder, that the holders thereof would have had from whom the said warrants may have been taken up or acquired, or to whom the said lessor may have paid or transferred the same.

Twenty-seventh. Nothing herein contained shall affect the lessor's absolute ownership of and title to said rolling stock and equipment, such ownership and title being hereby expressly reserved to and retained by lessor, until divested as provided in clause twenty-fourth herein. And the lessee agrees not to sublet or sublease the said rolling stock and equipment, or any part thereof, nor to permit the same, or any part thereof, to pass out of the lessor's possession or from under lessee's control, nor to be taken off lessee's railroad, except in the regular and ordinary course of lessee's legitimate transportation business over the lines of other railroads, without the express consent of lessor, and such consent shall not be operative until indorsed in writing hereon and signed by the lessor. And further, in case any legal proceedings are had in any suit at law or in equity against lessee wherein a receiver is appointed, or in case of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of lessee, or the issuing out of any court of law or equity of any execution or writ of any kind whatsoever, whereby lessee's right of possession or use of any portion of said rolling stock and equipment, or lessor's ownership of, title to, or control over any portion of said rolling stock and equipment, is or might be affected and disturbed, then and in any or either of such events lessor, at its option, shall have the right to forthwith demand, and with such force as may be necessary to enter upon the premises of lessee, and of any and all other persons, firms, or corporations where such rolling stock and equipment, and any portion thereof, may be, and take and maintain immediate and exclusive possession and control thereof, and as attorneys in fact and agents of said lessee to take, hold, and have said rolling stock and equipment, and any portion thereof, with or without the decree or order of any court having jurisdiction in the premises, and at the option of lessor to cause this lease to be in whole or in part canceled and annulled, it being one of the express conditions inducing lessor to enter into this contract of lease, and part with the possession of said rolling stock and equipment, that no person, firm, or corporation, constable, sheriff, receiver, assignee, administrator, executor, officer, or caretaker of any court shall acquire any right, title, or interest in any portion of said rolling stock and equipment without the express consent of lessor, and no such consent shall be operative until indorsed hereon in writing and signed by lessor. And the happening of any of the events aforesaid, or the making of any contract by lessee, whereby the possession or use of said rolling stock and equipment by lessee solely is affected, hindered, or prevented, or the prompt performance by lessee of each and all the stipulations and conditions herein contained to be by lessee done and performed, is or may be hindered or prevented, or the rights and interests of lessor as herein set out in anywise affected or disturbed, shall operate as a cancellation of this lease, and lessor shall thereupon be restored to all its rights and the possession of all and every portion of said rolling stock and equipment, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as are provided in clauses twentieth, twenty-first, and twenty-second herein. And, provided, further, that in the event of any person, firm, or corporation, or any constable, sheriff, receiver, assignee, administrator, executor, officer, or caretaker of any court, acquiring any rights hereunder to said rolling stock and equipment, and any portion thereof (and which can only occur, as hereinbefore stated, by the express consent of lessor), then and in that event it is fully understood and agreed, by any and all said parties, that they and each of them accept and are bound by all the provisions, conditions, and stipulations of this lease, the same as said lessee is bound hereunder.

Twenty-eighth. And further, it is agreed, that lessee will reimburse the lessor for all expenses incurred by it attending the preparation of this contract, and the execution, acknowledgment, filing, and recording of this contract.

Twenty-ninth. All the provisions, conditions, and stipulations of this contract of lease shall bind, apply to, and inure to the benefit of the successors, executors, administrators, personal representatives, and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused these presents to be duly executed in the day and year first above written.

Company, party of the second part; and the U. Railway Company, hereinafter called the U. Company, party of the third part.

WHEREAS, the O. Company is a corporation organized and existing under the general laws of the state of , and is empowered among other things to construct, maintain, and operate railroad and telegraph lines in the state of , and in the territories of and ; and to build, purchase, own, and run steamships between any ports on the ocean, and steamboats on the , , and rivers; and also to consolidate with any railroad or railroads in said , on such terms as may be agreed upon; and also to facilitate and assist the construction, equipment, and operation of any railroad line in said , connecting or intending to connect or exchange traffic with the railroads, steamships, or steamboats of the O. Company, and for such purpose to subscribe for or purchase the stock or bonds of any company owning or operating such railroads, to guarantee or otherwise secure the payment of any such bonds, or the interest thereon, by pledge or mortgage of the property of the O. Company, and to consolidate with, lease, or contract for the operation and maintenance of said railroads; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company is also possessed of the other corporate powers, franchises, and privileges, as set forth in its original and supplemental articles of incorporation; which original and supplemental articles of incorporation are hereby referred to, and are intended to be read and taken as a part hereof, and as if herein written out at length; and the O. Company is also authorized to lease any or all of its said railroads, steamships, and steamboats, franchises, and other property, on such terms as may be agreed upon, and as herein provided; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company now owns and operates certain railroads between the following points, to wit: [here describe them fully and in detail]; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company also operates certain railroads which are owned by the C. Railroad Company, running between the following points, to wit: [here describe them particularly]; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company is the owner of substantially all the stock and of all bonds of the D. Railroad Company; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company also owns certain railroad grades or embankments, as follows: [here describe them]; which lines the said O. Company intends to complete and operate as part of its railroad system; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company also owns and operates certain steamships running between and , and between and ; and also steamboats plying on the , , and rivers; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company has heretofore entered into certain agreements with the Terminal Company of , and has also executed certain traffic contracts with the N. Railroad Company, dated on , , and , , and also a certain contract with the Telegraph Company, dated on the day of , , and with the Palace Car Company, dated on the day of , ; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company has heretofore executed its certain first mortgage, dated on the day of , , and two supplementary mortgages, dated on the day of , , in favor of the Trust Company of New York, to secure the payment of bonds issued by the O. Company, to the amount of million dollars, of which bonds to the amount of million dollars are now outstanding and unpaid; and,

WHEREAS, the said O. Company has also heretofore executed and issued certain debenture bonds to the amount of million dollars, said bonds being dated on the day of , , being payable to bearer at the O. Company's office, in Boston, on the day of , , and bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually; and the said debentures provide that whenever the O. Company shall make any further mortgage, it shall provide that out of the bonds issued thereunder an amount, the principal of which shall be equal in face value to the principal of said debentures then outstanding, shall be deposited with a trust company in New York, to be held in trust for the purpose of securing the payment of said debentures, and of applying the proceeds of said bonds to the redemption thereof, and there are now outstanding and unpaid said debenture bonds of the par value of million dollars; and,

WHEREAS, the O. Company has heretofore executed its certain consolidated mortgage, dated on the day of , , in favor of the Trust Company, of New York, which provides that the bonds secured thereby shall be dated on the day of , , and be payable forty years thereafter, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, and shall be limited to the rate of dollars per mile of constructed railroads, as therein set forth; and the O. Company has become entitled to issue bonds under the said consolidated mortgage to the amount of million dollars, of which there have been heretofore issued bonds of the par value of million dollars, leaving a residue of million dollars, for which amount the O. Company is now entitled to issue bonds in accordance with the terms of the said consolidated mortgage; and,

WHEREAS, the S. Railway Company is a corporation existing under an act of the congress of the United States, entitled "an act, etc., ," approved , , and is empowered to construct, operate, and own a railroad or railroads, from a point at or near , on the U. Railway, in the territory of , to the western boundary line of the territory of , etc., having express power and authority also to make running arrangements with any railroad or transportation company, or to lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire the charter, road, property, capital stock, or franchise of any such company; and the said S. Company has constructed its railroad from the said through the territories of and , to a point of connection with the railroad of the said O. Company at , in the state of ; and,

WHEREAS, the U. Railway Company is a corporation created by and existing under an act of the congress of the United States, entitled "an act, etc.," approved , , and other acts of congress amendatory thereof, and the said U. Railway Company now owns or controls and operates railroads extending from points on the river, in and , to , in the state of , and the said S. Company's railroad is operated as a continuous line with the U. Railway, and is a part of the U. Railway system, connecting the same with the railroads of the said O. Company; and the said U. Company now owns and holds more than one-half of all the capital stock of the said S. Company; and,

WHEREAS, the S. Company and the U. Company largely depend upon the railroads of the O. Company for an interchange of traffic; and since all the said railroad properties and the country tributary thereto would be benefited by the union of all the said railroads into a single and harmonious system; and in order to develop the resources of the said region, to protect the property of the said O. Company from injury arising from the construction of parallel roads, to provide the said U. Company with a through line, and to secure for its system traffic which might otherwise be diverted to other railroads, the said parties hereto desire to consolidate and unite their respective railroad systems under one management as herein provided, and to operate all the said railroads as continuous lines, and also to construct, maintain, and operate certain branch railroads which shall connect with the O. system, or with the lines of both the O. and the S. Companies, and form parts of the consolidated system:

NOW, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: First. That the said O. Railway Company, in consideration of the premises, and of the rents and covenants hereinafter reserved and contained, on the part of the said parties of the second and third parts to be paid and performed, does by these presents, grant, demise, let, and lease, unto the said S. Railway Company, its successors and assigns, all and singular the railroads and telegraph lines, constructed, or to be constructed, which are now owned by the said O. Company, or which may be hereafter owned or acquired by the said company, by whatsoever title the same may be owned or held, and also all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, ways, and rights of ways, now owned or held, or which may be hereafter owned, held, or possessed by the said O. Company, for said railroads and telegraph lines, and for any and all purposes in connection with the construction, working, maintenance, and operation of the same, or any or all of them, and all the easements and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and also all branches, extensions, sidings, tracks, bridges, depots, fences, stations, section-houses, tanks, warehouses, freight-houses, engine-houses, car and machine shops, and all other buildings, fixtures, and improvements of whatever kind and description, and wherever situated, now owned or held by the said O. Company, or which may hereafter be owned or held by said O. Company, for the use of said railroads, or in connection with the working, maintenance, and operation of the same; also, all locomotives, tenders, stationary engines, cars, trucks, push-cars, hand-cars, and all other rolling stock and equipments, and all the tools and implements, machinery, fuel, materials, and supplies, now owned, held, or possessed by the said O. Company for use in connection with the said railroad and telegraph lines, or any of them, or in connection with the working, maintenance, and operation of the same; and also the said railroad grades or embankments extending [here describe them].

And, also, all the steamships, steamboats, ferry-boats, tugs, barges, and other vessels, together with the tackle, furniture, boats, anchors, cables, and stores, thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, or intended for use in connection therewith, now owned, held, or possessed by the said O. Company, or which may be hereafter owned, held, or possessed by the said company, and also all wharves, docks, slips, inclines, warehouses, and other structures and fixtures, and all goods and chattels now owned or held by the said O. Company for use in connection therewith;

And, also, all rights, powers, privileges, and franchises now owned or possessed by the said O. Company in connection with the said railroads, telegraph lines, and vessels;

And, also, certain real estate and other property of the O. Company not embraced within its mortgages, a schedule whereof is attached to this lease, and thus made part hereof, which premises are to be appraised as of their true value on the 1st day of _____, 18____, under the direction of the presidents of the O. and S. Companies, and the amount equal to their value as ascertained by such appraisal, in five per cent. consolidated bonds of the O. Company, is to be delivered to the O. Company, for sale or disposal by said company, and appropriation of the proceeds thereof to its own use;

Together with the rents, issues, and profits of all the said property hereby demised, and each and every part thereof:

To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said railroads, telegraph lines, steamships, steamboats, premises, property, and appurtenances, together with the rents, issues, and profits thereof unto the said S. Company, its successors and assigns, for its and their own proper use and benefit, from the 1st day of _____, in the year _____, for the term of ninety-nine years, then next ensuing; and the said S. Company, during the said term, shall have the sole and exclusive right, power, and authority to hold, occupy, use, enjoy, control, manage, and operate the same, and to regulate, fix, vary, demand, collect, receive, and dispose of all and every the rates, tolls, revenues, and charges to accrue thereon or therefrom; subject, however, to the lien of the mortgages hereinbefore referred to; and subject, also, to all the valid covenants and agreements contained in the contracts with the _____ Terminal Company, the _____ Telegraph Company, the _____ Palace Car Company, and the N. Railroad Company, hereinbefore referred to, it being intended hereby to place and put the said S. Company in the lieu and stead of the said O. Company, and with all the rights of said O. Company; the said S. Company, its successors or assigns, yielding and paying therefor to the said O. Company, its successors and assigns, at the times and in the manner hereinafter provided, the yearly rents, hereinafter specified, and keeping and performing all and singular the covenants hereinafter set forth to be kept and performed by the said S. Company.

Second. And, in further consideration of the said rents and covenants on the part of the said parties of the second and third parts to be paid and performed, the O. Company hereby covenants and agrees forthwith to transfer and assign to the S. Company, its successors and assigns, all the right, title, and interest which the O. Company may now have, hold, or possess, or which that company may hereafter have, hold, or possess, in and to the lease or leases of the railroads, shares of the capital stock and bonds, rolling stock, equipments, property, and appurtenances now owned, held, or possessed, or which may hereafter be owned, held, or possessed by the said C. Railroad Company, and by the said D. Railroad Company, or by any or either of them; and the O. Company hereby covenants and agrees that the S. Company, during the said term, shall have the sole and exclusive right, power, and authority to hold, occupy, use, enjoy, control, manage, and operate each and all of the said railroads, under such leases aforesaid, for the term of ninety-nine years, from the 1st day of _____, _____, and to regulate, fix, vary, demand, collect, receive, and dispose of all and every the rates, tolls, revenues, and charges to accrue thereon or therefrom, yielding and paying therefor no rental whatever, except as provided herein, and subject to no other or further conditions or covenants than are contained herein.

Third. And, in further consideration of the said rents and covenants, the O. Company hereby covenants and agrees, on demand of the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, to procure the C. Railroad Company, a corporation existing under the laws of the territory of _____; to make, execute, and deliver to the S. Company, a lease of all the property and franchises now owned or held, or which may be hereafter owned or held by the said C. Railroad Company, said lease to be similar in all respects to the leases mentioned in the foregoing paragraph, and to continue for the term of ninety-nine years, beginning on the 1st day of _____, _____; and the S. Company shall pay no rent whatever under the said lease, and the same shall be subject to no conditions or covenants except as provided in this agreement.

Fourth. And the O. Company further covenants and agrees forthwith to transfer and assign to the S. Company all its right, title, and interest in and to the use, benefit, and enjoyment of the properties, rights, and privileges of the _____ Terminal Company, arising out of the contracts and relations of the O. Company therewith, and also all its right, title, and interest in and to those certain contracts entered into with the _____ Telegraph Company, dated on the _____ day of _____, 188 _____; and with the _____ Palace Car Company, dated on the _____ day of _____, 188 _____; and with the N. Railroad Company, dated on the _____ day of _____, 188 _____, and the _____ day of _____, 188 _____.

And the S. Company covenants and agrees to keep and perform the valid covenants and conditions on the part of the O. Company to be kept and performed, contained in or arising out of said contracts, as fully as the O. Company is bound to keep and perform the same.

Fifth. And the O. Company further covenants and agrees that it or its successors shall and will, during the said term of ninety-nine years, preserve, or renew and maintain its corporate existence and organization, and at all times during the said period, on demand of the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, shall and will exercise and put in force each and every corporate power and franchise, and do each and every corporate act necessary or desirable to carry out the provisions of this agreement, and to enable the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, to avail themselves of and use, exercise, and enjoy the rights, powers, and privileges hereby granted in respect to the said railroads, steamships, steamboats, and other property aforesaid, and shall and will, at any and all times, on demand, execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, such other and further instrument or instruments in writing, and under its corporate seal, as may be necessary or desirable, better and more effectively to secure the purposes of this indenture.

Sixth. And the O. Company further covenants and agrees to and with the said parties of the second and third parts, that it has no indebtedness or liability, actual or contingent, due or becoming due, except as herein stated, and that its said property is free from all claims and liens, except as herein set forth, and the O. Company further covenants and agrees that it will not hereafter, during the said period of ninety-nine years, incur any debt or liability, or make or issue any bond or bonds, or obligations, or any deeds of trust, mortgages, or other security whatever, except at the request of the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, and except such as are hereinafter provided for, and will protect, indemnify, and keep harmless the said parties of the second and third parts, and each of them, from any and all liability, damage, or expense on account of any indebtedness, liabilities, or obligations heretofore contracted or incurred by the O. Company, except as hereinafter specified, and the said parties of the second and third parts may and shall deduct and retain from any amounts becoming due and payable to the O. Company, under the terms hereof, such sums of money as they, or either of them, may be obliged to pay for the protection of their rights under this indenture, by reason of the default of the O. Company in keeping or performing the covenants or agreements herein contained.

Seventh. And the O. Company further agrees that it will, on demand of the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, forthwith execute and deliver to the said Trust Company, all the residue of the said five per cent. consolidated bonds, which it is now entitled to issue as aforesaid, or which it may hereafter become entitled to issue, whenever it shall become entitled to do so, and on demand of the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, shall and will procure said trust company to issue and deliver all the residue of the said bonds, duly and properly indorsed by the said Trust Company, as follows:

1. The said bonds to the amount of million dollars, or such amount thereof as shall be necessary to take up and cancel all of the said outstanding debenture bonds, in accordance with the terms of the said consolidated mortgage, dated , , and to pay such premiums or bonus as may be necessary to effect the cancellation of such bonds.

2. Such amount of said bonds as may be equal at par to the appraised value of the property of the O. Company not embraced within its mortgages, to be delivered to the O. Company, as provided on page hereof.

3. All the remainder of the said bonds to the S. Company, and from time to time, on demand of the S. Company, whenever the O. Company is entitled to issue the same.

Eighth. And it is hereby mutually agreed by and between the parties hereto, that the proceeds of all the said five per cent. consolidated bonds, which may be issued from time to time to the S. Company, as aforesaid, shall be used by the S. Company for the following purposes only, that is to say:

1. To pay for the construction and equipment of the branch railroads of the said O. Company referred to in the said consolidated mortgage, and the original and supplementary articles of incorporation of the O. Company, to an amount not exceeding dollars per mile of completed road.

2. To provide funds for the construction and equipment of railroad lines, at their actual cash cost, in the states of and , and the territories of and connecting or intending to connect or exchange traffic with the railroads, steamships, or steamboats of the O. Company, and to purchase the stocks and bonds, or either of them, of any company owning and operating such railroads already constructed, or hereafter to be constructed; provided, however, that no road shall be constructed out of the proceeds of such bonds, and no stock or bonds of other companies shall be purchased as aforesaid, except upon the express approval of the routes of such railroads by the board of directors of the O. Company, and provided that such stocks and bonds, so purchased, shall be taken in the name of the said O. Company, and shall be deposited with the said Trust Company, to secure the payment of the said five per cent. consolidated bonds; but the interest to become due and payable by the terms of the bonds so purchased, and the dividends on such stocks shall be payable to or collectible by the S. Company so long as it is not in default hereunder; such lines, when acquired either by construction or purchase of the stock and bonds of other companies, shall become and be considered a part of the system of railroad of the O. Company, subject to all the terms and provisions of the lease, and shall be, as soon as practicable, consolidated with the O. Company.

3. To provide funds to an amount not exceeding the actual cash cost for the construction of a railroad bridge across the river, at , and for this purpose, with the approval of the board of directors of the O. Company, to purchase the stock and bonds, or either, of any company authorized to construct such bridge, and the stock and bonds so purchased shall be taken in the name of the O. Company, and deposited with the Trust Company, to secure the payment of the said five per cent. consolidated bonds; but the interest to become due or payable by the terms of such bonds and the dividends on such stocks shall be payable to or collectible by the S. Company so long as it is not in default hereunder.

Ninth. The O. Company further agrees that it will not sell or dispose of any of the said five per cent. consolidated bonds, except at rates and on terms approved in writing by the S. Company, except in case of disagreement between the parties, in which case it shall be settled by arbitration as herein provided, and will co-operate with the S. Company in effecting satisfactory sales of a sufficient number of said consolidated bonds to retire all the said mortgage and debenture bonds now outstanding.

Tenth. And the O. Company further agrees that on the request of the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, it shall and will, from time to time, during the existence of this lease, make, issue, and deliver such other bonds, bearing such rate of interest, and payable at such times and secured in such manner as the parties hereto shall agree upon, and will make, execute, and deliver such mortgages as may be deemed necessary to secure the payment of such bonds for the purpose of taking up, retiring, paying, or redeeming the entire issue of the said five per cent. consolidated bonds, when the same shall become due or payable, and any other bonds issued in lieu thereof under the terms of this tenth article, to the end that the principal of the bonded indebtedness of the O. Company shall be and continue at the total amount of the issue of said consolidated bonds, during the whole of said period of ninety-nine years, or the existence of this lease.

The S. Company hereby agrees, that with the bonds hereinbefore provided for in this clause of this agreement, or with the proceeds of the same upon sale thereof, it will provide for the renewal, extension, or payment of all the said bonds of the O. Company which may become due and payable within and during the existence of this lease, so as to save the O. Company from any default upon its bonded indebtedness during the existence of this lease.

But it is further agreed that the S. Company may, in case an extension thereof can thereby be procured, postpone the payment of any of said issues of bonds, by the execution and delivery to the holders of said bonds, of extension coupons for extended periods, preserving the lien of the said original mortgages, as may be agreed upon by the S. Company and the holders of said mortgage bonds, and the O. Company agrees upon demand to execute such coupons.

Eleventh. And the O. Company further covenants and agrees that at the request of the S. Company, it will, with the express consent and approval of the board of directors of the O. Company first had and obtained, locate, construct, equip at their actual cash cost, and maintain and operate, subject to the lien of the said mortgages, and subject to and in accordance with the terms, covenants, and conditions herein contained, any and all branch railroads specified or contemplated in the said original or supplementary articles of incorporation of the O. Company, or which may be duly provided for in any articles of incorporation which the O. Company may hereafter lawfully adopt; and the said branch lines when constructed shall become and be considered a part of the system of railroads of the O. Company, subject to this lease, and all the terms and conditions herein contained, and shall be, as soon as practicable, consolidated with the O. Company.

Twelfth. The O. Company further agrees that it will, within sixty days from the date of execution hereof, prepare schedules, in duplicate, duly authenticated, and deliver the same to the S. Company, which shall show in detail all of its properties, namely:

1. Schedule of the said railroads and branches, and telegraph lines, showing their condition, if finished, and to what extent completed, if unfinished.

2. Schedule of the ways, rights of way, yards, and other real estate, stations, buildings, depots, engine-houses, machine shops, bridges, and other structures used in the operation of the said railroads.

3. Schedule of rolling stock, tools, machinery, and fixtures, telegraph material, and appliances.

4. Schedule of steamships, steamboats, and other vessels.

5. Schedule of wharves, docks, piers, and warehouses used in connection with said steamships and steamboats.

6. Schedule of material and supplies on hand.

7. Schedule of all other property, whether hereby leased and transferred, or intended to be hereby leased and transferred, or whether retained and held by the O. Company.

Thirteenth. In consideration of the premises, the said S. Company hereby covenants and agrees to make to the O. Company the following payments during the existence of this lease, to wit:

I. The amount of dollars per annum to the said O. Company, at its office in the city of New York, in equal quarterly payments, beginning on the day of ,

II. The amount of interest which shall accrue from time to time from and after the date hereof, on the said first mortgage bonds, which may from time to time be outstanding and uncalled, in accordance with the terms of the said first mortgage, dated , , and the supplemental mortgages, dated on the day of , , such payments to be made from time to time, ten days before said interest or any portion thereof shall be payable.

III. The amounts which shall be required for a sinking fund, as provided in said first mortgage, dated on , , and the supplementary mortgages, dated on , , and the payments of such sinking fund, which shall be calculated from and after the date hereof, shall be made ten days before the date on which the said payments are respectively required under the terms of said mortgages.

IV. The amount of interest calculated from and after the date hereof which shall from time to time become due and payable on the said debenture bonds, now outstanding in accordance with the terms thereof.

V. The amount of interest, calculated from the date hereof, which shall from time to time become due and payable on the said five per cent. consolidated bonds, which are now outstanding, or shall hereafter be issued in accordance with the terms hereof, and which shall from time to time be outstanding and uncanceled, such payments to be made ten days before said interest, or any portion thereof, shall be payable; but no interest shall be paid on the said bonds amounting to _____, now held by the said _____ Trust Company to secure the payment of the said first mortgage bonds, so long as the said first mortgage bonds are outstanding and unpaid.

VI. Such sum as may be necessary, not to exceed _____ dollars each year, to the O. Company, at its office, to defray the cost of maintaining its organization, such amount to be payable monthly in advance.

VII. Such amounts, calculated from the date hereof, as may hereafter from time to time become due and payable by the O. Company by reason of its aforesaid obligations to the said _____ Terminal Company, (the first payment thereunder to be made on the _____ day of _____, _____); and by reason of the said contracts with the _____ Telegraph Company, and the _____ Palace Car Company, and the N. Railroad Company; but the said S. Company shall not be liable for any amounts now due and payable, or hereafter to become due and payable, by reason of or in connection with any obligations heretofore incurred by said O. Company to the N. Railway Company, or by reason of the suits heretofore instituted by _____ and others, but the O. Company agrees to pay all such charges.

VIII. The amount of interest which shall from time to time become due and payable on any bonds which the said O. Company shall during the term of this lease, by agreement of the parties hereto, as herein provided for, execute and issue, for the purpose of taking up, paying, or retiring the said five per cent. consolidated bonds, or for the purpose of taking up, retiring, or cancelling any subsequent issue of bonds, which may be made in accordance herewith.

Fourteenth. And the S. Company hereby covenants and agrees to and with the said O. Company and said U. Company, that it will operate the said railways and steam vessels, and manage the aforesaid properties in harmony with the railroads of said U. Company, and as a part of the U. system, and in the same manner as the O. Company, or other owner thereof, is now or may at any time during the existence of this lease be required by law to do, and will at all times during the existence of this lease keep and preserve the said railways and the rolling stock, equipment, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and the said steam vessels and their appurtenances in good repair, ordinary wear and tear, and destruction by the elements excepted, and except as to such parts thereof as may be sold or otherwise disposed of, or the use thereof abandoned, as herein provided, and will supply from time to time such additional rolling stock, and equipment for the said railroads, and such replacements and renewals, improvements, and betterments, as may be necessary, and will at all times insure all the boats and vessels of the O. Company at fair and reasonable valuations, or keep the same insured, and the O. Company shall at all times during the continuance of this lease have the right to examine and inspect the property hereby demised, and the property shall at all times be open to the inspection of the president of the O. Company, and such person or persons as he may appoint.

Fifteenth. And it is hereby mutually covenanted and agreed that the said S. Company shall possess and exercise, with the express approval of the board of directors of the O. Company, first had and obtained, all the rights, powers, and privileges now possessed or exercised by the O. Company, in respect to selling, leasing, and otherwise disposing of worn-out, unserviceable, or unnecessary rolling stock and equipment, steamships, steamboats, and other properties hereby demised, so far as such powers may be exercised in conformity with the provisions of the mortgages hereinbefore referred to, and the O. Company hereby covenants and agrees that it shall and will, at the request of the S. Company, from time to time, during the period of this lease, take such action as may be necessary or desirable to secure the consent and approval of the trustees under the said mortgages, for the purpose of selling or otherwise disposing of such properties as aforesaid.

Sixteenth. And the S. Company further covenants and agrees that it will pay and discharge all expenses, costs, damages, claims, and demands whatsoever, which, without default of the O. Company, shall or may arise out of the management and operation of the said railroads and other properties, or any part thereof, during the existence of this lease, and will, and shall, at all times during such period, save and keep harmless, and indemnify said O. Company therefrom, and will defend all such actions and suits which shall or may be brought against the O. Company during said period, and will pay all taxes and assessments which may be lawfully levied or assessed for the year 188 , and all subsequent years during said period, upon the said railroads or other property hereby demised, and upon the business or income of the same, and upon the O. Company in respect thereof.

Seventeenth. And the S. Company further agrees that it will at all times, during the continuance of this agreement, keep accurate and detailed accounts of all moneys received and business done upon the said railroads and steam vessels, and in connection with the other properties hereby demised, and of all moneys paid out and liabilities incurred in connection with the said business, and such accounts shall, at all reasonable times during the existence of this lease, be open to the president or board of directors of the O. Company, and such persons as he or they may from time to time appoint to examine the same, and the S. Company shall and will furnish the O. Company with the usual monthly and annual statements of account, and with all reports and statements which the O. Company is now, or may hereafter be obliged to make or file under the requirements of any lawful authority.

Eighteenth. In case this agreement shall be adjudged illegal or invalid, or at the termination hereof, the S. Company shall and will deliver up and surrender to the O. Company the said railroads and other property hereby demised, assigned, or transferred, including the stocks and bonds of C. Railroad Company, the D. Railroad Company, and Railroad Company, the railroad and any lease thereof to the S. Company, except such as shall have been sold, abandoned, destroyed by the elements, or disposed of as here-inbefore provided, in at least as good order and condition as the reasonable use and wear thereof will permit, and with such additions, betterments, or improvements as shall have been made thereto.

Nineteenth. In case the S. Company or the U. Company shall at any time or times hereafter, during the existence of this lease, fail to pay the sums hereinbefore provided to be paid by the S. Company, or any part thereof, when the same shall have become payable according to the terms hereof; and in case such default shall continue for the period of thirty days after demand, then and in every such case, unless the O. Company shall be in default, it shall be lawful for the O. Company, its successors or assigns, at their option, to enter, without process of law, unto and upon the said railroads and other property hereby demised, and every part thereof, and to have and to hold all such property, together with all the additions and improvements which shall have been made to the same; and all the right, title, and interest whatsoever of the said parties of the second and third parts, in and to the said property, shall thereupon wholly cease and terminate; and it is further agreed that such re-entry shall not waive or prejudice any claim or right of the O. Company to or for damages against the said parties of the second and third parts, or either of them, on account of such nonpayment, or on account of any non-performance or breach of the terms of this indenture.

Twentieth. And the O. Company, its successors and assigns, shall and will make and furnish to the said parties of the second and third parts, their successors or assigns, at least twenty days before the payment of the semi-annual or other interest on any of its bonds or obligations outstanding at any time during the continuance of this agreement, a statement of the bonds or obligations of the O. Company, or its successors, then outstanding, showing the names and places of residence of the holders of said bonds and obligations, so far as can be ascertained, and the amount of interest on said bonds or obligations then maturing, and payable at the next semi-annual or other day of payment, and shall and will, at all reasonable times, permit the said parties of the second and third parts, their successors or assigns, and such person or persons as may be appointed or designated by them for that purpose, to inspect the books and records of the O. Company, its successors and assigns, for the purpose of verifying such statements, and of ascertaining what, if any, of its bonds or obligations shall have been canceled or paid, purchased, retired, or redeemed.

Twenty-first. And the S. Company, in consideration of the covenants herein contained on the part of the U. Company to be performed, hereby covenants and agrees, to and with said U. Company, that all the said railroads hereby demised shall be operated, for all purposes of communication, travel, and transportation, so far as the public and the government are concerned, as continuous lines with the railroads now owned or hereafter to be owned or controlled by the S. Company, and with the railroad system of the U. Company; that there shall never be at any time during the said period of ninety-nine years, any discrimination, as to rates or otherwise, on said railroads or vessels, in favor of any other line, road, or transportation company, as against the U. Company, and that the rates for all through business, that is to say, for traffic carried to and from terminal, common, or competitive points upon the said railroads, which may be reached directly or indirectly by any railroads competitive to the U. Company, shall at all times be as low as by any other railroad route, and that all unconsigned business destined for any points on, or reached by or beyond the railroads of the U. Company's system, received by the S. Company, as lessee of said O. Company's system, shall be turned over to the U. Company; and in consideration of the foregoing covenants the U. Company hereby covenants and agrees, to and with the O. Company, that it, the said U. Company, will and shall, and hereby does guarantee the prompt and faithful performance of each and all the covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the S. Company to be kept and performed; and the S. Company shall be liable to said U. Company for any and all payments made by the latter under the terms hereof, over and above the amounts which the S. Company would otherwise be entitled to receive from the U. Company.

Twenty-second. And it is further understood and agreed that all disputes and differences arising at any time during the period of this lease, as to the due performance by any of the parties hereto of any of the covenants herein contained, shall be submitted to three arbitrators, one of whom shall be chosen by said O. Company, and one by said S. Company, and these two shall choose the third; and the award of these arbitrators, or any two of them, shall be binding and conclusive upon the parties hereto in respect of the question submitted; but any differences arising as aforesaid shall not interrupt the business of the said railroads, steam vessels, or telegraph lines, but such business shall continue as before, until the question in dispute shall have been settled by arbitrators, as aforesaid, and thereupon such payments or restitution shall be made, and such acts and things shall be done, as may be required by the award of the said arbitrators.

Twenty-third. This lease is to take effect and be in force as of the 1st day of January, ; and the possession, operation, and maintenance of the demised premises on and after the 1st day of January, , and, until the delivery of possession under this lease by the O. Company, shall be for the benefit and at the expense and risk of the S. Company; and the O. Company further agrees to place said railroads, steamboats, and other property hereby demised, in the possession of the S. Company immediately on the execution hereof, and the said O. Company shall pay and discharge all wages, salaries, debts, and liabilities contracted in connection with the demised premises, prior to the 1st day of January, , and shall be entitled to collect and retain all the earnings and income of the said demised property accruing prior to 1st day of January, ; and it is mutually understood and agreed that all the provisions herein contained shall be binding upon the respective successors and assigns of each of the parties hereto.

Twenty-fourth. And it is hereby mutually understood and agreed that the S. Company and the U. Company may, in their discretion and by consent of the O. Company, at any time during the continuance of this agreement, enter into and perform any contract whatsoever, not inconsistent with the terms hereof, with the N. Railway Company, or any other person or corporation, in relation to the management or operation of the said railroads, steam vessels, and other property of the O. Company hereby demised.

Twenty-fifth. And WHEREAS a doubt has been suggested as to the power of the U. Company to enter into and bind itself by the guarantee aforesaid; and, WHEREAS, said U. Company is advised that such guarantee is permitted by law and is in violation of no act of congress; and,

WHEREAS, all parties hereto are anxious not to exceed the powers granted to them respectively by the acts of congress and the charters of said companies:

Now, THEREFORE, to meet the difficulty aforesaid, it is hereby agreed: That for the term of ten years from January 1, , the premises hereby demised shall be managed and controlled in the interest of all the parties hereto, according to their respective rights as aforesaid prescribed in this indenture, by a joint manager. is hereby appointed such manager for the term of three years from January 1, . In case of his death or resignation before the end of said term of three years, and at the end of said three years, his successors in succession shall from time to time be selected and nominated in writing by the presidents of the O. Company and the S. Company jointly, if they can agree upon such successor. If they fail to agree upon such successor then such successor shall be appointed by a disinterested umpire to be chosen by them. If they fail to select such umpire then such appointment shall be made by , or in case of his refusal or inability to act, by the judge of any circuit court of the United States acquiring jurisdiction in the premises, or by any such circuit court, or in case any such court has no jurisdiction, then by any court of competent jurisdiction over the parties hereto.

Said joint manager and his successor or successors shall manifest acceptance of the terms hereby prescribed in writing to the said presidents severally, before entering upon the performance of duties under this agreement.

If, during the term of ten years, the doubt hereinbefore suggested, as to the validity of said guarantee, shall not have been removed by the effect of any general or special act of congress, or anything done in pursuance of any such act, or by the decision of competent final judicial authority, that said guarantee, with or without further legislation, of said U. Company, is valid and binding upon said company, then said joint management shall cease, and the manager then in office shall thereafter account to and represent the lessee only and be subject to removal at the instance of the said lessee.

But in case, on the contrary, that during the term of ten years, aforesaid, congress shall fail to legislate as aforesaid, and it shall be ascertained during said term of ten years by competent judicial authority that the said guarantee is invalid and void, or in case of the default by said S. Company or U. Company to pay the sums of money, or any of them, or any part thereof, which by the terms of the nineteenth preceding article of this lease it has been provided shall be paid according to the terms of said clause, then and in each of said cases the O. Company may, at its option, by notice in writing to the presidents of the S. and U. Companies and the said joint manager, declare this lease at an end, and from and after the date of ten days from the receipt of such notice by him the said joint manager shall, by force of this agreement, and without any further action whatever, by any of the parties hereto, cease to act as joint manager, and thenceforward and thereafter shall be and act as the manager of the said demised premises for the O. Company only, and shall be subject to removal by it alone, and shall account to and act for it as if this lease had not been made, and thenceforward and thereafter all further performance of this lease shall cease, and the parties thereto, without any waiver or change of any of their obligations hereunder existing and accrued at the date of the receipt of such notice, but subject to the same, shall not longer be bound hereby, and this indenture shall thenceforward be deemed canceled and at an end. If this indenture is not terminated within said period of ten years, as in this article provided, then the provisions in this article, made for a joint manager, shall cease, and the S. Company shall be at liberty to manage said demised property as provided and contemplated in and by the preceding articles of this indenture.

Article twenty-sixth. This indenture has been authorized by the shareholders of the U. Company, and it is agreed that it shall also be duly authorized or ratified by the shareholders respectively of the O. and S. Companies by due corporate action.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said several corporate parties have caused this indenture to be executed by their respective presidents, and attested under their respective corporate seals.

1233. Railroad Lease, Modifying the Last Preceding Form.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , one thousand nine hundred and eighty- , by and between the O. Railway Company, hereinafter called the O. Company, party of the first part, the S. N. Railway Company, hereinafter called the S. N. Company, party of the second part, and the U. Railway Company, hereinafter called the U. Company, party of the third part, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the S. Railway Company, the R. Railway Company, and the C. U. Railway Company, together with certain other railway companies, were as of the date of , , consolidated into and under the name of the S. N. Railway Company, the party of the second part hereto, which consolidated company assumed all the obligations and agreements of the said several companies, including the obligations and agreements of the said S. Railway Company, under and by reason of an indenture, dated the day of , , by and between the S. Railway Company and the parties of the first and third parts hereto respectively (a copy whereof is hereto attached, and made a part hereof, and is hereinafter referred to and described as said indenture of lease¹), in which indenture of lease the O. Company did grant, demise, let, and lease unto the S. Railway Company, its successors and assigns, for the term of ninety-nine years from the 1st day of January, , all and singular the railroads and telegraph lines constructed or to be constructed, then owned by the O. Company, or which might be thereafter owned or acquired by it, by whatsoever title the same may be owned or held, and also all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, ways, and rights of ways, then owned, or held, or which might be thereafter owned, held, or possessed by the O. Company, for said railroads and telegraph lines, and for any and all purposes in connection with the construction, working, maintenance, and operation of the same, or any or all of them, and all the easements and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and also all branches, extensions, sidings, tracks, bridges, depots, fences, stations, section-houses, tanks, warehouses, freight-houses, engine-houses, car and machine shops, and all other buildings, fixtures, and improvements, of whatever kind and description, and wherever situated, then owned or held, or which might thereafter be owned or held by the O. Company, for the use of said railroads, or in connection with the working, maintenance, and operation of the same; also all locomotives, tenders, stationary engines, cars, trucks, push-cars, hand-cars, and all other rolling stock and equipments, and all the tools, and implements, machinery, fuel, materials, and supplies then owned, held, or possessed by the said O. Company, for use in connection with the said railroad and telegraph lines, or any of them, or in connection with the working, maintenance, and operation of the same, and also the railroad grades, or embankments extending from to on the railroad, as described and conveyed in said indenture:

And also all the steamships, steamboats, ferry-boats, tugs, barges, and other vessels, together with the tackle, furniture, boats, anchors, cables, and stores, thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, or intended for use in connection therewith, then owned, held, or possessed by the said O. Company, or which might be thereafter owned, held, or possessed by the said company, and also all wharves, docks, slips, inclines, warehouses, and other structures and fixtures, and all goods and chattels then owned or held by the said O. Company for use in connection therewith:

And also all rights, powers, privileges, and franchises, then owned or possessed by the said O. Company, in connection with the said railroads, telegraph lines, and vessels:

And also certain real estate and other property of the O. Company, not embraced within its mortgages, a schedule whereof is attached to the said indenture of lease, and thus made a part thereof, which premises were to be appraised as of their true value on the 1st day of January, 188 , under the direction of the presidents of the O. Company and of the S. Railway Company, and the amount, equal to their value, as ascertained by such appraisal, in five per cent. consolidated mortgage bonds of the O. Company, were to be delivered to the O. Company, for sale or disposal by it, and appropriation of the proceeds thereof to its own use:

Together with the rents, issues, and profits of all the said property thereby demised, and each and every part thereof:

Upon and subject to the terms, conditions, provisions, covenants, and agreements set forth and contained in said indenture of lease, dated the 1st day of January, ; and,

WHEREAS, the U. Company became and is a party to said indenture of lease, and thereby guaranteed the payment of the rental, and the performance of all and singular the obligations, covenants, and agreements contained and specified therein, by and on the part of the S. Railway Company to be paid, observed, kept, and performed; and,

WHEREAS, certain changes, modifications, and alterations of the said indenture of lease, as hereinafter contained, have been agreed upon, by and between the said parties hereto, to take and have effect as of the date of January 1, :

Now, THEREFORE, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the parties hereto of the first, second, and third parts respectively, do, and each for itself, its successors and assigns, does hereby covenant and agree to and with the others of said parties respectively, as follows, that is to say:

First. The S. N. Company does hereby covenant and agree to and with the O. Company, that all the rolling stock of the O. Company shall be distinctly and legibly marked, by painting thereon, or otherwise, with the initials "O. R. Co.," and that all the rolling stock of other railroad companies, of which the lines shall form part of the system of the O. Company, shall be marked in like manner with the initials of the railroad company to which such rolling stock belongs, and that said marks shall be kept and maintained on said rolling stock, and on all restorations thereof, and substitutions therefor, during the term of the said indenture of lease.

Second. The O. Company hereby covenants and agrees, to and with each of the other parties hereto, that it will forthwith, and from time to time, make execute, and deliver to the S. N. Company, proxies or powers of attorney irrevocable (except at the will of the S. N. Company), conferring upon the S. N. Company, or upon its lawfully appointed substitutes during the continuance of said indenture of lease, all the voting power which the said O. Company now holds, owns, or possesses, or may hereafter hold, own, or possess, by virtue of its ownership of or interest in the shares of the capital stock and bonds of the C. Railroad Company, and of the D. Railroad Company, and of any or either of them, and of any other company, the line of which, under the provisions of said indenture of lease, shall become and be considered a part of the system of railroads of the O. Company, except the power to vote to sell or mortgage the property or franchises of any of such companies.

And all the parties hereto covenant and agree to and with each other that the covenants and agreements contained in this article shall be additional and supplemental to article second of said indenture of lease, and shall, for all purposes of the said indenture, be so treated, construed, and carried into effect during the continuance thereof.

Third. All the parties hereto covenant and agree to and with each other that all the remaining bonds specified in subdivision three of article seventh of said indenture of lease shall be issued and delivered to the S. N. Company for any of the purposes named in the eighth article of said indenture of lease and the fourth and the fifth articles of this indenture, and from time to time on demand of the said S. N. Company when the said O. Company is entitled to issue the same.

But it is agreed that none of the said bonds shall be sold except at a price assented to by all the parties hereto, nor shall any of the said bonds be pledged or otherwise disposed of except with the consent of the O. Company, but the O. Company agrees to consent to such pledge or other disposition of said bonds, prior to the sale thereof, as will aid in the accomplishment of the purposes hereinbefore specified; and it is further agreed that the said bonds shall not be delivered to the S. N. Company, except when required for some one or more of the purposes hereinbefore specified, and that meanwhile they shall remain with the trustee of the mortgage securing said bonds, to be delivered by it only upon demand in writing signed by the said O. and S. N. Companies.

Fourth. The O. Company shall permit the S. N. Company, in its behalf, to furnish and supply for the use and operation of the railways demised or forming a part of the system of railroads of the O. Company, such additional equipment, including boats and vessels of all kinds, as may be required by the S. N. Company, to be used for and in the operation of said railways, and for the business thereof, to the extent of the proceeds of the consolidated bonds so used and specified in subdivision three (3) of article seventh of said indenture of lease, and to the extent that the O. Company shall hereafter agree that the proceeds of its other bonds, securities, or guaranties may be so used, but to no further or greater extent; provided, always, that such additional equipment shall not be so furnished to replace any equipment worn out or destroyed in service, and only such additions to equipment shall be made as the actual growth of the business may require; and the O. Company shall also from time to time permit the S. N. Company in its behalf to furnish, construct, and complete all necessary and convenient betterments, and permanent improvements to said railways, and their appurtenances, to the extent of the proceeds of the bonds, securities, and guaranties above described, but such betterments and improvements shall consist of the following items only: (1) The cost of iron, or steel, or stone bridges in excess of wooden bridges; (2) the cost of the purchase of, or the building of additional docks or wharves; (3) the cost of steel rails in excess of iron rails; (4) the cost of extra weight of rails laid in excess of the weight of those removed; (5) double tracks, new sidings, new switches, and frogs, new depot and other buildings, and their appurtenances; (6) corrections of alignments of the track, but in case of any such correction, the cost whereof shall exceed $15,000, the approval thereof by the board of directors of the O. Company shall first be obtained, provided, however, that for the correction of the alignment of the track between P. and D., which shall be speedily done, for which correction the authority and approval of said board is now hereby given, the cost thereof shall not exceed hundred thousand dollars, without the consent of the O. Company; and plans and estimates therefor, and for all alignments, shall be submitted by the S. N. Company to the O. Company for its approval, and if the O. Company shall not approve said estimates, the O. Company shall perform the work at its actual cost, which shall not exceed the cost thereof as stated in said estimates. And the S. N. Company shall render to the O. Company statements of account of the proceeds of all such consolidated mortgage bonds, and of the expenditure thereof; provided always, that the aggregate sum expended in any calendar year, for purposes mentioned in this article, other than the correction of the alignment of track between P. and D., shall not exceed hundred thousand dollars, without the approval of the O. Company.

It is mutually covenanted and agreed that all additional equipment, betterments, and improvements of the kind and character hereinbefore specified, that have been furnished and supplied, or constructed by the S. N. Company since the 1st day of January, , to or upon any railways or premises demised by the said indenture of lease, or forming part of the system of railroads of the said O. Company, shall be considered as having been made by the S. N. Company on behalf of the O. Company, under this article, and as if the provisions thereof had been contained in the said indenture of lease; provided, however, that the aggregate amount for which the S. N. Company shall be reimbursed, for all expenditures upon all equipment, betterments, and improvements heretofore provided and made, shall not exceed hundred thousand dollars; and, provided further, that no such expenditure shall be considered as having been made on behalf of the O. Company, except such as shall be expressly approved and audited by its officers; and, provided further, that in case there is any difference of opinion with regard to the propriety of allowing any such expenditure, the question as to the allowance thereof shall be determined by arbitration as provided in article twenty-two of said indenture of lease.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that nothing in this indenture contained, except as specified in this article, shall lessen or change the obligations of the said S. N.

Company under article fourteenth of said indenture of lease, and that all the obligations of said S. N. Company, under said article fourteenth, and under said indenture of lease, as modified hereby, shall extend to and cover all railroad and branch lines built or purchased, in pursuance of any provision in said indenture of lease, or in this indenture.

Fifth. In case the said five per cent. consolidated bonds, or the proceeds thereof, shall not be available or sufficient to provide funds for the construction and equipment of railroad lines, as provided in the eighth article of the said indenture of lease, or for the construction and equipment of branch roads, as provided in the fourth article hereof, or in case in the opinion of all the parties hereto it shall not be desirable at any time so to apply such bonds or proceeds, it is agreed that then, and in every such case, the said O. Company will make and issue its other bonds, securities, or guaranties, the same to be secured by the mortgage, pledge, and deposit of the bonds of such railroad lines, or of such branch roads, or to be otherwise secured, as shall then be agreed between the parties hereto; it being understood and agreed that no such roads or branch lines can in any case be built without the consent of all the parties hereto, and that such roads or branch lines, when built, are to be built at the expense of the said O. Company, and the moneys for building the same are to be furnished on the credit of the said O. Company, by the issue and sale of bonds, securities, or guaranties, secured in the best way that shall then be agreed upon between the parties, and be found lawful and practicable; it being further agreed that the amount of interest which shall from time to time become due and payable on all bonds, securities, and guaranties, so issued and used, shall be paid by the said S. N. Company, as an additional amount due from it under article thirteenth of said indenture of lease, and such payment by the S. N. Company is hereby guaranteed by the said U. Company, exactly as if the said bonds or obligations had formed a part of said consolidated bonds.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that any residue or surplus of such bonds, securities, or guaranties, so issued, or of their proceeds, over and above the amount necessary to provide for the actual cash cost of the construction and equipment of any such branch road, shall from time to time as needed be used for the purchase of additional equipment for such branch road, and for the making thereupon of any of the betterments or improvements specified in the fourth article hereof, subject to the same limitations as are contained in article four hereof.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that the S. N. Company shall have the same rights with respect to the bonds and stocks of such branch roads, and to the interest and dividends thereon, as if they had been built under and in pursuance of article eighth of said indenture of lease, and that the stocks of the said branch roads shall be held and remain in the treasury of the O. Company, subject to and covered by the lease, and the S. N. Company shall be entitled to have proxies thereon as provided in the second article hereof.

Sixth. It is hereby mutually covenanted and agreed by all the parties hereto that no expenditures, of whatever kind or character, made by the S. N. Company upon, in, or about the railways and property of the O. Company, for the construction or acquisition of branch lines, or other railroads, or for equipment, betterments, or any purpose, except to the extent of the bonds, or proceeds of bonds, securities, or guaranties specifically appropriated therefor, as provided in said indenture of lease, and in this indenture, shall ever be charged to or chargeable to or against the O. Company, or ever constitute in any way any claim against the O. Company or its property.

Seventh. All the parties hereto covenant and agree to and with each other, that article twenty-fifth of said indenture of lease shall for all the purposes of this indenture be treated, and considered, and carried into effect during the continuance of this indenture, as if the said article read as follows: [here insert new provisions.]

Eighth. And the said indenture of lease with the modifications herein contained is hereby ratified and confirmed by all the said parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, said several corporations, parties hereunto, have caused this indenture to be signed by their respective presidents, and their respective corporate seals to be hereto affixed, in quadruplicate originals, the day and year first above written.

1234 Traffic Agreement Between two Railroad Companies.

AN AGREEMENT, made the day of , in the year nineteen hundred and , between the S. N. Railway Company, incorporated under the laws of , , and (hereinafter called the S. N. Company), party of the first part, and the U. Railway Company, incorporated by the laws of the United States (hereinafter called the U. Company), party of the second part.

WHEREAS, the S. N. Company is a corporation organized and existing under the general laws of , , and , by consolidation of [here recite formation of company], and is entitled, subject to the indentures of mortgage mentioned in the schedule hereto, to certain main and branch lines of railway now constructed for a distance of 1,500 miles, and described in the indenture of mortgage dated the 1st of August, , and mentioned in the schedule hereto, and has authority to construct extensions and branches of its said railways; and,

WHEREAS, the U. Company is a corporation created by and existing [here recite formation of company]; and the U. Company now owns, or controls, and works railways extending from in , to , in ; and,

WHEREAS, the railway of the S. N. Company connects with the main line of the railway of the U. Company at , in the state of , and at , in the territory of , and it will be beneficial to the S. N. Company that its railways shall be worked in close connection with, and as a feeder of the main line of railway of the U. Company, and so as to furnish transportation facilities to the settlers on the lands now or late of the U. Company, to develop the resources of the lands contiguous to the line of railway of the S. N. Company, and to secure to the parties hereto, and not to any hostile or rival railway company, the benefits and advantages that shall arise from the construction and working of the railway of the S. N. Company; and,

WHEREAS, the U. Company has agreed to enter into this contract for the purpose of enabling and aiding it to perform its pecuniary and other obligations to the United States, and its duties to the public, and for the further purpose of assuring to itself an increase of traffic, and other benefits and advantages which will arise from the interchange of traffic with the railway of the S. N. Company, and a close connection and alliance with that company, and because the working of the railways of the parties hereto in harmony with each other, as herein provided, will be beneficial to each of the parties hereto:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY AGREED, by and between the parties, as follows:

1. The S. N. Company agrees that all extensions and branches of its said railway hereafter constructed or acquired shall be constructed, completed, and equipped in a thorough and workmanlike manner, to the satisfaction in all respects of the chief engineer for the time being of the U. Company, and upon such line as shall be approved by or be satisfactory to the board of directors of the U. Company, and that the S. N. Company will at all times keep and maintain its said railway, and all extensions and branches thereof, in good working order, and fully equipped, and will at its own cost always maintain the connection of its said railway with the railway of the U. Company, at or near the said towns of and , or at such other point or points as may be agreed upon, and in such manner as such chief engineer of the U. Company shall direct or approve. And the S. N. Company will, within a reasonable time after notice that such is the desire of the U. Company, extend the said railway of the S. N. Company to such other point or points, and construct such branch or branches (so far as it lawfully may) as the U. Company shall specify, and every such extension and branch shall be constructed, completed, equipped, and maintained in the manner herein mentioned, and be subject to all the provisions herein contained, in respect of the said railway. The said railway shall be of the same gauge as that of the U. Company.

2. The S. N. Company agrees that its said railway, and every extension and branch thereof, whether already, or to be hereafter constructed or acquired, and every railway or line that it may at any time acquire possession or control of, by purchase, consolidation, lease, control of capital stock, contract, or otherwise, shall, for all purposes of traffic (so far as the public and the government are concerned), be worked as one continuous line with the railway of the U. Company, and the railways and lines worked or controlled by it, or worked as continuous lines with its railway by agreement with it (hereinafter called its auxiliary system), and, so far as reasonably practicable, without change of cars, and that the S. N. Company will never make any discrimination, as regards rates or otherwise, in favor of any other line of railway or transportation company, as against the U. Company and its auxiliary system, and that the rates for all traffic, carried between any places by the railways of both parties hereto, shall always be as low as the rates for carrying such traffic between the same places by any railway or railways competing with the railways of the parties hereto; and that all traffic received by the S. N. Company, to be carried to or by way of any place or places on the line of the U. Company or its auxiliary system, shall, so far as the S. N. Company can lawfully determine the route of such traffic, be carried by way of the railway of the U. Company and its auxiliary system, and for that purpose be delivered to it at the points of junction; and the S. N. Company will always use its influence in favor of such traffic being so carried, and will always work its railway and branches in close harmony and connection with the railway of the U. Company and its auxiliary system, and not in hostility or antagonism thereto, or in the interest of any line or railway competing with that of the U. Company or its auxiliary system, and will not at any time make any contract with any other railway company or line for connection or interchange of traffic, or make any lease or mortgage of its railway or any part thereof, or create or suffer any lien or incumbrance thereon, or issue stock, without the previous assent of the U. Company, expressed by resolution of its board of directors.

3. The U. Company agrees that its said railway and auxiliary system shall for all purposes of traffic (so far as the public and the government are concerned), be worked as one continuous line with the railway of the S. N. Company, and, so far as reasonably practicable, without change of cars, and that it will never make any discrimination, as regards rates or otherwise, in favor of any other line of railway or transportation company as against the S. N. Company, and that the rates for all traffic carried between any places by the railways of both parties hereto shall always be as low as the rates for carrying such traffic between the same places by any railway or railways competing with the railways of the parties hereto; and that all traffic received by the U. Company, to be carried to or by way of any place or places on the line of the S. N. Company, and not on that of the U. Company or its auxiliary system, shall (so far as the U. Company can lawfully determine the route of such traffic), be carried by way of the railway of the S. N. Company, and for that purpose be delivered to it at some point of junction; and the U. Company will always use its influence in favor of such traffic being so carried, and will always work its railway and auxiliary system in close harmony and connection with the railway of the S. N. Company, and not in hostility or antagonism thereto, or in the interest of any line or railway competing therewith.

4. The rates of charges for all descriptions of traffic carried by the railways of both parties hereto, and delivered by one to the other for carriage, as above mentioned, shall be fixed and determined from time to time by the mutual agreement of the parties hereto, and the gross receipts therefrom shall be apportioned between them according to the distance that the same shall have been carried upon the railway or system of each of them; but if and when it shall happen that the share of the gross receipts that the S. N. Company shall be entitled to upon such apportionment, added to its gross receipts from its local and other business, and from all its other sources of income, is insufficient to enable it to meet and pay, as the same become due and payable, its working expenses, taxes, ordinary repairs, including all such repairs as may be necessary to keep and preserve its road, rolling stock, and works in first-rate condition (but not including improvements or additional equipment), and also the interest of the bonds, for the time being, secured by any of the indentures mentioned in the schedule hereto, then the said gross receipts from all such traffic shall be so apportioned between the parties, that the sum of money allotted to the S. N. Company upon such apportionment shall (so far as the whole of the said gross receipts shall be sufficient for the purpose), be sufficient, with its gross receipts from its local and other business and other sources of income, to enable it to meet and pay, as the same become due and payable, its said expenses, taxes, and repairs, and the said interest.

5. If, and as often as either party shall, at any time during the continuance of this agreement, make a claim that it is reasonably and fairly entitled to a larger share of the gross receipts than that provided for in this agreement, such claim shall be referred to the determination of four arbitrators, of whom two shall be nominated by the board of directors of the U. Company, and shall be directors thereof, and two shall be nominated by the board of directors of the S. N. Company, and each of the two last mentioned shall be a director thereof, and not be a director of the U. Company, or shall be an indifferent person experienced in matters relating to railway traffic; and the said four arbitrators shall hear the parties, and taking into account all matters and things proper to be considered in determining the shares of the joint earnings that ought fairly to be allotted to connecting lines, shall fix and determine the shares of the said gross receipts from joint traffic that shall thenceforth be allotted to the parties respectively, instead of the allotment provided for in this agreement; and the award that shall be made in writing under their hands by the said arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be conclusive and binding on the parties hereto; and if a majority of the said arbitrators shall not agree upon the shares so to be allotted, then they, or a majority of them, shall appoint in writing under their hand a fifth arbitrator, who shall be an indifferent person, experienced in matters relating to railway traffic, and the five arbitrators shall thereupon, without any further hearing of the parties, fix and determine the shares so to be allotted to the parties respectively, and the award that shall be made in writing, as aforesaid, by the said five arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be binding on the parties hereto; and in case any of the arbitrators so appointed originally, or by way of substitution in pursuance of this provision, shall die, or refuse, or be incapable to act as such arbitrator before such final determination, then in every such instance, the party that appointed such arbitrator, or, if he was a fifth arbitrator, then the other arbitrators shall appoint another arbitrator having the like qualifications in his place; and if either party shall fail to appoint an arbitrator, either originally, or by way of substitution as aforesaid, for fifteen days after the other party shall have appointed arbitrators, and served the party so failing to appoint with notice in writing to make the appointment, then at the request of the other party, the arbitrators already appointed shall be the sole arbitrators; and if the arbitrators shall fail to appoint a fifth arbitrator, either originally, or by way of substitution as aforesaid, within fifteen days after they are at liberty to appoint a fifth arbitrator, and after either party shall have served them with a written notice to make such appointment, then each of the parties may nominate for such fifth arbitrator a person having such qualifications as aforesaid, who shall, if they nominate the same person, be the fifth arbitrator, and if the parties nominate different persons, then one of them shall be chosen the fifth arbitrator, by lot to be drawn in the presence of the arbitrators, or such one or more of them as shall attend, by one of the arbitrators appointed by the U. Company, or if there is not one of them present, and willing to draw, then by one of the arbitrators appointed by the S. N. Company. And every arbitrator, appointed as hereinbefore provided, as a substitute, shall have the same powers and authority as the arbitrator for whom he is substituted would have had if he had acted or continued to act.

6. The U. Company agrees that, upon notice given to it from time to time by the S. N. Company, that any branch, or extension, or second track or line of its railway comprised in the indenture of mortgage dated the 1st of August, , and mentioned in the schedule hereto, has been completed for use for any specified distance, not less than five miles, in addition to the said 1,500 miles already completed as aforesaid, and connected with the railway of the U.

Company, or its system, the U. Company will cause such section so completed forthwith to be inspected by its chief engineer or acting chief engineer, and if he shall report that the same is completed, ready for use, as herein provided, the U. Company will at once approve and accept the same.

7. The U. Company agrees that it will from time to time, at the request of the S. N. Company, indorse and execute upon each of the consolidated first mortgage bonds of the S. N. Company, certified in accordance with the provisions of the said indenture of mortgage of the 1st day of August, 188 , and intended to be issued in respect of the said 1,500 miles of railway already completed, or of any section of railway hereafter completed, and approved, and accepted as hereinbefore provided, a guarantee in the words following:

The S. N. Railway Company, the obligor herein, having granted to the U. Railway Company certain perpetual rights, privileges, and easements, and having also entered into a perpetual agreement with it for the interchange of business, dated the day of , 188 , and the U. Railway Company, in consideration thereof, having agreed, as therein provided, to such a division of joint earnings as shall be sufficient, with the other net earnings of the S. N. Railway Company, to provide for the payment of the interest as it becomes due on this series of bonds; now, in consideration thereof, and of one dollar to it in hand paid by the said obligor, the U. Railway Company hereby guarantees to the holder hereof for the time being that the obligor herein will pay each of the coupons attached to this bond when it falls due.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the U. Railway Company hath caused this undertaking to be executed under its corporate seal.

[SEAL.]

U. Railway Company,

By President.

ATTEST:

 , Secretary.

8. In case the S. N. Company shall not pay the interest of the bonds for the time being secured by the indentures mentioned in the schedule hereto, as it becomes due and payable, and the principal of the said bonds when it becomes due and payable, then the U. Company shall be at liberty to make all or any of the said payments in respect of which the S. N. Company shall be in default, but without discharging the liability of the S. N. Company in respect thereof, and the U. Company shall, to the extent of such payments by it, be subrogated to and have all rights and claims against the S. N. Company, and the railway and property comprised in the said mortgage, and all benefit of the provisions of the said indenture that the holders of the said bonds were entitled to.

9. The S. N. Company agrees that so much of the said gross receipts from joint traffic as it shall be entitled to in any calendar year shall be applied by it, and be subject to the trust that the same shall be applied to the payment of the interest of the said bonds, or such of the said interest as shall become due and payable during the same year, or within four months thereafter, except so far as the same shall be required for payment of its said expenses, taxes, and repairs.

10. And it is further declared and agreed between the parties hereto that it is a fundamental consideration of the covenants and agreements of the U. Company, as herein contained, that the railway of the S. N. Company, when and as completed, shall be worked in connection and in harmony with the railway of the U. Company, as herein provided, and never in hostility thereto, and that traffic shall be interchanged in perpetuity between the said companies, as herein provided, and that it is in reliance upon this that the U. Company has entered into this contract. And the better to enable the U. Company to secure itself against loss by reason of its compliance with the terms of this contract, the S. N. Company hereby further agrees with the U. Company that it will, upon its demand therefor, execute to it an indenture of mortgage of the railway and properties of the S. N. Company, conditioned to secure to the U. Company that the S. N. Company will during the existence of this contract, comply with all the terms thereof on its part, with provision therein entitling the U. Company, for its better security to the possession and use of the said railway and properties of the S. N. Company, before as well as after default on the part of the S. N. Company, under which indenture the U. Company shall have the rights of a mortgagee in possession for its security and benefit. It is further agreed that meanwhile, and until such indenture shall be executed, anything in the foregoing agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, to the end of securing the U. Company as aforesaid, the U. Company may enter upon the possession of the said railway of the S. N. Company already completed, and of all sections of its railway hereafter constructed, upon the completion and acceptance thereof as hereinbefore provided, in which case the U. Company hereby agrees with the S. N. Company that it will work such railway in the same manner as the S. N. Company is now or may at any time hereafter be required by law to do, and that the U. Company shall and will at all times during the continuance of this agreement, and while it is so in possession, maintain, preserve, and keep the said railway and property, and every part of the same, in repair, and working order and condition, and, while in such possession, supply any rolling stock and equipment needed, to the end that the business of the said railway shall be preserved, encouraged, and developed, and the same done with safety and expedition, and the public accommodated in respect thereto, and shall and will, while so in possession, do and cause to be done, to and upon the said railways and property, such repairs and renewals as may be reasonably required, and will from time to time, while so in possession, pay and discharge any and all taxes upon the property of which it is in possession, and perform all the public duties of the said S. N. Company in respect of such railway and the working thereof, and the said U. Company, while so in possession, shall work the same in conformity with the requirements of this contract, and will keep full and accurate accounts of all business done upon the said railway, and of all moneys expended or liabilities incurred in connection therewith, in such manner as to show the sources from which moneys are received, and for what purposes expended, and to show the pro rata share of the earnings from the business passing from either of the lines of the parties hereto to the lines of the other, which accounts shall be kept separate and distinct from the accounts of any other railway, and so as to show the gross and net earnings of the said railway of the S. N. Company, which accounts shall be open to the inspection and examination of the president of the S. N. Company, and of the trustee or trustees of the said indenture of the 1st of August, , and the U. Company further covenants to furnish to the S. N. Company, and the said trustee or trustees, if requested, at least once in each year a duly authenticated account of the earnings, income, and receipts of the said railway, and the expenses of working the same, and of the expenditures made by the U. Company thereon, or in respect thereto, for repairs, renewals, or otherwise. The U. Company, while so in possession, shall make out and furnish to the S. N. Company, or to any public officials entitled to demand or receive the same, any and all reports or statements which the S. N. Company is now or may hereafter be required to make or file by virtue of the laws applicable thereto. And the U. Company, while so in possession, shall and will pay and discharge from the earnings of the S. N. Company any and all expenses, costs, damages, and liabilities which shall arise out of the possession and management of the said railway, or out of the business of the same, and will defend all actions, suits, and claims which shall be brought against the S. N. Company, during such time, in respect thereto, and the president and vice-presidents of the S. N. Company shall have the right to travel over the said railway at all times, without charge, for the purpose of inquiring into and examining the business of the same. It is furthermore agreed between the parties hereto, that the U. Company may, after entering into and upon such possession, elect to surrender the same to the S. N. Company, in which case the S. N. Company shall work the said railway in conformity with this contract, and with all the provisions thereof, and shall keep and perform the same in all respects.

11. It is declared that the agreements herein contained are made between and for the benefit of only the parties hereto, and may be altered, or put an end to at any time by the parties. And the invalidity of any one or more of the agreements and provisions herein contained shall not impair or affect the validity of any other, or defeat the substantial purpose hereof. And in case it happens that any of the agreements and provisions herein contained is invalid by reason that the same is beyond the powers of the parties hereto, or either of them, or contrary to some provision of law, or for any other reason, then no liability shall arise or exist on the part of either of the parties hereto, or any officer of either of them, to the other party or any other person by reason of the attempted making of such agreement or provision, or by reason of its invalidity, or any act or thing previously done, or afterwards to be done in pursuance hereof. And the agreements herein contained on the part of the U. Company shall determine and cease to be binding on the U. Company, if it be the law, and shall be so determined by the final judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, that the provisions of this agreement are so far invalid that the U. Company is not entitled by virtue thereof to possess and work the railway of the S. N. Company, as herein provided, and to enforce the performance and observance by the S. N. Company of its agreements herein contained, for or in respect of the working of its railway as a continuous line, and in connection with that of the U. Company, and for the apportionment of the receipts from the joint traffic. And in such case the U. Company, if it is then in possession of the said railway and property of the S. N. Company, shall deliver up possession of the same to the S. N. Company, with all additions and improvement thereto, and free from all obligations and liabilities incurred in the working of the said railway by the U. Company.

12. In case the U. Company, while in possession of the railway of the S. N. Company, by virtue of the provisions hereof, shall fail to pay the interest of the said bonds, so far as the earnings of the railway of the S. N. Company shall be sufficient for that purpose, after paying its working expenses, taxes, and repairs hereinbefore mentioned, and such default shall continue for ninety days after such interest shall have been demanded, then it shall be lawful for the S. N. Company, without any process of law, peaceably to enter into and upon its said railway and premises, and re-possess itself of the same.

13. Nothing contained in these presents is intended or shall be taken or construed to create a mortgage, or pledge, or charge at law, or in equity, of, or upon any property or earnings of the U. Company, or to impair or affect any duty or obligation of the U. Company to the government of the United States under its charter, or any act of congress.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said S. N. Railway Company and the said U. Railway Company have hereto affixed their respective common seals, and caused these presents to be signed by their respective presidents, and attested by their respective secretaries, the day and year first above written.

II. STATUTORY FORMS AND FORMS IN GENERAL USE IN THE VARIOUS STATES.

ALASKA.

1235. Mining Lease.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , 19 , between , lessor, and , lessee, WITNESSETH, that the said lessor, for and in consideration of the rents, royalties, covenants and agreements hereinafter agreed upon, and by the said lessee to be paid, kept and performed, has granted, demised and let and by these presents does grant, demise and let unto the said lessee all the following described mine and premises situate in mining district in the territory of Alaska, United States of America, to wit: [description].

To HAVE AND TO HOLD unto the said lessee the said mining property together with the appurtenances for the term of years from the date hereof, expiring at noon on the day of , 19 , unless sooner forfeited or determined through violation on the part of said lessee of any covenant herein contained.

And in consideration of the said lease, the said lessee does covenant and agree with said lessor as follows, to wit:

To enter upon said mine and premises and at his own expense work the same mine-fashion according to the prevailing rules of good and economical mining and to take out the greatest amount of gold possible with due regard to the safety, development and preservation of the said premises as a workable mine.

To work said mine, as aforesaid, steadily and continuously from the date of this lease during those months and days of the year that mines of a similar kind in the same locality are worked.

To allow said lessor and his duly authorized agents to enter upon all parts of said mine at any time for the purpose of inspection, with every access to all sluice-ways, sluice-boxes and rockers and to use all other facilities necessary or convenient to enable said lessor to properly inspect said mine; and, in case said mine is worked by using ground sluice-ways or sluice-boxes, or both, or in any other manner requiring a periodical clean-up, a clean-up shall be had both as to time and manner according to the prevailing usages of miners in said vicinity; and said lessee shall, days prior to any clean-up, give said lessor, or his duly authorized agent, written notice of his intention to make a clean-up in which shall be specified the time when such clean-up will begin; and it is agreed that, as to all mining operations on said premises conducted by sluicing either on the ground or by means of sluice-boxes or in any other manner requiring a periodical clean-up, all gold and other precious metals dug from said mine shall be and remain the property of said lessor until after clean-up had as above stipulated; at which time such gold and other precious metals shall be divided, per cent. thereof to be retained by said lessor and per cent. thereof to be paid to said lessee; and as to all mining operations on said premises conducted by panning or by rocking or by any other means than by sluicing, the title and ownership of all gold and precious metals so mined shall be and remain in said lessor and held and retained by said lessee as lessor's agent until such a time as an accounting may be had between the parties hereto, at which time per cent. of such gold and other precious metals shall be retained by said lessor and per cent. paid to said lessee; that such accounting may be had at any time upon written demand of either of the parties hereto served upon the other; but all gold and other precious metals dug from said mine by said lessee, his employees, agents or servants or his successors in interest after the termination of this lease, whether the same be terminated by lapse of time or notice as herein provided, shall at once become the property of said lessor and said lessee shall not have the right to any part thereof.

To not assign this lease or any interest thereunder and to not sub-let the said premises or any part thereof without the written assent of said lessor and to not allow any person or persons, except the said lessee and his workmen, to take or hold possession of said premises or any part thereof under any pretense whatever. And in case any lodes, ledges or any kinds of deposits of precious metal are discovered on said property while working under this lease, to not locate or record the same except in the name of said lessor; and said lessee is hereby given the power to locate and record any such lodes, ledges or deposits in the name of said lessor, provided the same are not already covered by said lessor's location or right; to keep at all times the shafts, drifts, tunnels and other passages and workings of said premises thoroughly drained and clear of loose rock and rubbish.

To deliver up to said lessor the said premises with the appurtenances and all improvements thereon by whomsoever made or erected, including all cabins, houses and sluice-boxes, with all the sluice-ways, shafts, tunnels and other passages thoroughly clear of rubbish and drained and the mine in all points ready for continued immediate working (accidents not arising from negligence alone excusing) without demand or further notice on the said day of , A. D. 19 , at noon or at any time previous upon demand in case any of the covenants of this lease shall have been violated by said lessee.

And, upon the violation by said lessee or any person under him of any covenant hereinbefore reserved, this lease shall at the option of said lessor expire and the said premises with the appurtenances and improvements above described shall become forfeited to said lessor and said lessor or his duly authorized agent may thereafter demand, in writing, immediate possession of said premises, enter upon the same and dispossess all persons in occupation thereof with or without force and with or without process of law, or, at the option of said lessor, said lessee and all persons found in occupation may be proceeded against as trespassers from the beginning of said term or as guilty of unlawful detainer.

Each and every clause and covenant of this indenture shall extend to the heirs, executors and administrators of all the parties hereto; and to the assigns of said lessor, and, as said lessor may elect, to the assigns of said lessee.

Whenever in this lease the term "duly authorized agent" of said lessor is referred to, the same is meant to refer to any person who is authorized in writing by said lessor to do the act or thing referred to and shall be made to include any person who shall have a general power of attorney to lease or let out on lays the mining property of said lessor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties, lessor and lessee, have hereunto set their hands and seals.

To HAVE AND TO HOLD, for the purpose of mining, with no power to assign or sub-let the whole or any part of said premises, for the term of from the date hereof. Said part of the second part, for and in consideration of the premises aforesaid, ha covenanted, contracted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant, contract and agree with said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators, successors or assigns, to commence work on said premises , and to work the same continuously and with reasonable diligence, in thorough and workmanlike manner, keeping the same securely timbered in all parts during the term of this lease; to keep accurate accounts, and to render statements, accompanied by vouchers, to the said part of the first part, agent or attorney, showing the amount of all ore taken from said premises and the yield of the same, and the cost of hauling and milling the same, and to pay to said part of the first part, agent or attorney, as rental for said premises, as follows, to wit:
 [give terms of rental].

Said part of the second part furthermore agree that the said part of the first part, agent or attorney, shall have the right at any and all times to enter upon and descend into any and all parts of said premises, and that the said part of the second part will render to all the assistance in power in so doing. Said part of the second part furthermore agree that if he shall discover in working said premises any side veins, spurs or feeders, said side veins, spurs or feeders shall be and remain the property of the said part of the first part.

It is expressly understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that this lease shall be void in case of a sale of said premises for a valuable consideration .

Said part of the second part furthermore agree that in case he fail to commence work on said premises as aforesaid, or to work the same continuously and with reasonable diligence and in workmanlike manner, or to keep the same securely timbered, or render said statements, or to pay said rentals as aforesaid, or in any respect to keep and fulfill any and all of the agreements herein expressed or implied, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the said part of the first part, agent or attorney, to declare this lease void and of no effect thereafter, and without process of law to enter upon and take possession of said premises; and in such case, as well as in case of a sale of said premises as aforesaid, and also at the expiration of this lease by limitation, said part of the second part agree to surrender, yield and deliver to said part of the first part, heirs, administrators, executors, successors and assigns, quiet and peaceable possession of said premises in good condition.

1239. Oil and Gas Lease.

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this day of , A. D. 19 , by and between , part of the first part, and , part of the second part,

WITNESSETH: That the said part of the first part, for and in consideration of the royalties hereinafter agreed to be paid and of the covenants and agreements hereinafter expressed to be kept and performed by the said part of the second part, ha leased, let and demised and by these presents do lease, let and demise unto the said part of the second part the following described premises, to wit: [description]

To HAVE AND TO HOLD unto the said part of the second part for the term of years from the date hereof; the said part of the first part hereby giving and granting to the part of the second part the following rights, powers and privileges, to wit, to prospect, bore, drill, mine and develop the said premises for oil and gas; to erect, construct and maintain machinery, tanks, pipe lines, refineries, tramways, cable lines, dwelling-houses and any and all structures which may be necessary or proper to be erected, constructed or maintained for the purpose of prospecting, boring, drilling and developing the said premises as aforesaid, and of storing, using and disposing of oil and gas found or discovered upon the said premises or upon premises in the vicinity thereof.

The said part of the second part covenant and agree as follows, to wit:

First. To pay and deliver as royalty to the said part of the first part per cent. of the net proceeds derived from all oil or gas obtained by virtue of this agreement,

Second. To commence in , county of , state of , within days from the date hereof to drill a well for oil and to continue the work thereon with due diligence until the said well shall have reached the depth of feet, or oil or gas has been discovered,

It is hereby further covenanted and agreed that any and all fixtures, buildings, machinery and improvements of every description erected upon the said land and premises under and by virtue of this lease may be removed within days from and after the termination of this agreement; that the said part of the second part shall have the right to take and use water from any ditch or ditches, stream or streams, spring or springs in and upon the said land and premises, so far as may be necessary for the operation of whatever machinery may be necessary or proper to be used on account of this agreement; that the said land and premises, and any part thereof, may be sublet, and any or all rights existing under and by virtue of this agreement may be assigned or transferred; that the title to any and all oil or gas found or discovered in or upon the said land and premises shall be in the said part of the second part, subject, however, to the payment of the royalty herein reserved to be paid; that if the said part of the second part shall fail in any respect to keep and fulfill any and all agreements herein expressed or implied, then, and in that case it shall be lawful for the said part of the first part, agent or attorney, to declare this lease void and of no effect thereafter, and without process of law to enter upon and take possession of said premises; and that in such case, or at the expiration of this lease by limitation, the said part of the second part shall surrender, yield and deliver to said part of the first part quiet and peaceable possession of said premises in good condition.

In consideration of the premises it is also further agreed by and between the parties hereto that the said part of the second part shall have the right and option to purchase all of the land and premises described herein upon the payment of dollars, as follows, to wit: on or before the day of , A. D. 19 ; a good and sufficient deed conveying all the right, title and interest of the said part of the first part to be delivered , to the said part of the second part upon the payment of the said consideration.

Each and every grant, promise and covenant herein made by either party hereto is and shall be a grant, promise and covenant of the heirs, administrators, executors, successors and assigns of such party, and any right, privilege or property herein granted to either of the parties hereto shall be a right, privilege and property of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of such party.

CONNECTICUT.

1242. Lease.

THIS INDENTURE, made by and between , of the first part, and of the second part, WITNESSETH, that the said party of the first part has leased and does hereby lease to the said party of the second part, [description] for the term of from the day of , A. D. 19 , for rent of dollars, payable in payments of dollars each, to wit: on the day of , in each year.

And the said party of the first part covenants with the said party of the second part: that he ha good right to lease said premises in manner aforesaid, and that will suffer and permit said party of the second part (keeping all covenants on part, as hereinafter contained), to occupy, possess and enjoy said premises during the term aforesaid, without hindrance or molestation from or any person claiming by, from or under .

And the said party of the second part covenants with the said party of the first part to hire said premises and to pay the rent therefor as aforesaid, also to pay gas and water rates, that will pay for the removal of all ashes, garbage or rubbish that may have accumulated on said premises, that will commit no waste, nor suffer the same to be committed thereon, nor injure nor misuse the same; and also that will not assign this lease, nor underlet a part or the whole of said leased premises, nor make alterations therein, nor use the same for any purpose but that thereinafore authorized, without written permission from the said party of the first part; but will deliver up the same at the expiration or sooner determination of tenancy, in as good condition as they now are in, ordinary wear, fire and other unavoidable casualties excepted.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, and it is further agreed, that if the said rent shall remain unpaid days after the same shall become payable as aforesaid, or if the said party of the second part shall assign this lease, or underlet or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of said demised premises, or use the same for any purpose but that hereinafore authorized, or make any alteration therein without the consent of the party of the first part in writing, or shall commit waste or suffer the same to be committed on said premises, or injure or misuse the same, or shall not perform and fulfill each and every of the covenants hereinbefore contained to be performed by said party of the second part, then this lease shall thereupon, by virtue of this express stipulation therein, expire and terminate, and the party of the first part may, at any time thereafter, re-enter said premises, and the same have and possess as of former estate, and without such re-entry, may recover possession thereof in the manner prescribed by the statute relating to summary process, it being understood that no demand for the rent, and no re-entry for condition broken, and at common law, shall be necessary to enable the lessor to recover such possession pursuant to said statute relating to summary process, but that all right to any such demand or any such re-entry is hereby expressly waived by the said party of the second part.

And it is further agreed between the parties hereto, that whenever this lease shall terminate, either by lapse of time or by virtue of any of the express stipulations therein, the said lessee hereby waives all right to any notice to quit possession, as prescribed by the statute relating to summary process.

And it is further agreed, that in case the said party of the second part shall with the written consent of said party of the first part indorsed hereon, or on the duplicate hereof, at any time hold over the said premises beyond the period above specified as the termination of this lease, then said party of the second part shall hold said premises upon the same terms and under the same stipulations and agreements as are in this instrument contained, and no holding over by said party of the second part shall operate to renew this lease without such written consent of said party of the first part.

And it is further agreed between the parties hereto that the lessee is to comply with and conform to all the laws of the state of Connecticut, and the by-laws, rules and regulations of the city and town within which the premises hereby leased are situated — relating to health, nuisance, fire, highways and sidewalks — so far as the premises hereby leased are or may be concerned; and to save the lessor harmless from all fines, penalties and costs for violations of or non-compliance with the same, said premises shall be at all times open to the inspection of said lessor agents to applicants for purchase or lease and for necessary repairs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals and to a duplicate of the same tenor and date, this day of ,
A. D. 19 .

1244. Lease.

THIS AGREEMENT, made this day of , A. D. 19 , by and between of , party of the first part, and of , party of the second part, hereinafter described as lessor and lessee, respectively.

WITNESSETH, that the said lessor, for and in consideration of the sum of dollars ($) rent, and also the covenants, conditions, and agreements herein contained, and on the part of the lessee to be paid, kept, and performed, and for no other consideration except as herein expressed, does hereby let and rent to the said lessee and he ha hereby taken as tenant of the lessor the following described premises, situate, lying, and being in the and known and designated as and being [description] for the term of , to commence with the day of , A. D. 19 , and to end on the day of , A. D. 19 , at the said rent of dollars ($), payable without demand at in monthly installments of dollars in advance on the day of each and every month during said term, beginning for the first of said payments on the day of , 19 , the receipt of one dollar ($1) of said rent paid by said lessee is hereby acknowledged by said lessor.

And the said lessee covenants and agrees to pay said lessor the said rent as aforesaid for the full term hereof; that will not assign this lease or any portion of the term, or sublet the premises or any part thereof, without the written consent of the lessor; that said lessee will not use or suffer to be used said premises for any disorderly or unlawful purpose, or for any other purpose than ; that he will not suffer or commit any waste to, in, or upon the said buildings, fixtures, and premises; that will at own expense during said term keep said leased premises, including the building , fixtures, plumbing, and appurtenances thereof in substantial condition and in good repair, clean, and in good working order and proper sanitary condition, remove snow and ice from the sidewalks thereof, and the lessor or said premises, and the said lessee has no authority to incur any debt or make any charge against the lessor or assigns or create any lien upon said leased property for any work or materials furnished the same.

And the lessee agrees that will at the end of tenancy surrender the said leased premises in such substantial condition and repair, good working order, etc., and clean, ordinary wear and tear and loss by fire and storm excepted; that will pay all charges for gas, electricity, and water used on said premises when the bills therefor become due and payable; that will not make any alterations or changes in said premises, without written consent, or increase the rate of fire insurance upon the building and improvements upon said premises beyond an ordinary risk.

It is further agreed that payment of rent shall cease if the said premises shall be destroyed by fire, or be so damaged by fire or any unavoidable casualty as to make the same uninhabitable.

Provided always, that if the rent aforesaid, or any installment thereof, shall not be paid within days after the same becomes due and payable as aforesaid, although no demand shall have been made for the same; or if the lessee or assigns shall fail or neglect to keep and perform each and every of the covenants, conditions, and agreements herein contained and on the part of the said lessee to be kept and performed, or if the same or any of them shall be broken, then and in each and every such case from thenceforth and at all times thereafter, at the option of the lessor or his assigns, the lessee's right of possession shall thereupon end and determine, and the lessor or his assigns shall be entitled to the possession of said leased premises, and to re-enter the same without demand of rent or demand of possession of the said premises, and may forthwith proceed to recover possession of the said leased premises by process of law, any notice to quit or of intention to re-enter the same being hereby expressly waived by the lessee and assigns.

And in the event of such re-entry by process of law, the lessee nevertheless agrees to remain answerable for any and all damages, deficiency or loss of rent which the lessor may sustain by such re-entry; and the lessor reserves full power, which is hereby acceded to by the lessee, to re-let the said premises for the benefit of the lessee.

And the lessee expressly covenants and agrees to pay said rent as aforesaid, and also keep and perform each and every of the covenants, conditions, and agreements herein contained.

It is mutually agreed that this lease shall bind the executors, administrators, and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

And it is further agreed, that no waiver of any breach of any covenant, condition, or agreement herein shall operate as a waiver of the covenant, condition, or agreement itself, or any subsequent breach thereof.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto signed their names and affixed their seals the day and the year first hereinbefore written.

That the party of the first part shall not be liable for any damage occasioned by failure to keep said premises in repair, and shall not be liable for any damage done or occasioned by or from plumbing, gas, water, steam, or other pipes, or sewerage, or the bursting, leaking or running of any cistern, tank, wash-stand, water closet or waste pipe in, above, upon or about said building or premises, nor for damage occasioned by water, snow or ice being upon or coming through the roof, skylight, trap door or otherwise, nor for any damages arising from acts or neglect of co-tenants or other occupants of the same building, or of any owners or occupants of adjacent or contiguous property. And the said first party shall have the right to enter said premises at any and all times, by himself or his employees, for the purpose of making any alterations, additions and improvements he may deem desirable, and the second party shall not be entitled to or claim from the party of the first part any damages or rebate resulting from the making of any alterations, additions or enlargements to said building. It is hereby agreed that the party of the first part shall not be held liable to the party of the second part for any loss or damage caused by the city of Chicago failing to provide adequate water, drainage or sewerage service, and that this lease is made subject thereto. It is hereby expressly agreed, by and between the parties hereto, that the party of the first part shall not be liable for any damage for injury or inconvenience caused by the impairment or cessation of the heating, water, light, or janitor service, growing out of or caused by any strike or strikes, labor troubles, unavoidable accident, or unusual or extraordinary condition of the coal market.

Fourth. That he will not allow said premises to be used for any purpose that will increase the rate of insurance thereon, nor for any purpose other than that hereinbefore specified, nor to be occupied, in whole or in part, by any other person, and will not sublet the same, nor any part thereof, nor assign this lease, without in each case the written consent of the party of the first part first had, and will not permit any transfer, by operation of law, of the interest in said premises acquired through this lease; and will not permit said premises to be used for any unlawful purpose or purposes that will injure the reputation of the same or of the building of which they are a part, or disturb the tenants of such building or the neighborhood; and will not permit the same to remain vacant or unoccupied for more than ten consecutive days; and will not permit any alteration of or upon any part of said demised premises, nor allow any signs or placards posted or placed thereon, except by written consent of first party; all alterations and additions to said premises shall remain for the benefit of the lessor unless otherwise provided in said consent as aforesaid.

Fifth. To pay (in addition to the rents above specified) all water rents and gas bills taxed, levied or charged on said demised premises, for and during the time for which this lease is granted, and in case no water rents are levied specifically upon said premises to pay the part of all water rents levied or charged upon the building in which said demised premises are situate; and in case said water rates and gas bills shall not be paid when due, said party of the first part shall have the right to pay the same, which amounts so paid, together with any sums paid by said party of the first part, to keep said premises and their appurtenances in a clean and healthy condition, as hereinbefore specified, are hereby declared to be so much additional indebtedness of the said party of the second part to the said party of the first part, and shall be due and payable with the next installment of rent due thereafter under this lease.

Sixth. To allow the party of the first part free access to the premises hereby leased for the purpose of examining or exhibiting the same, or to make any needful repairs or alterations in said premises, which said first party may see fit to make; also to allow to have placed upon said premises, at all times, notice of "For Sale" and "To Rent," and will not interfere with the same.

Seventh. If said party of the second part shall abandon or vacate said premises, the same shall be re-let by the party of the first part for such rent, and upon such terms as said first party may see fit; and if a sufficient sum shall not be thus realized, after paying the expenses of such re-letting and collecting, to satisfy the rent hereby reserved, the party of the second part agrees to satisfy and pay all deficiency.

Eighth. At the termination of this lease, by lapse of time or otherwise, to yield up immediate possession to said party of the first part, and failing so to do, to pay as liquidated damages, for the whole time such possession is withheld, the sum of dollars per day; but the provisions of this clause shall not be held as a waiver by said first party of any right of re-entry as hereinafter set forth; nor shall the receipt of said rent or any part thereof, or any other act in apparent affirmance of the tenancy, operate as a waiver of the right to forfeit this lease and the term hereby granted for the period still unexpired, for any breach of any of the covenants herein.

Ninth. It is further covenanted and agreed, by said party of the second part, that there shall not be kept or used on said premises, naphtha, benzine, benzole, gasoline, benzine-varnish, or any product, in whole or in part, of either, or gunpowder, fireworks, nitro glycerine, phosphorus, saltpetre, nitrate of soda, camphene, spirit-gas, or any burning fluid or chemical oils, without the written permission of the party of the first part; and the generating or evaporating or using on said premises or contiguous thereto, of gasoline, benzine, naphtha, or any other substance for a burning gas or vapor for lighting, other than the ordinary street gas or kerosene of lawful fire test, is absolutely prohibited unless permitted in writing hereon.

IT IS FURTHER COVENANTED AND AGREED, by said party of the second part, that said party will not permit any person to occupy any part of the premises above described, who is reputed to be of immoral character, or permit any person or persons to sing, dance, use any musical instrument after 11 o'clock at night, or do or permit anything to be done which can in any wise molest or annoy other tenants in the premises, or prevent other tenants from having their nightly rest, or which in any wise may injure the good reputation of the above described premises. And in case said party of the second part shall violate said covenant or agreement, said party of the first part, or his representatives, shall have the right and power and is hereby authorized by said party of the second part so to do, to at once declare said lease ended without notice to said party of the second part, and with all necessary force to repossess himself of the premises demised as above stated, and expel, oust and remove all parties who may occupy any part of said premises and any and all goods and chattels that may be therein contained, and said party of the first part shall not be liable for any damage or damages that may be occasioned to either person or persons by reason of such removal, expulsion or ousting; nor for any damage or damages to or loss of any goods or chattels belonging to any party occupying said premises or any part thereof by any cause whatsoever by reason of such removal or ousting from the premises aforesaid or the building in which they are situated. And the said party of the second part hereby agrees, acknowledges and covenants, with the said party of the first part, that said party of the second part has examined the gas range located in the above named premises and finds the same in perfect condition, and will keep the same in such condition at own expense, and will not permit any person to use the same who is not familiar with the use of gas ranges, and will pay to said party of the first part any and all damages that may be occasioned by the careless use of said range, whether caused by the negligence of said party of the second part or any of employees and persons living with said party; and will also keep said party of the first part harmless from any and all suits that may be brought against him by any person or persons by reason of the negligent or careless use of said gas range.

Said party of the second part hereby agrees to provide all garbage cans and ash cans required by the ordinances of the city of Chicago.

Said party of the second part in consideration of said demise and one dollar in hand paid him this day, hereby agrees to assume and does hereby assume all risk of and liability for damages to person or property and damages of any and all kinds arising from present and future defective conditions of said premises, both latent and manifest, and to save said party of the first part harmless therefrom during the period of this lease and all extensions of same, and hereby releases said party of the first part therefrom.

IT IS EXPRESSLY AGREED, between the parties hereto, that if default be made in the payment of the rent above reserved or any part thereof, or in any of the covenants and agreements herein contained, to be kept by the party of the second part, it shall be lawful for the party of the first part or the legal representatives of said party, at any time thereafter, at the election of said first party, or the legal representatives thereof, without notice, to declare said term ended, and to re-enter said demised premises or any part thereof, either with or without process of law, and the said party of the second part or any person or persons occupying the same, to expel, remove and put out, using such force as may be necessary so to do, and the said premises again to repossess and enjoy, as before this demise, without prejudice to any remedies which might otherwise be used for arrears of rent or preceding breach of covenants, and said party of the second part further covenants and agrees, that said party of the first part, or the representatives or assigns of said party, shall have, at all times, the right to distrain for rent due, and shall have a valid and first lien upon all property of said party of the second part, which now has or owns or may hereafter acquire or have an interest in, whether exempt by law or not, as security for the payment of the rent herein reserved.

IT IS FURTHER EXPRESSLY AGREED, between the parties hereto that if default be made in the payment of the rent above reserved, or any installment or any part thereof or any part of the indebtedness as herein provided, thereupon, and from time to time as often as any such default shall be made, it shall be lawful for, and the party of the second part hereby irrevocably authorizes any attorney of any court of record to appear in the name, place and stead of said party of the second part in any court of record in any of the states or territories of the United States in term time or vacation; to waive the service of process or processes, and in writing to waive the right of trial by jury, and from time to time to confess judgment or judgments in favor of the said party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns and against the said party of the second part for the amount of rent and indebtedness due and in default as aforesaid, with interest thereon at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum to the day of the entry of said judgment or judgments, together with the costs of such proceeding or proceedings, and twenty ($20) dollars attorney's fees each and every time a judgment shall be entered for rent due under this lease for plaintiff's attorney's fees; also to file a cognovit or cognovits for the said amount or amounts with an agreement or agreements therein waiving and releasing all errors that may intervene in any such proceeding or proceedings, consenting to immediate execution or executions upon such judgment or judgments, and stipulating that no writ of error or appeal shall be prosecuted on the judgment or judgments entered by virtue hereof, nor any bill in equity filed to interfere in any manner with the operation of said judgment or judgments.

And said party of the second part hereby ratifies and confirms all that the said attorney may lawfully do by virtue hereof.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, by the parties hereto, that after the service of notice, or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment for possession of said premises, the first party may receive and collect any rent due, and the payment of said rent shall not waive or affect said notice, said suit, or said judgment.

In case said premises shall be rendered untenable by fire or other casualty, the lessor may, at his option, terminate this lease, or repair said premises within thirty days, and failing so to do, or upon the destruction of said premises by fire, the term hereby created shall cease and determine.

The party of the second part further covenants and agrees to pay and discharge all reasonable costs, attorney's fees and expenses that shall be made and incurred by the party of the first part in enforcing the covenants and agreements of this lease; and all the parties to this lease agree that the covenants and agreements herein contained shall be binding upon, apply and inure to their respective heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

THIS INDENTURE, made this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19 ____, between _____, party of the first part, and _____, party of the second part, WITNESSETH, that the party of the first part, for and in consideration of the covenants and agreements hereinafter mentioned, to be kept and performed by the party of the second part, has demised and leased to the party of the second part, the premises in the city of _____, county of _____, and state of _____, known and described as follows, to wit: [description]

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same unto the party of the second part, from the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19 ____, until the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19 ____, to use the said demised premises for the business of the party of the second part, of _____, and the party of the first part agrees to furnish to the party of the second part, all the steam power needed by the party of the second part, not exceeding _____ horse power; the said power shall be furnished for _____ hours and _____ minutes each working day, except on Saturdays, on which day said power shall be furnished for _____ hours and _____ minutes. Sundays, Christmas, January First, July Fourth and Thanksgiving day are not to be considered as working days. The said power is to be furnished from pulley _____. And said power is to be measured when all the machinery of the party of the second part is in operation. During the hours and minutes power is agreed to be furnished, the party of the first part also agrees to furnish the party of the second part the use of the elevator in the building containing said demised premises, as the said business of the party of the second part shall require.

The party of the first part allows and assures to the party of the second part ingress from _____ street, to said demised premises, and egress therefrom to said last mentioned street, during the term of this lease.

The party of the first part also agrees to furnish to the party of the second part steam heat by means of steam coils, put in place and kept in repair by the party of the first part, and to maintain such heat at a reasonable and customary degree of temperature, during the times said power shall be furnished and used as hereinbefore provided.

The party of the first part also agrees to provide a water pipe and faucet, a sink and a water closet, in the said demised premises, and to maintain and supply a head of water to operate the same.

The party of the second part covenants and agrees to pay to the party of the first part as rent for the said demised premises and power (exclusive of the amount agreed to be paid for extra power and power over time, as hereinafter provided), the sum of _____ dollars, in monthly installments of _____ dollars each, payable in advance, on the first day of each calendar month during said term.

The party of the second part also covenants and agrees that he has examined and know the condition of said premises, and has received said premises in good order and repair, and will keep the same in a clean and neat condition, and will repair all damage to said premises or the shafting and machinery conveying said power occasioned by the fault or negligence of the party of the second part; and will keep properly oiled, all the shafting of the party of the first part in said demised premises; and will not allow said demised premises to be used for any purpose that will increase the rate of insurance upon the building containing the same, or increase the danger from fire to said building, nor for any purpose other than that hereinbefore specified, nor to be occupied in whole or in part by any other person, and will not sublet the same, nor any part thereof, nor assign this lease, without in each case the written consent of the party of the first part had; and will not permit any transfer by operation of law of the interest in said premises acquired through this lease; and will not permit said premises to be used for any unlawful purpose, or purpose that will injure the reputation of the same, or of the building of which they are a part, or disturb the other tenants of said building; and will not make any alterations upon said demised premises, without the written consent of the party of the first part; and upon the termination of this lease in any way, will restore said demised premises to the party of the first part in as good condition as when entered upon by the party of the second part; less occasioned by the burning of the building containing said premises and ordinary wear excepted; and that all alterations or additions to said premises made by the party of the second part, shall remain for the benefit of the party of the first part, unless otherwise stipulated in said consent hereinbefore provided to be obtained before making such alteration or addition.

IT IS COVENANTED AND AGREED between the parties hereto, that the party of the first part shall keep the shafting, appliances and machinery in said demised premises hereby rented to the party of the second part, in good repair during the term of this lease, excepting repairs necessitated by injuries thereto occasioned by the fault, negligence or misconduct of the party of the second part, which repairs the party of the second part covenants and agrees to make; and that the party of the first part shall be allowed an aggregate of fifty working hours in each year for necessary stoppages for repairs of machinery conveying power; and if in any year repairs shall be necessitated, without the fault of the party of the second part, requiring stoppages of said machinery for more than fifty hours in the aggregate, the party of the second part shall be allowed to retain, in full payment for all damages occasioned by such stoppages, a part of the yearly rent hereinbefore agreed to be paid, proportionate to the excess of such stoppages, over fifty hours, compared with the working hours in the year; and the balance of the rent hereinbefore agreed to be paid shall be received by the party of the first part, in full payment of the rent for such year. The said party of the first part shall also furnish to the party of the second part, additional power over and above the amount of horse power hereinbefore stipulated and contracted for, in case the party of the second part shall need and demand the same, or shall use additional power above the horse power hereinbefore stipulated and contracted for, whether such additional power shall have been demanded or not, in either case the party of the second part shall pay for such additional power at the rate of dollars per month for each horse power, which shall be considered and paid as additional rent to the rent hereinbefore reserved.

The party of the first part shall also furnish steam power to the party of the second part, at such other times during said term, besides during the working hours and times hereinbefore stipulated and contracted for, as shall be needed or used by the party of the second part, who shall pay for the same at the rate of per hour, for all extra or over time during which the same shall have been used, which shall be considered and paid for as extra rent in addition to the rent hereinbefore reserved; and the party of the second part shall give due notice when he shall want any power for extra or over time.

The party of the first part shall also have the privilege of putting iron doors or shutters at any or all of the windows or doors of the said demised premises, at any time during the term of this lease, and the party of the second part covenants and agrees to close and keep closed, all doors and shutters that may be so placed, except during working hours.

The party of the first part, agents and employees, shall be allowed to enter and be upon said demised premises at any and all reasonable times, for the purpose of examining, making connections with and repairing whatever shafting or machinery belonging to the party of the first part may be in said demised premises, and for the purpose of ascertaining what power the party of the second part may be using, and for such other purposes as the party of the first part, agents or employees, may desire, not inconsistent with the purposes and objects of this lease.

The party of the second part agrees to pay in addition to any money herein elsewhere agreed to be paid, for any damage to the building containing said demised premises, or to the property of any other tenant in said building, caused by any overflow of water from the faucet, sink or water closet in said demised premises.

IT IS EXPRESSLY AGREED between the parties hereto, that if the party of the second part shall abandon or vacate said premises, or if by reason of the failure of said second party to perform any of the covenants herein agreed to be performed by said second party, said first party shall have taken possession of said demised premises, by a proceeding at law in forcible detainer, or in any other manner, then, if thought advisable by the party of the first part, said first party shall have full power and authority to relet the said demised premises, and if a sufficient sum shall not be thus realized, after paying the expenses of such reletting and collecting, to satisfy the rent hereby reserved, and pay and discharge all sums of money that may be due or owing to the party of the first part, under or by reason of the breach of any provision of this lease, the party of the second part shall pay and satisfy all deficiency.

AND IT IS FURTHER EXPRESSLY AGREED between the parties hereto, that if default be made in the payment of the rent above reserved, or any installment or any part thereof, as herein provided, thereupon and from time to time as often as any such default shall be made, it shall be lawful for, and the party of the second part hereby authorizes, any attorney of any court of record to appear in the name, place and stead of said party of the second part in any court of record in term time or in vacation, to waive the service of process or processes, and in writing to waive his right to a trial by jury, and to confess a judgment or judgments in favor of the said party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, and against the said party of the second part for the amount of rent due and in default as aforesaid, with lawful interest thereon to the day of the entry of such judgment or judgments, together with the costs of such proceeding or proceedings, and twenty-five dollars attorney's fees each, and every time a judgment shall be entered for rent due under this lease for plaintiff's attorney's fees; also to file a cognovit or cognovits for the said amount or amounts with an agreement or agreements therein waiving and releasing all errors which may intervene in any such proceeding or proceedings, and consenting to immediate execution or executions upon such judgment or judgments. And said party of the second part hereby ratifies and confirms all that the said attorney may lawfully do by virtue hereof.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED by the parties hereto, that after the service of notice, or the commencement of a suit, or after final judgment for possession of said premises, the first party may receive and collect any rent due, and the payment of said rent shall not waive or affect said notice, said suit, or said judgment.

The party of the second part further covenants and agrees that he will pay and discharge all reasonable costs, attorneys' fees and expenses that shall be made and incurred by the party of the first part in enforcing the covenants and agreements of this lease; and all the parties to this lease agree that the covenants and agreements herein contained shall be binding upon their respective heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

In case said premises shall be rendered untenable by fire or other casualty, the party of the first part may, at option, terminate this lease, or repair said premises within thirty days, and failing to do so, or upon the destruction of the building containing said premises by fire, the term hereby created shall cease and determine.

WITNESS the hands and seals of the parties hereto, the day and year first above written.

1251. Farm Lease.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , A. D. 19 , between , part of the first part and landlord , and part of the second part and tenant , WITNESSETH, that the part of the first part, in consideration of the rents, agreements and covenants hereinafter contained, to be paid, delivered, kept and performed by said tenant , executors, administrators and assigns, by these presents ha demised and to farm let, unto said tenant , executors and administrators, the following lands and premises, situate in the county of , and state of Illinois, to wit: [description] excepting and reserving the right of ingress, egress and regress, to the part of the first part, heirs and assigns, at any and all times, and excepting the timber and fruit trees and shrubbery growing thereon, and reserving the right to set and plant on any part of said premises fruit or ornamental trees, hedges and shrubbery, and to make such improvements thereon as said landlord, heirs or assigns may desire. To have and to hold said demised premises, with all the appurtenances, except as above reserved, unto said tenant, executors and administrators, from the day of , A. D. 19 , to the day of , A. D. 19 .

And the said tenant for executors, administrators and assigns, in consideration of such leasing covenant and agree to and with said landlord, heirs and assigns, in manner and form following, that is to say:

1. Not to underlet said premises, or any part thereof, nor to assign said lease or term, without the written permission of said landlord, heirs or assigns.

2. Not at any time to do or commit, or suffer to be done, any willful or voluntary waste, spoil or destruction in or upon said premises, or any part thereof, nor of any crops or products of said premises, before said landlord shall have received full rent or share thereof, nor of any crops, rent or share of said landlord left on said premises.

3. Not to sell, encumber, market or remove, or cause or suffer to be removed from said premises, any kind of grain, crop or product of said premises, until after said landlord shall first have received and accepted just and full share thereof, as hereinafter provided, nor to pasture the corn-stalks or any of said premises at any time, without the written permission of said landlord first had and obtained.

4. To plow, sow, plant, cultivate and attend said land, not in meadow, in proper season, and in good and farm-like manner, and in due and regular course of husbandry; to care for and preserve the crops while standing or growing; to cut, gather, harvest, put up and preserve the several crops and productions in their order and in good season; to preserve and keep the fruit and ornamental trees, vines and shrubbery, that now are or shall be planted on the premises, from injury by plowing, or from cattle, horses, sheep or otherwise.

5. To scatter and expend upon said premises all the manure and compost, suitable to be used; such manure as is unfit for use to leave upon said premises for future use thereon; and not to burn any stalks or straw or stubble on said premises.

6. To deliver to said landlord of all the hay and other grasses grown upon said premises, and of all the straw .

7. To deliver to said landlord as rent of all the wheat, rye, oats and other small grain, properly threshed and cleaned, ready for market, at , on or before the day of , A. D. 19 , the same to be measured and divided, after it is threshed and cleaned, and of all the corn and other produce grown and raised upon said premises; the corn to be well husked, and delivered before said tenant gather own portion thereof, or any part of portion, and on or before the day of , A. D. 19 , at . Or should said tenant prefer, the whole of said corn grown and raised shall all be gathered and husked, and then be divided by weight or measurement.

8. To keep said premises, including the hedges and fences, in proper and necessary repair, provided that, if necessary, the landlord shall furnish such materials as may be needful to repair the fences within a reasonable time of being notified of its want.

9. To deliver up said premises at the end of said term, or upon its determination by said landlord for the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants and agreements herein made, in as good order as when received, ordinary wear and decay by use and time, and inevitable accidents by fire or the elements alone excepted.

10. It is hereby further covenanted, understood and agreed, that the part of the first part reserve and retain unto sel or agent, the right of entry upon said premises for the purpose of fall plowing any ground which may have been sown to small grain in the spring or fall preceding.

AND IT IS EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED by and between the parties aforesaid, that if the said tenant shall neglect or fail to cultivate and farm said premises, or any part thereof, or to care for and protect the same, or to harvest and gather the same in time, as hereinbefore covenanted and agreed, so that the crops and produce of said premises shall in consequence thereof fall short of what might have been produced and saved, none of the loss occasioned thereby shall fall upon said landlord, but shall receive share of what might have been produced and secured and saved, had said tenant fully kept and performed covenants and agreements, and if not paid or delivered to, may distrain therefor, the same as for share of the crops raised and secured.

AND FURTHER, that if said tenant shall remove or attempt to remove from said premises, or sell or transfer any of the crops grown thereon, before the same has been divided and the landlord has received proper share hereof, the said tenant shall forfeit to said landlord the whole of the crops and produce raised and grown on said premises, and said landlord shall have full right to re-enter said premises, and seize and take and hold all the crops and produce so raised and grown, and to maintain all proper actions and remedies therefor without any previous demand, which is hereby expressly waived.

AND FURTHER, that if the rent above reserved shall be unpaid in the kind on the day when the same ought to be delivered, as aforesaid, or any part thereof be not delivered at the proper time; or if default be made by said tenant in the keeping and performing of any of covenants and agreements, it shall and may be lawful for said landlord, heirs and assigns, agent or attorneys, at election, to declare said term ended, and into the said demised premises, or any part thereof, either with or without process of law, to re-enter, and the said tenant or any other person or persons occupying, in or upon the same, to expel, remove and put out, using such force as may be necessary in so doing, and the said premises again to re-possess and enjoy as in first and former estate; and to distrain for any rent that may or ought to be due thereon, upon any property belonging to said tenant, assigns or sub-lessee, whether the same be free from execution and distress by law or not, all exemptions by law being hereby expressly waived in favor of said landlord, executors, administrators or assigns, for rent or for damages growing out of the breach or non-performance of any of the covenants and agreements herein.

AND FURTHER, if said premises are at any time abandoned, that said landlord, executors, administrators or assigns, shall have the right to take full possession thereof, and cultivate and harvest the crops growing thereon, and gather and take care of the same, and in that case to add to the rents and damages the costs and expenses incurred thereby, which may be retained out of said crops.

AND FURTHER, if at any time said term shall be ended at the election of said landlord, executors, administrators or assigns, said tenant hereby agree to surrender up the possession of said premises peaceably, immediately upon such termination, and if remain in possession thereof days after notice of such determination and demand of possession shall be deemed guilty of a forcible detainer of said premises under the statute, and subject to eviction thereunder, or by force.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

AND THE said party of the second part, in consideration of the leasing of the premises aforesaid, by the said party of the first part to the said party of the second part, does covenant and agree with said party of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, to pay the said party of the first part, as rent for said demised premises, at the office of , in , the sum of .

IT IS FURTHER COVENANTED AND AGREED, by the said party of the second part, that will pay or cause to be paid all water rates, and all taxes and assessments that may be laid, charged or assessed on said demised premises pending the existence of this lease, or if at any time after any tax, assessment, or water rate shall have become due or payable, the party of the second part, or legal representatives, shall neglect to pay such water rates, tax or assessment, it may be lawful for the party of the first part to pay the same at any time thereafter, and the amount of any and all such payments so made by the party of the first part shall be deemed and taken, and are hereby declared to be so much additional and further rent, for the above demised premises due from and payable by the party of the second part; and may be collected in the same manner, by distress or otherwise, as is hereinafter provided for the collection of other rents to grow due thereon.

AND IT IS EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, by the said party of the second part hereto, for heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that the whole amount of rent reserved, and agreed to be paid for said above demised premises, and each and every installment thereof, shall be and is hereby declared to be a valid and first lien upon any and all buildings and improvements on said premises, or that may at any time be erected, placed or put on said premises by said party of the second part, heirs, executors and administrators or assigns, and upon his or her or their interests in this lease, and the premises hereby demised; and that whenever, and as often as any installment of rent or any other amount above declared to be deemed and taken as rent, shall become due and remain unpaid for one day after the same becomes due and payable, said party of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators, agent, attorney, or assigns, may sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, after having first given ten days' notice of the time and place of such sale in some newspaper published in , all the buildings and improvements on said premises, and all the right, title and interest acquired by said party of the second part under this lease, to the premises herein described, and as the attorney of said party of the second part — hereby irrevocably constituted — may make to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a suitable and proper transfer, bill of sale, or deed of the same, and out of the proceeds arising from such sale, after first paying all costs and expenses of such sale, including commissions and attorney's fees, retain to himself the whole amount due on said lease, up to the date of said sale, rendering the surplus (if any) to said party of the second part, heirs, executors, administrators, agent, attorney, or assigns, which sale shall be a perpetual bar to and against all rights and equities of said party of the second part, heirs and assigns in and to the property sold.

AND the party of the second part further covenants with the party of the first part, that will keep said demised premises in a clean and wholesome condition, in accordance with the ordinances of the city, and directions of the health officers, and that, at the expiration of the time in this lease mentioned, will yield up said premises to the party of the first part, in as good condition as when the same were entered upon by the party of the second part, loss by fire, or inevitable accident, and ordinary wear excepted.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, by the party of the second part, that neither nor legal representatives, will underlet said premises, or any part thereof, or assign this lease, without the written assent of said party of the first part first had and obtained thereto, nor use, or suffer them to be used, for any other purpose calculated to injure the reputation of the premises, or of the neighborhood, or to impair the value of the surrounding neighborhood property for present use or otherwise.

IT IS EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, by and between the parties aforesaid, that if the rent above reserved, or any part thereof, shall be behind or unpaid, on the day of payment, whereon it ought to be paid, as aforesaid, or if default shall be made in any of the covenants herein contained to be kept by the party of the second part, executors, administrators, or assigns, it shall or may be lawful for the party of the first part, or heirs, executors, administrators, agent, attorney, or assigns, at election, to declare said term ended, and into the said demised premises, or any part thereof, either with or without process of law, to re-enter, and the party of the second part, or any other person or persons occupying, in or upon the same, to expel, remove and put out, using such force as may be necessary in so doing, and the said premises again to repossess and enjoy, as in first and former estate; and to distrain for any rent that may be due thereon, upon any property belonging to the party of the second part, whether the same be exempt from execution and distress by law or not; and the party of the second part, in that case, hereby waives all legal rights which he now ha , or may have, to hold or retain any such property under any exemption laws now in force in this state, or in any other way; meaning and intending hereby to give the party of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators, agent, attorney or assigns, a valid and first lien upon any and all the goods, chattels, or other property belonging to the party of the second part, as security for the payment of said rent, in manner aforesaid, anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And if at any time said term shall be ended at such election of said party of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators, agent, attorney or assigns, as aforesaid, or in any other way, the party of the second part do hereby covenant and agree to surrender and deliver up said above described premises and property, peaceably, to the said party of first part, heirs, executors, administrators, agent, attorney or assigns, immediately upon the determination of said term as aforesaid; and if shall remain in possession of the same one day after notice of such default, or after the termination of this lease, in any of the ways above named shall be deemed guilty of a forcible detainer of the premises under the statute, and shall be subject to all the conditions and provisions above named, and to eviction and removal, forcibly or otherwise, with or without process of law, as above stated.

AND IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, by the said party of the second part, that neither the right given in this lease to said party of the first part, to collect the rent that may be due under the terms of this lease by sale, or any proceedings under the same, shall in any way affect the right of said party of the first part to declare this lease void and the term hereby created ended, as above provided upon default made by said party of the second part.

AND the said party of the second part hereby waives right to any notice from said party of the first part, of election to declare this lease at an end, under any of its provisions, or any demand for the payment of rent, or the possession of premises leased herein; but the simple fact of the non-payment of the rent reserved shall constitute a forcible detainer as aforesaid.

THE said party of the second part further agrees not to remove any buildings or other improvements from said premises, without written consent of said party of the first part, and that the said second party shall pay and discharge all costs and attorney's fees and expenses that shall arise from enforcing the covenants of this indenture by the party of the first part.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, that all the conditions and covenants contained in this lease shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the parties to these presents, respectively.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

1253. Ninety-nine Year Lease—Alternative.

THIS INDENTURE, made and entered into this day of , A. D. 19 , between , of the city of , county of , and state of , party of the first part [hereinafter designated lessor], and , of the city of , county of , and state of , party of the second part [hereinafter designated lessee], WITNESSETH:

First. The first party hereto, the lessor , in consideration of the rents hereinafter reserved and of the covenants and agreements herein expressed on the part of the second party, the lessee , to be kept, performed and fulfilled, ha demised and leased and by these presents do demise and lease unto the lessee all the following described premises situated and being in the city of , county of , and state of . [description]

To HAVE AND TO HOLD the above described premises, with the rights, privileges, easements and appurtenances thereunto attaching and belonging, unto the lessee for and during the term of ninety-nine (99) years from and after the first (1st) day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and (A. D. 19); that is to say, from the first (1st) day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and (A. D. 19), for and during and until the thirtieth (30th) day of April, in the year of our Lord two thousand and (A. D. 20), paying rent therefor, and yielding possession thereof as hereinafter provided.

Second. The lessee in consideration of the leasing of the premises aforesaid of the lessor to h , the lessee , do hereby covenant and agree to and with the lessor to pay rent as follows:

THE LESSEE COVENANT AND AGREE to pay the lessor as rent for said demised premises during the said demised term of ninety-nine years, the yearly rent or sum of dollars ($), without any deduction or abatement whatever, which rental shall be paid in advance in four quarter yearly installments of dollars ($) each, on the first day of each of the months of May, August, November and February, which shall be in each and every year during the said demised term (); and all of said payments during said demised term shall be paid in such place in the city of , in the state of , or in the city of New York, in the state of

New York, as the lessor may from time to time previously designate in writing, and in default of such designation, then at said demised premises. And it is further stipulated and agreed, that all rent reserved and agreed to be paid under this lease shall be paid in standard gold coin of the United States of America; and that by the word "dollar," wherever used in this lease, is meant that each dollar shall contain at least twenty-five and eight-tenths (25.8) grains of gold of the standards of weight and fineness observed at the mints of the United States and fixed by its laws at the time of the execution of this instrument.

AND IT IS EXPRESSLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, by and between the parties that no acceptance by the lessor of any currency, legal tender, checks, coin, money or value whatever, except standard gold coin of the United States of America as hereinbefore specified, in payment of any installment or installments of rent, shall be construed to be a waiver on the part of the lessor of the right to demand the payment of any other unpaid installment or installments of rent in standard gold coin of the United States of America as hereinbefore specified.

Third. As a further consideration for the leasing and demising aforesaid, the said lessee further covenant, promise and agree to bear, pay and discharge, in addition to the said rent reserved, all rates, taxes, charges for revenue and otherwise, assessments and levies, general and special, ordinary and extraordinary, of every name, nature and kind whatsoever, including water rates, which may be taxed, charged, assessed, levied or imposed upon said premises, or upon any and all buildings and improvements thereon, and all which may be assessed, levied or imposed upon the leasehold estate hereby created and upon the reversionary estate in said premises during the term hereby granted, and so long thereafter as said lessee, his successors and assigns, shall occupy said demised premises. And it is further understood, covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that the first annual tax to be paid by the lessee shall be that for the year one thousand nine hundred and (A.D. 19), and the last that for the year two thousand and (A. D. 20), and the lessee further covenant and agree to obtain and deliver to the said lessor duplicate tax receipts of all taxes and assessments paid on said premises of every kind and nature whatsoever; and all such taxes and all such receipts shall be paid and made out in the name of the lessor, or his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns; and that the said duplicate tax receipts shall be sent by mail to said lessor, or one of them, on or before the first day of the tax sale for the year in which such taxes are payable of each and every year during the said demised term for all taxes and assessments for the year preceding.

Fourth. The lessee further covenant and agree to and with the lessor to erect, finish and complete at his own expense, with all reasonable dispatch, and with no further delays than may be necessary and unavoidable, upon the said demised premises a fire-proof building in a good and suitable manner, and have the same, in any event, complete and ready for occupancy and fully paid for, and free from all mechanics' liens, and free from any and all claims liable to ripen into mechanics' liens, on or before the first day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred _____ (A. D. 19____), which building shall not be less than _____ stories in height; to be well lighted in front and rear; to be in value not less than _____ dollars; to be constructed in accordance with the building ordinances of the city of _____; all elevators and light shafts of which shall be protected against fire in a good and substantial manner. And the lessee further agree to save lessor harmless from any damage to owners of adjoining lots by reason of the erection of any improvements upon said demised premises; nothing in this lease contained shall authorize the party of the second part to do any act or make any contract so as to encumber in any manner the title of the lessor in said land or buildings.

Fifth. It is hereby covenanted, stipulated and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that there shall, during the said demised term, be no mechanics' liens upon any buildings or improvements which may at any time be put upon or be upon said demised premises, and that in case of any mechanics' liens the lessee must pay off the same; and that if default in payment thereof shall continue for thirty (30) days after written notice, said lessor shall have the right and privilege, at _____ option, to pay off the same or any portion of the same, and the amount so paid, including expenses, shall, at the option of the said lessor, be so much additional rent due from said lessee at the next rent day after any such payment, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent. per annum; or the said lessor may, at _____ option (and the right and privilege to _____ is hereby expressly given and granted), if said default continues thirty (30) days after written notice as aforesaid, to declare this lease terminated, and upon termination of this lease, at the option of the lessor, on account of any mechanics' liens, as aforesaid, all buildings and improvements upon said premises are hereby declared to be and become immediately forfeited to the lessor without any compensation whatever to the lessee. and the lessor shall have full right and privilege (which right and privilege is hereby expressly given and granted) to enter upon said demised premises and take possession of all buildings and improvements thereon.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, and notice is hereby given, that no mechanic's or other liens shall, in any way, manner or degree, affect the claim of the lessor on such buildings or attach to _____ rights in said premises.

Sixth. And the lessee do covenant and agree to and with the lessor, that _____, the lessee, will keep insured during said demised term any and all buildings or improvements that may be built or placed upon said premises, in a good and responsible company or companies, as may be approved by the said lessor, to an amount of not less than _____ thousand dollars ($ _____), and all policies issued, and renewals thereof, of all such insurance upon the said buildings or improvements to the amount of _____ thousand dollars ($ _____) are to be assigned to, and in case of loss to be made payable to, the said lessor, as _____ interest may appear, the same to be held by the said lessor as additional security for the amount of rent and the rebuilding herein provided for; and the said lessor, in case said buildings or improvements shall at any time or times be destroyed by fire during said demised term, shall pay to said lessee, upon proper architect's certificates, so much of the said insurance money as may be received by reason of such loss or destruction, in such sum or sums as may be necessary to pay for rebuilding as herein provided; and at the time when such insurance money is paid by the lessor, the lessee shall expend on work done upon or for materials furnished for the restoration, repair or erection of any new building, an amount of money derived by h, the lessee, from sources other than said insurance money paid out by the lessor, equal to the amount of said portion so paid by the lessor. And it is understood and agreed that no interest is to be paid on said insurance money by said lessor during the time said money remains in h possession; and it is further agreed that any and all moneys which the said lessor shall receive by reason of any loss or destruction of the said buildings or improvements, is hereby constituted a trust fund, to be used for the rebuilding of the buildings and improvements upon the said premises, as herein provided for. And it is further agreed that said lessor shall properly disburse said moneys and use such toward rebuilding the buildings and improvements upon the said premises, as herein provided for; but it is expressly understood and agreed that this provision shall not prejudice the provisions in this lease contained, that said insurance money shall stand as additional security for the rent herein provided for. And it is further understood and agreed that the said lessor shall not be responsible for the collection or non-collection of any insurance money in any event, but only for such insurance money as shall come to h hands.

AND THE SAID LESSEE covenant and agree that if said buildings and improvements, or any part thereof, shall at any time or times during the continuance of said term, be destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty, and as often as any building or improvement on said premises shall be destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty, said lessee shall rebuild and repair the same upon the same general plan and dimensions as before the said fire or casualty, or other plan to be agreed upon in writing by the said lessor and lessee respectively, the construction so rebuilt and repaired to be of the value of not less than thousand dollars ($), and have the same rebuilt and ready for occupancy within months from such loss or destruction, at h own expense, provided, that in case said buildings shall be destroyed or damaged so near the end of said term that there shall not be ample time (which term shall not exceed months) to rebuild or repair the same before the end of said term, then the insurance money on said buildings shall belong to and be paid to said lessee, except so much thereof as shall be equal to the sum due and to become due the said lessor, under the terms of this lease, which amount, if any, shall be paid to the said lessor, and in such case, the failure to rebuild or repair shall not be a cause of forfeiture of said leasehold interest; and it is covenanted and agreed that all and every sum or sums of money which shall be recovered or received by said lessee for and in respect of said insurance upon said building or buildings, shall be laid out and expended by h in rebuilding or repairing said buildings, or such parts thereof as shall be damaged as aforesaid, and in case the lessee shall not have used or expended the insurance money on said premises as herein provided, it shall be lawful for the lessor to declare such term ended and into said premises to re-enter as hereinbefore provided, and any part of any building or buildings on said premises shall at once be forfeited to said lessor, and no compensation therefor shall be allowed to said lessee; and any balance of insurance money remaining in the hands of the said lessor shall, at their election or option, be forfeited to h as liquidated and ascertained damages, and not as a penalty or penal sum or in the nature thereof; but it is understood and agreed in case of a fulfillment by said lessee of h covenants in this lease, any surplus of any and all insurance moneys after the use of the same for the purpose provided in this lease, shall belong to and be paid over to said lessee.

AND IN CASE THE LESSEE shall neglect to insure and keep insured the buildings and improvements on said premises, the lessor may, at h election, procure and renew such insurance and add the amount paid therefor to the installment of rent next thereafter falling due under this lease, together with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent. per annum.

Seventh. Said lessee hereby further covenant and agree that the said premises and buildings, which may, at any time, be thereon, shall, during the said demised term, be used only and exclusively for proper and legitimate purposes. And it is expressly covenanted between the parties hereto that the said lessee will not use or suffer nor permit any person to use in any manner whatsoever the said demised premises, or any building or improvements thereon, nor any portion thereof, for any purpose calculated to injure the reputation of the premises or of the neighboring property, nor for any purpose or use in violation of the laws of the United States, or of the state of , or of the ordinances of the city of ; or for any immoral or unlawful purpose whatever; or for any trade, business, occupation or vocation whatever, which may be in anywise disreputable or immoral, and that said lessee will, at h own proper costs and charges, keep the buildings which may be situated on said premises and all the appurtenances thereunto belonging, and the sidewalks, steps and excavations under the sidewalks, in a good, safe and secure condition, and any alley or alleys adjoining said premises, in a clean and safe condition, and will conform to all municipal ordinances or laws, and all other ordinances and laws affecting said premises, and the sidewalks, streets and alleys in front of and around said premises, and that h will keep and save the lessor forever harmless from any penalty or damage or charges imposed for any violation of any of said laws, whether occasioned by neglect of said lessee or by the tenants of said premises holding under h , and that said lessee will indemnify and save and keep harmless the lessor against and from any loss, cost, damage and expense arising out of any accident or other occurrence, causing injury to any person or property whomsoever or whatsoever, and due directly or indirectly to the use of the premises, or any part thereof, by the said lessee or any person or persons holding under h , and will indemnify and save harmless the lessor from any claim for damages or penalty arising from the sale or giving away of any intoxicating liquors on or about the said premises and against and from any loss, cost, damage or expense, arising out of any failure of the lessee in any respect to comply with the requirements and provisions of this lease binding upon h , the lessee .

Eighth. Said lessee further covenant and agree that h will not assign this lease, except by way of mortgage, until h shall have completed and paid for the building on the said demised premises, of the character and within the time hereinbefore specified.

THE LESSEE MAY, when there is a building erected which shall conform to the requirements of this lease and free from mechanics' liens and the possibility thereof and similar claims, sell or assign h interest in said leased premises and buildings thereon, provided that all rents, taxes, assessments, insurance and other charges of every kind shall be paid to the date of such assignment, and all covenants and agreements herein contained to be kept and performed by the lessee , shall be fully complied with at the date of such assignment or conveyance; and further provided, that in case of such sale or assignment of the said lease, the same shall be evidenced in writing, duly executed under seal and acknowledged by the assignee, and duly recorded in the recorder's office of , county and state of , whereupon and whereby the assignee shall expressly accept and assume all the terms and covenants in this agreement contained to be kept and performed by the lessee , and will comply with and be bound by them; and the said lessee covenant and agree that h will not make any assignment of this lease, except in the manner and upon the conditions as above set forth, and it is agreed and notice is hereby given, that any assignment of the said lease, leasehold interest or buildings upon said property, not in strict conformity with these provisions, shall be absolutely null and void.

SAID ASSIGNEE , and succeeding assignees, shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as to future assignments, and the lessee herein so assigning and conveying shall thereof and thereby then be forever released and discharged from this lease and from the agreements and covenants in this lease contained, providing said assignment shall have been made to be carried into effect an absolute and bona fide sale of said lessee interest in said premises.

NO BUILDING erected under the provisions of this lease upon said premises, shall be removed or torn down without the consent in writing of the said lessor .

Ninth. It is further agreed that in no case shall the lessor herein be liable, under any express or implied covenants in this lease, for any damages whatsoever to the lessee beyond the rent reserved by this lease accruing, for the act, or breach of covenant, for which damages may be sought to be recovered against said lessor , and that in the event that said lessee shall be ousted from the possession of said premises by reason of any defect in the title of said lessor , said lessee shall not be required to pay any rent under this lease while h so deprived of the possession of said premises, and that said lessor shall not incur any liability by such custer beyond the loss of rent while said lessee so deprived of the possession of said premises.

Tenth. It is expressly agreed by and between the parties hereto, that any installment of rent accruing under the provisions of this lease, which shall not be paid when due, shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum from the date when the same was payable by the terms of this lease until the same shall be paid by the said lessee .

Eleventh. It is hereby further covenanted, stipulated and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that the lessor shall, at h option, have the right at all times during said demised term, to pay any rates, taxes, assessments, water rates or other charges upon said premises and reversionary interest therein remaining unpaid after the same have become due and payable, and to pay, cancel and clear off all tax sales, liens, charges and claims upon or against said demised premises or reversionary interest therein, and to redeem said premises from the same, or any of them, from time to time, and the amount paid, including reasonable expenses, shall be so much additional rent due from the lessee at the next rent day after any such payment, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent. per annum from the date of the payment thereof by the said lessor , until the repayment thereof to the said lessor by the said lessee

AND IT IS FURTHER PROVIDED that if the lessor at h option, shall advance or pay any such rates, taxes, assessments, water rates or other charges, or pay, cancel and clear off any tax sales, liens or charges and claims upon and against said demised premises or the reversionary interest therein, it shall not be obligatory upon the lessor to inquire into the validity of any such rate, tax or assessment, or other charge, or any such tax sale. .

Twelfth. And it is further understood, covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that in case, at any time, default shall be made by the lessee , in the payment of any of the rent herein provided for upon the day the same becomes due or payable, and such default shall continue thirty days (after notice thereof in writing by the lessor , or their agents or attorneys to said lessee), or in case any default in relation to liens as hereinbefore provided shall continue thirty (30) days after written notice, or if the lessee shall fail to pay any of the rates, taxes or assessments herein provided for to be paid by him, within the time herein provided for, or in case of the sale or forfeiture of said demised premises, or any part thereof, during said demised term, for the non-payment of any tax, rate or assessment, or in case the lessee shall fail to keep insured any building or buildings or improvements which may at any time hereafter be upon the said premises as herein provided for, or fail to spend insurance money as herein provided for, or fail to rebuild as herein provided, or if h shall fail in any of the covenants of this lease by h to be kept or performed, then in any or either of such events, it shall and may be lawful for the lessor , at h election, at or after the expiration of ten (10) days' previous notice in writing to declare said demised term ended and into said demised premises, and the buildings and improvements situated thereon, or any part thereof, either with or without process of law, to re-enter, the said lessee hereby waiving any demand for possession of the demised premises and any and all buildings and improvements then situated thereon. And the lessee covenant and agree upon the termination of said demised term at such election of said lessor , or in any other way, he , the lessee , will surrender and deliver up said above described premises and property peaceably to said lessor, his agents or attorneys, immediately upon the termination of said demised term; and if said lessee, his agents, attorneys and tenants shall hold the said premises or any part thereof one day after the same should be surrendered according to the terms of this lease, they shall be deemed guilty of forcible detainer of said premises under the statute, and shall be subject to eviction and removal, forcibly or otherwise, with or without process of law.

Thirteenth. It is further covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that in the event of the determination of this lease at any time before the expiration of said demised term of ninety-nine years, for the breach of any of the covenants herein contained, then, in such case, all buildings, fixtures and improvements then situate on said demised premises shall be forfeited to said lessor and become his property, and no compensation therefor shall be allowed or paid to said lessee.

Fourteenth. It is mutually covenanted and agreed that the various rights, powers, options, elections, appointments and remedies of the lessor contained in this lease shall be construed as cumulative, and no one of them as exclusive of the other, or exclusive of any rights or priorities allowed by law.

Fifteenth. And it is further understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that the right given in this lease to the said lessor to collect the rent that may be due under the terms of this lease by any proceedings under the same, or the right to collect any additional rent, moneys or payments due under the terms of this lease by any proceedings under the same, or the right herein given the lessor to enforce any of the terms and provisions of this lease, shall not in any way affect the right of such lessor to declare this lease void, and the term hereby created ended, as herein provided, when default is made in the payment of said rent, or when default is made by the lessee in any of the terms and provisions of this lease.

Sixteenth. And it is mutually covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that in case the lessor, or either of them, shall, without any fault on his part, be made party to any litigation commenced by or against the lessee, then the lessee shall pay all costs and attorney's fees incurred by or against the lessor, or either of them, by or in connection with such litigation, and the lessee shall and will also pay all costs and attorney's fees incurred by or against the said lessor, or either of them in enforcing the covenants, agreements, terms and provisions of this lease; and that all such costs and attorney's fees, if paid by the lessor, or either of them, and the rent reserved in this lease, and all taxes and assessments, and the payment of all money provided in this lease to be made to the lessor, shall be and they are hereby declared to be a first lien upon all buildings and improvements placed upon said demised premises at any time during the term of this lease, and upon the leasehold estate hereby created, and upon the rents of all buildings and improvements situated on said premises at any time during said term.

Seventeenth. And it is further agreed as a condition of this lease that in every case where, in the opinion of the lessor, or under the conditions of this lease, it shall be deemed necessary for the interest of the lessor to serve a notice or demand on the lessee concerning this lease, or any of the conditions or provisions thereof, it shall be a sufficient service of such notice, demand or declaration to leave a copy thereof at the place of business of said lessee, at _____, or by posting the same on the front of any building on said premises.

Eighteenth. It is covenanted and agreed that no waiver of a breach of any of the covenants of this lease shall be construed to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of the same covenant.

Nineteenth. It is further covenanted and agreed that at the time and upon the day of the termination of this lease, to wit: upon the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord two thousand and _____ (A. D. 20 _____), at twelve o'clock noon, said lessee or _____ successor or successors will convey all of said buildings and improvements to the said lessor, _____ legal representatives or assigns, by a good and sufficient deed of conveyance and will immediately surrender, yield and deliver up peaceably said above described premises in good condition, and any and all buildings and improvements thereon in a good and perfect condition, ordinary wear and tear, depreciation and decay excepted. It being, however, fully understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that it is a condition of this lease that all buildings and improvements and fixtures upon the said premises at the termination of the said demised term, providing this lease is not sooner determined, shall, at and upon the date of the expiration of said demised term, revert to and become the exclusive property of, and be vested in the said lessor without any such deed of conveyance from the said lessee to the said lessor, and without any compensation therefor to the said lessee.

Twentieth. It is mutually covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that each of the expressions, phrases, terms, conditions, provisions, stipulations, admissions, promises, agreements, requirements and obligations of this lease shall extend to and bind or inure to the benefit of [as the case may require] not only the parties hereto, but each and every of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the respective parties of the first and second part hereto; and wherever in this lease a reference to either of the parties hereto is made, such reference shall be deemed to include, wherever applicable, also a reference to the heirs, legal representatives and assigns of such party, the same as if in every case expressed, and all the conditions and covenants contained in this lease shall be construed as covenants running with the land.

And _____, wi _____ of the said lessor, _____ join in this lease for the sole purpose of evidencing _____ he consent to its execution, and releasing _____ he right of dower and homestead in said premises as against the said lessee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have subscribed their names and set their seals the day and year first above written, this indenture being executed in duplicate.

INDIANA.

1254. Farm Lease.

THIS AGREEMENT, made this _____ day of _____, 19 _____, by and between _____ of the first part, and _____ of the second part,

WITNESSETH, that the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the agreements and undertakings hereinafter undertaken by the said party of the second part, has leased and demised unto the said party of the second part, the following lands and tenements, to wit: [description] in the county of _____, and state of _____, from the _____ day of _____, 19____, to the _____ day of _____, 19____, and the said party of the second part agrees, in consideration of the above leasing, to pay the party of the first part, as rent _____ . All corn to be divided, in proper proportion, by the rows in the field, and rent corn to be gathered out before, or as fast as the lessee's, and put in cribs on the farm; cribs to be provided by lessor. All rent corn to be put in cribs on or before December 25, 19____. And, further, that he will clean out and keep open all ditches on said land twice a year — in the spring with a fork, and in the fall with a spade and shovel, without charge to the said lessor. And the said lessee further agrees that he will, between the tenth day of August and the first day of September in each year of this lease, mow all weeds and grass between his crops and hedges or fences; that he will go over during the same time all the lands herein named and cultivated and plow under, pull up or cut up all the following weeds on said lands, to wit: Thistles, mullein, butter prints, jimson weeds, burdock and cockle burs; mow the roads on said tract, and if not so done lessor can hire it done and retain a lien on the crop for the expenses thereof; that he will not stack, thresh or deliver any grain while wet or in bad order. Any incoming tenant is to have the right to do any fall plowing he may deem necessary, but no injury is to be done growing crops. Said cash rent shall be paid along as the crops are marketed, and all by the 25th day of December in each year of this lease; and if not so paid to draw interest at the rate of eight per cent. until paid for the use of the same; that said party of the second part will not commit any waste on said premises, nor suffer the same to be done; that he will not assign this lease or underlet said premises, or any part thereof, nor make any alteration of the premises without the consent of said lessor, and that at the expiration of said term he will surrender said premises without let or hindrance to the said lessor, his attorney, heirs or administrators, or executors, in as good a condition as they were at any time during said term, usual wear and accidents by fire excepted. The said lessee further agrees that he will rebuild any fences when blown down by wind or thrown down by trespassers, all without charge to said lessor, and that he will tend, trim, and take care of all hedges growing on said lands; no stock but lessee's allowed to run on stalk-field without lessor's consent in writing, nor shall the stalk-fields nor any meadowland be pastured when the ground is too soft. The said lessee agrees that he will farm all the land herein described in a good and husbandlike manner, planting and gathering in proper season, with a due regard for rotation of crops; that he will trim yearly all orchards, haul and spread what manure is made on said premises; that he will not burn or haul off the straw of grain raised upon said premises, nor suffer the same to be done, but will scatter and plow under the same whenever it can be done, and that he will, upon reasonable notice, do all the plowing with horses that may be necessary to plant, and will plant and tend a hedge on said premises; and the lessor reserves to himself the right to enter upon said premises for the purpose of making any inspection, repairs or improvements, or to distrain for rent. It is further agreed _____ .

If at any time the said rent shall be due, and remain unpaid for ten days, said lessor, his attorney, or legal or personal representatives, may enter and take possession of said premises, using whatever force may be necessary to obtain possession of the same, and declare this lease ended, said lessee waiving notice or demand for possession. Said lessor further agrees to warrant and defend the said premises in the quiet and peaceable possession of said lessee during his compliance with this lease.

WITNESS our hands in duplicate the date above.

1255. Oil, Gas and Mineral Lease.

THIS INDENTURE, made and entered into this day of , 19 , by and between of the county of and state of Indiana, party of the first part, and of the county of and state of Indiana, party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, that the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar ($1.00), in hand paid to the party of the first part by the party of the second part, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and in further consideration of the fulfillment of the stipulations and agreements hereinafter recited, does hereby grant, demise and lease, to the party of the second part, heirs, successors, assigns and sub-lessees, the exclusive right to enter upon, erect derricks and other necessary buildings, and drill, bore and prospect for water, oil, natural gas, mineral coal, iron ore, stone, and other minerals and ores, and valuable substances, on the following described real estate situate in the county of and state of Indiana, to wit: [description].

THIS LEASE AND AGREEMENT is made on the following conditions and terms, to wit:

The said party of the second part, heirs, successors, assigns, and sub-lessees, is to have and to hold said premises, only for the purposes above recited, for and during the term of ten (10) years from the date hereof, and as much longer as mineral water, oil, natural gas, or other valuable substances, or mineral coal, iron ore, stone, or other mineral or ores, are found on such premises in paying quantities.

Said party of the second part, heirs, successors, assigns, and sub-lessees, in consideration of said grant and demise, agrees to deliver to the credit of the party of the first part, heirs, executors or assigns, free of cost, in the pipe-lines to which it may connect its lines, the full, equal of all oil produced and saved on leased premises.

Said party of the second part agrees to pay to the party of the first part, heirs, executors or assigns, the sum of dollars per year for the gas from each and every gas well drilled on the said premises, such payment to be made for each well within sixty (60) days after commencing to use the gas therefrom, as aforesaid, and to be paid yearly thereafter while the gas from such well is so used.

The party of the second part covenants and agrees to locate all wells so as to interfere as little as possible with the cultivated portions of the farm, and to operate all pipe-lines so as not to interfere with the cultivation of the land; and further, to complete a well upon said premises within from the date hereof, or to pay the sum of , yearly, in advance, for each additional twelve months such completion is delayed, from the time above mentioned for the completion of such well until the well is completed.

It is agreed that the completion of such well shall be and operate as a full liquidation of all rental under this provision, during the remainder of the term of this lease.

It is further agreed that failure on the part of the party of the second part to comply with the conditions herein named, or to pay the cash consideration herein mentioned, within ninety days after the time given for the happening or the payment of the same, then, and in that event, this lease may be declared null and void, and the right to so declare this lease null and void shall extend to both parties to this agreement, together with their heirs, executors, grantees, successors, assigns and sub-lessees.

It is further agreed that the party of the second part is to have the privilege of using sufficient water from the premises to run all necessary machinery, and at any time to remove any machinery, fixtures, pipes, pipe-lines, buildings and appliances placed on said premises.

The party of the second part, heirs, executors, assigns and sub-lessees, as well as laborers and workmen, is hereby granted full and ample right to enter upon said lands, to search and explore for coal, iron ore, stone, and other minerals and ores, and to dig for, mine, raise and remove the same; also to make surveys for, construct and operate any railroad, switch, sidetrack, tram or coal road, over, under or through said land, which the said party of the second part, heirs, executors, assigns or sub-lessees may deem necessary in order to search for, mine, work or remove such coal, iron ore, stone, or other minerals or ores, from and over said land.

The said party of the second part, heirs, executors, assigns and sub-lessees, is hereby granted the right to occupy and use so much of the surface of the said land, not exceeding acres, as may deem necessary for fully operating and developing the mines for coal, iron ore, stone, and other minerals or ores, the erection of machinery, tenement-houses for workmen, and other necessary buildings, and also grounds for the storing and handling of the coal, iron ore, stone, and other minerals or ores which may, from time to time, be mined and brought to the surface; also granting to the said party of the second part, heirs, executors, assigns and sub-lessees, full right of ingress, egress and regress into, over, under and upon said lands, for any of the purposes aforesaid; also the right to work, mine, dig, quarry, raise and remove any coal, iron ore, stone, and other minerals or ores off and from said land.

In consideration whereof the party of the second part, heirs, executors, assigns and sub-lessees, agrees to exert influence and to devote time and labor to the procuring to be constructed into the neighborhood of said land a railroad switch, coal or tram road, upon which coal, iron ore, stone, and other minerals and ores may be carried and transported, such railroad switch, coal or tram road to be built without any cost or expense to the party of the first part.

And the said party of the second part further agrees to do no unnecessary damage to the said land in exercising any of the rights hereinabove granted; and that for every ton of coal, iron ore, stone, or other minerals or ores mined and removed from said land the said party of the second part, heirs, executors, assigns and sub-lessees, shall pay to the party of the first part, heirs or assigns, the price and sum of _____ cents.

It is further expressly agreed that should the said party of the second part, heirs, executors, assigns or sub-lessees, fail to prospect for, find and remove coal, iron ore, stone, or other minerals or ores from the said land within five years from the date hereof, then this lease and conveyance, so far as the same refers and applies to the opening and developing of mines for coal, iron ore, stone, and other minerals or ores, shall cease and be utterly void.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals, in duplicate, the day and year first above written.

IOWA.

1256. Coal Lease.

ARTICLE OF AGREEMENT, made and entered into this _____ day of _____, 19____, by and between _____ [husband and wife], part of the first part, and _____ part of the second part, WITNESSETH, that the said part of the first part agree to sell and convey all the coal that is or may underlie the surface of the following described tract of land situated in _____ county, Iowa, to wit: [description] containing in all _____ acres more or less.

And also grant the exclusive rights to test, open, mine and remove said coal; and further grant the rights to construct railroads, underground entries, and all necessary buildings and fixtures to facilitate the mining and removing of said coal. Railroad right-of-way is not to exceed sixty feet in width, and shall follow division lines or fences so far as may be practicable, and shall be fenced with a legal fence at expense of the second part hereto.

The second part shall have the privilege if _____ so desire of purchasing _____ acres of said land at $ _____ per acre, but said _____ acres shall be selected by mutual agreement. It is further agreed that no hoisting shaft shall be sunk within forty rods of any dwelling-house now on said premises.

IT IS AGREED by the second part that _____ will within _____ months from the date of this contract commence a test of said land by drilling; and in case there should be discovered a mineable vein or basin of coal, of sufficient quantity and quality to justify the opening and mining of said coal in the opinion of the said second part, then _____ agree to mine out said coal and pay the following rate per ton for all lump coal mined on said premises, to wit:

_____ cents per ton for each ton of two thousand pounds of lump coal, payments to be made and continue in the following manner, to wit: Pay in hand one dollar, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and to pay at the above specified rate for all lump coal mined in any calendar month on or before the 25th day of the succeeding month.

Lump coal under this contract is understood to be such coal as will pass over a screen constructed of iron bars placed not more than one and one-half inches apart. No royalty to be paid on any coal which will pass through a screen constructed as above described.

The second part also agree that will furnish a true and correct record of all drilling done on said premises, and that for the year commencing , 19 , will mine not less than thousand tons of coal, and a like amount each year thereafter until the coal becomes exhausted or unmineable; provided, however, that if the second part fail to mine the above mentioned quantity of coal in any year, may pay the royalty on the quantity above stated and continue this lease, but for any amount paid for which coal has not been mined shall have credit on royalty for coal mined in succeeding years.

IT IS ALSO AGREED, that all coal mined on said premises is to be accurately weighed and the weights to be kept in a book which shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of the first part or agents. And it is further agreed that the part of the second part to have the privilege of using said railroads, underground entries, buildings and fixtures for the purpose of mining and removing coal from underneath other lands, and after the coal from under the above premises becomes exhausted or unmineable may continue to use said railroads, underground entries, buildings and fixtures by paying the part of the first part an annual rental of $10 per acre for each acre of surface of the above described lands used by said second part. The right to use the underground entries is granted for a period of twenty years without charge or cost to said second part.

All moneys due under this contract are payable in U. S. gold coin or its equivalent, at .

A failure to comply with any or all the conditions to this lease shall not render the second part liable to any damages further than the forfeiture of this contract.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals, in duplicate, the day and year first above written.

KANSAS.

1257. Pasture Lease.

THIS LEASE, made this day of , 19 , between , party of the first part, and of county, Kansas, party of the second part, WITNESSETH, that for and in consideration of the sum of dollars, the said first party hereby leases to said second party, for pasture and hay land only, the following lands in county, Kansas, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, to wit: [description] of section No. , township No. , Range No. , for the term commencing on the first day of , 19 , and ending on the first day of March, 19 .

Said second party agrees not to sublet, or permit any other person to occupy said premises, without the written consent of first party, and at the expiration of this lease to surrender possession of said premises, with the improvements belonging to it, to first party, in as good condition as when taken—usual wear, tear, and damage by the elements excepted.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, that in case of the breach of said second party, of any of the covenants or agreements herein mentioned, by him to be performed, then and in that case this lease shall terminate without notice of any kind; and upon its termination, either by reason of lapse of time or breach of any of the covenants or agreements herein, it shall be lawful for said first party, his agent or attorney, to re-enter into said premises, and the party of the second part and each and every other occupant to remove and put out.

In case of a sale of said premises during the term of this lease, and purchaser desiring possession, said second party agrees to surrender the same at once on repayment to him of his rent-money .

Said second party is given permission to fence or make other improvements on the farm during his term of lease, at his own expense, and remove them from the farm at the termination of his lease.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED,

1258. Gas and Oil Lease.

AGREEMENT, made this day of , A. D. 19 , between of county, state of , lessor , and of , state of , lessee , WITNESSETH, that said lessor , in consideration of the sum of dollars, to in hand paid by the lessee, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and of the covenants hereinafter set forth to be kept, paid and performed by the lessee, he leased and let, and by these presents do grant, lease and let unto the said lessee and assigns,

ALL the oil and gas in and under the following described tract of land, situate in the county of , and state of , to wit:

Section , township , range , acres , and containing in all acres.

To have and to hold the same for the term of years from this date, and as much longer as oil and gas, or either of them, shall be produced from said land by the lessee, together with such rights of way and privileges on said land as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of operating for, producing and removing said oil and gas in a careful and economical manner, including the right to use water either from natural streams or from water wells which the lessee may drill thereon; the right to lay and use lines of pipes for conveying oil, water and gas; the right to erect and operate such tanks, pumps, derricks, power stations, shackle lines and other appliances as may be required for said purposes; and the right to remove, at any time while this lease may remain in force and during three months after its termination, all property, appliances and materials which may be placed on said land by the lessee.

The lessee agrees to yield and pay to the lessor the part or share of all the oil which he may obtain and save from said land, which share shall be delivered to the lessor from the lessee's tanks at the wells, or for the lessor's credit to such pipe line company as may connect its lines with said tanks, and to pay for the gas at each well which shall not produce oil in paying quantities, but produce gas in marketable quantities, a royalty of each in advance while said gas shall be sold by the lessee, except that during the time any such gas well shall be "shut in" by reason of there being no profitable market for its output, the royalty thereon shall only be each in advance.

For the purpose of drilling and operating on said land, the lessee shall have the right to use, free of royalty, so much gas as may be necessary for any well or wells he may drill thereon; but if the lessee shall use gas for drilling or operating on other lands from any oil well he may drill on this land, or from any gas well he may drill thereon not at the time producing gas in quantities sufficient to be marketed profitably, he shall pay to the lessor a royalty of fifty cents per month for each well from which the gas may be so used, while such use continues.

While the lessee may operate any well on said land for gas purposes, the lessor shall be entitled to a supply of gas free from such well or wells for stoves and inside lights in the principal dwelling-house on said land; or if there be no such gas well, the lessor shall be entitled to said free gas from any oil well or wells on said land which may by natural pressure produce enough gas to supply said stove and lights, in excess of the quantity required by the lessee (he having first right thereto) for drilling and operating on said land, but the lessee shall not be obliged to confine the gas in any oil well for the purpose of supplying said stoves and lights when to do so will interfere with operating the well for oil purposes. The use of said gas shall be at the risk of the lessor, and shall furnish and put in place the pipe and fittings necessary to connect said stoves and lights with the wells.

No well shall be drilled within feet of the buildings now on said land, except by mutual consent of the lessor and lessee.

The lessee shall pay for all injuries he may do to growing crops, fences, hedges, and fruit trees in operating under this lease, and shall bury all oil, gas and water lines, if requested by the lessor, so that said line will not interfere with farming, and shall, upon abandoning any well, plug the same according to law.

The lessee agrees to complete a well on the land above described within from the date hereof, or pay to the lessor for further delay a rental of $ in advance for each additional such completion is delayed. All royalties, delay rentals and other payments which may fall due under this lease shall be paid direct to or be deposited to credit in Bank of , which is hereby constituted agent of the lessor, with power to receive and receipt for the same. Upon failure of the lessee to make any of the payments above provided for delay in completing a well on the date upon which the same become due, the lessor shall have the right to declare a forfeiture of this lease if such payment be not made within after written notice to pay the same.

If at any time after a well or wells have been drilled under this lease, shall elapse without any revenue being received by the lessor from said wells, and without any further drilling being done by the lessee, this lease shall be deemed abandoned and the rights of the lessee thereunder ended, except that the lessee may within thereafter remove the machinery and other property placed by it upon said land.

Upon the payment of dollars at any time by the lessee to the lessor , the lessee shall have the right to surrender this lease for cancellation; and upon such surrender being made, all payments and liabilities thereafter to accrue by the terms of this lease shall be avoided and extinguished and this lease become null and void.

The terms, covenants and conditions of this lease shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the lessor , and upon the and assigns of the lessee, respectively, with the same force and effect as they are hereby made binding upon the lessor and lessee.

Executed this day of , A. D. 19 , by the above-named lessor and lessee.

1259. Mineral Lease.

THIS AGREEMENT, made this day of , 19 , by and between , of county, state of , part of the first part, and of , state of ; part of the second part, WITNESSETH, part of the first part, in consideration of the sum of dollars, in hand paid by the part of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do hereby grant, demise and let unto the part of the second part and assigns, all the oil, gas, coal, and other minerals in and under the following described tract of land, and also the said tract of land for the purpose and with the exclusive right of drilling, boring, mining and operating thereon, also such other privileges as are necessary for conducting said operations, and the right to remove all other property placed thereon by said second part , namely, all that certain tract of land situated in the county of and state of Kansas, described as follows, to wit: Section , township . range , containing acres, more or less; but no wells are to be drilled or bored within four hundred (400) feet of the present buildings without the consent of the part of the first part.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD THE SAME unto the part of the second part, heirs and assigns, for the term of years from the date hereof, and as much longer as such oil, gas or other minerals are found in paying quantities thereon, allowing and paying to part of the first part the part or share of oil saved from that produced on the premises, delivered free of expense into tanks or pipe lines to the first part credit.

Should any well produce gas in sufficient quantities to justify the second part marketing the same in its pipe line, the part of the first part shall be paid at the rate of per year for such well as long as the gas therefrom is conveyed and sold off the premises, the first payment to become due ninety days after a well is turned into pipe line for marketing, and quarterly thereafter.

If gas is found in quantities profitable to lessee and conveyed from the premises, the lessor may have gas free of charge by laying the necessary pipe line and making connections at cost at such point as may be designated by lessee for private use in the mansion house on said premises, to be used with economical appliances subject to approval of lessee, said gas to be used at lessor own risk, and lessee not to be in any way liable for insufficient supply of gas caused by the use of pumping station, breakage of lines, or other causes. But nothing herein shall prevent the lessee from abandoning any well or wells and removing the pipe therefrom.

If coal, fire clay, pottery clay, shale, or any other mineral is found in paying quantities on said land, then the part of the second part shall pay to the part of the first part a royalty of cents for each ton of , cents for each ton of , cents for each ton of , cents for each ton of mined and sold off the premises. Such payment to be made three months after the first shipment thereof shall have been marketed, and quarterly thereafter.

Provided, however, that this lease shall become null and void and all rights thereunder shall cease and determine unless one well shall be begun on said premises within year from the date hereof, or unless the lessee shall pay at the rate of dollar for each additional month such well is delayed, from the time above mentioned for the drilling or boring of said well, until one well is begun.

Part of the second part agree to keep closed all gates, and to keep in repair all fences used by , and to pay all damages to grain, live stock, and other property that may be incurred by in prospecting said land until the first discoveries of oil, gas, or other minerals shall have been made.

It is agreed that all the conditions and terms herein shall extend to the successors, heirs, executors, and assigns of the parties hereto.

1267. Lease of Farm With Lien on Produce.

THIS INSTRUMENT, made this day of , A. D. , by and between of the first part, and of the second part, WITNESSETH, that the said part of the first part, for and in consideration of the rents and covenants herein specified, do hereby let and lease to said part of the second part the following described piece or parcel of land situate and being in the of , county of , and state of Michigan, to wit: [description] for the term of , commencing on the day of , A. D. , and ending on the day of , A. D. .

And for and in consideration of the aforesaid term of rent of the said premises, the said part of the second part do hereby hire the said premises for the term of as above mentioned, and do covenant and agree to pay to the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, the sum of dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid as follows, to wit:

And, as a further consideration of the aforesaid term of rent of the said premises, the said part of the second part do hereby covenant and agree to pay all taxes, whether state, county, township, school or road taxes, or any other taxes that may be imposed on the whole or any part of the said premises and deliver to the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, on the last day of each year, the proper and necessary receipts for all taxes that he may have paid during such year; and at all times to keep the buildings and fences on said premises in good order and repair, and that he will not sub-let the said premises or any portion thereof, nor assign nor transfer this lease to any person whomsoever, without the written consent of the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, indorsed hereon.

And for the purpose of securing the payment of the said rent above reserved and taxes, the said part of the second part hereby covenant and agree that the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, shall have a lien in the nature and to the effect of a chattel mortgage upon all the produce of the said tillable land, whether harvested or not, and the said part of the second part hereby sell and mortgage to the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, the said produce, and in case the said part of the second part shall fail or neglect to pay the same as above covenanted and agreed upon, the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, shall have the right and power to take possession of the said produce, wherever it may be found, and sell the same at private sale or public auction at the best prices he can obtain therefor after giving at least days' previous notice of the time and place of said sale, by posting a written or printed notice thereof in or more public places in the said of , and out of the money to arise from such sale thereof, if sufficient there shall be, to pay and retain the amount of said rent and taxes due, together with any and all costs and charges of such sale, and shall pay the surplus money (if any) to the said part of the second part.

The said part of the first part give the said part of the second part permission to cut on the wood land of said farm, the timber that may be necessary for keeping the buildings and fences in repair, but for no other purpose whatever, excepting for the firewood necessary to be consumed on the said premises , which must always be cleanly cut next adjoining the said tillable land, in strips of not to exceed rods in depth across the whole width of the said premises as far as the wood land shall extend, heaping and burning the brush.

And at the expiration of the said term of rent, the said part of the second part do covenant and agree to surrender and give up the said premises, together with the buildings and fences in good order and repair to the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators or assigns. And should the said part of the second part fail in any of the foregoing covenants, conditions and obligations on part to be fulfilled, kept and performed, then this lease will become null and void, and the said part of the first part, , heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, may peaceably re-enter and take possession of the premises and property hereby rented, without any formal proceedings either at law or in equity, and the said part of the second part hereby agree to pay to the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, all damage and loss, which they or any of them may suffer, by reason of any failure on the part of the part of the second part to faithfully carry out, observe and perform all the terms, covenants and conditions hereinbefore set forth.

1268. Mining Lease.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , A. D. 19 , between , part of the first part, and , party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

1st. THAT the part of the first part, in consideration of the sum of one dollar to in hand paid by the part of the second part, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and in further consideration of the rents and royalties to be paid and the covenants and conditions to be kept and performed, as herein named, by the part of the second part, do hereby, LET, DEMISE and LEASE unto the said part of the second part, the following tract or parcel of land, situated in the county of , state of , and more particularly known and described as [description] for the term of twenty (20) years from and after the date hereof; for the purpose only of exploring for and mining, taking out and removing therefrom the merchantable shipping , which is, or which hereafter may be found on, in or under said land, together with the right to construct all buildings, make all excavations, openings, ditches, drains, railroads, wagon roads, and other improvements upon said premises which are, or may become suitable or necessary for the mining and removing of from said premises, with the right to cut and use such timber thereon, except pine timber, as may be necessary for the construction of buildings, and for the other usual purposes of such mining operations, and for their own fuel only (other than for smelting purposes) by first estimating and paying for the timber and fuel the full stumpage value thereof, special care being exercised to clear up and remove all combustible debris in order to prevent any fires.

2d. IT IS HEREBY AGREED, that the said part of the second part may put in engines and machinery, build roads and do such other things on said premises as may be necessary or usual to carry on such mining operations; all such engines, machinery, buildings, improvements, so put up or erected and material found on the land shall form part of the realty, it being understood that the part of the second part, on the termination of this lease, by paying up any arrears which may be or become due, owing or payable on this lease to said first parties, may remove within ninety (90) days after such termination of this lease, such buildings, engines, machinery and improvements: PROVIDED, that all mines of shall be opened and worked by said second part, and in such manner only as is usual and customary in the skillful and proper mining operations of similar character, when conducted by the proprietors themselves, and so as not to do, cause or permit any unnecessary or unusual permanent injury to the same, or inconvenience or hindrance in the subsequent operating of the same mines, and at the termination of this agreement, whether by the acts of the parties, or either of them, or by limitation or otherwise, shall be left in good order and good workmanlike condition; and in the working of said mines, the part of the second part shall deposit all earth or rubbish at such places and in such manner as will not obstruct or embarrass the future operation of said mines; and said part of the second part shall not remove or impair any supports, timbers, frame work or shafts necessary or proper for the use and maintenance of such mines or the approaches thereto, nor shall any tramroads, railroad tracks, ditches or improvements of a permanent nature made by said part of the second part be impaired, removed or destroyed by said part of the second part at the termination of this lease.

3d. The said part of the second part shall pay to the part of the first part a royalty or rental on all removed from said premises during the existence of this lease, of cents per gross ton, each ton to be reckoned at two thousand two hundred and forty (2240) pounds, avoirdupois . Payments of such royalty or rental shall be made quarter-yearly, as follows: On the day of January, April, July and October in each and every year, commencing , for the , removed from said premises during the quarter year immediately preceding said dates, at the , or to such persons as the part of the first part may from time to time designate; and the part of the second part shall, at the beginning of each month, transmit to the part of the first part an exact and truthful statement of the amount of removed during the month preceding, verified by the oath of some one having knowledge of the facts, and the so taken by the part of the second part, from said land, shall be weighed by the railroad company transporting the same from said land, which weights shall prima facie determine the quantity as between the parties hereto, the right, however, being conceded to the parties of the first part, to inspect, review and test the correctness of said railroad company's scales and weights, at any time, and in such manner as they may see fit to adopt, it being understood that any errors in these respects, when ascertained, shall be recognized and corrected in their accounts. And the part of the first part shall at all times have, possess and hold a lien upon all the mined and on all improvements made on said premises as security for any unpaid balance of rents, royalties or taxes due and payable under this lease, such balances being deemed and to be treated as balances of purchase money, and which lien may be enforced against such property in like manner as liens conferred by chattel mortgages are, or may be entitled to be enforced under the laws of the state in which said lands are situated.

4th. The part of the second part shall hereafter pay to the part of the first part, in quarter-yearly installments, a royalty or rental on not less than thousand tons , during the existence of this lease, whether the same be mined or not, and such payments so made shall be applied on the payments for royalty or rental next becoming due under this lease for mined and shipped in excess of the said thousand tons per year, the first of such quarter-yearly payments to be made on the day of , 19 , and thereafter to be payable quarter-yearly as above stated; and the part of the second part shall each and every year take out and remove as much in excess of the annual minimum tonnage aforesaid as can be mined and removed profitably, paying therefor at the quarter dates aforesaid for each and every ton of so mined and removed.

5th. The part of the second part agree to pay all taxes, general or special, upon the land so demised, which may be assessed or become due, either against said lands and the improvements thereon, or the product thereof, or any personal property at said mines, from and after the date hereof, during the continuance of this lease, and agree to furnish to the part of the first part, within thirty (30) days from the date such taxes or levies become due or payable, properly executed receipts for the same, duly signed by the officer lawfully authorized to collect and receipt for such taxes or levies and at the termination of this lease agree to quietly and peacefully surrender the possession of said land and premises to the part of the first part.

6th. IT IS EXPRESSLY AGREED, that the part of the second part shall not assign or transfer this lease, or any part thereof, without the written consent of said first part; and the part of the second part shall have the right at any time to terminate this agreement, in so far as it requires the part of the second part to mine on said lands, or to pay a royalty therefor, by giving ninety (90) days' written notice to the part of the first part, either in person or by mail, and in case notice is given by mail, it may be addressed to the part of the first part at their respective addresses above named, the part of the second part paying rent or royalty for any part of a year this lease shall remain in force, at the rate above agreed and set forth, and thereupon the within lease and demise shall terminate, and all arrearages and sums which may be due under the same, up to and including the date of its determination, as set forth in such notice, shall be paid.

7th. The part of the second part agree that when this lease shall, for any cause, terminate, said part will enter, or cause to be entered, a certificate of that fact upon the proper book of record in said county, provided this lease shall have been recorded there, and will execute or cause to be executed such releases or assignments, including the recording of the same, as may be necessary to clear the record and revest said first part of all rights and title given or acquired under this lease. It is further provided, and the present lease is granted under express condition, that, if the rent hereby reserved (the said royalty being treated as rent) or any part thereof, or the said taxes, shall be and remain unpaid after the days and times when, by the preceding covenants, the same should be paid (and if the same remains in default for more than sixty days), or in the event of the termination of the foregoing lease and demise, as hereinbefore provided, or in case the part of the second part shall fail to keep or perform any of the covenants or conditions herein expressed to be kept or performed on part, then, and from thenceforth, and in either of these events, it shall be lawful for the part of the first part, at their option, into and upon the said demised premises, with or without any previous notice or process whatever, to re-enter, and the same to have and possess again, as of their first and former estate, and the part of the second part, and all persons claiming under said part, wholly to exclude therefrom.

8th. IT IS HEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREED, that the part of the second part shall be responsible for any fires or damage that may occur to said lands or timber, except such as may clearly occur by the acts of strangers or act of God; the parties of the first part reserving to themselves and their agents the right at any time to enter upon said premises or any part or parts thereof, to inspect and survey the same, and measure the quantity of that may be therein or thereon or that shall have been mined or removed therefrom, not unnecessarily or unreasonably hindering or interrupting the works or operation of the part of the second part; also reserving the right to grant to any person or corporation the right of way for any railroad or wagon road over or across said lands, to be cut or constructed in a manner not unreasonably to interfere with the improvements and mining operations as carried on at the time on said premises; and the said part of the first part further reserve the right to sell, cut and remove any timber on said lands not contracted for by said second part, together with the usual rights and privileges of lumbering, not inconsistent with the necessary rights of the part of the second part, herein mentioned.

The covenants, agreements and conditions of this lease shall run with the land, and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, successors or assigns of each and all the parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year above written.

And the said second party agrees to and with the said first party, to pay as rent for the above mentioned premises, for and during the term of this lease, the sum of dollars, on the day of , 19 , at , and in addition to such amount, $ per acre for each and every acre cultivated on above described premises, in excess of acres , and the said second party further agrees that in addition to the rent before specified will also pay all taxes that may be assessed against said premises for the year 19 , and pay the same before the same become delinquent.

AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED, by and between the parties, as follows: that should the said second party fail to make the above mentioned payments as herein specified, or to pay any of the rent aforesaid when due, or fail to fulfill any of the covenants herein contained, then and in that case said first party may re-enter and take possession of the above rented premises, and hold and enjoy the same without such re-entering working a forfeiture of the rents to be paid by the said second party for the full term of this lease. That if the said first party sells said premises during the life of this lease and before the crop is in the ground, and desires to give possession to the purchaser, that the second party will forthwith surrender possession of said leased premises upon the payment to _____, of $ _____ per acre for each acre of said premises newly plowed by said second party at the time said possession is demanded; if sold after the crop is in, then said second party shall have the right to remove such crop when ready to be harvested. That if said first party sells said premises during the term of this lease, the purchaser may at any time enter upon the leased premises for the purpose of plowing, breaking more land, summer-fallowing, cultivating or otherwise improving any part of said premises not in actual cultivation by said second party, and without such entry working any forfeiture of the rents herein agreed to be paid. That if said second party remains in possession of said premises after the expiration of the term for which they are hereby leased, such possession shall not be construed to be a renewal of this lease, but to be a tenancy at the will of the said first party, which may be terminated upon ten days' notice, given by the said first party in writing, either delivered to second party or sent to _____ in a sealed envelope, duly stamped and directed to _____ at _____, which is hereby declared by _____ to be _____ usual post-office address.

And the said second party also covenants and agrees to and with the said first party, not to assign this lease or underlet the above rented premises or any part thereof, without first obtaining the written consent of the said first party and that _____ will, at the expiration of the time as herein recited, quietly yield and surrender the aforesaid premises to the said first party, his heirs or assigns, in as good condition and repair as when taken, reasonable wear and tear and damage by the elements alone excepted. Said second party also covenants and agrees to cultivate the hereby leased premises in a careful and husband-like manner, and to maintain and keep up the fences so as to protect all crops from injury and waste, and to protect the fruit and shade trees thereon, and to cut no green trees and to commit no waste or damage on said real estate and to suffer none to be done; and to keep up and maintain in good repair all buildings, stables, cribs, fences and improvements on said farm; and further agrees not to remove any straw or manure from said farm, but to spread upon said premises all manure made thereon.

And the said first party covenants that the said second party, on paying the rent and performing the covenants aforesaid, shall peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the said demised premises for the term aforesaid.

To secure the payment of the rents herein specified and the faithful performance and strict fulfillment of all the covenants of said second party in this lease contained, said second party does hereby expressly mortgage unto said first party all crops growing or grown on said premises during the term of this lease, and does hereby expressly authorize and fully empower said first party in the case of any default on the part of said second party in paying said rent or in performing any of the covenants in this lease, to seize and take possession of said mortgaged property at once, and sell the same at public auction, with notice as provided by law, and out of the proceeds of said sale, to pay and discharge all rents, damages and expenses which may at the time be due and incurred, and pay over to said second party the surplus money arising from such sale.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, both parties have herenunto set their hands and seals the day and year hereinbefore written.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

LETTERS OF CREDIT.

LETTERS OF CREDIT are of two kinds, general and special. A special letter of credit is addressed to a particular individual by name, and is confined to him, and gives no other person a right to act upon it. A general letter, on the contrary, is addressed to any and every person, and, therefore, gives any person to whom it may be shown, authority to advance upon its credit. A privity of contract springs up between him and the drawer of the letter and it becomes, in legal effect, the same as if addressed to him by name.

The language of a letter of credit should be well considered in reference to the point whether the writer intends to confine it to one or more transactions amounting to a specified sum, and beyond that extent, to cease, or whether he will allow it to stand as a continuing guaranty, so that the person for whose benefit it is given may continue to make new transactions under it, by paying what he first incurs.

If the writer desires that notice should be given him of transactions had under the guaranty, it is best to express that condition in the letter. If expressed, the condition must be steadily pursued. There is some conflict of authority as to whether notice is necessary, if not required by the tenor of the letter.

In order to render the writer liable, the terms of the letter must be strictly pursued. If it specifies the amount or the time of credit, he cannot be held for a greater amount, or for a debt incurred at a longer credit.

Merchandise letters of credit are issued by banking houses on their correspondents, usually in distant countries, to aid in the purchase and import of large amounts of merchandise. These are usually accompanied by special agreements made by the one in whose favor the letter is issued. On the arrival of the goods, they are usually committed for sale to the importer, who gives the bankers a trust receipt or other special agreement in regard to them.

Circular notes, as they are called, are a still more recent invention, and are now used extensively both in this country and in Europe, but by travelers almost exclusively. They are generally, but not always, for specific sums, and are in fact letters of credit which a banking house gives to a traveler, and which are made available, on presentation to any one of the agents or correspondents of the house, in a long list of places, the names, both of the places and of the agents in them, being usually stated in the instrument itself. A principal object of this is to enable a traveler to supply himself with funds frequently and at various points, and thus to prevent the necessity of carrying with him large sums of money, or depositing them at the principal centers of business along his route. These circular notes are usually transferable by indorsement, and are perhaps more like bills of exchange than ordinary letters of credit, but are not the same, nor would they be in all respects governed by the law of negotiable paper.

1290. Agreement Accompanying Above Form.

MESSRS. A. B. & Co.:

GENTLEMEN.—Having received from you the letter of credit of which the annexed is a copy, hereby agree to its terms, and in consideration thereof bind to accept the drafts of Messrs. . . , or your own, on presentation, to give you satisfactory security for their payment, if required, and to pay them at maturity, either in cash, at the rate of exchange at which you may then be drawing, or in sterling bills, payable at not exceeding sixty days sight, in London, indorsed by . . . and approved by you, it being understood that you may reject any bills, however good, if you have at the time your limited amount running.

It is understood that all payments made to you in money or remittances made to . . . , in your bills shall be taken as a payment without recourse.

Their charge for commission to be . . . per cent. on such part of this credit as may be used, and they will furnish their account current semi-annually including that for forwarding charges, and draw or authorize you to draw on . . . for the balance thereof at sight.

Interest to be charged at the rate of [five] per cent. per annum, or at the current rate if it be above that.

And . . . hereby give you a specific claim and lien on all goods, and the proceeds thereof, for which . . . may come under any engagements in virtue of this credit, on all policies of insurance on such goods, and on all bills of lading for the same, with full power and authority to take possession and dispose of them at discretion, and to charge all expenses, including commissions for sale and guarantee.

And . . . further pledge to you said goods and the proceeds thereof as security for any other indebtedness of . . . to you.

This obligation is to continue in force, and to be applicable to all transactions, notwithstanding any change in the individuals composing the respective firms, parties to this contract, or either of them, or in that of the user of this credit, whether such change shall arise from the accession of one or more new partners, or from the death or secession of any partner or partners.

E. F. & Co.

[To this add copy of letter of credit, Form No. 1289].

1291. Open or Revolving Merchandise Letter of Credit.

[Add to Form 1287, or 1289, after *]: [200 days] after the date of the indorsement on this credit of each and every bill drawn thereunder, or sooner if you shall be notified by us of the due payment of such bill or bills, the amount of said bill or bills shall again in all respects and subject to all like conditions be available for drafts; it being intended that this shall be an open or revolving credit, good for an amount not exceeding £ , outstanding and unsettled at any one time. Any bill or bills drawn hereunder shall be presumed to be paid 200 days after indorsement upon this credit of such bill or bills, unless in the meantime you shall be advised of nonpayment.

1292. Guaranty of Merchandise Letter of Credit, and Agreement.

In consideration of the foregoing agreement and credit, and of one dollar to me paid by A. B. & Co., of New York, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, I do hereby guarantee said A. B. & Co., of New York, and A. B. & Co., of London, England, that the before-named E. F. & Co., will in all respects well and truly keep and perform each and every provision and condition of the foregoing agreement and credit on their part to be kept and performed, at the times and in the manner therein provided and set forth, and I also agree that said A. B. & Co., of New York, may, without in anywise affecting or annulling this guaranty, release the goods purchased under said credit upon trust receipts to be approved by them, or do any other act or thing necessary or customary in like transactions, or which in their discretion they may think proper, and without notice to me, it being intended that this guaranty shall cover every such transaction, and that it shall continue and not be in any way affected or annulled, except by written agreement signed by all parties hereto, until every liability of any kind under said credit, agreement, trust receipt, or otherwise shall be fully paid and discharged. I also hereby expressly waive and dispense with any demand upon the said E. F. & Co., or any notice of any non-performance on their part of any of the provisions or conditions, as aforesaid, holding myself liable to said A. B. & Co., of New York, and A. B. & Co., of London, under this guaranty and said agreement, credit, or otherwise, equally with the said E. F. & Co.

[If guarantor is a married woman, add as follows: And in consideration of the premises, I hereby charge my separate and individual estate of every kind and nature with and under this guaranty, and the payment of any sum or sums that may become due thereunder.] (Signed.) K. S.

Dated, New York, .

1293. Agreement on Purchase of Merchandise Under Order.

Having given to Messrs. Jones & Co., of Shanghai, an order for the purchase of tea, of which the annexed is a copy, to be forwarded by Smith & Co., for execution by Messrs. Jones & Co., who are hereby authorized to draw for our account against the cost, including charges, together with a commission of 3 per cent. for buyers' and bankers' commission, of such merchandise as may be purchased under said order, drafts on Messrs. Smith & Co., of London, England, for the amount of the invoice or invoices in pounds sterling, at four months' sight; we do hereby agree, without failure, and in any event, as hereinafter stated, to provide, at the office of Smith & Co., in the city of New York, at least twenty days before the maturity of each and every one of the said bills in London, sufficient funds in cash, or in bills of exchange on London, approved by Smith & Co., and indorsed by us, to meet the payment of the same; and that all property which shall be purchased under said order, the bills of lading thereof, the policies of insurance thereon and the proceeds thereof, are hereby pledged to and hypothecated with Smith & Co., as collateral security for the payment of the bills referred to, and for the payment of all sums now due or that may become due to Smith & Co. on the annexed or any other order for teas given to Messrs. Jones & Co. through them, and are and shall be held subject to the order of Smith & Co., on demand, with authority and power to take possession and dispose of the same at discretion, as security for, or reimbursement of, any advances made for our account, and to charge all expenses, including commissions for sale and guaranty; and we further agree to give any additional security that may be demanded.

Eventual interest to be charged at the published Bank of England rate, with a minimum of [five] per cent. per annum.

We further agree to provide insurance in A1 companies, covering all merchandise shipped under the annexed order, loss, if any, payable direct to Smith & Co., and certificates of such insurance to be placed in their hands

And we further agree that no dispute which may arise in regard to the annexed or any other order, or any acts done thereunder, shall in anywise affect our liability to provide for the payment of the bills drawn thereunder as herein provided; and we hereby agree to make such provision for payment absolutely and notwithstanding any such dispute.

1294. Trust Receipt for Goods Purchased Under Letter of Credit.

NEW YORK,

Received from Messrs. A. B. & Co., of New York, as agents of A. B. & Co., London, the merchandise specified in the bill of lading, per _____, and in consideration thereof, we hereby agree to hold said goods, as security as herein-after stated, on storage, as the property of said A. B. & Co., agents, with liberty to sell the same for cash. In case of sale we further agree to hold the avails on like account, and hand them, as soon as received, to A. B. & Co., agents, as security for due provision for the acceptances of A. B. & Co., London, on our account, as noted at foot; and we further agree to hold said goods and the proceeds thereof for the payment of any other indebtedness of ours to A. B. & Co., London.

WE FURTHER AGREE to keep said property insured against fire, to its full value; the sum insured to be payable, in case of loss, to A. B. & Co., agents, with the understanding that they are not to be chargeable with the storage, premiums of insurance, or any other expenses incurred on said property; the intention being to protect and preserve unimpaired the title of A. B. & Co., agents, to said property.

WE FURTHER AGREE that no failure or omission upon our part to fully carry out any of the provisions of this or any similar receipt or agreement, or of the agreement under which A. B. & Co., London, authorized the letter of credit under which said goods were purchased, shall be deemed a waiver by A. B. & Co., London, nor by A. B. & Co., of New York, agents, of any of their rights or remedies under either of said papers, unless said waiver shall be in writing indorsed hereupon, and signed by said A. B. & Co. agents.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that nothing in this agreement contained shall in anywise affect, vary, or impair any of the provisions of the letter of credit under which said property was purchased, or of the provisions of the agreement under which said letter of credit was issued.

E. F. & Co.

1295. Agreement on Turning Over to Bankers, Goods Received Under Letter of Credit.

NEW YORK,

To MESSRS. A. B. & Co., NEW YORK:

We herewith hand you [description of goods]. In consideration of the issuing of the letter of credit hereinafter mentioned and of this agreement, we agree that you shall hold these goods as collateral security for the due performance of the provisions of the annexed agreement signed by us, and relating to letter of credit A, No. , for £ , dated , , in favor of , and for all other obligations under any other credit or credits issued by you, or which may be hereafter issued by you to us, and as collateral security for the payment of any other indebtedness of ours to you, and that for any and all sums that may be due, as aforesaid, you shall have a lien prior to all other claims or liens upon the said property and the proceeds thereof.

WE FURTHER AGREE to keep said property insured against fire to its full value, the sum insured to be payable, in case of loss, to A. B. & Co., with the understanding that they are not to be chargeable with the storage, premiums of insurance, or other expenses incurred on said property. The intention being to protect and preserve unimpaired the lien of A. B. & Co., on said property and the proceeds thereof.

WE FURTHER AGREE that said property shall be held by said A. B. & Co., subject to the provisions printed below, and which form a part of this agreement.

WE FURTHER AGREE that in case of the failure or omission on our part to fully carry out any of the provisions of this or any similar receipt or agreement, or of any of the letters of credit mentioned in this agreement, or of the several agreements under which any of said letters of credit were or may be issued, said A. B. & Co., may thereupon, or at any time thereafter, in their discretion, sell the property herein referred to at public or private sale without notice to us (if sold at public auction, they may become the purchasers) and receive its proceeds, which are to be applied in the first place to the payment in full of all charges on said property, and then of whatever sum or sums that may be due said A. B. & Co., as herein provided.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that nothing herein contained shall in anywise affect, vary, or impair any of the provisions of any of the letters of credit aforesaid, or of the several agreements under which any of said letters of credit were issued.

We hereby warrant that the full legal title to the above property or securities is in us, and that said title and said property or securities are free and clear from any banker's or other or prior lien, charge, grant, or incumbrance, legal or equitable, except warehouse charges.

E. F. & Co.

CONDITIONS REFERRED TO IN THE ABOVE INSTRUMENT.

1. A. B. & Co. shall not be liable for any loss or injury resulting from depreciation, or from any cause, other than the gross negligence of the said firm, which may happen to the property mentioned in the above instrument whilst in their custody.

2. Any failure or omission on our part to fully carry out any of the provisions of this or any similar receipt or agreement, or of any letter of credit issued by A. B. & Co., or of any of the several agreements under which said A. B. & Co. have issued or may issue said letters of credit, shall not be deemed a waiver by A. B. & Co., agents, of any of their rights or remedies under this or either or any of said papers, unless said waiver shall be in writing endorsed hereupon, and signed by said A. B. & Co.

3. In case of any misrepresentation or concealment whatsoever, whether in regard to the ownership, character, value, or condition of the property or securities, or in any other respect, A. B. & Co. are entitled and are hereby authorized to sell the property or securities, upon five days' notice, to reimburse their advances, with interest, costs, commissions, and all other charges, and the party or parties signing the within agreement shall be held liable for any deficiency.

4. A. B. & Co. shall be at liberty, at any time hereafter, to take such action in regard to moving, storing, insuring, or in any way affecting the said property, as they, in their discretion, may think proper, and at the expense of the party or parties signing this agreement, and the said party or parties will sign or execute, upon demand, all papers requisite for the security of the said A. B. & Co., or to enable them to carry out the provisions of this contract.

1296. Agreement with Bank, Advancing on Goods.

NEW YORK, , .

Having delivered to the management, custody, and charge of A. B. & Co., the following described property, belonging to , viz: , and they having thereupon advanced to , upon the same, the sum of dollars, do, in consideration of said advance and the provisions of this contract, hereby agree with the said A. B. & Co. to refund said advance in lawful money of the United States, , and that for such advance, together with the commissions and charges hereinafter mentioned, as well as for all other sums whatsoever, due or owing, or to become due or owing, to the said A. B. & Co., from , the said A. B. & Co. shall have a lien, prior to all other claims, upon the said property, and the proceeds thereof; that the said property has been delivered to the said A. B. & Co., subject to the conditions hereto annexed, and which form a part of this agreement; and that the commissions of the said A. B. & Co., upon a sale thereof by them, shall be per cent. upon its gross proceeds, or the amount of the advance if greater than said proceeds. In case the amount of said advance shall not be paid to the said A. B. & Co. on the day of , the said A. B. & Co. may thereupon, or at any time thereafter in their discretion, sell the said property at public or private sale, and without notice to , and receive its proceeds, which are to be applied, in the first place, to the payment in full of the commissions, interest, and other charges on said property, and then of whatever of the said principal or other moneys that may be due from to the said A. B. & Co., as herein provided. But if no such sale shall be made by the said A. B. & Co., and the advance shall be refunded, and the property withdrawn from their custody, the compensation of the said A. B. & Co. for their management and charge of the said property, whilst in their custody, shall be per cent. upon the amount of such advance, over and above all charges for storage, interest, and all disbursements made by the said A. B. & Co., on account of said property, which, in any event, are to be paid.

CONDITIONS ABOVE REFERRED TO.

1. A. B. & Co. shall not be liable for any loss or injury resulting from depreciation, or from any cause other than the gross negligence of the said firm, which may happen to the property mentioned in the foregoing instrument, whilst in their custody.

2. At, or any time after, the expiration of the period fixed for the payment of the advance, if it remain unpaid, the said A. B. & Co. may, in their discretion, sell the property at public or private sale, without notice to the owner (if sold at public auction, they may become the purchasers), and receive its proceeds, which are to be applied, in the first place, to the payment in full of the commissions, interest, and all other charges on said advance or property, and then to the payment of whatever of said advance and other moneys there may then be due to said A. B. & Co. Until such sale shall be made and proceeds collected, and the advance paid in full, interest on said advance, and charges, so far as the same has not been paid, and a pro rata commission shall be charged.

3. In case of a deficiency of such proceeds, it is to be made good by the party receiving the advance, upon demand, and immediately after such sale; and if there be a surplus, it is to be immediately accounted for and paid over to the party signing this contract or order, except as otherwise herein provided.

4. If at any time before the period fixed for the payment of the advance, or said sale, the market value of the property should be so reduced as not to afford to the said A. B. & Co., at the time being, a margin of security for the payment of their advance of at least _____, then additional property or security to make up such margin shall, within two days after its being required, be deposited with them. And if default be made in that respect, the amount of such advance may immediately thereupon, at their option, and without further notice, become due and collectible, as if the period limited for its payment had expired, and they may immediately proceed as provided in the second article.

5. In case of any fraud, misrepresentation, or concealment whatsoever, whether in regard to the ownership, character, value, or condition of the property or securities, or in any other respect, or in case of failure to perform any of the conditions of this agreement, A. B. & Co. are entitled, and are hereby authorized to sell the property or securities immediately and without notice, to reimburse their advances with interest, costs, commissions, and all other charges, and the party or parties signing the within agreement will be held liable for any deficiency.

6. A. B. & Co. shall be at liberty, at any time hereafter, to take such action in regard to moving, storing, insuring, or in any way affecting the said property as they, in their discretion, may think proper, and at the expense of the party or parties signing this agreement; and the said party or parties will sign or execute, upon demand, all papers requisite for the security of the said A. B. & Co., or to enable them to carry out the provisions of this contract.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

LICENSES.

A LICENSE is an authority or permission to do some act affecting one's property, without granting any interest or right in the property. It is distinguished from a power, which involves to some extent the idea of the relation of principal and agent; and from a grant, which transfers some interest in the property. A license, relating even to real property, may be given by parol; but if it is desired to give any interest in the property, or any permanent right, the appropriate instrument is a deed.

A license is revocable at the will of him who grants it; and though it is a justification for acts done meanwhile, yet when revoked, the protection which it gave ceases. It is only where a license is annexed as an incident to a valid grant, that it is deemed irrevocable. Hence, if a mere temporary permission is sought, such as to go upon the land and cut wood, an oral license will suffice to protect from a charge of trespass; but if any continuous right is desired, a grant should be made.

CHAPTER XL.

MARRIAGE AND MARRIAGE SETTLEMENTS.

Marriage, in the eye of the common law, is simply a civil contract, differing from other contracts only in this, that it cannot be rescinded at the will of the parties. Formal solemnization by a clergyman or magistrate is not essential. An agreement by the parties, made in words relating to the present (as distinguished from a contract to marry in the future) has been declared by high authority to constitute a valid and complete marriage without either consummation or official solemnization.

In some of the states, however, the statutes require notice of intended marriage to be given, and licenses to be taken out; the details of the regulations adopted in this regard varying much in different states.

By the common law, infants may marry—in the case of males, at the age of fourteen, and females at twelve—and the consent of parents is not necessary to the validity of the marriage.

This rule is modified in New York. The legal age of consent being for both parties, eighteen years. Domestic Relations Law, § 7, Birdseye, C. & G. Consolidated Laws of New York, p. 1021.

Solemnization.—This subject is regulated in New York state by the Domestic Relations Law, §§ 10-18 and 25; Birdseye, C. & G. Consolidated Laws, pp. 1024-1031, and 1034.

The marriage must be solemnized by either:

1. A clergyman or minister of any religion, or by the leader, or either of the two assistant leaders of the society for ethical culture in the city of New York.

2. A mayor, recorder, alderman, city magistrate, police justice or police magistrate of a city, but in cities containing more than 100,000 and less than 1,000,000 inhabitants, by the mayor, or police justice, and no other officer of such city, except as provided in subdivisions 1 and 3; or

3. A justice or judge of a court of record or of a municipal court, or a justice of the peace, except justices of the peace in cities containing more than 100,000 and less than 1,000,000 inhabitants; or

4. A written contract of marriage signed by both parties and at least two witnesses who shall subscribe the same, stating the place of residence of each of the parties and witnesses and the date and place of marriage and acknowledgment of a conveyance of real estate to entitle the same to be recorded, provided however that all such contracts of marriage must in order to be valid be acknowledged before a judge of a court of record. Such contract shall be recorded within six months after its execution in the office of the clerk of the county in which the marriage was solemnized. The word "clergyman" when used in the following sections of this article, includes each person referred to in the first subdivision of this section. The word "magistrate" when so used, includes any person referred to in the second or third subdivision. Domestic Relations Law, § 11, p. 1026.

No particular form or ceremony is required when the marriage is solemnized by a clergyman or magistrate, but the parties must solemnly declare in the presence of a clergyman or magistrate and the attending witness or witnesses that they take each other as husband and wife. In every case, at least one witness beside the clergyman or magistrate must be present at the ceremony. The preceding provisions of this chapter, so far as they relate to the manner of solemnizing marriages, shall not affect marriages among the people called friends or quakers; nor marriages among the people of any other denominations having as such any particular mode of solemnizing marriages; but such marriages must be solemnized in the manner heretofore used and practiced in their respective societies or denominations, and marriages so solemnized shall be as valid as if this article had not been enacted. Ibid., § 12, p. 1027.

It shall be necessary for all persons intending to be married to obtain a marriage license from the town or city clerk of the town or city in which the woman to be married resides and to deliver said license to the clergyman or magistrate who is to officiate before the marriage can be performed. If the woman or both parties to be married are non-residents of the state such license shall be obtained from the clerk of the town or city in which the marriage is to be performed. Ibid., § 13, p. 1027.

The town or city clerk of each and every town or city in this state is hereby empowered to issue marriage licenses to any parties applying for the same who may be entitled under the laws of this state to contract matrimony, authorizing the marriage of such parties, which license shall be substantially in the following form:

1298. Marriage License.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
County of _____,
City or town of _____.

Know all men by this certificate that any person authorized by law to perform marriage ceremonies within the state of New York to whom this may come, he, not knowing any lawful impediment thereto, is hereby authorized and empowered to solemnize the rites of matrimony between _____ of _____ in the county of _____ and state of New York and _____ of _____ in the county of _____ and state of New York and to certify the same to be said parties or either of them under his hand and seal in his ministerial or official capacity and thereupon he is required to return his certificate in the form hereto annexed.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said town or city at _____ this _____ day of _____, 19 ____ . [SEAL.]

The form of the certificate annexed to said license and therein referred to shall be as follows:

I, _____ a _____ residing at _____ in the county of _____ and state of New York do hereby certify that I did on this _____ day of _____ in the year A. D., 19 _____, solemnize the rites of matrimony between _____ of _____ in the county of _____ and state of New York and _____ of _____ in the county of _____ and state of New York in the presence of _____ and _____ as witness and the license therefor is hereto annexed.

WITNESS my hand at _____ in the county of _____ this _____ day of _____, A. D., 19 _____.

In the presence of [Signatures.]

The license issued and the certificate duly signed by the person who shall have solemnized the marriage therein authorized shall be returned by him to the office of the town or city clerk who issued the same on or before the tenth day of the month next succeeding the date of the solemnizing of the marriage therein authorized and any person or persons who shall wilfully neglect to make such return within the time above required shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than fifty dollars for each and every offense. Ibid., § 14, p. 1027.

It shall be the duty of the town or city clerk when an application for a marriage license is made to him to require each of the contracting parties to sign and verify a statement or affidavit before such clerk or one of his deputies, containing the following information. From the groom: Full name of husband, color, place of residence, age, occupation, place of birth, name of father, country of birth, maiden name of mother, county of birth; number of marriage. From the bride: Full name of bride, place of residence, color, age, occupation, place of birth, name of father, country of birth, maiden name of mother, country of birth, number of marriage. The said clerk shall also embody in the statement, if either or both of the applicants have been previously married, a statement as to whether the former husband or husbands or the former wife or wives of the respective applicants are living or dead and as to whether either or both of said applicants are divorced persons, if so when and where the divorce or divorces were granted and shall also embody therein a statement that no legal impediment exists as to the right of each of the applicants to enter into the marriage state. The town or city clerk is hereby given full power and authority to administer oaths and may require the applicants to produce witnesses to identify them or either of them and may also examine under oath or otherwise other witnesses as to any material inquiry pertaining to the issuing of the license. If it appears from the affidavits and statements so taken, that the persons for whose marriage the license in question is demanded are legally competent to marry the said clerk shall issue such license, except in the following cases. If it shall appear upon an application of the applicants as provided in this section that the man is under twenty-one years of age or that the woman is under the age of eighteen years, then the town or city clerk before he shall issue a license shall require the written consent to the marriage from both parents of the minor or minors or such as shall then be living, or if the parents of both are dead then the written consent of the guardian or guardians of such minor or minors. If there is no parent or guardian of the minor or minors living to their knowledge then the town or city clerk shall require the written consent to the marriage of the person under whose care or government the minor or minors may be before a license shall be issued. The parents, guardians or other persons whose consents it shall be necessary to obtain before the license shall issue, shall personally appear before the town or city clerk and execute the same if they are residents of the state of New York and physically able so to do. If they are nonresidents of the state the required consents may be executed and duly acknowledged without the state but the consent with a certificate attached showing the authority of the officer to take acknowledgments must be duly filed with the town or city clerk before a license shall issue. Before issuing any license herein provided for, the town or city clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar which sum shall be paid by the applicants before or at the time the license is issued; and all such fees so received by the clerks of cities shall be paid monthly to the treasurer of the city wherein such license is issued. Any town or city clerk who shall issue a license to marry any persons one or both of whom shall not be at the time of the marriage under such license legally competent to marry without first requiring the parties to such marriage to make such affidavits and statements or who shall not require the procuring of the consents provided for by this act, which shall show that the parties authorized by said license to be married are legally competent to marry shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every offense. Ibid., § 15, p. 1029.

Any person who shall in any affidavit or statement required or provided for in this act wilfully and falsely swear in regard to any material fact as to the competency of any person for whose marriage the license in question or concerning the procuring or issuing of which such affidavit or statement may be made shall be deemed guilty of perjury and on conviction thereof shall be punished as provided by the statutes of this state. Ibid., § 16, p. 1030.

If any clergyman or other person authorized by the laws of this state to perform marriage ceremonies shall solemnize or presume to solemnize any marriage between any parties without a license being presented to him or them as herein provided or with knowledge that either party is legally incompetent to contract matrimony as is provided for in this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year. Ibid., § 17, p. 1030.

Any such clergyman or officer as aforesaid to whom any such license duly issued may come and not having personal knowledge of the incompetency of either party therein named to contract matrimony, may lawfully solemnize matrimony between them. Ibid., § 18, p. 1030.

Each town and city clerk hereby empowered to issue marriage licenses shall keep a book in which he shall record and index all affidavits, statements, consents and licenses together with the certificate attached showing the performance of the marriage ceremony which book shall be kept and preserved as a part of the public records of his office. On or before the fifteenth day of each month the said town and city clerk shall file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which said town or city is situated the original of each affidavit, statement, consent, license and certificate, which have been filed with or made before him during the preceding month. He shall not be required to file any of said documents until the license is returned with the certificate showing that the marriage to which they refer has been actually performed. Ibid., § 19, p. 1031.

The county clerk of each county shall record and index in a book kept in his office for that purpose each statement, affidavit, consent and license together with the certificate thereto attached showing the performance of the marriage ceremony filed in his office. During the first twenty days of the month of January, April, July and October of each year the county clerk shall transmit to the state department of health at Albany, New York, a copy of all affidavits, statements, consents and licenses with certificates attached filed in his office during the three months preceding the date of said report, also copies of all contracts of marriage made and recorded in his office during said period entered into in accordance with subdivision four of section eleven of this chapter, which said record shall be kept on file and properly indexed by the state department of health. The services rendered by the county clerk in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be a county charge except in counties where the county clerk is a salaried officer in which case they shall be a part of the duties of his office. Ibid., § 20, p. 1030.

Blank forms for marriage licenses and certificates and also the proper books for registration ruled for the items contained in said forms and also blank statements and affidavits and such other blanks as shall be necessary to comply with the provisions of this article shall be prepared by the state board of health and shall be furnished by said department at the expense of the state to the county clerks of the various counties of the state in the quantities needed from time to time, and the county clerk of each county shall distribute them to town and city clerks in their respective county in such quantities as their necessities shall require. The expense of distributing the same to said town and city clerks is hereby made a county charge. Ibid., § 21, p. 1032.

Copies of the records of marriages including the license and certificate of marriage and all other records pertaining thereto duly certified by the clerk of the county where the same are recorded under his official seal shall be evidence in all courts. Ibid., § 23, p. 1032.

The provisions of this article pertaining to the granting of the licenses before a marriage can be lawfully celebrated apply to all persons who assume the marriage relation in accordance with subdivision four of section eleven of this chapter. Nothing in this article contained shall be construed to render void by reason of a failure to procure a marriage license any marriage solemnized between persons of full age nor to render void any marriage between minors or with a minor under the legal age of consent where the consent of parent or guardian has been given and such marriage shall be for such cause voidable only as to minors or a minor upon complaint of such minors or minor or of the parent or guardian thereof. Ibid., § 25, p. 1034. As to contracts between husband and wife, and articles of separation, see the chapter on HUSBAND AND WIFE.

THIS CERTIFIES, that on the _____ day of _____, _____, before me came A. B., of the city of _____, and the state of _____, and C. D., of the city of _____, and state of _____, to me known to be the persons herein described [or, C. D., to me known, and A. B., proven to me by the oath of Y. Z.], and were by me lawfully united in marriage according to the laws of the state of _____, in the presence of the witnesses below named.

AND I FURTHER CERTIFY, that I ascertained previous to the solemnization of the said marriage, that the said A. B. and C. D. were of sufficient age to contract the same, and that after due inquiry by me made, there appeared no lawful impediment to such marriage.

[Signature and title of officer.]

[Signatures of witnesses.]

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the said intended marriage, and of the sum of one dollar to the said party of the second part, by the said party of the third part paid, the receipt whereof is hereby confessed and acknowledged, the said party of the second part hath granted, bargained, and sold, and by these presents doth grant, bargain, and sell unto the said party of the third part, his successors and assigns, all that [here describe the property]:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tenements and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, unto the said party of the third part, his successors and assigns, to such uses and purposes as are hereinafter mentioned — to wit: For the use and benefit of the said party of the second part, until her said intended marriage shall take place, and from and after the solemnization thereof, then upon trust from time to time to apply to the use of the said party of the second part, all the interest, dividends, and annual produce thereof, during the joint lives of the said parties of the first and second parts, to her own proper use and benefit, and upon her own proper receipt for the same, notwithstanding her coverture, to the intent that the same may not be at the disposal or under the control of the said party of the first part, or in any manner subject to his debts and engagements; and from and immediately after the decease of the said party of the first part, in case the said party of the second part shall survive him, then upon trust for the use and benefit of the said party of the second part, her executors, administrators, and assigns; and upon trust in such case to grant and convey the trust estate, and every part thereof, to the said party of the second part absolutely, or to grant and convey the same to such person or persons as she, by any writing to be by her duly executed, may limit, direct, and appoint. But in case the said party of the first part shall survive the said party of the second part, then upon trust from and immediately after her decease, to apply to the use of the said party of the first part, all the interest, dividends, and annual produce thereof, from time to time, during his natural life, to and for his own use and benefit; and on the decease of the said party of the first part, to pay and divide the capital or principal of the said trust fund, and to grant and convey all her real estate to and among the lawful children of the said party of the second part, and their issue, in such proportions, shares, manner, and form as she, by any writing, under her hand subscribed in the presence of two or more witnesses, shall direct and appoint; and for want of such appointment, to and among the said children of the said party of the second part, and the lawful issue of such of them as may be deceased, according to the rules of descent and of distribution in cases of intestacy. But if there be no issue of the said party of the second part then surviving, then, upon trust, to pay and dispose of the said capital or principal, and grant and convey the said real estate according to the direction and appointment of the said party of the second part, and for want of such appointment, to and among her then surviving nephews and nieces, children to her sisters, and the lawful issue of such of them as may be deceased, according to the like rule of descent and distribution.

[Power to sell and re-invest, if added, may be as follows:] And the said party of the second part doth hereby grant and agree that the said party of the third part, upon the written request of her, the said party of the second part, may grant and convey the whole or any designated portion of the said estate upon such terms as she shall direct, and receive the consideration money therefor, and invest the same for the like uses and purposes hereinbefore declared, with respect to the original trust.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties to these presents have hereunto interchangeably set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

CHAPTER XLI.

MORTGAGES.

A mortgage is the conveyance of an estate by way of pledge for the security of debt, and to become void on payment of it. According to the old view, the legal ownership was vested in the creditor; but in equity, and the courts of law adopt the same rule now, the mortgagor remains the actual owner, until he is debarred by his own default or by judicial decree.

In this chapter, mortgages of real property only are treated; those relating to personal property, being subject to somewhat different rules, are treated under CHATEL MORTGAGES.

The usual form of a mortgage is a deed, with terms purporting to convey the land absolutely, followed by other terms expressing that it is to be void if the grantor pays a certain sum. This condition is called the defeasance.

A power of sale, in case of default, is usually inserted, which enables the mortgagee to enforce payment. The manner of foreclosure of the mortgage may be either by an action, or by advertisement according to the statute, as is stated in the chapter of FORECLOSURE.

A mortgage may be made either with or without a personal promise to pay the debt. If no such promise is expressed, the mortgage does not render the mortgagor liable for the sum secured, but only gives a lien on the property. It is usual not only to insert a covenant in the mortgage to pay the debt, but to give a bond or note for it, and to recite the fact in the mortgage, and state that the mortgage is given as collateral to the personal security.

A mortgage may be made to secure a contingent liability or future advances; but in such case it ought to be so expressed.

A mortgage on which the principal or interest is payable in installments may contain a provision that in case of any default the mortgagee may elect to require payment of the whole interest and principal at once. This provision is usually termed the interest clause.

Where a considerable part of the value of the mortgaged premises consists in buildings, it is usual to provide that the mortgagor shall keep them insured in a specified sum and assign the policy to the mortgagee. This is called the insurance clause.

It is not necessary for the wife of a mortgagor to join in executing the mortgage, if it be given at the same time that the property is conveyed to him, and for the purpose of securing purchase money. In these cases it is usual to state the fact in the mortgage, by a clause inserted at the end of the description of the premises.

Mortgages by peculiar parties, corporations, executors, etc., should be modified slightly, according to the forms given for deeds by such parties.

Mortgages should be acknowledged or proved as deeds are, for the forms of which see the chapter on ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND PROOF OF DEEDS. They are to be recorded like deeds. For the provisions in this regard, see chapter on DEEDS.

WHEREAS, the said A. B. is justly indebted to the said party of the second part, in the sum of dollars, lawful money of the United States, secured to be paid by his certain bond or obligation, bearing even date with these presents, in the penal sum of dollars, lawful money, as aforesaid, conditioned for the payment of the said first-mentioned sum of dollars, lawful money, as aforesaid, to the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, on the day of , which will be in the year one thousand nine hundred and , and interest thereon to be computed from the date thereof, at and after the rate of per cent. per annum and to be paid semi-annually — to wit: on the day of and on the day of in each and every year, until the whole of the said principal sum be paid; and it is thereby expressly agreed, that should any default be made in the payment of the said interest, or of any part thereof, on any day whereon the same is made payable, as above expressed, and should the same remain unpaid and in arrear for the space of days, then, and from thenceforth — that is to say, after the lapse of the said days — the aforesaid principal sum of dollars, with all arrearage of interest thereon, shall, at the option of the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, become and be due and payable immediately thereafter, although the period above limited for the payment thereof may not then have expired, anything therein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding, as by the said bond or obligation and the condition thereof, reference being thereunto had, may more fully appear.

NOW, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said parties of the first part, for the better securing the payment of the said sum of money mentioned in the condition of the said bond or obligation, with interest thereon, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and also for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar, to them in hand paid by the said party of the second part, at or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold, aliened, released, conveyed, and confirmed, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, convey, and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs and assigns forever, all [here insert description]:

TOGETHER WITH all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest, dower, right of dower, property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, as well in law as in equity, of the said parties of the first part, of, in, and to the same, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above-granted and described premises, with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, to his and their own proper use, benefit, and behoof forever;

PROVIDED ALWAYS, and these presents are upon this express condition, that if the said parties of the first part, their heirs, executors, or administrators, shall well and truly pay unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the said sum of money mentioned in the condition of the said bond or obligation, and the interest thereon, at the time and in the manner mentioned in the said condition, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, that then these presents, and the estate hereby granted, shall cease, determine, and be void. And the said A. B., for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, does covenant and agree to pay unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the said sum of money and interest, as mentioned above and expressed in the condition of the said bond. And if default shall be made in the payment of the said sum of money above mentioned, or the interest that may grow due thereon, or of any part thereof, that then and from thenceforth it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, and assigns, to enter into and upon all and singular the premises hereby granted or intended so to be, and to sell and dispose of the same, and all benefit and equity of redemption of the said parties of the first part, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, therein, at public auction, according to the act in such case made and provided; and as the attorney of the said parties of the first part, for that purpose by these presents duly authorized, constituted, and appointed to make and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, a good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance in the law for the same, in fee simple, and out of the money arising from such sale, to retain the principal and interest which shall then be due on the said bond or obligation, together with the costs and charges of advertisement and sale of the said premises, rendering the overplus of the purchase money (if any there shall be) unto the said A. B., party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns; which sale, so to be made, shall forever be a perpetual bar, both in law and equity, against the said parties of the first part, their heirs and assigns, and all other persons claiming or to claim the premises, or any part thereof, by, from, or under them, or either of them.

And it is expressly agreed by and between the parties to these presents* that the said parties of the first part shall and will keep the buildings erected and to be erected upon the lands above conveyed, insured against loss or damage by fire, in at least the sum of dollars [or, in an amount] and by insurers approved by the said party of the second part, and assign the policy and certificates thereof to the said party of the second part; and in default thereof, it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part to effect such insurance, and the premium and premiums paid for effecting the same shall be a lien on the said mortgaged premises, added to the amount of the said bond or obligation, and secured by these presents, and payable on demand, with interest at the rate of per cent. per annum.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 1304].

1307. Same with Further Assurance and Receiver Clauses

[As in preceding form to *, and from thence as follows:] that , the part of the first part, will execute any further necessary assurance of the title to said premises and will forever warrant said title.

And it is hereby further covenanted and agreed that the said part of the second part, legal representatives or assigns, shall be at liberty, immediately after any default in any of the conditions of said bond or mortgage, upon a complaint filed, or any other proper legal proceedings commenced for the foreclosure of this mortgage, to apply for, and shall be entitled as a matter of right, and without regard to the value of the premises above described, or the solvency or insolvency of the part of the first part, or of any owner of said premises, and without notice to the part of the first part, heirs or assigns, to the appointment by any competent court or tribunal of a receiver of the rents, issues, and profits of said premises, with the power to lease said premises for a term to be approved of by the court, with power to pay taxes, assessments, and water rents, which are or may become liens on said premises, and keep the same insured, and with power to take proceedings to dispossess tenants, and make all necessary repairs, and with such other powers as may be deemed necessary, who, after deducting all charges and expenses attending the execution of the said trust as receiver, shall apply the residue of the said rents and profits to the payment and satisfaction of this mortgage, and the bond accompanying the same, or to any deficiency which may arise after applying the proceeds of the sale of said premises to the amount due, including interest, and costs and expenses of the foreclosure sale.

1308. Same, with Interest, Tax, Assessment, Insurance, and Receiver Clauses.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between , of , of the first part, and of , of the second part;

WHEREAS, the said justly indebted to the said part of the second part, in the sum of , lawful money of the United States, secured to be paid by certain bond or obligation bearing even date with these presents, in the penal sum of , lawful money, as aforesaid, conditioned for the payment of the said first mentioned sum of .

AND IT IS THEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREED, that should any default be made in the payment of the said interest, or of any part thereof, on any day whereon the same is made payable, as above expressed, or should any tax or assessment be hereafter imposed upon the premises hereinafter described and become due or payable, and should the said interest remain unpaid and in arrear for the space of days, or such tax or assessment remain unpaid and in arrear for , then and from thenceforth, that is to say, after the lapse of either one of said periods, as the case may be, the aforesaid principal sum, with all arrearage of interest thereon, shall, at the option of the said part of the second part, administrators or assigns, become and be due and payable immediately thereafter, although the period above limited for the payment thereof may not then have expired, anything thereinbefore contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; as by the said bond or obligation, and the condition thereof, reference being thereunto had, may more fully appear.

NOW, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said part of the first part, for the better securing the payment of the said sum of money mentioned in the condition of the said bond or obligation, with interest thereon, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and also for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar to in hand paid by the said part of the second part, at or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, ha granted, bargained, sold, aliened, released, conveyed, and confirmed, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, convey, and confirm unto the said part of the second part, and to and assigns forever, all [here insert description]:

TOGETHER WITH all and singular the tenements, bereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof: And also, all the estate, right, title, interest, ; property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, as well at law as in equity, of the said part of the first part, of, in, and to the same, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances:

To HAVE AND TO HOLD the above-granted, bargained, and described premises, with the appurtenances, unto the said part of the second part, heirs and assigns, to their own proper use, benefit, and behoof forever.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, and these presents are upon this express condition, that if the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, or administrators, shall well and truly pay unto the said part of the second part, executors, administrators, or assigns, the said sum of money mentioned in the condition of the said bond or obligation and the interest thereon, at the time and in the manner mentioned in the said condition, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, that then these presents, and the estate hereby granted, shall cease, determine, and be void. And the said , heirs, executors and administrators, do covenant and agree to pay unto the said part of the second part, executors, administrators, or assigns, the said sum of money and interest, as mentioned above, and expressed in the condition of the said bond. And if default shall be made in the payment of the said sum of money above mentioned, or the interest that may grow due thereon, or of any part thereof, or of the taxes or assessments on the premises hereby granted, that then and from thenceforth it shall be lawful for the said part of the second part, executors, administrators, and assigns, to enter into and upon all and singular the premises hereby granted or intended so to be, and to sell and dispose of the same, and all benefit and equity of redemption of the said part of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns therein, at public auction, according to the act in such case made and provided: And as the attorney of the said part of the first part, for that purpose by these presents duly authorized, constituted, and appointed, to make and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, a good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance in the law for the same, in fee simple, and out of the money arising from such sale, to retain the principal and interest which shall then be due on the said bond or obligation, together with the costs and charges of advertisement and sale of the said premises, rendering the overplus of the purchase money (if any there shall be) unto the said of the first part, heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns; which sale, so to be made, shall forever be a perpetual bar, both in law and equity, against the said part of the first part, heirs and assigns, and all other persons claiming or to claim the premises, or any part thereof, by, from, or under them, or either of them.

And the said do further covenant, grant, promise, and agree, that , the said part of the first part, shall and will make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver in due form of law all such further or other deeds or assurances as may at any time hereafter be advised, devised or required, for the more fully and effectually conveying the premises above described and hereby granted, or intended so to be, unto the said part of the second part, executors, administrators, or assigns, for the purposes aforesaid, and unto all and every person or persons, corporation or corporations, deriving any estate, right, title, or interest therein, under this indenture or the power of sale herein contained, and the above-granted premises against the said part of the first part, and all persons claiming through them, will warrant and defend.

AND IT IS EXPRESSLY AGREED, by and between the parties to these presents, that the said part of the first part shall and will keep the buildings erected and to be erected upon the lands above conveyed, insured against loss and damage by fire, by insurers, and in an amount approved by the said part of the second part, and assign the policy and certificates thereof to the said part of the second part; and in default thereof, it shall be lawful for the said part of the second part to effect such insurance, and the premium and premiums paid for effecting the same shall be a lien on the said mortgaged premises, added to the amount of the said bond or obligation, and secured by these presents, and payable on demand, with interest at the rate of per cent. per annum.

And it is further expressly covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto, that if default shall be made in the payment of the principal sum mentioned in the condition of said bond, or of any part thereof, or of the interest which shall accrue thereon, or of any part thereof, or of any tax or assessment, or of any part thereof, or of the interest thereon, or of any part thereof, at the respective times therein specified for the payment thereof, the said part of the second part, legal representatives or assigns, shall have the right forthwith, after any such default, to enter upon and take possession of the said mortgaged premises, and receive the rents, issues, and profits thereof, and apply the same, after payment of all necessary charges and expenses, on account of this mortgage and of the bond accompanying the same.

And the said part of the second part, legal representatives or assigns, shall be at liberty immediately after any such default, upon a complaint filed, or any other proper legal proceedings commenced for the foreclosure of this mortgage, to apply for, and shall be entitled as a matter of right, and without regard to the value of the premises above described, or the solvency or insolvency of the part of the first part, or of any owner of said premises, and on ten days' notice to the part of the first part, heirs or assigns, to the appointment by any competent court or tribunal of a receiver of the rents, issues, and profits of said premises, with the power to lease the said premises for a term to be approved of by the court, with power to pay taxes, assessments, and water rents, which are or may become liens on said premises, and keep the same insured, and with power to take proceedings to dispossess tenants, and make all necessary repairs, and with such other powers as may be deemed necessary, who, after deducting all charges and expenses attending the execution of the said trust as receiver, shall apply the residue of the said rents and profits to the payment and satisfaction of this mortgage, and the bond accompanying the same, or to any deficiency which may arise after applying the proceeds of the sale of said premises to the amount due, including interest and costs, and expenses of the foreclosure sale.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said part of the first part ha hereunto set hand and seal the day and year first above written.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , between A. B., of , in the county of , and state of , merchant, of the first part, and Y. Z., of , in the said county, farmer, of the second part:

WHEREAS, M. N., of , did, by a certain indenture of lease, bearing date the day of , in the year one thousand nine hundred and , demise, lease, and to farm let unto the said A. B., and to his executors, administrators, and assigns, all and singular the premises hereinafter mentioned and described, together with their appurtenances:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same unto the said A. B., and to his executors, administrators, and assigns, for and during and until the full end and term of years, from the day of , and fully to be complete and ended, yielding and paying therefor unto the said M. N., and to his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns [or, if the lessor be a corporation, say, to its successors or assigns], the yearly rent or sum of dollars [here set forth the terms of the lease, or, better, refer to the instrument upon record]; and,

WHEREAS, the said party of the first part is justly indebted to the said party of the second part, in the sum of dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, secured to be paid by his certain bond or obligation bearing even date with these presents, in the penal sum of dollars, lawful money as aforesaid, conditioned for the payment of the said first-mentioned sum of dollars, as by the said bond or obligation and the condition thereof, reference being thereunto had, may more fully appear:

NOW, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the said party of the first part, for the better securing the payment of the said sum of money mentioned in the condition of the said bond or obligation, with interest thereon, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and also, for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar, to him in hand paid, by the said party of the second part, at or before the ensealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained, sold, assigned, transferred, and set over, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, assign, transfer, and set over unto the said party of the second part, all [here insert description of premises as in lease]. TOGETHER WITH all and singular the edifices, buildings, rights, members, privileges, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining. And also, all the estate, right, title, interest, term of years yet to come and unexpired, property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, as well in law as in equity, of the said party of the first part, of, in, and to the said demised premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances. And also, the said indenture of lease, and every clause, article, and condition therein expressed and contained:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said indenture of lease, and other hereby granted premises, unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators, and assigns, to his and their only proper use, benefit, and behoof, for and during all the rest, residue, and remainder of the said term of years yet to come and unexpired; subject, nevertheless, to the rents, covenants, conditions, and provisions in the said indenture of lease mentioned. PROVIDED ALWAYS, and these presents are upon this express condition, that if the said party of the first part shall well and truly pay unto the said party of the second part, the said sum of money mentioned in the condition of the said bond or obligation, and the interest thereon, at the time and in the manner mentioned in the said condition, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, that then and from thenceforth these presents and the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine, and be utterly null and void, anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding. And the said party of the first part does hereby covenant, grant, promise, and agree to and with the said party of the second part, that he shall well and truly pay unto the said party of the second part, the said sum of money mentioned in the condition of the said bond or obligation, and the interest thereon, according to the condition of the said bond or obligation. And that the said premises hereby conveyed now are free and clear of all incumbrances whatsoever, and that he has good right and lawful authority to convey the same in manner and form hereby conveyed. And if default shall be made in the payment of the said sum of money above mentioned, or in the interest which shall accrue thereon, or of any part of either, that then and from thenceforth it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part, and his assigns, to sell, transfer, and set over all the rest, residue, and remainder of the said term of years then yet to come, and all other the right, title, and interest of the said party of the first part, of, in, and to the same, at public auction, according to the act in such case made and provided. And as the attorney of the said party of the first part, for that purpose by these presents duly authorized, constituted, and appointed, to make, seal, execute, and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, a good and sufficient assignment, transfer, or other conveyance in the law, for the same premises, with the appurtenances; and out of the money arising from such sale, to retain the principal and interest which shall then be due on the said bond or obligation, together with the costs and charges of advertisement and sale of the same premises, rendering the overplus of the purchase money (if any there shall be), unto the said party of the first part, or his assigns; which sale, so to be made, shall be a perpetual bar, both in law and equity, against the said party of the first part, and against all persons claiming or to claim the premises, or any part thereof, by, from, or under him, them, or any of them.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 1304].

1310. Mortgage on Premises in Building Lease to Secure the Repayment of Sums Advanced and to be Advanced to the Lessee, to Enable Him to Complete Houses.

THIS INDENTURE, made the day of , between A. B., of, etc., of the one part, and Y. Z., of , of the other part [recite building lease to A. B.]; and,

WHEREAS, pursuant to the covenant for this purpose contained in the said recited indenture of lease, the said A. B. hath already laid out and expended the sum of dollars in erecting buildings on the said piece or parcel of ground in the said indenture comprised; and,

WHEREAS, the said A. B. having occasion for the sum of dollars, for the purpose of enabling him to complete the erections and buildings intended to be erected on the said piece or parcel of ground, pursuant to the aforesaid covenant as aforesaid, hath applied to and requested the said Y. Z. to lend him the same, which he, the said Y. Z., hath agreed to do in two separate sums — that is to say, the sum of dollars immediately upon the execution of these presents, and the sum of dollars, being the remainder of the said sum of dollars, when and so soon as all the erections and buildings already built, and to be erected and built, pursuant to the aforesaid covenant of the said A. B., as aforesaid, shall have been covered in, on having the said several sums of dollars and dollars, with interest thereon respectively, secured in manner hereinafter expressed:

Now, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That in pursuance of the said agreement, and in consideration of the sum of dollars, to the said A. B. paid by the said Y. Z., on or immediately before the execution of these presents, and in consideration of the covenant hereinafter contained on the part of the said Y. Z., to advance the further sum of dollars to the said A. B., on all the said erections and buildings being covered in as aforesaid, he, the said A. B., doth hereby assign unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, all and singular the piece or parcel of ground, hereditaments, and premises comprised in and demised by the said recited indenture of lease, and also all erections and buildings which have been erected and are now standing on the said premises [and all the estate, etc.]:

To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said hereditaments and premises hereby assigned, or expressed so to be, unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, for all the residue now unexpired of the said term of years, created by the said recited indenture of lease, subject, nevertheless, to the proviso for redemption hereinafter contained. PROVIDED ALWAYS, and it is hereby agreed and declared, that if the said A. B., his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, shall, on the day of , , pay to the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, the sum of dollars, with interest for the same, after the rate of dollars per cent. per annum, computed from the date of these presents, and shall also pay to the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, such further sum as shall be hereafter advanced by the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, pursuant to the covenant of the said Y. Z., in that behalf hereinafter contained, unto or on account of the said A. B., together with interest for the same, after the rate of dollars per cent. per annum, to commence and be computed from the time of advancing the same, at the expiration of six calendar months next after such sum as aforesaid shall be advanced, then and in such case the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall, upon the request and at the cost of the said A. B., his executors, administrators, or assigns, re-assign the said hereditaments and premises hereby assigned, or expressed so to be, unto the said A. B., his executors, administrators, and assigns, or as he or they shall direct. And the said A. B. doth hereby for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant with the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, that the said A. B., his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, shall and will, on the said day of , A. D. , pay unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, the said sum of dollars, with interest for the same, computed from the date of these presents, after the rate of dollars per cent. per annum; and if the said sum of dollars shall not be paid on the said day of , , then said A. B. shall and will pay to said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, interest on the said principal sum.

or on so much thereof as shall for the time being remain unpaid, after the rate aforesaid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the day of , and the day of , in every year, until the whole of the said principal sum shall be paid, and also shall and will pay unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, such sum as shall be hereafter advanced by the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, unto or on account of the said A. B., together with interest for the same, after the rate of dollars per cent. per annum, to commence and be computed from the time of advancing the same, at the expiration of six calendar months next after such sum as aforesaid shall be advanced, and if the last-mentioned sum shall not be paid at the expiration of the said six calendar months, then shall and will pay to the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, interest for the same, or so much thereof as shall for the time being remain unpaid, after the rate aforesaid, by half-yearly payments, on the same days as are hereinafter appointed for payment of the interest on the said principal sum of dollars [may insert absolute covenants for title by A. B., as in chapter on COVENANTS; and a covenant by A. B., for payment of the rents, and for the observance of the covenants in the lease]. And the said A. B. doth hereby for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant with the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, and assigns, that he, the said A. B., shall and will, before the day of , fully and completely finish the erections and buildings hereby assigned or expressed so to be, and all other the erections and buildings which are to be erected and built on the said piece of ground, pursuant to the covenant for this purpose entered into by the said A. B., by the said recited indenture of lease as therein mentioned; and that, in case default in this respect shall be made by the said A. B., then it shall be lawful for the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, to enter upon and into the said premises hereby assigned, and to complete the said erections and buildings, and any other erections and buildings which ought to be built on the said piece or parcel of ground, pursuant to the aforesaid covenant, in such manner as he or they may think proper; and in that case the said A. B., his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall or will, on demand, pay unto the said Y. Z., his executors, administrators, or assigns, all sums of money which he or they shall expend thereon, with interest thereon after the rate aforesaid, from the time or respective times of paying or advancing or expending the same, and that the said premises hereby assigned, or expressed so to be, shall then stand charged with, and not be redeemed or redeemable until full payment shall be made, as well of the moneys which shall be so expended as aforesaid, together with interest thereon as aforesaid, as also of the several other moneys hereby secured. And the said Y. Z. doth hereby, for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant with the said A. B., his executors, administrators, and assigns, that he, the said Y. Z., when and so soon as all the erections and buildings already erected and to be erected, pursuant to the covenant for that purpose contained in the said recited indenture of lease shall be covered in, and in case, up to that time, all and singular the covenants hereinbefore contained on the part of the said A. B. shall have been duly kept and performed, shall and will lend and advance the said A. B., his executors, administrators, and assigns, the further sum of dollars, at interest after the rate aforesaid, on the security of these presents.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 1304].

1311. Mortgage for Purchase Money.

[Insert in either of the forms, after the description of the premises:] being the same premises conveyed to the said A. B., by the said Y. Z. and wife, by deed bearing even date with these presents, which are given to secure the payment of [part of] the purchase money of the said premises.

1312. Mortgage to Secure Indorser.

[*As in Form 1304 to the , continuing thus:]

WHEREAS, the said party of the second part, at the request, and for the benefit of the said party of the first part, has, on the day of the date of these presents, indorsed a certain _____, made by the said party of the first part, for the sum of _____ dollars, bearing date _____, and payable _____ days after _____, to the order of _____, at _____:

Now, THEREFORE, this conveyance is intended to secure the party of the second part for all principal and interest money, costs, charges, and expenses which he may be compelled to pay, in consequence of the failure of the said party of the first part to pay and take up the said _____ at maturity; and if the amount of the said _____, principal and interest, shall be paid by the party of the first part at maturity, then these presents shall become void, and the estate hereby granted shall cease and utterly determine; but if default shall be made by the said party of the first part in the payment of the said sum of money, or the interest, or of any part thereof, at the time hereinbefore specified, and the same be paid by or collected of the party of the second part, the said party of the first part hereby authorizes and empowers the party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, to sell the said premises hereby granted, at public auction, and convey the same to the purchaser in fee simple, agreeably to the act in such case made and provided; and out of the money arising from such sale, to retain such sum or sums of money as may have been paid by or collected of the said party of the second part, as above mentioned, together with all costs and charges, and pay the overplus (if any) to the said party of the first part, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns.

IN WITNESS [etc., as in Form 1304].

1313. Mortgage to Secure Unliquidated Amount.

[Insert:] TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above-described premises, with the appurtenances, to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever; provided always, and these presents are upon the express condition that if the said [debtor], his heirs, executors, or administrators, shall well and truly pay, and save harmless and indemnify the said W. X. and Y. Z., and each of them, of and from all liabilities which they or either of them may have at any time contracted to or for said [debtor], either as surety, indorser, guarantor, or otherwise, whether now due or yet to grow due, and shall save harmless the said W. X. and Y. Z., and each of them, of and from all damages, costs, and charges on account of the same, according to the conditions of a certain bond or writing obligatory, bearing even date herewith, executed by the said [debtor] to the said parties of the second part, then these presents shall cease and become of no effect; but in case default shall be made in the payment of all or any part of the said liabilities as the same shall become due, at the time or times limited for the payment thereof, then in such case it shall be lawful, etc.

1314. Mortgage of Land in Exercise of a General Power of Appointment.

THIS INDENTURE, made, etc., between A. B., of _____, of the first part, and Y. Z., of _____, of the second part [recite conveyance to mortgagor, to such uses as he might by deed appoint, and, subject thereto, to uses in strict settlement, and an agreement for loan]: Now, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That in consideration [etc., reciting the receipt, etc.], he, the said A. B., in exercise and in execution of the power for this purpose given or limited to him by the said recited indenture as aforesaid, and of all other powers (if any), enabling him in this behalf, doth hereby appoint that all [here insert description], shall go, remain, and be to the use of the said Y. Z., his heirs and assigns, subject to the proviso hereinafter contained. [Continuing as in other cases.] 1315. Agreement Giving Priority to a Mortgage About to be Executed Over One Previously Executed.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that WHEREAS, A. G., of _____, and E. G., his wife, did, on the _____ day of _____, execute and deliver to Y. Z., a mortgage upon a certain farm of land, of which D. G., died seized and possessed, situate in the town of _____, in the county of _____, and state of _____, conditioned for and to secure the payment of the sum of _____ dollars, which said mortgage was recorded in the county clerk's office of _____ county, on the _____ day of _____, in book of Mortgages No. _____, at page _____; and,

WHEREAS, the said A. G. and his wife, for the purpose, among other things, of paying or securing certain debts owned by D. G., at the time of his death, have agreed to execute and deliver a mortgage upon said premises to F. 1317. Stipulation in a Mortgage Given to Secure the Payment to Trustees of Outstanding Securities Held by Various Creditors, That It Shall Be Deemed Purely Collateral, and Shall Not Affect the Liability of Sureties.

[Insert:] AND WHEREAS some of the parties to the notes, bills, acceptances or other securities which the lenders of the said several sums of money hold for the payment thereof, and which parties are liable to the said lenders therein, may, for anything that is known to the said parties of the second part, or to the lenders of the said money, stand in the relation of sureties to the said the parties of the first part; and,

WHEREAS, it is not the intention of the said parties to these presents that the said lenders shall, by the operation of these presents, or of the said bonds, relinquish any security which they now hold for the payment of the said money or any part thereof. It is, therefore, expressly stipulated and agreed that these presents, and the said bonds hereinbefore mentioned and referred to, shall be, and shall be regarded, in all courts and places as collateral to the said notes, bills, acceptances, and other securities; and that none of the said notes, bills, acceptances, or securities shall be deemed to be merged or extinguished by the execution of these presents, or of the said bonds, but the same are to remain in full force and effect; and also in case any of the parties liable, or who may become liable, upon the said notes, bills, acceptances, or other securities, shall pay the same or any part thereof before the money hereby secured shall become due and payable according to the periods of payment hereinbefore prescribed, and shall, by such payment, or in any other-wise, become entitled to prosecute the said the company, or any other party or parties, upon the said notes, bills, acceptances, or for such money paid or otherwise; the said parties so paying, and who shall become entitled to prosecute as aforesaid, shall, notwithstanding the credit or time of payment hereinbefore and in the said bond mentioned, be entitled immediately to maintain any suits or actions at law or in equity, in the same manner and to the same extent in every respect as though these presents and the said bonds had not been executed, or had been made payable immediately, and shall likewise be entitled to the same benefit of subrogation which they would be entitled to if the said time of credit had not been given, and for that purpose, in all suits and proceedings to be had or taken by any such party, in his own name or otherwise, the said moneys hereby secured shall be deemed to be, and shall be due and payable immediately, so far only as may be necessary to secure to the said parties who are sureties all rights and advantages incident to their relation as such sureties, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

1318. Stipulation as to Paying Off in Advance.

[Insert both in the mortgage and the bond, after the clause fixing the time of payment, such a clause as the following:] with the privilege to the parties of the first part, their executors, administrators, or assigns, at any time before said day of , , to pay off said mortgage in whole, or in sums of or more dollars at a time, on giving notice, in writing, to the party of the second part, his executors, administrators, or assigns, of intention so to do.

1319. Corporate Mortgage or Deed of Trust.

NOTE.—The following (No. 1319) is a short form of a trust mortgage sufficient for ordinary corporate purposes.

The succeeding form (No. 1320) is intended to be a full and complete railroad mortgage, with all the clauses and provisions that are likely to be necessary in any ordinary railroad mortgage.

Forms Nos. 1321–1325 are the forms respectively proper for a second mortgage, an income mortgage, a consolidated mortgage, an equipment mortgage, and a debenture mortgage. In case any of these latter features are combined with the ordinary corporate trust mortgage, the requisite provisions should be inserted from forms Nos. 1321–1325. For forms of temporary bonds see Nos. 1326–1328.

THIS INDENTURE, made and entered into this 1st day of April, A. D. , by and between the Building Company, a corporation duly created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the state of , and hereinafter called the building company, party of the first part, and the Trust Company, a corporation duly created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of said state of , as trustee, and hereinafter called the trustee, party of the second part:

WHEREAS, the building company is a corporation, as aforesaid, duly created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the state of , and more particularly formed and existing under title , chapter , of the General Statutes of , and possessing power and authority under its charter among other things to buy, own, improve, mortgage, and sell lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and real, mixed, and personal estate and property, and to do and perform any and all lawful business and undertakings that may be necessary, essential, and expedient to the proper and efficient carrying on and success of the several kinds of business by it assumed under its articles of incorporation, dated the day of , ; and,

WHEREAS, under and in pursuance of the authority in it vested under the laws aforesaid, the building company has acquired title to and is now the owner of lots six (6) and seven (7), in block sixty-four (64), of the city of proper, and has, for the more perfect carrying on of the business for which it was incorporated, built and erected on the property aforesaid a fire-proof, granite, and sandstone, twelve-story and basement office building, which is of the value of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000); and,

WHEREAS, the building company has full authority and power under the laws of the state of _____ to borrow money as aforesaid, and has also authority to issue its corporate bonds, and secure the same by mortgage or deed of trust upon any and all of the property, real or personal, of said building company, now owned, or which may hereafter be owned or acquired by it; and,

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the board of directors¹ of the building company, duly held pursuant to law and to notice on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz.:

WHEREAS, in the opinion of this board it is expedient and for the best interests of this company to release a part of the capital of the company invested in lots six (6) and seven (7), in block sixty-four (64), of the city of _____ proper, and the fire-proof, granite, and sandstone, twelve-story and basement office building, thereon erected, and fund the same at a low rate of interest, and for the purpose aforesaid to make, issue, and dispose of the first mortgage bonds of this company to the amount of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000), to be secured upon the said lots six (6) and seven (7), in block sixty-four (64), of the city of _____ proper, and said fire-proof, granite, and sandstone, twelve-story and basement office building, and the other property, real, personal, or mixed, now in or upon, or hereafter to be purchased by this company in connection therewith; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this company make, negotiate, and issue its twenty year first mortgage gold bonds for the aggregate sum of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000), which bonds shall be of the denomination of four hundred dollars ($400) or one thousand (1,000) Dutch guilders each, and which shall be numbered consecutively from one (1) to fifteen hundred (1,500), both inclusive, and shall be substantially in the following form, viz.:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.²

No. _____

STATE OF _____ $400.

f. 1,000.

FIRST MORTGAGE GOLD BOND OF THE _____ BUILDING COMPANY.

Total issue, $600,000.

The _____ Building Company, a corporation existing under the laws of the state of _____, for value received hereby acknowledges itself indebted to the _____ Trust Company of the city of _____, state of _____, as trustee, or bearer, or if this bond is registered, then to the registered owner hereof, as hereinafter provided, in the principal sum of four hundred dollars ($400), United States gold coin, and promises to pay the said sum, together with exchange on New York, or the equivalent thereof in Dutch money at the rate of two and one-half guilders (f. 2.50) to the dollar, to the said trust company, or bearer, or registered owner of this bond, on the 1st day of April, A. D. 19 _____, in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard of weight and fineness, at the office of the agents of the said Building Company in the city of Amsterdam, Holland; and also, until the repayment of the principal of said bond, to pay, in like gold coin at the same place and at the same rate of exchange in Dutch money aforesaid, interest on said principal sum on the first days of April and October in each year, at the rate of four and one-half per centum per annum on the presentation and surrender of the annexed coupons, and as they severally become due, and without deduction from either principal or interest for any United States or state or other tax whatsoever, which the Building Company is or may be required by law to retain therefrom, and which it hereby agrees to pay.

¹ In most cases, the action of the stockholders approving the issuing of the mortgage is also required by law. For the proper recitals in such case, see Form 1321, and those succeeding it.

² In this mortgage and the bonds thereunder, provision is made for the payment of the bonds abroad in foreign money. For the best form of corporation bond, see Form 1087.

This bond is one of a series of fifteen hundred (1,500) bonds of like tenor, date and amount, numbered consecutively from one (1) to fifteen hundred (1,500), both inclusive, and amounting in the aggregate to six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) or one million five hundred thousand Dutch guilders (f. 1,500,000), secured by a first mortgage or deed of trust bearing even date herewith, made, executed, and delivered by the Building Company to the Trust Company, as trustee, upon the freehold estate, lots six (6) and seven (7) of block sixty-four (64) of the city of proper, and the twelve-story and basement, fire-proof, granite and sandstone, office building situated thereon, together with the fixtures and appurtenances now or hereafter to be connected therewith, in the county of and state of , as more particularly described in said mortgage or deed of trust, to which reference is hereby made for the provisions thereof. And this bond is moreover secured by a sinking fund of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) per annum, payable to the said trustee on the 1st day of April, A. D. , and annually thereafter, as provided in said deed of trust or mortgage, and is liable to be redeemed at par, and ten per cent. premium, and accrued interest, at any time before the maturity hereof, and on and after the 1st day of April, 19 , on its being called for the purpose of redemption, and notice given for ninety (90) days, as is in the said deed of trust or mortgage more fully provided. This bond shall pass by delivery, except that, after the registration of ownership certified thereon by the transfer agent of the company, no transfer shall be valid except upon the books of the transfer agency, unless the last transfer be to bearer, which shall restore transferability by delivery, but this bond shall continue subject to successive registrations and transfers to bearer as aforesaid at the option of each holder. The registry of the bond as above shall not restrain the negotiability of the coupons by delivery merely, but the coupons may be surrendered and the interest made payable only to the registered owner of the bond. This bond shall not be valid until the certificate indorsed thereon shall have been duly executed by the said trustee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said building company has caused these presents to be executed by affixing hereunto its corporate seal, attested by its secretary, and has caused this bond to be signed in its name by its president, and the annexed interest coupons to be executed with the engraved signature of its treasurer, this 1st day of April, A. D. .

 On the day of , the Building Company promises to pay to the bearer at the office of the agents of said company in the city of Amsterdam, Holland, the sum of nine dollars (§9) in gold coin, or the equivalent in Dutch money, at the rate of two and one-half Dutch guilders (f. 2.50) to the dollar, with exchange on New York, being six (6) months' interest on its first mortgage four and one-half (4½) per cent. gold bond number .
Treasurer.

And that the following form of certificate be placed upon each and all of the said bonds issued under the security of the said deed of trust or mortgage:

TRUSTEE'S CERTIFICATE.

The Trust Company hereby certifies that this bond is one of the series of bonds mentioned in the deed of trust or mortgage therein referred to.
Trust Company,

By President.

Be it further Resolved, That for the purpose of securing the payment of said bonds and interest which shall accrue thereon, this company make, execute and deliver to the Trust Company of , , as trustee, a deed of trust or mortgage upon the freehold estate, lots six (6) and seven (7) of block sixty-four (64) of the city of proper, and the twelve-story and basement, fire-proof, granite and sandstone office building situated thereon, in the county of , and state of , together with the equipments, fixtures, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or which shall hereafter be acquired and used by this company in connection therewith, such deed of trust or mortgage to be in trust for the benefit and security of the holders of such bonds to the extent aforesaid, without preference, priority, or distinction as to lien or otherwise.

Resolved, That until the said fifteen hundred (1,500) bonds or obligations of the company for four hundred dollars ($400) or one thousand (1,000) Dutch guilders each, intended to be secured by the said deed of trust or mortgage, shall be engraved, executed, and delivered, the said bonds or obligations of the company, or any of them, may be represented by one or more written or printed obligations of this company of the same aggregate amount, in such form, and bearing such dates as the president of this company shall determine at the time of the execution and delivery thereof, and as shall be approved by the trustee; and such written or printed obligation or obligations so issued shall have the same rights, remedies, lien, and security that appertain to the said fifteen hundred (1,500) bonds for four hundred dollars ($400), or one thousand Dutch guilders (f. 1,000) each, when issued under the provisions of the said deed of trust or mortgage, and shall, until surrendered in exchange for a like amount of engraved bonds, represent the same indebtedness.*

Resolved, That this company reserve the right to redeem and cancel on the 1st day of April, A. D. 19 , and on the 1st day of April in each year thereafter during the currency of said bonds, the whole, or any part of said bonds, by paying for the bonds so redeemed the principal thereof and ten per cent. premium and all accrued interest thereon, this company to give, not less than ninety (90) days before the 1st day of April in each of such years, written notice to the trustee of the number of bonds which it so desires to redeem and pay, and the said trustee upon receiving such notice to ascertain and determine by lot the serial numbers of the bonds so as to be redeemed and paid;

PROVIDED, that this company shall make remittances to meet such principal and interest so to be paid, so that such remittances shall reach the office of its agents at Amsterdam, Holland, at least five (5) days, or their correspondents in New York city at least twelve (12) days before the date of such payment, or the maturity of such bonds.

Resolved, That the president of this company be and he hereby is authorized for and on behalf of this company and as its act and deed to affix its corporate seal to the said mortgage or deed of trust, and said bonds and obligations, and to sign the same in the name of this company as such president, and to cause the same to be duly attested by the secretary, and when so executed in due form of law to deliver and record the said deed of trust or mortgage.

And the draft or form of the said deed of trust or mortgage having been now submitted to and read and examined by the board of directors at this present meeting and having been found satisfactory; it was further unanimously

Resolved, That the deed of trust or mortgage so to be executed, delivered, and recorded, by the president and secretary of this company in its behalf and as its act and deed, as above authorized and directed, shall be in the form now submitted, which form is hereby adopted, ratified, and approved.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the Building company, party of the first part, under the authority and power aforesaid, and in consideration of the premises, and of the mutual covenants herein contained, and of the sum of one dollar to it in hand paid by the Trust Company, party of the second part, at or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby confessed and acknowledged, and in order to secure the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds herein mentioned, has granted, bargained, sold, assigned, set over, aliened, enfeoffed, released, conveyed, and confirmed, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, assign, set over, alien, enfeoff, release, convey, and confirm, unto the Trust Company of , party of the second part, and to its successor or successors in the trusts hereby created, and their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, forever, in trust, and for the uses and trusts hereby created, all the following described lands, property, premises, and estate, situate, lying, and being in the county of , state of , and more particularly described as follows, to wit: Lots six (6) and seven (7) of block sixty-four (64) in the city of proper, as the same shall appear from the recorded plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the register of deeds, in and for the county and state aforesaid, and the twelve-story with basement, granite and sandstone, fire-proof office building, thereon situated, and all the elevators, shafting, engines, boilers, and other fixtures now attached or hereafter to be attached to or connected with the said realty, and which for the purposes of this agreement are intended and agreed to be a part of the real property conveyed hereunder, and any and all other personal or other property, now or hereafter used or to be used in connection with said real estate, and belonging to said building company, whether attached to said realty, or disconnected therefrom, or partly attached and partly disconnected, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof, and also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, as well at law as in equity, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances;

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the above-mentioned and described premises, property, rights, estates, and appurtenances, herein described and conveyed, transferred, or assigned, or intended to be hereby conveyed, transferred, and assigned, and the reversions, remainders, incomes, revenues, rents, issues, and profits thereof, unto and to the use of the said Trust Company, as trustee, and its successors in said trust, and their heirs and assigns forever, according to the nature, tenor, and quality thereof respectively.

IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, for the equal and proportionate benefit, security, and protection of the persons and corporations, firms and partnerships who shall hold the bonds and interest coupons aforesaid, or any or either of them, and for enforcing the payment thereof when payable, in accordance with the true intent and meaning of this deed, and of said bonds and of said coupons, and without preference to any of the said bonds over any of the others, by reason of the priority in the time of issue or negotiation thereof or otherwise howsoever, and upon and for the trusts, intents, and purposes, and upon the covenants and agreements hereinafter expressed, that is to say:

ARTICLE 1. The building company shall forthwith make, execute, and deliver to the trustee bonds of the building company intended to be secured hereby, to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) or one million five hundred thousand Dutch guilders (f. 1,500,000), which bonds for the amount aforesaid shall be countersigned, and certified and delivered by the trustee, and until the said bonds shall be engraved the building company may execute and issue written or printed temporary bonds or obligations in such form or forms, and in such amounts as may be approved and countersigned or certified by the trustee, and which shall be entitled to all the security hereunder, and be exchangeable for or convertible into the bonds to be issued hereunder, and which shall be by the trustee canceled upon such exchange or conversion being effected, and when such bonds or obligations are countersigned or certified by the trustee to the effect that they are issued under and secured by this deed of trust or mortgage, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence that such bonds or obligations have been issued in accordance with, and are entitled to the security of this deed of trust or mortgage, whatever the form of such bonds or obligations may be.

ARTICLE 2. Until the building company, or its successors or assigns, shall make default in the payment of the bonds secured hereby, or any of them, or of any of the annual sinking fund payments, or interest thereon, or other payments provided for herein, and on the days and times and in the manner provided in said bonds or herein respectively, without further delay, and without reduction from either principal or interest for any tax or taxes which the building company may be required to pay or retain therefrom by any present or future laws of the United States, or of the state of or otherwise, the said building company having agreed and hereby agreeing to pay the same, or until proceedings of any kind shall be commenced against the said building company for the appointment of a receiver, or for the foreclosure of any deed of trust or mortgage, on the property hereby conveyed, or any part of it, or until the institution of any proceedings, either at law or in equity, whereby the control or ownership of the property hereby conveyed, or any part thereof, may be affected or disturbed, or until the building company shall do, or permit to be done, anything that may in anywise tend to diminish the value of the premises and property hereby conveyed, or to impair, weaken, or diminish the security intended to be effected under and by virtue of this instrument, or until the building company shall make default or breach in the performance or observance of any other condition, obligation, or requirement in the said bonds or herein imposed upon the building company, or its successors, in reference to the said bonds, or in the due performance and observance of any covenants or agreements hereof to be performed and observed by said building company, the said trustee shall permit and suffer the building company, and its successors and assigns, to possess, manage, operate, and enjoy all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, property, rights and privileges, hereinbefore described as conveyed and assigned, and intended to be conveyed and assigned hereby, and to receive, take, and use the income, revenues, rents, issues, and profits thereof in the same manner and with the same effect as if this deed had not been made.

ARTICLE 3. If the said building company, its successors or assigns shall at any time hereafter make default, or refuse, neglect, or omit for [six months] to pay the semi-annual interest on the bonds intended to be secured hereby, or any of them, or shall fail to pay the annual sinking fund payments, or any of them, or to make any other payment of the principal of said bonds or otherwise, as provided herein, or shall suffer or allow any taxes, assessments, or charges to be or become in arrears, whereby the security of this mortgage may be impaired, or shall fail to pay and discharge any lien upon said premises for labor, or material, or otherwise, which the protection of the lien of this mortgage shall require to be paid, or shall fail to keep said premises insured with the provision that the loss thereunder shall be paid to the trustee herein as its interest may appear (as hereinafter more particularly specified and set forth); or if proceedings of any kind shall be commenced against the building company for the appointment of a receiver, or for the foreclosure of any deed of trust or mortgage on the property hereby conveyed, or any part of it, or in case of the institution of any proceedings, either at law or in equity, whereby the control or ownership of the property, or any part thereof herein mentioned, may be affected or disturbed, or in case the building company shall do or permit to be done anything that may in anywise tend to diminish the value of the premises or property hereby conveyed, or to impair, weaken, or diminish the security intended to be effected under and by virtue of this agreement, or in case the building company shall make default or breach in the performance or observance of any other condition, obligation, or requirement in the said bonds or herein imposed upon the building company, or its successors or assigns, in reference to the said bonds, or the due performance of any covenants or agreements hereof, then and in either of such events the holders of [one-third] in amount of the said bonds secured hereby and then outstanding, in respect to which such default shall have occurred, may by an instrument in writing by them signed, and addressed and delivered to said trustee, notify said trustee of such default, and declare the principal of all said bonds due and payable, and in said instrument may also request the said trustee to proceed hereunder for the collection of the principal and interest of all the bonds then outstanding within a reasonable time after the receipt of such notice; and thereupon and upon the giving of said notice, the entire principal of all the then outstanding bonds shall become immediately due and payable, anything in said bonds or herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and thereupon the trustee shall and will, upon receiving adequate security and indemnity against all costs, expenses, and liabilities to be by the said trustee incurred, or without such request or security or indemnity, it shall be lawful for the trustee in its own discretion forthwith to demand, and with or without process of law, and with such force as may be necessary, to enter upon, take, and maintain immediate and exclusive possession of all and singular the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, premises, rights, privileges, and other property hereby conveyed and assigned, or intended to be conveyed and assigned, and as the attorney in fact or agent of the building company, or in its own name as trustee, by itself or by its agents and substitutes duly constituted and appointed, or by its managers, superintendents, receivers, or servants, to have, hold, use, manage, operate, lease, and enjoy the same, and each and every part thereof, to as full an extent as the building company might lawfully do, making from time to time all needed and proper repairs, alterations, and additions, and paying insurance, taxes, assessments, liens, and other necessary expenses connected therewith, and receiving all the revenues, rents, issues, incomes, and profits thereof, and after deducting the expenses of such use, operation, repairs, alterations, and additions, and the costs and charges of such taking possession, and proper compensation for such taking possession and management while in possession, and such sum or sums as may be sufficient to indemnify such trustee against any liability, loss, or damage for or on account of any matter or thing done in good faith in pursuance of the duty of said trustee, it shall apply the remaining net income and revenue therefrom without preference, priority, or distinction of one bond over another, ratably and equally to the payment of accrued and accruing interest due on the said bonds then outstanding and intended to be hereby secured; and the trustee shall, as soon as practicable after such entering on and taking possession as aforesaid, or without such entering upon or taking possession, but upon like declaration and request in writing, and with security and indemnity, or without such security and indemnity, in the discretion of the said trustee, and with or without the order or decree of any court of equity or other competent court having jurisdiction in the premises, and as by the trustee may be determined, or by said court may be ordered and decreed, sell and dispose of to the highest and best bidder or bidders at public auction, and on such notice and at such times and places as the trustee or court may authorize, but upon a notice of the time and place of such sale by advertisement, published not less than once in each week for not less than sixty (60) days in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation published in each of the cities of _____ and Amsterdam, Holland, and adjourn said sale or sales from time to time in its discretion, and if adjourning to make such sale or sales at the times and places to which the same may be so adjourned, all singular the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances, and the estate and property, real, personal, and mixed, and all elevators, machinery, tools, engines, implements, equipments, fuel, supplies, and materials, rights, and privileges herein described, conveyed, transferred, and assigned, or intended to be hereby conveyed, transferred, and assigned; and thereupon to convey, transfer, assign, and deliver the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof by good and sufficient deed or deeds in the law in fee simple, free from any right or claim of equity of redemption of the building company, its successors or assigns, and freed from all and every the trusts and liens hereby created, and without liability upon the purchaser or purchasers to see to the application of the purchase money, and without obligation to inquire into the necessity, expediency, or authority of or for any such sale (which shall be a perpetual bar both in law and in equity against the building company, and all persons claiming or to claim the aforesaid buildings, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, property, and appurtenances, so sold, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, by, from, or through the building company), and after deducting from the net proceeds realized by means of such use and occupation, and from such sale, or from either, all proper costs, charges, and disbursements incurred in or about the premises, including attorney and counsel fees, and all other expenses, advances, or liabilities which have been made or incurred by said trustee, including repairs, liens, insurance, taxes, or assessments, as well as reasonable compensation for its own services, the trustee shall apply the balance of such net proceeds to or towards the payment or discharge of the principal and accrued interest of or upon the said bonds which shall then be outstanding and unpaid, whether the same by the tenor thereof be then due or to become due, and without giving preference, priority, or distinction of one bond over another; such payment to be made in full if the said purchase money be sufficient, but if not, then pro rata; rendering or paying any surplus which may remain after the payment in full of the principal and interest of the aforesaid bonds to the building company, its successors or assigns, for its or their sole use and benefit.

Or the said trustee, upon the receipt of such declaration and request, and upon like security and indemnity, or without such declaration or request, or security and indemnity, in its discretion, without entering upon the possession of said property as aforesaid, may in its own name or otherwise proceed to protect and enforce the rights of all of said bondholders secured hereby by a suit or suits in equity or at law, whether for the specific performance of the stipulated covenants and agreements, or any of them, contained herein or in said bonds, or otherwise, as the said trustee being advised by counsel learned in the law shall deem most effectual to protect and enforce such rights. It being understood, and it is hereby expressly declared that the rights of entry and sale hereinbefore granted are intended as cumulative remedies, additional to all other rights, liens, or remedies allowed by law, and that the same shall not be deemed in any manner whatever to deprive the trustee or any beneficiaries under this trust of any legal or equitable remedy by judicial proceedings consistent with the provisions of these presents, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, or to waive or affect the right of the trustee to any action or right of action, or lien or right of lien, which otherwise may be vested in it or the bondholders secured hereby. And the building company hereby agrees that, in case of any default on its part as aforesaid, it will not set up, claim, or seek to take advantage of any valuation, stay of execution, appraisement, or extension laws which may or might prevent, postpone, hinder, or delay the exercise of the right of the trustee to enter upon, take possession of, operate or sell the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, or the immediate enforcement or foreclosure of this mortgage, or the absolute sale of the said mortgaged property hereunder, without and free from appraisement, valuation, stay, or other condition or hindrance, but will and does hereby waive the benefit of any and all such valuation, stay, appraisement, or other laws to such effect as aforesaid.

PROVIDED, however, that in case of default being made as provided in this third article, and of proceedings being thereupon taken, excepting only the default in payment of the principal moneys of said bonds, if said building company shall, before the date of any sale by or on behalf of the trustee under such default, pay to the said trustee, with interest, any and all sum or sums of money that may be up to that time due for interest upon the bonds secured hereby, any annual sinking fund payments, or for any taxes, assessments, or liens, or for any premiums of insurance, or for any costs, expenses, or charges of the said trustee upon such default or otherwise, or for any other amounts which the said building company shall then be liable for and which it should theretofore have paid hereunder, and if said building company shall do and perform any and all other acts or things which may be necessary to fully and completely relieve it from any such default or omission or neglect hereunder, then and in that case the said default shall be opened, vacated, and annulled, and said sale shall not take place, and said building company shall be restored to all its rights, interests, and privileges hereunder as though the said default had not in any way taken place.

PROVIDED, ALSO, that no proceedings in law or in equity shall be taken by any holder of any of the bonds issued hereunder to foreclose the equity of redemption, or to do any other act or thing provided in this third article of this agreement, independently of the trustee, except after requisition shall have been made to the said trustee in the manner and form hereinbefore provided, and also until after the refusal of the trustee to comply with such requisition according to the provisions herein made in respect thereto.

ARTICLE 4. It is further provided that no failure on the part of the holders of the [one-third] of such bonds in respect to which a default in the payment of any semi-annual interest upon said bonds shall have occurred or continued, to make such instrument in writing and request, and to offer to said trustee such security and indemnity, or to do any other act, shall extend or be taken to effect any subsequent default in the payment of any subsequently accruing installment of interest, or sinking fund, or other payment, or other act to be done hereunder, or impair the rights resulting therefrom.

ARTICLE 5. At any sale of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and appurtenances, or other property, or either or any of them, or any part thereof, whether made by virtue of any power herein granted or by judicial authority, the trustee may bid for and purchase the same, or any of them, or cause the same, or any of them, to be bid for and purchased for and on behalf of all the holders of the bonds hereby secured and then outstanding, in the proportion of the respective interests of such bondholders, at a reasonable price, if but a portion thereof be sold, or if the whole of said mortgaged property shall be sold, then at a price not exceeding the total amount of such bonds outstanding, with the interest accrued thereon, and the expenses of such sale, and any other sum or sums of money that it has paid or may be entitled hereunder to pay. In case of a sale of the herein mortgaged property, or any part thereof, either by the trustee, or in the course of judicial proceedings as hereinbefore provided, the purchaser or purchasers at such sale in making payment of the purchase money shall, after making a cash payment sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of the sale and all other charges which must be provided for in actual cash, have the right to deliver, and pay and turn in, and use towards the payment of the purchase money any of the bonds or coupons secured hereby, and held by him or them, to or towards which the net proceeds of such sale shall be legally applicable, counting such bonds or coupons for that purpose at the sum which shall be payable out of the net proceeds of such sale to the holder or holders of such bonds or coupons as his or their just share of such net proceeds, after allowing for the proportion of payment that may be required in cash for the costs and expenses of the sale; and, if such share of such net proceeds shall be less than the amount then due upon such bonds or coupons, to make settlement by receipting upon all such bonds or coupons the amount to be credited thereupon, as aforesaid. And in the event of a purchase of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and appurtenances, or other property, or either or any of them, as aforesaid, by said trustee, the right and title thereto shall vest in said trustee in trust for the bondholders, and each holder of the bonds or coupons joining in said purchase and contributing his proportion of the cash expenses thereof shall have an interest in the property so purchased in the proportion that his bonds and coupons shall bear to the entire amount of bonds and coupons then outstanding.

ARTICLE 6. The building company for itself, its successors and assigns, hereby covenants and agrees to and with the said trustee, that it will, on or before the 1st day of April, A. D. , pay over and deliver to said trustee, its successor or successors in this trust, the sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) in current funds or gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard weight and fineness, and that said building company will thereafter annually, on the first day of April in each year during the continuance of this trust, pay over to said trustee, the sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000), as aforesaid, until the sum so paid by said building company and in the hands of said trustee shall equal the amount of the indebtedness with interest thereon hereby secured; Provided, however, and it is expressly understood and agreed that said building company may, in lieu of said first mentioned sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000), or in lieu of any or all subsequent payments of forty thousand dollars ($40,000), each, deliver to said trustee one hundred (100) of the bonds hereby secured, and said trustee shall thereupon cancel said one hundred (100) bonds so delivered, and give to said first party a receipt and discharge for such annual payment to be as aforesaid made, and in lieu of which said bonds were so received.

It is understood and agreed that said trustee shall invest the moneys by it so received from time to time from said building company on said annual payments of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) each, as provided in this sixth article hereof, in such securities as its board of directors shall authorize.

ARTICLE 7. The said building company shall have the right to redeem and pay and cancel on the day of , A. D. 190 , and on the first day of in each year thereafter, any or all of the bonds secured hereby, by paying for the bonds so redeemed the sum of four hundred and forty dollars ($440) for each four hundred dollar ($400) bond and all accrued interest thereon. The building company shall, not less than ninety (90) days before such proposed redemption, give written notice to the trustee of the number of said bonds which it so desires to redeem and pay, and the serial numbers of the bonds so to be redeemed and paid shall be ascertained by the trustee by drawing lots in the manner following, viz.; the trustee shall cause to be prepared cards of equal size containing the numbers of all outstanding bonds, one number on each card, and a drawing by lot shall then be made in the presence of a notary public until the requisite amount of the bonds shall have been drawn, the result of which drawing shall be certified by said notary under his hand and official seal, describing by numbers the bonds so drawn, and a copy of such certificate of drawing shall thereupon be delivered to the trustee and a copy to the president or treasurer of the building company, and a copy to the agents of the building company in Amsterdam, Holland. Notice of the numbers of the bonds thus drawn shall thereupon be given by the building company by advertisement published once a week for six weeks in a newspaper published in the city of , stating the numbers of the bonds so drawn for redemption, and the time for the presentation and surrender thereof for redemption at the office of the agents of the building company in Amsterdam, Holland, which time shall not be less than forty-five (45) days from the date of the beginning of such publication. The building company shall, on or before such respective first days of , deposit with the trustee proof of such publication, and a written statement of the agents of the building company in Amsterdam, that said company has provided for the payment in Amsterdam, Holland, of the money requisite to redeem and pay the number of bonds so designated and drawn, and all interest thereon to said respective dates of redemption, in the manner hereinafter and in the eighth article hereof agreed and set forth, and upon such deposit and publication having been made, as aforesaid, and after the date so fixed for redemption and surrender, the bonds of the numbers designated in such publication shall, upon presentation to the agents of the building company in Amsterdam, be paid, and by said agents returned to the trustee, and by the said trustee canceled and returned so canceled to the building company, and the debt of the building company shall to that extent be extinguished, and after such date for presentation and surrender all interest shall cease on the bonds so called.

ARTICLE 8. All payments of principal and interest upon the bonds secured hereby shall be made at the office of , agents of the building company, duly appointed in Amsterdam, Holland, or their successors, as hereinafter in the thirteenth article hereof provided, and it is hereby agreed that remittances by the said building company to meet such interest and principal at maturity shall be made by it so as to reach said agents at Amsterdam, Holland, five (5) days, or their correspondents in New York city twelve (12) days before the date of such payment or maturity of such bonds.

ARTICLE 9. And the building company doth hereby covenant and agree for itself, its successors and assigns, to and with the trustee and its successor or successors in said trust, and with such persons, firms, or corporations as shall from time to time become or be the holders of any of the bonds issued hereunder, that the building company shall and will at any time or at all times hereafter, and in the manner herein set forth, provide for and pay the principal and interest of and upon the bonds hereinbefore recited and described, as the same become due and payable, and that the building company will in due season pay, satisfy, and discharge all assessments, taxes, liens, and charges that shall be lawfully assessed, charged, or imposed upon this mortgage, or upon the bonds and obligations intended to be secured hereby, or upon the premises and property covered hereby, or any part or portion thereof, and deliver to said trustee, its successor or successors, annually on demand, the receipts of the proper officials or persons showing the payment of all such taxes, assessments, liens, and charges, until the indebtedness intended to be hereby secured shall be fully paid.

The building company shall and will keep all buildings, machinery, movable property, and fixtures that may be at any time upon said premises during the continuance of the indebtedness herein provided for, and covered by the provisions hereof, insured in such company or companies as the trustee may from time to time direct, for such sum or sums as such company or companies will insure for, to the fair insurable value thereof, not less than the amount of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) in all, or if the principal amount of the bonds then outstanding shall be at any time less than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) then in an amount equal to such principal of such bonds then outstanding; such insurance to be for the benefit of the trustee, and the policies of such insurance to contain the usual mortgage provisions that any loss thereunder shall be payable to the trustee hereunder, as its interests may then appear; and the building company shall deposit the policies of insurance or certificates thereof with the trustee, and unless said policies of insurance, and said mortgage provisions, shall be without any pro-rating clause, then all the policies of insurance on said property and premises, whether in excess of said sum of three hundred thousand dollars, ($300,000) or not, shall be made payable in case of loss to and be deposited with the trustee; and in case of the neglect or refusal of the building company thus to insure, and secure to said trustee the beneficial interest in such policy or policies of insurance, or to pay any taxes, assessments, or liens for labor or materials, or otherwise, and any charges as aforesaid, such trustee may at its option cause insurance to be effected in such companies and in such manner as it may from time to time think best, and may pay such liens, taxes, or assessments, or purchase any outstanding certificates of tax sales thereof, or pay any other sum or sums of money that to it shall seem necessary for the protection of the lien of these presents, and to keep these presents a first lien upon said premises, and thereupon the building company shall and will on demand pay the premiums of such insurance, and all moneys thus paid for liens, taxes, assessments, and such other expenses or disbursements as may be incidental thereto, or provided for herein, with the interest thereon at six per cent. per annum, and all such moneys thus paid, with interest, as aforesaid, shall become an additional indebtedness secured by this mortgage, and to be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the property, as aforesaid, if not otherwise paid by the building company.

And in case of any loss or damage by fire of or to any part of the insured premises the money recoverable under such policy or policies shall be recovered by and in the name of and be payable to the trustee, which shall, if the building company shall, within sixty (60) days from the date of such loss notify the said trustee of its desire to have such property restored, expend the said money, less its expenses, costs, and disbursements in recovering the same, in restoring the property so destroyed, so far as the amount recovered on said policy or policies shall be sufficient for that purpose, and deducting also therefrom a reasonable compensation for its services in that behalf; and the property when so restored, or so far as the same may be restored, shall be subject to all the provisions of this mortgage or deed of trust, including insurance; and unless the building company shall so notify the trustee, the trustee shall apply the amount so recovered, less its costs and expenses and a reasonable compensation for its services in that behalf, to the purchase and retirement of so many of said bonds, as such money will purchase upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore provided.

ARTICLE 10. And the building company doth hereby covenant with the trustee, and its successors, that the building company shall and will at any time, and at all times hereafter, upon reasonable request, make, do, execute, and deliver all such other and further reasonable assurances, acts, deeds, and things as in the opinion of competent counsel may be necessary or proper to effectuate the lien and security hereby intended to be created. And the building company for itself, its successors and assigns, further covenants and agrees to and with the said trustee that at the time of the enrolling and delivery of these presents it is well and lawfully seized of said premises above described, and has a good, sure, perfect, absolute, and indefeasible estate of inheritance in fee simple therein, and has good right, full power, and lawful authority to grant, bargain, sell, and convey the same in manner and form, as aforesaid, and that the same are free from all other and former grants, mortgages, judgments, levies, liens, and incumbrances, and from taxes, assessments, and sales therefor, of any name, kind, nature, or description whatsoever; and the same in the peaceable and quiet possession of the party of the second part, its successor or successors in the trust hereby created, and its or their assigns, against all and every person or persons lawfully claiming or to claim the whole or any part thereof, the building company will warrant and forever defend.

ARTICLE 11. The trustee hereinbefore named, or any trustee hereunder, may be removed by an instrument in writing under the hands of a two-thirds in amount of the holders of the then outstanding bonds. It is further mutually agreed that in case of the dissolution, resignation, or inability to act of the said trustee, or in case of the removal of the said trustee by any court of competent jurisdiction, or in case of the removal of the trustee by the bondholders as hereinbefore provided, a new trustee may be appointed by the holders of two-thirds in amount of the then outstanding bonds by an instrument in writing signed by them, or by the appointment of such new trustee by any court of record in the county of _____ and state of _____, upon the nomination of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the bonds then outstanding. It is also mutually agreed between the parties hereto that the word "trustee" when and as used in these presents, and in the bonds secured hereby, is intended to refer to and describe, and shall be construed to mean the body or bodies corporate, or person or persons which or who for the time being shall be charged with the execution of the trusts under these presents, whether the same be the said party of the second part, or any successor or successors of the said party of the second part, and that every trustee of these presents shall be entitled to the ordinary indemnity and security and right to reimbursement given to trustees, and that every trustee hereunder shall be entitled to be paid, for all services by it rendered, by the building company out of the income of the trust property hereunder or otherwise, and shall not be answerable for any errors or mistakes made by it or him in good faith, but only for the gross neglect or wilful default in the discharge of its, his, or their duties as trustee, and also that every such trustee shall be entitled to just compensation for all services which it, he, or they may render under this trust, and that every trustee hereunder may at any time resign from the trust by notice in writing mailed, properly addressed, to the building company and to the agents of said company in Amsterdam, Holland, at least sixty (60) days before such resignation shall take place.

ARTICLE 12. Subject to the security hereby created for the due payment of the principal money and interest mentioned in said bonds and for the performance and observance of the conditions and obligations thereby or by this deed imposed on the building company, said trustee shall stand possessed of all and singular the premises and property hereinbefore referred to and intended to be conveyed, transferred, and assigned, or which may in any manner become subject to the lien and trusts hereof, and the property and effects for the time being representing the same; in trust, nevertheless, and provided always that if the building company, its successors and assigns, shall well and truly pay the sums of money, principal and interest, and sinking fund payments, according to the terms and conditions hereof, and of the bonds secured hereby, as the same shall mature and become due and payable, and any and all other amounts payable by it under the provisions hereof, which said sums the building company doth hereby covenant and agree to pay as the same shall become due and payable, and shall well and truly keep and perform all the covenants, agreements, and undertakings herein and hereby assumed and required to be kept and performed according to the true intent and meaning of these presents, then and in that case, the estate, right, title, and interest of the said trustee or its successors in and to the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or other property, or either of them, or any part thereof, shall cease and determine and become void, and the said trustee shall by a sufficient instrument in writing, if so requested by the building company, execute a release of this deed of trust or mortgage, whereby all the estate, title, right, and interest of the said trustee shall cease and determine. And the trustee hereby accepts the trusts herein created, and covenants to execute the same; provided, however, that the building company shall have the right to fix a time, after the maturity of the bonds secured hereby, at which payment of all unpaid bonds shall be made by it at the office of the agents of the company in the city of Amsterdam, Holland, and to give notice thereof for a period of at least three (3) months, by advertisement published weekly in one newspaper in the city of Amsterdam, Holland, and in such other newspapers elsewhere as the trustee may direct, and as to all such bonds as may not be presented for payment pursuant to such advertisement, the building company shall have the right, at its election, either to pay the amount of the principal and interest thereon to such date so fixed as aforesaid, to the trustee herein for the time being, whereupon it shall be the duty of such trustee to enter satisfaction in full upon said mortgage, or grant a release with like effect as though paid to such bondholders at maturity, and retain the amount so paid by the building company for the benefit of the holders of such unrepresented bonds, or else to require the trustee for the time being to enter satisfaction upon such mortgage or grant a release thereof to the extent of the amount of bonds already paid and surrendered, allowing the mortgage to stand thereafter as security only to the extent of the unrepresented bonds, with interest thereon, up to the date so fixed as aforesaid, after which all interest shall cease and determine upon all such unrepresented bonds.

ARTICLE 13. In case of the dissolution of the said _____, such agents of the building company, as now or hereafter constituted, or the ceasing thereof to do business, the said building company is hereby authorized, from time to time, to name in writing, filed with said trustee, some other responsible firm or corporation in said city of Amsterdam, Holland, where the principal and interest of the bonds secured hereby shall be payable; and thereupon all the provisions hereof, or of the bonds secured hereby, in relation to the agents of such building company, in Amsterdam, Holland, shall be and become applicable to each new agent or agents so appointed as aforesaid.

ARTICLE 14. In case at any time it shall be necessary and proper for the trustee to make any investigation respecting any facts preparatory to taking or not taking any action, or doing or not doing anything, as such trustee, the certificate of the building company, under its corporate seal, attested by the signature of its president and the affidavit of one or more directors, shall be conclusive evidence of such fact to protect the trustee, in any action that it may take by reason of the supposed existence of such facts.

The trustee shall be entitled to be reimbursed all proper outlays of every sort or nature by it incurred or paid out hereunder or in the discharge of its trust, and to receive a reasonable and proper compensation for any services that it may at any time perform in the discharge of the same; and all such fees, commissions, compensation, and disbursements shall constitute a lien on the property and premises mortgaged hereunder.

ARTICLE 15. The building company, for itself, its successors and assigns, in consideration of the premises, hereby constitutes and appoints the trustee its agent for the transfer and registration of said bonds, and hereby agrees that it shall be reimbursed for its services as such agent, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in relation to this trust.

ARTICLE 16. All the provisions hereof, and of the bonds secured hereby, shall bind and be obligatory upon the successor or successors and assigns of the several parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused their respective corporate names to be hereunto subscribed by their respective officers duly authorized, and their respective corporate seals to be affixed, attested by their respective secretaries, on the day and year first above written.

[Signatures, etc., as in Form 1320.]

FORM OF COUPON OF WHICH THE FIRST IS TO BE MADE PAYABLE

$ No.
 On the day of, the Railroad Company will pay to the bearer at its office, in the city of New York, the sum of dollars, in United States gold coin, for six months' interest on its first mortgage five per cent. gold bond No. Treasurer.

FORM OF TRUSTEE'S CERTIFICATE.

Trust Company hereby certifies that the within bond is one of the series and issues described in the mortgage therein mentioned.

Trust Company,

By

Trustee.

BE it further Resolved, That for the purpose of securing the payment of the said bonds and the interest which shall accrue thereon, this company make, execute, and deliver to the Trust Company of, as trustee, a deed of trust or mortgage of all its property and franchises now belonging to the company, or which shall hereafter be acquired or used by this company in connection therewith, such deed of trust or mortgage to be in trust for the benefit and security of the holders of such bonds to the extent aforesaid, without preference, priority, or distinction as to lien or otherwise.

Resolved, That until the said bonds or obligations of the company for one thousand dollars ($1,000) each, intended to be secured by the said deed of trust shall be engraved, executed, and delivered, the said bonds or obligations of the company, or any of them, may be represented by one or more written or printed obligations of this company, of the same aggregate amount, in such form and bearing such dates as the president of this company shall determine at the time of the execution and delivery thereof, and as shall be approved by the trustee, and such written or printed obligation or obligations so issued shall have the same rights, remedies, lien, and security that appertain to the said bonds for one thousand dollars ($1,000) each, when issued under the provisions of the said deed of trust or mortgage, and shall, until surrendered in exchange for a like amount of engraved bonds, represent the said indebtedness.

Resolved, That this company reserve the right to redeem and cancel on the first day of, A. D. 19, and on the first day of, in each year thereafter, during the currency of said bonds, the whole or any part of said bonds, by paying for the bonds so redeemed the principal thereof, and all accrued interest thereon, this company to give, not less than ninety days before the first day of April in each of such years, written notice to the trustee of the number of bonds which it so desires to redeem and pay, and the said trustee, upon receiving such notice, to ascertain and determine by lot the serial numbers of the bonds so to be redeemed and paid.

Resolved, That the president of this company be and he hereby is authorized for and on behalf of this company, and as its act and deed, to affix its corporate seal to the said mortgage or deed of trust and said bonds and obligations, and to sign the same in the name of this company as such president, and to cause the same to be duly attested by the secretary, and when so executed in due form of law, to deliver and record the said deed of trust or mortgage.

Resolved, That the coupons to be attached to said bonds be authenticated by the engraved signature of the treasurer of this company who shall be in office at the time when any portion of said bonds shall be issued, it being intended that this company may adopt and use for that purpose the engraved signature of any person who shall have been its treasurer at the time when any portion of said bonds may have been issued, notwithstanding the fact that such person may have ceased to be the treasurer of this company.

AND the draft or form of the said deed of trust or mortgage having been duly submitted to, and read and examined by the board of directors at this present meeting, and having been found satisfactory, it was further unanimously

Resolved, That the deed of trust or mortgage so to be executed, delivered, and recorded by the president and secretary of this company, in its behalf and as its act and deed, as above authorized and directed, shall be in the form now submitted, which form is hereby adopted, ratified, and approved.

Now, THEREFORE, the said Railroad Company, party of the first part, under the authority and power aforesaid, and in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants herein contained, and of the sum of one dollar to it in hand paid by the Trust Company, party of the second part, on or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby confessed and acknowledged, and in order to secure the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds herein mentioned, has executed and delivered these presents, with all the covenants and conditions therein, and has granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, enfeoffed, conveyed, confirmed, assigned, transferred, and set and delivered over, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, enfeoff, convey, confirm, assign, transfer, and set, and deliver over unto the Trust Company of , party of the second part, and to its successor and successors in the trusts hereby created, and to its and their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns forever, in trust, and for the uses and trusts hereby created, all and singular, the following railroads, estates, leases, leasehold interests, properties, rights, franchises, and privileges of the railroad company, that is to say [here describe same fully].

TOGETHER with all and singular, the franchises, rights, and privileges now or hereafter appurtenant to or used in connection with the line of railroad above mentioned, or any branch or leased or operated road thereof, † including any and all roadbed, superstructure, rights of way, rails, tracks, sidetracks, bridges, viaducts, buildings, depots, stations, warehouses, carhouses, engine-houses, freight-houses, woodhouses, machine shops, and other shops, turntables, water-stations, fences, docks, structures, erections and fixtures, and all other things of whatever kind in any wise or at any time belonging or appertaining to such lines of railway, or to any branch or leased or operated line thereof, or provided for use thereon, or in connection therewith; and any and all lands designed for depots, warehouses, or other structures at any terminus, or on or along such lines of railway, or upon or along any such branch or leased or operated line; and any and all locomotives, engines, cars, and other rolling stock, equipment, machinery, instruments, tools, implements, materials, furniture, and other chattels now possessed or hereafter acquired or provided for use upon such lines of railway, or branches, or upon any other line or branch, or upon any leased or operated line; and any and all leaseholds, leases, rights under lease, or contract, covenants, and agreements, terms or parts of terms now held or hereafter acquired; and any and all property, real or personal, of every kind and description, now or hereafter acquired for use upon, or in connection with, or for the purpose of, such lines of railway, or any such branch, leased or operated line; and any and all corporate rights, privileges, and franchises which the railroad company now has, or hereafter can or shall acquire, possess, or exercise in, to, upon, or in respect of such lines of railway or branches, or any leased or operated line, or any part thereof, necessary for, or appertaining to, the construction, maintenance, or operation of such lines of railway, or any such branch, or leased or operated line, or any part thereof; and any and all the rents, issues, profits, tolls, and other income of such lines of railway, and of any and all branches or leased or operated lines; and also any and all the rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real or personal, rights and things which the railroad company may or shall hereafter possess, or become entitled to possess, for the purposes of, or in connection with, such lines of railway, or any such branch or leased or operated line.†

‡To HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the above-mentioned and described premises, railroads, properties, real, personal, or mixed, estates, rights, franchises, and appurtenances herein described and conveyed, transferred, or assigned, or intended to be hereby conveyed, transferred, or assigned, and the reversions, remainders, incomes, revenues, rents, issues, and profits thereof unto and to the use of the said Trust Company, its heirs, successor or successors, and assigns forever, according to the nature, tenor, and quality thereof, respectively.

BUT IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, for the equal and proportionate benefit and security of all and every the present and future holders of any and every bond and interest obligation issued under and secured by this instrument, as well all those now issued, as all hereafter issued in addition thereto, or by way of substitution or exchange, in accordance with the terms of this instrument, and for enforcing payment thereof when payable, in accordance with the true intent and meaning of the stipulations of this agreement; and of said bonds and interest obligations respectively, without preference, priority, or distinction as to lien, or otherwise, of any one bond over any other bond by reason of priority in the issue or negotiation thereof, so that each and every bond, issued and to be issued as aforesaid, shall have the same right, lien, and privilege under and by this instrument, and the principal and interest of every such bond shall, subject to the terms hereof, be equally and proportionately secured hereby, as if all had been made, executed, delivered, and negotiated simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this instrument; it being intended that the lien and security of all such bonds shall take effect from the day of the date of this instrument, without regard to the date of actual issue, sale, or disposition thereof, and so that the lien and security of this instrument, and of all bonds issued hereunder shall take effect from the day of the date hereof as though upon such day actually issued, sold, and delivered to, and in the hands of innocent holders for value.‡

First. The railroad company shall forthwith make, execute, and deliver to the trustee bonds of the railroad company, intended to be secured hereby, to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate dollars, which bonds for the amount aforesaid shall be countersigned and certified and delivered by the trustee, and until the said bonds shall be engraved, the railroad company may execute and issue written or printed temporary bonds or obligations in such form or forms, and in such amounts and bearing such dates, as may be approved and countersigned or certified by the trustee, and which shall be entitled to all the security hereunder, and be exchangeable for or convertible into the bonds to be issued hereunder, and which shall be by the trustee cancelled upon such exchange or conversion being effected, and when such bonds or obligations are countersigned or certified by the trustee to the effect that they are issued under and secured by this deed or mortgage, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence that such bonds or obligations have been issued in accordance with, and are entitled to the security of this deed of trust or mortgage, whatever the form of such bonds or obligations may be [here insert any provisions in relation to the terms on which bonds are to be issued, or any conditions which are to be complied with before the trustee shall certify or deliver the bonds.]*

Second. Until default shall have been made in the due and punctual payment of the bonds secured hereby, or any of them, or of the interest thereupon, or of any of the sinking fund payments, or interest thereon, or other payments provided for herein, on the days, and at the times, or in the manner provided in said bonds, or herein respectively without further delay, and without deduction from either principal or interest for any tax or taxes, or charges which the company may be required to pay, or retain therefrom, and which the railroad company herein agrees to pay, and until any such default shall continue beyond the period of grace, if any, herein provided in respect thereof, or until proceedings of any kind shall be commenced against the said railroad company for the appointment of a receiver, or for the foreclosure of any deed of trust or mortgage on the property hereby conveyed, or any part of it, or until the institution of any proceedings, either at law or in equity, whereby the control or ownership of the property hereby conveyed, or any part thereof, may be affected or disturbed, or until the railroad company shall do, or permit to be done, anything that may in any wise tend to diminish the value of the property and rights hereby conveyed, or to impair, weaken, or diminish the security intended to be effected under and by virtue of this instrument, or until the railroad company shall make default or breach in the due and punctual performance or observance of any covenants, or agreements hereof, to be performed and observed by the railroad company, the trustee shall permit and suffer the railroad company, its successors and assigns, to possess, manage, operate, and enjoy all the railroads, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, property, rights, privileges, and franchises hereby mortgaged and assigned, or intended to be mortgaged and assigned hereby, and to receive, take, and use the income, revenues, rents, tolls, issues, and profits thereof, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and with the same effect as if this instrument had not been made.

Third. If the said railroad company, its successors or assigns, shall at any time hereafter make default, or refuse, neglect, or omit for [six months] to pay the semi-annual interest on the bonds intended to be secured hereby, or any of them, or to make any other payment of the principal of said bonds, or otherwise, as provided herein, or shall suffer or allow any taxes, assessments, or charges to be or become in arrears, whereby the security of this mortgage may be impaired, or shall fail to pay and discharge any lien upon said premises for labor, or material, or otherwise, which the protection of the lien of this mortgage shall require to be paid, or shall fail to keep said premises insured with the provision that the loss thereunder shall be paid to the trustee herein as its interest may appear (as hereinafter more particularly specified and set forth); or, if proceedings of any kind shall be commenced against the said railroad company for the appointment of a receiver, or for the foreclosure of any deed of trust, or mortgage on the property hereby conveyed, or any part of it, or in case of the institution of any proceedings, either at law or in equity, whereby the control or ownership of the property, or any part thereof, herein mentioned, may be affected or disturbed, or in case the railroad company shall do, or permit to be done, anything that may in any wise tend to diminish the value of the premises or property hereby conveyed, or to impair, weaken, or diminish the security intended to be effected under and by virtue of this agreement, or in case the railroad company shall make default or breach in the performance or observance of any other condition, obligation, or requirement in the said bonds or herein imposed upon the railroad company, or its successors or assigns, in reference to the said bonds, or the due performance of any covenants or agreements hereof,* * then, and in either of such events, the holders of [one-third] in amount of the said bonds secured hereby, and then outstanding, in respect to which such default shall have occurred, may by an instrument in writing, by them signed, and addressed and delivered to said trustee, notify said trustee of such default, and declare the principal of all said bonds due and payable, and in said instrument may also request the said trustee to proceed hereunder for the collection of the principal and interest of all the bonds then outstanding within a reasonable time after the receipt of such notice; and thereupon, and upon the giving of said notice, the entire principal of all the then outstanding bonds shall become immediately due and payable, anything in said bonds or herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and thereupon the trustee shall and will, upon receiving adequate security and indemnity against all costs, expenses, and liabilities to be by the said trustee incurred, or without such request or security or indemnity, it shall be lawful for the trustee in its own discretion forthwith to demand, and with or without process of law, and with such force as may be necessary, to enter upon, take, and maintain immediate and exclusive possession of all and singular the railways, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, premises, rights, privileges, and other property hereby conveyed and assigned, or intended to be conveyed and assigned, and as the attorney in fact, or agent of the railroad company, or in its own name as trustee, by itself, or by its agents and substitutes duly constituted and appointed, or by its managers, superintendents, receivers, or servants, to have, hold, use, manage, operate, lease, and enjoy the same, and each and every part thereof, to as full an extent as the railroad company might lawfully do, making from time to time all needful and proper repairs, alterations, and additions, and paying insurance, taxes, assessments, liens, and other necessary expenses connected therewith, and receiving all the revenues, rents, issues, incomes, and profits thereof, and after deducting the expenses of such use, operation, repairs, alterations, and additions, and the costs and charges of such taking possession, and proper compensation for such taking possession and management while in possession, and such sum or sums as may be sufficient to indemnify such trustee against any liability, loss, or damage for or on account of any matter or thing done in good faith in pursuance of the duty of said trustee, it shall apply the remaining net income and revenue therefrom without preference, priority, or distinction of one bond over another, ratably and equally to the payment of accrued and accruing interest due on the said bonds then outstanding and intended to be hereby secured; and the trustee shall, as soon as practicable after such entering on and taking possession as aforesaid, or without such entering upon or taking possession, but upon like declaration and request in writing, and with security and indemnity, or without such security and indemnity, in the discretion of the said trustee, and with or without the order or decree of any court of equity, or other competent court having jurisdiction in the premises, and as by the trustee may be determined, or by said court may be ordered and decreed, sell and dispose of to the highest and best bidder or bidders, at public auction, and on such notice, and at such times and places as the trustee or court may authorize, but upon a notice of the time and place of such sale, by advertisement, published not less than once in each week, for not less than [sixty (60) days], in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation, published in the cities of New York, N. Y., and _____, and adjourn said sale or sales, from time to time, in its discretion, and if adjourning to make such sale or sales, at the times and places to which the same may be so adjourned, all and singular the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances, and the estate and property, real, personal, and mixed, and all railways, elevators, machinery, tools, engines, implements, equipments, fuel, supplies, and materials, rights and privileges herein described, conveyed, transferred, and assigned, or intended to be hereby conveyed, transferred, and assigned; and thereupon to convey, transfer, assign, and deliver the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof by good and sufficient deed or deeds, in the law in fee simple, free from any right or claim of equity of redemption of the railroad company, its successors or assigns, and freed from all and every the trusts and liens hereby created and without liability upon the purchaser or purchasers to see to the application of the purchase money, and without obligation to inquire into the necessity, expediency, or authority of, or for any such sale (which sale shall be a perpetual bar, both in law and in equity, against the railroad company, and all persons claiming, or to claim, the aforesaid railways, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, property, and appurtenances, so sold, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, by, from, or through the railroad company), and after deducting from the net proceeds realized by means of such use and occupation, and from such sale, or from either, all proper costs, charges, and disbursements incurred in or about the premises, including attorney and counsel fees, and all other expenses, advances, or liabilities which have been made or incurred by said trustee, including repairs, liens, insurance, taxes, or assessments, as well as reasonable compensation for its own services, the trustee shall apply the balance of such net proceeds to or towards the payment or discharge of the principal and accrued interest of or upon the said bonds which shall then be outstanding and unpaid, whether the same by the tenor thereof be then due or to become due, and without giving preference, priority, or distinction of one bond over another, or of the unpaid interest over the principal of such bonds; such payment to be made in full if the said purchase money be sufficient, but if not, then pro rata; rendering or paying any surplus which may remain after the payment in full of the principal and interest of the aforesaid bonds to the railroad company, its successors or assigns, for its or their sole use and benefit. Or the said trustee, upon the receipt of such declaration and request, and upon like security and indemnity, or without such declaration, or request, or security and indemnity, in its discretion, without entering upon the possession of said property as aforesaid, may in its own name, or otherwise, proceed to protect and enforce the rights of all of said bondholders secured hereby by a suit or suits in equity or at law, whether for the specific performance of the stipulated covenants and agreements, or any of them, contained herein, or in said bonds, or otherwise, as the said trustee being advised by counsel learned in the law, shall deem most effectual to protect and enforce such rights. Provided, however, that in case of default being made as provided in this third article, and of proceedings being thereupon taken, excepting only the default in the payment of the principal moneys of said bonds, if said railroad company shall, before the date of any sale by or on behalf of the trustee, under such default, pay to the said trustee, with interest, any and all sum or sums of money that may be up to that time due for interest upon the bonds secured hereby, or for any taxes, assessments, or liens, or for any premiums of insurance, or for any costs, expenses, or charges of the said trustee upon such default, or otherwise, or for any other amounts which the said railroad company shall then be liable for, and which it should theretofore have paid hereunder, and if said railroad company shall do and perform any and all other acts or things which may be necessary to fully and completely relieve it from any such default or omission, or neglect hereunder, then and in that case the said default shall be opened, vacated, and annulled, and said sale shall not take place, and said railroad company shall be restored to all its rights, interests, and privileges hereunder as though the said default had not in any way taken place.

Fourth. The exclusive right of action hereunder shall be vested in the trustee until refusal on its part so to act, as herein provided, and no holder of any bond or coupon hereby secured shall have any right to institute any suit, action, or proceeding at law or in equity to foreclose hereunder, or for enforcing these presents, or for the appointment of a receiver, or for any other remedy hereunder, without first giving to the trustee written notice of the fact that the default has occurred and continued as herein provided; nor unless the holders of per cent. in amount of the bonds secured hereby and then outstanding, shall have made written request of the trustee, and shall have afforded to it reasonable opportunity, either itself to proceed to exercise the powers herein granted, or to institute such action, suit, or proceeding in its own name; nor unless they shall also have offered to the trustee adequate security and indemnity against all costs, expenses, and liabilities to be by the said trustee incurred, and such notification, request, and offer of indemnity are hereby declared in every such case, at the option of the trustee, to be conditions precedent to the execution of the powers and trusts of this indenture, and to any action or cause of action as aforesaid; it being understood and intended that no one or more holders of bonds or coupons shall have any right, in any manner whatever, to affect, disturb, or prejudice the lien of this indenture by his or their action, or to enforce any right hereunder, except in the manner herein provided, but that all proceedings at law or in equity shall be instituted, had and maintained in the manner herein provided, and for the equal benefit of all holders of the outstanding bonds and coupons secured hereby, except as herein otherwise provided. But it shall be lawful for the trustee in its own discretion, without such request or security or indemnity, to forthwith do any act, enforce any default, institute any suit, action, or proceeding in equity or at law, or do any other thing necessary for the execution of any trust hereof, or the enforcing of any remedy hereunder. It is expressly declared that the rights of entry and sale herein contained, and that the other remedies or rights herein conferred upon or reserved to the trustee or to the holders of bonds secured hereby, are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies, but are intended as cumulative remedies additional to all other rights, liens, or remedies given hereunder or existing at law or in equity, or by statute, and that the same shall not be deemed in any manner whatever to deprive the trustee or any beneficiaries under this trust of any legal or equitable remedy by judicial proceedings, or by statute, consistent with the provisions of this instrument, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, or to waive or affect the right of the trustee to any action or right of action, or lien or right of lien, which otherwise might be vested in it or the bondholders secured hereby.

Fifth. Upon proper indemnity to the trustee, the holders of a majority in amount of the outstanding bonds hereby secured, anything in this indenture contained to the contrary notwithstanding, shall from time to time have the right to direct and control any and all proceedings for any sale of the premises hereby conveyed and pledged, or agreed or intended so to be, or for the foreclosure of this indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver, or any other proceedings hereunder, and to instruct the trustee to institute, continue, or discontinue any proceedings hereunder; and no such action by the trustee or by such majority shall extend to, or be taken to affect, any subsequent default or to impair any right resulting therefrom.

Sixth. In case of any sale hereunder of the whole or any part of the property or rights mortgaged hereunder, whether made by virtue of any power herein granted or by judicial authority, the trustee may bid for and purchase the property or rights so sold, or any of them, or cause the same, or any of them, to be bid for and purchased for and on behalf of all the holders of the bonds hereby secured and then outstanding, in the proportion of the respective interests of such bondholders, at a reasonable price, if but a portion thereof be sold, or if the whole of said mortgaged property shall be sold, then at a price not exceeding the total amount of such bonds outstanding, with the interest accrued thereon, and the expenses of such sale, and any other sum or sums of money that it has paid or may be entitled hereunder to pay. In case of a sale of the herein mortgaged property, or any part thereof, either by the trustee, or in the course of judicial proceedings as hereinbefore provided, the purchaser or purchasers at such sale, in making payment of the purchase money shall, after making a cash payment sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of the sale, and all other charges which must be provided for in actual cash, have the right to deliver, and pay and turn in, and use towards the payment of the purchase money any of the bonds or matured and unpaid coupons secured hereby, and held by him or them, to or towards which the net proceeds of such sale shall be legally applicable, counting such bonds or coupons for that purpose at the sum which shall be payable out of the net proceeds of such sale to the holder or holders of such bonds or coupons as his or their just share of such net proceeds, after allowing for the proportion of payment that may be required in cash for the costs and expenses of the sale; and if such share of such net proceeds shall be less than the amount then due upon such bonds or coupons, to make settlement by receipting upon all such bonds or coupons the amount to be credited thereupon as aforesaid. In the event of a purchase by said trustee of the property or rights, or either or any of them as aforesaid, the right and title thereto shall vest in the trustee in trust for the bondholders, and each holder of the bonds or coupons joining in said purchase and contributing his proportion of the cash expenses thereof, shall have an interest in the property so purchased in the proportion that his bonds and coupons shall bear to the entire amount of bonds and coupons then outstanding. At any and every such sale any or all of the bondholders may bid for and purchase such property and rights, and upon compliance with the terms of sale, may hold and dispose of such property without further accountability therefor.

Seventh. All acts, requests, and directions of any holders of bonds hereby secured, asserting, enforcing, waiving, or affecting any right or remedy of the bondholders, or any right, remedy, or duty of the trustee, or in pursuance of any trust hereby created, or required hereby to be signed or executed by such bondholders, may be in any number of concurrent instruments of similar tenor, and may be signed or executed by such holders in person or by attorney-in-fact. Proof of the due execution of any such request or instrument by the holders of the requisite number of bonds shall be sufficient hereunder if it shall appear, in the manner hereinafter provided, that the persons so executing such instrument were contemporaneously the holders of the requisite number of bonds on or after the day of the execution of such request or other instrument by such holders. The fact and date of the execution by any person of any such request or other instrument may be proved by the certificate of any notary public, or other officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds to be recorded in the state of _____, that the person signing such request or other instrument acknowledged to him the execution thereof, or by affidavit of a witness to such execution. The holding and date of holding of bonds by any person executing such instrument, and the amounts and issue numbers of the bonds held by such person, may be proved by a statement in writing executed by any depository approved by the trustee (such statement being sworn to or acknowledged by such depository, or a managing agent thereof, before an officer authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds to be recorded in the state of _____), that such person had on deposit with such depository the bonds described in such statement at the date therein mentioned. Such proof shall be conclusive in favor of the trustee with regard to any action taken by it under such request or instrument. No failure, delay, or omission on the part of the trustee, or of any bondholder secured hereby, to exercise any right or power arising hereunder, from default or otherwise, shall exhaust or impair any such right or power, or be construed to be a waiver of any such default or an acquiescence therein, or to extend or be taken to affect any subsequent default in the payment of any subsequently accruing installment of interest or sinking fund, or other payment or other act to be done hereunder, or impair the rights resulting therefrom.

Eighth. Upon filing a bill in equity, or upon commencement of any other judicial proceedings to enforce any right of the trustee, or of the bondholders under this indenture, the trustee shall be entitled to exercise the right of entry herein conferred, and also any and all other rights and powers herein and hereby conferred and provided to be exercised by the trustee upon the occurrence and continuance of default as hereinbefore provided, and as matter of right the trustee shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver or receivers of the premises hereby mortgaged, or of any part thereof, and of the earnings, income, revenue, rents, issues, or profits thereof, with such powers as the court making such appointment shall confer.

Ninth. In the event of any sale, pursuant to any provision hereof, whether made under the power of sale hereby granted and conferred, or under or by virtue of judicial proceedings, or of some judgment or decree of foreclosure and sale made by any court of competent jurisdiction, the whole of the property hereby mortgaged and pledged shall be sold in one parcel, and as an entirety, including all the rights, titles, estates, railroads, equipments, franchises, leases, leasehold interests, contracts, stocks, bonds, and other real and personal property of every name and nature; and this provision shall bind the parties hereto and each and every of the holders of the bonds and coupons hereby secured or intended so to be. And the trustee and its successors are hereby appointed the true and lawful attorney or attorneys, irrevocable, of the railroad company, in its name and stead, to make all necessary deeds and conveyances of property, and all necessary transfers of the shares of stock or bonds, or other obligations thus sold, and for that purpose it and they may execute all necessary acts of assignment and transfer, and may substitute one or more persons with like power, the railroad company hereby ratifying and confirming all that its said attorney or attorneys, or such substitute or substitutes, shall lawfully do by virtue hereof.

Tenth. The railroad company, at any time hereafter, before full payment of the bonds secured hereby, and whenever it shall deem it expedient for the better security of such bonds, although there may then be no default entitling the trustee to enter into possession, may surrender and deliver to the trustee full possession of the whole or any part of the property, premises, and interests hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, for any period fixed or indefinite. Upon such surrender and delivery, the trustee, at its option, may enter into and upon the premises so surrendered and delivered, and may take and receive possession thereof, for such period fixed, or indefinite, as aforesaid; without prejudice, however, to its right at any time subsequently, when entitled thereto by any provision hereof, to insist upon and to maintain such possession, though beyond the expiration of any prescribed period. Upon any such voluntary surrender and delivery of said property and premises, or of any part thereof, the trustee, from the time of its entry, shall and will work, use, manage, control, and employ the same, in accordance with the provisions of this indenture, and shall and will receive and apply the income and revenues thereof as herein provided. Upon application of the trustee, and with consent of the railroad company, a receiver or receivers may be appointed to take possession of, and to operate and manage, the whole or any part of said property, with all the rights, powers, and duties by this section conferred upon the trustee, and in every case when a receiver of the whole or any part of the said property shall be appointed under this section, or otherwise, the trustee, from and after the time when it shall become a party to the proceedings in which such receiver shall be appointed, shall be entitled to receive all the income and profits of such property for the benefit of the holders of the bonds hereby secured.

Eleventh. Registered holders of [four-fifths] in amount of all the bonds hereby secured, and at the time outstanding, may, in their discretion, by writing, direct the trustee, at any sale or sales hereunder, to purchase the mortgaged premises for the use and benefit of all the holders of the bonds hereby secured then outstanding, and, when so directed, the trustee shall make such purchase for and on behalf of all the holders of outstanding bonds; and having purchased said property, the trustee shall have and hold the right and title thereto in trust for the benefit of all holders of outstanding bonds, in proportion to the amounts due upon such bonds; and in settling for the purchase price of the property so purchased, the trustee shall have power to receipt for the entire amount of the proceeds applicable to the payment of all such outstanding bonds and the interest thereon; and no bondholder shall have any claim to any portion of the proceeds of the property sold, or any interest in such purchase, other than for his proportionate share of the proceeds of such purchased premises, property, and franchises, as represented in a new company or corporation to be formed for the use and benefit of all holders of bonds hereby secured and then outstanding; and pursuant to such direction in writing of such holders of [four-fifths] in amount of the bonds then outstanding, the trustee shall transfer the property so purchased to a new corporation (which shall be organized in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as shall be so directed by such holders of [four-fifths] in amount of said bonds), in consideration of the issue of its stock, bonds, or debentures, and shall distribute and apply said stock, bonds, or debentures, according to any plan of reorganization or readjustment so agreed to by such holders of [four-fifths] in amount of the bonds then outstanding, or shall make disposition of the property purchased and of any cash collected thereon, or of any stock or bonds received in consideration thereof, in such manner and on such terms as so directed in writing by such holders of [four-fifths] in amount of said outstanding bonds; and in the organization of such new company, and in such plan of reorganization or readjustment, if so directed by such holders of [four-fifths] in amount of the outstanding bonds, but not otherwise, provision may be made for the interests of any or all of the holders of junior obligations of the railroad company, and its simple contract creditors, and its stockholders, or any of them, upon such terms and conditions as may be so approved by such holders of [four-fifths] in amount of said bonds: PROVIDED, however, that in case of any such purchase by the trustee upon such direction of such holders of [four-fifths] in amount of the outstanding bonds, and in behalf of all the holders of bonds secured hereby, all holders of bonds and obligations for interest thereon shall share ratably in such purchase, according to the amounts severally due upon the bonds and coupons held by them respectively, and that no preference or discrimination shall be made among the bondholders in the distribution of the new securities or other proceeds of the property so purchased by such trustee.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, HOWEVER, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as rendering it obligatory upon the holders of [four-fifths] in amount of said bonds to direct the trustee as aforesaid, or to purchase said property on behalf of the holders of all the outstanding bonds, it being agreed that, notwithstanding anything herein contained, any purchase may be made by or in behalf of bondholders for their sole use and benefit free from the claims of other bondholders, and shall be deemed so to have been made, unless expressly made by the trustee upon such an express direction of holders of [four-fifths] in amount of said bonds to purchase on behalf of all the bondholders.

Twelfth. In case of any default hereunder, continued as hereinbefore provided, if in order to preserve the franchises of the railroad company, and to avoid foreclosure and sale, involving the organization of a successor company, any plan of reorganization shall be proposed with provisions for the modification of this mortgage, so far as to authorize and require the creation of new liens upon the mortgaged premises prior and superior to the lien hereof; then and in every such case holders of [four-fifths] in amount of all outstanding bonds hereby secured, duly proved as herein provided, may, by writing, direct the trustee in behalf of all the holders of all bonds then or thereafter issued hereunder, to acquiesce in such provisions of such plan; which plan also may determine and provide for the interests of other creditors and lienors, and of the shareholders of the railroad company. This special power, however, is granted to such holders of [four-fifths] in amount of the bonds upon the express condition that no bond hereby secured, and then outstanding, shall be changed as to amount of principal, or rate, or dates of payment of interest. Thereupon, but not otherwise, the trustee shall, by writing, acquiesce in such provisions of such plan, and such acquiescence by the trustee shall constitute the irrevocable assent of all holders of bonds and coupons hereby secured to any such accepted modifications, as set forth in such plan and necessary to give effect to such provisions thereof. All such modifications so affecting this indenture, and the bonds and coupons hereby secured, shall be reduced to a written agreement between the railroad company and the trustee, and such agreement shall be recorded in the county of _____, state of _____, and thenceforth shall be deemed to be part of this indenture, and thereafter the lien of this indenture, and of the bonds hereby secured, shall be deemed to be and shall be subordinate to such new and prior liens created pursuant to such plan, but only to the extent specified in such written agreement.

Thirteenth. Said railroad company, for itself, its successors and assigns, hereby covenants and agrees to and with the said trust company, that it will, on or before the first day of _____, 19____, pay over and deliver to said trust company, its successor or successors in this trust, the sum of _____ dollars, in current funds, or gold coin of the United States of America, of the present standard weight and firmness, and that said railroad company will thereafter annually, on the first day of _____, in each year, during the continuance of this trust, pay over to said trustee, the sum of _____ dollars as aforesaid, until the sum so paid by said railroad company, and in the hands of said trustee, shall equal the amount of the indebtedness, with interest thereon, hereby secured; provided, however, and it is expressly understood and agreed that said railroad company may, in lieu of said first mentioned sum of _____ dollars, or in lieu of any or all subsequent payments of each, deliver to said trustee _____ of the bonds hereby secured, and said trustee shall thereupon cancel said bonds so delivered, and give to said first party a receipt and discharge for such annual payment, to be as aforesaid made, and in lieu of which said bonds were so received.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that said trustee shall invest the moneys by it so received from time to time from said railroad company on said annual payments of dollars each, as provided in this thirteenth article hereof, in such securities as its board of directors shall authorize.

Fourteenth. The said railroad company shall have the right to redeem and pay and cancel on the first day of , 19 , and on the first day of , in each year thereafter, any or all of the bonds secured hereby, by paying for the bonds so redeemed the sum of dollars for each dollar ($) bond, and all accrued interest thereon. The railroad company shall, not less than ninety (90) days before such proposed redemption, give written notice to the trustee of the number of said bonds, which it so desires to redeem and pay, and the serial numbers of the bonds so to be redeemed and paid shall be ascertained by the trustee by drawing lots in the manner following, viz.: the trustee shall cause to be prepared cards of equal size, containing the numbers of all outstanding bonds, one number on each card, and a drawing lot shall then be made in the presence of a notary public until the requisite amount of bonds shall have been drawn, the result of which drawing shall be certified by said notary, under his hand and official seal, describing by numbers the bonds so drawn, and a copy of such certificate of drawing shall thereupon be delivered to the trustee, and a copy to the president or treasurer of the railroad company. Notice of the numbers of the bonds thus drawn shall thereupon be given by the railroad company by advertisement published once a week for six weeks in a newspaper published in the city of , and in the city of New York, N. Y., stating the numbers of the bonds so drawn for redemption, and the time for the presentation and surrender thereof for redemption at the office of the trustee, in the city of New York, which time shall not be less than forty-five (45) days from the date of the beginning of such publication. The railroad company shall on or before such respective first days of , deposit with the trustee, proof of such publication, and upon such deposit and publication having been made, as aforesaid, and after the date so fixed for redemption and surrender, the bonds of the numbers designated in such publication shall, upon presentation to the trustee, be paid by the trustee, and by the trustee cancelled and returned so cancelled to the railroad company, and the debt of the railroad company shall to that extent be extinguished, and after such date for presentation and surrender all interest shall cease on the bonds so called.

Fifteenth. All payments of principal and interest upon the bonds secured hereby shall be made at the office of the railroad company, in the city of New York. In the event that notice shall at any time be given to the company that any bond certified and issued hereunder, has been lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated, upon the surrender of any such mutilated bond, or upon the filing with the trustee of satisfactory evidence of such loss or destruction, the railroad company, in its discretion, and upon proof satisfactory to it that such bond and the unpaid coupons thereof have been so lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated, and upon such terms, as to security and otherwise, as shall be agreed to by the trustee, may issue, and the trustee may certify a new bond, bearing the same serial number, in lieu, substitution, or exchange for, and upon cancellation of the bond so mutilated, and in lieu of the bond so lost, stolen, or destroyed.

Sixteenth. The railroad company, for itself, its successors and assigns, in consideration of the premises, hereby constitutes and appoints the trustee its agent for the transfer and registration of said bonds, and hereby agrees that it shall be reimbursed for its services as such agent, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in relation to this trust.

Upon presentation of any coupon bond which shall have been registered as aforesaid, with the order or assignment of the registered holder, the same shall be transferred upon the books of registry to the person named in such written order or assignment, and thereafter such transferee or transferees of such bond shall be held to be the owner or owners thereof, with all incidental rights and powers, and from time to time such transfers may be made as the registered holder of any such bond for the time being may direct as aforesaid. The registered holder of any such coupon bond shall also have the right to register the same as payable to bearer, in which case transferability by delivery shall be restored, and thereafter the principal thereof shall be payable to any person presenting the same. Any holder of a coupon bond registered to bearer may cause such bond to be registered in the name of such holder with the same effect as a first registration thereof, and successive registrations as aforesaid may be made from time to time, as desired. Such registration of any coupon bond shall not restrain the negotiability of any coupon thereto belonging, but every such coupon shall continue to pass by delivery merely.

Seventeenth. The personal property and chattels hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, and any and all other personal or other property now or hereafter used, or to be used, in connection with said real estate, and belonging to the railroad company, whether attached to said realty or disconnected therefrom, or partly attached and partly disconnected, shall be real estate for all the purposes of this instrument, and shall be held and taken to be fixtures and appurtenances of the said railroad and part thereof, and are to be used and sold therewith, and not separate therefrom.

Eighteenth. And the railroad company doth hereby covenant and agree for itself, its successors and assigns, to and with the trustee, and its successor or successors, in said trust, and with such persons, firms, or corporations as shall from time to time become or be the holders of any of the bonds issued hereunder, that the railroad company shall and will from time to time hereafter, and in the manner herein set forth, provide for and pay the principal and interest of, and upon the bonds secured hereby, and the sinking fund payments hereunder, as the same become due and payable, and without deduction from either principal or interest for any tax or taxes which it may be required to pay, or retain therefrom, under or by reason of any present or future law, and that the railroad company will in due season pay, satisfy, and discharge all assessments, taxes, liens, and governmental or other charges that shall be lawfully assessed, charged, or imposed upon this mortgage, or upon the amounts and obligations intended to be secured hereby, or upon the railroad or other property or rights secured hereby, or any part or portion thereof, or the income and profits thereof, the lien of which might or could be held to be prior to the lien hereof, so that the priority hereof shall be fully preserved; and deliver to the trustee, annually on demand, the receipts of the proper officials or persons showing the payment of all such taxes, assessments, liens, and charges until the indebtedness intended to be hereby secured shall be fully paid.

The railroad company shall and will keep all buildings, machinery, movable property, fixtures, and rolling stock that may be at any time on said premises during the continuance of the indebtedness herein provided for, and covered by the provisions hereof, insured in such company or companies as the trustee may from time to time direct, for such sum or sums as such company or companies will insure for, to the fair insurable value thereof, such insurance to be for the benefit of the trustee, and the policies of such insurance to contain the usual mortgagee provisions that any loss thereunder shall be payable to the trustee hereunder, as its interest may then appear; and the railroad company shall deposit the policies of insurance or certificates thereof with the trustee, and unless said policies of insurance and said mortgagee provisions shall be without any pro-rating clause, then all the policies of insurance on said property and premises, whether in excess of the amount outstanding on said bonds or not, shall be made payable in case of loss to, and be deposited with the trustee; and in case of the neglect or refusal of the railroad company thus to insure and secure to said trustee the beneficial interest in such policy or policies of insurance, or to pay any taxes, assessments, or liens, for labor, or materials, or otherwise, and any charges as aforesaid, such trustee may at its option cause insurance to be effected in such companies, and in such manner as it may from time to time think best, and may pay such liens, taxes, or assessments, or purchase any outstanding certificates of tax sales thereof, or pay any other sum or sums of money that to it shall seem necessary for the protection of the lien of these presents, and to keep these presents a first lien upon said premises, and thereupon the railroad company shall and will, on demand, pay the premiums of such insurance, and all moneys thus paid for liens, taxes, assessments, and such other expenses or disbursements, as may be incidental thereto, or provided for herein, with interest thereon at six per cent. per annum, and all such moneys thus paid, with interest, as aforesaid, shall become and be an additional indebtedness secured by this mortgage, and to be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of the property, as aforesaid, if not otherwise paid by the railroad company.

And in case of any loss or damage by fire of or to any part of the insured premises, the money recoverable under such policy or policies shall be recovered by and in the name of and be payable to the trustee, which shall, if the railroad company shall, within sixty (60) days from the date of such loss, notify the said trustee of its desire to have such property restored, expend the said money, less its expenses, costs, and disbursements in recovering the same, in restoring the property so destroyed, so far as the amount recovered on said policy or policies shall be sufficient for that purpose, and deducting also therefrom a reasonable compensation for its services in that behalf; and the property, when so restored, or so far as the same may be restored, shall be subject to all the provisions of this mortgage or deed of trust, including insurance; and unless the company shall so notify the trustee, the trustee shall apply the amount so recovered, less its costs and expenses and a reasonable compensation for its services in that behalf, to the purchase and retirement of so many of said bonds as such money will purchase upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore provided.

Nineteenth. The railroad company agrees that upon demand of the trustee, from time to time, it will grant, convey, confirm, assign, transfer, and set over unto the trustee, all real and personal estate, corporate rights, and franchises which in any way or manner it shall acquire as appurtenant to, or in, or for use upon, or for the business of, any railroad hereby mortgaged, or as appurtenant to, or in, or for use upon, or for the business of, any leasehold estate hereby mortgaged [including all railroads and leasehold estates which shall hereafter become subject to the lien of this mortgage], and it shall and will also make, do, seal, execute, acknowledge, and deliver, or cause to be made, done, sealed, executed, acknowledged, and delivered all and every such further acts, matters, things, deeds, conveyances, bills of sale, and transfers, and assurances in the law, for the better assuring, conveying, and confirming unto the trustee all and singular the hereditaments and premises, estates and property hereby conveyed, or intended so to be, or which are hereby covenanted and agreed hereafter to be conveyed to the trustee, as it, or its counsel, learned in the law, shall reasonably require for better effectuating and carrying out the provisions, objects, and purposes of this instrument, and for securing payment of the principal and interest of the bonds intended to be hereby secured; all which estates shall be held by the trustee in, under and upon the several and respective trusts, and for the uses and purposes, and subject to the powers herein mentioned, declared, given, implied, or expressed.

But nothing expressed or implied in this indenture is intended, nor shall it be construed, to limit the right or power of the railroad company, hereinbefore reserved, by the use of its credit or means other than the bonds secured hereby, to construct or acquire, either free from or subject to incumbrance, other lines of railway, branches, or extensions, or interests therein, and to assume or create liens thereon superior and prior to the lien hereof.

And the railroad company, for itself, its successors and assigns, further covenants and agrees to and with the said trustee that at the time of the ensealing and delivery of these presents, it is well and lawfully seized of said property and rights herein described, and has a good, sure, perfect, absolute, and indefeasible estate of inheritance in fee simple therein, and has good right, full power and lawful authority to grant, bargain, sell, and convey the same in manner and form as aforesaid, and that the same are free from all other and former grants, mortgages, judgments, levies, liens, and incumbrances, and from taxes, assessments, and sales therefor, of any name, kind, nature, or description whatsoever; and the same in the peaceable and quiet possession of the party of the second part, its successor or successors, in the trust hereby created, and its or their assigns, against all and every person or persons lawfully claiming or to claim the whole or any part thereof, the railroad company will warrant and forever defend.

Twentieth. The railroad company covenants and agrees that it shall not and will not issue, negotiate, sell, or dispose of any bonds hereunder, in any manner other than in accordance with the provisions of this instrument, and the agreements in that behalf herein contained, and that in issuing, selling, negotiating, or otherwise disposing of such bonds, from time to time, it shall and will well and truly apply, or cause to be applied, the same, or the proceeds thereof, to and for purposes herein prescribed, and to and for no other or different purpose.

Twenty-first. The railroad company further covenants and agrees that it shall not and will not, at any time, insist upon or plead, or in any manner whatever set up, or claim, or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay law, or extension law, now or at any time hereafter in force in any locality where the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, may or shall be situate, nor will it claim, take, or insist on any benefit or advantage from any law now or hereafter in force, providing for the valuation or appraisalment of the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, prior to any sale or sales thereof to be made pursuant to any provision herein contained, or to the decree of any court of competent jurisdiction; nor after any such sale or sales, will it claim or exercise any right under any statute enacted by the congress of the United States, or by the legislature of any state or territory, to redeem the property so sold, or any part thereof; and it hereby expressly waives all benefit and advantage of any such law or laws; and it agrees that it will not apply for, or avail itself of, any injunction or stay of proceedings, nor hinder, delay, or impede the execution of any power herein granted and delegated to the trustee, but that it will suffer and permit the execution of every such power, as though no such law or laws had been made or enacted.

Twenty-second. The railroad company further covenants and agrees that all lines of railway and property of every kind, and all interest therein, when and as, and to the extent hereafter acquired, as above provided, out of, or from bonds and the proceeds of bonds secured by this instrument, shall, without any further conveyance or assignment, immediately upon such acquisition, become and be subject to the lien of this indenture as fully and completely as though now owned by the railroad company, and expressly and specifically conveyed by, and embraced in, the granting clauses of this indenture.

Twenty-third. It is further mutually agreed that in case at any time it shall become necessary, or in the judgment of the trustee be for the interest of the bondholders hereby secured, or for the benefit of the mortgaged property, that the railroad company shall make changes or alterations in, or substitutions of, any leases, contracts, or trackage rights, by which the railroad company now secures access to any point or points, the railroad company, with the written consent of the trustee, may make any such changes, alterations, or substitutions.

The railroad company, with the written consent of the trustee, may make, or cause to be made, executed, and delivered, all such instruments in writing as may be proper and necessary to carry out and perfect any and all changes, alterations, or substitutions authorized in this article when and as the same may be made.

At the same time, ample provision shall be made by apt and sufficient instruments in writing, so that such modified, altered, or substituted leases, contracts, or trackage rights shall be, and forthwith become bound by, and subject to, the terms of this indenture in the same manner as the then existing leases, contracts, and trackage rights.

Twenty-fourth. It is mutually agreed that, provided there shall then be no continuing default in respect of which the trustee or bondholders by appropriate action shall then be asserting rights hereby conferred, the trustee, upon request of the railroad company, at any time or times, in its discretion, may release from the lien and operation of this instrument, and of the bonds hereby secured, any premises acquired, held, or used by the railroad company for the purpose of stations, depots, shops, or other buildings or erections, or for other uses not connected with the maintenance or operation of some part of the lines of railway then subject to the lien of this instrument, or any premises which may have been acquired or held for the supply of gravel, fuel, and other materials for the purposes of such lines of railway; provided, that, in the judgment of the trustee, at the time of such release, such premises shall no longer be requisite for the purposes for which the same shall have been so acquired or used, or necessary or expedient to be retained for use in connection with such lines of railway, and likewise it may release any parts of the line of track or roadway, or of the depot grounds, buildings, or accommodations connected therewith, which, at the time of such release, may have been thrown out of use and have ceased to form part of such lines of railway by reason of the straightening, alteration, or abandonment of such part of the lines of railway; but the power of release given by this article is to be exercised only in case the railroad company shall sell or contract to sell the property so to be released, because no longer required for the uses or purposes of such railways, and shall require the same to be released, in order to give good title to the purchaser or purchasers thereof. The proceeds of any and all such sales shall be invested in the purchase of other property, real or personal, which shall be conveyed in trust by the railroad company to the trustee, subject to all the trusts hereby declared, or in the purchase of bonds hereby secured (which bonds shall forthwith be cancelled and delivered to the trustee), or in betterments or improvements, or in some other way, to the benefit of the mortgaged premises, and satisfaction of the trustee. When such released premises shall have been thrown out of use, or shall have ceased to be required, by reason of changes of the line of the road on or along the routes aforesaid, or any of them, or change of depot grounds, buildings, or other accommodations, the substitutes therefor acquired by the railway company, ipso facto, shall become and be subject to the lien of this indenture, the same as though specifically mortgaged hereby, and as a condition of such release they shall be conveyed to the trustee by appropriate deeds upon the trusts and for the purposes of this indenture. The railroad company, from time to time, shall also have full power, according to its discretion, to dispose of such materials, machinery, rolling stock, and other movable property, at any time held or acquired for the use of any lines of railway, as may have become old, worn out, disused, or undesirable, or not needed for use for said railroad, on substituting therefor other property of equal or greater value, which shall become subject to the operation of this indenture.

In no event shall any purchaser or purchasers of any property sold or disposed of under any provision of this or the preceding article of this indenture be required to see to the application of the purchase money.

Twenty-fifth. No recourse under any obligation, covenant, or agreement of this instrument, or of any bond or coupon hereby secured, shall be had against any incorporator, stockholder, officer, or director of the railroad company, either directly or through the railroad company, by the enforcement of any assessment, or by any legal or equitable proceeding by virtue of any statute or otherwise; it being expressly agreed and understood that this mortgage and the obligations hereby secured are solely corporate obligations, and that no personal liability whatever shall attach to, or be incurred by the incorporators, stockholders, officers, or directors of the railroad company, or any or either of them, under or by reason of any or either of the obligations, covenants, or agreements in this instrument, or in any of the bonds or coupons hereby secured, expressed, and contained, or implied therefrom, and that any and all personal liability of every name and nature, either at common law or in equity, or by statute, of every such incorporator, stockholder, officer, or director, is hereby expressly waived as a condition of, and consideration for, the execution and issue of this mortgage and such obligations.

Twenty-sixth. Subject to the security hereby created for the due payment of the principal money and interest mentioned in said bonds, and for the performance and observance of the conditions and obligations thereby or by this deed imposed on the railroad company, said trustee shall stand possessed of all and singular the premises and property hereinbefore referred to and intended to be conveyed, transferred, and assigned, or which may in any manner become subject to the lien and trusts herein, and the property and effects for the time being representing the same; in trust nevertheless, and provided, always, that if the railroad company, its successors and assigns, shall well and truly pay the sums of money, principal and interest, according to the terms and conditions hereof, and of the bonds secured hereby, as the same shall mature and become due and payable, and any and all other amounts payable by it under the provisions hereof, which said sums the railroad company doth hereby covenant and agree to pay as the same shall become due and payable, and shall well and truly keep and perform all the covenants, agreements, and undertakings herein and hereby assumed and required to be kept and performed, according to the true intent and meaning of these presents, then and in that case, the estate, right, title, and interest of the said trustee or its successors in and to the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, railroad or other property, or either of them, or any part thereof, shall cease and determine and become void, and the said trustee shall by a sufficient instrument in writing, if so requested by the railroad company, execute a release of this deed of trust or mortgage, whereby all the estate, right, title, and interest of the said trustee shall cease and determine. And the trustee hereby accepts the trusts herein created, and covenants to execute the same; provided, however, that the railroad company shall have the right to fix a time, after the maturity of the bonds secured hereby, at which payment of all unpaid bonds shall be made by it at its office in the city of New York, and give notice thereof for a period of at least three (3) months, by advertisement, published weekly in one newspaper in the city of New York, and in such other newspapers elsewhere as the trustee may direct, and as to all such bonds as may not be presented for payment pursuant to such advertisement, the railroad company shall have the right, at its election, either to pay the amount of the principal and interest thereon to such date so fixed as aforesaid, to the trustee herein for the time being, whereupon it shall be the duty of such trustee to enter satisfaction in full upon said mortgage, or grant a release with like effect as though paid to such bondholders at maturity, and retain the amount so paid by the railroad company for the benefit of the holders of such unpresented bonds, or else to require the trustee for the time being to enter satisfaction upon such mortgage or grant a release thereof to the extent of the amount of bonds already paid and surrendered, allowing the mortgage to stand thereafter as security only to the extent of the unrepresented bonds with interest thereon up to the date so fixed as aforesaid, after which all interest shall cease and determine upon all such unrepresented bonds.

Twenty-seventh. The trustee hereinbefore named, or any trustee hereunder, may be removed by an instrument in writing under the hands of a two-thirds in amount of the holders of the then outstanding bonds. It is further mutually agreed that in case of the dissolution, resignation, or inability to act of the said trustee, or in case of the removal of the said trustee by any court of competent jurisdiction, or in case of the removal of the trustee by the bondholders as hereinbefore provided, a new trustee may be appointed by the holders of two-thirds in amount of the then outstanding bonds by an instrument in writing signed by them, or by the appointment of such new trustee by any court of record in the county of _____, and state of _____, upon the nomination of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the bonds then outstanding. It is also mutually agreed between the parties hereto that the word "trustee," when and as used in these presents, and in the bonds secured hereby, is intended to refer to and describe, and shall be construed to mean the body or bodies corporate, or person or persons which or who for the time being shall be charged with the execution of the trusts under these presents, whether the same be the said party of the second part, or any successor or successors of the said party of the second part; and that every trustee of these presents shall be entitled to the ordinary indemnity, and security and right to reimbursement given to trustees, and that every trustee hereunder shall be entitled to be paid for all services by it rendered, by the railroad company out of the income of the trust property hereunder or otherwise, and shall not be answerable for any errors or mistakes made by it or him in good faith, but only for the gross neglect or wilful default in the discharge of its, his, or their duties as trustee, and also that every such trustee shall be entitled to just compensation for all services which it, he, or they may render in this trust, and that every trustee hereunder may at any time resign from the trust by notice in writing mailed, properly addressed, to the railroad company at least sixty (60) days before such resignation shall take place.

Twenty-eighth. It shall be no part of the duty of the trustee to record this instrument as a mortgage or conveyance of real estate, or to file or record the same as a chattel mortgage, or to refile or renew the same, or to procure any further, other, or additional instruments of further assurance, or to do any other act for the continuance of the lien of this indenture, or to give notice of the existence of the lien thereof, or to extend or supplement the lien sought to be created hereby; nor shall it be any part of the duty of the trustee hereunder [if mortgage contains insurance clause insert, to effect insurance against fire or other damage on any portion of the property hereby mortgaged, or to renew any policies of fire or other insurance, or] to keep itself informed or advised as to the payment of any taxes or assessments that may be imposed upon the property, real or personal, affected by this mortgage; or to require the payment of such taxes or assessments, but the trustee may, in its discretion, at the expense of the railroad company, do any or all of the matters or things in this article set forth, or require the same to be done.

Twenty-ninth. In case at any time it shall be necessary and proper for the trustee to make any investigation respecting any facts preparatory to taking or not taking any action, or doing or not doing anything, as such trustee, the certificate of the railroad company, under its corporate seal, attested by the signature of its president and the affidavit of one or more directors, shall be conclusive evidence of such fact to protect the trustee, in any action that it may take by reason of the supposed existence of such facts.

Thirtieth. In order to facilitate the record of this instrument the same may be simultaneously executed in several counterparts, each of which so executed shall be deemed to be original, and such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

Thirty-first. It is also further mutually covenanted and agreed that all the covenants, stipulations, promises, agreements, and provisions in this instrument contained, and of the bonds secured hereby, shall bind and be obligatory upon the successor or successors and assigns of the several parties hereto, whether so expressed or not.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused their respective corporate names to be hereunto subscribed by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized, and their respective corporate seals to be affixed, attested by their respective secretaries, on the day and year first above written.

THIS INDENTURE, made this day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and between the Railroad Company, a corporation created by and existing under the laws of the territory and state of , hereinafter called the company, and the Trust Company, of New York, a corporation created by and existing under the laws of the state of New York, trustee hereunder, and hereinafter called the trustee.

WHEREAS, the company has constructed under its charter, and now owns and operates a railroad about miles in length, running from , on the river, in the state of , through , to a point on the western boundary of the state of ; and also owns and may during the period of this trust acquire a large amount of rolling stock used and to be used upon its said railroad, and upon other railroads leased, operated, or controlled by it; and,

WHEREAS, the said company likewise owns, among other property, the shares hereinafter specified of the capital stocks of other railroad companies forming parts of its system and of other corporations operated in connection therewith; likewise the equitable and beneficial interest in the shares hereinafter specified of the capital stocks of other companies which are respectively owned by companies whose stocks are wholly owned or controlled by the company; likewise the bonds hereinafter specified of railroad and other companies forming parts of its said system; and,

WHEREAS, the hereinbefore described railroad, and rolling stock, and stocks and bonds are subject to a general mortgage, dated the day of , 188 , conveying the same to the said Trust Company of New York, as trustee thereunder, to secure the general mortgage bonds of said company, and subject to the priority of said general mortgage bonds, the principal of the income bonds therein named; and are likewise subject to certain mortgages, trusts, pledges, and liens set forth in said general mortgage and represented by the bonds and notes which have been and are to be acquired under the reorganization plan named in said general mortgage and deposited with the said trustee thereunder; and,

WHEREAS, there were issued or required to be issued under the terms of said reorganization plan and said general mortgage, million dollars of the income bonds of the company, in the forms set forth in the said general mortgage; and,

WHEREAS, the company has issued to the holders of its said income bonds a circular, dated , , called "Circular No. One," containing a plan of conversion of said income bonds, whereby said income bonds are to be exchanged for second mortgage bonds, to be issued by the company, a copy of which circular is hereto attached and marked Schedule A; and,

WHEREAS, for the purpose of carrying out said plan of conversion, and also for the purpose of providing for the expenditures from time to time necessary for improvements upon the railroads belonging to its said road and system as hereinafter more specifically defined, including equipment, as set forth in said Circular No. One, the company has resolved to issue its second mortgage bonds of two classes, called A and B; and to provide also for further issues of said bonds if necessary, all of said bonds to be equally secured by this second mortgage of the railroad and rolling stock and stocks, bonds, and other property hereby conveyed; and,

WHEREAS, said second mortgage bonds are all to be dated , , and to be payable , 19 , the principal and interest to be payable in gold coin of the United States of America, of the present standard of weight and fineness, or its equivalent, and the interest to be payable semi-annually on the first days of April and October in each year.

The rate of interest of class A of said second mortgage bonds to be two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) per centum per annum for the three months ending September 30, , and also for the following year ending September 30, ; three (3) per centum per annum for the year ending September 30, ; three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) per centum per annum for the year ending September 30, , and four (4) per centum per annum thereafter until maturity; and the rate of interest of class B of said second mortgage bonds to be four (4) per centum per annum from their date until maturity; and the rate of interest of any further bonds issued under this mortgage to be likewise four (4) per centum per annum; and,

WHEREAS, said second mortgage bonds designated as class A are to be limited to the amount of million dollars, and are to be used only for exchange at par for said income bonds, and those designated as class B are to be limited to the amount of million dollars, and are not to be issued in excess of million dollars in any one year, the proceeds thereof to be used only for the purposes hereinafter set forth, and after all of said bonds designated as class B shall have been issued, and their proceeds applied as hereinafter provided, the directors of the company may, if in their judgment it is expedient to do so, from time to time authorize the issue of further second mortgage bonds to an amount not exceeding million dollars of said bonds in any one year, and only in the manner and for the purposes hereinafter set forth, the aggregate of such further issues not to exceed a total limit of million dollars; and,

WHEREAS, the said second mortgage bonds are to be issued in denominations of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars for the coupon bonds, and of five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, ten thousand dollars, and fifty thousand dollars for the registered bonds, and are to be substantially in the forms following, the said forms being those of said class A bonds, and said class B bonds; and the forms of any further bonds issued hereunder to be the same as those of said class B bonds, with the omission of the designation "Class B."

|---|-------------|
| M. & P. first mortgage 7 per cent. bonds, par | $1,000,000 |

which were formerly pledged to secure the 5 per cent. mortgage bonds of the company, but are now held by the said trustee under said general mortgage, all of said 5 per cent. bonds and the indenture of trust securing the same having been canceled and discharged.

|---|-----------|
| N. & M. Railroad Company 6 per cent. bonds, par | $600,000 |
|---|-----------|

which were formerly pledged to secure the sinking fund only, of the 5 per cent. mortgage bonds of the company, but are now held by the said trustee under said general mortgage, all of said 5 per cent. bonds and the indenture of trust securing the same having been canceled and discharged.

And the following bonds formerly pledged to the trustees under the land grant mortgage of the company to secure moneys lent by the said trustees to the company, but which are now held by the said trustee under said general mortgage, the said land-grant mortgage and all the bonds secured thereby having been canceled and discharged, viz.:

A. & F. Company's guarantee fund notes, par..... $1,000,000

g. All the bonds and notes of the company, now or hereafter acquired by said company under said reorganization plan, and now or hereafter held by the said trustee under said general mortgage, until said bonds or notes and the instruments of mortgage or pledge by which the same are secured shall have been duly canceled and discharged in accordance with the terms of said general mortgage, and of this indenture, and all bonds of other companies now or hereafter acquired by the company under said reorganization plan, and now or hereafter held by the said trustee under said general mortgage.

h. All of the said income bonds of the company acquired by said company by exchange of second mortgage bonds issued hereunder or otherwise.

i. Fifty thousand shares of the T. & F. Railroad Company, and million dollars of the first mortgage bonds of said company acquired under said reorganization plan, or the net proceeds of any sale of said shares and bonds, which sale the company is hereby authorized to make at its discretion — it being understood and agreed that the consent of all holders of bonds hereby secured, as well as of all holders of income bonds exchanging the same for bonds hereby secured, is hereby given to any such sale, and that the lien of these presents is to apply to the proceeds thereof in like manner as to said shares and bonds before such sale.

All of the said shares of capital stocks and all the said bonds, except the said income bonds, are the same shares and bonds which are mortgaged and conveyed to the said trustee by said general mortgage, and this mortgage is not intended to include, convey, or mortgage any shares of capital stocks or any bonds or any railroads, franchises, or property of the S. & S. Railway Company, of the N. & S. Railway Company, or of any of the subordinate companies forming parts of the system of said S. & S. Railway Company, nor any shares of capital stocks, nor any bonds, railroads, franchises, or property of any other company not included in said general mortgage.

To HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the premises and property hereby granted, bargained, and sold, conveyed, transferred, and assigned, and every part and parcel thereof, with all the appurtenances in anywise thereto belonging or appertaining, to the said trustee, its successors in said trust and its or their assigns, to its and their own use and behoof forever; subject to the said general mortgage and said other prior mortgages, liens, and pledges hereinbefore named.

IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, to and for the uses and purposes and upon the trusts hereinafter set forth:

First. The said second mortgage bonds shall be executed, certified, and issued for the following purposes:

I. Said bonds designated as class A, are hereby limited to the amount of million dollars, and shall be used for the purpose and only for the purpose of exchanging the same at par for the said income bonds of the company in accordance with the terms of said Circular No. One.

II. Said bonds designated as class B, are hereby limited to the amount of million dollars, and shall not be issued in any one year to a greater amount than million dollars of said bonds. Said class B bonds shall be certified by the trustee hereunder upon the presentation of a duly authenticated copy of a vote of the board of directors of the company authorizing such issue, and requesting such certification, and stating that the proceeds of the bonds thus issued shall be expended on specific improvements therein named (including equipment and the retirement of outstanding equipment trust bonds), upon the mileage of the system of the company, as it existed at the date of this mortgage, viz., on July 1, exclusive of the mileage of the S. & S. railway system, and of the roads of the M. & S. Railway Company. If said improvements in any one year shall not require an expenditure equal to the proceeds of said million dollars of said bonds, the surplus proceeds of said amount of said bonds shall be applied in the next year to such improvements for that year, but no greater amount shall be expended in any one year than the proceeds of million dollars of said bonds, and no such surplus shall be applied to expenditures for extensions beyond the mileage to which said proceeds are limited as aforesaid, as provided by the terms of said Circular No. One.

The mileage for improvements upon which the proceeds of said class B bonds may be expended in accordance with the foregoing provisions, is as follows: [Here recite same.]

III. If, after all the bonds designated as class B shall have been issued and their proceeds applied as aforesaid, it shall in the judgment of the directors of the company be expedient, a further issue or issues of said second mortgage bonds may from time to time be made to an amount not exceeding million dollars of said bonds in any one year, in the same manner and for improvements upon the same mileage as is above prescribed in case of the issues of said class B bonds, the only difference being that the amount in each year shall be limited to million dollars instead of to million dollars of said bonds; PROVIDED, that the aggregate further issues of said second mortgage bonds in addition to classes A and B shall not exceed a total limit of million dollars, in accordance with the terms of said Circular No. One.

Whenever the word "year" is used in this indenture in provisions relating to the limitation of issues of said second mortgage bonds, said word shall be held to mean the financial year of the company.

Second. The shares of other companies hereby conveyed, and any additional shares of the same companies hereafter acquired by the company shall, subject to said prior mortgage and liens, be transferred to and deposited with the said trustee to be used only in case of default and to be held subject to the terms of this indenture.

Until default and the continuation thereof, as hereinafter provided, the trustee shall, from time to time, as often as the company shall, in writing, so request, execute and deliver to the president for the time being of the company, or to such other person or persons as may be named in any such written request, a proxy or proxies to vote upon any or all such shares of stock at any annual, special, or other meetings of the stockholders respectively of the several companies whose shares of stock are deposited with and held by the trustee.

The shares of the E. & F. Railway Company and of the S. & R. Railroad Company, now covered by the guarantee fund mortgage of the company and deposited accordingly with the trustee under said mortgage, shall, subject to said general mortgage, be thus deposited with the trustee hereunder to hold as aforesaid as soon as all of the guarantee fund notes secured by said guarantee fund mortgage shall be paid, or in case of the sale of the shares of the said S. & R. Railroad Company, as aforesaid, the net proceeds of such sale shall be thus deposited instead of said shares.

In the event of any consolidation of companies, the shares of which are held on the trusts of this indenture, the trustee shall, upon the request in writing of the company, consent to such consolidation or consolidations, and shall exchange said shares for such shares of the consolidated company — to be held on the like trusts — as the shares originally held by the trustee may entitle it to receive under the agreement of consolidation.

In case the charters of any of said companies, whose shares shall be held under this indenture, expire by their terms during the existence of the trust hereby created, the company shall, on or before such expiration, take all proper steps to have said charters extended.

Unsecured bonds or notes of the company acquired under the provisions of said reorganization plan, by exchange, purchase, or otherwise, shall be at once canceled. Secured bonds or notes of the company heretofore issued and so acquired shall be held by the trustee, as security under this indenture, until all the bonds or notes secured by the same instrument of mortgage or pledge shall be acquired when they shall be canceled and such instrument discharged of record: PROVIDED, that no such cancellation and discharge shall be made until after the board of directors of the company shall have considered the matter, and after taking the advice of counsel learned in the law shall conclude that all the security of the bonds so to be canceled will, upon such cancellation and discharge, be preserved to and vested in the holders of the bonds secured hereby, subject to the lien of said general mortgage.

The income bonds of the company acquired under the conversion plan set forth in said Circular No. One, shall not be canceled but shall be held as security hereunder as hereinafter more fully provided.

Bonds of other railroad companies acquired before maturity under the provisions of said reorganization plan shall not be canceled, but shall be held and dealt with by the said trustee, as security under this indenture, subject to said general mortgage.

When any bonds of other railroad companies hereby mortgaged shall mature during the existence of the trust hereby created, the said trustee shall be entitled to receive all bonds issued in renewal or extension of the said bonds so mortgaged and maturing, and shall, upon the request in writing of the company, consent to such renewal or extension, and surrender the maturing bonds held by it in exchange for such new or extended bonds. If such bonds are not renewed, but are paid at maturity or prior thereto, the trustee shall, with the approval in the form of an official vote of the board of directors of the company, apply the proceeds thereof to acquiring any of the bonds or obligations of the company, or of any other company, the payment of the principal or interest of which has been guaranteed or assumed in whole or in part by it, the acquisition of which will either free the property hereby mortgaged from a prior incumbrance or preserve said mortgaged property unimpaired by substitution of an equivalent security.

Bonds of other railroad companies heretofore pledged or mortgaged to secure the company's funded indebtedness as aforesaid, shall, as soon as relieved from such pledge or mortgage, be forthwith transferred to and deposited with the trustee hereunder, to be held as security under this indenture.

When, under the provisions of said general mortgage, general mortgage bonds have been issued, to provide for the extension of the railroad or the laying of second or other additional main tracks upon the line of any railroad company, the shares of which or the beneficial interest in whose shares are or is mortgaged by said general mortgage, said railroad company may, as provided in said general mortgage, at the request of the company issue its bonds secured by mortgage or otherwise to an amount representing the cost of such extension or other additional main tracks, but in no event to exceed twenty thousand dollars per mile of such extension or of such other additional main tracks; which said bonds shall, subject to said general mortgage, be deposited with the trustee to be held as security under this indenture. Otherwise, except for the purpose of constructing such extensions and other additional main tracks and upon the request in writing of the company, no such railroad company shall add to its bonded indebtedness as existing at the date of this indenture.

Third. Said second mortgage bonds designated as class A, limited to million dollars as aforesaid, shall be certified by the trustee from time to time upon presentation and surrender of a like amount at par of the said income bonds. The income bonds thus surrendered shall not be canceled or discharged, but shall be held by the trustee hereunder as part of the security for all the bonds issued hereunder, so that the lien created by said general mortgage, to secure the principal of said income bonds subject to the priority of the general mortgage bonds, shall be preserved for the benefit of the holders of the bonds issued hereunder.

Said second mortgage bonds designated as class B, limited to million dollars as aforesaid, shall be certified by the trustee from time to time, but never to an amount exceeding million dollars of said bonds in any one year as hereinbefore provided, upon the presentation of a duly authenticated copy of a vote of the board of directors of the company authorizing such issue, and requesting such certification, and stating that the proceeds of the bonds thus issued shall be expended on specific improvements therein named (including equipment and the retirement of outstanding equipment trust bonds), upon the mileage of the system of the company as it existed on July 1, 1892, as hereinbefore described.

If, after all said bonds designated as class B shall have been issued and their proceeds applied as hereinbefore provided, it shall, in the judgment of the directors of the company, be expedient at any time or from time to time to make a further issue or issues of said second mortgage bonds as aforesaid, the said trustee shall certify said bonds to an amount not exceeding million dollars of said bonds in any one year, upon the presentation of a duly authenticated vote of the directors of the company authorizing such issue, and requesting such certification, and containing statements as to the use of the proceeds of said bonds for improvements upon the said mileage of the system, including equipment as aforesaid, in the same manner as hereinbefore required in case of an issue of said class B bonds; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the aggregate further issues of said second mortgage bonds, in addition to classes A and B, shall not exceed a total limit of million dollars as hereinbefore provided.

The trustee shall in no case be responsible for the use made by the company of any of the bonds issued hereunder; but within eighteen months after any such request for certification as aforesaid the company shall make a full and specific report to the trustee, in writing, of the actual disposition of said bonds and the use of the proceeds thereof for improvements as aforesaid, which report shall be accessible at all times to the holder of any bonds issued hereunder.

For the purpose of carrying out the said conversion plan and to facilitate the exchange of bonds thereunder, the trustee may certify second mortgage class A bonds secured hereby in exchange for income bonds surrendered under the conversion plan to its agents, Messrs. B. B. & Co., London, upon receipt of advice from its said agents that they have received and hold said income bonds subject to the order of the trustee.

When, under the provisions of this indenture, it is necessary to ascertain or determine any question of fact, the certificate of the president or one of the vice-presidents, the chief engineer, and the general auditor of the company shall be accepted by the trustee and be binding upon the company and all other parties in interest, as conclusive of the fact or facts so certified.

In case any bond or bonds issued hereunder are mutilated, lost, or destroyed, it shall be lawful for the company, upon terms, conditions, and security to be prescribed by its board of directors, to issue a new bond or bonds of like tenor, amount, and date, and bearing the same serial numbers, and the officers of the company for the time being may sign, and the trustee may certify the same, for delivery in exchange for or in lieu of a bond or bonds so mutilated, lost, or destroyed.

Fourth. These premises are upon the express condition that upon the payment of the principal and interest of all of said second mortgage bonds according to their tenor, then, and in that case, all the estate, right, title, and interest of the said trustee, or its successors in the trust, shall cease, determine, and become void, and all the property and rights herein granted shall revert to and re-vest in the company, its successors and assigns, without any acknowledgment of satisfaction, re-conveyance, re-entry, or other act. Upon such payment the said trustee shall retransfer and deliver to the company all the shares of capital stocks and all the bonds of other companies and all other property which shall be then held under the trusts of this indenture.

Fifth. Until default shall be made in the payment of the principal or interest of said bonds as herein provided, or any of them, and such default shall continue for [six months] after demand in writing for such payment has been made by the trustee, or until default shall be made in respect to something by these presents required to be done by the company, and shall continue for [six months] after demand in writing for performance, the company shall possess, manage, operate, and enjoy the said hereinbefore granted railroad and property, and every part thereof, with its equipments and appurtenances, and all the rolling stock of the company wherever situated, and shall take and use the tolls, income, rents, issues, and profits thereof, and shall vote upon and receive the dividends upon all shares of stock hereby conveyed, and shall receive the interest of all bonds at any time held by the said trustee under this indenture, in the same manner and with the same effect as if this indenture had not been made.

Sixth. The trustee shall have full power to, and until default as aforesaid, upon the written request of the company, shall join in the sale and conveyance of any real estate acquired for or belonging to the railroad of the company herein mortgaged, and not required for use in connection with said railroad by reason of change of its location or otherwise; provided, however, that the proceeds of any lands so sold and conveyed (or any lands acquired in substitution for any so sold and conveyed), shall be conveyed and transferred to the trustee to be held as security under this indenture.

Until default and continuation thereof as aforesaid, the company may sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of such materials, rolling stock, and other movable property as have become old, worn out, disused, or undesirable, or are not needed for the purposes of the railroad, renewing the same or substituting therefor other property of equal or greater value, to be held as security under this indenture.

Until default and continuation thereof as aforesaid, the company may at any time during the existence of this trust, with the consent in writing of the holders of one-third in interest of the then outstanding bonds secured hereby, sell any of the shares or bonds of other companies conveyed to or deposited with the said trustee to be held as security under this indenture. In case of such sale, consented to as aforesaid, the said trustee shall, upon the request of the company, deliver, and join with the company in transferring, the shares or bonds so sold to the purchaser thereof, freed from the trusts of this indenture. All proceeds of any such sale of shares or bonds shall be paid to the said trustee, to be held and applied by it, with the approval of the board of directors of the company, to the purchase of any of the bonds or obligations of the company or of any other company, the payment of the principal or interest of which has been guaranteed or assumed in whole or in part by it, the acquisition of which will either free the property hereby mortgaged from a prior incumbrance or preserve said mortgaged property unimpaired by substitution of an equivalent security.

Seventh. In case the company shall fail to pay the principal, or any part thereof, or any installment of interest, or any part thereof, of any of the bonds secured or intended to be secured hereby, when and where the same shall become due and payable according to the tenor and effect of said bonds or of the coupons thereto annexed, and such default shall continue for [six months] after demand by the trustee in writing for such payment, or shall fail for said period of [six months] after demand in writing therefor to pay and discharge all taxes, charges, rates, levies, and assessments, which have been or may hereafter be imposed, assessed, or levied upon the mortgaged premises, franchises, or property, or any part thereof, or shall fail after [six months'] notice from said trustee, to keep said property in reasonable repair and condition, then, and in any such case, the said trustee, and its successors in said trust, may, and upon the demand in writing of the holders of a majority in interest of the then outstanding second mortgage bonds, shall enter upon and take possession of all and singular the said mortgaged premises and property herein mentioned and described, and shall be entitled to vote upon and receive the dividends upon said shares of stock, and to receive the interest upon the said bonds held by it as security as aforesaid, and by itself, or its agents duly constituted, shall have, use, operate, and enjoy the said railroad, rolling stock, and property, and the appurtenances thereto belonging, making from time to time all repairs, alterations, and additions thereto by the said trustee deemed needful, and paying all taxes due upon the same, and paying also any amounts due for interest or principal of said general mortgage bonds, or of any of the bonds or notes secured by any of said prior mortgages or pledges then undischarged, and, after deducting the expenses of all such repairs, alterations, and additions, and such taxes and payments, and all sums necessary for its indemnification and reasonable compensation, shall apply the net income of the said premises and property to the payment of the interest, from time to time due and unpaid, upon the bonds secured or intended to be secured by this mortgage, and may retain and continue such possession and use until the whole of the interest of all said bonds shall be paid, or may procure the appointment of a receiver and the application of the net income as aforesaid. This power of entry may be exercised as often as occasion therefor shall arise, in the judgment of the trustee, pending this trust, and the trustee may continue to exercise the power herein granted for such period or periods as it may deem expedient, unless and until the holders of a majority in interest of the bonds secured hereby then outstanding shall otherwise in writing request.

Eighth. And in case of any default as aforesaid, and continuation thereof as aforesaid, the said trustee, and its successors in said trust, may, and upon demand in writing as aforesaid shall, cause all of the said premises and property regarded as one property and not otherwise, and including the said stocks and bonds deposited and held as aforesaid, to be sold at public auction, at the city of _____, in the state of _____, giving notice of the time, place, and terms of said sale by publishing the same in some principal newspaper in each of the cities of Boston, New York, _____, and London, England, at least once a week for [three] successive months, the last publication to be at least [thirty] days before the time appointed for said sale, with power to adjourn said sale from time to time at its discretion, and upon such sale to execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereat good and sufficient deeds of conveyance in fee simple of said railroad, rolling stock, and other property, and make transfers and deliveries of said stocks and bonds, which shall be a bar against the company, its successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under it or them, of all right, interest, or claim in or to the said premises and property, or any part thereof. In case of such sale, no purchaser other than the trustee shall be responsible for the application of the purchase money. Said sale shall be made subject to said general mortgage and said other prior mortgages, liens, and pledges hereinbefore named then undischarged, and the said trustee shall, after deducting from the proceeds of the said sale, the costs and expenses thereof and any costs and expenses it may have incurred in or about the execution of this trust, and enough to indemnify and save itself harmless from all liabilities arising from this trust, and its reasonable compensation, apply so much of the proceeds of said sale as may be necessary to the payment pro rata of the interest of said second mortgage bonds unpaid and of the principal thereof, whether then or thereafter payable, and shall pay the residue of said proceeds, if any there be, to the company, its successors or assigns.

At any such sale, the said trustee may, and at the request of the holders of a majority in interest of the said second mortgage bonds then outstanding shall, bid for and purchase the premises and property so sold, at a price not exceeding the whole amount due on said bonds then outstanding, with interest accrued thereon, together with the proper costs and charges of the said trustee and the expenses of the sale, which said bonds to the amount of their par value and accrued interest — on payment in money of said costs, charges, and expenses, and of any other expenses required to be paid in cash — shall be received in payment of the price bid either by said trustee or any other purchaser. In case of any such foreclosure sale and the purchase by the trustee of the premises and property so sold, the trustee, at the request of the holders of a majority in interest of said second mortgage bonds then outstanding, and as their agent, shall proceed to organize a new corporation under the laws of the state of _____, with all the rights, privileges, grants, franchises, and immunities now exercised and enjoyed by the company. For the purposes of such organization and in all measures and proceedings adopted to effect the same, the action of the majority of said second mortgage bondholders through their agent, the said trustee, shall be binding upon the minority, whose interest in the mortgaged premises and property, after such organization, shall be represented solely by the shares of stock in the new corporation or such other interests as may be apportioned to them under said organization, plan, and agreement. Such new corporation shall be organized upon such terms, conditions, and limitations, and with such allowance to any or all other parties interested in said mortgaged premises, and in such manner as the holders of a majority in interest of the then outstanding second mortgage bond shall in writing direct, and the trustee shall thereupon convey the premises and property so by it purchased to said new company or corporation so as aforesaid organized.

Ninth. In case of default in the payment of the interest of any of said second mortgage bonds, which default shall continue for [six months] as aforesaid, then the said trustee may, upon written notice to the company, declare the principal of all of said second mortgage bonds to be due and payable, and upon the request in writing of a majority in interest of the holders of the then outstanding second mortgage bonds, the trustee shall declare the said principal sum to be at once due and payable, and it shall be so held and deemed for the purposes of foreclosure and sale by either of the methods herein provided, and for all other purposes whatsoever.

Tenth. In case of any default in the payment of the interest or principal of said bonds, and continuation thereof for [six months] as aforesaid, the holders of a majority in interest of the said second mortgage bonds then outstanding, by an instrument in writing signed by them, and on their furnishing to the trustee reasonable means and indemnity for the payment of services, expenses, and liabilities to be incurred and performed in so doing, may require the said trustee to enforce either of the remedies by foreclosure or sale above provided in case of such default, or to waive any default. In case the trustee shall enter and take possession of the mortgaged property under any of the provisions of this indenture, and shall use and operate the same by means of a receiver or otherwise, and thereafter, before the principal of the said bonds shall have become due, the default under which such entry was made shall have been cured, and no interest shall remain due on any of the said bonds, and all other payments shall have been made, and all other acts done which are required to be made and done by the company under any of the provisions of this indenture, the trustee shall restore, re-convey and re-deliver to the company all the mortgaged property to be held in the same manner as if no such default had been made.

Eleventh. In case of any default continuing as aforesaid, a foreclosure by entry and taking possession as hereinbefore provided shall not be held to waive the remedy by sale as also hereinbefore provided, but said power of sale may be exercised by said trustee, and its successors in said trust, at any time while such possession under such entry continues, upon the request in writing signed by the holders of a majority in interest of said second mortgage bonds then outstanding, and upon compliance with the terms above provided in regard to the manner, place, and notice of such sale.

The trustee may in case of default as aforesaid apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for instruction as to matters not herein expressly provided for. It is hereby expressly declared and agreed that the rights of entry and sale hereinbefore granted are intended as cumulative remedies, and shall not deprive the said trustee, or the beneficiaries acting through such trustee, of any legal or equitable remedy appropriate to enforce the provisions of this instrument; PROVIDED, that all such proceedings shall be taken by the mortgagee or trustee, its successor or successors in trust, and not by bondholders, either individually or collectively.

Twelfth. [Here insert articles fourth, twenty-first, and other proper provisions from Form No. 1320.]

Thirteenth. In case default shall be made in the payment of the principal or interest of any of the bonds held by the trustee as security under this indenture, the trustee may, in its discretion, and for the benefit of the trust hereby created, enforce or procure the enforcement of any of the remedies given to bondholders in case of such default by the instrument by which such bonds are secured, and if said bonds so in default are secured by mortgage or pledge, the trustee may, and, upon the request in writing expressed in the form of an official vote of the board of directors of the company, shall purchase said mortgaged or pledged property at any foreclosure or other sale, which property so purchased shall be held as security under this indenture.

In case of any default under the terms of this indenture the company may by a vote of its directors waive the provisions in this indenture contained in regard to continuation of default for [six months] before enforcement of the remedies herein provided.

Fourteenth. The company, for itself and its successors and assigns doth hereby covenant and agree with the said trustee, and its successors in the trust and assigns, to pay the principal and interest of all of said second mortgage bonds according to the terms thereof and of this indenture, and all taxes, charges, rates, levies, and assessments upon the mortgaged premises and property, to keep the mortgaged property in reasonable repair and condition, and to execute and deliver any further reasonable or necessary conveyances and transfers of said premises, franchises, and property, or any part thereof, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired, to the said trustee, its successors in said trust and assigns, which may be required for the more fully assuring and conveying said premises and property, and carrying into effect the objects and purposes of these presents, and to do at its own expense all things necessary and proper to be done, in order to make and keep valid and intact this trust and mortgage upon the aforesaid premises and property; and doth further covenant and agree that no additional bonds of any of its previous bond issues shall be issued by it during the existence of this trust, excepting such issues of its general mortgage bonds as are provided for by the terms of its said general mortgage.

For further assuring to the said trustee the property and rights meant to be vested in it by this indenture, the company hereby constitutes said trustee its attorney irrevocable to ask and receive payment, conveyance, and delivery of all and every part of the mortgaged property, real and personal, intended at any time to be transferred to and vested in it under the operation of this indenture, and for such purpose authorizes the said trustee to use the name of the said company, to give effectual releases and discharges, and to employ such attorneys or agents in relation to the premises as said trustee shall think fit.

Fifteenth. It is expressly agreed that during the continuance of this trust when any occasion arises therefor, except as to matters the determination of which has been by the terms of this instrument left to the discretion of the trustee, the holders of a majority in interest of the second mortgage bonds outstanding may from time to time instruct the trustee by requisition in writing as to what course the trustee shall take in enforcing or protecting their rights hereunder, and upon such written requisition accompanied, if said trustee so elects, with the deposit in the hands of the trustee of the major part of all the outstanding bonds, in indemnification and support of said trustee's action, then it shall be the duty of the trustee for the time being to enforce the rights of such bondholders in the manner and to the extent prescribed in such requisition and not otherwise, unless such prescribed action shall be modified and recalled or changed by subsequent similar requisition or requisitions from time to time made; provided, however, that said action therein prescribed conforms to the provisions of this indenture, and does not impair any rights vested under this indenture in the holders of such minor part of said bonds as do not join in signing such requisition or requisitions; it being the intent of this provision to secure to the holders of the majority in interest respectively of all outstanding second mortgage bonds secured under and by this indenture the same control in prescribing the action of the trustee in any condition of affairs which may arise during the continuance of this trust as the holders of a majority of the company's stock possessed in the management of said company before such default.

pany, held on the day of , 18 , the foregoing resolutions having been submitted and read, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:—

“ WHEREAS, it is advisable that provision should be made for retiring the obligations of the company, and for other purposes calculated to promote its interests by a further issue of its bonds, secured by mortgage of its railroads, canals, real and personal estate, and corporate rights and franchises; therefore be it

“ Resolved, Under the power conferred by the act of the legislature of the state of , approved the day of , A. D. , entitled ‘An act ,’ etc., and every other power or authority exercisable in the premises;

“ I. That an issue of bonds of this company to be known as the first preference income mortgage bonds is hereby authorized to the amount of twenty-five million dollars, payable on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and , with interest thereon meanwhile payable on the first day of February of each year only out of the net earnings of the railroad company for its fiscal year, ending on the thirtieth day of the preceding November, available for the purpose, up to five per centum per annum, after providing for the interest on the bonds issued from time to time under the general mortgage of the Railroad Company and the Coal Company, dated , , and all other fixed charges, the said net earnings to be ascertained in the manner set forth, and the said fixed charges being those stated and defined in the mortgage given to secure said bonds. The first payment of interest, including that earned from June 1 to December 1, , will be due on the 1st day of February, . If such net earnings of the railroad company available for the interest on said bonds shall not be sufficient to pay said interest in full, so much of said interest as shall remain unearned shall not accumulate.

“ II. That the said bonds shall be for one thousand dollars each, and they shall be substantially in the form following:

(FORM OF BOND.)

“ UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, STATE OF .
“ THE RAILROAD COMPANY.

“ $1,000.

No. .

“ First Preference Income Mortgage Bond.

“ Total issue, $25,000,000.

“ The Railroad Company hereby acknowledges itself indebted in the sum of one thousand dollars in gold coin of the United States of America, of the present standard weight and fineness, which sum the said company promises to pay to the bearer hereof, or [when registered as hereinafter provided], to the registered owner, at its office in the city of , on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and , with interest thereon meanwhile payable in like gold coin, on the delivery of the proper coupon therefor, on the first day of February of each year, only out of the net earnings of the railroad company for its fiscal year, ending on the thirtieth day of the preceding November, available for the purpose, up to five per centum per annum, after providing for the interest on the bonds issued from time to time under the general mortgage of The Railroad Company and The Coal Company, dated , 18 , and all other fixed charges; the said net earnings to be ascertained in the manner set forth, and the said fixed charges being those stated and defined in the mortgage given to secure this bond. The first payment of interest, including that earned from June 1, to December 1, , will be due on the 1st day of February, . If such net earnings of the railroad company available for the interest hereon shall not be sufficient to pay said interest in full, so much of said interest as shall remain unearned shall not accumulate. The said principal, and interest thereon, when earned as aforesaid, will be paid without deduction from either principal or interest for any tax or taxes which may be payable under any present or future laws of the United States of America, or any state thereof, for national, state, or municipal purposes, the railroad company hereby agreeing to pay any such tax or taxes which it may now or hereafter be required by any such law to retain therefrom.

"This bond may be registered on the books of the said railroad company, either in , or at the agency of the company in either of the cities of New York or London, and if so registered it will thereafter be transferable only upon the books of the said company, (wherever registered), by the owner in person, or by attorney duly authorized, according to the rules established for that purpose, unless the last preceding transfer shall have been to bearer, and transferability by delivery thereby restored, and it shall continue to be susceptible of successive registrations and transfers to bearer at the option of the holder, but such registration shall not affect the negotiability of the coupons attached hereto.

"This bond is one of an issue of bonds, amounting in the aggregate to twenty-five million dollars, secured by a mortgage bearing even date herewith, called the first preference income mortgage, duly authorized, executed, and delivered by the said railroad company and by the Coal Company to The Trust Company, of the city of , in trust, to secure the payment of the principal of the said bonds when due, and the interest thereon when earned, and is subject to the provisions of the said mortgage-as therein set forth, which said mortgage is subordinate in lien to a certain other mortgage of the said railroad company and the Coal Company, dated the day of , , and called the general mortgage, given to secure an issue of bonds of $100,000,000, to which mortgage reference is made for the terms and conditions of the same. This bond will not become obligatory until the certificate indorsed hereon shall have been signed by the trustee.

"IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Railroad Company has caused its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its assistant secretary, and this bond to be signed by its first register, this third day of January, one thousand nine hundred and .

(FORM OF TRUSTEE'S CERTIFICATE.)

" This bond is one of the issue of bonds described in the within mentioned mortgage or deed of trust, called the first preference income mortgage, dated , , executed by the Railroad Company, and the Coal Company, to the undersigned.

The Trust Company, of the City of , Trustee,
 By President.

" III. That bonds amounting in the aggregate to twenty-five million dollars shall be, and they are hereby authorized to be issued for the following purposes:

- (A) To be delivered to the stockholders, bondholders, and creditors of the Railroad Company and the Coal Company, or their respective assigns, in payment of the moneys contributed by them respectively for the financial relief of the said companies..... $12,000,000
 - (B) To be delivered to the holders of the mortgage bonds of the Railroad Company, secured by the mortgage of said company dated July 1, (in case the bonds secured by said mortgage shall not be paid off or purchased by the railroad company before the 1st day of July,), as compensation for reduction of the rate of interest on said mortgage bonds and the accrued interest thereon 13,000,000
- $25,000,000

" IV. That none of the bonds thus set apart and appropriated shall be used for any other purpose: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if the said bonds or any portion thereof referred to in paragraph "B," as aforesaid, shall not be required to be used for the purposes therein specified, the railroad company shall have the right to use the said bonds, or such portion thereof as shall not be so required, for any other purpose.

" V. That each bond, the execution of which is hereby authorized, shall be authenticated by the certificate thereon of the Trust Company of the city of , trustee, or its successors in the trust, in the form hereinbefore set forth, and without such certificate no bond shall become obligatory nor be entitled to the benefit or security of the said mortgage.

" VI. That a mortgage dated , , shall be made to the Trust Company, of the city of , as trustee, securing all the said bonds, without distinction or priority of one over another, whether the same be issued contemporaneously with or subsequently to the date of the said mortgage, all of which bonds shall be taken to have been issued at the date of the said mortgage;" and,

WHEREAS, it was then further Resolved, that the said mortgage should be made in the form of this present indenture, which was then approved and adopted; and that the first register of the said railroad company should be authorized to sign the said bonds for one thousand dollars each, in the form prescribed, to the aggregate amount of twenty-five million dollars; and that the assistant secretary should be authorized to affix the corporate seal to the said bonds and to attest the execution thereof, and that the president, or, in his absence, the vice-president, should be authorized for and on behalf of the said railroad company, and as its act and deed, to affix its corporate seal to the said indenture of mortgage, and to acknowledge and deliver the same as its act and deed, and that the secretary be authorized to attest the execution of the same, and to cause the said indenture to be duly recorded.

All of which, by reference to the minutes of the said meeting, will more fully appear; and,

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the board of directors of the said coal company, held on the day of , , a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions of the managers of the said railroad company was laid before the said board, and thereupon it was resolved that the president, or, in his absence, the president pro tem., be authorized to affix the corporate seal of the said coal company to the indenture of mortgage referred to in the said resolutions, and to acknowledge and deliver the said indenture as the act and deed of said coal company, and that the secretary be authorized to attest the execution of the said indenture and to cause the same to be duly recorded; and,

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the stockholders of the said coal company, duly convened, upon the 1st day of , , whereat the entire number of the shares of the capital stock of the said coal company was represented, the preamble and resolutions adopted by the board of managers of the said railroad company as aforesaid, and the foregoing resolution passed by the board of directors of the said coal company, were laid before the meeting, and thereupon, by an unanimous vote representing the entire capital stock of the said coal company, the said resolution of the board of directors of the said coal company was approved, ratified, and confirmed.

All of which, by reference to the minutes of the said meeting, will more fully appear.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That the railroad company, for the better securing the payment of the principal of the aforesaid bonds and the interest thereof, when earned, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar, lawful money of the United States of America, to it paid by the trustee, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, hath granted, bargained, sold, aliened, enfeoffed, released, conveyed, confirmed, assigned, transferred, and set over, and by these presents, in pursuance of every power and authority it in this respect enabling, doth grant, bargain, sell, alien, enfeoff, release, convey, confirm, assign, transfer, and set over unto the trustee and its successors all the railroads of the railroad company, viz.: [Here insert full description.] rights of way, rails, bridges, wharves, fences, workshops, machinery, stations, offices, depots, depot grounds, engine-houses, buildings, improvements, tenements, and hereditaments now owned or which may hereafter be acquired by the railroad company, together with all locomotives, tenders, passenger cars, baggage cars, freight cars, coal cars, and all other engines, cars, carriages, and rolling stock, tools, implements, and materials now belonging, or which may hereafter belong, to the railroad company, all the steam colliers, vessels, canal boats, and barges of the railroad company, including, specifically, the following named steam colliers and steam tugs, enrolled in the office of the collector of customs of the port of _____; the steamship _____, of the burden of four hundred and thirty-six and eighty-eight one-hundredths tons, enrolled June _____, _____; the steamship _____, of the burden of six hundred and ninety-nine and ten one-hundredths tons, enrolled June _____, _____, etc.; and all ships, vessels, barges, and boats now or hereafter belonging to the railroad company; together with all and singular the tolls, rents, revenues, issues, profits, and income of the said railroad company, derived from said railroads, canals, and other property, and all the corporate and other rights, privileges, appurtenances, and franchises of the railroad company, acquired or to be acquired, connected with, or relating to the mortgaged premises; and together with all the streets, ways, alleys, passages, waters, water-courses, easements, rights, liberties, privileges, hereditaments, and appurtenances whatsoever unto any of the hereby granted and mentioned premises and estates belonging and appertaining, or to belong and appertain; and the reversions and remainders, rents, issues, profits, and income thereof; and all the estate, right, title, interest, property, claim, and demand, of every nature and kind whatsoever, of the railroad company, as well at law as in equity, of, in, and to the same and every part and parcel thereof.

AND AS FURTHER SECURITY FOR THE PAYMENT OF the principal of the bonds hereby secured, and the interest when earned as aforesaid, the railroad company does hereby assign and pledge, as collateral security, to the said trustee and its successors, one hundred and sixty thousand shares of the capital stock of the _____ Coal Company, now belonging to the said railroad company, of the par value of fifty dollars each, amounting in the aggregate, at par, to eight millions of dollars $8,000,000 00

AND THIS INDENTURE FURTHER WITNESSETH: That the _____ Coal Company, for the better securing the payment of the principal of the aforesaid bonds, and the interest thereof, when earned as aforesaid, and in consideration of the sum of one dollar lawful money of the United States of America, to it paid by the trustee, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, hath granted, bargained, sold, aliened, enfeoffed, released, conveyed, confirmed, assigned, transferred, and set over, and by these presents, in pursuance of every power and authority it in this respect enabling, doth grant, bargain, sell, alien, enfeoff, release, convey, confirm, assign, transfer, and set over unto the trustee and its successors all its coal lands, coal leases, iron ore lands, furnace properties, and other real estate, viz.: [Here give a full designation and description of the same.]

TOGETHER with all the other real estate of the coal company wherever the same may be situated, and all real estate which may be hereafter acquired by the said coal company, together with all railroads and all branches, extensions, sidings, and turnouts of any railroads now belonging to or which may hereafter be constructed or acquired by the said coal company, and all lands, coal leases, iron ore leases, mines, collieries, breakers, engines, workshops, machinery, offices, buildings, improvements, tenements, and hereditaments now owned, or which may hereafter be owned or acquired by the coal company, together with all the locomotives, tenders, coal cars, carriages, and all other engines, cars, and rolling stock, tools, implements, horses, mules, and materials now belonging, or which may hereafter belong, to the coal company, together with all and singular the tolls, rents, revenues, issues, profits, and income of the said coal company, and derived from said mortgaged property, and all the corporate and other rights, privileges, appurtenances, and franchises of the coal company, acquired or to be acquired, connected with or relating to the said lands, coal or iron mines, or other premises, or any of them, and together with all the streets, ways, alleys, passages, waters, water-courses, easements, rights, liberties, privileges, hereditaments, and appurtenances whatsoever unto any of the hereby granted and mentioned premises and estates belonging and appertaining, or to belong and appertain; and the reversions and remainders, rents, issues, profits, and income thereof; and all the estate, right, title, interest, property, claim, and demand of every nature and kind whatsoever, of the coal company, as well at law as in equity, of, in, and to the same and every part and parcel thereof.

AND AS FURTHER SECURITY FOR THE PAYMENT of the principal of the bonds hereby secured, and the interest thereof, when earned, the coal company does hereby assign and pledge, as collateral security, to the said trustee and its successors, subject to the prior pledge thereof by the coal company to the railroad company, under the mortgage dated July 1, , the following shares of the capital stock of the corporations hereinafter mentioned, viz.: [Here describe them.]

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the premises hereby granted or intended so to be by the railroad company and the coal company respectively, with the appurtenances, unto the trustee and its successors, to and for its and their only use and behoof, but in trust, nevertheless, for the use, benefit, and security, as hereinafter mentioned, of the holders of the aforesaid bonds, amounting together to the sum of twenty-five million dollars, subject, however, to the right of the railroad company and coal company to retain the free and uncontrolled use, possession, management, and enjoyment of the premises by them respectively conveyed, or intended so to be, until the trustee or its successor or successors in the trust shall be authorized, as hereinafter mentioned, to enter upon and take possession of or sell the same as hereinafter set forth, except as herein otherwise provided. This mortgage is subject to the prior lien of a certain other mortgage of the Railroad Company and the Coal Company, called the general mortgage, dated the day of , to secure an issue of bonds amounting to one hundred million dollars.

AND IT IS HEREBY DECLARED, COVENANTED, AND AGREED, as follows, each party to this indenture covenanting and agreeing for itself, its successors and assigns, and as to matters and things to be done or permitted by itself, its successors and assigns, alone: [Here follow provisions similar to those of an ordinary trust mortgage, or a collateral trust mortgage, except as follows:]

ARTICLE 3. The bonds hereby authorized, aggregating twenty-five million dollars, shall be appropriated and issued only for the purposes specifically set forth in the resolutions of the board of managers of the Railroad Company hereinbefore recited, and designated therein with the letters A and B, as follows:

| (B) To be delivered to the holders of the bonds of the Railroad Company, secured by the mortgage of said company, dated July 1, 187 (in case the bonds secured by said mortgage shall not be paid off or purchased by the railroad company before the 1st day of July,), as compensation for reduction of the rate of interest on said general mortgage bonds, and the accrued interest thereon | 13,000,000 |
| | <hr/> $25,000,000 <hr/> <hr/> |

And the railroad company hereby covenants and agrees that none of the said bonds shall be used for any other purposes than those set forth in said recited resolutions: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if the said bonds, or any portion thereof, referred to in paragraph "B," as aforesaid, shall not be required to be used for the purposes therein specified, the railroad company shall have the right to use the said bonds, or such portion thereof as shall not be so required, for any other purpose.

The trustee shall certify and deliver to the railroad company, from time to time, on its written request, all the bonds secured by this mortgage, to be by it applied as hereinbefore set forth.

All the bonds issued under this mortgage, whether the same be issued contemporaneously with or subsequently to the date of the said mortgage, shall have equality of lien without distinction or priority of one bond over another, which lien shall be of the date of the execution of this mortgage.

ARTICLE 4. The railroad company hereby covenants and agrees to apply the net earnings of the said railroad company, so far as the same may be available, after the payment of all fixed charges as hereinafter defined, to the payment of the interest up to five per cent. per annum upon the bonds hereby secured. If such net earnings of the railroad company available during each fiscal year for the payment of the interest on the bonds hereby secured shall not be sufficient to pay said interest in full, so much of the said interest as shall remain unearned shall not accumulate. It being expressly understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto, and by and among all the persons who shall be or become the owners of any of the said bonds, that the words "net earnings," shall be held to signify the sum remaining of the gross profits, earnings, incomes, and receipts of the property and business of the railroad company, from all sources during each fiscal year ending the 30th of November, after deducting therefrom all the expenses of maintaining, operating, renewing, replacing, and repairing its said property and premises, including such reasonable improvements thereof and additions thereto as shall be necessary for the safe, proper, and economical operation of the same; and also after deducting all taxes or assessments imposed upon or against the said property and business, or the incomes and earnings thereof, and all unsecured or other indebtedness arising from the said maintenance, operation, renewal, and repair of the said premises; and that the words "fixed charges," in the bonds hereby secured, shall include all existing rentals and guarantees of the railroad company and all interest charges upon its present fixed, funded, and other indebtedness, including the interest on the bonds issued from time to time under the general mortgage of the Railroad Company and the Coal Company, dated . The said net earnings, as above defined or described, shall not be diminished (except the surplus hereof remaining in any year after the payment in full of the said five per centum per annum upon the bonds hereby secured), by reason of any expenditures by the railroad company for any purposes not above mentioned, nor shall the said fixed charges include any additional fixed or other charges created subsequently hereto.

The railroad company, on or before the 15th day of January, , shall ascertain the net earnings applicable to interest on the bonds hereby secured for the period from June 1, , to December 1, , up to 7½ per centum for said period, and shall thereafter on or before the 15th day of January of each year, ascertain the net earnings for the fiscal year ending the preceding 30th of November, applicable to the interest hereby secured, up to five per cent. per annum, and the railroad company shall on or before the 15th day of January of each year furnish the trustee with a statement showing the amount of the net earnings applicable to the interest on the bonds secured by this mortgage, and give public notice of the rate of interest payable on said bonds. If the said trustee shall not be satisfied with the said statement, or if it be notified by the holders of bonds to the amount of one-tenth of the amount outstanding, that they object to the same, it shall be its duty to so notify the said railroad company within the period of thirty days from the rendition of said statement. And the said trustee shall have the right to inspect the books of the said railroad company by its proper officer or by an expert accountant appointed for the purpose, who shall be paid for his services by the said railroad company.

If the said difference for any reason shall not be adjusted by agreement between the trustee and the railroad company, or if the trustee be called upon to proceed by the holders of one-tenth of the amount of bonds outstanding secured by this mortgage, who shall also have duly indemnified the trustee against all liability for costs and expenses, then and in that event it shall be lawful for and the duty of the said trustee to file a bill in equity against the railroad company in any court of equity in the state of , for an account of the net earnings under the provisions of this mortgage, and if the final decree of the court shall be that there are such net earnings available, under the terms of this mortgage, for the purpose of paying the interest on the bonds secured by this mortgage beyond the amount set forth in the statement furnished by the railroad company to the said trustee, and advertised for payment, then, unless the railroad company shall, within three months after such final decree, pay the said balance of the net earnings so determined to be available and due as aforesaid, by way of interest to the said bondholders, such nonpayment shall constitute a default in the payment of interest, for which the trustee shall be authorized to proceed under the terms of the fifth article of this mortgage. The remedy herein provided for ascertaining the amount of the net earnings, in case of dispute, shall be exclusive of all others.

ARTICLE 5. If interest on said bonds shall be earned in any one year, and ascertained as provided in article fourth, and the railroad company, its successors or assigns, shall, at any time hereafter, after demand made in writing, omit, neglect, or refuse, for any period exceeding three months, to pay the said interest so earned on the bonds, intended to be hereby secured, or any of them, after the said interest shall have been earned and fallen due, according to the terms of the said bonds, or shall, after demand made in writing, omit, neglect, or refuse, for any period exceeding three months, to pay the principal of the aforesaid bonds, or any of them, after the said principal sum shall have fallen due according to the terms of the said bonds, then and in either such case, upon the written request of the holders of in amount of the bonds then outstanding, upon which default in the payment of interest or principal shall have been made, the trustee or its successor or successors in the trust for the time being may enter upon and take possession of the property and estate hereby granted or intended so to be, and operate, use, and manage the same to the best advantage, and appropriate the net income and proceeds derived therefrom (after deducting the expenses of this trust and such sum or sums as may be sufficient to indemnify the said trustee or trustees for the time being against any liability, loss, or damage for or on account of any matter or thing done by such trustee in good faith in the discharge of the trust), to the payment, first, of the interest on the general mortgage, dated , of the railroad company and coal company and on all prior mortgages when and as the interest thereon respectively becomes due, and second, without preference, priority, or distinction as to one bond over or as against another on account of the date of such bonds, or the times of their actual issue or otherwise, of the interest which shall have been earned and fallen due on the then outstanding bonds, hereinbefore mentioned and intended to be hereby secured; the said appropriation of income to be made pro rata in each case, until all of the said interest shall have been fully paid; and upon and after such entry by the said trustee, and during its possession of the hereby mortgaged property, it shall have, exercise, and enjoy the right to vote on all the shares of stock, and to perform any acts or to make or execute any requests, requisitions, or other instruments as holder of the shares of stock and bonds pledged or agreed to be pledged in this mortgage; or the said trustee for the time being shall, after or without entering upon or taking possession, as aforesaid, of the premises hereby granted or intended so to be, upon the written request of the holders of a like amount of the bonds then outstanding, upon which such default, as aforesaid, in the payment of interest or principal has been made, proceed to sell the property and estates hereby granted, or intended so to be, subject, however, to the lien of the said general mortgage of the railroad company and coal company, dated , and all prior mortgages, to the highest and best bidder or bidders, at public sale in the city of , first giving at least three months' notice of such intended sale by publication, containing a brief general description of the property to be sold, to be made once a week in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation, published in the city of _____, in the state of _____, in the city of New York, in the state of New York, and in the city of London in the kingdom of Great Britain, respectively, and grant and convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers, freed from all and every the trusts hereby created, and without liability on the part of such purchaser or purchasers to see to the application of the purchase money, and shall and will appropriate the purchase money, after deductions made for the expenses of the trust and indemnity to the trustee as aforesaid, of the payment as aforesaid, without preference, priority, or distinction of one bond over or as against another, on account of the date of such bonds, or the times of their actual issue or otherwise, first, of the interest which shall have been earned and fallen due on, and secondly, of the principal of the then outstanding bonds, hereinbefore mentioned and intended to be hereby secured, the said appropriation to be made pro rata, in each case, if the purchase money shall not be sufficient to pay in full the interest or principal of the said bonds as the case may be; and in the event of there being in the possession of the said trustee for the time being any portion of the trust estate, or the proceeds thereof, after the payment in full of the principal and interest of the aforesaid bonds, then the said trustee shall re-convey or re-transfer the said portion of the trust estate to the railroad company or coal company, by which it was granted or conveyed, and shall pay over the said portion of proceeds to the president for the time being of the railroad company, to be by him held in trust for such appropriation or payment thereof as may be by law required; it being distinctly understood and agreed, that in the event of any sale of the mortgaged premises, as hereinbefore mentioned, then and in such case the whole principal sum of each and all of the then outstanding bonds intended to be hereby secured, shall be deemed and taken to be forthwith due and payable: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, if before the said bonds shall have become due according to the terms thereof, and before the actual sale of the mortgaged premises, the railroad company or the coal company shall pay either to the bondholders or to the trustee for the time being on their behalf, all arrears of interest in default, and all expenses incurred by the trustee, or, if after entry, the trustee shall have received from the management and operation of said mortgaged premises sufficient to pay said interest and expenses, then the said trustee shall discontinue further proceedings for the sale of the mortgaged premises, and withdraw from any possession thereof that may have been taken, but such restoration and discontinuance of proceedings shall not in any case affect the right of the trustee to enter and proceed as herein provided for any subsequent default; and it being further distinctly understood, declared, and agreed, any law or usage, present or future, to the contrary notwithstanding, that the rights and remedies secured to the holders of the aforesaid bonds by this indenture, and the trusts therein declared, shall, as against the mortgaged premises and every part thereof, be exclusive of all others, and especially that no part of the mortgaged premises shall be levied upon, taken in execution, or sold under any judgment or decree obtained by the holder or holders of any of the said bonds against the railroad company for the payment of either principal or interest of the bonds intended to be hereby secured, unless such judgment or decree shall have been entered for the purpose of enforcing the trusts or powers of entry or of entry and sale hereinbefore contained; it being intended, for the better securing the largest possible price for the mortgaged premises, in the event of a sale thereof, that the mode of sale hereinbefore provided shall be exclusive of all others.

ARTICLE 13. The shares of stock of the different companies hereby assigned to the trustee, by way of collateral security for the payment of the principal and interest, when earned, of the bonds herein authorized, as well as all shares of stock which shall be acquired by the said railroad company in carrying into effect hereafter the provisions of this mortgage for the conversion or retirement of the stock and obligations of its leased or controlled lines, which when so acquired are to be pledged to the said trustee as hereinbefore provided, except fifty shares of the stock of each of said companies, or so many thereof as may be required to be retained by the railroad company or the coal company, respectively, to qualify officers and directors in each of said companies, shall, as such shares of stock come under the control of the railroad company or coal company, respectively, from time to time, including shares of stock when released from prior pledges, be forthwith transferred to, and new certificates issued in the name of, the railroad company and the coal company, respectively, which certificate shall be stamped with the words, "This certificate is deposited with, and held by, the trustee pursuant and subject to the terms of the general mortgage and of the first preference income mortgage of the _____ Railroad Company and the _____ Coal Company, dated _____."

The railroad company and the coal company respectively shall duly execute a transfer indorsed on such certificates in the following form: "For the consideration set forth in the first preference income mortgage of the _____ Railroad Company, and the _____ Coal Company, dated _____, said _____ Company does hereby bargain, sell, assign, and transfer unto the trustee of said mortgage, for the time being, all the capital stock named in the within certificate, subject to a prior transfer to the trustee of the general mortgage of the railroad company and coal company, dated _____, and does hereby constitute and appoint the trustee its true and lawful attorney irrevocable, for and in its name and stead, to sell, assign, transfer, and set over all or any part of the said stock, and for that purpose to make and execute all necessary acts of assignment and transfer, and one or more persons to substitute with like power; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the powers hereby granted shall not be exercised by the trustee until after it shall have proceeded to enforce its rights, and those of the bondholders under said mortgage, by entry or foreclosure, according to the terms thereof."

The said certificates so transferred shall be delivered to and deposited with the trustee, but no certificate for the shares of stock represented thereby shall be issued to the trustee, until after it shall have proceeded to enforce its rights and those of the bondholders under this mortgage by entry or foreclosure, according to the terms hereof.

The stamping of such certificates shall be entered upon the transfer book and register of each of said companies issuing the same.

The railroad company and coal company, respectively, their successors and assigns, until such proceedings shall have been taken, shall have the right to sell or transfer the shares of stock hereinbefore excepted from assignment, to such persons as it shall deem fit, but in trust for and subject to this mortgage, to enable the persons to whom such transfers shall be made to serve as officers and directors in the said companies, respectively, but such transfers shall be of no force and effect after such proceedings shall have been taken. The certificates of stock so sold or transferred shall be stamped as follows: "This certificate is held subject to the terms of the general mortgage and first preference income mortgage of the _____ Railroad Company, and the _____ Coal Company, dated _____, _____."

Until proceedings shall have been taken by the trustee to enforce the rights of the trustee and of the bondholders under this mortgage by entry or foreclosure, according to the terms hereof, the right to vote on said shares of stock shall remain with and be exercised by the railroad company and coal company, respectively, their successors and assigns, and all dividends on any of the said shares of stock shall belong and be paid to the railroad company and coal company, respectively. Simultaneously with the transfer to the trustee of the said shares of stock hereinbefore mentioned, the trustee shall make and deliver to the railroad company and coal company, respectively, powers of attorney or proxies authorizing and empowering the railroad company and coal company, respectively, their successors and assigns, to vote on all lawful occasions and for all lawful purposes on said shares of stock, respectively, and to collect all dividends and profits which shall accrue on said shares of stock, which said powers of attorney or proxies shall be irrevocable so long as no such proceedings shall have been taken, and shall be renewed by the trustee at any time and from time to time upon the request of the railroad company and coal company, respectively, unless such proceedings shall have been taken.

The assignment of the aforesaid shares of stock shall not prevent the consolidation and merger of any one or more of the companies, the stock of which is hereby pledged as collateral security, with any other or others of said companies, or with the _____ Railroad Company or the _____ Coal Company, but such consolidation and merger may be made under any existing or future laws, anything in this mortgage contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

ARTICLE 14. All the bonds and other securities hereby assigned, by way of collateral security, for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds herein authorized, to the trustee, as well as all bonds and other securities which shall be acquired by the said railroad company or coal company, respectively, in carrying into effect the provisions of this mortgage for the conversion or retirement of the obligations of the said companies, or the stocks and obligations of the leased and controlled lines of said railroad company, which bonds and other securities, when so acquired, are to be pledged to the said trustee as hereinbefore provided, shall be deposited with the trustee, and be stamped with the words, "Deposited pursuant and subject to the terms of the general mortgage and first preference income mortgage of the _____ Railroad Company and the _____ Coal Company, dated _____, _____," and shall remain in its custody and possession; but so long as no proceedings shall have been taken by the trustee to enforce the rights of the trustee and of the bondholders under this mortgage by entry or foreclosure, according to the terms hereof, the trustee, as the holder of said bonds and other securities, shall have no right, against the written objection of the railroad company or coal company, respectively, to do or perform any act or to make or execute any request, requisition, or other instrument which by the terms of the mortgages securing such bonds as the owners thereof shall be entitled to perform, make, or execute, but all the rights of the owners of such bonds may, at the option of the railroad company and coal company, respectively, and upon their respective requests, remain with and be exercised by the railroad company and coal company, respectively, their successors and assigns, and the trustee shall at any time, and from time to time, on request of the railroad company and coal company, respectively, make and deliver to the railroad company and coal company, respectively, powers of attorney or proxies authorizing and empowering the railroad company and coal company, respectively, their successors and assigns, to do and perform any and all lawful acts, and to make or execute all lawful requests, requisitions, or other instruments, including authority to collect all the interest which shall accrue on said bonds and other securities, which the said railroad company and coal company, respectively, owners of said bonds and other securities, could do or perform, make or execute if the said bonds and other securities were registered in their name and were in their custody and possession.

Until proceedings shall have been taken by the trustee, to enforce the rights of the trustee and of the bondholders under this mortgage, by entry or foreclosure, according to the terms hereof, all interest which may be or become due and payable on the said bonds and other securities shall belong, and be paid, to the railroad company and coal company, respectively.

Any or all the bonds or other securities herein assigned by way of collateral security to the trustee, or which shall be acquired in pursuance of the provisions of this mortgage, shall, upon the request of the railroad company, be surrendered by the trustee, for extension, exchange, or payment, according to such request; and any or all of the mortgages given to secure said bonds or other securities may be satisfied, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that any other bonds received in extension or exchange for said bonds or securities shall be delivered to the said trustee, and held by it upon the same trusts as those surrendered for such extension or exchange, and that all moneys received in payment for the said bonds or securities shall be applied in like manner as is prescribed in the fifteenth article of this mortgage, respecting the proceeds of any part of the mortgaged premises that may be sold.

ARTICLE 15. It shall be lawful for either the railroad company, its successors or assigns, or the coal company, its successors or assigns, to sell for cash, or on credit, or partly for cash and partly on credit, or to exchange any part or parts of the real or personal property hereby granted in mortgage by said companies, respectively (excepting the railroads and canals hereinbefore mentioned, and the stocks, bonds, and other securities herein pledged or agreed to be pledged), and to grant, convey, transfer, and assign the same to the purchaser or grantee free and discharged from the lien or operation of this indenture, and without liability on the part of such purchaser or grantee for the disposition made of the price paid, or of the property granted or transferred in exchange; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that before any sale or exchange of any real estate shall be made, the written consent thereto of the trustee for the time being shall be obtained; the railroad company and the coal company hereby covenanting with the trustee that the proceeds of all such sales, or an amount of money equal thereto, shall be forthwith invested, either in improving any remaining part of the mortgaged premises, or in the purchase of other property, real or personal, which property, as also any that may be acquired in exchange as aforesaid, shall become and be subject to this indenture of mortgage and all the trusts, including that of sale and exchange, herein declared, and shall be conveyed in mortgage to the said trustee for the time being, to be so held.

ARTICLE 16. It shall be lawful for the railroad company, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, to agree with the lessors or the assignees of the lessors of any lease or contract under which any railroad or canal is or may hereafter be held or operated by the railroad company, to any modification or change in the terms or conditions of such lease, or, with the written consent of the trustee for the time being, to surrender the said lease or any part of the demised property, whenever in the opinion of the railroad company such modification, change, or surrender would be advantageous to its interest; and, whenever authorized by any such lease or contract, it shall be lawful for the railroad company to sell or exchange, or, as lessees, to consent to the sale or exchange of any part of the demised property; and to convey, transfer, and assign the same without liability on the part of the purchaser or grantee for the disposition made of the price paid or the property transferred in exchange; the railroad company hereby declaring and covenanting that the proceeds of any sale of such demised property, which by the terms of the lease or contract shall be subject to its disposition, or a sum of money equivalent thereto, shall be forthwith invested by it in the improvement of any remaining part of the mortgaged premises, or in the purchase of other property, real or personal, which property, as also any that may be acquired in exchange for such demised property, shall become and be subject to this indenture of mortgage and all the trusts, including that of sale and exchange, herein declared, and shall be conveyed in mortgage to the said trustee for the time being, to be so held.

ARTICLE 17. If the railroad company and coal company, respectively, their successors or assigns, shall at any time during the continuance of these presents, desire to lease any part or parts of the mortgaged premises, it shall be lawful for the trustee, and it is hereby authorized to consent to such leases, and to join therein in such manner as to make this mortgage subject thereto, or to execute any agreements that may be necessary to that end.

ARTICLE 18. If the railroad company and coal company, respectively, their successors or assigns, shall, at any time during the continuance of these presents, desire to compromise, adjust, or settle any disputed title or claim to any part of the mortgaged premises, it shall be lawful for the trustee, and it is hereby authorized to release and discharge such part of the mortgaged premises from the lien of this mortgage.

ARTICLE 19. If the railroad company, its successors or assigns, shall, at any time during the continuance of these presents, desire to make any change in the location of any of its terminals or of the tracks, or of any of the station-houses, or other buildings or structures upon any part of the mortgaged premises, it shall be lawful for it so to do, and the trustee, upon conveyance to it, under the terms of this mortgage, of such new terminals, tracks, station-houses, buildings, or other structures, and the premises on which the same may be erected, is authorized, at the request of the railroad company, to release the former tracks, station-houses, buildings, and other structures and the premises on which they were erected, from the lien of this mortgage, and execute and deliver any and all instruments necessary and proper to effect such purpose.

ARTICLE 20. If, within thirty days after notice in writing to be given by the railroad company and coal company, respectively, to the trustee, specifying the property intended to be exchanged, leased, sold, or otherwise disposed of under the last preceding five articles, or either of them, and the price or other consideration to be received therefor, the trustee shall serve upon the railroad company or coal company, respectively, objections thereto in writing, that such price or other consideration is not a fair and just equivalent for the property to be exchanged, leased, sold, or otherwise disposed of, then in case of the service of such written objections, and continued difference of opinion between the railroad company and coal company, respectively, and the trustee, as to the adequacy of such price or other consideration, or the propriety in the interest of the bondholders hereby secured of the exercise in such instance of the powers herein conferred, it shall be the duty of the parties between whom such difference of opinion shall exist, and they are hereby authorized and required, to appoint from time to time an arbitrator or arbitrators to determine the adequacy of such price or other consideration, and the propriety as aforesaid of the exercise in such instance of said powers, and in case such arbitrator or arbitrators shall determine that such price or other consideration is a fair and just equivalent for the property to be exchanged or sold, or otherwise disposed of, and that it is proper that such power should be exercised, the trustee, notwithstanding such written objections, shall execute and deliver such release. The railroad company and coal company shall, on the 1st day of January in each year, until the 1st day of January, 19 , furnish to the trustee statements showing in detail the properties sold or exchanged, leased, or otherwise disposed of under the provisions of this mortgage, the proceeds of such sales, the properties, if any, received in exchange, and the manner in which said proceeds may have been invested during the preceding year.

ARTICLE 21. Subject to any assignment, pledge, or transfer heretofore made by the railroad company of any right, title, or interest in, to, or under certain mortgages of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of the Coal Company hereby granted and conveyed, which have heretofore been executed by the coal company, to secure any bond, obligation, or indebtedness of the coal company to the railroad company, and subject to the prior lien of the general mortgage of the railroad company and coal company, dated , , the said mortgages of the coal company shall be subordinate in lien, effect, and operation to this present indenture, and the railroad company doth hereby, to the full extent of its interest, present or reversionary, in such mortgages, waive and release its priority of lien upon the lands, tenements, and hereditaments therein described, in favor of this present indenture, and the railroad company hereby agrees forthwith, upon the payment and satisfaction of the mortgage or mortgages of the railroad company for which the said bonds and mortgages of the Coal Company may be held as security, to enter satisfaction upon such mortgages of the Coal Company.

ARTICLE 22. The railroad company and the coal company will from time to time perform, make, do, execute, acknowledge, and deliver all such further acts, deeds, conveyances, and assurances in the law, for the better assuring unto the trustee and its successors, in the trust hereby created, the premises hereby granted, or intended so to be, as may at any time be reasonably required by the said trustee or its successors, and will execute and deliver to the said trustee and its successors, from time to time, supplemental mortgages, conveyances, and transfers, conveying, as they may be acquired, to the trustee, all the railroads, canals, and other property, shares of stock, bonds, and securities which shall be acquired under the provisions of this mortgage, to be held by it under the terms hereof, with like effect as if specifically described herein; and will execute and deliver, with these presents, and from time to time hereafter when occasion shall require, and when requested by the trustee, such bills of sale and transfers, and other documents, in due form of law, as may be necessary and proper under the laws of the United States, or of any state or territory thereof, to vest in the trustee all and every the steamers, boats, and barges, and other floating equipment hereby mortgaged or intended so to be, to the end that the title of the party of the second part may be duly registered according to the said laws or any of them.

ARTICLE 23. This trust is accepted upon the express condition that the said trustee shall not, nor shall any future trustee or trustees, incur any liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of permitting or suffering the railroad company or the coal company, their and each of their successors or assigns, to retain or be in possession of the premises by them severally hereby mortgaged, or agreed, or intended so to be, or any part thereof, and to use and enjoy the same; nor shall the said trustee, or any future trustee or trustees, be or become responsible or liable for any destruction, deterioration, loss, injury, or damage which may be done or occur to the premises hereby mortgaged, or agreed or intended so to be, either by said railroad company, or said coal company, or their agents or servants, or by any other person or persons whomsoever; nor shall any such trustee or trustees, present or future, be in any way responsible for the consequences of any breach, on the part of the railroad company or coal company, of any of the covenants herein contained, nor of any act of the railroad company or coal company, their agents or servants; nor shall the said trustee or trustees, present or future, be or become liable or responsible for any cause, matter, or thing, except its, his, or their own willful and intentional breaches of the trusts herein expressed and contained.

Resolved, That the board of directors of the _____ Railway Company be, and it is hereby, directed, authorized, and empowered to cause to be executed and delivered, under the corporate seal of this company and the signatures of its president and secretary, a mortgage or deed of trust, to be known as the first consolidated mortgage deed, to the _____ Trust Company of New York, as trustee, upon all or any of the railroads, leasehold interests, equipment, franchises, contracts, and other property, real or personal, including stocks and bonds, and any interest or equity therein, of this company, to secure an issue of bonds not exceeding the aggregate sum of _____ millions of dollars, the principal thereof payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of weight and fineness, at the office or agency of this company in the city of New York on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and _____, with interest thereon at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually in like gold coin, at the said office or agency on the first days of January and July in each year; both principal and interest of the said bonds to be paid without deduction for any tax or taxes which this company may be lawfully required to pay or retain therefrom by any present or future laws, this company agreeing to pay any and all such tax or taxes; such bonds to be coupon bonds, giving the holders the right of registration of the principal thereof, and also the right to convert the same into full registered bonds.

Resolved, further, That, as and when so voted, from time to time, by the board of directors, the said million dollars of bonds may and shall be issued, certified, used, and delivered for the several following purposes, viz.: *

(A). million dollars of said bonds to be issued and certified presently for the purposes of this company, and when so certified, to be delivered to this company for its use.

(B). million dollars of said bonds not now to be issued, but, from time to time, hereafter to be issued, certified, and used in retiring and acquiring bonds to the amounts now outstanding secured by mortgages on various parts of the property of the railway company.

(C). million dollars of said bonds not now to be issued, but, from time to time, hereafter to be issued, certified, and used in acquiring the stocks of the Railroad Company and of the Railroad Company.

(D). million dollars of said bonds not now to be issued, but, from time to time, hereafter to be issued, certified, and used in retiring or acquiring equipment bonds, and equipment trust certificates, warrants, notes, or obligations which were outstanding liens upon certain equipment at the time of its acquisition by this company, and to reimburse this company for outlays heretofore and hereafter made by it for the retirement or acquisition of such equipment bonds and equipment trust certificates, warrants, notes, or obligations.

(E). million dollars of said bonds, from time to time thereafter to be issued, certified, and delivered, upon resolutions of the board of directors, and to be used only for the acquisition or construction of branch lines or extensions, or the acquisition of stocks or bonds thereof, or for the purchase of rolling stock, or for new construction or betterments, or for the purchase of additional property upon, along, or appurtenant to, lines of railway now or hereafter owned or controlled by this company; no greater amount than million dollars of said bonds to be issued, certified, or delivered in any one year; all such deliveries for such purposes to be made to the railway company, as from time to time shall be directed by said board:

Resolved, That the printed form of mortgage dated the day of , , now submitted to the meeting, be and the same is hereby approved as a sufficient compliance with the foregoing resolutions; and,

WHEREAS, the printed form of mortgage submitted to, and approved by, the stockholders at their said meeting was in the form of this indenture; and,

WHEREAS, the board of directors of the railway company, at a meeting thereof held at , on the day of , in the year nineteen hundred and , adopted a resolution in the following words, that is to say:

Resolved, That the president and secretary of the Railway Company be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed, in its behalf and under the corporate seal, in the form this day approved by the stockholders, and now submitted to and approved by this board, to execute and deliver a mortgage or deed of trust to be known as its first consolidated mortgage deed to the Trust Company of New York, as trustee, to secure the payment of the bonds of try being noted on the bond by the company's transfer agent, after which no transfer shall be valid unless made on the company's books by the registered owner and similarly noted on the bond, but the same may be discharged from registry by being transferred to bearer, after which transferability by delivery shall be restored, but it may again, from time to time, be registered or transferred to bearer as before; such registration, however, shall not affect the negotiability of the coupons by delivery merely. This bond is also exchangeable for a registered bond without coupons, as provided in said mortgage or deed of trust.

This bond shall not become obligatory for any purpose until it shall have been authenticated by the certificate, hereon indorsed, of the trustee under said mortgage or deed of trust.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Railway Company has caused these presents to be signed by its president or its assistant to the president or one of its vice-presidents, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and to be attested by its secretary or assistant secretary, and coupons for said interest with the engraved signature of its treasurer to be attached hereunto, this day of , . . .

President.

Secretary.

FORM OF INTEREST COUPON,

Of which the first is to be payable January 1, . . .

On the first day of , Railway Company will pay the bearer at its agency in the city of New York, N. Y., twenty-five dollars in gold coin, free from all taxes, being six months' interest then due on its first consolidated mortgage gold bond, No. .

Treasurer.

The said coupons to be authenticated by the engraved signature of the treasurer of the railroad company who shall be in office at the time when any portion of said bonds shall be issued, it being intended that the railroad company may adopt and use for that purpose the engraved signature of any person who shall have been its treasurer at the time when any portion of said bonds may have been issued, notwithstanding the fact that such person may have ceased to be the treasurer of the railroad company; and,

WHEREAS, it is further Resolved, That there shall be indorsed on each of said coupon bonds and registered bonds a certificate of the trustee, which certificate shall be the conclusive and only evidence that such bonds are entitled to the security of the mortgage or deed or trust therein mentioned, and that no bond shall be valid or obligatory for any purpose until such certificate shall have been executed by the trustee, such certificate to be substantially of the following tenor, viz.:

TRUSTEE'S CERTIFICATE.

This bond is one of the series of bonds described in the within-mentioned mortgage or deed or trust, executed by Railway Company to the undersigned.

Trust Company of New York,

Trustee.

By

Vice-President.

AND, WHEREAS, at said meeting of the board of directors of the railway company, resolutions were adopted in the words and figures following, that is to say:

Resolved, That the bonds to be issued under the mortgage or deed of trust, to be known as first consolidated mortgage deed, to the Trust Company of New York, trustee, this day authorized shall be used and disposed of as follows: [*Repeat here from resolution of stockholders, commencing at the , on page 1232.] And,

WHEREAS, in pursuance of said resolutions, and of all and every legal power and authority in it vested, the railway company proposes to make and execute, and from time to time to issue and deliver bonds secured hereby;

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH: That, in order to secure equally the payment of the principal and interest of all such bonds at any time outstanding and lawfully issued, whether at or after the date hereof, the railway company, party of the first part,

In consideration of the sum of one dollar to it duly paid by the trustee at or before the ensembling and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has executed and delivered these presents with all the covenants and conditions thereof, and has granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, enfeoffed, conveyed, confirmed, assigned, transferred, and set over, and by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, enfeoff, convey, confirm, assign, transfer, and set over, unto the trustee, party of the second part, its heirs, successors, and assigns forever:

All and singular, the following railroads, estates, leases, leasehold interests, properties, rights, franchises, and privileges of the railway company, that is to say:

The entire railroad now operated by the Railway Company, and extending as follows: [Here describe it particularly.]

Including always all portions of the above-described railways, and each and every one thereof, within the limits of any cities and towns above mentioned, and also all portions within the limits of any and all cities and towns not herein mentioned.

Also, all the right, title, estate, interest, and property of the railway company in and to any and all lines of railway, extensions, and branches, including the franchises appurtenant thereto, and any and all bonds, stocks, and other property of every kind or description (notwithstanding that the same are not now particularly set forth in this indenture), which from time to time, in the manner hereinafter provided, shall be designated in the verified certificates to be furnished by the railway company to the trustee whenever it shall make any call for any of the million dollars bonds reserved under the provisions of this indenture for the acquisition or construction of branch lines or extensions, or the acquisition of stocks or bonds thereof, or for the purchase of rolling stock, or for new construction or betterments, or for the purchase of additional property; and also any and all franchises and rights of every kind relating to any and all lines of railway, extensions, branches, and other property constructed or acquired from the use of such bonds or their proceeds. But, nevertheless, the railway company reserves, and shall continue to have, and from time to time may exercise, the right, by the employment of its credit, or of funds not derived from any use of such reserved bonds or their proceeds, to construct or acquire other lines of railway, or other branches, extensions, stocks, bonds, or other property, or interests therein, and to create liens thereon and on the franchises appurtenant thereto, and on the rents, income, and profits thereof, which liens, as to all such property, may be made superior and prior to all liens thereon by virtue of this indenture.

TOGETHER with all and singular the franchises, rights, and privileges now or hereafter appurtenant to, or used in connection with, the lines of railway above mentioned, or any branch or leased or operated line thereof. [Here take in from Form No. 1320, from † to †, pages 1179, 1180.]

Also the following shares of stock, to be transferred to the trustee as hereinafter provided: [Here describe them.]

Also the following bonds, to be delivered to the trustee as hereinafter provided: [Here describe them.]

Also, all the right, title, estate, interest, property, and franchises of the railway company of, in, and to any and all other lines of railway, extensions, and branches now owned, leased, or held by the railway company, or in which it has any interest whatsoever, wherever located, notwithstanding the same may not be particularly set forth or described in this indenture.

Also, all the right, title, estate, interest, property, and franchises of the railway company of, in, and to any and all lines of railway and branches by it hereafter acquired, held, owned, or leased, or in which it shall obtain and hold any interest, subject, nevertheless, to all conditions upon which any such property or interest shall be acquired, and to all provisions of this indenture concerning property hereafter acquired, and, as to any portion of such after-acquired property, subject also to the obligations, if any, secured by any pledge or mortgage of such property permitted by such provisions of this indenture.

And also, all property of every name and nature, from time to time hereafter, by delivery or by writing of any kind, for the purposes hereof, pledged, assigned, or transferred by the railroad company, or any one in its behalf, to the trustee, which is hereby authorized to receive any property, at any and all times, as and for additional security, and also, when and as hereinafter provided, as substituted security, for the payment of bonds issued, or to be issued hereunder, and to hold and apply any and all such property subject to the terms hereof.

It being intended to include within the grant of this indenture, all lines of railway, extensions, branches, leaseholds, operating contracts, real estate, railroad property (including such bonds and shares of stock as are hereinbefore specifically conveyed) and other property of every kind conveyed to or acquired by, or for the benefit of, the railway company, party of the first part hereto, under or in pursuance of the decrees confirming the sales in foreclosure, and the deeds of the special masters and others executed or to be executed pursuant to such decrees, in the several suits hereinafter mentioned and the several suits ancillary thereto, and also under the several corporate deeds hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: [here set forth at length the titles and substance of the proceedings, and the dates and dates of recording of the several deeds.]

ARTICLE 1. It is hereby mutually covenanted and agreed that all bonds hereby secured shall from time to time by the railway company be executed and delivered for certification to the trustee, which shall thereupon certify and deliver the same to the railway company, or upon its order, as herein provided, and not otherwise. Only such bonds as shall bear the trustee's certificate duly indorsed thereon, and duly signed, shall be secured by this indenture or shall be entitled to any lien or benefit hereunder; and every such certificate of the trustee upon any bond executed in behalf of the railway company shall be conclusive evidence that the bond so certified has been duly issued hereunder and is entitled to the benefit of the trusts hereby created. Such certificates may be made and bonds may be delivered hereunder in advance of registration or record of this indenture.

ARTICLE 2. Of the bonds authorized to be issued under and secured by this indenture, bonds to the amount of million dollars shall be certified by the trustee and delivered to the railway company, for its general purposes, immediately upon the execution and delivery of this indenture, or as soon as may be thereafter.

ARTICLE 3. Out of and from the remainder of such authorized issue, there shall be reserved, not immediately to be executed or certified by the trustee, bonds to the amount of million dollars, for the purpose of providing for the purchase, redemption, and acquisition by the trustee, as hereinafter provided, of the bonds now outstanding, secured by the following mortgages, which to the extent therein specified and in respect of the several properties therein mentioned are hereby expressly recognized and declared to constitute liens prior and superior to that created by this indenture. [Here insert full statement of same.]

The said million dollars of bonds hereby secured and reserved for the redemption, purchase, or acquisition of a like amount of bonds (hereinafter called "prior lien bonds") severally and respectively secured by the [twenty] mortgages last above mentioned shall from time to time be issued, certified, and delivered, only as follows, viz..

(a) Whenever and as often as the railway company shall tender, or cause to be tendered, any such prior lien bonds, together with all unmatured interest obligations thereunto belonging, the trustee forthwith shall receive the same, and in exchange therefor shall certify and deliver to the railway company, or upon its order, a like amount at par of the said bonds hereby secured and reserved.
